Opponents

THAT'S A GOOD START

West Florida kicked off the 2021 campaign the right way at the end of January, taking a pair of wins against No. 19 Lubbock Christian at the UWF Softball Complex. It took a nail-biting, walkoff win in Game 1 and a much less stressful win in Game 2 to put UWF at 2-0 to begin the season.

Six Argonauts finished the day with a .500 batting average. Courtney McLellan, Kara Wilson, and Teala Howard each had three hits to lead the way, while McLellan's three RBIs and Howard's four stolen bases each led the team, as well.

The Argonauts used their full pitching staff on Saturday, getting strong performances from Kelsey Sweatt in Game 1 and Grace Gilbert and Montana Young in Game 2. The staff combined for 13 strikeouts and a .146 opponent batting average over LCU in the doubleheader.

The win in Game 1 also gave UWF head coach Ashliegh McLean a career 3-0 record in season-openers. She has defeated ranked teams in all three of those games, by a combined score of 22-5.

SO MANY AWARDS

UWF swept the first edition of the 2021 Gulf South Conference weekly awards, the league announced on February 2. Courtney McLellan was named the GSC Player of the Week, Kelsey Sweatt was named the

NEWS AND NOTES

GSC Pitcher of the Week, and Montana Young took home GSC Freshman of the Week honors.

A senior outfielder, McLellan hit .500 (3-6) in the Saturday doubleheader, with a double, a triple, and 3 RBIs. She also had the game-winning RBI in Game 1.

Sweatt earned her fourth career GSC Pitcher of the Week honor, after throwing a complete game against Lubbock Christian in the season-opener. The senior from Jacksonville, Florida, struck out four batters, walking only two, and allowing just one unearned run.

Freshman Montana Young made a major impact on Saturday afternoon, throwing four innings of nearly perfect relief in her collegiate debut. She earned her first career win after striking out four and allowing only one hit in relief, retiring the first 10 batters she faced against LCU.

SCOUTING NORTH GEORGIA

West Florida will visit a bit of a familiar foe in No. 2 North Georgia this week in Dahlonega, as the teams have played each other four times since 2017. The Argonauts have an 0-4 all-time record against UNG.

The Nighthawks took a pair of 4-0 wins over Montevallo on February 7, with impressive performances from pitchers Kylee Smith and Tybee Denton. Smith, the 2-time NFCA National Player of the Year, was 12-2 with a 0.30 ERA in 2020 before the season came to a halt. Smith led Division II in ERA (0.73) in 2019 and had 30 wins that season as a junior.

Offensively, UNG is led by Shelby Hammontree and Kaylyn Anthony, who have each earned All-Peach Belt Conference honors in their careers.

SCOUTING HILLSDALE

Hailing from Hillsdale, Michigan, the Chargers will open their season with UWF on Saturday. This will be the first time the teams have played each other.

HC was 4-16 to start the 2020 season but made the Midwest Regional in 2019. The Chargers will return Dana Weidinger in the circle, who has been one of the top pitchers in Hillsdale history, holds a 2.91 career ERA and 32 career wins. Offensively, All-GMAC shortstop Sam Catron, third baseman Elaine Townley, and outfielder Renee Bielawa will lead the way.

IT'S A STREAK

Teala Howard enters the weekend on a 16-game hitting streak, which dates back to February 19 of last year and is tied for the sixth-longest hitting streak in UWF history, which Howard put together in 2019. With a 3-for-6 start to the season against Lubbock Christian in the season-opener, Howard is now batting .571 (32-for-56) in this current 16-game hitting streak, with multiple hits in 13 of those 16 games. The junior is also slugging .821 with

YEAR THREE FOR MCLEAN

Ashliegh McLean enters her third year as the head coach of the University of West Florida softball team. Her first two years have been noteworthy, to say the least -- she led the team to the NCAA Championship and 54 wins in 2019, before going 17-9 in the COVID-shortened 2020 season.

THE SCHEDULE AHEAD

It will be a busy, challenging slate in February for the Argonauts. Gulf South Conference play begins on Friday, February 19, with a series against West Alabama at the UWF Softball Complex, followed by a home doubleheader against Spring Hill on February 24. That will be the first of five GSC home series for the Argonaut this season, with Mississippi College (March 5-6), Christian Brothers (March 20-21), Montevallo (April 9-10), and Lee (May 1-2) all making the trip to Pensacola.

The Argonauts will hit the road for conference series against No. 20 Alabama Huntsville (February 27-28), Auburn Montgomery (March 12-13), No. 12 Valdosta State (March 27-28), Union (April 2-3), and West Georgia (April 24-25), as well.

UWF will see limited non-conference action after the home doubleheader against Spring Hill in February. UWF will visit SHC in Mobile on March 9, host Columbus State on March 16, and visit Flagler in St. Augustine, Florida, on April 15 for a doubleheader.

Postseason play begins on May 6 with the Gulf South Conference Tournament.

PROTOCOLS AT HOME

In an effort to slow the spread of COVID-19, University of West Florida Athletics will limit attendance for the 2021 home baseball and softball seasons to immediate family members of UWF student-athletes and coaches. Visiting teams will be permitted a pre-approved guest pass list.

Face coverings and at least six feet of social distancing will be required by spectators and staff at both the UWF Softball Complex and Jim Spooner Field. All other COVID-19 Visitor Compliance guidelines must be followed.

There will not be any concessions available for sale during the first two weekends of baseball and softball.

THE ASHLIEGH MCLEAN FILE

Ashliegh McLean was named head coach of the UWF softball program in May 2018, after four years as an assistant at UWF, and her first season has been nothing short of incredible.

It's tough to imagine a better possible start for the Argonauts during McLean's first year as head coach, as she led the team to a Gulf South Conference Championship, a South Region Title, and a trip to the NCAA Championship in Denver. The team also spent four weeks as the No. 1-ranked team in the country, on the way to earning the 1-seed in the South Region.

Awards flowed in for McLean and UWF, as Rhiannon Sassman, Teala Howard, and Kelsey Sweatt were each named All-Americans. Sassman was also the D2CCA South Region Player of the Year and the GSC Player of the Year, Howard was named the GSC Freshman of the Year, and Sweatt earned D2C-CA South Region Pitcher of the Year honors, while McLean was named the GSC Coach of the Year.

West Florida finished the year at 54-11, and the team set the program record for fielding percentage (.977) and improved its record by 16.5 games. West Florida set several high-water marks this year, in many respects having the program's best season in over a decade. The team's 54 wins were the most for the program since 2005, their 1.80 ERA was the best since 2006, and their 5.6 runs per game were the most since 2010.

In her final three years as an assistant from 2016-18, the UWF pitching staff ranked in the top three in the Gulf South Conference in ERA (2.72), shutouts (32), opponent batting average (.241), strikeouts (822) and wins (119), and Argonaut pitchers have earned nine All-GSC or All-South Region awards.

In McLean's first season as a full-time assistant coach in 2016, her efforts led the UWF pitching staff to a 2.50 ERA and a .238 batting average against -- a major improvement from the team's 3.57 ERA and .264 batting average in 2015.

The staff improved even more on the way to the program's 2017 trip to the NCAA Championships in Salem, Virginia, posting a 2.49 ERA and .231 batting average against while recording a Gulf South Conference-best 15 shutouts.

McLean first joined the UWF coaching staff after spending two-years as a pitcher for the Argonauts softball program in 2011 and 2012. She started 39 games for the Argos in the circle and over 30 games in right field being a key utility player for West Florida and was listed as one of the GSC's top newcomers in 2011.

Originally from McKinney, Texas, McLean is the daughter of Kevin McLean and Sandy Ring and earned her masters degree in Physical Education from UWF.

ASSISTANT COACH EMMA JOHANSEN

Emma Johansen joined the West Florida softball staff in July 2018, after spending four years on staff at Alabama State in Montgomery.

In 2016, Johansen helped lead ASU to 28 wins, which was the third-highest single-season win total in program history, and the Lady Hornets led the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in team batting average (.321), runs scored (296), hits (482), doubles (92), and home runs (38).

Johansen also helped coach ASU to its first SWAC championship, which helped clinch an NCAA Tournament berth. Before ASU, Johansen served as the assistant softball coach for Auburn University at Montgomery and played a role in leading the team to the 2014 NAIA National Championship. In the summer of 2017, Johansen also coached the Swedish National Team in the European National Championships.
