TODAY'S GAME

■ Villanova faces Delaware in the annual "Battle of the Blue" rivalry game. This will be the 14th meeting between the teams since their annual game against each other has been billed as such. In the first 13 games of the series, the Wildcats have come away with the Battle of the Blue Trophy a total of 12 times. Villanova has faced the Blue Hens more times than any other opponent in its history and is 30-21-1 all-time versus Delaware, including seven straight wins.

■ Villanova enters the regular season finale with an 8-3 overall record. It is the 15th time since the Wildcats became an FCS program in 1985 that the team has tallied at least eight wins in a season. The last such year was 2016 when Villanova ended up with a 9-4 record.

■ Saturday's contest can be seen live on FloFootball by downloading the FloSports app. The radio broadcast airs on 610 ESPN.

BATTLE OF THE BLUE

- The annual rivalry game between Villanova and Delaware has been billed as the "Battle of the Blue" since 2007. This year will be the 13th edition of the series, with the winner being presented with the Battle of the Blue Trophy. The Wildcats have won 11 of the 12 games in the "Battle of the Blue" series, including seven straight wins and a 42-21 victory over Delaware in Newark last season.

SERIES HISTORY

- Villanova leads the all-time series against Delaware 30-21-1 and has won 12 of the last 13 games between the teams in a stretch that began with the 2006 season. During the 13-game stretch, the Wildcats have averaged 29.9 points per game and given up just 18.0 points per contest to the Blue Hens. Six of the 12 recent victories have come by a margin of two touchdowns or more.
- The teams have faced each other every year since 1988 when they became conference rivals. Villanova is 19-12 in regular season conference matchups against Delaware.

ANNIVERSARY

- Saturday marks the 124th anniversary of the first-ever game between Villanova and Delaware, who first played each other on November 23, 1895 in a game that Delaware won by a 10-6 margin. Villanova picked up its first win one year later when it tallied a 14-0 victory on October 3, 1896.
- Villanova has played more games (52) and tallied more victories (30) versus Delaware than against any other opponent it has ever faced. The second-most games the Wildcats have played one team is 45 meetings versus Boston College, while the second-highest win total against a single opponent is 24 wins against Richmond (including a 35-28 triumph this season).
- The teams have faced each other every year since 1988 when they became conference rivals. Villanova is 19-12 in regular season conference matchups against Delaware.

RENEWING ACQUAINTANCES

- Villanova offensive line coach Sean Devine will face his former team on Saturday. Devine is in his third year with the Wildcats after spending the previous four seasons (2013-16) at Delaware as the team's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

HOME STRETCH

- Villanova is playing the final game of a three-game homestand to finish the regular season this week. The homestand began with last the 35-28 win over Richmond on November 9 and continued with last Friday night's 35-7 win over LIU on November 15. Villanova is 4-1 at home this season and has an all-time winning percentage of .697 (247-106-5) at Villanova Stadium.

POLLING PLACES

- Villanova moved up three spots in this week's STATS FCS Top 25 poll and has surged eight spots in the rankings over the past two weeks. The latest STATS poll has the Wildcats at No. 10, while the FCS Coaches Poll moved Villanova up two spots to No. 14 this week. Despite not being ranked in either national poll at the start of the season, the Wildcats rose to as high as No. 5 in the STATS Top 25 on October 7 after running off six straight wins to start the year.
- This is the seventh straight season that Villanova has been ranked in the top-10 of the STATS FCS Top 25 at least once during the regular season. During this span, which began with the 2013 season, the Wildcats have appeared in the top-10 of the national rankings 33 times.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

- Last week's 35-7 win over LIU was the 10th straight regular season win over an FCS non-conference opponent for Villanova, which won all four of its games on the regular season non-conference slate this year. The four wins came by an average of 27.8 points per game as the Wildcats defeated Colgate (34-14), Lehigh (38-10), Bucknell (45-10) and LIU (35-7). Villanova has won eight straight non-conference games overall and has not lost a regular season game to a non-conference FCS opponent since a 24-13 setback against Penn on September 24, 2015.

A LINE OF DEFENSE

- Villanova's offensive line has given up just 12 quarterback sacks for a total loss of 84 yards in the first 11 games of the season. The 12 sacks allowed are the fewest by any CAA Football team and rank the Wildcats 10th in the latest FCS national stats. Villanova went three straight games against Towson, Maine and William & Mary earlier this season in which it did not give up a single sack. It was the first time that had happened since at least 2001 based on quickly available data following the three-game stretch.
- All five of the Wildcats starting offensive linemen have eligibility remaining beyond this season. The primary starters on the line are juniors Paul Grattan (left guard); MJ Dumas (right guard); Colin Gamroth (center); and Kofi Appiah (left tackle); along with redshirt freshman Nick Torres (right tackle). They have combined to make 54 starts on the year, with redshirt freshman James Petrovcik also starting one game at left guard.

MOVING THE STICKS

- Villanova's offense has excelled on third down this season and currently ranks second in the CAA as well as seventh nationally in third-down conversion percentage. Through their first 11 games of the year, the Wildcats have converted on third down 49.4 percent of the time (76-of-154).
- Villanova has converted at least 50 percent of its third down opportunities four times in 2019, including in each of the past two weeks against Richmond (7-of-14) and LIU (6-of-11). The Wildcats had 10+ third-down conversions in wins over Towson (12-of-19, 63.2%) and William & Mary (11-of-17, 64.7%) earlier in the year.

GAINING GROUND

- Villanova ranks fourth in CAA Football with an average of 190.4 rushing yards per game and has surpassed the 200-yard mark six times in 11 games. Entering the regular season finale against Delaware, the Wildcats have rushed for 2,094 yards and 20 touchdowns on the year while averaging 5.2 yards per carry.

FANTASTIC FRESHMEN

- More than a quarter of Villanova's all-purpose yards (27.7 percent) this season have come from a trio of true freshmen. Rookie running backs DeeWil Barlee and TD Ayo-Durojaiye, along with first-year receiver Jaaron Hayek, have combined for 1,635 all-purpose yards and 16 touchdowns in the first 11 games of the year.
- Barlee leads the trio and is tied for second on the team overall with 732 all-purpose yards. He is second on the team with 596 rushing yards, has picked up 132 yards through the air and also had a four-yard punt return. Hayek ranks second on the team with 565 receiving yards and seven receiving touchdowns. He also has 39 rushing yards and 64 yards on kickoff returns on the season. Ayo-Durojaiye has amassed 235 total yards (199 rushing, 36 receiving) in eight games played.

TOUCHDOWN DAN

- Junior quarterback Daniel Smith had a hand in all five of Villanova's touchdowns in last week's win over LIU. Smith played the first half and the first offensive series of the third quarter and completed 15-of-22 passes for 201 yards and four touchdowns in addition to having a five-yard run for a score. In the latest FCS national statistics, Smith ranks second in the country and leads CAA Football with 222 points he is responsible for. His also second in the CAA and ninth nationally with 26 passing touchdowns.
- Smith is having a sensational 2019 campaign in his first season wearing a Villanova uniform. The transfer from Campbell has thrown for 2,613 yards and 26 touchdowns on the year while also rushing for 323 yards and a team-high 10 rushing touchdowns in his first 11 games with the Wildcats. Smith also caught a 68-yard touchdown pass against Stony Brook.
- Smith already ranks 10th in school history for a single-season with his 2,613 passing yards. He needs just 36 more yards to tie Clint Park (1996) for ninth in the Villanova record book with 2,649 yards.
- Including his 11 games at Villanova this season and his two years as a starter at Campbell in 2017 and 2018, Smith's career totals include 6,084 passing yards (462-of-811, 54 TDs) and 2,260 rushing yards (313 carries, 35 touchdowns).

VILLANOVA FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

100-YARD RECEIVER

- For the third time this year and the fourth time in his career, junior wideout Changa Hodge went over the 100-yard receiving mark in last week's win over LIU. In the 35-7 victory, Hodge tallied seven receptions for 103 yards and two touchdowns. He also topped 100 yards earlier this year against James Madison (134) and New Hampshire (106).
- Hodge has emerged as one of Villanova's top playmakers and currently leads the team with 51 receptions, 784 receiving yards and eight receiving touchdowns. In his last five games combined, Hodge has made 33 catches for 523 yards and five scores. The stretch began when he established career highs with eight receptions for 134 yards and two touchdowns at James Madison on October 5. He tied the touchdown career high with his two scores in the LIU game.
- Hodge has made a steady rise up the Villanova career leaderboard for receiving yards this season and currently is 22nd in program history with 1,351 yards. He moved up two spots during the LIU game last week and is only 16 yards away from moving into a tie for 21st place.

22. Changa Hodge	2016-pres.	1,351 Yards

NOW THAT'S EFFICIENT

- Villanova recorded two blocked punts against LIU last week and each block set up a one-play scoring drive by the Wildcats offense. Each of those short drives resulted in junior quarterback Daniel Smith throwing a touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Changa Hodge. The first play was a six-yard pass which took four seconds early in the second quarter, while the second play was a 30-yard touchdown pass which took five seconds later in the same period.
- The last time the Wildcats had two one-play scoring drives in the same game was in 2018 against Bucknell when Villanova had drives which lasted eight seconds (29-yard touchdown run by Adeyemi DaSilva) and four seconds (one-yard touchdown run by Aaron Forbes).
- The last time the Wildcats had two drives lasting five seconds or fewer in the same game was in 2017 at Towson. In that game, then-redshirt freshman quarterback Jack Schetelich had an eight-yard touchdown run (three seconds) and an 11-yard touchdown run (four seconds) in the fourth quarter of a 24-9 win.

FINDING THE END ZONE

- Fifth-year senior tight end Simon Bingelis found the end zone for the first time in his career last Friday versus LIU when he caught a 17-yard touchdown pass for the first points of the game. Bingelis was named to the CAA Football Preseason Honor Roll, but has been limited to six games due to injury. In the six contests he has played in, Bingelis has registered nine catches for 143 yards and a touchdown.

ROOKIE RUNNER

- After leading rusher Justin Covington went down with a season-ending injury in the William & Mary game on October 5, the Wildcats have looked to true freshman DeeWil Barlee to help carry the load in the backfield. Barlee has played in 10 games on the season and has rushed 107 times for 596 yards (5.6 average) and five touchdowns. He has registered two 100-yard rushing games on the year, including 22 carries for 131 yards and a touchdown versus Stony Brook and 18 rushes for 114 yards and a score against Richmond.
- Barlee currently ranks third in the CAA with an average of 5.57 yards per carry. He is also fifth in the league with an average of 59.6 rushing yards per game and ranks eighth in the league with his 596 total rushing yards. Barlee ranks second in the CAA and ninth nationally in rushing yards among players in their first year of eligibility.

DEFENSIVE DOINGS

- Villanova had its best defensive game of the season last week from the standpoint of points allowed and total yards allowed. In a 35-7 victory, the Wildcats gave up just 183 total yards to LIU and held the Sharks to a lone touchdown in the second quarter. It marked the seventh time in the Mark Ferrante era and the first time this season that Villanova held an opponent to fewer than 10 points. The Wildcats have won their past 62 games while giving up fewer than 10 points in a game, with the last loss a rare 3-0 defeat at the hands of Massachusetts on November 10, 1990.

HEADING FOR 100

- Junior linebacker Forrest Rhyne enters play versus Delaware needing just one tackle to reach 100 total stops on the season. He is currently tied for third in the CAA stats with 99 tackles, including 47 solo tackles and 52 assisted stops. Villanova began to keep tackle statistics in 1976 and since then there have been 46 instances of a player recording at least 100 tackles in a season. The last to achieve the feat was Ed Shockley with 101 total stops in 2017.
- Rhyne tallied his sixth double digit tackle game of the season and his fifth in the last six games with 10 stops against LIU last week. Rhyne leads the team and ranks seventh in the CAA with 6.5 sacks on the year, while his 13.5 tackles for loss are second in the Villanova stats and rank sixth in the league. Rhyne's strong play of late includes 65 tackles, 10.0 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks in the last six games. He is in his first year as a starter and a tri-captain on the Wildcats roster.

BLOCK PARTY

- Freshman linebacker Elijah Solomon was credited with two blocked punts in last week's win over LIU. Both blocked kicks set up one-play touchdown drives for the Wildcats. Solomon now has four blocked punts during his rookie collegiate campaign. The single-season FCS record for blocked punts by one player is five, done first by Domonic Jones of The Citadel (2011) and matched by Tevin Richard of South Carolina State (2015).

GREAT NATE

- Sophomore kicker Nathan Fondacaro has been the best punter in the CAA this season. Fondacaro leads the league with an average of 44.8 yards per punt. He has recorded 36 punts on the year, including eight of 50 yards or longer and 11 which were downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line. His efforts on the season include a career-long 75-yard punt at Bucknell on September 14. His average of 44.8 yards per punt would rank sixth in the FCS if Fondacaro had enough attempts per qualify (the minimum is 3.6 attempts per team game to appear in the national stats). Fondacaro has also kicked off 66 times for an average of 58.7 yards, including 10 touchbacks.

HOUSE CALL

- Junior safety Nowoola Awopetu became the first Villanova player in nine years to return a kickoff for a touchdown when he brought the opening kickoff back 100 yards for a score in the win over Richmond on November 9. The previous kickoff return touchdown by the Wildcats was also to start a game and it came on December 17, 2010 when Angelo Babbaro returned the opening kickoff 86 yards at Eastern Washington in a semifinal playoff game.
- Awopetu has scored three career touchdowns and all three have come against Richmond. In addition to his big kickoff return last week, Awopetu had two interception returns for scores against the Spiders last season. He is the only player in school history with two pick-sixes in a single game.
- Since the Wildcats became an FCS program in 1985, Awopetu is only the second Villanova player to have career touchdowns on both defense and special teams. The other is Ademole Turner, who returned a blocked punt 33 yards for a touchdown and also had a 96-yard kickoff return for a score during the 1996 season.

100-YARD PLAYS

- The 100-yard kickoff return by Nowoola Awopetu on November 9 was the seventh play in school history of 100 yards or longer, with five of the seven coming on kick returns. Villanova also has three other plays of 99 yards in its record book.

SECOND HALF TURNAROUND

- In the fourth quarter of the come-from-behind victory against Richmond on November 9, Villanova outgained the Spiders by an astonishing margin of 181-3 in yards of total offense. That disparity was part of a big turnaround by the Wildcats defense during the entire second half. After allowing 28 points, 270 yards of offense (201 rushing yards) and 10 first downs in the first two quarters, the defense yielded zero points, 63 yards of offense and just three first downs after halftime.

COMING FROM BEHIND

- Prior to the November 9 game against Richmond, the Wildcats had been just 1-19 over the last five seasons when trailing at the end of the third quarter. The lone win in those 20 contests was in the 2018 season opener at Temple when Villanova overcame a 17-13 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to post a 19-17 victory. After not trailing through three quarters of play in any of their first eight games of the season, the Wildcats began the fourth quarter with a deficit in consecutive contests against New Hampshire and Richmond in their ninth and 10th games.
- Villanova trailed the Spiders by a score of 28-21 entering the fourth quarter before scoring two touchdowns in a span of less than three minutes in the middle of the final period to rally for the 35-28 triumph. Junior quarterback Daniel Smith tied the game with a nine-yard touchdown run at the 11:45 mark of the quarter, while freshman running back TD Ayo-Durojaiye put the Wildcats ahead to stay with a 20-yard scoring run with 8:56 to play.

RUNNING FOR 100

- Freshman running back DeeWil Barlee and junior quarterback Daniel Smith each rushed for over 100 yards in the Richmond win. Barlee carried 18 times for 114 yards and a touchdown while notching his second 100-yard game of the season. Smith had 14 rushes for 105 yards and two scores, including a game-tying nine-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. It was Smith's 11th collegiate game rushing for over 100 yards and his first in a Villanova uniform to go along with 10 such games at Campbell over the last two seasons (2017-18).
- † The efforts of Barlee and Smith marked the first time the Wildcats had two 100-yard rushers in a game since December 6, 2014 against Liberty in the second round of the FCS playoffs. In that game, running back Kevin Monangai rushed for 102 yards on 20 carries and quarterback John Robertson ran for 100 yards on 18 rushes.

HERE'S LOOKING AT DREW

- Senior linebacker Drew Wiley has been playing some of his best football of the season recently. Last week's CAA Football Defensive Player of the Week has made at least five tackles in eight straight games he has played in and has been credited with at least a partial sack in six of his last seven contests. Wiley had a career-high four tackles for loss against Stony Brook on October 26, followed up that performance with six total tackles at New Hampshire three weeks ago, and then had 3.5 tackles for loss in the win over Richmond on November 9. For the season, Wiley has recorded 57 total tackles, a team-best 15.0 tackles for loss, 5.5 sacks, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, two interceptions and six pass breakups.

TOUGH BREAK

- Villanova is without the services of one of its top offensive performers in junior running back Justin Covington, who sustained a season-ending knee injury in the first half of the William & Mary game on October 5. At the time of the injury, Covington was leading the FCS in rushing with 727 yards and had surpassed 100 yards in each of the first five games of the season. He averaged 121.2 yards per game and 8.1 yards per carry in the six games he played in, and is still ranked second in the CAA in rushing yards despite already missing 3.5 games with his injury.

VILLANOVA FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

150 MILESTONE

- Villanova's victory at William & Mary on October 5 marked the 150th all-time regular season conference win for the Wildcats, who first joined the Yankee Conference for the 1988 season. The league has since transitioned to the Atlantic 10 and CAA Football.
- Villanova is the fourth member of the conference to win at least 150 regular season games. The others are New Hampshire, Maine and Delaware. The Wildcats have an all-time 151-106 (.588) record in conference action and have the third-highest league winning percentage amongst current CAA Football members.

REDEMPTION TOUR

- In a unique twist of the 2019 schedule, the Wildcats played six consecutive games from September 21 through November 2 against the six teams it lost to last season. Villanova went 3-3 on the redemption tour, including wins over Towson, Maine and William & Mary. Entering play against Delaware this week, the Wildcats are 8-3 on the year and are guaranteed of posting a winning record for the season. It is the 15th time since becoming an FCS member in 1985 that Villanova has won at least eight games.

NEW COORDINATORS

- Villanova has two new coordinators in 2019, as Chris Boden is in his first year running the Wildcats offense and Ola Adams is in his first season as the Defensive Coordinator.
- Boden returns to his alma mater after serving as the head coach at ASA College Miami for the last four seasons. He was a standout quarterback for the Villanova from 1996-99, setting 24 school records and seven Atlantic 10 Conference marks during his career. Boden was a Walter Camp All-American in 1997 and a first team Atlantic 10 all-conference selection three straight years from 1997-99. He remains the Wildcats all-time passing leader with 868 completions for 10,146 yards and 99 touchdowns.
- Adams is in his fifth season at Villanova and was previously the team's secondary coach for the 2017 and 2018 seasons. He began his Wildcats tenure as the running backs coach in 2015 and 2016.

PICKED NINTH

- Villanova was picked to finish ninth in the CAA Football preseason coaches and media poll with 84 points. James Madison was predicted to finish atop the league standings with 238 points and 20 first-place votes. After the ninth place prediction, all the Wildcats did in their first six games was race out of the gates with a 6-0 record, a 3-0 start in league play and a No. 5 national ranking after beginning the year outside of both national polls. Villanova is currently tied for third in the CAA with its 4-3 league record and joins James Madison as the only CAA teams who have already reached eight wins on the year.

COMPLETE STUDENT-ATHLETES

ACADEMIC HIGHLIGHTS

NCAA PUBLIC RECOGNITION AWARD

■ Each year the NCAA recognizes programs that have a multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score that ranks within the top 10 percent of their sport nationwide. Villanova has earned this award nine times in the 14-year history of the APR program, including in each of the last four years for which data is available.

■ Villanova was one of just five FCS programs in 2017-18 to have both its football and men's basketball programs each public recognition awards.

■ The football team has set a new program record for its highest APR score in each of the past four years.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

■ One of the highest honors that a student-athlete can achieve is to be named an Academic All-American, an award which encompasses both academic achievement as well as contributions on the field. Villanova has had 12 football student-athletes earn a total of 14 Academic All-America honors over the years.

CAA TEAM ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

■ Villanova was the winner of the CAA Football Team Academic Excellence Award for both the 2016-17 and the 2017-18 school years. The award is presented at the end of each academic year to the conference school with the highest team GPA.

CAA SCHOLAR-ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

■ Villanova has had four student-athletes be named the CAA Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Nominees for the award must have attained senior standing academically and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.

CAA ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL

■ Student-athletes with a semester GPA of 3.0 or higher are named to the CAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll. Villanova had 41 honorees for the Fall 2018 semester and 38 student-athletes achieve this distinction for the Spring 2019 term.

ACADEMIC ALL-AREA TEAMS

■ In conjunction with the Philadelphia Inquirer, the sports information directors at the colleges and universities in the Philadelphia area (PhillySIDA) name an Academic All-Area team and a football Performer of the Year each season. In the 14 years of the Academic All-Area program, which started with the 2005-06 academic year, the football team has had a total of 44 selections to the Academic All-Area Team. In addition, the Wildcats have had four Performers of the Year.

VILLANOVA HEAD COACH MARK FERRANTE

A longtime member of the Wildcats coaching staff, Mark Ferrante returns for his third season as head coach in 2019. Ferrante was an assistant coach under Andy Talley for 30 years, including 18 seasons as Assistant Head Coach. It was announced at a press conference on January 30, 2016, that Ferrante would become the 30th head coach of the Villanova Football program following Talley's retirement at the end of the 2016 season.

Last season, Ferrante led an injury riddled team to a 5-6 overall record. Under Ferrante's direction a season ago, freshman corner Christian Benford was named the CAA Defensive Rookie of the Year and a third team All-CAA honoree. In addition, senior running back Aaron Forbes and senior offensive tackle Ethan Greenidge were named to the All-Conference second team. Ferrante was also instrumental in helping offensive tackle Brandon Hitner (La Rams), safety Rob Rolle (Miami Dolphins) and Greenidge (New Orleans Saints) sign NFL free agent contracts. The Wildcats also continued to excel in the classroom in 2018 as 41 players earned a spot on the CAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll.

In his first year as the Wildcats mentor in 2017, Ferrante guided Villanova to a 5-6 overall record and 3-5 CAA mark. Ferrante helped four Wildcats earn All-CAA honors in 2017 highlighted by linebacker Ed Shockley and punter John Hinchin who were first team honorees. Villanova also had three players sign NFL free agent contracts including Trey Johnson (Pittsburgh Steelers), Malik Reaves (Kansas City Chiefs) and Shockley (Dallas Cowboys).

Ferrante leads one of the nation's elite FCS programs after playing an instrumental role in the Wildcats rise to national prominence over the past three decades. He has been a part of the coaching staff for all 12 of the team's FCS playoff trips, including three national semifinal appearances and winning the 2009 national championship. Villanova has also won six conference titles, three Lambert Meadowlands Cups and three ECAC Team of the Year awards.

Others have taken note of the success that Ferrante has been a part of throughout his time on the Main Line. At the end of the 2015 season, he was named the FCS Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA). This award was first presented in 1997 and was created to honor assistant coaches who excel in community service, commitment to the student-athlete, on-field coaching success and AFCA professional organization involvement.

Those characteristics exemplify Ferrante's dedication to the complete student-athlete experience, evidence of which can be seen in the program's consistent academic success. The football team has earned public recognition awards from the NCAA in each of the last four years for ranking in the top 10 percent of FCS programs in academic performance measured by the multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR). In addition, a Villanova student-athlete has been named the CAA Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year four times in the past 12 years. More than 40 student-athletes from the Wildcats have been named to the CAA All-Academic Team in each of the past four academic years.

MARK FERRANTE / VILLANOVA COACHING STAFF

As Andy Talley's right-hand man for so many years, Ferrante was involved in every facet of the Wildcats program. On the field, he coached the Villanova offensive line for 27 seasons and developed a unit that was traditionally one of the best in CAA Football. Over the years he has coached three All-Americans, 11 All-East performers and 15 first team all-conference selections.

Two of Ferrante's players went on to be NFL draft picks, including second-round selection Ben Ijalana by the Indianapolis Colts (2011) and seventh-round pick Brad Seaton by the Tennessee Titans (2017). Seaton was a second team CAA Football All-Conference selection in 2016, when the offensive line enabled Villanova to average 206.3 rushing yards and 378.7 yards of total offense per game. The Wildcats ranked third in CAA Football and 24th in the nation in rushing offense, in addition to ranking fourth in the league in total offense and fifth with a scoring average of 24.4 points per game.

Ijalana was an All-American in both 2009 and 2010, as well as being a three-time first team All-CAA selection during his collegiate career. Villanova reached the FCS playoffs in each of Ijalana's last three seasons on the team, winning the 2009 national title and advancing to the semi-final round a year later. The other All-Americans who Ferrante has mentored are Eamonn Allen (2001) and Bryan Russo (1989). Allen earned first team Associated Press All-America recognition in 2001 and was also a first team All-East and first team All-Atlantic 10 selection.

Villanova's offensive line produced 17 All-Conference performers over a nine year span, including six first team selections, five second team picks and six third team honorees. In addition to Ijalana, the other first team selections are Brant Clouser (2010), Dan Shirey (2011) and Vince Kowalski (2014).

Ferrante was a standout collegiate player in his own right prior to joining the coaching ranks. He was the quarterback for Andy Talley at St. Lawrence University, where he was named the 1982 Division III Player of the Year and also earned first team All-East honors. Ferrante directed the offense for a St. Lawrence team that went 10-1 during the 1982 season and reached the national semi-finals in the playoffs.

Ferrante went on to join Talley's coaching staff at St. Lawrence, and spent one season as the running backs coach in 1983. His other coaching stops before coming to Villanova include coaching the running backs at Wagner (1984) and working on the coaching staff at Lafayette (1985-86).

Ferrante and his wife, Georga, reside in Phoenixville, Pa. The couple has a 23-year-old son, Jimmy, who earned his degree from Villanova in 2018.
