Season Preview

The VMI Basketball program last year turned out to be one of the big surprises in the Big South basketball season and exceeded expectations of those who had overlooked the Keydets in the 2010-11 preseason polls. Picked eighth in the 10-team preseason poll last October, VMI labored through injuries and inconsistencies throughout the first two-thirds of the season before catching fire with a February mad dash that produced five straight conference victories to close out the regular season and an upper-place finish (4th) with the right to host a first-round conference tournament game.

After securing a first-round tourney win to run the streak to six and advance to the semifinals, VMI fell eventually to top-seeded Coastal Carolina on the Chants' home floor to close out one of the most productive runs in recent program history against conference foes - the longest streak since 1995-96. The Keydets finished out the year with and 18-13 record and 10-8 mark in league play. It marked their second winning season over the past three years.

Now with four starters returning from last year's squad including the freshman of the year, will opponents take notice in 2011-12? The answer is a resounding yes as the Keydets have been tabbed third in this year's preseason poll. VMI appears poised to face the challenges of a team with higher expectations.

There appears to be plenty of firepower returning from the team that led NCAA Division I in scoring for an unprecedented fifth straight season. Four returning starters, 10 lettermen, and five newcomers will be working to prove that last season was no fluke and a firm foundation has been built to launch VMI basketball in the future. The program over the last five years has secured more total victories on the hardwood than any of the service academies or The Citadel.

Of all the returning parts to the high-scoring VMI offensive attack, one key component will not return and the void must be replaced to keep the scoreboard flickering this winter. Graduated All-Big South Conference guard Austin Kenon, one of the top 3-point threats in the country over the past four years, has taken his talents to professional ball in Europe. Kenon ranked first overall in the BSC in 3-pointers made and 3-point percentage and led in scoring in league games while placing second overall in conference scoring. He became VMI's all-time 3-point leader with 337 treys which ranks third in Big South Conference all-time.

A quarter of senior performers including three who were on the floor during VMI's shocking win over Kentucky in 2008-09, return to form an experienced nucleus that will provide leadership this year.

Senior guard Keith Gabriel is a dynamic and explosive player who can give the team a burst of energy and gives an athletic presence to the wing and could contend for all-conference honors. Gabriel will be working to perform at a consistent and high level for his senior season after ranking third on the team in scoring and 11th in the BSC with made 63 treys which ranked sixth in the league and his 3-point percentage also ranked 6th in the BSC. Gabriel also led the team in steals (53) and placed sixth in the league.

Senior guard Ron Burks is a dependable veteran performer who has filled a variety of roles during his career in the backcourt at point guard and inside. A returning starter who will be counted on for leadership, Burks seems to be a barometer for the team and often draws the top defensive assignment. Burks played in 24 games and missed nearly a month in early season when he injured his hand but returned and made 22 starts on the season while finishing third on the team in rebounding with a 4.5 average and hitting double figures scoring in 12 games.

Senior guard Michael Sparks is an excellent shooter who will be counted on even more for his outside touch this year, with the graduation of Kenon. Sparks can stretch defenses with his range and has been both a starter and reserve in his career.

Big South Tournament

* - Big South Conference Game All Times Eastern

Senior forward Wayne Whiting has battled through a shoulder injury throughout his career, but has proven to be very effective when healthy and will give the Keydets depth at the inside positions.

Another top returning performer is 6-5 power forward Stan Okoye, a versatile front line player and returning starter who gives the Keydets scoring punch in the inside and can square up to pop the outside jumper. Okoye should contend for all-conference honors and will be counted on for leadership. In overall games last year, Okoye ranked fifth in the conference in scoring and was first in FG% and third in rebounding while producing eight double-doubles during the season.

2010-11 Big South Freshman of the Year D.J. Covington put together one of the most impressive late season runs to fuel VMI's resurgence and snag post-season honors including the State Division I Freshman of the Year award. The 6-9 Covington brings the Keydets their first intimidating post presence in years and is on pace to rewrite the school record books - his 57 blocks rank fifth best all-time on the school single-season list and moved him into 10th on the all-time VMI list in blocks after just one season. Covington was tabbed Big South Freshman of the Week three times last year and is looking forward to a sensational sophomore season as a Keydet.

Sophomore point guard Rodney Glasgow is a Big South All-Freshman team pick and a returning starter who should continue to progress after together a solid freshman season. Glasgow will run the point in VMI's high octane offense and can both penetrate and stretch defense with an effective jumper. In 2010-11, Glasgow led the Big South in assist turnover ratio (2.68) and ranked fifth in the conference in assists with 117 assists against just 47 turnovers.

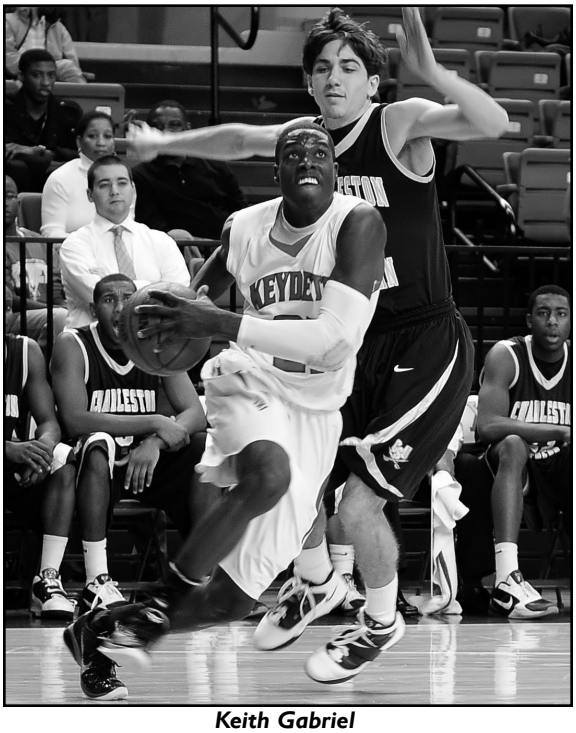

Two other junior role players who will provide punch off the bench are 6-6 forward Nick Gore and sophomore guard Joe Carr. Gore is one of four Keydet players to appear in all 31 games on the season and scored in double figures in eight games including four of the first of the first seven contests of the year and averaged 10.9 points and 5.1 rebounds over that span. Carr hopes to have a productive year after being limited by injury at the end of last season.

Rounding out the upper class roster is sophomore guard Drew Absher who shot 62.5% from the floor in limited action last year.

Ron Burks

VMI inked four signees last year including two in the early period. 5-11 guard Brian Brown (Kings Mountain, N.C) and Quinton Upshur (Norfolk, Va.) should contribute scoring and defensive pressure in VMI's up-temp system while spring signees Jordan Weethee (Greensboro, N.C) and Jarid Watson (Silver Spring Md.) should also see playing time and make contributions.

Head Coach Duggar Baucom

Duggar Baucom begins his seventh season as head coach of VMI Basketball. Since taking over the program, he has injected a brand of fast-paced, high-scoring hoops that has brought the team success on the court and wide-spread acclaim off the court.

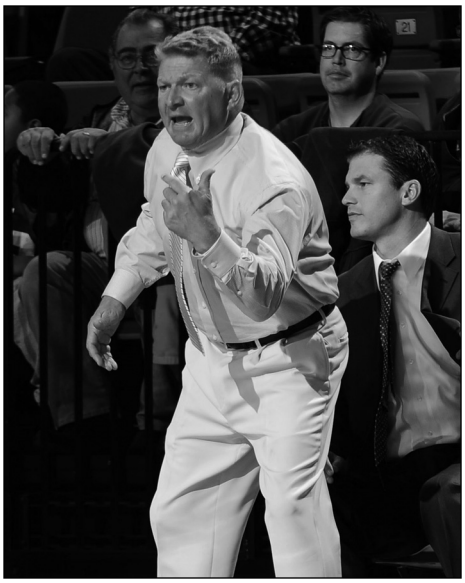

Each of the past five seasons, Baucom's Keydets have led the NCAA in scoring, a feat never before accomplished at the NCAA Division I level. On a pair of occasions during that time, the Keydets had the nation's leading scorer donning their uniform - a feat only performed 10 times in NCAA history. In addition, the 2008-09 team's 24 wins were the second-most in school history, trailing only the 1976-77 team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament's "Sweet 16", and VMI's second-place finish in the Big South was easily its best since joining the circuit in 2003-04.

Since transitioning to the up-tempo, high-flying system, the VMI record books and undergone a major facelift as 77 school individual, team and facility records been rewritten in the Baucom era. The VMI head man has earned multiple contract extensions during his time in Lexington, and has proved himself worthy of such by leading his team to two conference tournament finals and becoming the second-winningest coach in Keydet basketball history.

Last season saw VMI return to conference contender status, as the Keydets won 18 games and advanced to the second round of the Big South Championship. Those wins included a first round tournament win over Winthrop, VMI's second home conference tournament win in three years after not having hosted a postseason game in the 31 years prior. Senior Austin Kenon graduated as the Institute's all-time leading three-point shooter, and the #5 scorer in program history as well.

One of Baucom's high points was the 2008-09 breakthrough campaign, which began with a win that was described by renowned author John Feinstein as "pretty high on the all-time stunners list". VMI entered the hallowed halls of Rupp Arena and walked away with a historic, 111-103 win over Kentucky in front of a silenced crowd of 22,579. That victory kick-started an unforgettable campaign that saw the Keydets profiled in Sports Illustrated, ESPN The Magazine and the New York Times, along with several other major media outlets, all while winning 10 more games than the previous season and advancing to the program's second Big South Championship Final in three seasons. The season saw Baucom honored as the 2009 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 3 Coach of the Year, while he was also among 10 finalists for the Hugh Durham Award, given annually to the nation's top mid-major coach.

The Keydets' investment in the high-octane approach paid immediate dividends when Baucom and staff rolled out the strategy two weeks before the 2006-07 season opener. The results were astounding. Using an up-tempo system for most of the season, the Keydets won the most games (14) in nine years and advanced to the championship game of the Big South Tournament.

The Keydets also set new NCAA season marks in three-pointers, both made and attempted, 3-pointers made per game and steals.

VMI was declared the 2006-07 stat champion in four team categories and two individual categories. The Keydets ranked first in Division I in scoring offense (100.9 PPG), three point field goals (13.4) made per game, assists per game (14.8), and steals per game (13.4).

Individually, junior forward Reggie Williams was declared the scoring champion in Division I after averaging 28.1 points per game. Sophomore guard Travis Holmes captured the steals per game statistical championship with 3.4 per game.

Records fell in bunches that season as well, as by season's end, nearly 75 records ranging from the VMI school annals to opponent facility marks had fresh ink on them.

During the campaign, Baucom's program garnered national recognition for their astounding offensive numbers as media outlets from all across the country wanted to tell the story. The New York Times, ESPN.com and Sports Illustrated.com were just some of the national outlets who featured Keydet basketball.

By leading VMI to the Big South Finals where they fell to eventual champion Winthrop by a slim three-point margin, Baucom guided the Keydets to a conference championship game setting for the first time since 1988.

Baucom became the 29th head basketball coach of the Virginia Military Institute on April 12, 2005, bringing impressive credentials from Tusculum College in Greenville, Tennessee, where he directed the NCAA Division II Pioneers to back-to-back winning seasons including a conference regular season and conference tournament championship. In two seasons at Tusculum, Baucom compiled a mark of 37-19. In 2004-05, the Pioneers finished 18-11 on the year to post their fourth straight winning season. Tusculum caught fire in the postseason as the Pioneers won their first Food Lion South Atlantic Conference Tournament title, while earning the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. Tusculum was eliminated in the South Atlantic Regional quarterfinals, falling 91-88 in overtime to top-seeded and No. 3 Bowie State University.

While at Tusculum, Baucom mentored three All-South Atlantic Conference selections in Brad Hawks (2003-04, 2004-05), Drew Harmon (2003-04) and Greg McIntosh (2004-05). Baucom was named Tusculum's head coach in August, 2003, and guided the squad in his debut season to a 19-8 record while capturing TC's first-ever South Atlantic Conference Men's Basketball Championship. It was also Tusculum's best basketball record since the Pioneers became a NCAA Division II member. Baucom was named 2004 South Atlantic Conference Coach of the Year.

Baucom was well familiar with VMI basketball prior to his arrival, having served as an assistant at two Southern Conference schools when the Keydets competed in the SoCon. He made his collegiate coaching debut in 1995-96 at Davidson College where he served as an assistant coach with the Wildcats. Davidson had a banner season posting a 25-5 tally sheet while claiming a Southern Conference championship with a 14-0 league mark. The Wildcats were ranked fourth in the nation in scoring margin (+15.0) as they advanced to the National Invitational Tournament.

Baucom also served three seasons as an assistant coach at SoCon member Western Carolina University. While at the Cullowhee, N.C. school, he directed the Catamounts' recruiting efforts and landed several top players including guard Kevin Martin, who was a 2004 first round draft pick of the Sacramento Kings.

Baucom also served as an assistant coach at Northwestern (La.) State in 1998-99 where he implemented a skill development program for perimeter players while directing scouting and coordination of recruiting visits for the Demons. He served the prior three seasons (1996-98) at Mars Hill College where he held a variety of duties including scouting, film exchange, recruiting coordination and the development of Mars Hill's strength and conditioning program.

The Charlotte, N.C. native has over 20 years basketball coaching experience on the collegiate and scholastic level. He started his career as a junior varsity coach at North Mecklenburg High School in Charlotte, N.C. He was later promoted to the varsity coaching staff in 1991 and served in that capacity until 1995 when he left prep coaching for the collegiate ranks. While a prep coach, he also served as head coach of the Amateur Athletic Union's Charlotte Royals from 1992-95, which included his team advancing to the AAU National Tournament.

Daniel Willis, who has coached under Duggar Baucom for nine seasons, begins his seventh season on the VMI staff. Willis spent his first two seasons at the Institute as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2007-08 campaign.

Willis was instrumental in installing the up-tempo style of play the Keydets have employed each of the past three seasons, a style that produced the nation's leading scoring team three years running, two appearances in the conference finals and a two-time national scoring champion (Reggie Williams).

Thrown into the fire in his first season at the Institute, Willis filled in admirably for Baucom in 2005-06 when the head coach was sidelined for seven games in January. Willis guided the Keydets to conference wins over Coastal Carolina and Liberty.

"Daniel has worked very hard and has great ownership of this program," offered VMI head coach Duggar Baucom. "I have been fortunate to have him by my side for the last several years. He is going to be a great head coach in the near future."

Willis previously coached with Baucom at Tusculum, and played a key role in the Pioneers' memorable run in 2004-05. Tusculum finished 18-11 on the year to post its fourth straight winning season and the Pioneers caught fire in the postseason - winning their first South Atlantic Conference Tournament title while earning the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth.

Willis handled a wide array of duties as Baucom's right-hand man at Tusculum. Willis served as the program's recruiting coordinator, prepared scouting reports and game strategies for every game, organized budget including travel, recruiting, and purchasing, and coordinated and instructing player development sessions. Willis also monitored the team's academic progress and was the summer and fall camp director.

Willis graduated from Lenoir-Rhyne College in Hickory, N.C. in 2001 with a B.S. in Sports Management and minor in Business Administration. He is the South Atlantic Conference's all-time leading scorer, and was a consensus All-American guard at Lenoir-Rhyne College, where he recorded 1,980 points with the Bears from 1997-01. Willis also worked with fellow Lenoir-Rhyne alumnus and Hickory native Rick Barnes at the University of Texas for three summers.

Prior to his stint at Tusculum, Willis previously served as an assistant coach for three seasons at Southern Conference member Western Carolina University and faced VMI when the Keydets were members of the SoCon. Baucom and Willis served together on the WCU coaching staff as assistants from 2001-03. Willis spent his first two seasons at the Cullowhee, N.C. school as a graduate assistant coach while earning a master's degree, then moved to full-time status on the Catamount staff in 2003-04.

Willis, a native of Hickory, N.C., garnered All-American honors at Lenoir-Rhyne in 2000-01 from three different organizations, including National Association of Basketball Coaches/NCAA Division II All-American Second Team, Daktronics/NCAA II All-American Second Team and the Lutheran Brotherhood College All-American First Team. He averaged a SAC record 24.4 points per game that season, which was third best in the nation that year. He was named SAC Player of the Year, SAC Male Athlete of the Year and Lenoir-Rhyne Athlete of the Year. Willis, a three-time All-SAC performer, also holds conference records in points in a season (660), career free throws made (543), free throws made in a season (195), career free throw attempts (684) and free throw attempts in a season (241).

Willis married the former Tiffany Myers in May of 2010, and the couple resides in Buena Vista.

Assistant Coaches

Jason ALLISON

SEVENTH SEASON
LIBERTY '99

Jason Allison, a former Big South player in the collegiate ranks, begins his seventh season as an assistant coach on the VMI staff.

While at VMI, Allison has played a key role in all facets of the VMI Basketball program, serving as Recruiting Coordinator and assisting with player development. He has been a part of the prestigious offensive numbers the Keydets have put up each of the past several seasons, and worked with two-time individual scoring champion Reggie Williams '08 during that time.

"Jason has done an awesome job as our recruiting coordinator," said VMI head coach Duggar Baucom. "He deserves much of the credit for bringing in the quality cadet-athletes that we have at VMI. Jason is a tireless worker that has a great gift for evaluating talent as well as an ability to build relationships."

Allison came to VMI after serving two years at King College in Bristol, Tenn. Allison was the Tornados' recruiting coordinator for both the varsity and junior varsity teams.

While on the staff at King College, Allison coached two all-conference players and one all-freshman team performer. The 2003-04 squad finished as co-regular season champs and made an NAIA national tournament appearance.

Prior to his stint at King, Allison coached at Gaston Day School in Gastonia, N.C. where he served as the assistant men's coach during the 2002-2003 season. Gaston Day reached the Final Four of the state tournament and compiled a 28-4 mark.

Allison played for Liberty University from 1995-1998 where he was a part of a Big South Regular season title in 1997 and a part of the best team in Liberty history with a record of 23-9.

Allison began his coaching career at Lynchburg Christian Academy at the age of 22. While completing his degree he served as the Head Coach of the junior varsity team and assistant to the varsity during the 1998-1999 season. From there, he was an assistant coach at Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk, N.C. during the 1999-2000 season.

Allison, a native of Lincolnton, N.C., received his bachelor's degree in Physical Education from Liberty University in 1999. Allison is married to the former Hope McLaughlin. The couple has a five-year-old son, Riley, born in September, 2006 and their second child, Ryder, is now two.

Jack CASTLEBERRY

FOURTH SEASON
VMI '07

Former VMI player Jack Castleberry enters his fourth season as the Keydets' newest assistant basketball coach, after his hiring was announced on August 25, 2008. He handles a wide variety of duties, including monitoring the team's academic progress and assisting with scheduling, recruiting and travel.

"We are very excited to have Jack Castleberry back at VMI.," said VMI head coach Duggar Baucom at the time of Castleberry's hiring. "As a player, Jack always brought tremendous energy, an unwavering work ethic, and outstanding leadership. We expect him to bring all of those qualities as an assistant coach, but of even greater importance, Jack is a VMI guy who knows what it is like to excel in the classroom, in the corps of cadets and on the floor. As a head coach it is very rewarding to have one of your former players come back to work with you."

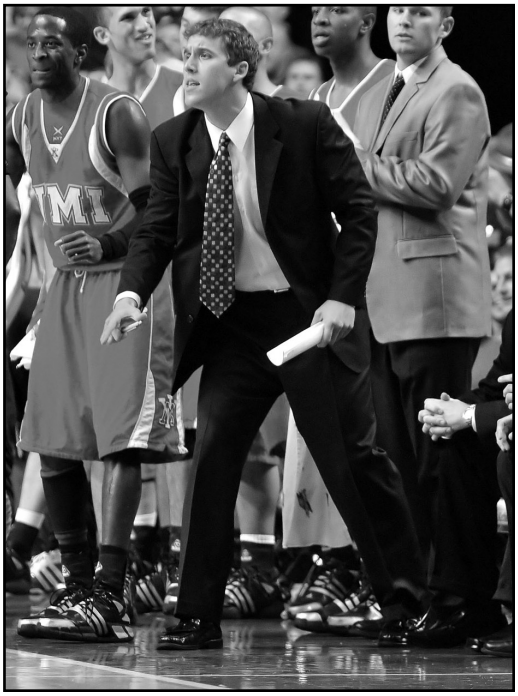

A three-year letterman and two-year starter for the Keydets, Castleberry graduated from VMI in May, 2007, with a degree in Economics and Business and served as assistant basketball coach at Tennessee-Martin during the 2007-08 season where he was involved in all facets of the men's basketball program, including recruiting, scouting, player development and video exchange.

During his time at VMI, Castleberry served as team captain of the Keydet basketball team in 2006-07, where he helped lead the squad to a 14-win season, marking the most wins at VMI in a decade.

Additionally, Castleberry led the Keydets to their first conference tournament final in 20 years. During that same year, the Keydets led the nation in scoring offense (100.9 ppg), three-point field goals made (13.4 per game), assists (20.6) and steals per game (14.8), including setting NCAA records for three-point field goals made in a season (442), three-point field goals attempted (1383), three-point field goals made per game (13.4), steals in a season (490) and steals per game (14.8).

For his efforts on the playing court, Castleberry was bestowed with the "Spirit of VMI Award" by the coaching staff for his leadership, toughness and hustle.

Before joining the coaching ranks, Castleberry as a summer camp aide held various different coaching roles on the East Coast as a team and teaching station coach for several camps, including stints at Duke, Winthrop, Old Dominion, East Carolina and Army.

Media Information

The 2011-12 season promises to be an exciting one and we will do everything we can to keep you up to date on the latest with Keydet basketball. If you have a special request or if we can be of further service to you, please don't hesitate to contact us.

WORKING MEDIA: Press and photography passes and parking permits will be supplied to those media outlets regularly covering VMI basketball well in advance of the season. All others are requested to call this office far enough in advance so the tickets can be mailed. Passes may also be left at will call at the Cameron Hall ticket office.

PRESS ROW: All media, both radio networks, and the statistical crew are situated on the east side of the court. Wireless internet access is available for media members on press row.

RADIO: Two telephone lines are already installed for the official visiting station, and a trade-out agreement is desirable. Additional lines should be ordered through CenturyLink at 540-463-2121.

GAME INFORMATION: All media covering VMI games will be provided updated statistics on both teams, rosters, and game notes which will include updated conference standings when applicable. Pizza, chocolate chip cookies and drinks will be provided prior to the game.

AFTER THE GAME: A complete statistical package with play-by-play will be available as soon after the game as possible. Both locker rooms are located on the left and right at the bottom of the ramp at the north end of the arena floor. Coaches will be interviewed outside their respective locker rooms and VMI players will be brought out upon request.

INTERVIEWS: All player and staff interviews must be arranged through the VMI Athletic Communications Office.

DIRECTIONS TO CAMERON HALL: Most of our annual visitors know how to get to the Keydet home arena, but for those who have never visited the charming city of Lexington, take note:

From the East, North, or South: Follow I-81 to Exit 188 B toward Lexington (U.S. 60 west). Follow U.S. 60 west to Nelson Street into town. Turn right at the intersection of Nelson and Main Streets. Follow Main Street .5 mile to the arena on the right.

From the West: Follow I-64 east to Exit 55 (U.S. 11) and head south toward Lexington. Follow U.S. 11 toward Lexington for .5 mile. Stay to the right across the Maury River Bridge and follow U.S. 11 Business for .3 mile. Cameron Hall will be on your left.

KEYDETS ON THE WEB: Fans and media are encouraged to follow the team on the VMI athletic home page. Timely information on the basketball Keydets will be available to both media and fans alike. Included in the service will be schedules, rosters, stats and the latest notes on the team as well as access to live radio broadcasts. The VMI Keydets can be accessed on the world wide web at www.VMIKeydets.com.

ITS VMI, PLEASE: When referring to our athletic teams, it is requested that members of the media refer to this institution as "VMI", or "Virginia Military Institute", not "Virginia Military" or the cryptic "Va. Military". Any help in using the correct moniker would be greatly appreciated.

Keydets on The Air

KEYDETS ON TELEVISION

The full broadcast schedule for Keydet basketball will be released later this fall on VMIKeydets.com. The Big South TV schedule is expected to be released on or shortly after Big South Media Day, which is set for October 11.

VMI RADIO NETWORK

Regular season games and tournament action of the 2011-12 Keydets can be heard on 96.7 3WZ, originating in Lexington. Wade Branner, "The Voice of the Keydets", returns to call his 25th season of VMI Basketball. Branner will handle play-by-play duties for a majority of the team's contests this season.

The pregame show airs 15 minutes before tip-off.

KEYDETS ON THE INTERNET

The home of VMI basketball radio broadcasts on the internet is www.VMIKeydets.com. Streaming services are provided by JumpTV. Listeners can catch live play-by-play audio of all VMI basketball games on the world wide web.

All Big South contests will also be streamed with live video on the Big South Network, at www.BigSouthSports.com. Individual games and season packages are available.

Game boxes, updated stats, game stories and releases can be accessed on the VMI athletic page at vmikeydets.com.

In addition, the VMI Athletic Communications office is currently utilizing several of the newest methods to communicate with supporters and media interested in VMI athletics. The staff uses Twitter (@VMISID), the microblogging site, to provide updates at several VMI athletic events. Other, similar tools are also used throughout the athletic season, as announced periodically on VMIKeydets.com.

Wade Branner returns to call another season of VMI Basketball in 2011-12.

VMI IN THE BIG SOUTH CHAMPIONSHIP

2003-04 High Point 75, VMI 43

Danny Gathings had 18 points, and High Point's defense held VMI to 15 points in the first half to spoil the Keydets' Big South postseason debut and hand VMI a 75-43 loss March 2, 2004 in High Point, N.C.

2006-07 VMI 79, Liberty 78
VMI 91, High Point 81
Winthrop 84, VMI 81

In one of the great runs in recent Keydet athletic history, a simple defensive change helped VMI advance to its first Big South Championship final. By moving to a more traditional defense and away from the patented VMI pressure, VMI befuddled a Liberty team that won both games during the regular season, and then did the same to High Point two days later. In the process, the Keydets ended the collegiate careers of Liberty's Larry Blair and High Point's Arizona Reid, two of the best players in Big South history, but VMI's time ran out in Rock Hill, S.C. on March 3, 2007. That day, the Keydets nearly knocked off a Winthrop team that went on to win an NCAA First Round game (and become the first Big South team to ever do so), but a Reggie Williams fall-away three-pointer as time expired was wide-right and VMI fell just short.

2007-08 Liberty 103, VMI 88

After VMI defeated Liberty in the first round the prior season, ending the career of perhaps the best player in Flames' history, Liberty returned the favor the following year. By defeating VMI 103-88 in the tournament's opening round, Liberty ended the collegiate career of Reggie Williams, who retired as (and remains) the Big South's all-time leading scorer with 2,556 points.

2008-09 VMI 96, Coastal Carolina 76
VMI 78, Liberty 58
Radford 108, VMI 94

For the second time in three years, the Keydets made a deep run in the conference tournament. The run began at home, as VMI won the first postseason game ever played at Cameron Hall, and the first such game played in Lexington since 1978, by defeating Coastal Carolina 96-76. VMI then defeated Liberty 78-58 in Radford, moving on to the conference finals. The defense of Ron Burks was key to both wins, as the then-freshman helped shut down CCU's Joseph Harris and LU's Seth Curry. Unfortunately for VMI, Art Parakhouski had 26 points and 18 rebounds for the Highlanders in the title game, overcoming Austin Kenon's championship game record 34 points and sending Radford to the NCAA Tournament.

2009-10 Coastal Carolina 82, VMI 73

After struggling through a 5-13 conference season, VMI drew the #8 seed for the conference tournament and a date with #1 Coastal Carolina. The Keydets fell 82-73 to end their year.

2010-11 VMI 78, Winthrop 73
Coastal Carolina 89, VMI 81

VMI earned its third trip to the conference semifinals in five years with a 78-73 win over Winthrop at Cameron Hall on March 1, but succumbed to top-seeded Coastal Carolina 89-81 in Conway, S.C. to end its season. The loss ended the career of Austin Kenon, VMI's all-time leading three-point shooter and #5 all-time leading scorer.

*- Big South Championships at Cameron Hall
+-Big South Championships at Conway, S.C.

Reggie Williams '08, now with the NBA's Golden State Warriors, is VMI's all-time leading scorer. He led the Keydets to a finals appearance in the 2006-07 Big South Championship, and is shown being defended by Evan Turner of Ohio State, the #2 overall pick in the 2010 NBA Draft.

The 2008-09 team, including Travis Holmes and Austin Kenon (middle), defeated Kentucky at Rupp Arena to open its season.
