THE OPENING KICKOFF

SETTING THE SCENE

Colgate dropped its season opener on the road last week with a narrow 17-14 loss at Maine. On the other sideline, Villanova heads to Hamilton after earning a ranked win against No. 25 Youngstown State, 24-17. A win for the Raiders would be their first against the Wildcats since 1978 with the last six meetings falling to Villanova by a combined score of 238-103.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Raiders have boasted winning records at home in two out of the past three seasons, averaging nearly 24 points per game in Hamilton during that span. A 3-2 record at Andy Kerr last season saw the Raiders score three or more touchdowns in four out of five contests, with two games featuring scores of 30 or more points.

THREE-HEADED MONSTER

Last season, Colgate was one the only FCS school and one of only two programs in the country to have three different starting quarterbacks win at least two games. Michael Brescia picked up victories against Cornell and Lafayette, Zach Osborne triumphed over Dartmouth and Georgetown, and Jake Stearney defeated Lehigh and Fordham.

BREAKOUT SEASON

Junior Treyvhon Saunders emerged as a potent weapon for the Colgate offense in a standout 2023 sophomore season. His 68 receptions ranked second in the Patriot League, 12th in FCS, and sixth-most all-time by a Raider wide-out. Saunders also racked up the third-most receiving yards (859) and yards per game (78.1) in the conference while putting together four 100-yard receiving games.

RAIDERS RETURNING

Colgate returns 10 offensive starters in 2024, graduating starting wide receiver Jake Ryan and also losing running back Jaedon Henry who earned 112 rushing attempts last season. However, the Raiders return their entire quarterback room in addition to three 2023 All-Patriot League selections. Linemen Bardhyl Gashi and Chance Niesner landed on the conferences' second team while wide receiver Treyvhon Saunders earned first-team honors. Fifth-year linebacker Christian Sweeney will anchor the defensive unit after an All-Patriot League second-team nod where he finished second on the team with 74 tackles, a new season-high.

PRESEASON ALL-PATRIOT LEAGUE

For the second straight year, Colgate placed five on the Preseason All-Patriot League squad. Fifth-year offensive lineman Bardhyl Gashi and senior punter Shelby Pruett made the honor for the second consecutive year, while 2023 first team selection Treyvhon Saunders makes his first appearance on the preseason team. Fifth-year linebacker Christian Sweeney and senior offensive lineman Chance Niesner round out the group of Raiders who were voted to finish fourth in the Patriot League's preseason poll.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

Nationally-ranked Villanova was picked to top the Coastal Athletic Association in the league's preseason poll. They are led by preseason CAA Offensive Player of the Year in quarterback Connor Watkins in addition to preseason All-Americans Shane Hartzell (linebacker) and Isas Waxter (corner).

RAIDERS VS. RANKED OPPONENTS

Colgate is 6-8 against ranked FCS opponents in the past 10 years. The Raiders' last win against a ranked FCS foe came just a year ago with a 37-34 overtime victory at No. 17 Lafayette, but their best win came over No. 5 James Madison in the second round of the 2015 playoffs.

Fifth-ranked Villanova will be the highest-ranked opponent played by the Raiders since No. 1 North Dakota State bested Colgate in the 2018 quarterfinals. The top-five Wildcats are also the highest-ranked opponent to travel to Hamilton since No. 6 James Madison took a 23-20 loss in 2018.

BEST OF BRESCIA

Michael Brescia paced the Raider offense last week and led the team with 4.6 yards per carry on the ground. He scored one of two rushing touchdowns for Colgate, and he now sits in fourth place for most career touchdowns by a quarterback in program history.

CAREER DAYS IN THE TRENCHES

Senior defensive lineman Andrew Taddeo logged a career-high three tackles-for-a-loss including 1.5 sacks in last week's season-opening loss. Junior Dane Picariello also added his first career sack, one of three on the evening for the Raiders.

FCS PUNTER OF THE YEAR WATCHLIST

Senior Shelby Pruett was one of 13 specialists placed on the Augusta Sports Council FCS Punter of the Year Watchlist. He enters the season just over one yard away from the all-time program record of 40.9 yards per punt.

AYE, AYE, CAPTAINS

Five Raiders were voted as captains for the 2024 season after a team-wide election. Michael Brescia earned the title for the third-straight season while Mike Slivka was named for the second year in a row. Treyvlon Saunders, William Parker, and Christian Sweeney all don the captain patch for the first time.

SIDELINE SWITCHUP

Former Defensive Quality Control Coach Devin Altland has stepped into an assistant coaching role in charge of corners, while Nathan Trawick has stepped into defensive line duties for the Raiders. Brandon Williams and Brady Thompson have also joined the staff as Offensive and Defensive Quality Control Coaches, respectively.

FRESH FACES IN HAMILTON

Colgate welcomes 27 new first-year student-athletes to the 2024 roster. The newcomers hail from 12 different states and two different countries, with five rookies staying in-state to play at Colgate. The Raiders recruited heavily in the trenches with five first-years each playing offensive and defensive line. Six new defensive backs also join the fray for Colgate, the most out of any position group for the Class of 2028.

PHIL STEELE PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE

The Raiders landed 10 on the Phil Steele Preseason All-Patriot League squads. First team honorees included Treyvlon Saunders, Bardhyl Gashi, Chance Niesner and Christian Sweeney. Asauni Allen, Shelby Pruett and Jariyah Sawyer were named to the second team, while Chris Gee, Andrew Taddeo and Cole Kozlowski earned third team recognition.

MANNING PASSING ACADEMY

Senior quarterback Michael Brescia spent his second-straight summer at the Manning Passing Academy, training alongside some of the best gunslingers in the nation while mentoring the next generation of young QBs.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Coach Stan Dakosty added a familiar face on the sidelines this season, hiring his father, Stan Dakosty Sr., in a Senior Analyst role. Dakosty Sr. is one of the most prolific high school coaches in Pennsylvania high school football history, retiring last season as the 12th winningest head coach in the state.

RAIDERS IN THE PROS

Running Backs Coach Jared Livingston took part in the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Fellowship this summer, spending two weeks with the Green Bay Packers during OTAs and off-season workouts. He joined Colgate Football Class of 1977 Mark Murphy who is in his 17th and final season as the Packers' President and CEO. Colgate Director of Football Operations Abbey Paduano also attended the 2024 NFL Women's Forum in February, one of only 40 women working in college athletics selected to attend.

LUCKY NUMBER 13

Colgate considers 13 to be its lucky number. The University, which celebrates Colgate Day every Friday the 13th, was founded by 13 men on $13 with 13 articles and 13 prayers. The 13 stripes as a graphic element pay homage to those student-athletes who have come before, and to those who earned their stripes competing for championships.

COLGATE COACHING RANKS

Tight Ends Coach	2007 - 2009
Defensive Backs	2010 - 2012
Defensive Backs/Recruiting Coordinator	2013 - 2016
Associate HC/Defensive Backs/RC	2017 - 2019
Associate HC/Co-Defensive Coordinator	2020
Head Coach	2021 - Present

Stan Dakosty has been a part of seven of Colgate's 10 Patriot League titles and every FCS playoff win, both as a player and a coach. That made him the perfect choice to join the list of legendary head coaches who have lifted Colgate Football to its level of prominence.

Dakosty was named Fred '50 and Marilyn Dunlap head football coach in August 2021. The 30th head coach in Colgate Football history, he previously earned the associate head coach title in 2016 after originally being named to the Raider coaching staff back in 2007. He served as the co-defensive coordinator from 2019-21 and held the position of recruiting coordinator as the Patriot League began its new scholarship era from 2012-20.

Dakosty's run of Patriot League titles includes the 2003 run to the national championship game. In 2015, the Raiders conquered New Hampshire and James Madison on their way to the FCS quarterfinal.

In similar fashion, Colgate put together 10 wins for just the fourth time in program history in 2018. The Raiders got there by putting together an amazing run of near-perfection over their first nine games. Colgate in streaking to 9-0 allowed just 29 points during that span and tied the NCAA FCS record with five shutouts in one season.

Over a seven-game stretch, Colgate allowed 3, 0, 0, 3, 0, 0, and 0 points. The Raiders knocked off James Madison 23-20 on a game-ending field goal in the first home playoff contest since 2003.

The Raider defense led the nation in scoring defense at 9.3, total defense at 237.7 and Dakosty's secondary led the nation in pass efficiency defense with an 88.77 rating, and was also No. 2 nationally in passing yards allowed per game under Dakosty's direction. This despite the fact that the Raiders finished their season against arguably the toughest three-game stretch in program history in Army, James Madison, and North Dakota State.

The 2015 to 2018 stretch of Colgate football saw a combined 31-16 overall record during its four years and an amazing 21-3 mark against Patriot League competition. That resulted in three conference titles, three NCAA playoff victories, and two trips to the FCS semifinals.

In his first year at the helm, Dakosty coached the Patriot League Rookie of the Year Michael Brescia who helped lead the Raiders to a 5-1 conference record and a second-place finish.

Last year, Dakosty led the Raiders to a 3-2 league record, including an upset over nationally-ranked Lafayette on the road. The Raiders were rewarded for their success with 10 All-Patriot League selections, the most since their 2018 championship season.

Two seasons ago, Colgate was the only school in the Patriot League to play two FBS opponents after opening the season at Stanford and closing the Raiders' non-conference slate at Army West Point. Six Raiders earned spots on the 2022 postseason All-Patriot League Team, including punter Shelby Pruett who garnered the title of First Team Punter. Three Raiders also landed a spot on the Patriot League All-Academic Team to cap off the season.

While serving as the defensive back coach, Dakosty coached defensive backs Abu Daramy-Swaray and Tyler Castillo to All-America honors in 2018. Under Dakosty's guidance, the Raiders had a defensive back grab a spot on the All-Patriot League Team for eight consecutive seasons, including back-to-back seasons in 2017 and 2018 with three Raiders earning First Team honors. In 2018 Dakosty also coached Ben Hunt IV, who won the Dick Biddle Coaches Award.

Under Dakosty's tutelage, Mike Armiento and Castillo, completed their Colgate football careers in the top five in career interceptions. The two defensive backs also hold a spot in the Patriot League's top seven career interceptions, highlighted by Armiento, who is tied for second all-time.

Dakosty returned to his alma mater in 2007 from Division III Amherst, where he coached running backs for two years.

He began his coaching career as an undergraduate at Colgate, serving as a student assistant and assistant video coordinator in 2003 before working with the tight ends in 2004. Colgate won the Patriot League title and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship Game while posting a 15-1 record in his first year on the staff.

He worked with the team's tight ends and fullbacks over the first three seasons before switching to the secondary.

Before coaching, Dakosty played two years of varsity football for the Raiders, helping them to the 2002 Patriot League championship before he suffered a career-ending injury.

Dakosty graduated from Colgate in 2005 with a degree in history and educational studies. While on the Amherst staff, he earned a master's degree in education in addition to his social studies teacher's certification at the University of Massachusetts in 2006.

He was a standout quarterback and defensive back during his high school days at Marian High School in Tamaqua, Pennsylvania. Dakosty remains linked with Coal Region football and has helped recruit several area players to the Hamilton, New York, campus. He helped land former Hazleton Area standout Nate Eachus back in 2007, and also North Schuylkill grad Ed Pavalko a few years later. Eachus went on to become an All-American running back with the Raiders and played professionally with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Dakosty's father, Stan, is a hall of fame football coach in the state of Pennsylvania at Marian Catholic High School.

Dakosty and his wife, Jess, reside in Hamilton and are the proud parents of three children: Stanley, Nora, and Tommy.
