SCOUTING LEE

Lee stands in the middle of the pack in the Gulf South Conference as we enter the final week of the regular season, holding a 17-18 overall record and a 14-13 record in GSC play.

The Flames are a solid 16-7 at home but are just 1-11 on the road this year. That one road win at West Alabama, however, started the four-game winning streak the Lady Flames are currently riding.

Lee is one of the better offensive teams in the league. The team has a .318 batting average that ranks third in the GSC and is fourth in the conference in scoring, with 6.4 runs per game. Most impressively, the Lady Flames are seventh in the country with 94 stolen bases this year -- a total headlined by Kayla Louie (24) and Lily Hatcher (23), who are also hitting .368 and .376, respectively. Taylor De Adder and Laney Harris are forces in the middle of the lineup to watch for this weekend.

Lee has struggled in the circle, however. The team's 5.31 ERA is 10th in the conference -- De Adder's 4.38 ERA is the best on the team, followed by Madison Barnett's 4.65 mark. Barnett leads the team in innings pitched (87.1), strikeouts (72), and wins (7).

UWF is 12-8 all-time against Lee, having won the last three and 10 of the last 12 head-to-head matchups.

NEWS AND NOTES

ABOUT LAST WEEK

West Florida split a doubleheader at West Georgia last weekend, with the final scheduled game of the series cancelled due to rain. The split kept UWF in fourth place in the Gulf South Conference standings, with a 19-7 record in the league with one weekend left to play.

Teala Howard extended her hitting streak to 10 games with hits in each contest against the Wolves, and Ally Merrill set a handful of career bests in Game 2, going 3-for-3 with two doubles, a home run, and a career-high 4 RBIs.

All three UWF pitchers saw time in the circle last Friday, as Grace Gilbert, Kelsey Sweatt, and Montana Young combined for a 1.62 ERA with just 9 hits allowed over 13 innings of work.

OUR SENIORS

This senior class for UWF has played part in some of the biggest moments in Argonaut history. The team has made two trips to the NCAA Championship, in 2017 and 2019, with members of this senior class leading the way.

The Argonauts have won 98 games over the last three seasons, with the 2019 club winning the Gulf South Conference, South Region 1, and South Super Regional championships.

APRIL, IN SHORT

West Florida has a 9-2 record in April, with series wins over Union and Montevallo, and a split against West Georgia in conference play. The offense has stayed strong, hitting .309 and slugging .502 while averaging 6.5 runs per game.

The biggest difference has been in the circle. The Argonauts have thrown to a 2.16 ERA, highlighted by several strong outings from Grace Gilbert and Kelsey Sweatt. Gilbert leads the team with a 1.59 ERA over 22.0 innings, and opponents are hitting just .173 against her, while Sweatt has struck out 51 batters in 37.0 innings. She has double-digit strikeouts in three of her five starts in the month.

WE ARE RANKED

After a split weekend with West Georgia on the road, the University of West Florida softball team remains ranked 22nd in the country and is still under consideration for a spot in the NCAA Tournament, as announced Wednesday.

UWF has been ranked in every poll since March 7. The Argonauts are joined in the poll by fellow Gulf South Conference teams Valdosta State at No. 2, Auburn Montgomery at No. 11, and Alabama Huntsville at No. 18, while South Region opponent Rollins (No. 15) is also ranked.

NEWS AND NOTES

The complete list of teams under consideration includes Alabama Huntsville, Auburn Montgomery, Rollins, Saint Leo, Tampa, Valdosta State, UWF, and West Georgia. Six teams will make it to the NCAA Tournament from the South Region this year.

SLUGGING AWAY

Fans have witnessed one of the most powerful offenses in UWF history this season. The Argonauts have put together a .509 slugging percentage, good for the highest in program history, and have hit 42 home runs, which are the third-most in a single season in UWF history and are the 15th-most in the country.

UWF is also seventh in Division II and first in the GSC in doubles (68) -- Courtney McLellan and Ally Merrill each rank second in the conference with 10 apiece.

Four Argonauts are slugging .600 or better this season -- Jacquelynne Poling (.759), Kara Wilson (.607), Ally Merrill (.667), and Courtney McLellan (.607).

The program record for slugging is .476, done by the historic 2005 UWF team that won 60 games and won the GSC Championship. UWF's 42 home runs are the third-most for an Argonaut squad since 1995, behind only the 2005 and 2008 teams.

CHASING #100

UWF head coach Ashliegh McLean is in her third season at the helm of the program, and she is already chasing her 100th career win. With a career 98-32 record, she has a better winning percentage through her first three seasons (.754) than any other current Gulf South Conference coach did in their first three seasons, with the exception of Eric Newell at Auburn Montgomery (.780), who started his tenure in the NAIA.

McLean's first two years were noteworthy, to say the least -- she led the team to the NCAA Championship and 54 wins in 2019, before going 17-9 in the COVID-shortened 2020 season.

IN THE GULF SOUTH CONFERENCE

With a 51-16 conference record since 2019, West Florida holds the best winning percentage (.761) in league play among all Gulf South Conference teams. The team's 51 conference wins -- as well as their 98 total wins -- over the past three seasons are the most in the GSC.

UWF is fourth in the league with an 19-7 conference record so far this year, and they've gotten production from every part of the lineup. Teala Howard leads the team with a .455 batting average in conference play, and she, Angela Agurkis, Mika Garcia, Kayla Mayo, Courtney McLellan, Ally Merrill, Jacquelynne Poling, Kara Wilson have each hit multiple home runs against the GSC.

IN THE RECORD BOOKS

JACQUELYNNE POLING, SO CLUTCH

Catcher Jacquelynne Poling has kicked into another gear offensively over the last month. In UWF's 22 games since March 9, Poling has hit all 8 of her home runs and leads UWF in round-trippers, RBIs (25), total bases (54), slugging (.900), and walks (10).

Her eight home runs are a career-high and the most for a UWF catcher since Natalie Manis hit eight in 2005.

THE EXCITING TEALA HOWARD

Third baseman Teala Howard is fifth in the country with 61 hits this year, and she led DII in hits last season.

The junior is UWF's all-time batting leader (.467), ranks third in steals (97), and fifth in slugging (.590), and she tied the UWF single-season record for batting in 2019 (.464) as a freshman.

She's currently on an 10-game hitting streak and is hitting .556 (20-36) with 14 runs and 8 stolen bases, and she has 7 multi-hit games in that stretch.

POWER HITTER KARA WILSON

This season, UWF's center fielder is eighth in the GSC in total bases (74), seventh in home runs (9), and 12th in RBIs (30). Her multi-homer game in the series finale at Valdosta was the first of her career and the first for an Argonaut since 2017, and her nine home runs this season are the most for UWF since 2016, when Kalyn Chapman hit nine.

Wilson leads all center fielders in the GSC in home runs, RBIs, and total bases this season.

THREE-TIME PITCHER OF THE WEEK KELSEY SWEATT

Pitcher Kelsey Sweatt has been dominant in April, and it started with the series at Union to begin the month. Sweatt was named the GSC Pitcher of the Week for the third time this season, after posting a 1.62 ERA and striking out 20 batters over 13 innings against the Lady Bulldogs on the road.

The Jacksonville, Florida, native has double-digit strikeouts in three games this year, all of which have come this month. She struck out 12 against Union on April 2, 10 against Montevallo on April 10, and struck out 13 at Flagler, throwing a one-hit shutout.

THE ASHLEIGH MCLEAN FILE

Ashliegh McLean was named head coach of the UWF softball program in May 2018, after four years as an assistant at UWF, and her first season has been nothing short of incredible.

It's tough to imagine a better possible start for the Argonauts during McLean's first year as head coach, as she led the team to a Gulf South Conference Championship, a South Region Title, and a trip to the NCAA Championship in Denver. The team also spent four weeks as the No. 1-ranked team in the country, on the way to earning the 1-seed in the South Region.

Awards flowed in for McLean and UWF, as Rhiannon Sassman, Teala Howard, and Kelsey Sweatt were each named All-Americans. Sassman was also the D2CCA South Region Player of the Year and the GSC Player of the Year, Howard was named the GSC Freshman of the Year, and Sweatt earned D2CCA South Region Pitcher of the Year honors, while McLean was named the GSC Coach of the Year.

West Florida finished the year at 54-11, and the team set the program record for fielding percentage (.977) and improved its record by 16.5 games. West Florida set several high-water marks this year, in many respects having the program's best season in over a decade. The team's 54 wins were the most for the program since 2005, their 1.80 ERA was the best since 2006, and their 5.6 runs per game were the most since 2010.

In her final three years as an assistant from 2016-18, the UWF pitching staff ranked in the top three in the Gulf South Conference in ERA (2.72), shutouts (32), opponent batting average (.241), strikeouts (822) and wins (119), and Argonaut pitchers have earned nine All-GSC or All-South Region awards.

In McLean's first season as a full-time assistant coach in 2016, her efforts led the UWF pitching staff to a 2.50 ERA and a .238 batting average against -- a major improvement from the team's 3.57 ERA and .264 batting average in 2015.

The staff improved even more on the way to the program's 2017 trip to the NCAA Championships in Salem, Virginia, posting a 2.49 ERA and .231 batting average against while recording a Gulf South Conference-best 15 shutouts.

McLean first joined the UWF coaching staff after spending two-years as a pitcher for the Argonauts softball program in 2011 and 2012. She started 39 games for the Argos in the circle and over 30 games in right field being a key utility player for West Florida and was listed as one of the GSC's top newcomers in 2011.

Originally from McKinney, Texas, McLean is the daughter of Kevin McLean and Sandy Ring and earned her masters degree in Physical Education from UWF.

ASSISTANT COACH EMMA JOHANSEN

Emma Johansen joined the West Florida softball staff in July 2018, after spending four years on staff at Alabama State in Montgomery.

In 2016, Johansen helped lead ASU to 28 wins, which was the third-highest single-season win total in program history, and the Lady Hornets led the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in team batting average (.321), runs scored (296), hits (482), doubles (92), and home runs (38).

Johansen also helped coach ASU to its first SWAC championship, which helped clinch an NCAA Tournament berth. Before ASU, Johansen served as the assistant softball coach for Auburn University at Montgomery and played a role in leading the team to the 2014 NAIA National Championship. In the summer of 2017, Johansen also coached the Swedish National Team in the European National Championships.
