TOWSON RETURNS FOR 2022 SEASON

It is a new year for Towson as the Tigers are set for their 53rd season. Rob Ambrose returns at the helm of his 13th season.

It is a new look Towson team with over 50 new players joining since the spring season began. Four starters return on each side of the ball for Towson in 2022.

GIBBS NAMED TO REESE'S SENIOR BOWL WATCH LIST

Jesus Gibbs has been selected to the 10th Annual Reese's Senior Bowl Watch List. The Senior Bowl, set for Feb. 4, 2023, will gather some of the top prospects for the upcoming National Football League (NFL) Draft. Gibbs will look to be the first Towson player to compete in the Reese's Senior Bowl since Tony Vinson played in the game in 1994.

Gibbs, a South Carolina transfer, enters his third year playing for the Tigers in 2022. The standout defensive lineman had three games with at least four tackles each before ending the year due to injury, including three total tackles for loss. He was recently featured on Bruce Feldman's 2022 College Football "Freaks" List as one of the top college football players with unique physical abilities.

WOODS SELECTED TO JERRY RICE AWARD WATCH LIST

Mason Woods has been placed on the 2022 Stats Perform FCS Jerry Rice Award Watch List. The Jerry Rice Award is presented to the top freshman in FCS each year. Woods is one of 25 freshmen across FCS to be on the watch list, including one of four linebackers.

Woods is the first member of the Jerry Rice Award Watch List since Shane Simpson finished ninth in the voting in 2016. Former Towson running back Terrance West won the inaugural Jerry Rice Award for the 2011 season.

Woods has started all eight games this season for the Tigers, standing first on the team with 62 tackles, adding 1.5 sacks, an interception and three pass-breakups.

Towson University Head Coach Rob Ambrose

13th Season (14th Year) as Head Coach

2011 Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year

Not many people have the passion for Towson University as head coach Rob Ambrose. A former player and assistant coach, Ambrose has used that passion to turn the Tigers into one of the top teams in FCS.

In his first 12 years as head coach, Ambrose led the Tigers to six winning seasons, two CAA championships, three playoff appearances and a trip to the 2013 FCS National Championship game.

2019 saw the Tigers earn their second consecutive winning season, being nationally ranked in the top-25 all season long, going as high as No. 5 after a 3-0 start. Towson earned victories over four teams either ranked or receiving votes at the time of the game, including a 45-23 victory over then No. 7 and defending CAA champion Maine in Orono. For the second season in a row, Towson picked up 10 All-CAA selections, including Yeedee Thaenrat being First Team on special teams and Second Team at running back. Tom Flacco moved into third all-time in Towson history with 50 passing touchdowns, also standing in the top-seven in passing yards and passing completions in just two seasons with the Black & Gold. Shane Leatherbury tied a Towson single season record with 12 receiving touchdowns plus the Tigers had two players, Coby Tippet and Keon Paye, earn five interceptions, the first Towson players to have at least five picks in a season since 2004.

The 2013 season was one all Tiger fans will remember. Towson opened the season by going on the road and knocking off Connecticut, 31-18. It marked the first program victory over an FBS opponent. Towson started the season with six straight victories, and ended the regular season with a 10-2 record. The Tigers began their playoff run with a home victory over No. 9 Fordham, before going on the road to knock off No. 2 Eastern Illinois and No. 3 Eastern Washington. The season came to an end with a loss in the National Championship game, but not before the Tigers won a school-record 13 games. Towson finished the season ranked No. 2 in the polls and won the Lambert/Meadowlands Award as the top FCS team in the East. The Tigers were also honored as the ECAC FCS Team of the Year.

Ambrose returned to Towson after spending seven years as an assistant coach at Connecticut, helping the Huskies from an FCS program into a major college contender. During his time in Storrs, Ambrose helped the Huskies to 49 victories, three bowl appearances and a share of the 2007 Big East championship.

Ambrose's coaching career began where his playing career ended as he joined the Tigers as a wide receivers coach in 1993 after spending the 1992 season as a student assistant. Ambrose took over as the offensive coordinator in 1997, and added the associate head coach title in 2000. In his third season, Ambrose's offense led the country in passing yardage (381.2 ypg), while his 2000 team saw Noah Read lead the Patriot League in rushing.
