IT'S WORTH NOTING...

~ This contest marks the resumption of a series that has been filled with tight games of late. The last five meetings between the two rivals have been decided by an average of 3.2 points per game. The last two encounters, including a 76-74 VU win at Finneran Pavilion on Jan. 19, have not been settled until the game's final possession.

~ With the postponement of Thursday's scheduled game at Connecticut, the Wildcats are playing only their third game in the month of January today. On the original schedule, there were seven games slated for the first month of 2021.

~ Villanova senior forward Jermaine Samuels Jr. registered a pair of career firsts in recent days. His 10-point, 10-rebound effort in Saturday's 71-56 victory over Providence was his first career double-double. On Monday, the forward was named BIG EAST Player of the Week for the first time after averaging 15.0 points and 9.5 rebounds per outing in a 2-0 week from the Wildcats. Samuels had only one day of practice prior to the Seton Hall game after Villanova's most recent COVID-19 pause.

~ This marks the second time in the past three seasons that Villanova has opened BIG EAST regular season play with five straight victories. In 2018-19, Nova reeled off 10 consecutive wins to begin league play. Since the BIG EAST realigned in 2013-14, the Wildcats are 98-23 in conference regular season play (.810).

~ Villanova has been a constant in the Top 10 of both major polls this season. The Wildcats are ranked third in this week's Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls. Since the start of the 2013-14 regular season, Villanova has been ranked in the AP Top 25 for 131 of the last 139 weeks, including the last 28 in a row.

~ Freshman forward Trey Patterson, originally slated to enroll at Villanova in the fall of 2021 instead began his college experience Monday at the dawn of the spring semester. The product of Rutgers Prep joins the Wildcats after a stellar prep career that saw him ranked as one of the nation's top small forwards. Patterson will wear uniform No. 12.

~ Sophomore forward Jeremiah Robinson-Earl was named Thursday to the Top 10 Midseason Watch List for the Karl Malone Award.

~ Senior guard Collin Gillespie (Archbishop Wood High School) added another honor to his portfolio on Monday. The Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame announced the 6-3 guard is among the Top 10 midseason Watch List for the Bob Cousy Award. The Huntingdon Valley, Pa., native has averaged 19.6 points per game over his last three outings, raising his season scoring average to 5.9 points per contest.

~ Junior Caleb Daniels enters this game with 825 career points as a collegian, including his two seasons at Tulane.

NEWS AND NOTES

Second Half Burst Carried 'Cats

An explosive second half carried No. 3/3 Villanova past Providence 71-56 Saturday afternoon at Finneran Pavilion. The Wildcats trailed by as many as 10 points in the first half before using sharp defense to create second half offense to the tune of 47 points.

The Wildcats improved to 10-1 overall, 5-0 BIG EAST while the Friars fell to 8-7 overall, 4-5 BIG EAST at the end of a four-game road trip.

Senior Collin Gillespie and Justin Moore led a balanced Villanova attack with 15 points apiece. Junior Caleb Daniels added a dozen points for the 'Cats. Freshman Alyn Breed led Providence with 18 points.

Villanova limited Providence to .385 shooting from the field on the day and forced 19 turnovers. Nova enjoyed a 17-7 edge in points off of turnovers and a 20-7 advantage in second chance points.

"That was a good step for us against an outstanding defensive team," stated head coach Jay Wright. "They always give us trouble. In the first half, we couldn't score. I was pleased with our patience in not getting frustrated. We continued to play good defense of our own."

The early minutes were all about stout defense. Villanova forced a turnover on the game's first possession, but Providence was just as stingy at the other end. The Wildcats held an early 8-6 lead after 8:20 of action thanks to five points from sophomore Justin Moore and that gritty defense.

An 11-0 run by the Friars was sparked by the work of junior guard David Duke. That allowed Providence to craft a 20-11 edge with 6:31 to play in the period.

The Wildcats, meanwhile, struggled to find any kind of an offensive flow. Villanova connected on 5-of-23 from the field over the first 16:07, including 2-of-11 from beyond the 3-point arc. There were also seven Nova turnovers.

However, Villanova continued to get stops at the defensive end and that helped it pull to within 27-24 as senior Collin Gillespie drained a 3-pointer just before the halftime horn sounded. The 24 points were the fewest scored by the Wildcats in a half this season.

"I thought those two plays at the end of the first half were important," Wright said. "We made a mistake and fouled a three-point shooter. But to be able to come back, have Justin find Collin, who made the shot, was big. We were fortunate to just be down by three."

Despite connecting on just 27 percent of its field goal attempts, the Wildcats remained within striking distance thanks to 10 forced turnovers and some quality defensive work of their own.

The start of the second half was delayed for approximately 18 minutes due to sunlight that shone upon the basket in front of the Friars' bench.

"I've been here for 20 years and I've never seen that," stated Wright. "Not in a practice, not at a women's game. It was bizarre. I went over and looked at it. It was blinding."

Once the period began, Villanova began to find its footing at the offensive end.

A 7-0 spurt in the early stages of the second half helped Villanova pull even at 33. Consecutive 3-point scores by the Wildcats, including a traditional 3-point play by Jermaine Samuels and a 3-point goal by Cole Swider helped VU grab a 39-33 lead at the 13:57 mark. But Providence answered with a 5-0 burst of its own and the Villanova lead was 39-36 as the game approached the 13 minute mark.

"We were playing off our defense," Wright stated. "We were getting confidence from getting stops defensively. We kept grinding."

Another surge, this one a 15-2 run midway through the second half, helped Villanova extend its advantage to 54-42. Caleb Daniels and Moore played a vital role in that stretch, helping the Wildcats begin to solve the Friars' man-to-man defense.

The lead never fell below double digits the rest of the way. Samuels ended the day with a double-double (ten points, ten rebounds) as the Wildcats out-rebounded the Friars 41-37.

The win was Villanova's eighth in a row, dating to a Nov. 28 overtime loss to Virginia Tech at Mohegan Sun Arena.

Metrics Meter

The Wildcats numbers in the advanced metrics calculated by Ken Pomeroy at kenpom.com continue to be strong. Through games of Jan. 24, the Wildcats ranked fifth nationally, with an overall KenPom rating of +26.28.

The Villanova Adjusted Offensive Efficiency of 119.3 points per 100 possessions ranks fourth in the nation. On the other end of the floor, Villanova's Adjusted Defensive Efficiency of 93.0 points per 100 possessions ranks 32nd overall.

The Wildcats rank 334th in Adjusted tempo possessions per 40 minutes at 65.0.

Surgery for Cosby-Roundtree

Villanova senior Dhamir Cosby-Roundtree recently underwent surgery to address a tibial stress fracture in his left leg. The Philadelphia native, who has not yet seen game action in 2020-21 due to the injury, will be sidelined from basketball activities for an undetermined length of time as he recovers.

Cosby-Roundtree previously underwent surgery on his right shin in April 2020 to remove hardware related to an earlier procedure on the same leg.

"Dhamir has been through some difficult medical challenges," said Villanova head coach Jay Wright. "He continues to persevere and provide leadership and energy for our team. We all pray he can get back to health soon."

In three seasons at Villanova, Cosby-Roundtree has appeared in 105 games, earning 17 starting assignments. In 2017-18 he averaged 11.3 minutes per game for the 2017-18 NCAA national champion Wildcats and as a sophomore in 2018-19 averaged 5.1 points and 5.8 rebounds per outing.

Collin's the Catalyst

Villanova's on-court leader is Collin Gillespie, who alongside classmates Jermaine Samuels Jr. and Dhamir Cosby-Roundtree, was a freshman reserve on the 2018 NCAA championship team.

The native of Huntingdon Valley, Pa., has made 109 career appearances, including 78 starts, for the Wildcats. The senior has contributed 1,160 points (10.6 ppg). He now ranks 56th on the all-time scoring list at VU.

With 45 assists and just 11 turnovers on the season, Gillespie leads the BIG EAST in assist-to-turnover ratio (4.1)

Notable Numbers

Since the start of 2018-19, the Wildcats are 26-4 when Jermaine Samuels scores in double figures (.862).

Villanova is 7-0 this season when holding opponents below the 70-point threshold.

Plenty of 3's

The Wildcats in recent seasons have been among the nation's most prolific 3-point shooting teams. That trend has continued in the 2020-21 campaign.

Thus far, the Wildcats have attempted 295 triples, sinking 109 (.369). The 3-point attempts have represented .447 of all field goals attempted by Villanova thus far. Their average of 9.9 made per game ranks 19th in the NCAA statistics.

D Tales

While the Wildcats have been among the nation's most efficient teams at the offensive end, there is still work ahead at the other end of the court.

Villanova made significant strides Saturday after a shaky effort earlier in the week vs. Seton Hall. The Wildcats forced 19 Friars turnovers and limited Providence to 20-of-52 shooting from the field (.385), including 5-of-16 (.313) from beyond the 3-point arc.

The Wildcats rank 10th in the BIG EAST in Field Goal Percentage Defense for all games (.456) and ninth in the conference in 3-Point Percentage Defense (.362).

Highly Rated Recruits

Villanova announced the signing of four accomplished student-athletes to national letters of intent on Nov. 11 as part of its Class of 2025. Three of the four are set to enroll in the fall of 2021. Trey Patterson elected to enroll in January after graduating early from Rutgers Prep.

The list includes guard Angelo Brizzi, guard Jordan Longino, forward Nnanna Njoku, and forward Patterson. The class is ranked fourth in the nation by 247 Sports.

Brizzi, a Warrenton, Va., native, is a standout point guard at Highland (Va.) High School, where he averaged 20.3 points, 6.6 assists and 3.2 steals per game during the 2019-20 campaign. Highland posted a 23-3 record.

"Angelo is an outstanding guard who brings a great feel for the game as the son of a coach," stated Wright. "He is an excellent shooter who is capable of playing either guard position. We believe Angelo has all the ingredients needed to become a complete Villanova guard. We're thrilled to welcome Angelo and his great family to Villanova."

Longino hails from nearby Doyelstown, Pa., and has excelled at Germantown Academy, the same program that produced Wildcats' legend Alvin Williams (1993-97). The 6-5 Longino played both football and basketball at Germantown Academy. On the hardwood, he averaged 22.8 points and 5.8 rebounds per contest in 2019-20, earning recognition as the PIAA Class 4A Player of the Year.

"Jordan is a highly-skilled, versatile player from a wonderful family," stated Wright. "At Germantown Academy he's excelled in two sports and his experience as a football quarterback points to his exceptional intelligence. Jordan is an excellent shooter, and we believe his multi-faceted game fits well here at Villanova."

Njoku was the first member of this class to make an oral commitment to the Wildcats back in April. The 6-9 forward, a native of Newark, Del., has starred at the Sanford School, the same school that produced former Wildcats' standout Will Sheridan (2003-07). He averaged 16 points and nine rebounds per contest during the 2019-20 season. The 247 Sports Top 100 ranking of class of 2021 prospects lists Njoku at No. 80.

"Nnanna is a very intelligent young man who has continued to get better over the course of his high school career," Wright said. "He plays extremely hard and brings a physical mentality when he steps on the floor. Nnanna has a great touch around the rim and is an underrated passer. He is part of a terrific family and will be a great fit here in our Villanova community."

Patterson is a 6-7 forward who thrived at Rutgers Prep in New Jersey. He is listed at No. 27 in the ESPN Top 100 for the Class of 2021 and at No. 30 in the 247 Sports rankings of the same class. Patterson averaged 19.7 points per game while helping his team post a 27-2 record in 2019-20. His parents, Antoine and Shamona Patterson, played college basketball at St. Francis (Pa.) and Seton Hall, respectively.

"Trey brings great intelligence and basketball skill to our program," Wright stated. "His parents were both quality Division I college players and have served as great mentors to him. Trey combines an outstanding work ethic with a varied skill set that helps sets him apart. We're excited to bring another great player from New Jersey to Villanova."
