NOTES

LAST TIME OUT: Villanova tallied a 58-53 win over Penn State in the WBIT semifinals on Monday, April 1. The first half was a tightly contested defensive battle with neither team able to open-up more than a four-point lead. Defensively, Villanova held Penn State to just 26.7 percent shooting from the floor (8-of-30). Villanova connected on 10-of-28 (35.7%) from the field in the opening half, including a 3-of-12 effort from three-point range. Following a jumper by Lady Lion guard Shay Ciezki that cut the Villanova advantage to 23-22 with 5:08 remaining until halftime, the last five points of the half came from the free throw line. Junior guard Lucy Olsen made two free throws and senior Bella Runyan went one-of-two from the stripe for Villanova. Penn State's Ashley Owusu connected on two free throws with 47 seconds on the clock to finish the first half scoring. Owusu's foul shots sent the game to halftime with Villanova leading 26-24. Villanova had balanced scoring in the game's first 20 minutes with the junior tandem of Olsen and Kaitlyn Orihel scoring seven points each and Runyan adding six points. A three-point field goal by Olsen gave Villanova a 37-30 lead midway through the third quarter, before neither team was able to score for the next three minutes. Wildcat senior Maddie Burke ended the scoreless stretch with a 15-foot jumper that put Villanova ahead 39-30 with 2:49 to play in the third period. After Penn State senior guard Makenna Marisa drained a three-ball to slice the Villanova lead to 39-33, the Wildcats scored the final four points of the quarter to lead 43-33 after three. The four Villanova points included a lay-up by junior center Christina Dalce and a lay-up by sophomore forward Megan Olbrys. Villanova led 45-38 with 5:58 to play, when Penn State scored five straight points to make it a 45-43 game. With the momentum on the Lady Lions side and the Wildcats having gone 5:21 without scoring, Olsen came up with a timely bucket when she drained a triple from the right corner. The trifecta gave Villanova a 48-43 advantage at the 4:04 mark. Two Runyan free throws with 3:11 remaining gave Villanova a comfortable 51-43 lead. Penn State would not go away, however, and the Lady Lions ran off six straight points to slice the lead to 51-49 with 1:05 to play. Following a Villanova turnover, Penn State had a chance to tie the game, but Ashley Owusu's jumper was off target. On the defensive rebound, Dalce was fouled and was sent to the line to shoot two. Dalce calmly made both foul shots and Villanova led 53-49 with 56 seconds to go. After Penn State's Leilani Kapinus split a pair at the line to make it a 53-50 game, Olsen made three-of-four from the foul line down the stretch to seal the victory. In the win, Olsen led all scorers with 21 points, six rebounds, six assists, four steals and three blocks. Orihel finished with 13 points, five rebounds and three blocks, while Runyan added 10 points, five rebounds and four assists. Dalce chipped in with six points, seven rebounds and three blocks. Penn State was paced by Kapinus with 18 points and 11 rebounds, while Owusu had 11 points. For the game, Villanova was 20-of-52 from the field (38.5%), 5-of-18 from three-point range (27.8%) and 13-of-19 from the foul line (68.4%), while Penn State shot 29.1 percent from the floor (16-of-55), 36.4 percent from long distance (4-of-11) and 94.4 percent from the charity stripe (17-of-18). The Lady Lions owned a 40-32 advantage on the backboards.

Connecticut's Aaliyah Edwards is second in the conference in rebounding at 9.4. Edwards led the conference in rebounding for just league games at 10.2

USA BASKETBALL: Two Villanova Wildcats spent their summer playing for USA Basketball. Junior guard Lucy Olsen and junior forward Christina Dalce helped the U21 team win the 3x3 Nation's League title in a tournament played in Mongolia in September. The duo was joined on the team by Creighton's Morgan Maly and Minnesota's Mara Braun.

OFF TARGET: In a loss to Creighton on Jan. 21, Villanova went 0-for-17 from three-point range. The Wildcats had made at least one three in 635 straight games before the 0-for-17 effort. Prior to the Creighton game, the last time Villanova failed to make a three in a game was at Boston College on Jan. 2, 2004. For the year, Villanova is 204-of-694 from long distance for 29.4 percent.

A LOOK BACK: Villanova registered one of the best seasons in program history last year with a 30-7 overall record and a 17-3 BIG EAST mark. The 30 victories represent the most wins in program history. The Wildcats earned a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament where they defeated Cleveland State and Florida Gulf Coast in the first and second round and advanced to the Sweet 16 for just the second time in program history.

40-POINT EFFORT: Junior guard Lucy Olsen was sensational in a win over Temple on Nov. 19. In 33 minutes of action, Olsen scored a career-high 40 points on 12-of-22 shooting, including a 4-of-6 effort from three-point range and a 12-of-13 performance from the foul line. This is the seventh 40-point game in program history, and she becomes the fourth Wildcat to accomplish the feat.

BIG SHOES TO FILL: Villanova had the tough task this season of replacing star forward Maddy Siegrist who graduated last year. In her final season as a Wildcat, Siegrist led the country in scoring with a 29.2 points per game average. For her efforts in 2022-23, she was the BIG EAST Player of the Year, a consensus first team All-American and she won the Katrina McClain Award as the top power forward in the country. Siegrist finished her illustrious career as Villanova's all-time leading scorer for both men and women with 2,896 points and she was the third overall pick in the 2023 WNBA Draft by the Dallas Wings. She also ended her career as the all-time leading scorer in BIG EAST history.

HEAD COACH DENISE DILLON

Denise Dillon will be entering her fourth season at her alma mater in 2023-24. In her first three years as the Wildcats head coach, Dillon has led Villanova to a 71-23 overall record (.755) and a 41-12 BIG EAST mark (.773).

The 2022-23 season was a magical one for Dillon and the Wildcats. Villanova went 30-7 overall and 17-3 in BIG EAST play last year and advanced to the Sweet 16 for the second time in school history. The 30 wins set a school record for single season victories. The Wildcats finished in second place in the BIG EAST regular season standings and played in the conference championship game for the second straight season.

For their efforts, Villanova earned a four-seed in the NCAA Tournament and were chosen as a host site for the first and second rounds. This marked just the second time in program history that Villanova hosted NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament games. In front of near capacity crowds at the Finneran Pavilion, the Wildcats defeated Cleveland State in the first round and Florida Gulf Coast in round two to advance to the Sweet 16. The Florida Gulf Coast triumph was extra special for Dillon who registered her 400th career victory in the win. Dillon helped senior forward Maddy Siegrist lead the country, as well as the BIG EAST for a third straight year in scoring with a 29.2 points per game average. Siegrist was rewarded for her standout play by earning BIG EAST Player of the Year honors for a second consecutive season and she garnered consensus first team All-American acclaim. Siegrist also claimed the Katrina McClain Award as the top power forward in the country. In April, Siegrist was selected with the third overall pick of the 2023 WNBA Draft by the Dallas Wings. Dillon also guided sophomore guard Lucy Olsen to second team All-BIG EAST accolades a season ago.

Under Dillon's direction in 2021-22, Villanova tallied a 24-8 record, including a 15-4 BIG EAST Conference mark which was good enough for a second place finish in the final league standings. For their efforts, the Wildcats earned an at large bid to the NCAA Tournament where they defeated BYU in the first round before falling to Michigan in round two. Villanova also went 3-1 in Philadelphia Big 5 play to capture the City Series championship.

For her efforts in 2021-22, Dillon was named both the BIG EAST and Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year. This marks the fifth time that Dillon has been named a conference coach of the year. During her Drexel career she was a four-time CAA Coach of the Year.

Dillon came to Villanova from Drexel University where she built the Dragons into a perennial contender, making a name for herself in the Philadelphia sports scene and the women's basketball coaching ranks, while bringing her team national attention for its consistent success and high level of play. She led the Dragons to 10 postseason appearances, including winning the WNIT championship in 2013. During her 17-year Drexel career, Dillon compiled a 329-204 (.617) record.

From 2016-20, Dillon's Drexel teams boasted a 96-35 record (.732) and advanced to national postseason play each season. In all, the Dragons won 20 or more games seven times under Dillon's watch, claimed four CAA titles and played in five conference championship games. Dillon was named the CAA Coach of the Year in 2005, 2009, 2018 and 2020.

The traits that have allowed Dillon to excel during her coaching career were honed during her time as a Villanova student-athlete. She played for head coach Harry Perretta and was part of Wildcats teams that went 68-43 (.613) during her collegiate career. Dillon accumulated 1,355 points and 677 rebounds while developing into an All-BIG EAST honoree and a three-time All-Big 5 selection. She remains one of the all-time greats in the Villanova program and is enshrined in the Big 5 Hall of Fame (2004), the Villanova Varsity Club Hall of Fame (2012), the Delaware County Athletes Hall of Fame (2012) and the Cardinal O'Hara High School Hall of Fame (2018).

Dillon was appointed as the head coach at Drexel prior to the 2004-05 season after spending one year as the program's interim head coach. She led that 2004-05 squad to a 19-10 record and a first-round bye in the CAA Tournament. The Dragons eventually advanced to the semi-finals and came within one point of toppling Old Dominion, a feat that had never before been accomplished in the conference tournament.

Drexel boasted a winning record in 11 of the last 12 seasons under Dillon, but the first true breakthrough of her coaching career came in 2008-09 when the Dragons played their way to the 2009 regular season CAA title and a then-program record of 24 wins. What came next was the feat that had so narrowly eluded Drexel a few seasons earlier; the Dragons knocked off 17-time defending conference champion Old Dominion and ended the Lady Monarchs' NCAA-best 50-game conference tournament winning streak. Drexel went on to defeat James Madison on its home court to bring home the school's first CAA title and earn its first NCAA Tournament appearance.

In 2012-13, Dillon led the Dragons to a school-record 28 victories and the WNIT title after a remarkable postseason run that saw Drexel defeat Iona, Harvard, Bowling Green, Auburn, Florida and Utah on its way to the first postseason tournament championship in both CAA history and Philadelphia Division I women's basketball history.

Dillon's teams netted Drexel's first-ever victories over teams from the SEC (Auburn, Florida), the Pac-12 (Utah) and the ACC (Syracuse). She posted two wins over nationally ranked opponents, including the victory over the 11th-ranked Orange in 2016-17 when Syracuse was coming off a national runner-up finish one year earlier. During her Dragons tenure, Dillon saw her student-athletes be named All-CAA performers a total of 27 times. She coached three CAA Rookies of the Year, two CAA Players of the Year, the program's first AP All-American, the leading scorer in Philadelphia women's basketball history and the first Drexel women's player to be selected in the WNBA Draft. In 2018-19, she mentored the CAA Player of the Year (Bailey Greenberg) and during the season became the first Drexel basketball coach to win 300 career games at the school. Dillon's 2018-19 squad also led the nation in scoring defense, giving up just 50.5 points per contest.

Off the court, Dillon's commitment to helping student-athletes grow as players and as people has been one of the Drexel program's greatest success stories. She produced five winners of the CAA's prestigious Dean Ehlers Leadership Award, while Nicole Hester '09 was the recipient of the John Randolph Inspiration Award and the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association's Most Courageous Award. Drexel also was active in the community throughout Dillon's tenure. The program made visits to the Ronald McDonald House and several local daycare centers, organized fundraisers and rallied the Philadelphia community while using their collective experiences to grow as individuals.
