* CAA Football contest

SETTING THE SCENE

- Sitting in sole possession of first place in CAA Football at 3-0, Elon heads out of state for the first time in 2023 to face 4-2 Villanova. The Wildcats are one game behind the Phoenix in the league standings at 2-1 as the two meet in Pennsylvania Saturday at 1 p.m.
- Both teams are receiving votes in the latest FCS Stats Perform Top 25 poll. The winner should vault themselves into contention for a top 25 ranking and, more importantly, bolster their FCS playoff resume.
- Elon and Villanova will meet for just the fourth time with the Phoenix looking to move to 2-0 in road contests in the all-time series. Elon, in fact, has played just that one game in the state of Pennsylvania since defeating Lock Haven 59-13 in 1976. Elon's last known loss in the Keystone State came in a 13-0 defeat at La Salle on Oct. 1, 1938.
- Saturday's game will be streamed on FloSports, with Nick Mantegna and Steve Pinone on the call.
- Taylor Durham and Khirey Walker will handle the audio duties with the pregame show beginning at 12:30 p.m. It can be heard for free via The Varsity Network app on your mobile device or by visiting ElonPhoenix.com and clicking on Live Audio on the football schedule.

AN ELON WIN WOULD...

- be the team's seventh consecutive conference win
- even the all-time series against Villanova at 2-2
- be the third straight year in which the team began at least 4-3 through seven games
- move Tony Trisciani's career record back over .500 at 24-23
- be the program's ninth win over a ranked opponent in Tony Trisciani's five-year tenure
- be the program's first 4-0 start in CAA play since 2017

BY THE NUMBERS

Elon has eight wins over ranked opponents in Tony Trisciani's five-year head coaching tenure, including last week's win over No. 5 William & Mary.

82

John Carlos Miller II had 82 receiving yards Saturday against NC Central, the most for an Elon tight end since 2012.

Nine different players caught a pass for Elon against North Carolina Central. That is the highest total in 2023.

2023 ELON FOOTBALL

TONY TRISCIANI IN YEAR FIVE LEADING THE PHOENIX

- On Dec. 17, 2018, Tony Trisciani was named the 23rd head football coach in Elon history. In 2022, he led the program back to the FCS playoffs for the first time in his head coaching tenure.
- Trisciani has been a member of the Phoenix staff the last three times Elon has made the playoffs -- as head coach in 2022 and as defensive coordinator in 2018 and 2017.
- While it is his fifth season as head coach, he is in his eighth year overall with the Phoenix, serving as the defensive coordinator in 2017 and 2018 before his elevation to the lead chair. In 2006, Trisciani coached the defensive backs and ran the special teams for Elon.
- Elon has won at least five games in all three fall campaigns in which he has been the head coach. The 2020 season was competed during a shortened spring campaign due to COVID-19.
- Elon has improved in each fall season under Trisciani, going from five wins in 2019 to six wins in 2021 and then eight wins in 2022.
- Under Trisciani, Elon won 11 conference games in 2021 and 2022 and is the only program to finish in the top three of the CAA standings in both seasons. That came after being picked 12th and sixth in the preseason polls.
- The 2023 season is Trisciani's 28th year as a football coach and his 18th at a CAA Football institution. Since his return to Elon in 2017, he has helped the program defeat 14 FCS Top 25 programs. As head coach, he has notched eight wins over ranked teams.

SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW

- Head Coach Tony Trisciani has put together an assistant coaching staff that mixes familiar faces at Elon with new staff.
- Offensive Coordinator Drew Folmar has been at Elon since 2017, while Defensive Coordinator Dovonte Edwards is in his third season at Elon and in his second in his current role.
- Defensive Line Coach Seth Payne has been at Elon since 2019. Special Teams Assistant Mike Nall also rejoined the program prior to the 2019 season. Nall also coached at Elon from 2005-08.
- Special Teams Coordinator/Outside Linebackers Coach Milo Austin, Inside Linebackers Coach Casey Vance and Running Backs Coach Nate Harris all joined Elon in time for the 2022 season.
- Elon sees four new faces to the staff for 2023. Offensive Line Coach Alex Stadler, Wide Receivers Coach Kyle Perkins, Tight Ends Coach Matt Ford and Cornerbacks Coach

Dominique Battle are all in their first year with the Phoenix.

SCOUTING VILLANOVA

- Villanova is off to a 4-2 start to the 2023 season, including a 2-1 mark in CAA play. All six of the Wildcats games have been decided by 20+ points.
- Villanova's only common opponent with Elon is North Carolina A&T. The Phoenix defeated the Aggies 27-3 and the Wildcats won 37-14.
- Offensively, Villanova boasts an explosive offensive, averaging 16.8 yards per reception -- the highest average in the country. The Wildcats have three passing touchdowns of at least 50 yards this year, including two just last week.
- On the flipside, Villanova ranks among the bottom 25 teams in all of FCS in both kick return and punt return average, as well as kick return defense. The Wildcats also allow a lot of sacks (3.2 per game) and tackles for loss (7.2 per game).
- Villanova's top two receivers are both averaging over 22 yards per reception. Jaylan Sanchez is No. 1 nationally at 26.6 yards on 16 receptions and Rayluon Pringles is No. 4 at 22.8 yards on 18 receptions.

TO BE THE BEST, YOU'VE GOT TO BEAT THE BEST

- Heading into the 2023 season, Elon was ranked as having the third most difficult schedule in the country by FCS Analyst, based on opponent win percentage.
- Elon's 11 opponents had a .606 win percentage in 2022, going a combined 80-52. Only Harvard (.648, 68-37) and Nicholls (.610, 83-53) have more difficult schedules.
- Among CAA teams, Campbell (.583, 77-55) has the fifth-toughest schedule in the nation and Delaware (.559, 71-56) is 12th.
- So far in 2023, Elon's 11 opponents have a combined record of 31-23, a .574 win percentage. The Phoenix's final final opponents are 16-11. That .593 opponent percentage is the tied for the sixth-toughest remaining schedule in FCS football.

STILL LOOKING FOR RESPECT

- At 3-0 in CAA Football play in 2023, Elon sits all alone atop the league standings. That comes after being picked to finish fifth in the preseason poll.
- In 2022, Elon was predicted to end sixth in CAA Football but finished third in the conference standings, earned an at-large bid to the FCS playoffs and ended the year ranked No. 17 in the country.
- In 2021, Elon was picked to finish last in the 12-team league but ended in sole possession of third place.
- Elon is the only program to finish in the top three of the final CAA Football standings in each of the past two seasons (2021 and 2022).
- Since the start of the 2021 season, Elon has the best record in CAA play of all current conference members. The Phoenix has gone 14-5, while both Villanova and William & Mary is 13-6.

2023 ELON FOOTBALL

BAM BAM ON THE MOVE

- When watching Jalen Hampton run the ball, it's easy to see why he has earned the nickname Bam Bam. Unafraid to take on defensive players, Hampton has become one of Elon's most productive running backs in program history in less than two seasons.
- Hampton became just the third player in Elon's FCS history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, carrying the rock for 1,053 yards in 2022. He's off to a similar start in 2023.
- Through six games, Hampton has 575 yards rushing, five touchdowns and is averaging 5.0 yards per carry, an increase over his 4.6 yard per carry average in 2022.
- Hampton went over 1,500 career rushing yards in his 15th collegiate game, when he rushed the ball 33 times for 169 yards at Campbell.
- Hampton rushed for more than 150 yards in back-to-back contests against North Carolina A&T and Campbell. He had 16 carries for 153 yards in a win over North Carolina A&T before the 33-carry, 169-yard game at Campbell. The Campbell game was his sixth career 100-yard rushing game, going over 130 yards in each of those six contests.
- With 1,628 career rushing yards in just 17 games, Hampton already ranks seventh in Elon's FCS history (since 1999). He needs 285 more yards to pass De'Sean McNair (2016-19) for sixth.
- Hampton rushed for at least 80 yards in eight of the 11 games he played a year ago. With three more 80-yard games in 2023, he has now reached that mark 11 times in 17 career games.
- Hampton had a career-high 177 yards against his namesake, Hampton, in 2022. He rushed for a career-best four rushing touchdowns in Elon's 28-24 win at Campbell.

POUNDING THE ROCK

- Behind an improved offensive line and the emergence of Jalen Hampton, Elon has become a strong running team, rushing for at least 120 yards in 13 of the team's 18 games over the past two seasons.
- Against North Carolina A&T, Elon ran for 260 yards, the most for the program since 2019. The Phoenix followed that up with 242 yards at Campbell.
- With the 242 yards at Campbell, Elon improved to 8-0 in Head Coach Tony Trisciani's tenure when rushing for 200+ yards.
- Elon topped 200 rushing yards three times last season, doing so against William & Mary (240 yards) as well as Gardner-Webb (205 yards) and Hampton (200 yards).
- In 2021, Elon rushed for 120+ yards as a team just one time, doing so with 146 yards in the season finale against Rhode Island. In fact, the 10 games of 120+ yards rushing in 2022 were the most for the program since doing so 10 times in 2017 as well.
- Elon averaged 152.3 yards per game rushing in 2022, a vast improvement over the 90.4 yards per game the team ran for in 2021. It was the team's highest rushing average in a season since going for 199.5 in 2018. So far in 2023, Elon has improved to 155.0 yards per contest on the ground.

WINNING IN THE TRENCHES

- Under Head Coach Tony Trisciani, Elon has been nearly unbeatable when winning in the trenches on at least one side of the ball.
- Elon is 8-0 when rushing for at least 200 yards in a game under Trisciani and 10-1 when holding opponents to fewer than 100 yards rushing. Elon's only loss in that scenario came in week one against Wake Forest, as the Demon Deacons had just 98 yards on 2.8 yards per carry.
- Elon has reached both milestones three times under Trisciani, two of which have come this season.
- Against Gardner-Webb in 2022, Elon ran for 205 and held the Runnin' Bulldogs to 43. Against North Carolina A&T, Elon rushed for 260 and held the Aggies to 81 yards. The next week at Campbell, Elon ran for 242 yards and held the Camels to just 35 yards.

CURTAIN CALL

- Redshirt sophomore Caleb Curtain had a solid season in 2022, getting his feet wet with 12 tackles, an interception and a sack. But he has made his mark in 2023.
- Curtain had four tackles, a sack, and most importantly, a 50-yard interception return for a touchdown at Wake Forest in the season opener.
- Curtain's interception return was Elon's first pick-six since Greg Liggs Jr. had one in 2019. Liggs Jr. is Elon's career interception leader, with 15, and single-season interception leader, with eight in 2019.
- According to analytic tracking data, Curtain reached a top speed of 20.58 miles per hour on the interception return, his fastest reading of the game.
- Curtain added his second interception of the season against North Carolina A&T.
- Curtain has led Elon in tackles in each of the past three games, totaling 28. He had a career-best 11 in the win over William & Mary. He leads Elon with 43 tackles on the season.

PEARSON IS A PROBLEM

- Redshirt senior defensive end Marvin Pearson will have opposing offensive line coaches scratching their heads all year long. He was dominant against Wake Forest and is considered Elon's top NFL prospect this year.
- Pearson recorded seven tackles, three for loss, and a sack in week one at Wake Forest. His sack came on Wake Forest's second drive as the Demon Deacons were facing a third-and-short and forced a Wake Forest punt.
- Pearson also had a three-yard tackle for loss on another third-and-short play in the first quarter and added a fourth quarter TFL to stall out another Wake Forest drive.
- With a sack against William & Mary, Pearson now has a team-best 7.0 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks. His 10.0 career sacks place him tied for sixth in program history.
- Pearson posted his 16th career quarterback hurry last week against North Carolina Central. That ties him with Marcus Willoughby (2016-19) for the most in the program's FCS history.

2023 ELON FOOTBALL

CAZEEM THE DREAM

- Starting opposite Marvin Pearson at defensive end, sophomore Cazeem Moore makes it very difficult for offensive lines to protect the quarterback.
- As a true freshman a year ago, Moore was just too talented to redshirt and he played in all 12 games, starting the final two. He was second on the team with 4.0 sacks and added four quarterback hurries.
- In the 2023 season opener at Wake Forest, Moore was again a factor, posting three tackles and a sack. His fourth quarter sack came on third down to shut down a Wake Forest drive.
- Moore now has 3.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks on the season. He has a TFL in three of the team's six games this season. He also recovered a fumble in the win over William & Mary.

TO PUNT OR NOT TO PUNT

- Elon ran fake punts in back-to-back games against Gardner-Webb and North Carolina A&T, with both attempts resulting in a 35-yard gain. The Phoenix also ran an unsuccessful fake punt in the 14-6 win over William & Mary
- Against Gardner-Webb, Josh Johnson took a short snap and rumbled 35 yards for a first down on the first and only carry of his career, proving that defensive linemen can be versatile and add to the offensive stats as well.
- Against North Carolina A&T, Elon fake punted again in vastly different fashion. Kyle Romenick became the first punter in Elon's Division I era to throw a touchdown pass, completed a 35-yard bomb to true freshman defensive back DJ Hamilton.
- Romenick again threw a pass on a fake punt against William & Mary, but his pass was bobbled and fell incomplete.

DEION MAKES HEADLINES BUT SO DOES BO

- Deion Sanders and his son Shedeur may be grabbing national headlines at Colorado, but another Sanders is leading the Elon defense much like Deion did at Florida State in his playing days.
- Senior captain Bo Sanders has 40 tackles (second-most on the team), posting nine against Wake Forest, along with two pass break-ups and a quarterback hurry.
- Sanders was all over the field in the win at Campbell, posting a season-high 10 tackles and adding his second career interception. Elon scored a touchdown on the ensuing drive after his INT.
- Deion was also a factor in the return game during his playing days and Bo does the same. He is averaging 4.8 yards on eight punt returns in 2023.

NO LINEBACKERS? NO PROBLEM

- Elon graduated all of its starting linebackers from 2022, but redshirt freshmen Brandon Tyson and Marco Patierno have filled the gap.
- Tyson had seven tackles against Wake Forest and then jumped on a loose ball late in the fourth quarter against Gardner-Webb for a fumble recovery that started Elon's game-tying touchdown drive. He added four tackles, a quarterback hurry and 0.5 sack in the win at Campbell.

- After recording three tackles against Wake Forest, Patierno was all over the field against Gardner-Webb, finishing with seven tackles and 0.5 tackle for loss. He earned his first career start against North Carolina A&T and then turned in a team-best seven tackles, 1.5 for loss. He topped that once more with 11 tackles in the win over No. 5/4 William & Mary.
- The duo has 71 combined tackles, including 6.5 for loss.

FILLING BIG SHOES

- True freshman kicker Jack Berkowitz has huge shoes to fill in replacing Skyler Davis, the best kicker in Elon history and the best kicker in all of FCS in 2022. But Berkowitz has answered the call so far, making 6-of-9 field goals. He is 16-of-17 on extra points with the only miss being on a blocked kick.
- Berkowitz stepped onto a college football field for the first time in front of a sold-out Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium at Wake Forest and went 2-for-2 on extra points and 1-for-1 on field goals. His 28-yard field goal came with just one second remaining in the game and split the uprights.

- The true freshman followed that up by making both of his field goal attempts at Gardner-Webb and all three extra points. He connected on a career-long 39-yarder late in the first quarter of that game.

- Berkowitz missed a kick for the first time all season when his 42-yard attempt sailed wide in the second quarter against North Carolina A&T. But he responded by making a 43-yarder later in the quarter and added another made field goal in the second half.

- That 43-yarder was a collegiate career long. He equaled that mark with a 43-yard field goal against North Carolina Central.

ALL HE DOES IS CATCH TOUCHDOWNS

- Redshirt sophomore Jamarien Dalton has eight receptions in 2023 but he comes up big when Elon needs it most, catching three touchdowns already.

- At Gardner-Webb, Dalton had two receptions and both of them were touchdowns scores.

- Dalton added another touchdown reception against William & Mary, putting Elon ahead 14-6.

MILLER TIME

- Redshirt sophomore tight end John Carlos Miller II had a career day against North Carolina Central, catching five passes for 82 yards.

- Miller's five catches against NC Central are the most for an Elon tight end since Donovan Williams caught six passes against Gardner-Webb in the 2021 spring season.

- The 82 receiving yards were the most for a tight end since Chris Harris has 89 against Western Carolina in 2012.

- Miller's 211 receiving yards in 2023 are already more than the 201 he had last year. It is also the most by an Elon tight end since Matt Foster finished the 2019 season with 246.

THREE FOR ONE

- Elon played three quarterbacks Saturday against North Carolina Central and each of them were responsible for a Phoenix touchdown.

- Matthew Downing and Justin Allen each threw a touchdown pass, while William Lankford ran for one.

- It is the first time in the program's FCS history that three different quarterbacks threw or ran for a touchdown in a single game.

ROMENICK DOING IT ALL

- Transfer punter Kyle Romenick has not only been consistent in the kicking game for the Phoenix, he has also proven to be a weapon in the passing game in 2023.

- While he averages 42.5 yards per punt, Romenick also showed off his arm in the win over North Carolina A&T. He rocketed a pass on a fake punt for a 35-yard touchdown to true freshman DJ Hamilton. Romenick became the first Elon punter to throw a touchdown pass in the program's NCAA Division I era (since 1999).
- Due to that play, along with a 42.2 yard per punt average, Romenick was named CAA Special Teams Player of the Week.

- At 42.5 yards per punt through the first six weeks, Romenick is threatening for one of the best punting seasons in program history. He would currently sit fourth in a single-season in program history and is chasing Brandon Lane and his 42.9 yard per punt average in 2007 for third.

BONNER BREAKS OUT

- Redshirt senior wide receiver Jordan Bonner has patiently waited for an opportunity to be featured in the Elon offense and he has made the most of his opportunity so far in 2023.

- Bonner had a team-high seven catches at Wake Forest, easily surpassing his previous career-best of four receptions. He followed that up with four more catches at Gardner-Webb and a team-best three receptions and a touchdown vs. North Carolina A&T.

- On the season, Bonner leads Elon with 23 catches and 252 receiving yards. He also has three touchdown receptions, tied for most on the team.

- After a career-high 20 receptions in 2022, Bonner already has 23 this year. He needs 45 more receiving yards to equal his 297 from a year ago.

- Graduate transfer Matthew Downing has started five of the first six games of the season at quarterback.

- Downing started in the season opener, but struggled at Wake Forest. He was replaced by Justin Allen, who sparked the Elon offense. Downing then replaced Allen to start the second half at Gardner-Webb, and threw for 199 yards and three TDs in the final 30 minutes.

- The transfer quarterback again came up big in the team's win over William & Mary, completing seven of his final eight pass attempts for 120 yards and two touchdowns as the Phoenix overcame a 6-0 fourth quarter deficit for a 14-6 win.

- Downing is well-traveled, beginning his career at Georgia. As a true freshman in 2018, he played in four games for the Bulldogs.

- After transferring to TCU, Downing redshirted the 2019 season before playing in seven games over two years from 2020-21. He earned his first collegiate start in the 2020 season opener against Iowa State, going 11-of-21 for 158 yards and touchdown.

- Following his time at TCU, Downing transferred to Louisiana Tech, playing in four games in 2022, going 33-of-62 with three touchdowns and 356 yards passing. He suffered a season-ending knee injury with the Bulldogs.

EXPERIENCE ON THE LINE

- Against Campbell, Elon was without Jabril Williams as a starter on the offensive line for the first time in 28 games. In fact, Williams had combined with Zane Gilbert, Caleb Krings and Kevin Burkett to start as an offensive line quartet in 24 straight games prior to that contest.

- Williams returned to start at center against William & Mary, reuniting one of the most experienced offensive lines in the CAA.

- Gilbert and Krings have made 32 career starts for Elon, while Williams has made 31. Kevin Burkett has added 27 to the mix.

- Jack Cutler joined the quartet on the offensive line to start the 2023 season. He earned his eighth career start Saturday against North Carolina Central.

- In total, the five starters on the offensive line first unit have started 130 career games.

WHO NEEDS THIRD DOWN WHEN YOU'VE GOT FOURTH DOWN

- Elon has struggled on third downs this year, converting just 24-of-87 in 2023 (27.6 percent).

- But the Phoenix have made up for some of those struggles by converting on fourth down.

- The Phoenix is 14-of-18 (77.9 percent) on fourth down in 2023, the fourth-best conversion percentage in FCS. None of the three teams with a higher percentage have attempted more than 10 fourth downs on the season.

- Elon's 14 fourth down conversions in 2023 are tied with North Alabama for the second-most in the country. Monmouth leads all of FCS with 15 fourth down conversions on 28 attempts.

SEEING 200/200

- In Elon's 30-24 win over Gardner-Webb last year, the Phoenix offense totaled 205 yards rushing and 279 yards passing. Elon followed that up with 240 yards rushing and 207 passing against William & Mary.

- Those numbers have proven rare for Elon. It's the first time in the program's FCS history that the Phoenix reached 200 yards rushing and passing in back-to-back games.

- Under Head Coach Tony Trisciani, Elon has only reached 200/200 one other time. That came in a 35-28 win over The Citadel in 2019 when the team had 255 yards rushing and 226 passing.

turnovers with a +0.58 turnover margin, ranking No. 21 in FCS Football.

- Those turnovers proved to be critical as Elon went 7-0 in 2022 when forcing more turnovers than their opponent in a game.
- Elon has again been forcing turnovers in 2023. The Phoenix ranks No. 40 nationally with nine turnovers gained and is No. 32 in the country with five interceptions.

SACK MASTERS

- Despite being held without a sack Saturday against North Carolina Central, Elon is averaging 2.83 sacks per contest, 16th-best in the country. Eleven different players have recorded at least 0.5 sack with Marvin Pearson leading the way with 4.5.
- Against a Power Five offensive line in the season opener at Wake Forest, Elon had four quarterback sacks with four different players registering at least one. Pearson was one of those and he also finished with three tackles for loss. Caleb Curtain, who added a 50-yard interception return for a touchdown, Cazeem Moore and Chazz Harley all added sacks.
- Elon is 10-1 in the tenure of Head Coach Tony Trisciani when recording four or more sacks in a game. The Wake Forest game was the first time the Phoenix had lost a game while recording four sacks.
- Elon's FCS school record for sacks in a season is 37 in 2009, an average of 3.08 per game.
- A year ago, Elon average 2.83 sacks per contest, ranking No. 13 in FCS Football.

GIANT KILLERS

- Just two weeks ago, Elon defeated No. 5/4 William & Mary 14-6 as the Phoenix earned its second win over a team ranked in the top five in program history.
- Elon defeated three ranked teams in 2022, knocking off No. 14 William & Mary 35-31, No. 17 Richmond 30-27 (OT), and No. 12 Delaware 27-7. In fact, Elon has beaten at least two ranked teams in every fall season since Tony Trisciani was named head coach to begin the 2019 campaign.
- Under Head Coach Tony Trisciani, Elon has gone 8-10 against ranked opponents.
- Elon is 24-69 all-time when facing a ranked team at the FCS level.

FIRST-TIME STARTERS

- In the season opener at Wake Forest, four players made their first Elon starts -- two on offense and two on defense.
- Matthew Downing got the starting nod at quarterback. As a graduate transfer, he had earned starts at previous schools, but earned his first Elon start.
- Wide receiver Christian Da-Silva started his first game as well, while linebacker Brandon Tyson and defensive back Caleb Curtain picked up their first starting nods on defense.
- Redshirt freshmen Jesse Powell II and Senquavious Alsobrooks earned their first career starts at Gardner-Webb. Powell II started in the spur position and Alsobrooks started as cornerback.
- Redshirt freshman Marco Patierno added to the group against North Carolina A&T, earning his first career start at linebacker.
- Two Elon players got their first career starts at Campbell. Right guard Luis Duarte picked up his first start along the offensive line and defensive tackle Jake Louro got his first career start.
- Onuma Dieke started at wide receiver against North Carolina Central. While Dieke started eight games during his career at UMass, this was his first start at Elon.

- Elon has earned a handful of weekly awards during the 2023 season.

2023 ELON FOOTBALL

HIGH FIVE

- Discounting the abbreviated 2021 spring campaign, Elon has recorded at least five overall wins and four conference wins in four consecutive fall seasons.
- With four straight fall seasons of at least five overall wins and four conference wins, it equals the longest such streak the program has had in FCS. Elon also accomplished that feat from 2007-10.

EARNING THAT DEGREE

- Seventeen current players on the Elon football team already have their degrees.
- Justin Allen, Jordan Bonner, Chandler Brayboy, Carson Crisp, Jack Cutler, Wayne Dixie III, Matthew Downing, Zane Gilbert, Chazz Harley, Caleb Ogunmola, Marvin Pearson, Kyle Romenick, Bo Sanders, Trey West, Antonio White, Ryan Wilkins and Jabril Williams all have their degrees.

PHOENIX IN THE NFL

- Former Elon offensive lineman Oli Udoh began his fifth season in the NFL in 2023 with the Minnesota Vikings. He played in every game and started 17 over the course of the 2021 and 2022 seasons. Udoh suffered a season-ending quad injury in Minnesota's week two game against Philadelphia.
- Elon saw numerous members of the 2022 team earn professional opportunities. Defensive back Cole Coleman spent time with the Indianapolis Colts, while kicker Skyler Davis was with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Quarterback Matthew McKay had workouts with the Dallas

ABOUT THE PHOENIX

- In 1921, Elon's sports teams were first called the Fightin' Christians. As the department transitioned to NCAA Division I athletics in the late 1990s, a new nickname was sought out.
- A 15-member task force was selected to choose the new identity.
- In 2000, Elon officially changed its mascot to the Phoenix. The choice refers to a 1923 fire that destroyed nearly the entire campus. Soon after the fire, university trustees began planning to make Elon "rise from the ashes." The Phoenix was a mythical creature that rose from the ashes of its predecessors.
- The Phoenix's plumage matches the school's maroon and gold colors. Once every 500 years, when it felt its death approaching, the Phoenix would build a nest in an oak tree -- a link to the college name, Elon, which is Hebrew for oak.
- After being consumed in the nest by its own flames, the Phoenix would rise again to fly to the temple of the sun. The bird is a symbol of light, knowledge and everlasting vigor.
- As there can only be one Phoenix at any time, please refer to the Phoenix in the singular.
