About Shorter

Shorter enters the weekend ninth in the Gulf South Conference standings with a 7-10 league record, but the Hawks are just two games out of fifth place, with a logjam of teams in the middle of the conference.

Shorter will bring in one of the stronger offenses in the conference to the UWF Softball Complex this weekend, ranking fifth in scoring (5.5 runs per game) and fourth in batting (.310).

Dani Lukas and Tiffany Holland have been outstanding in the batter's box for the Hawks this year. Lukas is hitting .450 with 15 extra-base hits and 36 RBIs while slugging .700, and Holland is batting .431 with a team-high 36 runs scored on the year.

There's a New No. 1 in Town

For the first time since 2005, the University of West Florida softball team holds the top spot in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association poll, the organization announced Wednesday. The Argonauts are 31-4 overall and 14-1 in Gulf South Conference play after sweeping Delta State last weekend.

UWF was ranked No. 3 in last week's poll and has the second-best winning percentage (.886) in the country, behind only No. 2 Central Oklahoma (.926). The Argos are the seventh consecutive No. 1 team in the poll, earning eight first-place votes from voting members. Last week's top team, North Georgia, finished third in the poll on Wednesday.

West Florida was last ranked No. 1 during its 60-6 season in 2005, a year that marked the most wins since the program moved to Division II.

NEWS AND NOTES

The Argonauts are among the most well-rounded teams in the country this season, ranking fourth in DII in shutouts (11), fifth in ERA (1.36), ninth in batting (.350), 12th in on-base percentage (.425), and 13th in fielding percentage (.974).

Four Gulf South Conference teams were ranked in the poll, including West Florida. Alabama Huntsville moved up to No. 10, Valdosta State came in at No. 16, and Mississippi College is 22nd.

Sweet Relief

West Florida has had one of the best pitching staffs in the country this year, ranking sixth in Division II with a 1.36 team ERA, and Grace Gilbert, Tori Perkins, and Kelsey Sweatt have been even better in relief. Across 37.0 innings of relief this year, the trio has struck out 41 batters, allowed opponents to hit just .133, and they have allowed just one earned run -- good for a 0.19 ERA.

Perkins, who has thrown 21.0 innings out of the bullpen, has struck out 20 batters and has posted a .113 opponent batting average, both of which lead the group.

So Clutch

UWF ranks eighth in Division II with a .350 batting average, and the Argos have been even better when it counts. West Florida is hitting an outstanding .357 with runners on and .364 with runners in scoring position.

On the flip side, the Argonaut pitching staff has held opponents to a .190 average with runners on, a .195 average with runners in scoring position, and a .194 average with two outs.

Kathleen Smiley Hits Pretty Well

Senior Kathleen Smiley has been on fire over the last two weeks, hitting .467 and slugging .667 in 12 games since March 10. She has had three multi-hit games in that time and four games with multiple RBIs -- two of each of those came last weekend at Delta State.

Since the 10th, Smiley leads UWF with 11 RBIs, 7 walks, and a .550 on-base percentage, and she is second on the team with 14 hits. Last week proved to be her best of the season so far, as she batted .727 (8-11) with a team-high four RBIs, 9 total bases, and .818 slugging percentage. The Pensacola native ranks ninth in UWF history with 19 career home runs.

How About Rhiannon Sassman

Senior Rhiannon Sassman has been on a tear in her senior season at West Florida, leading the Gulf South Conference with six triples and ranking in the top 20 in the country in doubles (11; 19th) and RBIs (35; 20th).

The senior broke the GSC career triples record on Wednesday, March 13, against Montevallo, passing Lincoln Memorial's Nikki Carter (1993-96) with her 22nd career three-bagger.

Sassman currently ranks seventh in UWF history with a .368 career batting average, fourth with a .601 career slugging percentage, sixth with 43 career doubles, third with 22 career triples, and first with 29 times hit by pitch. Her 22 triples also lead all active Division II softball players, rank second among active players at any NCAA level, and are the most in Gulf South Conference history.

Over five games from February 13-17, Sassman tallied 12 hits, scored eight runs, and slugged 1.471, while stealing four bases and not striking out on the way to earning her first GSC Player of the Week nod this year. She hit .900 (9-10) with three doubles, two triples, and two home runs in the weekend series against Christian Brothers, leading the team in each of those categories.

No Sweat

After posting a 0.70 ERA over two outings two weeks ago, sophomore Kelsey Sweatt has earned Gulf South Conference Pitcher of the Week honors for the first time in her career. Sweatt is UWF's third student-athlete (Teala Howard, Rhiannon Sassman) to earn a weekly conference award this season.

Sweatt started games against Montevallo and No. 9 Valdosta State last week, getting the start in each. The sophomore threw three innings and struck out five batters against Montevallo, allowing only one hit. She earned the win with a complete game effort over VSU allowing just two hits and one earned run.

In all, Sweatt struck out 8 batters over 10 innings and allowed a .094 opponents batting average, improving to 9-1 for the season.

Sweatt ranks eighth in Division II in hits allowed per seven innings (3.83), and she the leads GSC in opponent batting average (.152). She is also third in ERA (1.43), sixth in strikeouts (75) and fourth in wins (9).

Goodness, Our Pitchers

UWF has been dominant in the circle all year long, with a 1.36 team ERA that ranks sixth in Division II and leads the Gulf South Conference. The trio of Grace Gilbert, Tori Perkins, and Kelsey Sweatt have also totaled 11 shutouts, good for seventh in the country and tops in the GSC.

Perkins (1.24), Gilbert (1.42), and Sweatt (1.43) have the three best ERAs in the GSC this year, and all three rank in the top five in the conference in opponent batting average, with Sweatt (.152) and Perkins (.168) ranking first and second. Gilbert leads the league with 13 wins in the circle.

Teala Howard Is Only A Freshman

Freshman Teala Howard has been one of the most electric players in the country this year, and the rookie ranks fourth in Division II with 53 hits this year. Howard also ranks eighth in the country in runs per game (1.24), 13th in stolen bases (30), and 16th in batting (.491).

The Lake Butler, Florida, native is a three-time GSC Freshman of the Week and has recorded multiple hits in 8 of her last 14 games played, including four consecutive multi-hit contests from 3/11-16.

THE ASHLEIGH MCLEAN FILE

Ashliegh McLean was named head coach of the UWF softball program in May 2018, after four years as an assistant with the team.

In her final three years as an assistant from 2016-18, the UWF pitching staff ranked in the top three in the Gulf South Conference in ERA (2.72), shutouts (32), opponent batting average (.241), strikeouts (822) and wins (119), and Argonaut pitchers have earned nine All-GSC or All-South Region awards.

In McLean's first season as a full-time assistant coach in 2016, her efforts led the UWF pitching staff to a 2.50 ERA and a .238 batting average against -- a major improvement from the team's 3.57 ERA and .264 batting average in 2015.

The staff improved even more on the way to the program's 2017 trip to the NCAA Championships in Salem, Virginia, posting a 2.49 ERA and .231 batting average against while recording a Gulf South Conference-best 15 shutouts.

UWF ranked second in the GSC in opponent batting average (.257), third in shutouts (7), and fourth in ERA (3.23) and strikeouts (227) under McLean in 2018, on the way to another 30-win season.

McLean first joined the UWF coaching staff after spending two-years as a pitcher for the Argonauts softball program in 2011 and 2012. She started 39 games for the Argos in the circle and over 30 games in right field being a key utility player for West Florida and was listed as one of the GSC's top newcomers in 2011.

Originally from McKinney, Texas, McLean is the daughter of Kevin McLean and Sandy Ring and earned her masters degree in Physical Education from UWF.

ASSISTANT COACH EMMA JOHANSEN

Emma Johansen joined the West Florida softball staff in July 2018, after spending four years on staff at Alabama State in Montgomery.

In 2016, Johansen helped lead the team to 28 wins, which was the third-highest single-season win total in program history, and the Lady Hornets led the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in team batting average (.321), runs scored (296), hits (482), doubles (92), and home runs (38).

Johansen also helped coach ASU to its first SWAC championship, which helped clinch an NCAA Tournament berth. Before ASU, Johansen served as the assistant softball coach for Auburn University at Montgomery and played a role in leading the team to the 2014 NAIA National Championship. In the summer of 2017, Johansen also coached the Swedish National Team in the European National Championships.
