IT'S WORTH NOTING...

~ Villanova returns to the NCAA Tournament South Region for the third time since 2016. The Wildcats downed Kansas in the South Regional Final in Louisville in 2016 on their way to the 2016 NCAA national title and were also in the South Region in their most recent NCAA Tournament appearance in 2019, as a No. 6 seed.

~ Since Butler joined the BIG EAST in 2013, Villanova has made annual visits to the state of Indiana. It is 4-4 vs. the Bulldogs at Hinkle Field House in that span, including a 73-61 loss there on Feb. 28. It also picked up a 79-76 win at Purdue in Nov. 2017 in the state.

~ Sophomore guard Justin Moore bounced back from a sprained left ankle suffered in the Wildcats' regular season finale at Providence on March 6 to provide 10 points off the bench in Villanova's 72-71 loss to Georgetown on March 11. Moore is expected to be available vs. Winthrop.

~ Villanova was a constant in the Top 10 of both major polls from start to finish of the 2020-21 regular season. The Wildcats began the week of March 15 ranked No. 18 in the Associated Press Top 25, their lowest ranking of the campaign. Since the start of the 2013-14 regular season, Villanova has been ranked in the AP Top 25 for 138 of the last 145 weeks, including the last 32 in a row.

~ Senior guard Collin Gillespie and sophomore forward Jeremiah Robinson-Earl shared BIG EAST Player of the Year honors with Seton Hall senior forward Sandro Mamukelashvili. The Wildcats' pair joins former VU standouts Kerry Kittles, Randy Foye, Ryan Arcidiacono, Josh Hart, and Jalen Brunson as conference Player of the Year recipients in program history.

~ Villanova produced a nine-game winning streak that began on Dec. 1 and ended on Feb. 3. Since the start of the 2013-14 season, the Wildcats have had a winning streak of at least nine games (seven of the past eight campaigns). The only exception was 2019-20, where the longest run of consecutive victories was seven.

~ Like most Division I teams, the Wildcats have seen plenty of upheaval in their schedule due to COVID-19. Villanova has been through three pauses since practice formally began. The first got started on Sept. 23, the second on Dec. 27 and the third on Jan. 4 after only one day of practice following the second pause. Villanova went 27 days between games from Dec. 23-Jan. 19. It played only three games in the month of January.

~ Villanova head coach Jay Wright was announced as a 2021 finalist for the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame last week. Wright earned career victory No. 600 on Dec. 16 vs. Butler at Finneran Pavilion. He has guided Villanova to 14 of the last 15 NCAA Tournaments, including the last eight in a row and carries an all-time record of 28-14 in NCAA Tournament play (.667). Wright also led Hofstra to NCAA appearances in 2000 and 2001.

NEWS AND NOTES

Hot Hoyas Nipped Nova

Georgetown got a pair of free throws from eventual BIG EAST Tournament MVP Dante Harris with 4.7 seconds left to upend No. 1 seed Villanova 72-71 in a BIG EAST Tournament quarterfinal last week.

Villanova received a combined 46 points from forwards Jeremiah Robinson-Earl (26) and Jermaine Samuels (20) but it wasn't enough to hold off the Hoyas. Georgetown rallied from an 11-point second half deficit to advance to Friday night's semifinal. Harris scored 18 points for Georgetown.

The Wildcats held a 70-65 lead with just less than 90 seconds left but the Hoyas outscored Nova 7-1 in the final seconds to secure the win.

"Down the stretch it got to be a one possession game," said Villanova head coach Jay Wright. "They executed those last two possessions a little bit better than us. I thought their guards were great. We had a tough time controlling Harris. They're a good team and they're playing good basketball."

"(Georgetown) did a good job of isolating people they wanted to on our team and making great individual plays. Harris isolated a couple of times and made great plays. They got a couple of offensive rebounds and got to the foul line."

Indeed, the Hoyas were perfect at the line, converting all 23 of their attempts on the afternoon.

After working with Villanova strength coach John Shackleton and Head Athletic Trainer Dan Erickson prior to the game, sophomore guard Justin Moore was able to participate in the rest of pregame warmups. Although he did not start, Moore entered the game after 2:53 of action.

"It was a shock," stated Wright of Moore's availability. "We truly prepared not to have him. Our trainer told us that maybe he could play Saturday if we made it. He hadn't practiced at all. They just told us in warmups he felt good, and thought he could give it a shot. He did and did a great job."

Moore finished with 10 points before fouling out.

Spurred by six points from Samuels, the Wildcats grabbed an early 9-0 lead only to have the Hoyas bounce right back with eight straight points of their own. At the 15:33 mark, Nova's lead was 9-8. A Quddus Wahab post-up score drew a foul and extend the Hoyas run to 11-0 after five minutes of game action.

Villanova was unable to find the range from deep, connecting on 1-of-11 from beyond the arc over the game's first nine minutes. Yet it's gritty work at the defensive end helped it retake the lead at 15-13 on an Eric Dixon put-back basket.

With Samuels and Robinson-Earl fueling the offense, Villanova built a 35-30 advantage with just more than three minutes to play. But with Samuels, Moore and Caleb Daniels all on the bench with two fouls, Georgetown went on a 7-0 run to close the half and take a 37-35 lead at halftime.

Over the first 20 minutes, Nova was 10-of-16 from inside the arc but just 3-of-19 from beyond it. The Hoyas were 6-of-16 from distance, which helped account for their advantage.

A 10-0 spurt early in the second half allowed the Wildcats to retake the lead and push it to 47-39.

The Wildcats stretched the lead to 11 at one point but Georgetown made its way back, regain the lead at the 5:01 mark after a 3-pointer put the Hoyas up 63-62.

A clutch 3-pointer from Robinson-Earl gave the Wildcats (16-6 overall, 11-4 BIG EAST) a 70-65 cushion with 1:29 left but it would be Nova's final field goal of the day. Georgetown scored five straight points to tie it at 70 before a Robinson-Earl free throw gave the 'Cats the one point edge with 19 seconds left. After a timeout, Harris drove the ball into the key and the Wildcats were whistled for the foul. He sank both free throws with 4.7 seconds left. A final 3-point attempt by Caleb Daniels was off the mark.

The loss ended a nine-game winning streak in the BIG EAST Tournament that began in the 2017 quarterfinals. The Wildcats won an unprecedented three straight BIG EAST Tournament crowns from 2017-19. The 2020 event was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

NEWS AND NOTES

A Substantial Setback

Villanova absorbed a significant blow on March 3, when senior guard Collin Gillespie went down awkwardly in a first half collision during a 72-60 victory over Creighton at Finneran Pavilion. An MRI the next day revealed a torn MCL in his left knee. Successful surgery was performed on March 10 by Dr. William Emper but the season is over for this Wildcats' captain.

Coach Jay Wright summed up the loss this way: "We are all devastated for Collin. He is the heart and soul of our program. We know we can't replace him. We all just want to step up and play so that we honor him."

In 118 games he has played as a Wildcat, Gillespie has been on the winning side 94 times. He was tabbed first team All-BIG EAST and was one of three players selected as the league's Player of the Year.

This season, Gillespie averaged 33.4 minutes per game and his 2.88 assist-to-turnover ratio (92 assists, 32 turnovers) ranks 15th in the country as the NCAA Tournament begins.

Senior Leaders

Villanova began the season with its last three active players from the 2018 NCAA national champions in positions of leadership. However, two of those athletes, Gillespie and classmate Dhamir Cosby-Roundtree, have suffered season ending injuries. Cosby-Roundtree underwent surgery on his tibia in late December and has not played a minute for the 'Cats in 2020-21.

Jermaine Samuels is the sole active link to the 2018 champions and he's been a rock solid part of the team's core. In fact, since Gillespie's injury, the native of Franklin, Mass., has averaged 20.5 points and 7.5 rebounds in the two games since.

Samuels' offensive surge, however, goes further back than that. Since Feb. 7, the forward has averaged 15.4 points and 5.8 rebounds per outing over a nine-game span. He begins the NCAA Tournament with 833 career points.

Ironically, Villanova's NCAA Tournament experience now consists of Samuels (six games) and eight minutes played by Cole Swider in a 2019 second round loss to Purdue.

Another Arch Steps Forward

Sophomore guard Chris Arcidiacono is a scion of a famous Villanova family. Dad Joe Arcidiacono played football for the Wildcats after a stellar prep hoops career and older brother Ryan Arcidiacono, was a four-year stalwart for the Wildcats from 2012-16 who capped his career with the assist on Kris Jenkins' game-winning 3-pointer against North Carolina in the '16 title game.

Entering Villanova's final regular season game, Chris Arcidiacono had logged 36 minutes in 16 appearances over two seasons. But the backcourt injuries created an opening and Arcidiacono has seized it, playing 59 minutes over the past two games, including a career-high 34 in the Wildcats' loss to Georgetown at the BIG EAST Tournament.

KenPom Profile

Villanova enters the NCAA Tournament listed at No. 12 in Ken Pomeroy's advanced metrics system at kenpom.com.

The Wildcats' Adjusted Offensive Efficiency of 119.3 points per 100 possessions ranks ninth nationally. Villanova's Adjusted Defensive Efficiency of 95.3 points per 100 possessions ranks 68th overall.

Jay's Thoughts on J-Rob

Villanova head coach Jay Wright recently weighed in on some of the attributes that help make Jeremiah Robinson-Earl such a valued part of the program. The sophomore is a finalist for the Karl Malone Small Forward of the Year award.

"Jeremiah is so valuable to any team because he always does the little things to help you win - rebounding, screening, great team defensive player," noted Wright. "Now, he's really developing as an offensive player. He's really been working on his game. You don't expect this every night, but he's been more consistent every night he steps on the court.

"He never, ever has a poor game defensively or on the glass. Sometimes he doesn't get a lot of rebounds, but he keeps the opponents best rebounder from rebounding."

The 3's

Villanova has been a prolific team from beyond the 3-point arc at times in 2020-21 but lately the 'Cats have slipped. In its last four games, Nova is 24-of-101 (.238) from long range. After draining 10 or more 3-pointers in its first 18 games, the Wildcats haven't converted better than 34 percent in a game since.

NEWS AND NOTES

Highly Rated Recruits

Villanova announced the signing of four accomplished student-athletes to national letters of intent on Nov. 11 as part of its Class of 2025. Three of the four are set to enroll in the fall of 2021. Trey Patterson elected to enroll in January after graduating early from Rutgers Prep.

The list includes guard Angelo Brizzi, guard Jordan Longino, forward Nnanna Njoku, and forward Patterson. The class is ranked fourth in the nation by 247 Sports.

Brizzi, a Warrenton, Va., native, is a standout point guard at Highland (Va.) High School, where he averaged 20.3 points, 6.6 assists and 3.2 steals per game during the 2019-20 campaign. Highland posted a 23-3 record.

"Angelo is an outstanding guard who brings a great feel for the game as the son of a coach," stated Wright. "He is an excellent shooter who is capable of playing either guard position. We believe Angelo has all the ingredients needed to become a complete Villanova guard. We're thrilled to welcome Angelo and his great family to Villanova."

Longino hails from nearby Doyelstown, Pa., and has excelled at Germantown Academy, the same program that produced Wildcats' legend Alvin Williams (1993-97). The 6-5 Longino played both football and basketball at Germantown Academy. On the hardwood, he averaged 22.8 points and 5.8 rebounds per contest in 2019-20, earning recognition as the PIAA Class 4A Player of the Year.

"Jordan is a highly-skilled, versatile player from a wonderful family," stated Wright. "At Germantown Academy he's excelled in two sports and his experience as a football quarterback points to his exceptional intelligence. Jordan is an excellent shooter, and we believe his multi-faceted game fits well here at Villanova."

Njoku was the first member of this class to make an oral commitment to the Wildcats back in April. The 6-9 forward, a native of Newark, Del., has starred at the Sanford School, the same school that produced former Wildcats' standout Will Sheridan (2003-07). He averaged 16 points and nine rebounds per contest during the 2019-20 season. The 247 Sports Top 100 ranking of class of 2021 prospects lists Njoku at No. 80.

"Nnanna is a very intelligent young man who has continued to get better over the course of his high school career," Wright said. "He plays extremely hard and brings a physical mentality when he steps on the floor. Nnanna has a great touch around the rim and is an underrated passer. He is part of a terrific family and will be a great fit here in our Villanova community."

Patterson is a 6-7 forward who thrived at Rutgers Prep in New Jersey. He is listed at No. 27 in the ESPN Top 100 for the Class of 2021 and at No. 30 in the 247 Sports rankings of the same class. Patterson averaged 19.7 points per game while helping his team post a 27-2 record in 2019-20. His parents, Antoine and Shamona Patterson, played college basketball at St. Francis (Pa.) and Seton Hall, respectively.

"Trey brings great intelligence and basketball skill to our program," Wright stated. "His parents were both quality Division I college players and have served as great mentors to him. Trey combines an outstanding work ethic with a varied skill set that helps sets him apart. We're excited to bring another great player from New Jersey to Villanova."
