Keydets return eight lettermen from last year's team and four of the team's top five scorers from the 2012-13 season...VMI must replace 2012-13 Big South Player of the Year Stan Okoye who led the Big South Conference in scoring (21.5) and rebounding (9.4) and was also named an NABC All-District 3 recipient...Senior center D.J. Covington was named to the 2013-14 preseason Big South All-Conference team...Covington is VMI's leading returning scorer and was the 2012-13 BSC Defensive Player of the Year and led the BSC in field goal pct. in both overall and conference games...Senior guard Rodney Glasgow is VMI's second leading returning scorer and ranked first in the league in assist-turnover ratio in both overall and conference games (2.46/3.19)...Sophomore forward Jordan

Weethee returns to action after redshirting in 2012-13 because of knee surgery. Weethee shot 40.3% from 3-point range as a freshman... Among the six new freshman on the team, one is Ot Elmore, son of Gay Elmore '86 who was twice Southern Conference Player of the Year while playing for the Keydets in 1986 and 1987...VMI head coach Duggar Baucom became VMI's all-time leader in wins last year and enters the season with 118 victories...The Keydets have advanced to the Big South tournament semifinals in five of the last seven years and made three championship game appearances over the same time frame...VMI will be hosting its first ever Cameron Hall regular season tournament when it opens up the season in the Third Annual All-Military Classic November 8-9 that will be carried by ESPNU and ESPN3...VMI will be playing its final season in the Big South Conference and will return to the Southern Conference in 2014-15 where it held membership from 1924 through 2003.

VMI Head Coach Duggar Baucom

close to 100% , but Rodney had his hand broken in September and we just got him back for practice this week. Brian Brown had a good summer and has gotten better and Jordan Weethee is much more mobile than I thought he would be at this point. When his shots start falling he will get his confidence back and that will be a good thing."

On replacing Stan Okoye :

"I told the guys the first day of practice that it's going to have to be done by committee. That was the way we approached it when we lost Reggie Williams (2-time NCAA leading scorer) in 2009. One guy can't replace him and it has to be a collective effort. That 2008-09 team really bought into that. We had a good freshman class that year and also a really good sophomore in Austin Kenon and that team won 24 games. I see some similarities with this group with a good freshman class and a sophomore in Jordan Whethee and some proven seniors in D.J. Covington and Rodney Glasgow. I would certainly like the same results as '09, but going in this team is facing a similar situation."

On building team chemistry in preseason:

"Six guys on our roster had never had a college practice until three weeks ago. So it is certainly new for them. They do have some toughness to them which is good. They battle right through the practices. We've had to throw QJ (Peterson) into the fire with the injury to Rodney (Glasgow), and he is more or less a combo guard and we've had to play him exclusively at the point guard position and he's adjusted well to that. That bodes well for the future.

Jordan Weethee

On Preseason Practice up to date:

"I think our freshmen have played a little bit better in preseason practice than I thought they would. QJ Peterson has been awesome and really good every practice and has been putting pressure on the team he's opposing. He's not a tall guy, but he has length and is very quick. Craig Hinton is very athletic and we knew that, but he's making three's and playing well and Trey (Chapman) and Julian (Eleby) have found their way, too. D.J. Covington has been healthy which is a good thing when he is We'll also get to pair QJ and Rodney together some . If DJ (Covington) stays healthy, that's the key. Jarid Watson has progressed nicely during practice. Phillip Anglade has been limited from practice with a stress fracture so our interior guys situation right now is one healthy - one not healthy, so that's kind of been a committee also. Just getting everybody on the same page is a huge thing this time of year."

On scoring production and rebounding:

"I think it will be spread around. Our emphasis will be paint touches and getting the ball into DJ – paint touches in general – either with the dribble or the pass, but it opens up more things and inside-out threes will shoot at a higher percentage. We certainly want DJ to touch it if not every trip down the floor, then every other trip down the floor and give him opportunities. I think the scoring is going to be balanced. My biggest fear is where are we going to get the rebounds and that's going to have to be collective effort and our guards are going to have to help with that. Gang rebounding has been a theme of fall practice and better offensive rebounding. We put up a chart in the locker room on where we were deficient last year and what we had to do to be better in our league.

Rebounding was certainly one of them. We are never going to outrebound teams just because of our size and the way we play, but we do have to get better at it. I think we have better shooters on the team with the freshmen we have. They have certainly proved that with the shooting drills we've done. Once we get in game competition, we'll see. But we definitely can't shoot 33% with as many 3's as we shoot. We need to shoot a higher percentage."

On the schedule:

"The All-Military Classic is good for our guys and we've had that date marked. getting better throughout the preseason non-conference schedule. It certainly should bring some excitement to Lexington. There are some natural rivalries there and hopefully we will be playing in our second championship if we take care of business on that Friday afternoon. It will be Veterans Day and Founders Day weekend and should be a big event for all of Lexington. Our non-conference schedule is the toughest that's been in place since I've been here. Some of the home-and -home non-guarantee games are with teams that are picked to contend in their league – like Elon and Wright State, and William and Mary is going to be picked in the top half of the Colonial Athletic Association.

Rodney Glasgow

Then you add in three ACC schools (Wake Forest, Virginia Tech, Clemson) and East Carolina which won a school record number of games last year. So it makes for a difficult pre-season. And in the All-Military, anything can happen. We will be on our home floor but ,with those rivalries it is certainly a challenge and it comes down to who plays well."

Head Coach Duggar Baucom

Duggar Baucom begins his ninth season as head coach of VMI Basketball. Since taking over the program, he has injected a brand of fast-paced, high-scoring hoops that has brought the team success on the court and wide-spread acclaim off the court.

Three times in the past seven seasons, VMI has advanced to the Big South Conference finals and, in the process, come within one win of the NCAA Tournament. The Keydets have also led the NCAA in scoring for five straight years during Baucom's tenure, a run that ended just last season, and VMI also had the nation's leading scorer donning their uniform for two seasons. In addition, the 2008-09 team's 24 wins were the second-most in school history, trailing only the 1976-77 team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament's "Sweet 16", and VMI's second-place finish in the Big South was easily its best since joining the circuit in 2003-04.

Since transitioning to the current offensive system, the VMI record books and undergone a major facelift as 77 school individual, team and facility records been rewritten in the Baucom era. The VMI head man has earned multiple contract extensions during his time in Lexington, and has proved himself worthy of such by leading his team to three conference tournament finals and becoming the second-winningest coach in Keydet basketball history.

2011-12 saw the Keydets produce perhaps their most stunning Big South Tournament run, a push that included wins over Radford (at Cameron Hall), Winthrop and Coastal Carolina, the latter coming just days after Coastal defeated VMI by 17 on the Keydets' senior day at Cameron Hall. The Winthrop victory put a #7 VMI team into the conference finals. The senior class from the 2011-12 squad finished its career with 69 wins, making it the winningest such VMI basketball class in some three decades.

The previous season saw the Keydets win 18 games and advance to the second round of the Big South Championship. Those wins included a first round tournament win over Winthrop, VMI's second home conference tournament win in three years after not having hosted a postseason game in the 31 years prior. Senior Austin Kenon graduated as the Institute's all-time leading three-point shooter, and the #5 scorer in program history as well.

One of Baucom's high points was the 2008-09 breakthrough campaign, which began with a win that was described by renowned author John Feinstein as "pretty high on the all-time stunners list". VMI entered the hallowed halls of Rupp Arena and walked away with a historic, 111-103 win over Kentucky in front of a silenced crowd of 22,579. That victory kick-started an unforgettable campaign that saw the Keydets profiled in Sports Illustrated, ESPN The Magazine and the New York Times, along with several other major media outlets, all while winning 10 more games than the previous season and advancing to the program's second Big South Championship Final in three seasons. The season saw Baucom honored as the 2009 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 3 Coach of the Year, while he was also among 10 finalists for the Hugh Durham Award, given annually to the nation's top mid-major coach.

The Keydets' investment in the high-octane approach paid immediate dividends when Baucom and staff rolled out the strategy two weeks before the 2006-07 season opener. The results were astounding. Using an up-tempo system for most of the season, the Keydets won the most games (14) in nine years and advanced to the championship game of the Big South Tournament. The Keydets also set new NCAA season marks in three-pointers, both made and attempted, 3-pointers made per game and steals.

VMI was declared the 2006-07 stat champion in four team categories and two individual categories. The Keydets ranked first in Division I in scoring offense (100.9 PPG), three point field goals (13.4) made per game, assists per game (14.8), and steals per game (13.4).

Individually, junior forward Reggie Williams was declared the scoring champion in Division I after averaging 28.1 points per game. Sophomore guard Travis Holmes captured the steals per game statistical championship with 3.4 per game.

Records fell in bunches that season as well, as by season's end, nearly 75 records ranging from the VMI school annals to opponent facility marks had fresh ink on them.

During the campaign, Baucom's program garnered national recognition for their astounding offensive numbers as media outlets from all across the country wanted to tell the story. The New York Times, ESPN.com and Sports Illustrated.com were just some of the national outlets who featured Keydet basketball.

By leading VMI to the Big South Finals where they fell to eventual champion Winthrop by a slim three-point margin, Baucom guided the Keydets to a conference championship game setting for the first time since 1988.

Baucom became the 29th head basketball coach of the Virginia Military Institute on April 12, 2005, bringing impressive credentials from Tusculum College in Greenville, Tennessee, where he directed the NCAA Division II Pioneers to back-to-back winning seasons including a conference regular season and conference tournament championship. In two seasons at Tusculum, Baucom compiled a mark of 37-19. In 2004-05, the Pioneers finished 18-11 on the year to post their fourth straight winning season. Tusculum caught fire in the postseason as the Pioneers won their first Food Lion South Atlantic Conference Tournament title, while earning the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. Tusculum was eliminated in the South Atlantic Regional quarterfinals, falling 91-88 in overtime to top-seeded and No. 3 Bowie State University.

While at Tusculum, Baucom mentored three All-South Atlantic Conference selections in Brad Hawks (2003-04, 2004-05), Drew Harmon (2003-04) and Greg McIntosh (2004-05). Baucom was named Tusculum's head coach in August, 2003, and guided the squad in his debut season to a 19-8 record while capturing TC's first-ever South Atlantic Conference

Men's Basketball Championship. It was also Tusculum's best basketball record since the Pioneers became a NCAA Division II member. Baucom was named 2004 South Atlantic Conference Coach of the Year.

Baucom was well familiar with VMI basketball prior to his arrival, having served as an assistant at two Southern Conference schools when the Keydets competed in the SoCon. He made his collegiate coaching debut in 1995-96 at Davidson College where he served as an assistant coach with the Wildcats. Davidson had a banner season posting a 25-5 tally sheet while claiming a Southern Conference championship with a 14-0 league mark. The Wildcats were ranked fourth in the nation in scoring margin (+15.0) as they advanced to the National Invitational Tournament.

Baucom also served three seasons as an assistant coach at SoCon member Western Carolina University. While at the Cullowhee, N.C. school, he directed the Catamounts' recruiting efforts and landed several top players including guard Kevin Martin, who was a 2004 first round draft pick of the Sacramento Kings.

Baucom also served as an assistant coach at Northwestern (La.) State in 1998-99 where he implemented a skill development program for perimeter players while directing scouting and coordination of recruiting visits for the Demons. He served the prior three seasons (1996-98) at Mars Hill College where he held a variety of duties including scouting, film exchange, recruiting coordination and the development of Mars Hill's strength and conditioning program.

The Charlotte, N.C. native has over 20 years basketball coaching experience on the collegiate and scholastic level. He started his career as a junior varsity coach at North Mecklenburg High School in Charlotte, N.C. He was later promoted to the varsity coaching staff in 1991 and served in that capacity until 1995 when he left prep coaching for the collegiate ranks. While a prep coach, he also served as head coach of the Amateur Athletic Union's Charlotte Royals from 1992-95, which included his team advancing to the AAU National Tournament.

Associate Head Coach Daniel Willis

Daniel Willis, who has coached under Duggar Baucom for 11 seasons, begins his ninth season on the VMI staff. Willis spent his first two seasons at the Institute as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2007-08 campaign.

Willis was instrumental in installing the up-tempo style of play the Keydets have employed each of the past three seasons, a style that produced the nation's leading scoring team three years running, two appearances in the conference finals and a two-time national scoring champion (Reggie Williams).

Thrown into the fire in his first season at the Institute, Willis filled in admirably for Baucom in 2005-06 when the head coach was sidelined for seven games in January. Willis guided the Keydets to conference wins over Coastal Carolina and Liberty.

"Daniel has worked very hard and has great ownership of this program," offered VMI head coach Duggar Baucom. "I have been fortunate to have him by my side for the last several years. He is going to be a great head coach in the near future."

Willis previously coached with Baucom at Tusculum, and played a key role in the Pioneers' memorable run in 2004-05. Tusculum finished 18-11 on the year to post its fourth straight winning season and the Pioneers caught fire in the postseason - winning their first South Atlantic Conference Tournament title while earning the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth.

Willis handled a wide array of duties as Baucom's right-hand man at Tusculum. Willis served as the program's recruiting coordinator, prepared scouting reports and game strategies for every game, organized budget including travel, recruiting, and purchasing, and coordinated and instructing player development sessions. Willis also monitored the team's academic progress and was the summer and fall camp director.

Willis graduated from Lenoir-Rhyne College in Hickory, N.C. in 2001 with a B.S. in Sports Management and minor in Business Administration. He is the South Atlantic Conference's all-time leading scorer, and was a consensus All-American guard at Lenoir-Rhyne College, where he recorded 1,980 points with the Bears from 1997-01. Willis also worked with fellow Lenoir-Rhyne alumnus and Hickory native Rick Barnes at the University of Texas for three summers.

Prior to his stint at Tusculum, Willis previously served as an assistant coach for three seasons at Southern Conference member Western Carolina University and faced VMI when the Keydets were members of the SoCon. Baucom and Willis served together on the WCU coaching staff as assistants from 2001-03. Willis spent his first two seasons at the Cullowhee, N.C. school as a graduate assistant coach while earning a master's degree, then moved to full-time status on the Catamount staff in 2003-04.

Willis, a native of Hickory, N.C., garnered All-American honors at Lenoir-Rhyne in 2000-01 from three different organizations, including National Association of Basketball Coaches/NCAA Division II All-American Second Team, Daktronics/NCAA II All-American Second Team and the Lutheran Brotherhood College All-American First Team. He averaged a SAC record 24.4 points per game that season, which was third best in the nation that year. He was named SAC Player of the Year, SAC Male Athlete of the Year and Lenoir-Rhyne Athlete of the Year. Willis, a three-time All-SAC performer, also holds conference records in points in a season (660), career free throws made (543), free throws made in a season (195), career free throw attempts (684) and free throw attempts in a season (241).

Willis married the former Tiffany Myers in May of 2010, and their first child, daughter Lexi, was born in 2012.

Jason ALLISON

ASSOCIATE COACH -
RECRUITING COORD.
NINTH SEASON
LIBERTY '99

Jason Allison, a former Big South player in the collegiate ranks, begins his ninth season as a coach on the VMI staff. He was recently promoted to the position of Associate Coach - Recruiting Coordinator.

While at VMI, Allison has played a key role in all facets of the VMI Basketball program, serving as recruiting coordinator and assisting with player development. He has been a part of the prestigious offensive numbers the Keydets have put up each of the past several seasons, and worked with two-time individual scoring champion Reggie Williams '08 during that time.

"Jason has been vital in helping us land quality cadet-athletes at VMI," added Baucom. "He has been able to identify and recruit young men that have excelled on the court, in the classroom and in the Corps while advancing our program significantly. I am very blessed to work with such a hard working, talented staff."

Allison came to VMI after serving two years at King College in Bristol, Tenn. Allison was the Tornados' recruiting coordinator for both the varsity and junior varsity teams.

While on the staff at King College, Allison coached two all-conference players and one all-freshman team performer. The 2003-04 squad finished as co-regular season champs and made an NAIA national tournament appearance.

Prior to his stint at King, Allison coached at Gaston Day School in Gastonia, N.C. where he served as the assistant men's coach during the 2002-2003 season. Gaston Day reached the Final Four of the state tournament and compiled a 28-4 mark.

Allison played for Liberty University from 1995-1998 where he was a part of a Big South Regular season title in 1997 and a part of the best team in Liberty history with a record of 23-9.

Allison began his coaching career at Lynchburg Christian Academy at the age of 22. While completing his degree he served as the head coach of the junior varsity team and assistant to the varsity during the 1998-1999 season. From there, he was an assistant coach at Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk, N.C. during the 1999-2000 season.

Allison, a native of Lincolnton, N.C., received his bachelor's degree in Physical Education from Liberty University in 1999. Allison is married to the former Hope McLaughlin. The couple has a six-year-old son, Riley and their second child, Ryder, is now three.

Ryan MATTOCKS

ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON
DUKE '11

Assistant coach Ryan Mattocks begins his second year at the Institute in 2013-14. His primary duties include assisting the staff with practice and game preparation, scouting, recruiting, and player development. Mattocks also coordinates team travel and oversees study hall during the academic year.

"We are very pleased to have Ryan join our VMI basketball family," said Baucom. "He brings a tremendous amount of energy and enthusiasm to our program. His work ethic and skill set are a perfect fit for us."

A native of Roanoke, Va., Mattocks joined the program after graduating from Duke University in December of 2011 with a BA in History. He served as a student-manager for the Blue Devil men's team for the '98-'99 campaign while rooming with NBA journeyman Corey Maggette (Charlotte Bobcats). Mattocks also volunteered in the basketball office during the 2000-2001 season which saw Duke capture its third National Championship under legendary coach Mike Krzyzewski. During his time in the program, he worked hands-on with five future NBA lottery picks.

Mattocks served as an assistant coach at the high school level in North Carolina for five years, including stints at Apex ('07-'11) and Southern Durham ('06-'07). During that span his teams earned NCHSAA State Playoff nods each year. He helped guide the 2008 Apex team to the Eastern Regional Championship before going down in the State Finals.

Prior to his high school coaching experience, Mattocks found success as the head man at various levels, including leading his Raleigh Elite team to State Championships (AAU and USBA).

Most recently writing columns for renowned outlets MaxPreps.com, nbadraft.net, and Phenom Hoop Report, Mattocks brings tremendous passion and energy to Coach Baucom's staff. He is single and resides in Lexington.

Media Information

The 2013-14 season promises to be an exciting one and we will do everything we can to keep you up to date on the latest with Keydet basketball. If you have a special request or if we can be of further service to you, please don't hesitate to contact us.

WORKING MEDIA: Press and photography passes and parking permits will be supplied to those media outlets regularly covering VMI basketball well in advance of the season. All others are requested to call this office far enough in advance so the tickets can be mailed. Passes may also be left at will call at the Cameron Hall ticket office.

PRESS ROW: All media, both radio networks, and the statistical crew are situated on the east side of the court. Wireless internet access is available for media members on press row.

RADIO: Two telephone lines are already installed for the official visiting station, and a trade-out agreement is desirable. If additional lines are needed, contact VMI Athletic Communications.

GAME INFORMATION: All media covering VMI games will be provided updated statistics on both teams, rosters, and game notes which will include updated conference standings when applicable. Pizza, chocolate chip cookies and drinks will be provided prior to the game.

AFTER THE GAME: A complete statistical package with play-by-play will be available as soon after the game as possible. Both locker rooms are located on the left and right at the bottom of the ramp at the north end of the arena floor. Coaches will be interviewed outside their respective locker rooms and VMI players will be brought out upon request (contact VMI Athletic Communications staff on press row).

INTERVIEWS: All player and staff interviews must be arranged through the VMI Athletic Communications Office.

DIRECTIONS TO CAMERON HALL:

Most of our annual visitors know how to get to the Keydet home arena, but for those who have never visited the city of Lexington, take note:

From the East, North, or South: Follow I-81 to Exit 188 B toward Lexington (U.S. 60 west). Follow U.S. 60 west to Nelson Street into town. Turn right at the intersection of Nelson and Main Streets. Follow Main Street .5 mile to the arena on the right.

From the West: Follow I-64 east to Exit 55 (U.S. 11) and head south toward Lexington. Follow U.S. 11 toward Lexington for .5 mile. Stay to the right across the Maury River Bridge and follow U.S. 11 Business for .3 mile. Cameron Hall will be on your left.

KEYDETS ON THE WEB: Fans and media are encouraged to follow the team on the VMI athletic home page. Timely information on the basketball Keydets will be available to both media and fans alike. The VMI Keydets can be accessed on the world wide web at www.VMIKeydets.com.

ITS VMI, PLEASE: When referring to our athletic teams, it is requested that members of the media refer to this institution as "VMI", or "Virginia Military Institute", not "Virginia Military" or the cryptic "Va. Military". Any help in using the correct moniker would be greatly appreciated. In addition, please do not edit the red, white and yellow colors of the VMI logo traditionally provided.

KEYDETS ON SOCIAL MEDIA

The VMI Athletic Communications office is currently utilizing several methods to communicate with supporters and media interested in VMI athletics. The staff uses Twitter (@VMISID), the microblogging site, to provide updates at many VMI athletic events, including all home basketball games. Fans are encouraged to use special hashtags to join the discussion for each game. That game's hashtag will be made available in various pre-game materials, as well as on Twitter during the pre-game activities.

CoverItLive is also used to provide live blogs that include user questions at several VMI athletic events throughout the year.

VMI IN THE BIG SOUTH CHAMPIONSHIP

2003-04 High Point 75, VMI 43

Danny Gathings had 18 points, and High Point's defense held VMI to 15 points in the first half to spoil the Keydets' Big South postseason debut and hand VMI a 75-43 loss March 2, 2004 in High Point, N.C.

2006-07 VMI 79, Liberty 78

VMI 91, High Point 81

Winthrop 84, VMI 81

In one of the great runs in recent Keydet athletic history, a simple defensive change helped VMI advance to its first Big South Championship final. By moving to a more traditional defense and away from the patented VMI pressure, VMI befuddled a Liberty team that won both games during the regular season, and then did the same to High Point two days later. In the process, the Keydets ended the collegiate careers of Liberty's Larry Blair and High Point's Arizona Reid, two of the best players in Big South history, but VMI's time ran out in Rock Hill, S.C. on March 3, 2007. That day, the Keydets nearly knocked off a Winthrop team that went on to win an NCAA First Round game (and become the first Big South team to ever do so), but a Reggie Williams fall-away three-pointer as time expired was wide-right and VMI fell just short.

2007-08 Liberty 103, VMI 88

After VMI defeated Liberty in the first round the prior season, ending the career of perhaps the best player in Flames' history, Liberty returned the favor the following year. By defeating VMI 103-88 in the tournament's opening round, Liberty ended the collegiate career of Reggie Williams, who retired as (and remains) the Big South's all-time leading scorer with 2,556 points.

2008-09 VMI 96, Coastal Carolina 76

VMI 78, Liberty 58

Radford 108, VMI 94

For the second time in three years, the Keydets made a deep run in the conference tournament. The run began at home, as VMI won the first postseason game ever played at Cameron Hall, and the first such game played in Lexington since 1978, by defeating Coastal Carolina 96-76. VMI then defeated Liberty 78-58 in Radford, moving on to the conference finals. The defense of Ron Burks was key to both wins, as the then-freshman helped shut down CCU's Joseph Harris and LU's Seth Curry. Unfortunately for VMI, Art Parakhouski had 26 points and 18 rebounds for the Highlanders in the title game, overcoming Austin Kenon's championship game record 34 points and sending Radford to the NCAA Tournament.

2009-10 Coastal Carolina 82, VMI 73

After struggling through a 5-13 conference season, VMI drew the #8 seed for the conference tournament and a date with #1 Coastal Carolina. The Keydets fell 82-73 to end their year.

2010-11 VMI 78, Winthrop 73

Coastal Carolina 89, VMI 81

VMI earned its third trip to the conference semifinals in five years with a 78-73 win over Winthrop at Cameron Hall on March 1, but succumbed to top-seeded Coastal Carolina 89-81 in Conway, S.C. to end its season. The loss ended the career of Austin Kenon, VMI's all-time leading three-point shooter and #5 all-time leading scorer.

2011-12 VMI 55, Radford 53

VMI 85, Coastal Carolina 68

VMI 75, Winthrop 55

UNC Asheville 80, VMI 64

After earning the #7 seed in a somewhat disappointing regular season, VMI eked out a 55-53 win over Radford to open the 2011-12 Big South Championship. The Keydets then shocked #2 Coastal Carolina, a team that had beaten them by 17 just four days prior, before routing Winthrop to advance to the title game. A second-half UNC Asheville run, however, ended the stunning NCAA bid. It was VMI's third conference finals appearance in six years.

2012-13 VMI 90, Longwood 86

Charleston Southern 71, VMI 65

After grabbing a first-round bye late in the season, the Keydets had the #2 North seed and drew Longwood. A spirited Lancer squad, led by freshman Michael Kessens' 36 points and 16 rebounds (this would be Kessens' only BSC Tourney game, as he would transfer to Alabama the following season), gave the Keydets all they could handle, but BSC POTY Stan Okoye's 31 points and nine rebounds moved the Keydets to the next round. Charleston Southern, however, proved to be too much and the VMI season ended with a 71-65 loss.
