NOTES

LAST TIME OUT: Villanova tallied a 64-61 home win over the St. John's Red Storm on Saturday, Jan. 14. The first quarter went back and forth with neither team able to open up more than a four-point lead. Senior guard Unique Drake was the story for the Red Storm in the opening quarter with eight points, including two three-point field goals. St. John's out scored Villanova by a 21-10 margin to start the second quarter to take a 39-25 advantage. Senior guard Jayla Everett scored the final eight points of the spurt, including back-to-back three-point field goals to give her team its biggest lead of the half at 14. Maddy Siegrist scored the final bucket of the first half to send the teams to halftime with St. John's leading 39-27. After a three-ball by Maddie Burke cut the St. John's lead to 45-37 with 3:12 to play in the third quarter, the Red Storm responded with six straight points to take a 51-37 advantage. St. John's would use the momentum to lead 54-39 after three. Trailing 59-43 with 5:28 remaining in the fourth quarter, the Wildcats finished the game on an improbable 21-2 run. Siegrist was sensational in the run scoring 14 of Villanova's 21 points. The Wildcat defense turned up the pressure over the final 5:28, forcing St. John's into six turnovers and 1-of-8 shooting during the stretch. Siegrist connected on two free throws with 3:57 on the clock to cut the Red Storm lead to 59-52. Following a St. John's turnover, the Wildcats sliced the advantage to 59-54 when Siegrist scored on a lay-up in transition. Each team failed to score on its next possession, before Red Storm forward Jillian Archer scored on an offensive rebound putback to increase the St. John's lead to 61-54 at the 1:47 mark. Villanova quickly responded with back-to-back three-point field goals by Burke. The second triple trimmed the St. John's advantage to 61-60 with 1:02 left. After a St. John's turnover, Siegrist was fouled on a drive to the basket and was sent to the line for two shots. Siegrist sank both free throws and Villanova led for the first time in the second half at 62-61 with 41 seconds on the clock. The Wildcats came up with a key defensive stop and Siegrist was fouled with 25 seconds to go. After Siegrist made one-of-two to give her team a 63-61 advantage, the Red Storm called timeout and advanced the ball to the front court. Out of the timeout, St. John's attempted to get the ball to the low post, but Siegrist came up with the steal and the ball ended up in Christina Dalce's hands who was fouled at the 23 second mark. Dalce missed the first free throw, but made the second, and the Wildcats led 64-61. St. John's then came out of a timeout and turned the ball over. Following the turnover, Villanova was able to dribble the clock out and earn the come-back win. In the victory, Siegrist had 32 points, seven rebounds and four blocks. She scored 18 of her 32 points in the fourth quarter. Burke finished with 12 points on four three-point field goals, while Dalce added five points, 10 rebounds and four blocks. PRESEASON HONOR: Forward Maddy Siegrist was a unanimous selection as the preseason BIG EAST Player of the Year. Siegrist, who is the reigning BIG EAST Player of the Year, led the Wildcats to their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2018 last season by shattering the BIG EAST record for scoring averaging at 27.9 points per game over 17 league contests, besting the previous mark of 26.6 which had been on the books since 1991-92. Additionally, she finished second in rebounding at 9.9 boards per game. Siegrist's overall scoring average of 25.3 points per game ranked second nationally in 2021-22 and she reached the 30-point mark a BIG EAST-best nine times, the 20-point threshold 21 times and notched 12 double-doubles. In addition to being the BIG EAST Player of the Year last year, she earned third team All-American accolades from both the USBWA and Associated Press. Siegrist has garnered first team All-BIG EAST honors the last three seasons.

A NEW ADDITION: Villanova is expecting Penn State transfer Maddie Burke to join the Wildcat starting line-up this season. As a freshman in 2020-21, Burke started 11 of the 24 games she played in at Penn State and averaged 8.9 points per game in 26.3 minutes per contest and was named the Big 10 Sixth Player of the Year and was a unanimous selection to the Big 10 All-Rookie Team. Last season, Burke played in 29 games and averaged 2.8 points per game and 1.7 rebounds per contest. After 19 games this season, she ranks third on the team in scoring at 8.2 points per game and she leads the Wildcats in three-point field goals with 45.

600 IN A ROW: Entering play versus Xavier on Tuesday, Villanova has made at least one three-point field goal in 600 consecutive games. The last time Villanova failed to connect on a triple was against Boston College on Jan. 2, 2004, when the Wildcats were 0-for-10 from long distance in a 61-48 loss.

NATIONAL HONORS: For the fourth time in her career and first this season, Maddy Siegrist was named the USBWA Ann Meyers National Player of the Week on Dec. 7. She garnered the honor after her 31 point, 11 rebound effort versus La Salle on Dec. 21.

NEWCOMERS: Villanova has added five newcomers to the 2022-23 roster, including four freshmen and one transfer. The four freshmen are Megan Olbrys, Abigail Jegede, Annie Welde and Maggie Grant. The transfer is junior Maddie Burke who comes to the Wildcats from Penn State. Jegede will miss the season due to an injury.

WILDCATS PICKED THIRD: In the BIG EAST preseason predicted order of finish, Villanova was picked to finish third in the league standings with 83 points and one first place vote. Connecticut was selected to win the conference championship with 100 points and 10 first place votes.

HEAD COACH DENISE DILLON

Denise Dillon will be entering her third season at her alma mater in 2022-23. In her first two years as the Wildcat head coach, Dillon led Villanova to a 41-16 overall record (.719) and a 24-9 BIG EAST mark (.738).

Under Dillon's direction in 2021-22, Villanova tallied a 24-8 record, including a 15-4 BIG EAST Conference mark which was good enough for a second place finish in the final league standings. For their efforts, the Wildcats earned an at large bid to the NCAA Tournament where they defeated BYU in the first round before falling to Michigan in round two. Villanova also went 3-1 in Philadelphia Big 5 play to capture the City Series championship.

Dillon helped junior forward Maddy Siegrist lead the BIG EAST in scoring for a second straight season last year with a 25.3 points per game average. Siegrist was rewarded for her standout play by earning BIG EAST Player of the Year honors and third team All-American acclaim. Dillon also guided Lior Garzon to second team All-BIG EAST distinction and the league's Co-Most Improved Player Award and freshman guard Lucy Olsen to a spot on the conference's All-Rookie Team.

For her efforts in 2021-22, Dillon was named both the BIG EAST and Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year. This marks the fifth time that Dillon has been named a conference coach of the year. During her Drexel career she was a four-time CAA Coach of the Year.

Dillon came to Villanova from Drexel University where she built the Dragons into a perennial contender, making a name for herself in the Philadelphia sports scene and the women's basketball coaching ranks, while bringing her team national attention for its consistent success and high level of play. She led the Dragons to 10 postseason appearances, including winning the WNIT championship in 2013. During her 17-year Drexel career, Dillon compiled a 329-204 (.617) record.

From 2016-20, Dillon's Drexel teams boasted a 96-35 record (.732) and advanced to national postseason play each season. In all, the Dragons won 20 or more games seven times under Dillon's watch, claimed four CAA titles and played in five conference championship games. Dillon was named the CAA Coach of the Year in 2005, 2009, 2018 and 2020.

The traits that have allowed Dillon to excel during her coaching career were honed during her time as a Villanova student-athlete. She played for head coach Harry Perretta and was part of Wildcats teams that went 68-43 (.613) during her collegiate career. Dillon accumulated 1,355 points and 677 rebounds while developing into an All-BIG EAST honoree and a three-time All-Big 5 selection. She remains one of the all-time greats in the Villanova program and is enshrined in the Big 5 Hall of Fame (2004), the Villanova Varsity Club Hall of Fame (2012), the Delaware County Athletes Hall of Fame (2012) and the Cardinal O'Hara High School Hall of Fame (2018).

Dillon was appointed as the head coach at Drexel prior to the 2004-05 season after spending one year as the program's interim head coach. She led that 2004-05 squad to a 19-10 record and a first-round bye in the CAA Tournament. The Dragons eventually advanced to the semifinals and came within one point of toppling Old Dominion, a feat that had never before been accomplished in the conference tournament.

Drexel boasted a winning record in 11 of the last 12 seasons under Dillon, but the first true breakthrough of her coaching career came in 2008-09 when the Dragons played their way to the 2009 regular season CAA title and a then-program record of 24 wins. What came next was the feat that had so narrowly eluded Drexel a few seasons earlier; the Dragons knocked off 17-time defending conference champion Old Dominion and ended the Lady Monarchs' NCAA-best 50-game conference tournament winning streak. Drexel went on to defeat James Madison on its home court to bring home the school's first CAA title and earn its first NCAA Tournament appearance.

In 2012-13, Dillon led the Dragons to a school-record 28 victories and the WNIT title after a remarkable postseason run that saw Drexel defeat Iona, Harvard, Bowling Green, Auburn, Florida and Utah on its way to the first postseason tournament championship in both CAA history and Philadelphia Division I women's basketball history.

Dillon's teams netted Drexel's first-ever victories over teams from the SEC (Auburn, Florida), the Pac-12 (Utah) and the ACC (Syracuse). She posted two wins over nationally ranked opponents, including the victory over the 11th-ranked Orange in 2016-17 when Syracuse was coming off a national runner-up finish one year earlier. During her Dragons tenure, Dillon saw her student-athletes be named All-CAA performers a total of 27 times. She coached three CAA Rookies of the Year, two CAA Players of the Year, the program's first AP All-American, the leading scorer in Philadelphia women's basketball history and the first Drexel women's player to be selected in the WNBA Draft. In 2018-19, she mentored the CAA Player of the Year (Bailey Greenberg) and during the season became the first Drexel basketball coach to win 300 career games at the school. Dillon's 2018-19 squad also led the nation in scoring defense, giving up just 50.5 points per contest.

Off the court, Dillon's commitment to helping student-athletes grow as players and as people has been one of the Drexel program's greatest success stories. She produced five winners of the CAA's prestigious Dean Ehlers Leadership Award, while Nicole Hester '09 was the recipient of the John Randolph Inspiration Award and the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association's Most Courageous Award. Drexel also was active in the community throughout Dillon's tenure. The program made visits to the Ronald McDonald House and several local daycare centers, organized fundraisers and rallied the Philadelphia community while using their collective experiences to grow as individuals.
