Game No. 15: JANUARY 4 | MILWAUKEE at YOUNGSTOWN STATE

Panthers Open New Year Against Penguins Thursday Night

Milwaukee spends weekend in Ohio for two league contests

After closing out 2017 with a victory at home, the Milwaukee men's basketball team looks to follow suit to open the New Year when it starts a two-game trip to the state of Ohio. For openers, the Panthers visit Youngstown State Thursday evening, set for a tip of 6:35 p.m. CST against the Penguins. The matchup will be streamed on ESPN3, have live statistics available and will be carried on WISN AM 1130 with Scott Warras on the call. All links are posted on the UWM website. The contest will be the second of a women's/men's doubleheader, with the YSU women starting at 5:15 p.m. CST against UIC.

WHAT'S NEW

After closing out 2017 with a victory at home, the Milwaukee men's basketball team looks to follow suit to open the New Year when it starts a two-game trip to the state of Ohio. For openers, the Panthers visit Youngstown State Thursday evening, set for a tip of 6:35 p.m. CST against the Penguins. The matchup will be streamed on ESPN3, have live statistics available and will be carried on WISN AM 1130 with Scott Warras on the call. All links are posted on the UWM website. The contest will be the second of a women's/men's double-header, with the YSU women starting at 5:15 p.m. CST against UIC.

LOOKING AT THE PENGUINS

Jerrold Calhoun is in his first season as head coach of the Penguins (the 13th head coach all-time) following a successful five-year run at Fairmont State where he went 124-38 overall.

A season ago, YSU went 13-21 overall (5-13 in Horizon League play), but closed on a high note - going 2-1 in a league tournament run that included knocking off top-seeded Oakland at the buzzer before falling to eventual champion Northern Kentucky.

This year, the team enters play Thursday at 3-11 overall. The Penguins were on a tough stretch, dropping nine games in a row before topping Cleveland State, 80-77, in their conference opener Monday. Thursday's battle against the Panthers marks YSU's first home game since Nov. 29, 2017. The defense has allowed opponents to shoot 52.1 percent from the floor on the season.

Cameron Morse, a First-Team All-Horizon League selection in 2017 (22.9 ppg), has scored over 1,600 points in his career - including the game-winner at the buzzer against CSU in Monday's game. He is currently second on the team in scoring at 13.0 points-per-game. Braun Hartfield is the team's leading scorer at 14.4 ppg, shooting 46.5 percent from the floor.

SERIES HISTORY

The Panthers hold a 30-11 record all-time against YSU in a series that dates back to 1974 (27-11 in NCAA Division I era). Milwaukee had claimed four wins in a row and five of the past six matchups, prior to a double-overtime loss in Ohio in December of last season. Milwaukee then righted the ship with a thrilling 94-85 victory at UWM Panther Arena that also went into overtime.

UP NEXT

The Panthers close out the first stretch of a five-game Horizon League road swing at Cleveland State Saturday. The matinee affair tips off at 2:30 p.m. CST.

Head Coach Pat Baldwin

Pat Baldwin was named head coach of the Milwaukee men's basketball team on June 20, 2017.

Baldwin joins UWM from Northwestern University and becomes the seventh head coach since Milwaukee's 1990 move to NCAA Division I.

"We are proud to have Patrick join the UW-Milwaukee family," said UWM Chancellor Mark Mone at the time of the hiring. "His deep commitment to have our student-athletes succeed in the classroom as well as on the court reflects the values of Milwaukee basketball. I know he will also play an important role in helping to connect our university to the community."

Baldwin spent the prior four seasons as an assistant coach at Northwestern, helping rebuild his alma mater into a force in the Big Ten.

"I want to thank Amanda Braun and Chancellor Mone for affording me the opportunity and honor to serve as the head coach at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee," Baldwin said. "I am extremely excited about this opportunity to lead a program that has a great tradition of winning, resources to help facilitate our ascension in the Horizon League and commitment from the entire administration. Our main goal and focus is to compete and win championships. I can't wait to get started with our current roster of student-athletes and work toward achieving great success both on and off the court."

A key member of the Northwestern coaching staff under head coach Chris Collins, Baldwin saw the Wildcats increase their win total in each of his four years there.

That culminated in the 2016-17 season with a school-record 24 victories and the first NCAA tournament berth in school history. NU's campaign also included 10 wins in Big Ten play for the first time since the 1930s. That followed what was a school-record 20 wins during the 2015-16 campaign.

As an assistant coach at NU, where he worked primarily with the guards, Baldwin helped the Wildcats land recruiting classes ranked in the nation's top 30.

"The entire Wildcats community is thrilled for Pat Baldwin, an outstanding representative of our university," said Northwestern Vice President for Athletics & Recreation Jim Phillips. "He was an exceptional student-athlete, and has been an incredible mentor for our young men during his tenure on the men's basketball staff."

Baldwin, a 1994 graduate of Northwestern, was one of the top players in school history. He still stands among the top 20 scorers, was a three-time team captain, graduated as the school's all-time leader in steals and assists, and was the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.

"I'd like to thank the Northwestern University community under the leadership of President Morty Schapiro, Vice President for Athletics & Recreation Jim Phillips and his staff, head coach Chris Collins, the staff and players for four unbelievable years," Baldwin said. "I was able to come back to my alma mater and be a part of a tremendous transformation in the men's basketball program, culminating in a dance in the NCAA tournament. Thank you for all of the great memories."

Baldwin played professionally in Bosnia and Croatia before joining the coaching ranks. He has valuable firsthand experience in the Horizon League, beginning with two seasons as an assistant at UW-Green Bay before a seven-year stop at Loyola Chicago, where he finished as the associate head coach. Prior to arriving at Northwestern, he spent two seasons at Missouri State, where he recruited Missouri Valley Conference Freshman of the Year Marcus Marshall.

A native of Leavenworth, Kansas, Baldwin got his coaching start during the 2001-02 season at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri.

Baldwin was a standout player for Northwestern from 1990-94. He still ranks first in school history with 272 career steals, second all-time with 452 assists and 20th with 1,189 points. His 90 steals as a freshman in 1990-91 are the school's single-season record, while his 154 assists as a senior in 1993-94 rank third in school history.

Patrick and Shawn (née Karey – herself a former Northwestern volleyball player) have four children: Patrick, Tatum, Brooke and Claire.

LAST GAME

Jeremiah Bell led the way with 18 points and the defense held Detroit Mercy without a field goal over the final 5:50 to help Milwaukee to an 87-79 victory at UWM Panther Arena.

In a game that featured 24 lead changes, the Panthers (8-7, 1-1 Horizon League) surged ahead of the Titans (4-11, 0-2 Horizon League) with about 15 minutes left in the game and never trailed the rest of the way.

Bell made 3 three-pointers, went 5-of-6 from the free throw line and added three rebounds and three assists in 23 minutes, helping Milwaukee to its eighth victory of the season - reaching the regular-season total of last year's squad before the calendar even turns to 2018.

Brock Stull was right behind Bell, finishing with 17 points. Carson Warren-Newsome went for a career-high 13 points in just 15 minutes off the bench.

GETTING TO 70

The 87 points scored against Detroit Mercy Dec. 30 marked a season-high for the Panthers, topping the 83 scored against La Crosse in the season opener. Milwaukee is now 6-0 when scoring at least 70 points in a game this season. UWM also connected on 55.3 percent (26-of-47) of its field goal attempts against the Titans, sinking a dozen three-pointers. The high percentage goes hand-in-hand with victory, as Milwaukee is now 6-2 this year when shooting 45 percent or better from the floor.

BACK LIKE NEVER BEFORE

Brock Stull missed two games following the contest at Jacksonville due to injury. His return has been nothing short of spectacular - averaging 20.5 points over his past four outings. He netted 23 points in each of the first two, making four 3's against Loyola Dec. 15 and topping that with six triples (tying a career-high) against Western Michigan Dec. 22. He also added 7.0 rebounds each game on average over the first three outings (before being limited by foul trouble against Detroit), playing 39, 38 and 40 minutes in that stretch.

THE WARREN REPORT: PART II

Carson Warren-Newsome made the most of his opportunity against the Huskies Nov. 29, putting together his best game of the season when he was given the chance to see 15 minutes of action at NIU. Coming into the game, Warren-Newsome had netted 7 points in 28 minutes so far in 2017-18, but he went off for 11 points in the game, highlighted by a 3-of-4 effort from long distance. The freshman added three rebounds, an assist, block and a steal on the night.

He upped that dramatically to help the Panthers close out the victory over Detroit Mercy Dec. 30, hitting a pair of key 3's down the stretch. He went on to set a season high with 13 points (prior was 11), while also tying his freshman highs in FGM (4) and 3FGM (3).

TURNAROUND CONTINUES

At 8-7, the Panthers are off to a much better pace than just one year ago. With eight victories under their belts before the calendar turned to 2018, first-year head coach Pat Baldwin has the team on a nice pace compared to just 12 months ago. Last season, UWM did not record its eighth win of the campaign until January 27 - ending the regular season at that total of eight victories. The squad also did not get its second true road win of the season until January 27 (also ending with just those two). With three road wins already on the books in 2017-18, that mark has been topped with lots of basketball left.

LEAGUE LIFTOFF

Milwaukee started league play in search of its sixth win in its last 10 league openers, but fell to Oakland, 76-68. UWM had won five-straight before losing at Detroit in the opener in 2012-13. Overall, the Panthers were looking for their 11th win in their last 17 league lid-lifters. In all, since joining the MCC/Horizon League, Milwaukee is now 13-11 in league openers.

VANCE CAME TO PLAY

Junior Vance Johnson continues to adjust to the NCAA Division I level, putting together his best outing of the season against Oakland Dec. 28. In just 14 minutes off the bench, he netted a season-best 10 points while tying a season-high with 6 rebounds. He made 4-of-5 shots from the floor and also blocked a pair of shots.

PANTHERS NOW ON DEMAND

The Panthers now have their own channel on the iHeartRadio platform. This gives fans the opportunity to listen to podcasts of Panther games that have been played, as well as podcasts of the "Panther Sports Report" after they are aired. It allows fans of Milwaukee basketball the opportunity to listen to these events on demand. The channel can be accessed at the following address: www.iheart.com/podcast/uw-milwaukee-mens-basketball-28721732/

RAMBLING ON

The Panthers put on quite an impressive performance in the victory over Loyola Dec. 16, claiming a 17-point win over a team that came into the game with a 10-1 record, ranked No. 3 in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 Poll that week and had just beaten No. 5 Florida earlier this month.

The defense limited the Ramblers to 38.5 percent (20-of-52) from the floor overall, and just 21.1 percent (4-of-19) from distance to a team that came in as one of the best three-point shooting teams in the country at 44.6 percent.

DEEE-FENSE!

Prior to the game against Western Illinois Dec. 9, the Panthers had done a nice job of late keeping teams well below their offensive scoring averages. Northern Illinois came into the game Nov. 29 averaging 79.5 points; Milwaukee limited the Huskies to 62. Montana State was at 82.0 ppg coming in, the UWM defense allowed just 68. Against Jacksonville Dec. 5, the Panthers held their opponent to 52 points. Coming into the game, the Dolphins had averaged 74.1 ppg.

After playing shorthanded for two games, the fully-stocked defense was back at it again with the team back to full strength, holding a high-flying Loyola offense to 56 points Dec. 16 after the Ramblers came into the day scoring 77.9 points per contest. And, despite the loss in the tough decision against Western Michigan Dec. 22, the Panthers held the Broncos 10 points below their 75.6 average.

DOLPHIN TALE FOR BELL

Jeremiah Bell helped Milwaukee to a road win at Jacksonville Dec. 5, contributing a season-high 14 points to lead the Panthers in scoring. He played 27 minutes, finishing 4-4 from the FT line while adding a pair of 3's and 2 rebounds.

Bell followed that up with a season-best 21 points against Western Illinois Dec. 9, the second 20-plus point outing of his UWM career. Just a few days later, he led the team with 20 points against Belmont Dec. 13, becoming the first Panther to record back-to-back games of 20-plus points since Brock Stull did so at the end of last season (21 vs. Oakland in regular-season finale and 20 against Detroit Mercy in the postseason opener).

SUNSHINE STATE DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Bryce Nze put together one of the more complete games of his young UWM career against Jacksonville Dec. 5, finishing with his third double-double as a Panther in the process. Nze's line included 13 points, 12 rebounds (tied career high), 5 assists (tie), 4 blocks (new career-best) and a steal against the Dolphins. He now has two of the three double-doubles recorded by UWM players so far this season.

PRAHL STANDS TALL

Brett Prahl put together a brilliant outing against Northern Illinois Nov. 29, helping the Panthers to a 75-62 road win with a personally unprecedented effort. The 18 points he scored - coming on 7-8 shooting from the floor - tied his career high he set last season in a game against Youngstown State Jan. 17. The 10 rebounds, just off his career-high of 11, gave him something else for the first time - the first double-double of his collegiate career. He added two blocks and a steal against the Huskies, playing a career-high 35 minutes on the night.

He was at it again just a few days later, netting 18 more points against Montana State Dec. 2.

IT'S OUR BALL

Milwaukee proved adept at ball control last season, finishing second in the Horizon League at just over 12 turnovers per game and in the top 80 in the NCAA. The team has picked up right where it left off in 2017-18. In addition to a game of just five miscues against Elon Nov. 19 (one off the school record) - and only eight in back-to-back outings against Belmont and Loyola - the Panthers entered play this week committing only 12.2 turnovers per game, good for first place in the Horizon League.

BALDWIN HOT OUT OF THE GATES

Milwaukee was 4-1 through five games, giving Pat Baldwin the best five-game start to a UWM head coaching career in the NCAA Division I history of the program. Going back through time (LaVall Jordan 2-3; Rob Jeter 3-2; Bruce Pearl 2-3; Bo Ryan 3-2; Ric Cobb 2-3; Steve Antrim 1-4), only Jeter and Ryan even reached three victories through their first five games.

It also marked the best five-game start since the Panthers went 5-0 to open the 2004-05 campaign. At 4-1, the start equaled the five-game marks of 2015-16, 2013-14 and 2011-12.

HE SHOOTS. HE SCORES

After establishing a new program record for field-goal percentage in a season as a junior a year ago (.664), Brett Prah had seemingly gotten better. In his first four outings this season (including the two exhibition contests), he missed just three shots on 23 total attempts. Prah was 5-5 from the floor against Marquette and then 5-6 against Wisconsin Lutheran in the exhibition season. He then made 5-6 attempts in both the season opener against La Crosse and again in the win at Iowa State, a shooting percentage of 86.9 percent overall in that span (20-of-23). Through 15 games, he now checks in at .635 (61-of-96) from the field, good enough for second place in the Horizon League (Carson Williams of NKU is first at .669 ... they are also the only two over .600). If Prah met the NCAA minimum for FG percentage (5 made per game), he would rank 17th in the nation.

BROTHER ACT

Speaking of the twins, Brett and Alex Pahl are one set of 29 brothers currently playing together at the NCAA Division I level this season. Of the 29 combinations, just seven are twins and Brett and Alex are the ONLY set of identical duos in the bunch.

NEVER COUNT OUT THE PANTHERS

Milwaukee had a tough go of it against Elon in the first half Nov. 19, finding themselves down by as many as 19 points (at 46-27) in the first 20 minutes. The second half was amazing, with Jeremy Johnson capping the impressive turnaround with the winner with 0.9 left on the clock as UWM pulled off the amazing comeback to claim the title trophy in the "Black & Gold Shootout". No UWM team had come back from as many as 19 points for nearly a decade. You have to go all the way back to an 81-75 victory over UC Davis on November 15, 2008. That day, UWM made up a 24-point halftime deficit, trailing 51-27, with 54 points in the second half. In addition to the team title at the three-day event, Bryce Nze, Brock Stull and August Haas were named to the all-tournament team.

Individual NCAA Rankings in Parenthesis

NZE KEEPS AT IT

After missing a double-double by a single rebound against both La Crosse Nov. 10 (10 pts/9 reb) and FIU Nov. 18 (17 pts/9 reb), Bryce Nze finally got there against Elon Nov. 19, recording the first double-double for a Panther player this season when he scored 14 points and grabbed a career-high 12 rebounds. It was the second of his career, with his outing at Montana (15 pts/11 reb) Dec. 3 of last season marking his first. The 12 rebounds topped his former collegiate-best of 11, also set in that game last year.

WINNING IN CYCLONE ALLEY

Iowa State's Hilton Coliseum is known as one of the toughest places to play on the road in college basketball, with the home team claiming victory in over 75 percent of its games since 1971. That didn't seem to matter to the Panthers Nov. 13, handing the Cyclones their first loss in a home opener since 1997. Iowa State had won 45 of its last 50 at home coming into the contest, posting an 88-10 mark on its own court the past eight seasons. It was also the first win by an opponent in November at Hilton Coliseum in 16 games.

HARD TO TOP

The Panthers shot an impressive 62.5 percent (30-of-48) from the floor against La Crosse in the season opener. By making nearly 2/3 of their shots, it puts them near the top of the charts, finishing as the sixth-best team performance from the floor in a game in program history. Not only was it the sixth-best outing in any game, but also goes down as the BEST shooting effort as a team in any season opener all-time.

Best Field-Goal Percentage, Single Game

1. 67.8 (40-59) Cleveland State, 2/8/96
2. 65.0 (26-40) UMKC, 11/30/13
3. 63.9 (39-61) Chicago State, 1/19/91
4. 62.8 (27-43) South Dakota State, 12/11/10
5. 62.7 (47-75) Judson, 12/13/15
6. 62.5 (30-48) La Crosse, 11/10/17

SUPER START

Highlighting the victory over La Crosse in the season opener Nov. 10 was the best outing of sophomore Bryce Barnes' young career. He filled up the stat sheet with 19 points in just 19 minutes of playing time, making 6-7 shots from the floor and 6-7 attempts from the line, while adding three rebounds, three assists and a pair of steals in the win. The 19 points tops his former high-water mark of 14 points, recorded against DePaul early last season (11/20/16). His assist total and made field goals against the Eagles also equaled career-bests.

JOINING THE FOX FAMILY

The Panthers made their FOX Sports Wisconsin debut against Montana State Dec. 2, the first of four men's contests which will be broadcast live on the statewide network. The Milwaukee Athletic Department announced the new agreement back in September. The agreement calls for a minimum of five games to be aired this season, with the potential for more in future years of the deal. Each of the selected games will also be available to watch on the FOX Sports GO app on Apple, Android or Windows mobile devices.

Rush Media Company will handle production of all the games, with a distribution agreement in place with FOX Sports Wisconsin for the airing of the contests. FOX Sports Wisconsin is an affiliate of FOX Sports and the television home to the Milwaukee Brewers and Milwaukee Bucks. The regional sports network also televises select college and high school sports and nearly 2,600 hours of locally produced programming every year. The network reaches more than 1.5 million homes statewide and provides live streaming content via the FOX Sports GO app.

THE BIG DEBUT

November 10 against La Crosse marked the big day for Pat Baldwin, making his head-coaching debut following four very successful years as an assistant coach at Northwestern. His tenure with the Wildcats culminated in the 2016-17 season with a school-record 24 victories and the first NCAA tournament berth in school history. That followed what was a school-record 20 wins during the 2015-16 campaign. Baldwin also has valuable firsthand experience in the Horizon League, beginning with two seasons as an assistant at Green Bay before a seven-year stop at Loyola Chicago, where he finished as the associate head coach.

AND WE'RE OFF

A couple of different looks to the season opener, which saw Milwaukee playing its opening game of the season at the UWM Panther Arena for the second year in a row after not doing so since a win over SW Minnesota State to kick off the 2011-12 campaign. The team is now 17-11 in season openers since returning to the NCAA Division I ranks full-time in 1990-91 following the 83-73 win over the Eagles. More impressively, the team is 24-4 in that same span in home openers, claiming wins in 17 of the past 18 (13 in a row at one point). Also, the Panthers have not lost the season opener when it was played at home since dropping an 80-79 decision to Platteville in November of 1994 (having won the previous 12 in that scenario).

A WARM WELCOME

In addition to getting to know the players on the roster this season, Pat Baldwin and staff announced the newest signings for next year when Zach Cameron-Chodes, Shae Mitchell, Tyronn Mosley and Fabio Soehnel all signed their NLI Nov. 8. The group become Baldwin's first members of the 2018 recruiting class.

STULL COMES OF AGE

A season ago, Brock Stull emerged as a go-to threaten for the Panthers, going on to earn the team's Clay Tucker Most Valuable Player Award after a breakout sophomore campaign in which he led the Panthers in scoring (13.5 ppg) and rebounding (6.6 rpg). Stull started all 35 games, shooting 44.4 percent from the floor, 39.3 percent from three-point range and 80.7 percent from the line. That was a big step up from a redshirt freshman year in which he made appearances in 30 games on the season as a key reserve off the bench, contributing 2.6 points and 1.7 rebounds per game.

A REAL SHOOTING SHOWCASE

It was a back-and-forth affair all season long, eventually coming down to just hundredths of a percentage point. The Panthers established a program-first, as no team in UWM's NCAA Division I history has ever had two players make 60 percent or better from the floor in a season. The now-former school record of .610 (86-of-141) for the year (minimum of 100 attempts), set by Adrian Tigert back in 2001-02, has been broken.

Brett Pahl holds the new standard at .664, making 99-of-149 attempts on the season. Bryce Nze was just a hair behind, finishing at .662, making 100-of-151 attempts - also finishing as the top two percentages in the Horizon League last season. To realize how close that was, had Brett missed just one of the makes, or had Bryce made just one of his misses, the two would have flip-flopped the final order. Brett is no stranger to the impressive stat, having made an eye-popping 78.9 percent (15-of-19) from the floor as a sophomore. The last person to make over 60 percent of their field goal attempts (while averaging at least one FGA per game) was Derrick Ford back in 2005-06, who made shots at a 61.5 percent clip that campaign. It's hard to believe, but the duo actually shot BETTER in league games - Pahl ended at 71.8 percent in the 18 conference affairs, with Nze just behind at 70.0 percent. They ranked one-two in Horizon League play as well.

UNCHARTED TERRITORY

The Panthers closed out last season with an unprecedented run at Motor City Madness. Milwaukee became the first No. 10 seed to claim a victory in the Horizon League Tournament history (going back to 1994-95). The prior seven No. 10 seeds went 0-7 combined, losing by an average of 15.2 points.

The team is familiar with the underdog role. In 2013-14, the Panthers became the first-ever No. 5 seed to win the Horizon League Tournament. In fact, they followed the same exact path to open both trips. That season, UWM beat Detroit and Valparaiso their first two matchups on the way to the crown. At No. 10, Milwaukee was the lowest seed to ever play in the championship game (prior was Wright State as the No. 8 seed in 1995). The also had the chance to become the lowest-ever seed to win (lowest prior was UIC as the No. 6 seed in 2002).

BUCKLE DOWN

The Panthers knocked off second-seeded Valparaiso at Motor City Madness with the best first-half defensive effort against an NCAA Division I opponent in school history. The 12 points allowed included just five made field goals, as the Panthers also held the Crusaders scoreless for the first 6:59 of the evening. Best marks in school history:
11: Mount Senario, 12/27/00 (NAIA school)
12: Valparaiso, 3/4/17*
13: Texas Southern, 11/20/11

THAT'S 30 FOR #3

Brock Stull came up with a little history against UIC Feb. 4 when he scored a career-high 30 points. For starters, it was the first 30-point effort for UWM in 42 games (Akeem Springs last had 33 at Youngstown State on Jan. 7, 2016), propelling the team to its first 100-point outburst in 47 tries (had 125 against Judson Dec. 13, 2015 ... it was also the first time an opponent hit 100 in 272 games). Most significantly, it marked the first time in UWM's NCAA Division I history that a sophomore scored at least 30 points in a game - a span of 801 contests.

Jeremiah Bell would join that short list in the postseason, scoring 31 against Detroit Mercy March 3. In addition, he also became the first Panther to score 30-plus points off the bench since Avery Smith netted 36 against Oakland on December 2, 2006. Combined with Brock Stull's 20-point effort that day, it gave UWM two players with 20-or-more in one contest for the first time in 43 games.

BROCK OF AGES

Brock Stull just kept grabbing rebounds against Detroit Mercy Jan. 27. When the game finally ended, not only did he break his former career-high of 11, but finished with 17 to just miss the school record of 18 boards in the process. Matt Tiby was the last to grab as many as 17, doing so against South Dakota back in December of 2015. The program mark of 18 is held by Nathan Schrameyer and was set against SEMO on March 2, 1995.

HIS TURN

Brett Pahl seized the opportunity he received with increased playing time during the 2016-17 season. Coming into the year, he had per-game averages of 1.8 points and 1.0 rebounds per game (while averaging 6.2 minutes played). He finished the year with averages of 7.2 ppg and 3.6 rpg (in 19.8 mpg), which he upped to 8.5 points and 4.1 rebounds per contest in Horizon League play.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARDS

Bryce Nze needed to get accustomed to the college game, last playing on a regular basis as a high school junior following an injury that cost him his senior season. While foul trouble was tough to avoid early in the year, rebounding at an impressive level all season long was not. He was the team's leading rebounder on 12 occasions last year - the most for a UWM freshman since Adrian Tigert accomplished the feat seven times in 2001-02. Nze also grabbed a career-high 11 boards at Montana Dec. 3 - Tony Meier was the last freshmen to grab 10-or-more rebounds in a game, doing so three times during the 2008-09 campaign.

ONE OF THE BEST EVER

The showing by the Milwaukee defense against UC Irvine Nov. 26 of last season goes into the record book in numerous spots. The 37 points allowed rank as the lowest ever allowed to an NCAA Division I opponent, with only the 21 scored in December of 2000 by Mount Senario - an NAIA opponent - coming in ahead of it. The last time UWM held an opponent under 40 points came 143 games ago (see list below).

21: Mount Senario, 12/27/00

37: UC Irvine, 11/26/16

38: Wright State, 1/12/12

38: Texas Southern, 11/20/11

HOW LOW CAN YOU GO?

Had the Anteaters not found a way to make two of their final three field goals of the game Nov. 26, a couple other marks could have fallen. UC Irvine ended the contest with 11 made field goals and a 25.6 percent mark from the floor, with each total marking a new entry in the all-time top five.

FEWEST FIELD GOALS MADE

IT'S "MILWAUKEE"

• A lot has been made of the correct way to talk about the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, especially in the area of collegiate athletics. It would be appreciated if you would refer to the athletics teams as "Milwaukee". Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

• Milwaukee Athletics is continuing to make the effort to brand itself as "Milwaukee" instead of other references. Please avoid UW-Milwaukee, UW-M, Wisc-Mil, UW-MIL, Wisconsin-Milwaukee, etc.

• "UWM" is also acceptable and "University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee" can be used as a first reference.

We appreciate your assistance with this effort in advance.

HE'S THE CHIEF

Former Milwaukee forward Demetrius Harris (2011-13) is once again on the active roster for the National Football League's Kansas City Chiefs, catching 15 passes in 15 games (6 starts) for 151 yards and a touchdown this season. In fact, last year, he set career highs with 11 starts, 17 catches and 123 yards. He made nine starts in the 16 games of the regular season in 2015, recording seven catches, including his first career TD in the regular-season finale. The first Panther to play in the NFL since 1983, Harris played two seasons at Milwaukee and helped the team to a College Basketball Invitational appearance in 2012 before putting up 9.1 ppg and 5.3 rpg in 2012-13. The 6-foot-7 Harris appeared in eight games as a tight end for the Chiefs in 2014 and hauled in three passes for 20 yards before suffering a season-ending foot injury during warm-ups against Buffalo in early November.

IT'S OUR HOUSE

Although the building is not new and has been the site to many historic basketball moments in Milwaukee history, this is UWM's fourth season in an arena that bears its name - UW-Milwaukee Panther Arena. In July of 2014, the University and Wisconsin Center District entered into a 10-year partnership that included naming rights to the facility formerly known as The MECCA and most recently, U.S. Cellular Arena.
