LOOKING AT THE OPPONENTS:

MICHIGAN STATE: MSU checks in at 16-2-3 on the season and will be hosting an NCAA Tournament contest for the first time, setting a program record for regular-season victories along the way. The Spartans won the regular season Big Ten Championship by going 9-0-1 in the league but fell to Penn State after making their first-ever appearance in the Big Ten Tournament Championship game. Lauren DeBeau was selected as B1G Forward of the Year and leads her squad with 23 points on 10 goals and three assists. Ruby Diodati collected Defender of the Year honors and leads the Spartans with eight assists. Lauren Kozal was chosen as Goalkeeper of the Year and has an .866 save percentage and ten shutouts.

In his second season leading the Spartans, Jeff Hosler was voted B1G Coach of the Year. MSU was ranked No. 6 in the United Soccer Coaches poll and No. 12 in RPI heading into play last week.

After claiming the Horizon League Tournament Championship against Purdue Fort Wayne, the Milwaukee women's soccer team opens its NCAA Tournament run with a trip to Michigan to take on Michigan State. The Panthers (12-3-3) and the nationally-ranked Spartans (16-2-3) will square off Friday, November 11 at DeMartin Stadium in East Lansing. Kick-off is scheduled for 5 p.m. CST.

General admission tickets will be sold online and at the gate beginning one hour before kick. For more information or to purchase tickets, call 1-800-GO-STATE. Gates will open one hour before the start of the game. Live video and stats will be available; check the MKE website for link information for tickets as well as game info.

The Panthers find themselves No. 8 in the United Soccer Coaches North regional poll, a Top-10 spot they have held for almost two months. The Spartans are No. 1 in the regional poll as well as the current No. 6 team in the land. The winner of the match will face the winner of the contest between UTSA (12-5-4) and TCU (12-4-5) the following weekend. See page 14 of this release for the full schedule of the NCAA Tournament. A digital game program for the tournament is also available at www.ncaa.com/DIWomensSoccer.

The Panthers are making their 16th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and 15th with the Horizon League's automatic berth. Milwaukee made previous tournament trips in 1997, 2001, 2002, 2005, 2006, 2008-13, 2018, 2019, 2020, and 2021.

The team has posted an all-time mark in the event of 3-15-2, claiming 1-0 victories over #14 Xavier in 2021 and over Elon in 2020, and a 3-0 win over Illinois State at home in 2011 in addition to advancing to the second round following PK shootouts in both 2006 (T, 0-0 vs. Michigan/advance 5-3) and 2005 (T, 0-0 vs. Purdue/advance 6-5).

HOW THEY GOT HERE

The Panthers earned the Horizon League's automatic bid by posting a 1-0 shutout of Purdue Fort Wayne on a day that will be remembered for the crazy weather as much as the championship. Haley Johnson scored the only goal - coming off a kick from near midfield - sending Milwaukee to the crown. They enter the NCAA Tournament on an 11-game unbeaten streak (9-0-2), including wins in seven consecutive contests that wrapped up last weekend with a 3-1 victory over IUPUI in the Horizon League Tournament semifinals and a 1-0 shutout over Youngstown State in the title game, led by the only goal of the contest scored by Johnson, who was named the League Tournament Most Valuable Player.

Johnson is capping her MKE career of in style, currently leading the team and the conference in both points (19) and goals (8). She is one of four Panthers to record double-digit point totals, joined by Kayla Rollins (18 on 8G/2A), Lainey Higgins (14 on 3G and league-leading 8 assists), and Natalie Auble (13 on 4G/5A). In net, Kendall Edwards has been on an impressive run down the stretch and currently has posted a 0.63 goals-against average and .838 save percentage on the season. She has six shutouts, including the 1-0 victory in the league title game Saturday, earning her a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

RANKINGS ROUND-UP

The Panthers will be taking on a ranked opponent for the 48th time in program history when they battle the #6 Spartans Friday. Overall, Milwaukee is 4-37-6 against ranked foes, last playing a contest against a ranked side twice in the NCAA Tournament last fall. The Panthers topped #14 Xavier, 1-0, before falling at #2 Virginia, 2-0.

Kevin Boyd has been named the new head coach of the Milwaukee women's soccer team.

"We are truly excited to have someone with Kevin's experience and proven track-record join the Panther family," Director of Athletics Amanda Braun said. "The Milwaukee women's soccer program is consistently a top team in the region and continues to make its name known nationally. We look forward to Coach Boyd leading our student-athletes and maintaining our tradition of success and excellence both on and off the field."

Boyd brings over 20 years of head-coaching experience with him to Milwaukee, having spent two decades in the Pac-12 as head coach at both Arizona State University and at the University of California, Berkeley. No matter the stop, Boyd has been a proven winner, ranking as the all-time winningest coach during his final campaigns at both Pac-12 programs, while compiling over 200 victories in his career.

Boyd's 214-148-48 overall record as a head coach at the NCAA Division I level includes 13 appearances in the NCAA Tournament, helping his players move on to the professional level in every pro women's soccer league that has existed. Boyd comes to the Panthers after spending the past two seasons as the associate head coach at Washington State, helping lead the Cougars to an overall record of 20-6-7 in that span.

While at WSU he added a 14th overall NCAA Tournament appearance to his resume and a track record with drafted players that is hard to match across the nation. The Cougars have had seven players drafted professionally over the past three seasons, the second-most of any NCAA program in the country.

Boyd is the ninth coach in Milwaukee program history and takes over a program that has made 15 NCAA Tournament appearances, won 21 regular-season league titles and 14 league tournament trophies, reaching the NCAA Tournament in each of the past four seasons, as well as the second round in each of the past two.

Boyd spent 10 seasons as the Sun Devils head coach from 2007-16. During his time at ASU, Boyd guided his team to four NCAA tournaments, including a second-round appearance in 2014. Throughout his time, Boyd would compile a program-best 90 wins while his players would earn 23 all-conference awards.

Prior to Arizona State, Boyd guided the program as the head coach at Cal from 1997-2006. While at Cal, he compiled a school-record 124 wins while leading the team to eight NCAA Tournament appearances. He would lead the Bears to a Pac-10 championship in 1998 in his second season in Berkeley, while in 2005 he was named the conference Coach of the Year after guiding the Bears to the third round of the NCAA Tournament. One of his final recruiting classes included Alex Morgan, who went on to play for the United States National Team and was the first overall pick in the 2011 Women's Professional Soccer Draft.

More recently, Boyd worked as the Academy Director and Technical Director for Legends FC (2017-2020). With the club, he was charged with running the organization's US Soccer Development Academy Program, overseeing the Academy II program, while also coaching the Legends WPSL Semi-Professional Team.

Boyd is a graduate of Tri-State University (now Trine University) where he earned All-America honors for his play in the defensive backline. Among his many honors, Boyd earned induction into the Trojans' Hall of Fame after finishing a professional career that took him to Hamar Kameratena, a Norwegian Elite team in the country's First Division.

Boyd, and his wife, Kristi, have two children, Keegan and Kaiya.

TOURNAMENT PRIDE

The Panthers have a long history of success in the Horizon League Tournament and have now posted an impressive 41-8-10 record all-time in the event, including 20-4-3 in semifinal action. In addition, a member of the Panther roster has been named league tournament MVP in 11 of the past 15 years, with Haley Johnson joining the list in 2022.

CHAMPS. AGAIN.

Facing a regular-season finale where a win secured the title, the Panthers topped Green Bay behind a goal from Lainey Higgins and a shutout from Kendall Edwards to finish at 7-1-2 and with 23 points, securely in front of Purdue Fort Wayne who ended with 19 (5-1-4). That gave Milwaukee the regular-season crown and the No. 1 seed and hosting right for the Horizon League Tournament. The regular-season title is the seventh in the past eight years for MKE, a span that has seen the team go 64-3-6. In addition, the team has now won the regular-season title 21 times since 2000 (all but 2020 and 2014) and 22 total times overall.

HALEY HAD A SENIOR MOMENT

Haley Johnson came through when her team needed her the most, scoring the lone goal of the game against Oakland – coming in the 51st minute and after she participated in “Senior Day” celebrations pregame - helping the Panthers to a key 1-0 victory in their title chase. She was honored as Horizon League Player of the Week for her efforts - the fourth time in her career she has been selected. It has been quite a career for Johnson, who has now made 74 starts in 79 career games, tallying 68 points on 24 goals and 20 assists. Her point total now stands sixth in program history, while her 24 goals is seventh and 20 assists is 11th.

HERE COMES THE BOOM

Kat Van Booven picked a fine time to put together her best outings of the season, posting five points (two goals, one assist) in wins over Detroit Mercy Oct. 13 and Northern Kentucky Oct. 15 to earn Horizon League Offensive Player of the Week honors.

In the 4-0 shutout of the Titans, Van Booven converted a penalty kick to make it 2-0 and then added an assist later in the game. Sunday against the Norse, she scored a pivotal goal off a corner kick just 20 seconds before halftime, giving MKE the 2-1 lead and much-needed momentum in what was a tied contest as the Panthers went on to win 3-1 and move to the top of the HLWSOC standings at the time.

RECINOS MAKING THE MOST OF IT

Stephanie Recinos has certainly been making the most of her opportunities this season, as she starts the week fifth on the team in points with eight, coming on the strength of three goals and a pair of assists. The part of this that makes it so impressive is that she has appeared in just 10 games and only played 131 total minutes on the season. In addition, two of her three goals have been game-winners, providing the difference against Robert Morris Sept. 18 and Cleveland State Sept. 22.

HIGGINS HIGHLIGHTS

Lainey Higgins put together a career-best performance against IUPUI Oct. 6, picking up Horizon League Offensive Player of the Week honors after playing a role in all three MKE goals in a 3-0 shutout of the Jaguars. She scored the eventual game-winner in the 60th minute to break open a scoreless affair, lacing the shot into the side netting. She then set up teammates perfectly for goals two and three, assisting Natalie Auble’s goal in the 63rd minute with a header while picking up a second assist on a free kick that was headed into the net by Haley Johnson in the 70th to round out the scoring. The four-point (1G/2A) effort marked the second-most for a Panther in a game this season (Molly O’Regan had 2G/1A for 5 points vs. Robert Morris). Entering play this week, Higgins leads the Horizon League with eight assists and also sits fifth in the conference with 14 points (3G/8A).

THE LATE SHOW

Haley Johnson came through in the final seconds against Youngstown State September 25, finding the back of the net with just six seconds left in regulation to help the Panthers earn a hard-fought 1-1 draw with the Penguins.

At 89:54, it’s the latest goal scored to tie or win for a Milwaukee player since at least 2000. The closest anyone has come in the last 20-plus years to that type of drama was back in 2018

(McKaela Schmelzer equalized at 88:42 in a 3-2 win over Iowa State) and then back in 2013 (Kelly Lewers struck for the win at 88:46 in a 4-3 decision over Miami OH). Johnson's goal is the latest of any Panther strike in regulation since Lewers again was responsible, netting one at 89:57 in a loss to Iowa State.

BRACE FOR IT

The Panthers bounced back in a big way against Robert Morris Sept. 18, netting nine goals against an opponent that came into the game unbeaten (5-0-3) in 2022 with just five goals allowed. The MKE offense turned it on after the break, scoring seven times over the final 45 minutes to earn the 9-1 victory - the most goals scored by the program since an 11-0 blowout of Chicago State on September 14 of the 2016 campaign. The seven second-half goals is also the most for a half since that day, getting off to an 8-0 lead by the break against the Cougars.

Kayla Rollins and Molly O'Regan each recorded a brace against RMU, with Rollins actually accomplishing the feat for a third different time this season (also a pair against Lindenwood and Wisconsin). O'Regan's was a career-first and she added an assist - all coming in just 13 minutes of playing time against the Colonials. After scoring a goal against Wright State in the opener, O'Regan was named Horizon League Offensive Player of the Week for her efforts. The pair of goals by the pair of players marks the first time that has happened in a game for the Panthers since Lesley Kiesling and Kat Van Booven turned the trick against Youngstown State in September of 2021. Rollins third brace matches last year's team leaders, as Mackenzie Schill and Lesley Kiesling each had three over the course of the full season last fall. The last player with at least four multi-goal outings in a single season was Sarah Hagen, who accomplished the feat EIGHT times over the course of the 2011 campaign (2/2/2/2/2/3/2).

A NEW ERA IN MKE

The 2022 season brings a new look for the Panthers after Kevin Boyd was named the ninth coach in Milwaukee program history. He inherits a program that has made 15 NCAA Tournament appearances, won 21 regular-season league titles and 14 league tournament trophies, reaching the NCAA Tournament in each of the past four seasons, as well as the second round in each of the past two. Boyd brings over 20 years of head-coaching experience with him to Milwaukee, having spent two decades in the Pac-12 as head coach at both Arizona State University and at the University of California, Berkeley. No matter the stop, Boyd has been a proven winner, ranking as the all-time winningest coach during his final campaigns at both Pac-12 programs, while compiling over 200 victories in his career.

Boyd's 214-148-48 overall record as a head coach at the NCAA Division I level includes 13 appearances in the NCAA Tournament, helping his players move on to the professional level in every pro women's soccer league that has existed. Boyd comes to the Panthers after spending the past two seasons as the associate head coach at Washington State, helping lead the Cougars to an overall record of 20-6-7 in that span.

FIGURING IT OUT

The Panthers put together an unbeaten streak of four games (3-0-1) following a season-opening loss at Wake Forest, relying on a sound defense (three shutouts in those four games) as well as an offense that started to find its footing. The team scored a season-best three goals in the win over Illinois State Sept. 4 and have really been creating opportunities. In fact, the offense recorded 20-or-more shot attempts in three-straight games (31 vs. Lindenwood/21 vs. WIU/21 vs. Illinois State). A look back over the years shows just how impressive that is. Outside of last season's record-setting offense - which accomplished the feat twice - the last time a Panther offense had three-consecutive matches of 20-plus shots was during the 2009 campaign, opening October with 21 against Valparaiso and 37 against both Cleveland State and Youngstown State. A year ago, the team actually ripped off a stretch of three in a row (26/26/27) as well as a school-record four straight (30/36/22/26) to open October.

LINDEN-"WOOD" IS RIGHT

The Panthers dominated Lindenwood August 28 but had to settle for a 2-0 victory after cracking balls off the woodwork all afternoon - the team actually hit the cross bar or post on five occasions.

The 31 shots were also a season-high, with 13 different players recording at least one. Kayla Rollins led the way with five (four on target/one off the post) and scored both goals, earning Horizon League Offensive Player of the Week honors for her efforts. The team put up 30-plus shots on two occasions last season (36 vs. Purdue Fort Wayne/30 vs. Youngstown State), but prior to that had not reached that level since posting 32 shots against Eastern Illinois back in early September of 2019.

HOO-RAY HORIZON

When it comes to Horizon League openers, the record is quite impressive all-time. Milwaukee has gone 25-3-1 in opening action (since joining the league in 1994), with a string of 14 wins in a row from 1998 through 2011. The squad had been victories in nine straight as well, before getting knocked off by WSU in 2022.

The Panthers have had a very long line of success when it comes to Horizon League play, claiming the regular-season title in six of the past seven seasons (2015-19/2021) as well as 20 of the past 22 titles overall. In fact, the team has posted a sparkling 58-2-4 ledger (.938 win %) over the past seven campaigns (coming into 2022) in regular-season conference play.

A NEW LOOK

Along with a new coach, the roster will also have a new look after the Panthers lost 12 players to graduation or transfer and will now be able to count on just two returning starters on the field following a stellar 19-2 campaign that set school records for overall wins (19) and winning percentage (.905), as well as longest-ever win streak (14). After a season in which the Panthers set the school record for points (206) and assists (80), and finished second in all-time goals for a season (63), just 28.7 percent of those points are set to return. The team will also be inexperienced in goal, as all 1,924:51 of playing time between the pipes last season is not back on the field.

Points: returners accounted for 59 of the 206 points (28.7 percent)
Goals: 18 of 63 goals (28.6 percent)
Assists: 23 of 80 assists (28.8 percent)
Starts: returning players accounted for 51 starts last season.
Minutes: returning players accounted for 5,830 of 21,175 minutes played (27.5 percent), with just two players that saw the field over 1,000 minutes (Clara Broecker 1,894 and Kat Van Booven 1,104).

this season, with the Panthers featuring just four total players classified as juniors or seniors. In addition, the squad will consist of 21 freshmen (12 true/nine redshirt freshmen) and 11 sophomores (eight true/three redshirt sophomores).

The upperclassmen breakdown is as follows:

SENIORS: Haley Johnson, Trudy Quidzinski

JUNIORS: Natalie Auble, Brooke Parnello

A look at the starting lineup in the season opener against Wake Forest August 18 shows a quick sample of the roster situation. It was also the first collegiate start for seven of the 11 players.

SENIORS (1): Haley Johnson

JUNIORS (2): Natalie Auble, Brooke Parnello

SOPHOMORES (6): Lexi Blaser, Parker Donahugh, Emma Famulak, Lainey Higgins, Anna Karam, Kat Van Booven

FRESHMEN (2): Anna Champine, Senya Meurer

FOR OPENERS

The Panthers opened 2021 against Northern Illinois with a 6-0 victory, now moving to 15-15-3 in season openers at the NCAA Division I level following the 2-0 loss to a Wake Forest team receiving votes in the national poll in 2022. The team has now gone 6-3-2 in season openers the past 11 years, with a 1-0 victory over Western Illinois in 2015 snapping a three-game stretch without a victory. Two seasons ago, MKE opened the campaign with a 5-1 victory over Robert Morris on the road. In addition, the Panthers are now 18-2 in home openers. Speaking of debuts, the six goals marked the most in program history for a lid-lifter, topping the five scored against Robert Morris to open the 2020 campaign. Four had not been scored in over 30 years (4-2 over St. Norbert in 1988 and 4-0 over St. Mary's (IN) in 1987), while three has also been recorded on four different occasions.

PRESEASON POLL

Milwaukee was picked by league coaches to finish second in the 2022 Horizon League regular season. The Panthers tallied five first-place votes and 108 points in the coaches' poll to hold down the runner-up spot, just behind the 115-point total of Oakland, who also received five first-place votes. Despite being Horizon League Tournament champions for a fourth consecutive year and appearing in the NCAA Tournament for the 15th time in program history a year ago, Milwaukee was not selected for the top spot for the first time in six seasons – a spot they have held in the league poll 19 times since 2000, as well as an amazing run of 13 straight from 2000-2012. Northern Kentucky finished in third place, earning 96 points, while Cleveland State was a distant fourth with 74 points.

2022 PRESEASON POLL

1. Oakland (5) – 115
2. Milwaukee (5) – 108
3. Northern Kentucky – 96
4. Cleveland State – 74
5. Green Bay – 65
6. Wright State – 60
7. IUPUI – 55
8. Purdue Fort Wayne – 51
9. Youngstown State (1) – 49
10. Detroit Mercy – 28
11. RMU – 25

EXPERIENCE WILL MATTER

With the roster featuring a new look and plenty of inexperience looking to build quickly, the Panthers will depend on their upperclassmen and look the way of Haley Johnson to lead the charge. Johnson is easily the most experience returner and has recorded the most games played (64), games started (59), goals (19), assists (17), shots (122), and career points (55) of any player on the roster. Natalie Auble, currently listed in the junior class, has the second-most points/goals/assists with a 10-7-27 statline heading into 2022.

AN IMPRESSIVE LIST TO TOP

Let's be honest, the Panthers have been very good since the start of the 2017 campaign. How good? Well, at 77-8-7 (.875), they actually have the BEST winning percentage in the nation over that span in NCAA play heading into 2022. The only one who had been higher is 2019 & 2017 NCAA National Champion Stanford, but they are now in third at 88-15-5 (.838) over the same time frame following a 13-6-1 campaign in 2021. No. 2 on that list is now North Carolina (92-14-8/.842), with UCLA (83-13-12/.824), Georgetown (74-11-18/.806), and Duke (76-19-15/.759) to follow.

TOPS IN THE LAND (OR CLOSE!)

The 2021 campaign will go down in the record books as one of the most successful in program history, setting numerous records in addition to being one of the highest-ranked teams in the country in numerous NCAA categories.

The Panthers finished FIRST in the NCAA in:

- Assists Per Game (3.81 apg)
- Shutout Percentage (.762)
- Save Percentage (.893)
- Goals-Against Average (0.374)
- Points Per Game (9.81)
- Total Assists (80)

Other high ranks include:

- Scoring Offense (3.0 gpg/2nd)
- Win-Loss % (.905/2nd)
- Total Points (206/3rd)
- Shots on Goal Per Game (9.86 SOGPG/3rd)
- Total Goals (63/5th)
- Shots Per Game (19.33/10th)

In addition, the team had a pair of players crowned NCAA statistical champions following the conclusion of the season. Gaby Schwartz received top honors in both assists-per-game (0.90apg) as well as total assists (school-record 19). In goal, Elaina LaMacchia notched the top spot with her 0.424 goals-against average and just missed in save percentage, finishing second with her .882 mark.

RECAPPING THE 2021 NCAA TRIP

The Panthers made their 15th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and 14th with the Horizon League's automatic berth last fall. Milwaukee made previous tournament trips in 1997, 2001, 2002, 2005, 2006, 2008-13, 2018, 2019, and 2020. The team has previously been sent to Minnesota (1997), Madison (2009/2019), Ann Arbor (2013), Santa Clara (2018), Notre Dame three times (2006, 2008, 2012) and across town to Marquette four times (2001-02, 2005, 2010). They also hosted their 2011 first-round match.

With the win over Xavier, the team has now posted an all-time mark in the event of 3-15-2, also claiming a 1-0 decision over Elon in 2020 and a 3-0 victory over Illinois State at home in 2011 in addition to advancing to the second round following PK shootouts in both 2006 (T, 0-0 vs. Michigan/advance 5-3) and 2005 (T, 0-0 vs. Purdue/advance 6-5).

HOW THEY GOT HERE

The Panthers earned the Horizon League's automatic bid by posting back-to-back shutouts of Green Bay and Oakland by identical 2-0 scorelines. Horizon League Tournament MVP Lesley Kiesling scored in both, including the eventual winner in the semifinal victory over the Phoenix. She then added an insurance strike in the 76th minute to put the title game away against Oakland. Goalkeeper Elaina LaMacchia went 180 scoreless minutes, making a total of seven saves in the pair of matches. Kiesling and LaMacchia were joined on the All-Tournament Team by Rachel Phillpotts and Maggy Henschler.

Milwaukee then advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in program history (and second-straight year) with a 1-0 defeat of #14 Xavier. Taylor Hattori found the back of the net in the 16th minute and Elaina LaMacchia did the rest, recording five saves – including an incredible game-saver late – to record her ninth individual shutout of the fall, as well as the 15th total clean sheet she has been a major part of this season.

IN THE BLINK OF AN EYE

Jelena Sever became a national highlight last year when she established a new NCAA record for quickest goal to start a match in women's soccer history against YSU, sending the opening kickoff into the net in just three seconds. That broke the WSOC DI standard of :04, which had been done in both 2009 (by Purdue) and 2006 (North Carolina). It got her the No. 4 spot on ESPN SportsCenter's "Top 10 Plays of the Day" and also garnered the "Play of the Day" on Good Morning America. The accompanying ESPN Instagram post has gone a bit viral and been liked close to 750,000 times. The ESPN tweet has been viewed over 400,000 times and liked over 10,000 times, totaling well over 1,000,000 engagements between the two.

A look around all levels of NCAA soccer shows just where Sever's epic strike ranks, tying the all-time mark with the three seconds with men's NCAA DIII (set in 2016) and women's NCAA DII (also 2016). It is quicker than MSOC DI (:06 set in 2008), WSOC DIII (:06 in 2004), and MSOC DII (:04 in 1998). It's the second time that Sever made the MKE all-time list in 2021, making her first entry 47 seconds into the victory over Eastern Kentucky Aug. 27 when she one-timed a cross from Natalie Auble into the back of the net early that afternoon. Sever also picked up Horizon League Player of the Week honors Sept. 7, following back-to-back games in which she netted the game-winning goal. It marked the fifth time she has won the honor in her career.

PUTTING THE "O" IN OFFENSE

The Panthers were quite impressive all season a year ago, and the back-to-back 7-0 victories over Cleveland State and Youngstown State to close September of 2021 were actually unprecedented. Never before in program history had the team posted back-to-back games of seven-plus goals. In fact, a look back will show that the team had never even posted six-plus before and haven't gone for five goals in back-to-back games since the 1995 campaign (they did it twice that fall). Five-plus has been done just three times overall. The most recent occurrence was six against Wright State and five against Loyola Chicago at the end of September, 1995. MKE scored five-plus goals in a game on six different occasions last fall for a new program record - the prior best was five such occurrences in 2009.

THAT SOUNDS FAMILIAR

Milwaukee recorded a 1-0 victory over #14 Xavier to advance in the NCAA Tournament. That 1-0 scoreline has a familiar ring to it, as the team has been simply amazing in games featuring that final score recently. Since 2015, the Panthers have played 36 games that ended 1-0 (either way). Their record? An impressive 30-6 in those pressure-packed outings, including against Marquette earlier this season, and again in a tight results over Cleveland State Sept. 22, Oakland Oct. 22, and to secure the regular-season title against Green Bay Oct. 26. They did that one better in the postseason, securing a berth to the NCAA Tournament with a 1-0 decision over Purdue Fort Wayne in the title game.

SETTING THE TONE

Milwaukee continued its recent trend of picking up victories after getting on the board first. The Panthers went a perfect 9-0 when finding the back of the net first in 2020, and an impressive 17-0 in 2021. That now improves the squad to 85-0 the past five-plus seasons after getting the first goal of a game after another 17-0 ledger in 2019, 16-0 in 2018, and 14-0 in 2017. The last time the Panthers lost (or even tied) a match in which they scored first was the 2016 Horizon League Tournament title game against Northern Kentucky (Nov. 5, 2016), a contest they led 2-0 early before falling, 3-2. They are also 74-2-9 when outshooting their opponent in that same span, getting outshot just 16 times over the five-plus year stretch.

WE MUST PROTECT THIS HOUSE!!

Milwaukee went 5-1-4 at home back in 2015. Since then, the Panthers have posted an impressive 59-6-4 ledger at Engelmann Stadium (an .884 winning percentage), including a perfect 11-0 run through home outings in fall of 2019 and a 13-1 mark last fall.

CATCH THEM IN ACTION

Milwaukee women's soccer will be available for the viewing pleasure of MKE fans this season, as all six home games are scheduled to be streamed live on ESPN+ (subject to change due to weather and location). The Horizon League and ESPN have an agreement that includes ESPN hosting the league's digital network on the ESPN+ platform. ESPN+, which will host the Horizon League women's soccer, men's soccer and volleyball championships this season, offers fans thousands of live events, on-demand content and original programming not available on ESPN's linear TV or digital networks. Fans can subscribe to ESPN+ for $9.99 a month (or $99.99 per year) and cancel at any time. Launched in April of 2018, ESPN+ is an integrated part of a completely redesigned ESPN App.

ON TAP

If the team is able to secure a first-round NCAA Tournament victory, it will advance to play round two November 18-20.
