REGULAR SEASON FINALE

- Riding a three-game winning streak, the Sacred Heart University football team looks to close out the regular season on a high note and build momentum heading into 2026—its first season in the CAA—as the Pioneers travel to Pennsylvania for a road showdown with the No. 9/7 Villanova Wildcats on Saturday, Nov. 22 at 1 p.m.
- This is the first meeting between the Pioneers and Wildcats, with both teams looking to capture their ninth win of the season in their season finales.
- The Pioneers enter the matchup at 8-3 with a well-balanced, efficient offense powered by quarterback Jack Snyder and standout running back Mitchell Summers, who has anchored a rushing attack that ranks fifth in the FCS at 229.7 yards per game.
- Defensively, Sacred Heart has been a formidable and opportunistic unit, totaling 57.5 tackles for loss—led by Peter Schanne and Jared Hirschfeld—and 20 sacks. The secondary has remained disciplined and disruptive, highlighted by Kenny Selby's team-leading nine pass breakups and timely interceptions across the season.
- The Pioneers also feature one of the top special team's coverage units in the FCS, holding opponents to just 15.9 yards per kickoff return, ranking the team sixth.
- Villanova enters the weekend as one of the most balanced and efficient teams in the FCS, riding a seven-game winning streak and ranking No. 9/7 nationally.
- To date, the Wildcats are sitting near the top of the CAA in nearly every major statistical category, while ranking within the top 10 in FCS in kickoff returns (2nd – 29.57), passes had intercepted (2nd – 3), punt returns (5th – 16.00) and time of possession (9th – 32:26).

BACK-TO-BACK YANKEE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Final: Sacred Heart 42 | Merrimack 37

Brief Recap: Merrimack opened the game with a quick 63-yard touchdown, but Sacred Heart answered with a late first-quarter score and an 82-yard Snyder run to keep the first half tight at 17-14. After halftime, SHU surged ahead behind big plays from Summers, including a 53-yard touchdown. The Pioneers added back-to-back TDs late in the third quarter to build a two-score cushion, highlighted by an 81-yard burst from Eberhart. Merrimack rallied late, but SHU sealed the 42-37 win by recovering the onside kick in the final seconds.

Brief Stats: Rookie running back Mitchell Summers led the way with 147 rushing yards on 23 carries, surpassing 1,000 yards for the season and breaking off a 53-yard touchdown to open the second half. Jack Snyder added 163 rushing yards plus 97 passing yards on 8-of-11 completions with a touchdown, while Trey Eberhart III joined the 100-yard club with 107 yards. Defensively, SHU set the tone early with a forced fumble on the first play and recorded six tackles for loss. Kymari Latney and Maximus Mongelli paced the unit with 11 and 10 tackles, respectively.

SUMMERS JOINS 1,000 RUSHING YARDS CLUB

Mitchell Summers has officially joined the 1,000-yard rushing club after his 147-yard performance against Merrimack, bringing his season total to 1,042 yards—now 12th in the SHU single-season record book and just one yard behind Marvin Royal.

He's also tied for sixth in single-season rushing touchdowns with 12, matching Malik Grant and Evin Jones. Summers sits tied for 10th in single-season yards per carry alongside Grant and Keshaudas Spence.

His 5.6 yards per carry additionally ranks fourth all-time in program history.

RHOADES NEARING 1,000 RECEIVING YARDS

Grad wide receiver Payton Rhoades is nearing the 1,000-yard career milestone, needing just 22 more receiving yards to join the exclusive club. He currently sits at 978 career receiving yards on 91 catches.

KLING CEMENTING HIS NAME

Kicker Matt Kling continues to cement his legacy in the program's record books. He's tied for fourth all-time in career field goals with 19, matching Lou Monaco (1995-98), and tops SHU history in field goal percentage at 76.0%, moving past Chris Rodgers (75.4%).

Kling also ranks sixth all-time in extra point attempts with 60, showcasing his consistency and reliability as one of the program's most decorated kickers.

PIOS COMMAND THE CLOCK

Sacred Heart is dominating the FCS stat sheet this season, controlling the clock with a 14th-ranked time of possession at 32:27 per game. Its offense keeps drives alive, ranking 13th in third-down conversions (.471) and 22nd in fourth-down efficiency (.611), showcasing a relentless, never-quit mentality that keeps opponents on their heels from start to finish.

PRECISION AND POISE

The Pioneers own one of the nation's most efficient passing attacks, ranking 19th in the FCS with a .664 team completion rate. Quarterback Jack Snyder has been at the center of that success, sitting eighth nationally with a .695 completion percentage and consistently keeping drives alive with his accuracy. Backing his precision is SHU's elite ball security, as the Pioneers rank second in the FCS with just three interceptions on the season.

AIR RAID READY

Sacred Heart's wideouts have been a nightmare for opposing defenses all season. Payton Rhoades leads the charge with 34 receptions for 406 yards and two touchdowns, serving as quarterback Jack Snyder's go-to weapon in clutch situations. Dean Hangey brings the big-play ability with 314 yards and a team-high three scores, while Jason Palmieri matches that scoring impact with three touchdowns of his own. Kevin McGuire provides consistent production across the middle with 27 catches for 307 yards, giving the Pioneers a dynamic, multi-dimensional passing attack that keeps defenses on their heels.

PIOS GROUND GAME

Sacred Heart's rushing attack is firing on all cylinders and continues to rank among the nation's elite. The Pioneers have surged from 17th to 15th to 12th to now 5th in the FCS in rushing offense, averaging an impressive 229.7 yards per game on the ground. Through 11 games, SHU has piled up 2,527 rushing yards on 495 carries, averaging 5.1 yards per carry, and has powered into the end zone 31 times.

NO STOPPING SUMMERS

Running back Mitchell Summers is showing why he's a force to be reckoned with in FCS. Summers ranks 14th in rushing touchdowns (12), 11th in rushing yards (1,042), and 12th in rushing yards per game (94.7), while also cracking the top 20 in total touchdowns.

NO ROOM TO RUN IT BACK

Sacred Heart dominates the hidden-yardage game, ranking sixth nationally in FCS kickoff return defense at just 15.9 yards per return.

LOCKDOWN MODE ACTIVATED

Sacred Heart's defense has been a relentless force all season, shutting down passing attacks and creating game-changing turnovers. The secondary has racked up five interceptions and 24 pass breakups, led by Maximus Mongelli with 56 tackles and a pick, and Kenny Selby with a team-high nine pass breakups.

PRESSURE UP FRONT

The Pioneer defensive front is making quarterbacks' lives miserable this season. Through 11 games, Sacred Heart has racked up 20 sacks and 57.5 tackles-for-loss, wreaking havoc in the backfield. Jared Hirschfeld leads the team with 4.0 sacks for a loss of 18 yards, while Peter Schanne has been a force with 6.5 tackles-for-loss, anchoring a defensive line that turns every snap into a battle.

HOMECOMING WIN OVER THE DRAGONS

Final Score: Sacred Heart 56 | Virginia Lynchburg 10

Brief Recap: Sacred Heart exploded out of the gate, scoring three first-quarter touchdowns from Mitchell Summers, Jimmy Casey, and Trey Eberhart III to build a quick 21-0 lead. The Pioneers extended their dominance in the second quarter with additional scores from Summers and Chuck Webb before Webb's 41-yard touchdown run made it 42-7 at halftime. The defense joined the action as Amier Burdine's interception set up another touchdown early in the third quarter. Curtis Whiting's rushing score and Tom Costigan's 59-yard fumble return in the fourth sealed the 56-10 Homecoming victory.

Brief Stats: The Pioneers' rushing attack was dominant, led by Webb's 90 yards and two touchdowns, with Summers adding 77 yards and two scores of his own. On defense, the Pioneers shine with four sacks, two interceptions, and two forced fumbles. Jared Hirschfeld, Kevin Bright, and Josiah Aidoo each recorded a sack, while Mike Deitelbaum added the Pioneers' second interception to cap a complete team effort.

SHU POWERS PAST NEW HAVEN FOR SIXTH WIN

Final Score: Sacred Heart 35 | New Haven 20

Brief Recap: Sacred Heart overcame an early deficit to take control, scoring touchdowns on four of its final five drives and building a lead they would not relinquish to remain undefeated at home, 4-0.

Brief Stats: Mitchell Summers powered the ground game with two early rushing touchdowns, while Jack Snyder connected on a 43-yard touchdown pass to Dean Hangey and capped the win with a 34-yard rushing score. The Pioneers dominated time of possession and the trenches, finishing with 229 rushing yards and holding New Haven to just 102 yards on the ground in a 35-20 victory.

SUMMERS ADDS FCS JERRY RICE AWARD WATCH LIST TO RESUME

First-year running back Mitchell Summers is one of 22 players named to the FCS Jerry Rice Award Watch List, which was announced back on October 22nd. Summers joins an elite group of former Pioneers to earn national recognition, following in the footsteps of Tyrese Chambers (WR), Julius Chestnut (RB), and RJ Noel (QB), who were each named to the national watch list during their careers at SHU.

PIOS BATTLE NO. 3 MONTANA IN HARD-FOUGHT ROAD CONTEST

Final Score: Montana 43 | Sacred Heart 21

Brief Recap: No. 3 Montana jumped out to a 22-0 first-quarter lead, forcing Sacred Heart to play catch-up for the rest of the game. The Pioneers responded with second-half touchdowns from Mitchell Summers and two Jack Snyder-to-Dean Hangey connections to pull within eight in the fourth quarter. Despite their late surge, Montana scored twice in the final minutes to secure a 43-21 victory, while SHU's defense limited the Grizzlies to just two scores in the second half.

Brief Stats: The Pioneers gained 340 total yards, including 214 passing and 126 rushing, while holding Montana scoreless in the third quarter. Jack Snyder threw for 214 yards and two touchdowns, Mitchell Summers rushed for 87 yards and a score, and Dean Hangey and Payton Rhoades combined for 11 catches, 123 yards, and two touchdowns. Defensively, Ryan Palmieri led with nine tackles, and Peter Schanne added a forced fumble.

PIOS SCORE 32 UNANSWERED PIONTS TO TAKE DOWN HOWARD

Final Score: Sacred Heart 32 | Howard 14

Brief Recap: After falling behind 14-0 late in the first half, Sacred Heart flipped the script with a dominant effort on both sides of the ball, scoring 32 unanswered points, sparked by a to complete the comeback.

Brief Stats: Mitchell Summers powered the Pioneers' comeback, rushing for a career-high 243 yards and two touchdowns on 18 carries. Kyle Hall and Mike Deitelbaum paced the Pioneers with eight tackles apiece, while Peter Schanne and Deitelbaum combined for 2.5 of the team's three sacks.

SUMMERS EARNS MULTIPLE WEEKLY AWARDS

Mitchell Summers was named the Stats Perform FCS National Freshman Player of the Week, and he also picked up New England Football Gold Helmet honors for his breakout effort against Howard.

KLING RECEIVES HONORABLE MENTION FOR SPECIAL TEAMS

Grad kicker Matt Kling also earned national attention as he was named Honorable Mention for Special Teams by FCS Stats Perform. Kling, a native of Canton, Ohio, played a pivotal role in the Pioneers' comeback, going 3-for-3 on extra points and knocking down three key field goals. He capped the first half with a career-long 49-yard field goal, trimming the deficit to 14-3 and swinging momentum in Sacred Heart's favor. In the second half, Kling added 19-yard and 25-yard field goals, helping the Pioneers take a lead they would hold for the remainder of the game.

PIOS WINNING NEFW GOLD HELMET AWARD

Mitchell Summers joins current teammate Jack Snyder and former Pioneers Malik Grant and RJ Noel, who received this award during their time here at SHU. Grant was honored in 2021 after his performance against Merrimack College, rushing for 268 yards on 27 carries, while Noel received his in 2013 behind 300 yards of total offense to lead SHU to a win over Marist.

SUMMERS FEATURED ON ESPN'S COLLEGE FOOTBALL FINAL

Mitchell Summers' standout performance in Sacred Heart's 32-14 win over Howard caught national attention last weekend, as he was featured on ESPN's College Football Final. Summers earned a coveted helmet sticker on the show after rushing for 243 yards and two touchdowns on just 18 carries.

SHU SUFFERS OVERTIME SETBACK TO CCSU

Final Score: CCSU 42 | Sacred Heart 35

Brief Recap: Sacred Heart battled back from a 13-0 deficit as John Michalski, Trey Eberhart III, and Jack Snyder each scored to keep the game tight. Snyder's late 37-yard touchdown to Jason Palmieri forced overtime, but CCSU clinched a 42-35 win with a touchdown on the first play of the extra period.

Brief Stats: Jack Snyder totaled 274 yards and three touchdowns to lead the offense, with Trey Eberhart III adding 83 rushing yards and a score. Payton Rhoades and Jason Palmieri each caught touchdown passes, while Maximus Mongelli led the defense with nine tackles.

PIOS KEEP IT ROLLING

Final Score: Sacred Heart 35 | Delaware State 31

Brief Recap: Sacred Heart overcame a two-touchdown deficit to storm past Delaware State, 35-31, on Family Weekend. After trailing 31-20 at halftime, the Pioneers shut out the Hornets in the third and rallied behind quarterback Jack Snyder, who threw for two second-half touchdowns to Jason Palmieri, including the game-winner in the fourth. Matt Kling added two field goals, while the defense held strong late to secure the comeback victory.

Brief Stats: Jack Snyder powered the offense with 298 passing yards, three total touchdowns, and 51 rushing yards. Jason Palmieri caught two scores, while Kevin McGuire hauled in 10 receptions for 78 yards. Mitchell Summers added 170 all-purpose yards and a rushing touchdown. On defense, Kymari Latney posted six tackles, with linemen Peter Schanne and Glory Stephen-Wangboje each recording five stops, a tackle for loss, and a half-sack to anchor the front line.

SYNDER CLAIMS NEFWA GOLD HELMET AWARD

Quarterback Jack Snyder was the recipient of the New England Football Association Gold Helmet Awards presented by the Jack Grinold/Eastern Massachusetts Chapter of the National Football Foundation, following his breakout game against Delaware State.

SHU CLAIMS BACK-TO-BACK WINS

Final Score: Sacred Heart 31 | Norfolk State 28

Brief Recap: Sacred Heart built a 24-14 advantage early in the second half before Norfolk State rallied to pull within a field goal. With just over five minutes to play, Jack Snyder's touchdown run pushed the lead to 31-21. The Spartans answered quickly with a 29-yard touchdown strike, but the Pioneers' defense forced a missed field goal in the closing seconds to preserve the victory.

Brief Stat: Jack Snyder fueled the attack, passing for 92 yards and rushing for 79, and powered through the defense for two rushing scores. Mitchell Summers led the ground game, amassing 122 yards and a touchdown on 26 carries. Trey Eberhart III provided an additional spark with 89 rushing yards and a score. On defense, Kyle Hall and Tyler Jameson each tallied six tackles, while Maximus Mongelli stood out with five tackles, a six-yard TFL, an interception, and a pass breakup.

WALK-OFF FIELD GOAL SEALS WIN FOR SHU

Final Score: Sacred Heart 24 | LIU 21

Brief Recap: Trailing 14-7 at halftime and down 21-7 early in the third quarter, the Pioneers refused to back down, with John Michalski and Curtis Whiting scoring key touchdowns to tie the game. Matt Kling's clutch kick as time expired to seal the victory, snapping LIU's three-game win streak in the series.

Brief Stats: Jack Snyder went 14-of-18 for 193 yards and added 88 yards on the ground, while Summers rushed 24 times for 112 yards and a touchdown, and Kevin McGuire caught five passes for 88 yards. On defense, Nick Verbitsky led with seven tackles and a TFL, Kyle Hall added six stops and a TFL, and Peter Schanne recorded four tackles with a sack.

#11/13 LEHIGH TOO MUCH FOR PIOS

Final Score: Lehigh 28 | Sacred Heart 10

Brief Recap: Dean Hangey opened the game with a 91-yard kickoff return touchdown, but Lehigh quickly answered and took control with three first-half rushing scores for a 21-7 lead at the break. Matt Kling added a third-quarter field goal to cut the deficit, but the Mountain Hawks sealed the 28-10 win with a fourth-quarter touchdown.

Defensively, Myles Hamilton recorded six tackles, Nick Verbitsky added five tackles with a sack and tackle for loss, and Daimon Jacobs contributed five tackles and an interception.

PIOS TOP STONEHILL IN HOME OPENER
Final Score: Sacred Heart 12 | Stonehill 7

Brief Recap: The Pioneers’ defense set the tone early, stopping two red zone drives to keep the game scoreless at halftime. Momentum shifted in the third quarter when Kyle Hall’s interception led to a safety by Myles Hamilton and a touchdown run from Chuck Webb, giving a 9–0 lead. Stonehill closed the gap with a fourth-quarter touchdown, but SHU responded with a Matt Kling field goal before the defense sealed the win with a late fourth-down stop in the red zone.

Brief Stats: On offense, John Michalski threw for 119 yards on 11-of-21 passing and added 42 rushing yards, while Webb carried 17 times for 83 yards and a touchdown. Dean Hangey led the receiving corps with three catches for 67 yards. Defensively, Daimon Jacobs and Maximus Mongelli anchored the unit with 10 tackles apiece, with Jacobs adding a tackle for loss.

2024 SEASON RECAP
In their first season as an FCS Independent, the Pioneers battled a demanding schedule and closed strong, winning the Yankee Conference Championship with a 31–20 victory over Merrimack.

SHU finished 5–6 with wins over Saint Anselm (10–3), Georgetown (40–14), Norfolk State (10–3), Mercyhurst (31–14), and Merrimack.

The Pioneers’ backfield was a force to be reckoned with, led by the dynamic duo of Xavier Leigh and Jalen Madison. Their combined efforts amassed over 1,500 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns, with seven coming from Madison, which positioned him as the Pioneers’ leading touchdown scorer.

Defensively, the secondary was a difference-maker, accounting for six interceptions, six forced fumbles, and 21 pass breakups.

Seven players — Nate Chandler, Tyreke Brown, Isaiah Bishop, Janier Armstead, Nick Verbitsky, Caleb Dennis, and Stanley Dennis II — recorded at least one sack, contributing to 17 overall for a total loss of 84 yards.

BRIEF LOOK AHEAD TO 2025
In their second and final season as an FCS Independent, Sacred Heart opens 2025 with a highly anticipated home matchup against Stonehill on Aug. 30. The Pioneers then play three straight road games at Lehigh (Sept. 6), LIU (Sept. 13), and Norfolk State (Sept. 20), before hosting Delaware State for Family Weekend (Sept. 27).

October begins with a road test at defending NEC champion CCSU (Oct. 4) before SHU returns to Campus Field to host Howard (Oct. 11). A marquee road trip to Montana (Oct. 18) follows, offering one of the season’s toughest challenges.

The final month brings three home dates - New Haven (Nov. 1), Virginia Lynchburg (Nov. 8), and a key Yankee Conference Cup showdown with Merrimack (Nov. 15) - before the regular season wraps up on the road at Villanova (Nov. 22).

CAA FOOTBALL WELCOMES SHU
The Coastal Athletic Association Football Board of Directors approved Sacred Heart University as the newest member of the conference, effective July 1, 2026. The move increases CAA Football’s membership to 13 institutions, with the geographic footprint stretching across nine states from Maine to North Carolina.

Sacred Heart, a private university with more than 11,000 students, has captured six Northeast Conference championships and made four FCS playoff appearances since 2013, including back-to-back titles in 2013-14 and 2020-21.

SHU President Dr. John Petillo, Executive Director of Athletics Judy Ann Riccio, and Head Coach Mark Nofri each emphasized the opportunity to elevate the program while upholding the values of integrity, community, and athletic excellence.

SHU FOOTBALL CAPTAINS
Following the conclusion of spring practice, head coach Mark Nofri announced the team captains for the upcoming 2025 season. Kenny Selby, Maximus Mongelli, Cole De Magistris, Evan Scribner, and Curtis Whiting were selected by their peers for their outstanding leadership, consistent performance, and unwavering commitment to the

NOFRI ANNOUNCES STAFF CHANGES

Over the summer, head coach Mark Nofri announced several additions and promotions to his 2025 coaching staff. New to the staff are Paul Amakihe (linebackers), DJ Ford (tight ends), and Lou Del Forno (assistant defensive line/video coordinator). Nate Marr, who served as Director of Football Operations last season, has been promoted to General Manager, Director of Football Operations, and Recruiting Coordinator. Two current assistants also received expanded roles: Brad Tiernan will now serve as Offensive Line/Run Game Coordinator, while De Marcus White adds Defensive Pass Game Coordinator duties to his responsibilities with the safeties.

FB ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Jalen Madison '25 – Received his first career All-New England nod back following a breakout season in 2024. He joins fellow running backs Malik Grant, Julius Chestnut, and Keshaudas Spence, who have earned this honor during their tenure with the Pioneers.

Julius Chestnut '22 – Resigned with the Tennessee Titans. Chestnut, who initially joined the team as an undrafted free agent in 2022, has played in 22 games over the past three seasons and rushed for 114 yards, along with catching five passes for 52 yards. Chesnut has also played a role on special teams.

JD DiRenzo – Currently playing in the UFL with the Arlington Renegades after being traded by the Memphis Showboats back in April. Before the UFL, DiRenzo signed with the Carolina Panthers as an undrafted free agent and was active for one game during the 2023 season, playing seven snaps.

SCOUTING VILLANOVA

- The Wildcats are producing nearly 400 yards of total offense per game, with both the run and pass contributing to sustained drives and strong field position.
- Special teams continue to give Villanova a field-position edge, with the Wildcats averaging nearly 30 yards per kickoff return, ranking them second in FCS.
- Villanova's offense has been powered by Ja'briel Mace, one of the most explosive all-purpose threats in the FCS, ranking within the top 15 in kickoff return touchdowns (1st - 2), kickoff returns (2nd - 33.1), combined kickoff returns (4th - 695), and all-purpose yards (15th - 120.10).
- Quarterback Pat McQuaide has been a steady leader under center, completing 159 of 259 passes for 2,127 yards with 17 touchdowns and only two interceptions.
- On the ground, David Avit has led the way with several standout performances, including a 135-yard effort against Monmouth and multiple multi-touchdown games.
- Graduate wideout Luke Colella has emerged as the top target, collecting 54 receptions for 810 yards and seven touchdowns.
- Senior linebacker Shane Hartzell has been a force for Villanova in 2025, leading the team with 65 tackles through 10 games, including 12 tackles for loss, 5 sacks, six quarterback hurries, and one pass breakup.
