With the opening of Gray-Minor Stadium in February 2007, VMI Baseball enjoys one of the best collegiate baseball facilities in the region. With seating for over 1,400 fans, covered batting cages, a state-of-the-art scoreboard with video board and a first-class press box, Gray-Minor Stadium lives up to the legacies of two of the most successful VMI Baseball alums to ever wear the Red, Yellow and White.

 \tilde{G} ray-Minor Stadium, named after Senator Elmon T. Gray '46 and Gil Minor '63, became the home of the VMI Baseball program in 2007, and the Keydets did their best to celebrate the new era, going 23-7 at home with several historic wins, including a 5-2 win over #3 Virginia.

In addition to features such as 700 chair-back seats, rebuilt dugouts, professional scout and handicapped seating behind home plate, a concessions stand and large restrooms, Gray-Minor Stadium also gives the Keydets an opportunity to host the program's first night games. Once again, VMI made the most of this new feature, going 7-2 in 2007 under the Lexington lights.

The construction of the stadium came just five years after a complete renovation of the playing surface itself, as both the infield and outfield surfaces were revamped. Also as a part of the Gray-Minor construction, the field received yet another upgrade, as new fencing was installed, raising the fence height to 15 feet around the entire outfield. In 2011, upgrades included padding along the outfield wall and additional upgrades made to batting cages.

Gray-Minor Stadium completes an upgrade of the program's facilities that began in August of 2003, when construction on Paulette Hall, formerly the Patchin Field Locker Room Complex commenced. Along with the improvements and additional square footage, the locker rooms were fitted with audio and visual equipment. The funding for the project, estimated at $1.1 million, was donated by Bill Paulette '69, Minor '63, Senator Gray '46, and the Keydet Club. Paulette Hall was constructed by Paulette's general contracting company, KBS, and was dedicated along with Gray-Minor Stadium on Mar. 27 2007

Head Coach Marlin Ikenberry

VMI '95 ♦ 11th Season ♦ 257 Career Wins

Winningest Coach In Program History

ead baseball coach Marlin Ikenberry, the winningest coach in VMI history, completed a decade at the Institute with the conclusion of the 2013 season. It was a historic season, as outfielder Rob Dickinson chased .400 throughout the spring before coming up just one hit shy and going on to become VMI's first conference player of the year in baseball. Ikenberry protege Matt Winn also had a banner year, becoming one of the top defensive catchers in the region, earning Second Team All-Big South honors and becoming Dickinson's protection in the lineup for the final two months of the season. The Keydets also took 2 of 3 from VCU, and dating back to 2012, had taken 3 of 4 from the Rams at one point - That nearly matched the total number of VMI wins over VCU in series history entering that stretch, a series dating back to the mid-70's. In 2012, the highlights of the year included a season-ending win over VCU at the Diamond, as well as outfielder Jacob Morley earning Second Team All-Big South laurels and Coby Cowgill and Adam Lopez being selected in June's MLB draft. That was the seventh straight year the Keydets had at least one player chosen in the draft.

In 2011, Ikenberry won his 200th career game on March 5 against Bucknell, and closed the season with 221 career victories. That total is the fifth-most in Big South history, and makes him the winningest coach not only in VMI baseball annals, but in the history of the Institute. VMI would go on to post a winning season for the fifth time in seven years, expanding the best run in program history. Two of those wins broke long skids, as VMI defeated William & Mary in Williamsburg for the first time since 1996, and also beat James Madison in Harrisonburg for the first time since the 1976 campaign. The Keydets also hosted the first postseason baseball games in Institute history, welcoming the 2011 Big South Baseball Championship to Gray-Minor Stadium.

The historic season saw Sam Roberts be named a semifinalist for the Brooks Wallace Award, given to the nation's top shortstop, as he completed a year that saw him finish in VMI's career top-10 in 12 different categories. That included finishing first in hits, walks and runs scored, and his strong 2011 campaign saw Roberts be one of two Keydets named First Team All-Big South, joining catcher Alex Haitsuka. That marked the first time since 2005 that VMI had posted multiple players on the Big South's First Team. Roberts went on to be taken in the 26th round of the MLB draft by Oakland. Outfielder Graham Sullivan, meanwhile, led the team in hitting and cracked the program's top-10 list in hits, batting average and total bases en route to Second Team All-Conference laurels. As a whole, the squad posted its fifth-best batting average ever and had the sixth-most hits in program history. On the mound, the team posted its fourth-lowest ERA in the aluminum bat era (4.61), as well as the fourth-most strikeouts (377), second-most saves (15) and tied for the second-most shutouts in school history (4).

Ikenberry became the Institute's head baseball coach on July 22, 2003, after former head coach (and current Yankee hitting coordinator) Tom Slater '90 departed VMI to accept a coaching position at the University of Florida. Ikenberry, who had been Slater's recruiting coordinator and top assistant for three years prior to the promotion, saw immediate strong results. After winning 23 games in his first year and 27 contests in his second season, historic ground was broken in 2006, when the Keydets won 30 games for the first time in program history, while also marking the first time in 41 years that the program posted a winning record. That success continued in 2007, as Ikenberry guided his squad to a 34-21 record, knocking off a pair teams ranked in the top 10 nationally for the first time in program history. As a result, VMI Baseball earned its first-ever national ranking, being tabbed 30th in the country by Collegiate Baseball in back-to-back weeks while also receiving votes in the Writers' Poll.

2008 saw another near-30 win season, as VMI won 29 games and saw pitchers Michael Bowman and Trey Barham selected in the MLB draft. 2009, despite being a down year overall, did bring about VMI's first win in the Big South Championship, as #8 VMI defeated #5 Gardner-Webb in one of the tournament's playin games. Left-handed pitcher Travis Smink was drafted by the Houston Astros at the conclusion of that season, while 2010 saw perhaps VMI's most notable regular season athletic win, a 12-3 win over then-#1 Virginia at Gray-Minor Stadium on April 14. It was the first Keydet win over a top-ranked opponent in Institute history.

During his time at VMI, Ikenberry has been responsible for the signing of three Louisville Slugger Freshman All-Americans, a Southern Conference Freshman of the Year, five Big South First-Team All-Conference selections, the 2010 Big South Freshman of the Year and a 2003 All-SoCon Tournament player. He also accepted Dickinson initially as a walk-on from his alma mater, Douglas Freeman High School in Richmond. The team has also posted 17 all-conference selections. Ikenberry, 40, served as VMI's recruiting coordinator and pitching and catching coach in 2003 and was vital in the staff's remarkable improvement that season. Working closely with the Keydet pitchers and catchers, Ikenberry helped guide the pitching staff to an improvement of nearly two runs in team earned run average from the previous season.

A 1995 graduate of VMI, Ikenberry played for the Keydets and was recruited by VMI Hall of Famer Chris Finwood '88, now head coach at Old Dominion. Ikenberry returned to his alma mater in the summer of 2000 after spending three years at the College of William and Mary as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. While in Williamsburg, Ikenberry recruited two high school All-Americans and freshman All-Americans. In 2000, the Tribe of William and Mary finished with a school record 32 wins and placed third in the Colonial Athletic Association Tournament, followed by a CAA title and NCAA Regional berth the following year. During his time in Williamsburg, Ikenberry coached Major Leaguer Brendan Harris and recruited Major Leaguer Chris Ray. During his coaching career, Ikenberry has helped guide 30 players onto professional careers in baseball. In recent years, Ikenberry was instrumental in the development of pitchers Barham, Bowman, Smink, Cowgill, Lopez, Corey Bachman, Duke Acors, Jeremy Harper, Phil Hendrix and J.J. Hollenbeck as well as catchers Andy Barden and Mike Roberts and infielders Matt Smith, Chad Rice, Kelly Sweppenhiser, Tanner Biagini, Jordan Ballard and most recently, Sam Roberts.

As a cadet, Ikenberry was a four-year starting catcher for the Keydets. While playing, he developed a reputation for his excellent defensive skills and his handling of the pitching staff. He also caught for former VMI and major league pitcher Ryan Glynn. He played on VMI's 1993 squad that advanced to the Southern Conference Championship game and ranked third in the nation in defense. In 1994, he helped the Keydets in setting a then school record for wins along with a third place finish in the Southern Conference Tournament.

A native of Richmond, Va., Ikenberry has two brothers who both attended VMI. Twin brother Merlin Ikenberry was a teammate as a pitcher and designated hitter while his oldest brother Steve Ikenberry is an alum of the class of 1980. He married the former Shannon Marshall in August 2000, and their son, Owen, was born in November 2010.

What They're Saying about Marlin Ikenberry

"Playing for Coach Ike was a tremendous and unforgettable experience. Under his direction, I not only matured as a cadet and baseball player, but also as a leader and a man. If I was able to do it all over again, I would choose my unique VMI experience every time, due to Coach Ikenberry." - J.J. Hollenbeck

"Coach lke developed the committed, disciplined, and competitive person I am today. Learning how to play the game of baseball the right way with an optimistic attitude and a competitive drive for everyday made me a better ball player, but most of all, a more well-rounded individual." - Travis Smink

"Coach Ikenberry has done a wonderful job at VMI, because he has the energy and passion needed to be successful at this level. He is one of the best recruiters in the state, and he is a coach that a parent can trust." - Sam Roberts

"Coach Ikenberry is one of the best, most enthusiastic coaches I've ever played for. He knows the game of baseball and knows what it takes to win at a high level. More importantly though, he's also one of the best people I've ever met." - Mike Roberts

Ikenberry Facts

- Has coached VMI to several landmark victories, including 2010's 12-3 win over #I Virginia at Gray-Minor Stadium, believed to be VMI Athletics' first win over a top-ranked team in any sport. The Keydets have also notched a pair of additional wins against top-10 opponents (both coming in 2007) under Ikenberry, knocking off #3 Virginia and #10 Auburn. Ikenberry has also led VMI to series wins against both Florida and Auburn, the program's first-ever series victories versus SEC opponents.
- Has been a part of five of the last six teams to break the VMI season wins mark. In 1994, was a senior starting catcher on the team that won 21 games; was an assistant on the 2003 team that achieved 24 wins; and was the head coach of the 2005 27-win team, the 2006 30-win squad and 2007's 34-win campaign. He was also an assistant on the 2000 William & Mary team that achieved a school-record 32 victories.
- Needed less than four seasons to become the winningest coach in program history, winning his 105th game on April 13, 2007, a 13-0 win over Coppin State. In 2011, he became the first VMI coach in any sport to reach 200 wins with a March 5 victory over Bucknell.
- Starting catcher on the 1993 VMI team that made the Southern Conference Championship game before falling to Western Carolina.

Associate Head Coach Jonathan Hadra

Fifth Season ♦ VMI '04

onathan Hadra, a four-year letterman and 2004 graduate of VMI, completed his fourth season of his second tour with VMI in 2013. Hadra works with the infielders and hitters, and in 2011, added recruiting coordinator to those duties

In 2013, Hadra saw one of his hitters, Rob Dickinson, post one of the best offensive seasons by a Keydet in recent memory. Dickinson hit .399 and earned Big South Player of the Year honors, becoming the first Keydet to ever earn a conference POTY award. Dickinson was also First Team All-Atlantic Region (American Baseball Coaches Association) becoming the first Keydet to accomplish that, and also Second Team All-ECAC. Hadra also saw Matt Winn earn Second Team All-Big South honors with a breakout offensive campaign, and added third baseman Ray Lopez to his infield, and at times, worked with a quartet containing only freshmen and sophomores. He also tutored Will Connerley at first base, while Connerley led the team in games started there and committed just two errors.

2012 had Hadra protege Jacob Morley enter VMI's all-time top-10 in in five different offensive categories and earn Second Team All-Big South honors, while George Piccirilli was the Second Team VaSID Designated Hitter.

2011 saw shortstop Sam Roberts named a semifinalist for the Brooks Wallace Award, presented to the nation's top shortstop, while Roberts also finished his career in VMI's top-10 in twelve different categories. That included being the Keydet record holder in hits, walks and runs scored, and he went on to be a 26th-round draft pick of the Oakland A's. Outfielder Graham Sullivan cracked the program's career top-10 list in hits, total bases and batting average, and paced the club in hitting during the season (.358), while catcher Alex Haitsuka joined Roberts as a All-Big South First Team honoree, marking the first time since 2005 that the Keydets had two players earn First Team All-Conference honors. As a whole, the team posted its fifth-highest batting average in program history (.300).

The 2010 season was a banner year for Hadra's proteges, as not only did the offense break nine school records, including batting average, home runs and total bases, but the team posted the third-best fielding percentage in VMI history. Then-junior Sam Roberts was a quarterfinalist for the Brooks Wallace Award, presented to the nation's top shortstop, while his fellow infielders Jordan Ballard and Cory Spangenberg also had banner years under Hadra's tutelage. Ballard hit 18 home runs, claimed the career VMI record in that category (41) and was a 33rd-round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies. Spangenberg earned three Freshman All-American honors, was the Big South Freshman of the Year and ranked in the top-10 in the conference in seven different categories.

Hadra, who spent the 2009 season at Bradley, brought five years of coaching experience back to Lexington. Upon his graduation, Hadra coached with VMI in 2005 before working three years at Western Kentucky under VMI graduate Chris Finwood, where he helped the Hilltoppers to a berth in the 2008 NCAA Regionals after capturing the Sun Belt Conference Tournament.

At Bradley, Hadra worked to bring in a freshman class of 16 that was named one of the top recruiting classes in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. Included in the haul were a pair of Junior College All-Americans, a High School All-American and three players that were drafted by MLB clubs. Prior to his stint in Peoria, Hadra worked for three seasons at WKU. During that time, he oversaw outfield instruction, base running and bunting while coaching first base. In 2008, the Hilltoppers were picked seventh in the league's preseason poll, yet made just the third NCAA Tournament appearance in program history after capturing the conference tournament championship. Also that season, the WKU defense ranked third in the nation with a .976 team fielding percentage.

Before joining Finwood's staff in 2005, Hadra spent one season as an assistant coach at VMI. That season, the Keydets broke the school record for wins and knocked off a ranked opponent for the second straight year (#21 Coastal Carolina, 3-2), as Hadra worked with outfielders and assisted instruction in base running, bunting and positional defense.

As a cadet, Hadra was a four-year letterman who graduated with a degree in Economics and Business. Hadra served as team captain his senior year and helped the Keydets break the school record for wins during his junior season. His sophomore season, meanwhile, saw VMI finish with a 16-14 mark in the Southern Conference, breaking the program standard for most conference wins.

Hadra is married to the former Allison Toth, and the couple has a three-year old son, Colton. Their second child, daughter Kennedy, was born in February of 2013.

Assistant Coach Travis Beazley

Third Season ♦ Randolph-Macon '06

ravis Beazley, former Boston Red Sox minor leaguer and Randolph-Macon assistant coach, recently completed his second year, 2013, as the VMI pitching coach. The rotation took the pitching headline efforts, as Connor Bach ranked in the Big South's top 10 in opponent batting average (.207) and ERA (2.81) while developing into VMI's Friday starter, while Reed Garrett and T.J. Lighton each earned a Big South Pitcher of the Week nod for a complete game shutout, with Lighton's marking the first time VMI had blanked Virginia Tech since April of 1962.

In 2012, Beazley's staff saw strong efforts from the bullpen, with closer John Garrett saving six of VMI's 16 wins, while setup man Reed Garrett allowed three earned runs over his final 18 games.

The pitching squad also saw two players drafted, as junior Coby Cowgill (23rd round, Texas) and senior Adam Lopez (21st round, Chicago White Sox) was tabbed in June's MLB draft.

Beazley joined VMI in August of 2011, after spending a year as an assistant at Randolph-Macon, during which time he worked with the pitchers, infielders and hitters for the 2011 ODAC Champions and NCAA Regional participants. He also oversaw the program's recruiting and strength and conditioning, as well as the squad's academic progress.

Prior to his year as a full-time assistant at RMC, Beazley spent most of three seasons in the Boston Red Sox farm system after being selected in the 38th round of the 2006 MLB Draft. He pitched 370 total innings in his career, and led the Boston minor league system in wins and innings pitched during the 2007 season. While pitching for the Red Sox, he spent his fall seasons as a volunteer coach at RMC, working specifically with the pitchers and infielders.

Beazley graduated from Randolph-Macon in 2006, after a standout collegiate career. His 2006 season earned him a litany of awards, including a Second Team All-American Selection, the ODAC Pitcher of the Year honor and the ABCA/Rawlings Division III South Region Pitcher of the Year award. He was also an ESPN the Magazine/CoSIDA First Team All-District All-Academic Selection in 2006, and was a four-year Presidential Scholarship recipient.

Beazley is also a former American Legion Assistant Coach, and has worked camps for VCU, Richmond and Clemson in past years. He is a native of Beaverdam, Va. and a graduate of Patrick Henry High School.

Volunteer Assistant Mike Roberts

Second Season ♦ VMI '09

ol 3 marked the first full season as VMI's volunteer assistant coach for former Keydet catcher Mike Roberts. Roberts worked primarily with the catchers, including Second Team All-Big South honoree Matt Winn, and the baserunners, including outfielder Brandon Angus, who had the eighth-most stolen bases in a single season in Keydet history. He also assisted with outfield work on game days and fulfilled a variety of other roles throughout the season.

Roberts joined the VMI coaching staff for his first post-graduate collegiate coaching role in August of 2012, following a professional career with the Milwaukee Brewer organization, a career that began after being drafted in 2008. Roberts hit .270 with Helena in rookie ball that year and would go on to spend the majority of the following three seasons with the Brevard County Manatees in the Florida State League (Class A). He returned to spring training with the organization this year and played in extended spring training, including at least one appearance against his brother Sam Roberts 'II, a former VMI teammate and current member of the Oakland organization.

The former Keydet catcher returned to VMI in the fall of both 2010 and 2011, serving as a student assistant coach while completing his degree.

As of December 2013, Roberts is engaged to Kathryn L. Nash of Blackstone, Va.

Baseball SID Brad Salois

Sixth Year at VMI ♦ Liberty '07

Pad Salois joined the Athletic Communications office in January of 2008 as an assistant in the Sports Information office, and was then promoted to Associate Athletic Communications Director in the summer of 2010.
Salois is the SID for baseball, women's soccer, swimming and diving and all disciplines of track and field/cross country. In addition, he serves as the secondary contact for football and basketball, including occasional radio roles for Keydet hoops.

During the 2012-13 academic year, Salois was the project leader of the redesign and relaunch of VMIKeydets.com, the site's first overhaul in some four years. He also handled publicity for VMI's first baseball conference player of the year, outfielder Rob Dickinson, and expanded his broadcasting role by doing play by play for approximately seven away baseball games, an increase from the previous year's total. Salois also, for the second straight year, represented VMI basketball at the All-Military Classic, calling both games on local radio for the second straight season, and made his second consecutive trip to the NCAA East Preliminary Round track meet to cover Andrey Dmitriev's competition.

Salois graduated from Liberty in 2007 with a B.S. in Sport Management.

Strength Coach Jimmy Whitten

10th Season ♦ Virginia Tech '90

immy Whitten is in his 10th year as VMI Associate Head Strength and Conditioning Coach, where he has made a positive impact on Whitten came from East Carolina University in August 2004, where he was Director of Strength and Conditioning.

While at ECU, Whitten implemented the strength and conditioning programs for Pirate Football and Men's Basketball for three years. He also headed up the strength programs for the Pirate Baseball, Softball, Men's Track, Men's and Women's Soccer, and Swimming teams.

Prior to his ECU tenure, Whitten was head strength and conditioning coach for UNC Charlotte from July, 1999, to February, 2001. He was also assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, Virginia Tech, for two years after serving as a graduate assistant in the program for two years.

He was a defensive end standout for the Hokies and was named the team's Co-MVP as well as most valuable defensive lineman in 1990. He also held the Captain's Award for Hokie Football in 1990.

Whitten earned a Bachelor of Science in Education at Virginia Tech in 1991 and earned a Masters of Arts in Counseling Education at Virginia Tech in 1996. Whitten is a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and National Strength and Conditioning Association.

A native of Danville, Va., Whitten and his wife, Eileen, have two children - daughter Mandolin, and son Luke.

2014 VMI BASEBALL www.VMIKeydets.com

fter going 20-35 last season, VMI baseball readies for 2014 with five positional starters returning from the 2013 campaign, including team leaders Matt Winn and Jordan Tarsovich. The Keydets are expected to have four redshirt juniors, but no seniors, in their starting lineup to complement a pitching staff that lost just two regular performers from the 2013 campaign. The hurlers that return include senior Connor Bach, who ranked eighth in the Big South in ERA, and redshirt seniors Travis Thomas and Miles McQuaig, expected to anchor the bullpen.

Once again, the Keydets will open with a stiff challenge, traveling to UNC Wilmington the first weekend of the season to participate in a tournament that includes the host Seahawks and Kentucky, both of whom have garnered national attention, as well as top-ranked Virginia. The rest of the schedule includes 2013 regional participants Binghamton and Canisius, both of whom come to Gray-Minor Stadium, as well as trips to defending Big South champion Liberty, Old Dominion and Charlottesville to play UVA.

This year's Big South tournament will be held in Rock Hill, S.C. on the campus of Winthrop University.

A full position-by-position preview for VMI baseball follows.

CATCHER

Matt Winn will be one of the redshirt juniors looked to as a leader for VMI offensively this season, coming off a very strong year last season. Winn was one of 15 catchers to be named a semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award, and the first Keydet backstop to reach that round for the nationally recognized honor, given annually to the best catcher in Division I.

He also was named Second Team All-Big South after hitting .333 with an on-base percentage of .449, a figure that ranked him fourth in the Big South. Winn also threw out 41.2% of the runners trying to steal against him.

The Keydet leader should be backed up by sophomore Red Dowdell, who comes off a freshman year in which he hit .267 with 20 RBI. The Yorktown native was the VMI starter in 12 games behind the plate, and the Keydets had a winning 7-5 record in those contests.

Other catchers will include senior Eric Mayers, who saw limited duty behind the plate last year after converting from the outfield, and redshirt junior Will Connerley, who is likely to play a bigger role elsewhere in the field.

INFIELD

The probable starting infield will be an intriguing quartet for the Keydets, and nowhere is that more true than at second base. Jordan Tarsovich is the projected starter at the position, a year after leading the Big South in walks as VMI's starting left fielder and six months after being named the Valley League MVP. The redshirt junior, who led the Keydets in doubles and ranked fifth in the Big South in on-base percentage, came into VMI with a great deal of experience at second base, but not started a game at the position since coming to Lexington.

Alongside Tarsovich up the middle will be sophomore Ray Lopez,VMls starter at third base last year. Lopez showed a great deal of range at the hot corner, and performed respectably offensively by hitting .279 with 10 doubles and 14 steals. Like Tarsovich, this is a position Lopez has seen before, having played there frequently in high school and even being named All-Section as a shortstop in 2011.

Another redshirt junior is the probable starter at first base, as Cameron Walter is being looked at to fill that role. Walter, noted for his glovework at first, was limited by injuries last season, when he had just 24 at-bats. He did, however, deliver VMI's last walk-off hit, a single against VCU.

Third base is Thomas Stallings' job for the early season, as the junior will get an opportunity to fill a starting role for the first time in his career. Stallings hit well against elite competition last year, posting two-hit games against both #4 Virginia and Virginia Tech among his 98 at-bats.

Backups on the infield will include junior Drew Bryan, who could backup at three of the infield positions, including third base, and David Geary, a sophomore who should see time at the infield corners. Freshman Tyler Tharp, a former all-state first baseman from Virginia Beach's Kempsville HS, and classmate Tanner Dofflemyer, the 2013 co-Player of the Year in the Shenandoah district, will see time at their respective positions as well.

OUTFIELD

Despite the transition of Tarsovich to the infield, the Keydet outfield is in good hands, led by two-year starter Brandon Angus. Angus will take over in center field this year, following the graduation of Rob Dickinson, and does so after hitting .282 and starting all 55 VMI games last season. The junior also stole 22 bases, good for seventh in Keydet single-season history and third in the Big South, and hit his first two career home runs during the season as well.

Playing to Angus' left will be redshirt junior Will Connerley, the likely starter in right field. Connerley saw some time at that position last year, starting six games in right field, but is expected to move there full-time in 2014. His 2013, the first full year he spent in a Keydet uniform, saw him hit .250 in 42 games with time primarily spent as VMI's starting first baseman.

VMI's new starting left fielder is a familiar face in redshirt sophomore Gary LeClair. LeClair returns after taking a redshirt year in 2013, in large part due to a shoulder issue, and looks to build upon a 2012 season in which he hit .245 in 41 games as a true freshman.

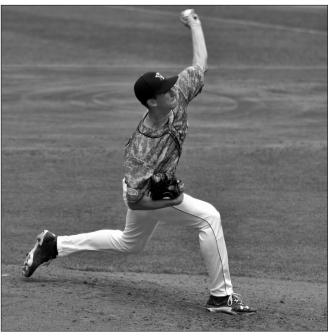

Youth is served among the outfield reserves, as freshmen Josh Worthley and Will Malbon are among that group. Malbon, a left-handed hitting center fielder out of Virginia Beach's Cox HS, is a former All-Beach District honoree, while Worthley is a left-handed hitting corner outfielder who led that district in home runs last season. Junior Sheldon Shifflett may also see time at the corner outfield spots.

STARTING PITCHING

The VMI starting pitching discussion begins with the 6-6 left-hander, senior Connor Bach. Bach had a breakout year last season in finishing with a 2.81 ERA and holding opponents to a .208 batting average. Two of his mainstay moments including eight shutout frames at Longwood (March 22) in VMI's first I-0 win in 25 years, and a run of four straight starts (March 29-April 19) in which he went at least 6 2/3 innings while allowing no more than two earned runs.

Bach will be accompanied in the rotation by junior Reed Garrett. Garrett struggled at times last year, finishing with a 3-8 mark, but appeared to rediscover his form in the late going. That was no more evident than on May 11, when he fired a complete-game shutout of Winthrop, in which he struck out a career-high nine and did not allow a runner to get past first base until the ninth inning. The third spot in the rotation could be an interesting one, with a battle underway to determine it. The early leader in said battle is junior Andrew Woods. Woods comes off a year in which he went 2-1 with a 4.58 ERA but like Garrett, seemed to figure things out later in the year. Woods held Big South hitters to a .169 average, including five one-hit innings against Winthrop on May 11 and 2 1/3 one-hit frames for a win against Coastal Carolina March 30.

The other member of that rotation duel is senior Campbell Henkel. Henkel appeared in 18 games last season, making 12 starts with a 5.20 ERA, but did have some notable efforts that including 6 1/3 shutout inning performances against both VCU and Longwood. The senior also enjoyed a quality effort this summer, making the Valley League's All-Star game and going 5-0 with a 2.20 ERA in the process. The Keydets will be able to mix and match their four starters, depending on needs, and will look to that flexibility throughout the season.

Sophomore Micah Gorman, who did not allow an earned run in 7 $\,$ 1/3 innings last season, may also see time as a midweek starter.

RELIEF PITCHING

Two redshirt seniors, Thomas and McQuaig, will lead the way for the VMI bullpen this season. Thomas returns after undergoing Tommy John elbow surgery late in the 2012 season and missing all of last year, while McQuaig enters his final season after going 0-1 with a 4.50 ERA in 24 innings in 2013. Sophomore Taylor Edens is back after a revelatory freshman campaign, in which he posted a sterling 2.52 ERA that earned him a place on this year's NCBWA Stopper of the Year Watch List, and veterans Rian Ellis and Jonathan Kelley should see time as well.

In addition, a cast of others will be looked to for innings out of the bullpen this year, a cast that includes sophomore Jason Stafford, redshirt freshman Ryan

Bennett and three first-year players, left-hander Austin Heenan and right-handers Jack Gomersall and Blaine Lafin, who has been excellent in preseason. Both Heenan and Gomersall come to VMI with excellent pedigree, as Gomersall was last year's National District Pitcher of the Year and Heenan was the 2012's state strikeout leader while pitching for Nandua HS. .

Designated Hitter

The past two seasons have seen the DH position feature a wide cast of characters for the Keydets, as six different players saw at-bats at the position in 2013 and 10 saw action as the DH in 2012. This year, three hitters are in line to see the lion's share of action: Dowdell, Shifflett and Mayers. Dowdell played in 15 games as the DH last year, doing so as a true freshman, while Shifflett was the player to see the most action at the position, garnering 25 contests as the DH.

Athletic Communications Mailing Address:

VMI Athletic Communications Office 116 Smith Hall Lexington, VA 24450

Baseball Office Mailing Address:

VMI Baseball Office 243 Cameron Hall Lexington, VA 24450 The upcoming season promises to be an exciting one and we will do everything we can to keep you up to date on the latest with Keydet baseball. If you have a special request or if we can be of further service to you, please contact Baseball SID Brad Salois (see left).

INTERVIEWS: Head coach Marlin Ikenberry will be available for interviews following all home games. Players will also be available for interviews at that time. Please coordinate any desired interviews through Brad Salois or other SID representative. Both coach and player interviews outside of postgame situations must be coordinated through the VMI Athletic Communications office. Since cadets do not have phones in their rooms, it is virtually impossible to contact a player directly. However, we will be happy to arrange interviews with any player, usually in the afternoons before practice.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: All photographers are asked to shoot from behind the fences behind home plate and down the first and third base lines. Under no circumstances will photographers be allowed into the dugouts or onto the field during a game. We ask for your cooperation in this matter.

CREDENTIALS: Press and photography passes will be supplied to those media outlets covering VMI Baseball. To request credentials, contact Brad Salois (contact info at left). The passes can be mailed out if time allows, or they can be picked up one of the two ticket booths, either down the right-field line or above the press box.

PRESS FACILITIES: As many as eight spaces are available at each game for working members of the media in the press box, located directly behind home plate. As always, statistics and notes will be available prior to each game and a complete box score and play-by-play will be available approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of each game.

RADIO BROADCAST LINES: Visiting teams wishing to broadcast games from Gray-Minor Stadium are asked to contact VMI Associate A.D./Athletic Communications Wade Branner (540-464-7515) at least two weeks prior to the game.

KEYDETS ON THE WEB: Fans and media are encouraged to follow the team on the VMI athletic home page. Timely information on the diamond Keydets will be available to both media and fans alike. Included are schedules, rosters, stats and the latest notes on the team as well as access to live radio broadcasts. Fans and media can also view a live stats broadcast of most, if not all, of the team's contests. The VMI Keydets can be accessed on the world wide web at www.vmikeydets.com.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE: Baseball statistics for all the Big South Conference schools are compiled throughout the season at the conference office in Charlotte, N.C. For up-to-date information, call Mark Simpson at 704-341-7990 or visit the League's website at www.BigSouthSports.com.

ITS VMI, PLEASE: When referring to our athletic teams, it is requested that members of the media refer to this institution as "VMI", or "Virginia Military Institute", not "Virginia Military" or the cryptic "Va. Military". Any help in using the correct moniker would be greatly appreciated.

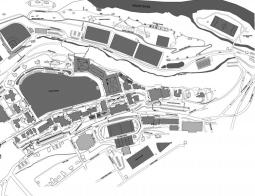

Finding Your Way to Gray-Minor Stadium

From the East, North or South:

Follow I-81 to Exit 191 onto I-64 West. Take Exit 55 off I-64, and the turn left at the top of the exit ramp onto U.S. 11 South.

The bus entrance through Jordan's Point is now open (ALL buses should enter this way) - To reach, proceed on U.S. II S across Maury River Bridge. Take an immediate (first) right toward North Post entrance (Moses Mill), then make first left (Saunders) and continue up road to stadium. Address of Gray-Minor Stadium is 300 Anderson Dr.

From the West:

Take Exit 55 off I-64, and turn right at the top of the exit ramp onto U.S. I1 South. Follow U.S. I1 South to the Maury River Bridge, then follow the directions in the second paragraph at left.
