Keydets Start Conference Play At Presbyterian College

First Time VMI/PC Will Meet in Big South Opener

◆ VMI basketball begins Big South play Saturday, taking on the Presbyterian College Blue Hose in Clinton, S.C. Tip time is set for 7 p.m., and the game can be heard in the Lexington area on 96.7 3WZ, with an accompanying audio feed accessible at WREL.com and VMIKeydets.com. Fans can also watch the game on the Big South Network presented by State Farm (BigSouthSports.com) and view live stats at VMIKeydets.com, via GoBlueHose.com.

◆ In their last game, the Keydets used a 52-0 advantage in bench scoring, led by a career-high 18 points from Tim Marshall, to propel their squad to a 110-54 win over the Shenandoah Hornets in men's basketball action Wednesday night at Cameron Hall. The 52 bench points were not only the highest total of the year for VMI (5-7), but marked the most since Dec. 10, 2011 against Milligan College, when the Keydets notched 61 markers off the bench. In addition to Marshall's second straight career-high game, Jarid Watson had a career-best 10 points and Dorian Albritton equaled a career-high with 10 markers of his own. The 56-point margin of victory was the seventh-largest in school history.

Last Meeting with Presbyterian College (2/9/2012):

◆ Al'Lonzo Coleman had 26 points and 12 rebounds, and the Presbyterian College Blue Hose shot nearly 60 percent from the field en route to a 94-74 win over the VMI Keydets in Big South basketball action Feb. 9, 2012 in Clinton, S.C. Presbyterian College (11-13, 5-9 Big South) took command early, as after VMI (12-12, 7-7) had an early 6-2 lead, PC scored the game's next 11 points to lead by seven. VMI missed seven straight three-pointers at one early juncture of the contest, helping the Blue Hose out to a lead they would not relinquish for the remainder of the evening.

A VMI win against Presbyterian College would:

◆ Be VMI's first win in a conference opener since 2008-09, a 92-74 win over Winthrop.

◆ Move the Keydets to 3-7 all-time in Big South openers and mark VMI's second conference-opening road win since joining the Big South.

◆ Be VMI's second win in Clinton since the Blue Hose joined the Big South in 2008-09, joining an 80-74 win in 2010-11.

Keydets Open 2013 With Rout of Shenandoah:

The VMI Keydets used a 52-0 advantage in bench scoring, led by a career-high 18 points from Tim Marshall, to propel their squad to a 110-54 win over the Shenandoah Hornets in men's basketball action Jan. 2 at Cameron Hall.

The 52 bench points were not only the highest total of the year for VMI (5-7), but marked the most since Dec. 10, 2011 against Milligan College, when the Keydets notched 61 markers off the bench. In addition to Marshall's second straight career-high game, Jarid Watson had a career-best 10 points and Dorian Albritton equaled a career-high with 10 markers of his own.

In addition, the 56-point final margin was VMI's largest lead of the season, and the biggest lead the Keydets had enjoyed in any game since Nov. 29, 2010, a 60-point cushion against Central Penn College. It was also the seventh-largest margin of victory in school history (see next note). VMI posted its best shooting percentage of the year by going 44 for 77 from the field (57.1%), and tied a season-high in three-pointers made with 14, 10 of which came in the opening half.

Rout of Shenandoah Makes All-Time Listing:

VMI's 56-point win over Shenandoah was not only the largest lead VMI had enjoyed in any game since Nov. 29, 2010, but also was the seventh-largest margin of victory in school history. It surpassed two 54-point wins, a 1997 victory over Lynchburg College and a 2007 triumph over West Virginia Wesleyan.

Cleaning the Glass:

The win over Shenandoah also saw VMI rebound its foe 56-24, a margin of +32. That was the highest rebound margin for Keydet basketball under current head coach Duggar Baucom, surpassing a +25 mark against Lees-McRae on Dec. 6, 2006.

Marshall Scorching the Nets:

With his career-high 18 points against Shenandoah, Tim Marshall continued his recent run of hot shooting. Over the past three games, Marshall is shooting an even 50% from the floor (13 of 26) including a blistering 12 of 21 (57.1%) from beyond the arc, giving him an average of 14.3 points per game over that time.

Okoye Closing In on Career Gains:

After surpassing several notable names on the all-time VMI charts in several statistical categories early in the year, senior Stan Okoye is in position to do so again over the next handful of contests. He is within 20 points of tying Travis Holmes '09 for seventh on VMI's all-time scoring chart, and continues to move up on the field goals made listing as well, currently just one behind Will Bynum '77 for 7th on that chart. Okoye has also made the seventh-most free throws in VMI history, just three behind Karl Klinar '54 for sixth, and sits 30 rebounds behind Ron Carter '78 for fifth on that listing.

Covington Moving Up:

Stan Okoye is not the only Keydet moving up the career charts, as junior center D.J. Covington is doing so as well. Covington became just the fifth Keydet ever to surpass 100 career blocks with five rejections against George Washington, and after three blocks against Shenandoah, stands just four shy of third place in the category on the program's all-time listing.

Baucom Seven Wins Away:

Last season, VMI head coach Duggar Baucom became just the second coach in Keydet history to surpass the 100-win plateau, as he hit triple digits with the Feb. 18 win over William & Mary. With just seven more victories, Baucom will tie Bart Bellairs for the most wins ever at VMI with 116.

Baucom Moving Up:

VMI head coach Duggar Baucom not only won his 100th game at the Institute last season and closed on former coach Bart Bellairs for the school record (116), but he moved up the Big South charts as well. Baucom has logged 109 wins as a part of the Big South, now the seventh-most in conference history. He is just seven behind Gary Edwards, former Charleston Southern head man, for sixth.

Keydets Looking to Change Fortunes in BSC Openers:

VMI will be looking to reverse a recent trend in Big South openers, as the Keydets have dropped three straight conference lid-lifters overall. The Keydets' last win in a BSC opener was Dec. 3, 2008, a 92-74 triumph over Winthrop.

Coming Home...Finally:

The Jan. 2 game against Shenandoah marked VMI's first home game since Dec. 3, a layoff of 29 days. That was VMI's longest stretch between home games since since 2007-08, when VMI had 28 days between home games. The Keydets did have a 27-day layoff between home games in 2009-10 as well.

Keydets to be Broadcast Seven Times on TV:

VMI basketball can be seen on various networks seven times this season, with the next scheduled game being set for Jan. 9, when the Liberty Flames come to Cameron Hall. That game can be seen on both the Flames Sports Network and ESPN3.

The schedule then resumes with Jan. 19's game at Coastal Carolina being on ESPNU, while that network also shows VMI/UNC Asheville from Lexington on Feb. 8. MASN broadcasts VMI at Campbell on Feb. 16, with VMI at Liberty (Flames Sports Network/MASN) on Feb. 26 wrapping up the broadcast schedule.

Earlier games shown included Virginia Tech (ESPN3) and West Virginia (Root Sports - Pittsburgh/ESPN3).

In addition, all VMI home games and conference games will be shown on the Big South Network at a cost of $4.95, and audio broadcasts of all games, home and away, are available free of charge at www.wrel.com and www.vmikeydets.com.

George Washington Slips by Keydets:

The George Washington Colonials used a 42-20 edge in points in the paint and a 48-33 advantage on the glass to help them overcome a second half deficit and defeat the VMI Keydets, 76-67, Saturday afternoon, Dec. 22.

After a back and forth first half, the Keydets (4-7) had taken a 45-42 lead on a Tim Marshall three-pointer with 14:16 remaining. GW (5-6), however, retook the lead just over two minutes later, and used a crucial 6-0 run at the 6:45 mark to push the cushion to double figures, 64-54. That lead was the largest of the day for either team, in a game that saw nine ties and eight lead changes. The home squad then held on for the victory, as VMI could get no closer than seven the rest of the way.

Long Layoff in December:

The 14-day layoff between the Wright State and George Washington games was the longest time between regular season games under current head coach Duggar Baucom, with the previous long having been 12 days (Dec. 19-31, 2010). It was also the longest layoff for the program since the 2004-05 season. That year, VMI defeated Bluefield at Cameron Hall on Dec. 13, but was next in action at New Orleans on Dec. 28, a span of 15 days.

Keydets Struggle Against Wright State:

The Wright State Raiders shot 62.1 percent from the field in the second half and held a 48-16 edge in points in the paint for the game, enabling them to defeat the VMI Keydets, 92-59, Dec. 8 in Dayton, Ohio.

Wright State took the lead for good with a 15-0 first half run, but used hot shooting from the field in the second half to break open a 10-point halftime lead, as the Raiders outscored the Keydets 54-31 over the final 20 minutes. 28 of those 54 points came in the paint as the home team exploded to secure the victory in the first meeting between the programs.

The other story of the game was defense, as WSU's defense held VMI to its lowest point total of the season and lowest since Feb. 27, 2012 against Radford, while also breaking Keydet star Stan Okoye's double figure scoring streak at nine games. Okoye was limited to just seven points while posting eight turnovers, just the second time in his stellar four-year VMI career that he had more turnovers than points. Meanwhile, the Keydet defense forced just one steal despite seeing 13 WSU turnovers. The single theft was the lowest total in seven-plus seasons under head coach Duggar Baucom.

Keydets Rewrite Season Highs in Win:

As seen on page 14, the Keydets rewrote their seasonal high efforts in the Dec. 3 win over Virginia University of Lynchburg. Keydet players set or tied 18 different individual seasonal high marks in the 102-61 win, led by D.J. Covington's 26 points. The Keydets also had a season-high 20 steals, the team's most since Dec. 8 of 2011 (21 vs. Central Penn).

Balanced Scoring Leads Keydets in Rout of VUL:

12 different Keydets found the scoreboard, led by D.J. Covington's career night, to lead VMI to a 102-61 rout of the Virginia University of Lynchburg Dragons Dec. 3 at Cameron Hall in Lexington, Va.

Covington notched a career-high 26 points and shot a strong 10 of 11 from the floor. That accounted for a 90.9 field goal percentage, the third-best single-game effort in VMI (4-5) history, among players with at least 10 attempts.

The other story of the night was the Keydet defense, which had a season-high 20 steals, led by four each from Gavin Stephenson and Nick Gore, and also forced a season-best 31 turnovers in the victory.

Non-Conference Home Winning Streak Ended by Morgan State:

Going into the December 1 Morgan State game, VMI had won 27 straight non-conference home games and 30 of their last 31. That streak ended with the buzzer-beater 81-80 loss to MSU. VMI had not lost a non-conference home game since facing Army on Dec. 1, 2007.

Overtime Buzzer-Beater Sinks Keydets Against Morgan State:

A full court pass with two seconds remaining in overtime led to an Ian Chiles game-winning layup, giving the Morgan State Bears an 81-80 win over the VMI Keydets in non-conference basketball action Dec. 1 at Cameron Hall.

After the Keydets (3-5) had scored the final five points of regulation to tie the game, VMI pulled ahead by as many as four in overtime, going up 79-75 with three minutes remaining. Morgan State (3-3) went 4 of 6 at the foul line over the next 2:22, however, and that made it an 80-79 contest with just 38 seconds on the clock. Rodney Glasgow missed a 10-foot leaner late in the shot clock, and after a timeout, Thair Heath found Chiles with the full court pass and the 7'2" center converted a left-handed lay-in over two Keydets as the clock ran out, giving the visitors the dramatic victory.

The Keydets were led by Stan Okoye, who had 29 points and 11 rebounds, while Brian Brown added 17 points of his own.

VMI Falls to WVU, 94-69:

D.J. Covington had 12 points, seven rebounds and three blocks for the VMI Keydets, but the West Virginia Mountaineers put seven players in double figures and had 60 points in the paint, leading to a 94-69 WVU win Nov. 28.

Okoye averaged 26.0 points, 11.5 rebounds, 3.5 steals, 3.5 assists and 2.0 blocks in leading the Keydets to two wins during the week. He opened his week with 22 points, seven rebounds, four steals and three assists in VMI's 76-71 road win at Old Dominion. Against Elon on Saturday, he tallied 30 points and 16 rebounds in leading VMI to the nine-point victory.

Keydets Down Elon:

Stan Okoye notched 30 points and 16 rebounds, propelling the Keydets to a 90-81 win over the Elon Phoenix in non-conference basketball action Saturday, Nov. 24 at Cameron Hall in Lexington.

After a first half that saw the two teams notch 11 lead changes and four ties, the teams continued to go back and forth early in the second half. There were three ties and one lead change in the first 4:34 of the half, with the final tie being on a Lucas Troutman jumper for Elon at the 15:26 mark that tied the game at 54. Brian Brown scored the next time down the floor to start a 6-0 run that put VMI ahead for good.

Notable Facts from Stan Okoye vs. Elon:

Stan Okoye had one of the best games of his collegiate career on Nov. 24 against Elon, propelling VMI to victory with 30 points, 16 rebounds, four assists, three steals and a pair of blocks. Here are notable facts about Okoye's performance in that game:

It was his second 30-plus point game this season (Army), doubling the number of games with at least 30 points he had entering the season (Okoye scored 30 points against Presbyterian his sophomore season).

It was the second-most rebounds of his career, trailing only his career-high against Campbell last year.

Okoye passed Radee Skipworth and tied Will Bynum on the career scoring list, while also moving into seventh on the all-time Institute rebounding chart, passing Charlie Schmaus.

Keydets Down ODU, 76-71, Beat Monarchs For First Time Since '78:

Stan Okoye had a game-high 22 points, D.J. Covington had a double-double to go along with his seven blocks and the VMI defense forced several key turnovers in the final three minutes as the Keydets defeated the Old Dominion Monarchs, 76-71, in basketball action Nov. 21 at the Constant Center in Norfolk, Va. The victory is VMI's first win over Old Dominion since Jan. 25, 1978.

THE SERIES VS. PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE

This is the 10th meeting all-time between the Keydets and the Blue Hose in a series that began in 1957.

That first meeting was in Lexington, a 94-87 win for the Keydets.

VMI holds a 5-4 edge in the all-time series.

which came after Glasgow's three-point play on ODU's final possession of the game, tied for the second-most in a game in VMI history. Lewis Preston had seven blocks against Marshall on Jan. 18, 1992, while Covington and Eric Mann are in the record books having each posted nine blocks in a VMI game.

Keydets Announce Three Early Signees:

On Nov. 20, VMI head basketball coach Duggar Baucom announced the signings of three recruits in the November early signing period.

Joining the VMI basketball program for the 2013-14 season are QJ Peterson (G, 6-1, Hedgesville, WV./Hedgesville H.S./Massanutten Military Prep), Trey Chapman (F, 6-7, Greensboro, NC, Wesleyan Christian Academy), and Craig Hinton, Jr. (F, 6-7, Kernersville, NC, East Forsyth H.S.).

Peterson currently plays for the Massanutten Military Academy Prep team coached by Chad Myers. He averaged 21 points per game, six rebounds, and four assists per game at Hedgesville High School his senior year under coach Kelly Church.

Chapman plays for one of the top 5 ranked private schools in North Carolina and is off to a great start in the new season averaging 18.5 points and seven rebounds through the first three games. Wesleyan Christian Academy is coached by Keith Gatlin.

Hinton, Jr. averaged 15 points and 10 rebounds with two blocks per game his junior year for East Forsyth coached by Mike Muse.

Keydets Fall to Virginia Tech, 95-80:

A career night for junior center D.J. Covington was not enough as the VMI basketball team battled with nearby foe Virginia Tech, as the Hokies took the 130th meeting between the teams 95-80 Thursday night, Nov. 15 in Blacksburg, Va.

Covington finished with a career-high and game-high tying 23 points at Cassell Coliseum, hitting 10 of his 17 shots from the field. With his point total, Covington helped VMI post a 20-point scorer in each of the first four games on the young season.

VMI Downs Central Penn in Home Opener:

The VMI Keydets placed six players in double figures, led by 20 points apiece from D.J. Covington and Brian Brown, enabling them to cruise past the Central Penn College Knights, 116-81, in men's basketball action Tuesday night, Nov. 14 at Cameron Hall in Lexington, Va. The game was VMI's home opener and marked the seventh straight year the Keydets had won their first game at Cameron Hall.

With the triumph, the Keydets (1-2) have now won 26 consecutive non-conference games at Cameron Hall, with the last setback in that streak being on Dec. 1, 2007, a 71-69 loss to Army.

Coaching Staff Changes:

This summer, VMI made a pair of coaching staff changes, adding one coach and promoting another. Longtime VMI assistant Jason Allison was promoted to Associate Coach - Recruiting Coordinator, and Ryan Mattocks was hired as the team's newest assistant.

Mattocks' (Duke '11) primary duties include assisting the staff with practice and game preparation, scouting, recruiting, and player development. Mattocks also coordinates team travel and oversees study hall during the academic year. Allison begins his eighth season on Baucom's VMI staff and has spearheaded the Keydet basketball recruiting efforts over that time.
