Towson University Head Coach Pete Shinnick

2nd Season as Head Coach

2017, 2019 DII National Coach of the Year

Baltimore native Pete Shinnick, who guided the University of West Florida (UWF) to a Division II national championship in 2019 and playoff appearances in four of the last five seasons played, was named Towson University's head football coach on December 11, 2022.

The son of former Baltimore Colts linebacker Don Shinnick, Pete Shinnick is 164-73 (.692 winning percentage) all-time as a college head coach, spanning 20 seasons with stops at West Florida, UNC Pembroke and Azusa Pacific. He has earned Division II National Coach of the Year twice and is Towson's fifth head coach in its history.

In his first year at Towson, the Tigers defeated each of the Coastal Athletic Association (CAA) preseason favorites on the road with a 54-51 overtime win at then #14/17 New Hampshire and a 34-24 comeback victory at then-#13 William & Mary. Towson finished 5-6 overall, including a 4-1 road record against FCS teams, and a 4-4 CAA slate. Eight Tigers were recognized in the All-CAA awards, including Carter Runyon being the program's first-ever Division I All-American tight end, being Second Team by the Associated Press and STATS Perform.

Shinnick came to West Florida in 2014 as the school's first football head coach. Two years later, the Argonauts won five games in their inaugural season. In 2017, the Argos went 11-4 and advanced to the national championship game in just their second season of competition. Shinnick earned the first of two National Coach of the Year awards.

Two years later, UWF went 13-2 and defeated three number one seeds and four-consecutive undefeated teams to win the national title. Shinnick was named the National Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons while quarterback Austin Reed earned National Freshman of the Year honors after throwing for 4,089 yards and 40 touchdowns. After not playing in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, West Florida earned playoff berths the last two seasons. The Argos went 12-2 in 2022, losing in the national semifinals to Ferris State. His overall record at UWF was 56-21.

Shinnick was hired at UNC Pembroke in 2006 to bring football back to the university after an absence of more than 50 years. He built the Braves into a nationally ranked Division II team and finished with a 50-24 record over seven seasons (2007-13). The 2013 squad was ranked as high as No. 8 in the American Football Coaches Association national poll.

Shinnick's first head coaching position was at Azusa Pacific (1999-2005). In seven years, his teams were 53-22 and advanced to two national NAIA semifinals. Azusa Pacific set a total of 77 school records under his watch as the Cougars appeared in the NAIA top 25 rankings 48 consecutive times and 75 out of 86 weeks during his tenure.

Shinnick began his coaching career at Richmond in 1988 and had stops at Arkansas (1989), Clemson (1990-91), Oregon State (1992-93), Northern Michigan (1994), St. Cloud State (1995-97) and Humboldt State (1998). He graduated with a bachelor's degree in business from the University of Colorado in 1988. Shinnick appeared in 21 games for Buffaloes as an offensive lineman, including the 1985 Freedom Bowl and the 1986 Bluebonnet Bowl. He earned his master's degree in guidance and counseling from Clemson in 1992.

Pete Shinnick was born in 1965, at Baltimore's MedStar Union Memorial Hospital. His father, Don Shinnick, played 13 seasons at linebacker for the Baltimore Colts (1957-69). The elder Shinnick helped the Colts to the 1958 and 1959 NFL championships and played in Super Bowl III.
