- COACHING CAREER
- Assistant Coach at Pittsburgh from 1988-90.
 - Assistant Coach at Villanova from 1991-93.
 - Assistant Coach at New Mexico State from 1994-97.
 - Assistant Coach at Univ. of Utah from 1998-99.
 - Assistant Coach at Villanova in 1999.
 - Associate Head Coach at Villanova in 2000.
 - Named Head Coach at Villanova on May 8, 2001.

Joe Godri is in his second season as head coach of the Villanova baseball program in 2003. In his first season at the helm of the Wildcats in 2002, Godri led Villanova to a 30-23 record. It marked the first time since the 1995 campaign that the Wildcats reached the 30-victory mark.

Four of Godri's players from last season's squad went on to play in the professional ranks. Pitcher Brian Slocum was selected in the second round of the 2002 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft by the Cleveland Indians, while first baseman Rob Cafiero was chosen in the 32nd round by the Philadelphia Phillies. Third baseman Brendan Mannix also played minor league baseball this past year, as he signed a free agent contract with the New York Mets. In addition, senior hurler Bob Grzenda traveled overseas where he played professional baseball for the German Professional League's Regensburg Legionaere.

Individual honors were numerous for Godri's 2002 Wildcats as well. Reliever James Russell was named a third team All-American by the NCBWA, as well as an ABCA/Rawlings first team All-East Region honoree. In May, 2002, Russell along with Cafiero, Mannix, and Chris Graziano were named to the All-Big East Conference second team. Freshman pitcher Nick Allen also got into the awards mix as he received Louisville Slugger Freshmen All-America Honorable Mention.

Each of Godri's first two recruiting classes as head coach have earned accolades as they were named to Collegiate Baseball's top 75 classes in the nation.

Overseeing the recruiting effort as associate head coach in 2001, his first season in that capacity, Godri brought in one of the nation's top recruiting classes which included two Baseball Factory All-Americans.

Following the 2001 season, he was named as the school's 10th head baseball coach replacing former head coach George Bennett who retired after 16 years with the program.

Godri began his coaching career at the University of Pittsburgh in 1988, where he was the batting instructor from 1988-90. He came to Villanova University in 1991 for his first of two stints with the Wildcat baseball program.

Godri was the batting coach for Villanova for three seasons. During Godri's first stay on the Main Line, he coached two all-Americans in Mike Neill and Gene Schall. Both went on to play in the Major League's, with Neill making the major's with the Oakland A's and Schall with the Philadelphia Phillies. Godri also helped the Wildcats reach the NCAA Northeast Regionals in 1991, their second NCAA appearance in three seasons.

Following his three seasons at Villanova, Godri headed to New Mexico State where he served as the team's head assistant from 1994-97. While coaching at New Mexico State, two of his three recruiting classes were ranked in the top 40 by Collegiate Baseball. In addition, the Aggies were ranked in the top 25 for the first time in school history. With his focus on hitting as a New Mexico State assistant, Godri helped the Aggies crack the top five in several NCAA offensive categories including hitting, runs scored, stolen bases and home runs. He also coached another future major leaguer in Jason Rackers, who would go on to play for the Kansas City Royals.

After three seasons at New Mexico State, Godri spent one season as an associate scout for the Cleveland Indians. He then traveled to the University of Utah where he assisted with the pitching staff for two seasons.

Following his two seasons in Salt Lake City, Godri returned to the Main Line in 2000 to begin his second go-around with the Wildcats. After serving as an assistant to head coach George Bennett in 2000, he was promoted to Associate Head Coach in January 2001. In addition to his on-the-field duties for Villanova as Associate Head Coach, Godri also served as the team's recruiting coordinator.

A 1990 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with his Bachelor's Degree in education, Godri went on to receive his Master's Degree in marketing and management from New Mexico State. He played his collegiate ball at Colorado State University and Montgomery County Junior College.

A native of Phoenixville, Pa., Godri is married to the former Michelle Simon and currently resides in Douglassville, Pa.

THREE VILLANOVA HOME RUNS POWER 'CATS PAST TEMPLE:

The Villanova baseball team opened the new month much like they ended the last one - victorious. The Wildcats won for the sixth time in eight games on Thursday, May 1st, at Erny Field in Philadelphia, bashing three home runs and pounding out 13 hits in an 8-6 win over the Temple Owls. Senior centerfielder Chris Graziano hit his first career home run and Mitch Mitchell and Brian Trotta each posted three hits including a home run, as Villanova improved to 13-26 overall on the season. Temple fell to 18-20 on the year with the loss. Nick Allen earned the win on the mound for Villanova to improve to 4-5. He allowed four runs in five and two-thirds innings, striking out two batters. Dan Farino pitched the final one and a third innings of the contest to pick up his third save of the season. Tim Foulkrod took the loss for Temple (0-2) surrendering eight runs on 12 hits in 5.2 innings. At the plate for the Wildcats, Graziano went two-for-five with a stolen base, a home run, two runs scored and three RBI. In addition, Mitchell went three-for-five with a double, home run, two runs and two RBI, while Trotta went three-for-four a home run, two runs and one RBI.

YEAGER MASTER: SENIOR WINDING DOWN CAREER ON HIGH

NOTE: On Tuesday, April 29th, Villanova senior pitcher John Yeager was named Big East Conference Co-Pitcher of the Week for his performance during the week of April 21-27. Yeager tossed a complete game shutout on Sunday, April 27th, versus Georgetown, and finished the week allowing just one run in 12.1 innings of work. Yeager was dominant on Sunday against Georgetown, tossing a complete game shutout in the 5-0 Villanova victory. It was the second complete game shutout of his career, and the first of the season for the senior right-hander. Yeager put together a 109-pitch performance versus the Hoyas with 70 of the pitches being strikes. In nine innings, he allowed just six hits and two walks while striking out six batters. All of the six hits versus Yeager were singles. No Georgetown hitter got past second base in the entire game versus the Wildcat pitcher. For the week, Yeager allowed just one run on 11 hits in 12.1 innings, striking out seven and walked only three. He pitched 3.1 strong innings of relief at Saint Joseph's on Wednesday.

VILLANOVA RETIRES JERSEY OF FORMER HEAD BASEBALL

COACH GEORGE BENNETT: On Sunday, April 27th at the Villanova Ballpark at Plymouth, the Villanova baseball program retired the jersey of former Wildcat head baseball coach George Bennett. Bennett's number six now joins the other four all-time Villanova baseball greats whose numbers and names will forever be celebrated as the best of the best - the other four being former coach Art Mahan, and players Len Merullo, Frank Skaff and Phil Fidalgo. Bennett coached on the Main Line from 1986-2001 and during that time recorded a 463-324-6 overall record. He is the all-time leader in victories at Villanova with 463. A two-time Big East Conference Coach of the Year, Bennett led the Wildcat program to two Big East Tournament Championships and three Big East Regular Season titles. In addition, he guided Villanova to NCAA Regional Appearances in 1989 and 1991, and in 1989 helped his Wildcat team come just one game away from the College World Series. Bennett has a 531-371-9 all-time career head coaching record at the collegiate ranks. He won his 500th career game on April 15, 2000 versus Georgetown.

REACHING THE CENTURY MARK: On April 22nd versus Temple, senior centerfielder Chris Graziano stole his 19th base of the season to reach the 100 stolen base plateau for his career, becoming the first Wildcat to ever reach the century mark in stolen bases. He currently has 103 thefts for his career. Graziano, a 2003 Preseason All-Big East first team performer, ran into the Wildcat record books last season like he has done in nearly each of his three-plus seasons on the Main Line. Graziano's outstanding junior campaign for the 'Cats in '02 included 38 runs scored, nine doubles, four triples, 20 RBI, 38 stolen bases and second team All-Big East accolades. His 38 stolen bases put him among the nation's top base stealers for the second consecutive season. Graziano broke his own Villanova single season stolen base record last season set just one year earlier (37 SB in 2001). In addition, he surpassed the all-time Wildcat career mark for stolen bases, stealing his 62nd career base on March 24 at St. John's to break Brian Fili's (1994-97) old record of 61. Graziano's play has not gone unnoticed.

FEEL'N HOT, HOT, HOT: In the last 10 games, senior Mitch Mitchell is batting .484 (15-for-31) with eight runs scored, three doubles, one home run and 10 RBI for Villanova. He currently owns an eight-game hitting streak which dates back to April 19th. Mitchell has been a key utility man for the Wildcats in 2003, as the senior has played a number of positions including first base, third base, right field and designated hitter. For the season, Mitchell is batting .311 (38-for-122) with 14 runs scored, a team-high 10 doubles, two home runs and a team-best 29 RBI. In addition, he has walked 16 times, been hit by a pitch four times, and currently owns a .400 on-base percentage.

DAN THE MAN: Junior right-hander Dan Farino has been the anchor of the Wildcat bullpen in 2003. For the season, he is currently 1-2 with three saves in 16 appearances and owns a team-best 2.86 ERA on the season. In 28.1 innings, Farino has allowed just nine earned runs on 21 hits, striking out 23 and walking 10. Earlier in the year, he put together a scoreless streak of eight and two-thirds innings. Farino has spent time as both a starter and a reliever during his two-plus seasons on the Main Line, but has thrived out of the bullpen. For his career, he has a 5-7 record with three saves and an ERA of 3.61. In 112.1 innings of work, Farino has given up only 45 earned runs on 104 hits, striking out 76 and walking 56.

YOUNGSTER ON THE RISE: Sophomore right-handed pitcher Nick Allen led the Villanova team in victories with six as a freshman last season and went on to earn Louisville Slugger Freshmen All-America honorable mention by Collegiate Baseball. The young right-hander finished the year 6-1 with a 5.28 ERA, striking out 31 batters in 46 innings. Allen came to Villanova as a highly touted high school pitcher out of Green Lane, Pa., and Boyertown Area High School. During his high school career, he went 16-4 with a microscopic 0.75 ERA. Allen again leads the Wildcat pitching staff in victories this season with four. He also currently leads the team in innings pitched with 57.2.

TRANSFERS BRING ADDED BATS TO 'CATS: With the graduation of sluggers Rob Cafiero and Brendan Mannix who combined for 33 doubles, 24 home runs, and 89 RBI last season, the Wildcats were in need of some added offense heading into 2003. Enter Mitch Mitchell and Danny Poydenis. Mitchell came to Villanova from Oklahoma State where he batted .273 (12-for-44) with two doubles, one home run and six RBI in 2002 and helped lead the Cowboys to a 37-21 overall record. He plays a number of positions for the 'Cats including the outfield and at third and first base. Poydenis joined the Wildcats after transferring from Brevard Community College in Florida where he put up outstanding numbers as a sophomore last season despite missing 16 games due to a wrist injury. He batted .384 with 23 stolen bases and a .500 on-base percentage in 2002. In addition to a starting role at third base, Poydenis also has the ability to move to second base.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: Freshman first baseman Freddie Thon has quite the family history in baseball. His uncle, Dickie Thon, played 15 years in the Major Leagues for the Angels, Astros, Padres, Phillies, Rangers, and Brewers. His father, Frankie, is a scout for the Astros and a former pro player. Hailing from Guaynabo, P.R., Freddie was drafted in the 43rd round of the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft by the Houston Astros but bypassed the professional ranks to come to Villanova. Thon has already begun to draw attention as he was named Big East Preseason Freshman of the Year by Baseball America and was listed among the Top 50 freshmen in the nation by Baseball America. He possesses tremendous power potential and appears ready to make an immediate impact for the 'Cats in the middle of the lineup.

THE HIT DOCTOR: Villanova assistant coach and hitting instructor Doc Kennedy is no stranger to developing baseball talent. A well known baseball mentor in the area, Kennedy came to Villanova from Phoenixville High School in Phoenixville, Pa., where he was the head varsity baseball coach for 20 years and taught for 35 years. During his tenure at Phoenixville, he helped lead the baseball team to six league championships and three district titles. Nine players were drafted during his tenure, including current Mets' catcher Mike Piazza. Kennedy possesses a wealth of baseball experience. In addition to his duties at Villanova, he has also spent the last three summers coaching the Harwich Mariners of the Cape Cod League.

VILLANOVA BASEBALL

EX-WILDCAT HURLERS MOVIN' ON UP: Villanova has developed a number of tremendous pitchers over the years who have gone on to pitch at the next level. Aaron Krawiec and Brian Slocum are the latest two – and each has taken another step up in 2003. Krawiec, a tall left-hander, was drafted in 2000, following his junior season, in the third round by the Chicago Cubs. He began his career with the Class A Lansing Lugnuts and moved up to the high Class A Daytona Cubs last season. Krawiec progressed yet another level in 2003, now playing for the AA West Tennessee Diamond Jaxx. Slocum was drafted in 2002, following his junior season with the Wildcats, in the second round by the Cleveland Indians. The right-hander had an outstanding rookie season in the professional ranks for the short season Class A Mahoning Valley Scrappers in 2002. This season, Slocum has moved up to the high Class A Kingston Indians of the Carolina League.

HOME SWEET HOME: The Villanova baseball program has a new home this season as its brand-new baseball complex in Plymouth Meeting, Pa., gives the Wildcats one of the finest facilities in the Big East Conference. The Villanova Ballpark at Plymouth is located just off Germantown Pike within Plymouth Township, Pa. The Villanova baseball program had been playing its home games at Richie Ashburn Field in Philadelphia since 1998 when the Wildcats' field on campus was leveled to make room for new residence halls. Villanova's new field in Plymouth is approximately seven miles from the Villanova campus. The field dimensions are 320 down each of the lines, 370 to the gaps and 400 to straight-away center. The field contains a blue grass infield and an outfield made from a Pennsylvania rye blend.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The national spotlight has shown brightly on Villanova pitcher James Russell. Both last season and during the 2003 preseason, the tall right-handed closer has accumulated honor after honor. He was named a preseason first team All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA), and also earned All-America accolades from Collegiate Baseball as a Louisville Slugger Preseason third team All-American. In addition, Russell was named to the Preseason All-Big East first team as well as to Baseball America's Preseason Big East All-Conference team. A native of Rochester, N.Y., Russell was named to the NCBWA All-America third team and the All-Big East second team last season. He led the Big East in saves in 2002 for both overall games (15) and conference games (8). Russell also finished the season tied for third in the nation in saves. He ended the 2002 campaign with a 2.33 ERA in 22 appearances, allowing just 12 runs (seven earned) on 25 hits in 27 innings pitched, striking out 35 and walking eight. Russell broke the single season Villanova save record in 2002, as well as setting a new Wildcat career mark.

BIG SHOES TO FILL: The 2003 Wildcats must make up for some big losses, as four players from last season's squad went on to pitch at the next level. Villanova lost two weekend starters from last season in Brian Slocum and Bob Grzenda. Slocum, a junior in 2002, was drafted in the second round of the 2002 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft by the Cleveland Indians, while Grzenda played professional baseball for Regensburg Legionaire of the German Professional Baseball League. The Wildcats will also have to overcome two huge losses at the corner positions with the graduation of first baseman Rob Cafiero and third baseman Brendan Mannix. Both had tremendous senior campaigns combining for 33 doubles, 24 home runs, and 89 RBI, and each went on to play at the next level with Cafiero getting drafted in the 32nd round by the Philadelphia Phillies and Mannix signing a free agent contract with the New York Mets.

CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK: Villanova catcher Greg Fater is walking in his father's footsteps. A graduate student and second year starter for the Wildcats, Fater is a second generation Villanova catcher. His father, Greg Sr., caught for the 'Cats between 1969-72. The younger Fater, a Wildcat team captain, had his best season at Villanova in 2002. He started in 30 of the 37 games in which he played batting .277 (26-for-94) with 16 runs scored, and posting three doubles, one triple and 11 RBI. Fater had six multi-hit games and two three-hit games last season.

RECRUITING CLASS RANKED AMONG NATION'S BEST: Collegiate Baseball Newspaper announced its annual compilation of the top recruiting classes across the USA. Second year head coach Joe Godri's 2002 recruiting class was ranked among the top 75 classes in the nation at No. 61. "Having a national publication recognize back-to-back recruiting classes is a big step for our baseball program here at Villanova," said head coach Joe Godri. "We will use this as another building block for our program to help re-establish Villanova as a Big East baseball power. Our class is ranked above 11 NCAA Regional teams from 2002 and third is the Big East, which is a big statement for our program's recruiting efforts." Godri's 2002 class includes eight freshmen: Jim Gillin, Jake Wolff, Freddie Thon, Thomas Rinaldi, Darren Griffith, Nick Castelli, Ted Aust, and Omar Saade. Villanova's 2002 recruiting class also includes two outstanding transfer players in Danny Poydenis from Brevard Community College and Mitch Mitchell from Oklahoma State.

'NOVA PICKED NINTH IN BIG EAST: The Villanova baseball team was picked to finish ninth in the 2003 Preseason Big East Conference Standings. The Wildcats, who finished 30-23 overall and 12-13 in the Big East last season, received 29 points in the 2003 Preseason Standings just 13 behind eighth place Pittsburgh. The poll, along with the Preseason All-Big East squad, was voted upon by the league's head coaches.

'CATS INK EIGHT DURING EARLY SIGNING PERIOD: Villanova University head baseball coach Joe Godri announced the signing of eight players to national letters of intent during the NCAA's early signing period. These eight players - Alex Bardeguetz, Chris Cancro, Nate Hall, Billy Hoffman, James Ladio, Mike Loree, Kevin Mulvey, and Andy Wendle - will join the Wildcats as part of Godri's 2004 recruiting class. "I feel that we really solidified our pitching staff with this group of players and they should make an immediate on the mound next season and for seasons to come," added Godri about the Wildcats' signings. "Over time, I feel that they will develop into pro prospects. Our position players address some of our immediate needs and should aid greatly in improving our overall depth as a ball club. The talent that we brought in this season should increase the overall quality of the Wildcat baseball program and help us to continue to move forward in the Big East Conference."
