In the NCAA Tournament

West Florida will be making its 14th NCAA Tournament appearance, and the Argonauts have been one of the best teams in the Gulf South Conference in NCAA Tournament play. UWF has 29 wins all-time in the NCAA Tournament, third-most among GSC teams, and the Argos hold a .518 winning percentage in the Tournament.

UWF's seven wins in the NCAA Tournament over the last two years are the most in the GSC, and the Argonauts hosted the South Region 1 Tournament in 2017, also as a 1-seed.

West Florida has now reached four consecutive NCAA Tournaments, marking the first time the team has done so since 1998-2001.

This week's regional action will feature four teams and will be a double-elimination tournament, with the winner of the South 2 Region Tournament will advance to a Super Regional to face the South 1 Region Tournament winner for a chance to go to the NCAA Championship.

About Spring Hill

West Florida's first opponent will be a familiar one. Eighth-seeded Spring Hill has advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history, after winning the SIAC Championship over the weekend. Hannah Brenton, the SIAC Pitcher of the Year, holds a 15-5 record with a 2.77 ERA, and Delaney Thomas is hitting .383 with 17 doubles, 9 home runs, and 43 RBIs.

UWF has met up with SHC three times already this year, with the Argonauts holding a 3-0 edge in the 2019 series while outscoring the Badgers 21-3. UWF has defeated Spring Hill each of the last 11 times the teams have matched up, dating back to 2016, and the Argonauts have outscored SHC 67-18 over the last four seasons.

NEWS AND NOTES

About Valdosta State

Fourth-seeded Valdosta State has reached the NCAA Tournament for a 14th consecutive season, entering the weekend with a 35-16 record. VSU is another familiar foe for the Argonauts, with UWF holding a 7-5 advantage over the Blazers since 2016. This season, West Florida leads the series 3-1 with a 9-0 run-rule victory over VSU last week in the GSC Tournament.

But Valdosta State is more talented than that result suggests. Caylie Van Auken, Lacey Crandall, Kiley Robb, and Kasie Johnson each earned a spot on the All-GSC second team last week for their efforts on the field.

About Tampa

Tampa, the 5-seed in the South Region, has won 22 of its last 24 games, which includes a school-record 19-game winning streak. Tampa's 32 wins are the most since 2014, and the program's 22 conference wins are the most in program history.

In the last game of the season, senior pitcher Makaleigh Dooley etched her name in the record books with her 26th victory of the year, the most wins in a season in UT history. The senior ranks second in the NCAA with her 26 wins and sits at ninth nationally in strikeouts with 214. Additionally, the right-hander earned SSC Pitcher of the Year for the second consecutive season, only the eighth SSC athlete to win the award twice.

UWF is 2-7 all-time against the Spartans, but the teams have not faced off since 2015, before any current student-athletes began their UWF careers.

Recapping the GSC Tournament

UWF cruised to its fourth Gulf South Conference Championship with a perfect 4-0 weekend in Pensacola, outscoring opponents 28-3 in the tournament.

UWF ended the weekend with the best batting average (.362), best ERA (0.88), most hits (34), most runs (28), and most strikeouts in the circle (24) among all teams in the tournament.

Kelsey Sweatt, Teala Howard, and Jacquelynne Poling were each named to the GSC All-Tournament Team, with Sweatt earning the nod as the tournament's Most Outstanding Player. Sweatt threw 14.0 total innings across three games, including the final two in Sunday's championship. She allowed just one run over the weekend, good for a 0.50 ERA, while striking out 18 batters and walking just 2. Howard led all players in the Tournament with a .571 batting average, four runs, and eight hits, while tying Poling with a tournament-best 5 RBIs. Poling added a double and three RBIs on Sunday to go along with the other double, home run, and two runs driven in that she recorded over the weekend.

Everyone, Come See How Good We've Been

This year's West Florida team has put together one of the best seasons the program has seen in the last decade. The Argonauts' 47 total wins and 25 conference victories are the most for the team since 2005 (60; 25), their 1.86 ERA is the best since 2009 (1.81), and their 5.9 runs per game are the most since 2010 (6.3). Additionally, UWF just won its first conference championship since 2005 and held the regular-season GSC crown for the first time since 2006.

The Regional Rankings

UWF ranked No. 1 in the final South Region rankings for the second time in the last three years. Valdosta State, Tampa, and Spring Hill visit Pensacola over the weekend, while Florida Tech -- the 2-seed -- will host Alabama Huntsville, Saint Leo, and Mississippi College.

Our All-GSC Awards

It has already been a banner year for the University of West Florida softball team, and the Argonauts can now add several Gulf South Conference yearly awards to the accolades. Rhiannon Sassman has been named the GSC Player of the Year, Teala Howard was named Freshman of the Year, and first-year coach Ashliegh McLean has been named the GSC Coach of the Year. This marks the fifth Coach of the Year award for UWF and it is McLean's first.

In addition to those, five Argonauts earned First Team All-GSC status. Sassman is the third baseman on the first team, Courtney McLellan earned a spot as an outfielder, Howard is a utility player on the team, and pitchers Kelsey Sweatt and Grace Gilbert made the first team, with Gilbert earning an at-large spot.

McLean has led UWF to top-10 rankings in every in-season national poll this year, which includes four weeks at the No. 1 spot in the NFCA Coaches Poll. Under the leadership of the UWF graduate, West Florida has recorded the fourth-best winning percentage in Division II this season, ranks fourth nationally in fielding percentage (.976), 12th in shutouts (16), 14th in ERA (1.86), and 16th in batting average (.334). Winona State and Grand Valley State are the only other schools in the country to rank in the top 20 in each of those categories.

Against the Conference

To little surprise, UWF ranked among the best teams in the GSC against league opponents. With a 25-4 record against the conference, the Argonauts rank second in batting (.317), on-base percentage (.395), and ERA (2.57), while leading the league in opponent batting average (.222).

Teala Howard (.438) leads the league in batting in conference play, while Rhiannon Sassman is fifth in batting (.414) and OBP (.500). Howard's 42 hits are the most against GSC opponents, and her 23 stolen bases rank second.

Home Sweet Home

There has been no place quite like the UWF Softball Complex for the Argonauts this year, as the team has gone 24-1 at the friendly confines.

UWF is hitting .368 and is getting great production from all over the lineup. Jacquelynne Poling leads the team with a .489 average (22-45), Rhiannon Sassman has a team-high 26

RBIs to go along with a .437 batting average, Teala Howard is hitting .480 with 25 runs scored, and Courtney McLellan and Poling lead UWF with 7 doubles at home.

In the circle, Kelsey Sweatt and Grace Gilbert are a combined 19-0 with a 1.75 ERA and six total shutouts.

The Impressive Rhiannon Sassman

Senior Rhiannon Sassman earned her third All-GSC honor and her first conference player of the year honor last week, and she became UWF's first-ever D2CCA South Region Player of the Year on Wednesday. Sassman, an Orlando, Florida, native has saved her best season for last – she leads Division II with 8 triples and is the GSC career leader in triples with 24.

On top of that, she is among conference leaders in batting (.395), slugging (.643), OBP (.495), runs (43), hits (62), RBIs (48), and doubles (14), and she leads the nation with 8 triples. The senior will wrap up an extraordinary career at UWF at the end of the season, as she ranks in the top 10 in program history in batting (.364), slugging (.591), doubles (46), triples (24), runs (161), RBIs (152), total bases (354), and walks (88).

No Sweatt

Kelsey Sweatt was declared the D2CCA South Region Pitcher of the Year on Wednesday, after putting up outstanding numbers in her first season at West Florida, with a 1.50 ERA, an 18-2 record, and a .167 opponent batting average. The reigning GSC Tournament Most Outstanding Player, Sweatt leads the GSC in ERA and hits allowed per seven innings (4.11), and she shut out West Alabama and Valdosta State in the GSC Tournament last weekend.

The sophomore transfer from USC-Upstate ranks second in the GSC with 18 wins and has posted the best ERA in the conference, at 1.50. Her winning percentage of .900 (18-2) would be the second-best in UWF single-season history and her hits allowed per seven innings would rank fourth.

That's Freshman of the Year Teala Howard

Teala Howard continues to add to her accolades, earning a spot on the D2CCA All-South Region First Team as a utility player. After being named the GSC Freshman of the Year last week, Howard claimed All-GSC Tournament Team honors by leading all players in the conference tournament with a .571 batting average, 8 hits, and 5 RBIs. The freshman ranks sixth in Division II in hits (83), 11th in batting (.466), and 15th in stolen bases (43), and she leads the GSC in batting (.466).

Way To Go, Kathleen Smiley

Kathleen Smiley repeated as a D2CCA All-South Region selection at the designated player spot, moving up to the First Team this season. She has been a force at the cleanup spot in UWF's lineup, recording multiple RBIs in nine games this year and batting .329 with eight doubles and four home runs. Smiley's 30 walks are the fifth-most in the GSC this year, and her 38 RBIs are the second-most on the team.

Courtney McLellan Sure Can Hit

Courtney McLellan garnered All-South Region honors for the first time in her career, grabbing an outfield spot on the Second Team. The sophomore is batting .330 with 11 doubles and 3 home runs to go along with her 20 runs scored. McLellan has crushed GSC pitching this year, with a .391 batting average, 8 doubles, and a .667 slugging percentage against conference opponents. She hit .300 with a pair of runs scored in last week's GSC Tournament.

THE ASHLEIGH MCLEAN FILE

Ashliegh McLean was named head coach of the UWF softball program in May 2018, after four years as an assistant at UWF, and her first season has been nothing short of incredible.

In her final three years as an assistant from 2016-18, the UWF pitching staff ranked in the top three in the Gulf South Conference in ERA (2.72), shutouts (32), opponent batting average (.241), strikeouts (822) and wins (119), and Argonaut pitchers have earned nine All-GSC or All-South Region awards.

In McLean's first season as a full-time assistant coach in 2016, her efforts led the UWF pitching staff to a 2.50 ERA and a .238 batting average against -- a major improvement from the team's 3.57 ERA and .264 batting average in 2015.

The staff improved even more on the way to the program's 2017 trip to the NCAA Championships in Salem, Virginia, posting a 2.49 ERA and .231 batting average against while recording a Gulf South Conference-best 15 shutouts.

UWF ranked second in the GSC in opponent batting average (.257), third in shutouts (7), and fourth in ERA (3.23) and strikeouts (227) under McLean in 2018, on the way to another 30-win season.

McLean first joined the UWF coaching staff after spending two-years as a pitcher for the Argonauts softball program in 2011 and 2012. She started 39 games for the Argos in the circle and over 30 games in right field being a key utility player for West Florida and was listed as one of the GSC's top newcomers in 2011.

Originally from McKinney, Texas, McLean is the daughter of Kevin McLean and Sandy Ring and earned her masters degree in Physical Education from UWF.
