THE OPENING KICK

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

- The Terps have won 14 straight games against non-conference opponents, the second-longest streak in the country (Georgia-24). Under head coach Michael Locksley, the Terps are 16-1 in non-conference games with wins over Virginia Tech, West Virginia, #23 NC State, #21 Syracuse, Virginia (twice) and Auburn. This is the longest such streak for Maryland in the last 40 years.
- In the Locksley era (2019-pres.), Maryland's average of 41.5 points per game in non-conference play ranks fifth in the nation, only trailing Tennessee, Alabama, Oklahoma and LSU. The Terps have scored 30-plus points in 14-of-17 non-conference games under Locksley.
- Maryland's six straight wins by at least 14 points against non-conference opponents is also the second-longest active streak in FBS (Tennessee-11). The Terps have committed no more than two turnovers in any of their last 23 non-conference games. The only FBS teams with longer active such streaks are LSU (29) and Ohio State (26).
- Since joining the Big Ten in 2014, Maryland is 7-0 against FCS teams with each win coming by at least 29 points. In those seven games, the Terps are averaging 56.6 points per game while allowing just 9.1 points per contest.

TREMENDOUS TAI

- Senior WR Tai Felton has gotten off to a blistering start this season, posting stat lines of 7-178-2 (UConn), 11-152-1 (Michigan State) and 9-117-1 (Virginia) through the first three games.
- Felton is the first player in Maryland program history to have 100+ receiving yards in each of his team's first three games of a season. Additionally, he is one of just eight Big Ten players since 1996 to accomplish this feat and one of three FBS players to do so this season (Colorado's Travis Hunter and Ole Miss' Tre Harris).
- Felton sits inside the top-five nationally in several major statistical categories, ranking third in receiving yards (447), fourth in receptions (27) and tied for third in receiving touchdowns (four). All of those numbers rank first in the Big Ten.
- Felton scored his fourth touchdown of the season on a 19-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter against Virginia. With four touchdown receptions in three games, he has the most for a Terp in that span since D.J. Moore also had four in 2017. He is also the first Terp to have at least one touchdown reception in each of the first three games of a season since Tyler Mabry did it in 2019.
- Felton is the second Big Ten player this century to have at least 25 receptions, 400 receiving yards and four TD catches through his team's first three games of a season (Purdue's Charlie Jones in 2022).

NOTES & NUGGETS

DOMINATING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

- ▶ Through three games, Maryland leads the nation in turnover margin (+9). The Terps have created six interceptions and four fumble recoveries and only turned the ball over once themselves. That number is the highest for the Terps since 1995 (+11) and the highest by a Big Ten team since 2016 (Ohio State, +10) after three games.
- ▶ Maryland has forced 3+ turnovers in every game so far this season, marking the first time the program has accomplished this since doing so in the first three games of the 1996 season. This is just the third time since 1996 that the Terps have had three or more consecutive games with multiple interceptions.
- ▶ Including the Music City Bowl, Maryland has forced at least three turnovers in four straight games. That's the longest such streak by an FBS team since Louisville had five straight in the 2022 season (September 24 — October 29).
- ▶ Maryland's six interceptions have come from Glendon Miller (two), Jalen Huskey (two), Dante Trader Jr. and Ruben Hyppolite II. That total ranks tied for third among FBS teams and tied for first in the Big Ten (Illinois). The six interceptions through three games are the most by a Maryland team since 2013.
- ▶ Maryland has multiple defensive interceptions in each of its first three games of a season for the first time since 1995. This is just the third time since 1996 that the Terps have had three or more consecutive games with multiple interceptions at any point in the season (2010, 2013). Maryland is one of three FBS teams with multiple defensive interceptions in all three games this season (San Jose State and California).
- ▶ The Terrapins' seven straight games intercepting at least one pass is the third-longest active streak in FBS (Oklahoma—9, Charlotte—8). The team's four straight games with multiple interceptions are the longest active streak among all FBS teams.
- ▶ The Terps have also recovered four fumbles this season, one each by Glendon Miller, Quashon Fuller, Donnell Brown and Ricardo Cooper Jr. Kellan Wyatt leads the way with two fumbles forced.
- ▶ The Terps' six fumbles gained rank tied for third in the nation and tied for first in the Big Ten.

BILLY BALL

- ▶ Redshirt junior QB Billy Edwards Jr. is 5-1 as a starter at Maryland across three seasons, with wins over Northwestern, NC State, Auburn, UConn and Virginia.
- ▶ Through three games, Edwards Jr. is the ninth highest-graded quarterback in the nation, per PFF. With a 90.4 overall grade to his name, he is also the second-ranked among Big Ten QBs, only trailing USC's Miller Moss.
- ▶ He has accounted for 20 total touchdowns (10 rushing and 10 passing) in 18 games as a Terp.
- ▶ Edwards Jr. is one of two FBS quarterbacks this season with a completion percentage of at least 70.0% on at least 100 passes while also not having multiple interceptions thrown. The other is Georgia Tech's Haynes King.
- ▶ The 2023 TransPerfect Music City Bowl MVP is the second Maryland QB over the last 30 seasons to have at least 500 passing yards and 50 net rushing yards through the team's first two games of a season. The other was C.J. Brown in 2013.

SECOND-HALF ADJUSTMENTS

- ▶ On Saturday, Maryland shutout Virginia in the second half and outscored the Cavaliers 20-0. The Terrapins also recorded 15 first downs in the half, 10 more than the Cavaliers' five. The Terps converted 50% of their third downs and even went 2-for-2 on fourth down attempts. Virginia converted just 14% of its third downs and went 0-of-1 on fourth down.
- ▶ Defensive adjustments at halftime have become a calling card of defensive coordinator Brian Williams. Since 2022, the Terps are averaging just 9.38 points allowed in the second half compared to 12.69 in the first. That 3.31 differential ranks sixth among power conference teams.

- The Terps held Virginia to zero points in the second-half shutout as part of their 27-13 rivalry win. It marked the sixth time the Terps put together a second-half shutout against a power conference team in the Locksley era. The other times have come against Virginia in 2023, Rutgers in 2022, Michigan State in 2022, Virginia Tech in 2021 and Rutgers in 2019.

2

- DBs Glendon Miller and Jalen Huskey each have two interceptions so far this season. The duo is one of four power conference pairs with multiple interceptions through three games (California, Illinois, South Carolina). Both players have six career interceptions to their name - tied for the most on the team.

50

- Notre Dame transfer Bryce McFerson has five punts of 50+ yards through three games this season. McFerson has also put 11 of his 16 punts inside the 20-yard line. He has been named to the Ray Guy Award's Ray's 8 both all three weeks this season, the only punter in the nation to do so.

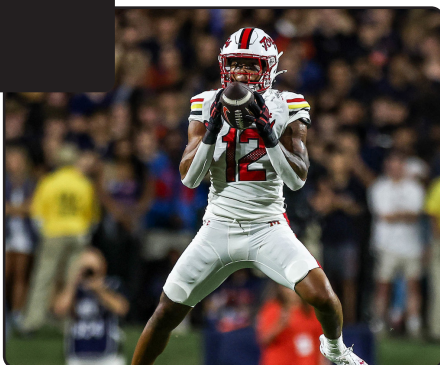

17

- Maryland's 17 interceptions last season were tied for third among Power Conference teams and ranked second in the Big Ten, only behind Michigan which played two more games than the Terps. Through three games this season, Maryland has six interceptions, tied with Illinois for the most in the Big Ten and tied for third in the nation among FBS teams.

10

- In total, 10 different Terps have had a hand in forcing a takeaway this season. Four Terps have interceptions, four have recovered fumbles and two have forced fumbles for a total of 10 turnovers created. The 10 takeaways forced has helped lead to a +9 turnover margin for Maryland, the best in the country currently and the best for a Maryland team through three games since 1995.

HEAD COACH MICHAEL LOCKSLEY

Towson '92 - 16th Year at Maryland, 6th as Head Coach

Michael Locksley returned home to become the University of Maryland's 37th head football coach in December 2018. Locksley, a Washington, D.C. native with deep personal and professional connections to the area, has over 30 years of coaching experience and 2024 will be his 16th season with the Terps over three separate stints at Maryland.

The winner of the 2018 Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant coach, Locksley spent three years working under Nick Saban at the University of Alabama before taking the head coaching job at Maryland. He served as the Crimson Tide's co-offensive coordinator and won a national championship in 2017 before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2018 and helping Alabama return to the College Football Playoff.

Maryland has made major strides since Locksley took over the program. The Terps have posted three consecutive winning seasons from 2021-23 and have won bowl games in each of those seasons, marking the first time in program history that Maryland has won bowl games in three straight seasons. The Terps have won a combined 16 games under Locksley during the 2022 and 2023 season, giving Maryland the fifth most wins among Big Ten teams during that period.

During the 2023 season, Locksley guided the Terps to an 8-5 record and a 31-13 win over Auburn in the TransPerfect Music City Bowl. It marked the first time the Terps had won eight or more games in back-to-back seasons since 2002-03. Maryland had 16 All-Big Ten selections in 2023, the most for the program since joining the Big Ten in 2014.

In 2022, Locksley propelled the Terps to an 8-5 record and a win over No. 23 N.C. State in the Duke's Mayo Bowl. Thirteen Terps garnered All-Big Ten recognition, highlighted by kicker Chad Ryland and quarterback Taulia Tagovailoa being named Second Team All-Conference. In 2021, Locksley led the Terps to their first winning season in seven years. The season was capped off with a 54-10 win over Virginia Tech in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Maryland's 54 points in the game marked the most ever for a Terrapin team in a bowl game and it was the most points ever scored by any team in Pinstripe Bowl history.

Maryland's offense has flourished under Locksley's leadership, ranking top-five in the Big Ten in seven major statistical categories in 2023: points per game (29.7), touchdowns (49), passing yards (3,626), completions (307), total yards (5,035), yards per game (387.3) and yards per play (5.9). The Terrapins potent offensive attack set numerous records in 2021, including the single-season marks for total yards (5,740) and passing yards (3,960).

Under Locksley's tutelage, Tagovailoa developed into one of the best quarterbacks in the country. The Locksley and Tagovailoa connection elevated Maryland's passing game to heights it has never seen before. Tagovailoa left College Park in 2023 as the Big Ten's all-time leader in passing yards (11,256) and ranks first in program history in every major passing category, including completions (955), completion percentage (66.7), passing touchdowns (76) and 300-yard passing games (15). Tagovailoa set seven single-season Maryland records in 2021, including program best marks for passing yards (3,860), completions (328), completion percentage (69.2) and passing touchdowns (26 – ties school record).

Locksley, known for his strong recruiting skills, was listed as a top-25 recruiter in the nation three different times (2003, 2005, 2006) and was a finalist for 2007 recruiter of the year by Rivals.com. He also engineered top-10 recruiting classes during each of his two seasons (2003-04) as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida.

Locksley has signed 43 four or five star recruits over his coaching career (according to 247sports), 28 of which came from the DMV area, in addition to coaching 114 NFL Draft selections. Among Locksley's successful signings to Maryland were future NFL stars Vernon Davis, Shawne Merriman, LaMont Jordan, D'Qwell Jackson, EJ Henderson, Yannick Ngakoue and Stefan Diggs.

TERRAPIN NFL NEWS & NOTES

NEW DIGGS

- ▶ After looking right at home in his Houston Texans debut last week, catching two touchdown passes from CJ Stroud in a 29-27 win over the Indianapolis Colts, Diggs had another stellar outing this Sunday. In a win over the Bears, Diggs caught four passes for 37 yards with a long of 21.
- ▶ The game marked a Sunday night head-to-head featuring two of the top Terp WRs to ever do it -- Diggs and DJ Moore (Bears).

DON'T THROW AT JAKORIAN

- ▶ Second-year defensive back Jakorian Bennett had one of the best games of his young professional career. In a 26-23 win over the Ravens, Bennett had two tackles and two huge pass breakups, including one that led to a timely Raiders interception.

GIMME MOORE

- ▶ DJ Moore had a season-best six receptions for 53 yards, including a long of 13 in a narrow Bears loss to the Houston Texans. The game marked a Sunday night head-to-head featuring two of the top Terp WRs to ever do it -- Moore and Stefon Diggs (Texans).
- ▶ On July 30th, Moore signed a four-year, $110 million extension with the Bears. He also became the first WR to have their first 10 seasons guaranteed in NFL history.

CHIG OKONK-WOW

- ▶ Chig Okonkwo got his third season with the Tennessee Titans off to a fast start. The 2022 Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie team member, caught a contested touchdown pass on his birthday late in the first half last week.

SAVAGE SEASON

- ▶ Veteran safety Darnell Savage Jr. also found a new home this summer---signing with the Jacksonville Jaguars as an unrestricted free agent. Savage, a first-round selection by the Packers in the 2019 NFL Draft, had two passes defended in his debut last week, including a big hit to force a Dolphins turnover on downs in the first quarter.

DBU

- ▶ In recent years, the Terps have been incredibly successful in developing standout defensive backs and sending them to the league. Highlighted by 2023 first round pick Deonte Banks, the Terps have had at least one defensive back picked in five of the last six NFL Drafts.
- ▶ Tarheeb Still continued that trend with his selection in the fifth round of the 2024 NFL Draft. Additionally, Beau Brade made the Baltimore Ravens 53-man roster as an undrafted free agent, forming a full circle moment for the Columbia, MD native and long-time Ravens fan.
- ▶ Banks returned to the DMV this weekend to face the Washington Commanders. In a narrow loss, the Giants cornerback had four tackles (three solo) and one pass defended.

GAME 1

Aug. 31, 2024 - College Park, MD - SECU Stadium

Maryland 50, UConn 7

COLLEGE PARK, MD – Maryland opened its 2024 season with a convincing 50-7 victory over UConn on Saturday at SECU Stadium. The 50 points marked the most against an FBS team in a season-opener since scoring 51 in the 2017 win at Texas.

It was also the largest margin of victory in a season-opener against an FBS opponent since 1978, when Division I was divided into subdivisions. Additionally, the seven points allowed marked the fewest for an FBS opponent in a season-opener since defeating North Carolina 23-7 in 2001.

The Terps have now won 19 consecutive home openers and 13 consecutive non-conference openers, the second-longest streak in the nation. Overall, Maryland has won 13 non-conference games in a row with a 15-1 record in those contests under head coach Michael Locksley since 2019.

Billy Edwards Jr. led Maryland to scoring drives on five of his first six possessions. He completed his first seven passes in the game and finished with career highs of 20-of-27 for 311 yards and two touchdowns. He also added 39 rushing yards.

Tai Felton was the primary beneficiary of Maryland's aerial attack, hauling in a career-high-tying seven receptions for a career-high 178 yards. It was his third 100-yard receiving game and second multi-touchdown game. Felton's receiving yardage total was the most for a Terp since current Chicago Bear D.J. Moore had 210 vs. Northwestern in 2017.

Overall, the offense piled up 629 yards with 381 coming through the air and 248 on the ground. It was the most total yards for the Terps in a game since gaining 675 vs. Minnesota in an overtime victory in 2020. The 248 rushing yards were the most for Maryland since posting 281 against Minnesota in that same game.

GAME 2

Sept. 7, 2024 - College Park, MD - SECU Stadium

Michigan State 27, Maryland 24

COLLEGE PARK, MD – Maryland football was defeated by Michigan State, 27-24, in its Big Ten opener at SECU Stadium on Saturday. Michigan State's Jonathan Kim connected on a 37-yard field goal with one second left in the game.

Maryland took a 24-17 lead as Billy Edwards Jr. found Dylan Wade for a 28-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. On the ensuing drive, Michigan State drove down the field before Glendon Miller intercepted his second pass of the day. However, Michigan State tied the game on a 77-yard touchdown reception by Nick Marsh with 4:22 left in the fourth quarter. The Terps then went three and out and Kim drilled the game-winner on the ensuing possession.

Edwards passed for 253 yards. The quarterback accounted for three total touchdowns (two passing and one rushing). He now has nine rushing touchdowns in his career.

Tai Felton snagged a career-high 11 receptions for 152 yards and a touchdown. With 100+ receiving yards in the first two games of the season, Felton is the second Terp since 1996 to have at least 100 receiving yards in the first two games of the season, joining Dontay Demus in 2021. He is also the first Terp since Jermaine Lewis in 1995 to have 150+ receiving yards in any two consecutive games. Felton now has 11 career touchdown receptions, tied for 11th most in program history. He also has 330 receiving yards through two games, becoming the third Big Ten player in the last 20 years to record 300+ receiving yards through his team's first two games of the season, joining Purdue's Rondale Moore in 2019 (344) and Michigan State's Tony Lippett in 2014 (300).

GAME 3

Sept. 14, 2024 • Charlottesville, VA • Scott Stadium

Maryland 27, Virginia 13

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA – Maryland football used a second-half surge to defeat Virginia, 27-13, in a renewed rivalry on Saturday at Scott Stadium. Maryland has won 14 consecutive non-conference games, every game since the 2021 season. This is the second-longest streak in the country and Maryland's longest streak in the last 40 years. Only Georgia (24) has won more consecutive non-conference games than the Terps.

The Terps (2-1) took control of the game in the second half, outgaining the Cavaliers (2-1) 250-82 with solid play on both sides of the ball. A touchdown reception by Kaden Prather gave the Terps a 14-13 lead in the third quarter, generating a lead they wouldn't relinquish. A pair of field goals by Jack Howes and a rushing touchdown by Billy Edwards Jr. sealed the victory.

Maryland's defense forced four turnovers in the game, with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries. Dante Trader Jr. and Jalen Huskey had interceptions, and Donnell Brown and Quashon Fuller recovered fumbles. Through three games, the Terps have corralled six interceptions — the most by the team since 2013, when they also had six. The Terps also didn't allow a point in the second half and held the Cavaliers' offense to just 51 passing yards and 31 rushing yards coming out of the locker room. Trader also led the team in tackles with a career-high tying 11.

Edwards completed 28-of-43 passes for 263 yards and two passing touchdowns while also running for the key score midway through the fourth quarter. He threw touchdowns to Tai Felton and Prather.

Felton hauled in nine passes for 117 yards with a touchdown for the fourth game in a row. He became the first receiver in school history with 100+ receiving yards in each of the first three games of a season. His score was the 12th of his career, tying him with Gary Collins for 10th in program history in career receiving touchdowns.

Through three games, Felton has 27 receptions, 447 receiving yards and four scores, placing him among the nation's leaders in all three categories. His yardage total is the fourth most for a Big Ten player since 1996 and the most since Purdue's Charlie Jones had 474 yards in 2022. It's also the most for a Terp since Jermaine Lewis had 489 in the first three games of the 1993 season.
