VILLANOVA FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

VILLANOVA NOTEBOOK

TODAY'S GAME

- Villanova and Elon meet for just the third time since the Phoenix joined CAA Football when the Wildcats travel to Rhodes Stadium this Saturday for a 2 p.m. matchup. Villanova is back on the road this week after playing its past two games at home. Both teams enter the game coming off losses in their previous contest, with the Wildcats seeing a three-game winning streak end in a 31-18 home loss to William & Mary while Elon was defeated 45-21 by James Madison. This Saturday's contest will be broadcast on FloSports and the radio call with Ryan Fannon and Kevin Reilly can be heard on the Villanova Sports Radio Network.

LIMITED HISTORY

- The limited all-time series between Villanova and Elon is split 1-1, with each team winning a road game in the series. In their only previous trip to Rhodes Stadium, the Wildcats tallied a 42-7 win over the Phoenix on October 1, 2016. One year later Elon came to Villanova Stadium and posted a 19-14 win on October 28, 2017.

FAMILIAR FACES

- There are several former members of the Villanova football program on the Elon coaching staff, including head coach Tony Trisciani who was the Wildcats secondary coach and recruiting coordinator from 2012-16. Phoenix defensive coordinator Billy Crocker served in the same capacity at Villanova for five seasons (2012-16) and spent 11 years in all on the Wildcats coaching staff from 2006-16. Elon defensive line coach Seth Payne was a defensive assistant for Villanova in 2014 and Phoenix special teams coordinator/outside linebackers coach Dillon Lucas is a former Wildcats defensive standout who was the CAA Football Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2011. He is in his fifth season on the Elon coaching staff.

ROAD WARRIORS

- Villanova has played some of its best football away from home in recent years and has continued the trend by going 3-1 on the road this season. The wins have come against Lehigh (47-3), James Madison (28-27) and UAlbany (17-10) while the only loss was to nationally-ranked FBS foe Penn State. With their success away from home this season the Wildcats are now 15-10 in road games during the Mark Ferrante coaching era (2017-present), have won 10 of their last 14 road games dating back to the start of the 2019 season and have gone 49-35 (.583) away from home dating back to the 2008 season.

WINNING IN OCTOBER

- Despite falling to William & Mary last weekend the Wildcats nevertheless finished the month of October with a 3-1 record in four games. Villanova started the month with a bye before reeling off three straight wins over James Madison (28-27), UAlbany (17-10) and Rhode Island (44-0). The three October wins were one more than the Wildcats had during the month in the previous three seasons combined. Villanova had been just 2-7 in October from the 2017-19 seasons.

STOPPING THE PASS

- Villanova held William & Mary to just 109 passing yards on 10-of-19 accuracy through the air in last week's game to continue its excellent passing defense on the season. Through the first eight games of the 2021 campaign the Wildcats lead CAA Football and rank sixth nationally with team passing efficiency defense of 100.75. Opposing teams have completed just 54.7 percent of their passes against Villanova this season and have thrown only six touchdown passes compared to 13 interceptions. The Wildcats are tied with William & Mary for the CAA Football lead with 13 interceptions this season and are just one off the national lead of 14 interceptions which is shared by Holy Cross and Chattanooga.

Villanova Athletics sponsors 24 varsity sports, which together include more than 550 student-athletes. In the classroom, these Villanova student-athletes have registered a grade-point average higher than a 3.0 for 36 consecutive semesters. Three Villanova student-athletes have been named Rhodes Scholars, with numerous others earning Academic All-America distinction. Villanova's athletics history includes 21 NCAA team national championships, as well as more than 100 conference championships. VILLANOVA NOTEBOOK

DOMINANT DEFENSE

- Villanova continues to rank among the FCS leaders in several defensive categories and enters play versus Elon this week with its defense ranked in the top 10 nationally in five different categories.

VILLANOVA DEFENSE THIS SEASON THROUGH GAMES OF OCTOBER 23

Category	Statistic	CAA Rank	FCS Rank
Passes Intercepted	13	1	3

THAT'S OFFENSIVE

- Villanova has featured a high-powered offense in recent seasons and has scored at least 20 points in 23 of its last 28 games dating back to late in the 2018 season. During that span the Wildcats topped 20 points in all 13 games played in 2019, only the third time in school history and the first time since 1997 the team scored at least 20 points in every game of a season.
- Over the last 28 games played – a stretch that began with a game at Richmond on November 3, 2018 – the Wildcats have averaged 34.5 points per game. The 28-game stretch includes 19 games with over 30 points scored, 10 games with at least 40 points and three occasions topping 50 points including this year's 55-3 win over Bucknell on September 11.
- Villanova's strong offense has led to a great deal of success in the win column over the past several years. Since the start of the 2015 season the Wildcats are 28-4 (.875) when they score 30 or more points in a game. During the Mark Ferrante head coaching era, 16 of the Wildcats 27 victories have come by 20 points or more.

TOP TACKLER

- Graduate student linebacker Forrest Rhyne had another monster game last week when he tallied 19 total tackles against William & Mary with four solo tackles and 15 assisted stops. It was the fourth double-digit tackle game of the year for Rhyne and nearly matched the career-high 20 tackles he made at James Madison earlier in the season. With his latest big performance, Rhyne is now leading CAA Football and is ranked 13th nationally with an average of 10.4 tackles per game. Rhyne is the only player in the CAA averaging double figures in tackles this season.

BENFORD LEADS THE WAY

- Senior cornerback Christian Benford was credited with his 11th pass breakup of the season in the William & Mary game last week. Benford leads the FCS in passes defended on the year with an average of 2.0 per game. He has added to his 11 pass breakups with a team-high five interceptions. The five picks are tied for the most in CAA Football and put him second nationally. Benford is a veteran of 31 collegiate games and his career stats include 125 tackles and 38 passes defended (12 interceptions, 26 pass breakups).

VILLANOVA FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

VILLANOVA NOTEBOOK

During the recent six-game stretch Summers scored touchdowns in both the UAlbany and Rhode Island wins. The veteran member of the Villanova offense has played in 45 career games and has career totals of 69 receptions for 823 yards and 11 touchdowns. At least one Wildcats tight end has caught a pass in 40 of past 42 games.

Three different players have already kicked a field goal and the Wildcats are 16-of-18 on field goal attempts for the season. Graduate student Cole Bunce made three field goals in a game against Lehigh, James Madison and Rhode Island and is currently 14-of-16 (87.5%) on the year with five made attempts from 40+ yards. When Bunce missed the Bucknell contest on September 11, sophomore William Bartel and senior punter Nathan Fondacaro each made a field goal in his absence. Bartel is 2-for-2 on the year and previously made his first career field goal at any level of football in the season opener at Lehigh. Although this cannot be entirely confirmed, this season is believed to be the first in school history in which Villanova has had three different kickers make at least one field goal. The stat is based on research back through the 1955 season along with available school records prior to then.
- Villanova has racked up 78 points from its kicking game in the first eight games of the season, making 17 field goals in 19 tries and kicking 27 extra points with just one miss. The average of 9.8 points per game from kicking is well ahead of the 6.8 points per contest from kicking that the Wildcats averaged during the 2019 and 2020 seasons combined (17 total games). The season opener against Lehigh was the first time since December 4, 2010 in the second round of the FCS playoffs against Stephen F. Austin that Villanova made four field goals in a game. Bunce had a 49-yard field goal against Lehigh which was the longest made attempt by a Wildcats kicker since October 1, 1999 when Casey Hannon made a 50-yarder against James Madison.

STAYING TOGETHER

- Despite unprecedented times the world has experienced over the last two years, the Wildcats roster has stayed remarkably intact since the end of the team's last full season in 2019. Of the 48 players who were listed as either a starter or a backup on the Villanova two-deep for the FCS playoff game against Southeastern Louisiana on November 30, 2019, there are 31 players who remain on the Wildcats roster for the 2021 season.
- Head coach Mark Ferrante and the Wildcats saw the four games played this past spring as a developmental opportunity for many of the younger members of the Villanova roster. That experience is sure to pay off for the team going forward, as the Wildcats bring back 75 of the 85 student-athletes who made up the spring roster. The returning group includes all 11 starters on both offense and defense as well as four specialists. The members of the current roster have collectively played in 1,135 collegiate games with 412 starts.

VILLANOVA NOTEBOOK

FIFTH AND SIXTH YEAR EXPERIENCE

- There are 20 graduate students on the Villanova roster for the 2021 season, including 10 student-athletes apiece who are in their fifth and sixth collegiate seasons. The group of graduate students includes 15 players who have played at Villanova for their entire careers as well as five transfer students who played elsewhere before joining the Wildcats.
- The 10 sixth-year players on the Villanova roster include safety Nowoola Awopetu, kicker Cole Bunce, running back Justin Covington, offensive lineman MJ Dumas, defensive lineman Peter Fallon, quarterback Daniel Smith, tight end Todd Summers, tight end Tyler Will, cornerback Denzel Williams and wide receiver Jared Wolfe. Five of those players – Awopetu, Covington, Dumas, Fallon and Summers – redshirted their true freshman seasons in 2016 and are the last remaining players on the Wildcats roster from Andy Talley's time as head coach. Smith (Campbell) and Wolfe (Western New England) each came to Villanova as transfers prior to the 2019 season, while Bunce (TCU) and Williams (Sacred Heart) enrolled as graduate transfers prior to the 2020 campaign. Will joined the roster before the 2019 season as a senior at Villanova after not previously playing college football.
- The 10 fifth-year players on the Wildcats roster are linebacker Trajan Anderson, offensive lineman Kofi Appiah, linebacker Amin Black, long snapper Joey D'Antonio, defensive lineman Malik Fisher, offensive lineman Colin Gamroth, wide receiver Jevon Jones, defensive lineman Jared Nelson, linebacker Forrest Rhyne and linebacker Mike Ruane. Nine of the 10 have been at Villanova for their entire careers while Ruane is a fifth-year graduate transfer who played four seasons as an undergraduate at Massachusetts.

WILDCATS TO "WATCH"

- Graduate students Daniel Smith and Forrest Rhyne were named to the preseason Watch List for the Walter Payton Award and the Buck Buchanan Award, respectively. Those honors are given to the top offensive and defensive player in the FCS each season.
- Daniel Smith transferred to Villanova from Campbell before the 2019 season and promptly went on to finish ninth in the Walter Payton Award balloting in his first year on the Main Line. He was a third team All-CAA selection in 2019 and led the FCS in points responsible for thanks to 35 passing touchdowns, 12 rushing scores and one touchdown reception. His 13 total touchdowns were a team high. Smith threw for 3,274 yards and 35 touchdowns with just 10 interceptions while rushing for 457 yards and 12 scores on 84 carries. His 3,274 passing yards and 3,731 yards of total offense are each the third-highest in a single season in school history. Smith threw for 677 yards with four touchdowns and two interceptions in four games this past spring.
- Forrest Rhyne has been a first team CAA Football All-Conference selection in each of the last two seasons. He was one of the breakout stars for the Wildcats in 2019 when he started all 13 games and tallied a team-high 116 tackles (8.9 tackles per game), including 14.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks which each ranked second on the team. He registered seven games with double-digit tackle totals while posting the 25th-highest single season total in school history with his 116 total stops. Rhyne played in the final two games of the spring season and appeared to be in top form with 22 tackles, including 14 in the spring finale against Delaware.

PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS

- In addition to being named to the Buck Buchanan Award preseason Watch List, graduate student linebacker Forrest Rhyne joined graduate defensive lineman Malik Fisher on the FCS Preseason All-America Team. Both players were third team selections as returning stars on the Villanova defense. Fisher entered the season having played in 39 career games for the Wildcats and owned career totals entering the season of 74 tackles (47 solo, 27 assisted), 24.5 tackles for loss, 18.0 sacks, seven forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, one blocked kick and six passes defended. He is a two-time All-CAA selection, earning third team honors in 2019 and first team accolades this past spring.

CAA PRESEASON POLL

- A veteran-laden Villanova team was predicted to finish third in the CAA this season in a preseason poll of league head coaches and media relations directors. The results of the poll were announced during the league's virtual Media Day event held on July 27. James Madison was predicted to finish at the top of the conference standings, receiving 15 of 24 first-place votes and 231 points to finish ahead of Delaware with seven first-place votes and 222 points. Villanova had 194 points to round out the top three and was followed by Richmond (two first-place votes, 169 points), New Hampshire (135), Rhode Island (121), Towson (115), UAlbany (114), Maine (99), Stony Brook (73), William & Mary (61) and Elon (50).

PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS

- Villanova had four players named to the CAA Football Preseason All-Conference Team during the league's virtual Media Day event. The honorees from the Wildcats are junior offensive lineman Michael Corbi (Arnold, Md.), senior defensive lineman Malik Fisher (Bronx, N.Y.), senior linebacker Forrest Rhyne (Waynesboro, Pa.) and junior cornerback Christian Benford (Randallstown, Md.). Each of the four preseason all-conference selections were previously first team All-CAA picks for the abbreviated 2020 season which was contested this past spring. In addition to those four players, senior quarterback Daniel Smith (Leesburg, Va.) and graduate student running back Justin Covington (Bronx, N.Y.) earned preseason honorable mention recognition from the league.

AWOPETU THE PLAYMAKER

- Graduate student safety Nowoola Awopetu holds a special distinction in Villanova history as one of just two Wildcats in the FCS era (since 1985) to have career touchdowns on both defense and special teams. Awopetu has scored three career touchdowns, including two pick-sixes in a single game against Richmond in 2018 to go along with a 100-yard kick return touchdown against Richmond in 2019. The other player in the Villanova record book with career defense and special teams scores is Ademole Turner who returned a blocked punt for a touchdown and had a kickoff return touchdown during the 1996 season.
- Nowoola Awopetu is the only player in Villanova history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in the same game. He accomplished that feat on November 3, 2018 at Richmond. When he faced the Spiders one year later, Awopetu returned a kickoff 100 yards for a score to record the Wildcats first kick return touchdown since the 2010 season. His 100-yard return is one of seven plays in school history of 100 yards or longer, with five of the seven plays being kickoff returns.

150 MILESTONE

- Villanova is one of four current CAA Football teams to win at least 150 regular season conference games. The Wildcats reached that milestone on October 5, 2019 with a 35-28 win over William & Mary and currently have an all-time record of 158-109 (.592) in regular season conference games. Villanova first joined the Yankee Conference for the 1988 season and the league has since transitioned to the Atlantic 10 and now CAA Football. The other current league members with at least 150 conference wins are New Hampshire (248), Maine (216) and Delaware (169). The Wildcats .592 all-time winning percentage in conference play is the third-highest among current CAA Football schools.

CAPTAINS

- Graduate students Justin Covington, Malik Fisher and Forrest Rhyne will serve as the Villanova captains for the 2021 season. Each of the three are six-year players for the Wildcats and have been CAA Football All-Conference selections during their careers. Covington won the league's prestigious Chuck Boone Leadership and Excellence Award for the 2020 season and is a two-time All-CAA performer. Rhyne has been named to the CAA Football First Team Defense in each of the last two seasons and Fisher is also a two-time all-conference honoree. Both Rhyne and Fisher were named preseason All-Americans entering the 2021 season. The three captains began the year having played in a combined 103 collegiate games with 57 starts.

VILLANOVA FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

VILLANOVA HEAD COACH MARK FERRANTE

Now in his fifth season as Villanova head coach, Mark Ferrante enters the 2021 campaign with a 21-18 (.538) career record leading the program. He is in his 35th year overall with the Wildcats including his time as head coach and 30 years as an assistant. Ferrante was the Assistant Head Coach from 1999-2016 and was named the 30th head coach in the history of Villanova Football at a press conference on January 30, 2016. In his 35 years on the Wildcats sideline Ferrante has been a part of 238 victories and all 13 of the program's FCS playoff appearances.

Villanova has been a highly successful program both on and off the field during Ferrante's head coaching tenure. In his first four seasons as head coach the Wildcats have had three major conference award winners and 25 selections to the CAA Football All-Conference teams, including nine members of the first team. Defensive back Christian Benford was named the CAA Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2018 and Villanova has had back-to-back winners of the prestigious CAA Football Chuck Boone Leadership and Excellence Award. Chucky Smith was the 2019 winner of the award and Justin Covington earned the honor for the 2020 season.

Outside of football the Wildcats student-athletes have consistently excelled in their academic pursuits during Ferrante's time as head coach. Villanova was named the winner of the 2017-18 CAA Football Team Academic Excellence Award for having the highest GPA among the league's football members. In four of the last five years the football program has been cited for its academic success with public recognition awards as part of the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) program. The football team has set new program records for its highest APR score in four of the last five years in which data has been released. On an individual level, football student-athletes have had 316 honorees on the CAA Football All-Academic Team and 288 selections to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll during Ferrante's time as head coach. There have also been 11 student-athletes recognized on the Philadelphia Inquirer Academic All-Area Team.

When the entire 2020-21 academic year was affected by the COVID pandemic, Ferrante and the Wildcats made the most out of the opportunity to play four games in Spring 2021 and use the experience gained from those games moving forward. The spring games were officially recognized as the 2020 season and Villanova tallied a 2-2 record in four contests against CAA foes, including road wins over Stony Brook and Maine. The abbreviated season had its share of highlights, with Justin Covington named the winner of the CAA Football Chuck Boone Leadership and Excellence Award to go along with being one of eight Wildcats chosen for the CAA Football All-Conference teams. Offensive lineman Michael Corbi and a trio of defensive players in lineman Malik Fisher, linebacker Forrest Rhyne and defensive back Christian Benford were each named first team All-CAA selections.

Villanova came off its most successful season during Ferrante's head coaching tenure in 2019 and the Wildcats were duly recognized for their success on the gridiron. The final national rankings at the end of the 2019 season had Villanova at No. 15, while the Wildcats were at No. 5 in the polls at the start of the 2021 spring season.

Ferrante guided Villanova to a 9-4 record and the program's seventh FCS playoff berth in the previous 12 years in 2019. After the Wildcats were picked to finish ninth in CAA Football before the season the team raced out of the gates with a 6-0 record, a 3-0 mark in league play and a No. 5 national ranking by the midpoint of the season. Villanova had 10 players earn All-CAA accolades, including a trio of first team selections in Rhyne, offensive lineman Paul Grattan and punter Nathan Fondacaro. Senior safety Chucky Smith was named the winner of the Chuck Boone Award.

VILLANOVA FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

MARK FERRANTE / VILLANOVA COACHING STAFF

Villanova has had six players sign NFL free agent contracts since Ferrante became head coach, including offensive tackle Brandon Hitner (LA Rams); safety Rob Rolle (Miami Dolphins); offensive lineman Ethan Greenidge (New Orleans Saints); defensive back Trey Johnson (Pittsburgh Steelers); defensive back Malik Reaves (Kansas City Chiefs); and linebacker Ed Shockley (Dallas Cowboys).

Ferrante's success during his years as an assistant coach were recognized by others outside the Villanova program. In 2015 season he was named the FCS Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA). This award was first presented in 1997 and was created to honor assistant coaches who excel in community service, commitment to student-athletes and on-field coaching success.

The characteristics that earned Ferrante the Assistant Coach of the Year award exemplify his dedication to all facets of a complete student-athlete experience. Since he arrived on the Main Line prior to the 1987 season, Villanova Football student-athletes have been named Academic All-Americans on 12 occasions. That honor is one of the top accolades a collegiate student-athlete can earn and the Wildcats additionally had four student-athletes be named the CAA Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year in a span of nine years. Each year the NCAA recognizes programs that have a multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score that ranks within the top 10 percent of their sport nationwide. Villanova has earned this award nine times in the 15-year history of the APR program. The team was the winner of the CAA Football Team Academic Excellence Award for both the 2016-17 and the 2017-18 academic years.

Ferrante was involved in all aspects of the Villanova program during his time as an assistant on Andy Talley's staff. On the field he coached the offensive line for 27 seasons and developed a unit that was perennially one of the best in CAA Football. Over the years he coached three All-Americans, 11 All-East performers and 15 first team all-conference selections. The offensive line had 17 All-CAA selections in a nine-year span, including three-time first team honoree Ben Ijalana along with first team selections Brant Clouser (2010), Dan Shirey (2011) and Vince Kowalski (2014).

Two of Ferrante's players went on to be selected in the NFL Draft. Ijalana was a second round selection by the Indianapolis Colts in 2011 and Brad Seaton was picked in the seventh round by the Tennessee Titans in 2017. Ijalana was a two-time All-American (2009, 2010) and a three-time first team All-CAA selection during his collegiate career. Villanova reached the FCS playoffs in each of his last three seasons on the team, winning the 2009 national title and advancing to the semifinal round a year later. Seaton was a second team CAA Football All-Conference selection in 2016 when the offensive line enabled the Wildcats to average 206.3 rushing yards and 378.7 yards of total offense per game. Villanova ranked third in the CAA and 24th nationally in rushing offense in addition to ranking fourth in the league in total offense and fifth with a scoring average of 24.4 points per game.

The other All-Americans Ferrante mentored are Eamonn Allen (2001) and Bryan Russo (1989). Allen earned first team Associated Press All-America recognition in 2001 and was also a first team All-East and first team All-Atlantic 10 selection. Russo was chosen as an All-American by the Sports Network and the American Football Coaches Association as a senior in 1989 when he was also a first team all-conference and an All-ECAC selection. He was inducted to Villanova's Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 2007.

Ferrante was a standout collegiate performer in his own right prior to joining the football coaching ranks. He was the quarterback for Andy Talley at St. Lawrence where he was named the 1982 Division III Player of the Year to go along with first team All-East honors. Ferrante directed the offense for a St. Lawrence team that went 10-1 during the 1982 season and reached the national semifinals in the playoffs.

Following the end of his playing career Ferrante joined Talley's staff at St. Lawrence and spent one season as the running backs coach in 1983. His other coaching stops before Villanova include coaching the running backs at Wagner (1984) and working on the coaching staff at Lafayette (1985-86).

Ferrante and his wife, Georgea, reside in Phoenixville, Pa.
