OPENING DRIVE

SETTING THE SCENE

This game has been circled on the calendar for just under two years as the Blazers look to exact some revenge for a heartbreaking 38-35 loss in the second round of the 2019 NCAA Championship on Nov. 30, 2019. It was the Blazers' last loss as VSU has won nine-straight games since the setback and is one of just two undefeated teams left in NCAA Division II (Ferris State). The Blazers and the Argos were the top two picks in the GSC Preseason Poll and it's fitting it comes down to this game to decide either an outright GSC title for the Blazers or a shared title between the two teams. VSU enters with a 9-0 record overall and a 6-0 mark in GSC play, while West Florida is 8-1 overall and 5-1 in league play with its only loss being at home to West Georgia (30-26) on Oct. 16.

FOR STREAKS

Not only have the Blazers won nine-straight games, tying for the top current winning streak in NCAA Division II (Ferris State, Bowie State), VSU has won 23-straight regular season games against Gulf South competition since 2017 and 30-straight regular season games overall since 2017. Moreover, VSU has won 37 of 39 games overall dating back to the final five games of the 2017 season. The 23-straight conference regular season victories is the second-longest streak in NCAA Division II behind 32-straight conference wins by Ferris State. VSU won a GSC-record 25-straight games from the final game of 2017 to the loss in the second round of the playoffs against UWF in 2019. VSU head coach Gary Goff has won 19 of his first 20 games in Tilletown.

SAUNDS OVER 200

Valdosta State graduate wide receiver Brian Saunders recorded his second game of over 200 yards receiving this past week with 220 yards on a career-high 15 receptions and one touchdown. Saunders was named GSC Offensive Player of the Week for the second time for his efforts Saturday against North Greenville. He set the school-record for receiving yards with 246 on a then, career-high ten catches against Florida Tech, also on Homecoming in 2019. The 220 yards receiving Saturday is fourth-most in school history for a game, while the 15 catches are good for sixth all-time in school history in a game. In addition, the 15 catches sit tied for second in NCAA Division II in a game this season, while the 220

HOW THEY COMPARE

Above is how the Blazers and the Argos matchup in some key statistics nationally and in the GSC heading into Saturday's matchup. Complete rankings for both teams are on pages 22 and 24.

RECAPPING HOMECOMING

On a cold and rainy day, the Blazers battled upset-minded Crusaders of North Greenville on Saturday afternoon. NGU took the early lead and blocked a Blazer punt for a 7-0 lead through the first quarter, marking just the second time all season VSU had trailed and the first time trailing after a quarter. After that, the Blazers quickly erased the deficit with three touchdowns in the second quarter for a 21-14 lead at intermission. The Blazers swelled the lead in the second half to 31-14, before NGU ended the scoring with a late touchdown. The Blazers amassed over 500 yards of total offense for the fifth time this season with 530 yards of offense, including 315 passing yards. VSU had 215 rushing yards, while junior running back Seth McGill had a season-high three rushing touchdowns. Saunders had 15 catches for 220 yards and a score in the game. VSU held NGU to just 258 yards of total offense in the game, including just 73 yards passing as it marked the fifth time this season VSU has held the opposition under 300 yards of total offense. VSU improved to 34-5 all-time on Homecoming and won its third-straight Homecoming Game.

ABOUT THE ARGONAUTS

The Argos are flying high after a 47-7 thumping of then-No. 23 West Alabama last weekend in Livingston, Ala. UWF, who had started slow at times this season, didn't on Saturday as it led 9-0 after the first quarter and 30-0 at halftime. Quarterback Austin Reed threw for 403 yards, eclipsing the 300-yard mark for the fourth-straight game, while David Durden and Ka'Ron Ashley each had two touchdowns. Both were over 100 yards in the game receiving for the Argos, while Shomari Mason had five carries for 66 yards and Anthony Johnson had 59 yards on the ground on 12 carries and a score. UWF had 562 yards of offense and put up 641 the week previously.

BLAZER BITSTHIS WEEK IN THE GSC

All eyes will once again be on the Blazers and the Argos from a national perspective as they battle Saturday afternoon. With a victory, the Blazers would clinch their third-straight, outright GSC title and most likely the top seed in the upcoming NCAA postseason. If UWF wins, the Argos would clinch a share of the GSC title with the Blazers. It would be the first conference title (sharing or outright) for the Argos in program history. West Georgia entertains Delta State in a non-conference game, while Mississippi College travels to West Alabama also for a non-conference game and Shorter heads to North Greenville. DSU gave UWG all it could handle in the conference meeting earlier this season, also in Carrollton, with the home team prevailing 27-26. West Alabama, who is on the outside looking in with a 7-3 record overall from a playoff perspective, hosts MC after the Tigers won the conference matchup in Clinton, 31-28 earlier this season.

CALLING TODAY'S GAME

TALK 92.1 FM will broadcast the Blazer games all season long with Spencer Van Horn and Wade Beale having the call of the games. Fans also can access the broadcast at www.talk921.com.

THIRD NCAA REGION RANKINGS RELEASED

Monday saw the NCAA release its third regional rankings as VSU leads Super Region Two, for the third-straight week, while Bowie State (Md.) is second, followed by Albany State for third. UWF is fourth for the second-straight week, while West Georgia is fifth. Mars Hill sits sixth in the rankings for the second-straight week, followed by Newberry at seventh. Savannah State moves from ninth to eighth this week following the loss by West Alabama. Lenoir-Rhyne moves from tenth to ninth and Fayetteville State returns to the rankings for the first time since the first rankings two weeks ago. The NCAA Division II Football Championship field is scheduled to be unveiled Sunday, Nov. 14, at 5 p.m. ET on NCAA.com. The playoffs begin Nov. 20 and conclude with the NCAA Division II National Championship scheduled for Dec. 18 in McKinney, Texas, at McKinney ISD Stadium. VSU won the national championship there in 2018 with a thrilling 49-47 victory over Ferris State for VSU's fourth national title. The Gulf South Conference has had a team in the national championship each of the past four championships and is 2-2 during that span with wins by VSU ('18) and West Florida ('19). Former member North Alabama lost in 2016 to Northwest Missouri State and West Florida lost to Texas A&M-Commerce in 2017.

33 WINNING SEASONS

With the victory on Saturday at West Alabama on Oct. 16, the Blazers clinched their 33rd winning season in the 39-year history of football at VSU. The Blazers are 313-127-4 all-time and have had 21-straight winning seasons dating back to 2000.

SETH CLOSING IN

Junior running back Seth McGill has had an outstanding season for the Blazers and outstanding career as he has rushed for 812 yards this season with 11 rushing touchdowns for a 90.2 average per game. He has played in 34 games with eight starts for his career. McGill is 12th nationally and second in the GSC to teammate Jamar Thompkins in rush yards per carry (6.6), while McGill leads the league in rushing touchdowns (11) for 18th nationally and he is tops in the GSC in rushing yards (812) for 40th nationally. His 90.2 average per game is good for 34th nationally and best in the league. McGill needs just one rushing score to move into the top seven in school history in rushing touchdowns in a season (12). Former Blazer Cedric O'Neal had 17 rushing scores in 2017 for the school record. McGill's 34 career rushing touchdowns ties him for third all-time in school history as he needs just two rushing touchdowns to match Dominique Ross (1992-94) with 36. McGill's 210 career points on 35 touchdowns (including one receiving score) puts him seventh all-time in scoring history as he needs just 18 points to tie Ross for sixth all-time (228). McGill's 2,207 yards places him eighth in school-history in career rushing yards.

THOMPKINS MOVES UP

Junior Jamar Thompkins is part of the Blazers' outstanding rushing attack as he, like McGill, has had an outstanding career. Thompkins has played in 34 games with 24 starts, while recording 361 carries for 3,026 yards and 27 rushing touchdowns. He has 29 total touchdowns for 174 points for his career. Thompkins' 3,026 yards on the ground is good for sixth all-time in school history as he is just three (3) yards from Tyran Robinson (2001-04) for fifth with 3,029 yards. Thompkins' 27 rushing touchdowns are good for fourth all-time in school history behind McGill and Aaron Jenkins (2000-03) with 34. Both Thompkins and McGill have had outstanding three years at VSU thus far and both have their senior years in 2022 as they look to continue to rewrite the record book.

FIRST IN THE NATION

The Blazers lead the nation in sacks allowed (1) for an 0.11 average per game, while VSU leads the nation in turnovers lost (7). Individually, senior defensive back Mondrell Jefferson leads the nation in fumbles recovered with four.

ONLY TRAILED TWICE

The Blazers were the last team in NCAA Division II to trail in a game this season as UWA scored two touchdowns in the first quarter Oct. 16. The Blazers trailed for 8:30 in the game as they quickly erased the deficit with two scores in a span of 2:33 seconds late in the first quarter to tie the game. From the moment it was 14-0 UWA with 8:14 left in the first quarter, VSU outscored the Tigers 42-3 the rest of the way for a 42-17 victory. Then, last Saturday, North Greenville scored a touchdown in the first quarter and held a 7-0 lead into the second quarter, before VSU rattled off two three total touchdowns in the frame for a 21-14 lead at halftime. The Blazers went on for a 31-21 victory. For the season, VSU has trailed for just 17:44 minutes out of 540 total minutes of football over nine games.

CREATING OPPORTUNITIES

VSU is 11th nationally in turnover margin at 1.11 for tops in the GSC. The Blazers have just seven turnovers on the year for tops in the nation, while they have forced 17 for second-most in the GSC. VSU holds a 62-14 lead on the opposition in points off turnovers.

DEFENSE SCORES

The Blazers recorded their fourth defensive touchdown this season with a 47-yard pick-six in the third quarter at West Alabama on Oct. 16, by junior defensive back Taurus Dotson. The Blazers are seventh nationally in defensive touchdowns as Bowie State leads the nation with seven. VSU has two fumble recoveries for touchdowns from senior Mondrell Jefferson and pick-six interceptions from graduate transfer Christian Matthew (Oct. 2 vs. Shorter) and Dotson at UWA. Senior defensive lineman Arrington Dulin also has a safety this season in the season-opener against Savannah State (Sept. 4).

SPEEDY SAUNDS

For his standout career, Saunders has played in 43 games with 34 starts, hauling in 162 catches for 2,645 yards and 25 receiving touchdowns. He has 58 punt returns for 581 yards for his career and one kickoff return for 30 yards. Saunders has 3,263 all-purpose yards during his time in Tiletown. He also threw a touchdown pass in 2019, going 2 for 2 passing for ten yards. The 162 receptions are good for ninth all-time in school history for Saunders, while the 2,645 receiving yards are sixth all-time in program history. He needs 79 yards receiving to tie C.J. Lofton (1999-02) for fifth all-time with 2,724 yards. Saunders' 25 receiving touchdowns puts him seventh in program history, one shy of 26 from Randy Fisher (1986-89).

BIG GRAB GALLIMORE

Graduate student Lio'undre Gallimore has had a heck of a career for the Blazers as he has played in 39 games with 34 starts, while recording 122 receptions for 2,260 yards and 25 receiving touchdowns. He has 14 kick returns for 432 yards and one touchdown, while recording 2,679 all-purpose yards for his career. Gallimore's 2,260 yards receiving are good for eighth in program history. He had his first career kick return for a touchdown against Delta State (Oct. 9, 2021). Gallimore is 22nd nationally this season in receiving touchdowns to lead the league (9). Gallimore's ten total touchdowns this season is good for 43rd nationally and second in the league behind McGill.

GOOD ON THIRD

The Blazers are sixth nationally in third down conversions at a 0.528 clip for second in the GSC. Conversely, they are 38th nationally and first in the GSC in fewest first downs allowed with 162.

STOUT DEFENSIVELY

The Blazers are seventh nationally in defensive touchdowns (4), while the team is second nationally in passing yards allowed (113.0) for tops in the GSC. VSU is second in the nation in red zone defense, holding teams to a 0.542 clip, while the team is sixth in scoring defense at 12.9 points allowed per game and third in passing efficiency defense at an 88.76 clip. VSU is 22nd nationally in total defense to lead the GSC at 284.4 yards allowed per game. Individually, Mondrell Jefferson leads the nation in fumble recoveries with four, while graduate student Christian Matthew is sixth nationally in passes defended at 1.7 per game and 14 for the season. Senior Nick Moss is 21st nationally in total tackles at 9.1 per game to lead the GSC.

HIGH POWERED OFFENSE

Not only do the Blazers have a stout defense, but also a strong offense as are fourth nationally in total offense at 496.1 yards per game. VSU is 17th nationally and tops in the GSC in red zone offense (0.889), while it is fifth nationally and second in the league in rushing offense at 269.2 yards per game. VSU is seventh nationally second in the GSC in scoring offense at 42.1 points per game. VSU is 40th nationally in passing yards per completion at 113.70 for third in the league, while it has allowed just one sack on the season to lead the nation in sacks allowed (0.11).

GOFF HITS 50 CAREER VICTORIES

VSU third-year head coach Gary Goff hit 50 career coaching victories with the 53-7 win over Savannah State on Sept. 4. Goff now is 58-50 in his 11th season of coaching. Prior to VSU, he coached nine years at Tiffin University in Tiffin, Ohio. Goff is 19-1 during his time at VSU.

began in 1982. The Blazers have the second-highest winning percentage all-time in NCAA Division II with a 313-127-4 record (.703) behind Grand Valley State (412-143-3) with a .738 clip. VSU went 88-27 from 2010-2019 for a .765 average which is good for eighth in NCAA Division II for the decade.

#1 Blazers Fall in Last Second Heartbreaker

VALDOSTA, Ga. - The magical and record-setting 25-game winning streak came to an end Saturday with a 38-35 loss for the No. 1-ranked Valdosta State Blazers in the second round of the 2019 NCAA Division II playoffs to No. 20 West Florida.

VSU ends its season with a 10-1 record, while West Florida improves to 10-2. The Blazers set the VSU and Gulf South Conference record for consecutive wins as they had won 25-straight dating back to a 52-0 win at Shorter on Nov. 11, 2017. The Blazers also had won 13-straight games at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium.

In a game that saw just about everything, and a complete reverse of the first meeting this season between the two teams, it was the Blazers who trailed by as many as 17 points twice in the second half, before staging a huge fourth quarter comeback to take the lead with 2:12 remaining, only to see UWF march down the field on its final drive. On a 4th and one from the one with just over ten seconds remaining, UWF's Anthony Johnson scored his third rushing touchdown of the day to give the Argos a 38-35 lead.

UWF kicked the ball out of bounds after an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty as VSU got the ball at the 50 with six seconds left. Sophomore quarterback Ivory Durham found junior wide receiver Brian Saunders for 24 yards, but time had expired as he tried to get out of bounds with time still remaining on the clock.

Johnson scored his second rushing touchdown with 10 seconds left in the third quarter for a 31-14 UWF lead as the 17-point deficit was the largest VSU had all season. The never-give-up Blazers began the fourth quarter comeback with a 64-yard touchdown strike from Gulf South Conference Offensive Player of the Year junior Rogan Wells to junior Lio'undre Gallimore for a 31-21 score with 14:24 left. Gallimore finished the game with seven catches for a game-high 162 receiving yards and two touchdowns.

Following a UWF punt, marking the first of the game for the Argos, Wells hit Saunders for 38 yards and then found him again for 13 yards to the UWF 19. Sophomore Seth McGill scored from two yards out on 3rd and goal for a 31-28 score.

The Blazer "D" came up with a huge sack on redshirt freshman quarterback Austin Reed on 3rd and 4 from the UWF 47 on the ensuing possession as senior Kahlil Welsh got in the backfield for the fourth Blazer sack of the day, forcing a punt.

With 5:50 left, VSU began at its own 9 and Wells found Saunders, once again, on 3rd and 4 for 10 yards and hit McGill for 11. McGill made the big play of the drive with a 28-yard scamper and sophomore Jamar Thompkins scored from one yard out for a 35-31 lead with 2:12 left, marking the first VSU lead since 7-3 in the first quarter.

Reed hit Tate Lehtio for 18 yards on 4th and 8 from the UWF 27 as the Blazers almost had the game-clinching stop. Lehtio, who had been big for UWF all season, had five catches for 62 yards on the drive and a pass interference penalty added to the drive for the Argos setting them up with a first and goal at the nine.

Reed hit Lehtio for eight yards on third and goal from the nine and then Johnson scored with six seconds left for the winner.

VSU amassed 511 yards of offense in the game, while UWF had 434. VSU was 24 of 33 passing for 345 yards, while UWF was 25 of 37 for 298 yards and one interception. The Blazers had just 151 yards of total offense in the first half and 110 passing yards. VSU finished with 166 yards on the ground on 30 carries.

Wells was 23 of 32 passing for 335 yards and two touchdowns, while Thompkins had 14 carries for 78 yards and a score. McGill had 66 yards on 11 carries and two scores. Saunders had four catches for 71 yards, while Gallimore had an outstanding day.

Reed was 25 of 37 passing for 298 yards, a touchdown and an interception, while Lehtio had 14 catches for 140 yards. Johnson finished with 18 carries for 73 yards and three scores.

Three big things in the game was a 32-yard missed field goal by the Blazers in the first half and UWF was an astonishing 4 for 4 on fourth down in the game, while going 8 of 15 on third down. VSU also came away with two turnovers, but was unable to score on either.

Defensively, VSU tallied four sacks for 25 yards and six tackles for loss for 27 yards. Junior Cory Roberts had ten tackles to lead the team, while sophomore Thomas Incoom finished with four tackles and 1.5 sacks, a forced fumble and fumble return, along with a breakup. Henry Montgomery led the way with 12 tackles and seven solo stops for UWF. Andre Duncombe had a 46-yard fumble return, setting up a touchdown for the Argos.

#1 VALDOSTA STATE BLAZERS 26

BLAZERS CLINCH AT LEAST SHARE OF GSC TITLE

VALDOSTA, Ga. – In a matchup of the two unbeaten teams in Gulf South Conference play, the top-ranked Valdosta State football team held off a furious second half rally from No. 20 West Florida to clinch at least a share of the 2019 Gulf South Conference title with a 26-21 victory Saturday evening at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium.

The Blazers (9-0, 7-0 GSC) ran their winning streak to a GSC record 24 games, surpassing the previous best of 23-straight victories held by North Alabama in 1994-95. VSU also won its 13th-straight home victory and 20th-straight regular season win. VSU put its name on the conference championship for the eighth time and in back-to-back seasons with the win Saturday. The Blazers close the regular season next weekend at rival West Georgia, while West Florida entertains West Alabama.

The victory was no easy game in the second matchup of ranked teams for the Blazers this season. VSU took the opening kickoff and moved right down the field on the GSC's top-ranked defense for a 10-play, 76-yard drive using 5:04 off the clock. Sophomore running back Seth McGill scored from two yards out for a 7-0 lead for the only score of the quarter. In the first quarter, VSU held the ball for 11:39 minutes and had 22 plays for 187 yards, while UWF had just eight plays for 16 yards.

VSU quarterback Rogan Wells hit sophomore running back Jamar Thompkins on a 22-yard pass on 3rd and 6 from the UWF 22 for a touchdown and a 14-0 lead with 13:20 left in the first half. Following a punt from the Argonauts, Wells got the Blazers out of a 3rd and nine at the VSU 37 with a great 22-yard run, but had to settle for a field goal on a 13 play 84-yard drive and a 17-0 lead.

The Blazer "D" kept the high-powered UWF offense in check and forced another punt from Dawson Hamlin, his fourth of the half, as VSU took over with 1:52 left. VSU settled for another field goal from sophomore Fernando Ramirez for a 20-0 lead at intermission.

VSU absolutely dominated the first half to the tune of 402 yards of offense on 45 plays, while UWF had just 20 plays for 62 yards. VSU held a 19-4 lead in first downs, while Wells was 18 of 25 passing for 283 yards and touchdown.

The Argos came out of halftime with a renewed vigor as they used a 10 play, 79-yard drive for 5:12 on the clock as Shomari Mason scored from four yards out for a 20-7 score with 9:40 left in the third quarter. VSU fumbled on its next possession, as UWF quickly turned the miscue into points with quarterback Austin Reed hitting Quentin Randolph for eight yards and a score for a 20-14 margin with 4:11 left in the quarter.

With the momentum clearly in favor of UWF, Wells came up with a big pickup of ten yards on a 3rd and five to avoid a three-and-out on the ensuing drive. Wells then converted another third down with his feet and McGill scored his second rushing touchdown of the game early in the fourth for a 26-14 score as VSU failed the two-point conversion.

Following punts by both teams, UWF took over at its own 33. The offense continued to click in the second half for the visitors as Mason rushed on the first four carries for 41 yards. Following two incomplete passes, Reed hit Tate Lehtio for 16-yards on a 4th and 9 from the VSU 31 and then found Randolph for nine yards. Mason scored from six yards out for a 26-21 score with 5:41 left.

Penalties started mounting for the Blazers as they had to punt from their own six, but redshirt freshman Tyson Shaw got off a 40-yarder with the Argos getting great field possession at the VSU 46. Mason had an initial run of seven yards, but the Blazer "D" got great pressure and threw off Reed's timing with three-straight incomplete passes, along with a big holding penalty on the Argos.

On 4th and 20 from the UWF 44, the Argos punted with 3:33 left. McGill came up huge for the Blazers with a 24-yard run on 3rd and 2, while Thompkins scampered seven yards on 1st and 20 after a penalty on the Blazers. UWF had one timeout left and took it with 1:43 remaining as VSU was able to run the clock out for the victory.

For the game, VSU tallied 538 yards of offense, bust just 136 in the second half, while UWF had 282 total yards and 220 in the second half. VSU had 181 yards rushing, while holding UWF to 92 yards on the ground. VSU went 27 of 37 passing for 357 yards, while UWF was 19 of 32 for 190 yards passing.

Entering the game, UWF was second nationally in scoring defense at 11.0 points allowed per game, while it was tenth in total defense, holding teams to just 264.3 yards per game.

Wells was 26 of 36 for 350 yards and a score, while running the ball ten times for 63 yards. Thompkins had 65 yards on the ground, while McGill had 13 carries for 53 yards and two scores. Junior wide receiver Brian Saunders had some big catches in the game with four for a team-high 98 yards, while Thomkins had three catches for 53 yards and a score.

Defensively, VSU had two sacks for 12 yards and four tackles for loss for 14 yards, while it harassed Reed for five quarterback hurries and five pass breakups. Junior Cory Roberts paced the team with seven tackles, while junior Ja'Davien Williams had three solo tackles, two sacks for 12 yards and two tackles for loss.

Reed was 19 of 32 passing for 190 yard and a score as Lehtio had eight catches for 103 yards and Mason had 12 runs for 87 yards and two touchdowns. Chanler Ferguson and D'Anthony Bell each had 12 tackles, while Ferguson tallied three tackles for loss for seven yards and two hurries.

GARY GOFF

Head Coach | Third Season at Valdosta State
Valdosta State '96 | Business Administration

Head Coach Gary Goff begins his third season at the helm of the VSU Blazers. In 2019 he led the Blazers to a season of 10-1 and 8-0 in Gulf South Conference play, earning Gulf South Conference Co-Coach of the Year honors. Goff continued on the outstanding tradition of VSU football as the Blazers won their first ten games of the season, ranked #1 nationally throughout the regular season and a berth in the second round of the NCAA Division II Football playoffs.

Goff coached a league-best 13 All-GSC selections in 2019 and GSC Offensive Player of the Year Rogan Wells. Wells earned American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) All-America honors, was a finalist for the prestigious Harlon Hill Trophy and recently named the GSC Offensive Player of the Decade. Along with Wells, senior offensive linemen Adonis Sealey and Brandon Kemp earned All-America honors. Junior long snapper Pippin Davis was named Second Team Academic All-America® by CoSIDA. Kemp signed an undrafted free agent contract with the Tennessee Titans of the NFL in April.

Under Goff's guidance, the Blazers continued their outstanding offensive play as the team finished second nationally in third down conversion percentage at a .528 clip. The Blazers were fourth nationally in completion percentage (.701), while finishing 14th nationally in first downs gained (276). VSU was 11th nationally in rushing offense at 260.2 yards on the ground per game, while it was 12th nationally in passing efficiency at 162.12. VSU finished third nationally in total offense at 522.1 yards per game, while finishing 20th nationally in scoring offense at 38.9 points per game.

The Blazers also were outstanding on defense as the team was 32nd nationally in total defense, allowing 311.5 yards per game and held teams to a 111.71 passing efficiency for 33rd nationally out of 166 NCAA Division II programs. The Blazer defense held teams to 124.4 yards per game on the ground for 44th nationally. The opposition scored just 18.5 points per game on the Blazers for 23rd nationally and tops in the conference.

Goff was hired as the tenth head coach in Blazer football history announced Jan. 25, 2019, by VSU Athletic Director Herb Reinhard.

"I am very excited to have Coach Gary Goff join our team and I am confident he is going to be a great addition to Blazer football, the university and our community," Reinhard said at Goff's introductory press conference. "Gary's offenses have been among the most prolific in the country and he will certainly continue and build on our history and tradition of fast-paced, explosive football. I'm also excited about the opportunity to bring back to VSU a Blazer alum. During our search process, I had numerous Blazer football alumni reach out in support of Coach Goff. In addition to his on-field football success, I am very impressed with what Gary has done with his teams' off the field, particularly in the area of leadership development."

Goff came to VSU from NCAA Division II Tiffin University in Tiffin, Ohio, where he has been the head coach of the Dragons for the past eight seasons. In 2018, Goff had his best season at Tiffin as he guided the Dragons to a 9-2 campaign and a 6-2 record in the Great Midwest Conference as the team began the season 9-0. Tiffin was ranked as high as No. 15 in the American Football Coaches Association Top 25 in 2018. Goff had 16 Dragons named to G-MAC All-Conference teams in 2018.

In 2016, Goff guided the Dragons to their first winning season since the 2006 season as the team went 8-3 with Goff earning Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) Coach of the Year honors, the first in program history. He had one of the top offenses in country in 2016 averaging 434.5 yards per game, while his quarterback Antonio Pipkin was a Harlon Hill nominee and was named GLIAC Player of the Year. Pipkin tallied seven Tiffin career records and four GLIAC records, ranking 13th all-time in career total offense, 19th total offense per game, 27th career passing yards, and is only the third quarterback at the Division II level to ever accumulate at least 2,000 rushing yards and throw for 10,000 passing yards in a career. That season, Goff also had the program's first Academic All-American as 74 players finished the 2016 fall semester with a 3.0 grade point average or higher.

Prior to Goff's arrival in 2011, Tiffin University was a combined 2-31 from 2008-2010. "I am truly honored and blessed to return to VSU and carry on the rich tradition of success that has been established within this football program," Goff said. "I want to thank Dr. Carvajal and Mr. Reinhard for the opportunity to lead my alma mater. VSU has always been a special place to my wife and I, and we look forward to joining the community. The previous staff did an excellent job with this team, which is full with talent and potential. I am very excited about working with these young men in pursuit of another championship."

Goff came to Tiffin after a highly successful 2010 season at West Virginia Wesleyan where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterback coach. There, he helped guide the team to a massive turnaround as it was 2-8 in 2009 and went 9-2 in 2010, tying for the most wins in school history. The team was ranked nationally for the first time and broke 12 offensive school records.

COLLEGIATE COACHING POSITIONS

Southeastern Louisiana (2003-04) - Wide Receivers
New Mexico State (2005-08) - Co-Offensive Coord.

West Virginia Wesleyan (2010-11) - Offensive Coord.

Before to West Virginia Wesleyan, Goff coached at Division I Princeton University where he was the pass game coordinator and receivers coach. He also served as co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach at New Mexico State for four seasons as he helped lead the team to second nationally in passing offense and total offense. The Aggies broke 21 offensive school records, while ranking 15th nationally in scoring offense. Goff coached the nation's top receiver, two-time All-America selection Chris Williams, who signed with the Cleveland Browns.

Goff, who has served as offensive coordinator for three teams, also was offensive coordinator at Iowa Wesleyan University (2002-03) and coached at Southeastern Louisiana, helping it to lead the nation in total offense. He also had coaching stints at Woodstock (Ga.) High School and Cherokee (Ga.) High School.

He played for former Blazer head coach Hal Mumme and former offensive coordinator Mike Leach at Valdosta State and graduated in 1996. During his time in Tittletown, Goff helped lead the Blazers to their first Gulf South Conference title in 1996 and the first two NCAA playoff seasons in program history in 1994 and 1996. Goff began as a walk-on for the Blazers in the spring of 1993 after transferring to VSU from the University of Mary in Bismarck, N.D. He then earned a scholarship culminating in being named a team captain in 1996. Goff and the Blazers went 35-13 during his career at VSU under Mumme earning letters in 1995 and 1996. While at VSU, Goff and his teammates helped lay the foundation for where the VSU football program is today.

"I love Valdosta State University and the Valdosta community as much as anywhere I have coached so it means a lot to me that Gary is now the VSU head coach," Leach said, who currently is the head coach at Washington State University. "He is an incredible coaching talent who truly cares about VSU. It is fantastic to know that the Blazer football program will be led by Gary and I look forward to watching him build on VSU's incredible tradition of success."

Goff earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from VSU and holds a master's degree from Tiffin. Goff is a native of Picayune, Miss., and he and his wife Tiffanie have two children, Tyler and Audrey.

Bazemore-Hyder Stadium

Valdosta State's home football field for 35 of the Blazers' 38 years, Cleveland Field at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium offers Valdosta State with a football facility conveniently located adjacent to VSU's main campus.

The original stadium was constructed in 1922 and was named for the late Dr. A.G. Cleveland, who was superintendent of Valdosta City Schools from 1919 through 1949. In the spring of 1996, two legendary coaches from the Valdosta area were honored when the complex was named after the late Wright Bazemore and Nick Hyder.

The original stadium was leveled following the 2003 season and rebuilt from the ground up, providing the Blazers with a state-of-the-art facility for its home games. The seating capacity of the stadium rose to 10,100 including three prime sections featuring theater-style seating with the remainder of the stands featuring benches with seat backs. New SprintTurf was installed on the playing surface while locker rooms were added to each end of the stadium and a new press box was built above the main stands on the home side of the field.

Valdosta State played its first seven seasons at Cleveland Field, tallying a 24-14 record, before returning to the stadium prior to the 1992 season. The Blazers have been dominant since returning to the stadium as they have gone 135-35-1 over the course of the last 28 seasons, including a 99-24 mark since the beginning of the 2000 season.

In 2018, VSU went a perfect 8-0 at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium for its eighth undefeated season at home in program history. The eight home wins in 2018 were the most since recording a school-record nine home victories in 2002. In addition, the eight wins this past season tied the record with the 1994 team for second all-time in a season. VSU is 17-7 all-time in the NCAA Playoffs at home.

Blazers Dominate Savannah State

VALDOSTA, Ga. - Valdosta State junior quarterback Ivory Durham passed for 160 yards as No. 6 Valdosta State combined for 395 yards in a dominating 53-7 victory over Savannah State Saturday night in Valdosta in the season-opener for both teams.

The meeting between VSU and SSU marks the first football game for Valdosta State in 644 days, the last ending in a 38-35 defeat in the second round of the NCAA postseason on Nov. 30, 2019 against eventual national champion West Florida.

Led by third year head coach Gary Goff, the Blazers started the scoring campaign early in the first quarter. VSU stormed down the field off a Savannah State kickoff. With a one-yard rush attempt by junior running back Seth McGill, the Blazers took a 6-0 (missed the extra-point on a bad snap). The Blazers held Savannah State to only 13 passing yards and 35 rushing yards in the first quarter on the defensive side. McGill finished the game with a dominating 75 rushing yards on 11 carries and one score.

The Blazers scored again with 1:28 to play in the first quarter from an over-the-top pass from Durham to senior wideout Lio'undre Gallimore to push the Blazers into the endzone a 13-0 lead. Gallimore finished the game with five receptions and 112 receiving yards and two receiving touchdowns.

The Blazers continued their dominant scoring campaign in the second quarter, with VSU recovering a fumble from Savannah State's Einaj Carter on a miss handled punt and recovered by senior Mondrell Jefferson in the Tigers' end zone for a 20-0 advantage.

The defense came up huge again as the third turnover by the Tigers resulted in a defensive touchdown with 2:23 remaining in the half as Jefferson came up huge again with a fumble recovery at the 21 for a scoop-and-score and a 27-0 lead.

VSU stood tall on the ensuing drive and forced a downs by the Tigers. A critical personal foul penalty on 4th down put VSU in business at the SSU 33 with just one second left in the half. VSU sophomore kicker Estin Thiele hit a 50-yarder to give the Blazers a 30-0 lead going into the half.

The Blazers scored two touchdowns offensively, one on defense and one on special teams in the first half. VSU had 27 plays for 162 yards, going 16 of 74 rushing and Durham was 7 of 11 passing for 88 yards and a score. Gallimore had four catches for 70 yards in the half. Senior linebacker Nick Moss was all over the field defensively with ten total tackles and one tackle for loss in the half.

Savannah State received the ball to start the second half and went 3-and-out for five yards. Durham and the Blazers took over and after two passes, McGill scampered 42 yards to the SSU ten. Junior Jamar Thompkins scored from ten yards out for a 37-0 lead. Durham and Gallimore combined again on the next Blazer drive on a 42-yard pass on the first play of the drive for a 44-0 lead in the third.

VSU went for a 4th and G early in the fourth and were stopped, but the defense stood tall, once again with SSU on its own goal line. Senior Arrington Dulin tackled Jordan Grant in the end zone for a safety and 46-0 lead.

Following a Blazer punt as they pinned SSU at its own nine with a great punt from sophomore John Miller, SSU had its best drive of the game, going 91 yards in nine plays as Jamurian Hartage found Brent Carr for an 18-yard strike and a 46-7 score.

To end the game, VSU went on a 78-yard drive as freshman quarterback Sam Edwards led the Blazers down the field and junior running back Cedric Hollingshed propelled the Blazers into the endzone to bring the final score to 53-7. Edwards finished his first game in black and red with 3 for 4 passing for 25 yards and rushed two times for seven yards. Blazer fans may remember Hollingshed from the 2016 and 2017 seasons where he recorded 130 carries for 691 yards and ten rushing touchdowns in two seasons for the Blazers.

For the game, VSU recorded 210 yards on the ground on 37 carries, while going 16 of 22 in the air for 185 yards passing and scored 21 points off SSU miscues. The Blazer "D" held SSU to just 106 yards rushing on 44 carries for a 2.4 average per rush. SSU set a new school-record for rushing yards in 2019 and was 12th nationally in rushing offense. The Tigers went 6 of 14 passing for 60 yards for just 166 yards of total offense. VSU held the Tigers to 4 of 13 on third down and 1 of 2 on fourth down. Moss led the way defensively for the Blazers with 11 total tackles and one tackle for loss. VSU had four sacks for 24 yards and ten tackles for loss for 37 yards in the game. The Blazers were not sacked in the contest.

VSU improved to 6-0 all-time against Savannah State as this was the first meeting between the two teams since 1996. It marked the most lopsided margin in the series as the previous was 21 points in a 28-7 win in Savannah by the Blazers on Sept. 15, 1984. Looking ahead, VSU makes its first road trip of the season to Richmond, Virginia, to face Virginia Union on Sept. 11 at 5 p.m. The Panthers were picked fifth in the CIAA and fourth in the North Division. Following VUU, the Blazers return home to host rival Albany State on Sept. 18 at 7 p.m., at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium.

Opportunistic Blazers Tame Panthers, 51-7

RICHMOND, Va.- Behind a season-high 559 yards of total offense, 14 points off turnovers, two rushers over 100 yards, and five rushing touchdowns as the No. 6 Valdosta State football team put together a dominating 51-7 road victory at Virginia Union Saturday.

The Blazers (2-0) had a season-high 307 yards rushing and 252 yards passing as junior quarterback Ivory Durham passed for two scores and ran for two, while junior Seth McGill had 129 yards rushing with one score. Four different Blazers each had a rushing touchdown, while graduates Brian Saunders and Victor Talley each had receiving scores. Durham finished 16 of 31 passing and one interception late in the first half and 175 yards passing.

Just like last week, the Blazer "D" was outstanding once again, hold the Panthers without a score until the fourth quarter for the second-straight week, while GSC Defensive Player of the Week Mondrell Jefferson was all over the field with one fumble recovery and one interception for 24 yards. Senior Nick Moss led the team with 14 tackles and eight solo stops and a fumble return for 44 yards.

Through two games, the Blazers have forced six turnovers and five fumbles leading to a 35-0 lead in points off turnovers. Jefferson's fumble recovery was his third of the season and the INT Saturday gave him four turnovers gained for the season.

VUU (0-2) was held in check all night, but managed to rush the ball somewhat effectively, but not pick up big chunk plays. The Panthers finished with 177 yards on the ground and 97 yards passing for 274 yards of offense. Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Week, receiver Charles Brown, was held without a catch in the game as the Blazer "D" clamped down on him, while D2Football.com First Team Preseason All-America kicker Jefferson Souza missed a 27-yard field goal which would've given VUU the early lead in the first quarter. Jada Byers paced the Panthers with 107 yards rushing and the lone TD in the fourth quarter. Byers finished with 225 all-purpose yards and had four kick returns for 107 yards.

The Blazers took a business trip approach to the road trip as it was 650 miles, marking one of the longest regular season trips in recent memory for VSU. The team began its travels on Thursday, staying in Lumberton, N.C. where it practiced and arrived in Richmond on Friday. VSU now has won its last 12 road games dating back to the 2017 season.

After a three-and-out by the Panthers to begin the game and just an 18-yard punt from Keyon Dickens, VSU took over at the VUU 46 and moved to the VUU 39. GSC Special Teams Player of the Week, sophomore Estin Thiele, missed a field goal wide right from 56 yards as he hit a 50-yarder last week against Savannah State.

VUU had a good drive going on the ensuing possession and moved to the VSU 9, highlighted by a pass from quarterback Khalid Morris to Reavis for 22 yards. Souza missed the field goal wide right also with 7:02 left in the first.

Following the miss, it was all Blazers. VSU punted on its ensuing possession, but Reavis fumbled and Jefferson recovered at the VUU 9. Durham found Saunders for six yards and junior Jamar Thompkins scored from one yard out for a 7-0 lead with 4:02 left in the first. Thompkins finished the game with 12 carries for 55 yards and a score.

Opportunistic Jefferson picked off Morris' pass and returned it 24-yards to the 50. On the first play from scrimmage, McGill went the distance for 50 yards and a 14-0 lead. Midway through the second, Durham called his own number on a 2nd and 6 from the VUU 39 for a touchdown and a 21-0 lead with 8:08 left in the half. Late in the half, VSU used an eight play, 80-yard drive as Thompkins began with a 30-yard scamper and later McGill went for 32 to the VUU 2. Durham hit Talley for a score and a 27-0 lead as VSU had a botched snap on the PAT heading into halftime.

To begin the second half, VSU senior Lio'undre Gallimore returned the Souza kick 66 yards, but a penalty on the Blazers pushed them back to the VSU 46 after Gallimore got the VUU 30. VSU was flagged seven times for a season-high 93 yards, while VUU also had seven infractions for just 35 yards in the game. Despite the flag, VSU moved down to the VUU 20 and Thiele connected on a 37-yard field goal for a 30-0 lead. Gallimore finished the with three catches for 31 yards, while he had two kick returns for 87 yards and a long of 66.

Durham scored on a 59-yard run for a 37-0 lead in the third. The Panthers then had their most productive drive of the game, going 13 plays for 76 yards ending the Byers TD run for a 37-7 score. VSU added touchdowns from Saunders and freshman quarterback Sam Edwards hit Talley for 64 yards setting up a 12-yard run from redshirt freshman James Chaney for his first collegiate touchdown and the 51-7 score.

The Blazers return home to host Albany State on Saturday, Sep. 18 at 7 p.m. at Baze-more-Hyder Stadium.

Blazers Weather Lightning, Golden Rams, 21-3

VALDOSTA, Ga. - The No. 3-ranked Valdosta State football team forced four turnovers and defeated Albany State 21-3 Saturday evening/Sunday Morning after a 2:30 h/m lightning delay just before kickoff. The Blazers improved to 3-0 on the year, while Albany State fell to 2-1.

VSU junior quarterback Ivory Durham went 14 of 29 passing for a career-high 207 yards and three touchdowns in the game throwing to three different receivers. Durham also had seven rushes for 42 yards. Senior Lio'undre Gallimore had four catches for 73 yards and a score, while graduate student Brian Saunds had three receptions for 70 yards and a score.

The Blazers had 147 yards rushing and 207 through the air, outgaining ASU 354-213. The defense held ASU to 4 of 21 passing with two interceptions and just 65 yards through the air, while the Golden Rams were led by 94 yards on 17 carries from Marcus Fulks.

Defensively, VSU recorded five sacks for 34 yards and seven tackles for loss for 40 yards, two interception returns and two fumble returns. Reigning Gulf South Conference Defensive Player of the Week, Nick Moss, had eight tackles with five solo stops, while junior Javiontae Martin had seven tackles with one sack and two tackles for loss.

Right after the coin toss, the game was suspended due to lightning in the area. Following the delay, the game finally started at approximately 9:30 p.m., and there was a light rain falling over Bazemore-Hyder Stadium. VSU took the opening kick and marched right down the field. On a 3rd and 9 from the VSU 28, Durham hit Gallimore for 16 yards and a first down. The duo then connected for 12 yards. Later during the drive, on a 2nd and 17 from the VSU 49, Durham scampered 34 yards for a first down. On first and goal from the eight, Durham hit senior Chris Barrett for a score and a 7-0 lead with 9:38 left in the opening quarter.

On the first ASU possession, Fulks coughed up the ball on a 2nd and nine from the ASU 25. VSU senior Arrington Dulin recovered the fumble, but an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Blazers moved the ball to the ASU 40. The Blazers had a bad snap on the punt on 4th down as ASU began at the VSU 31. The Blazer "D" came up big again as ASU quarterback Dionte Bonneau's pass was intercepted by sophomore Jalen Jackson at the VSU 19 and returned 23 yards for the second turnover of the game.

VSU moved to the ASU 26 late in the quarter, but was stopped on 4th and 9 from for a turnover on downs. Early in the second quarter, the Blazer "D" recorded its second fumble recovery of the game as ASU's Kam Ward fumbled from a hit from junior Jameon Gaskin and junior Dallas Anthony recovered as the Golden Rams were driving once again. ASU closed out the half with one of its best drives of the game going nine plays for 69 yards in 3:07 of game time as Gabriel Ballinas kicked a 19-yard field goal as time expired in the first half for a 7-3 VSU lead.

The Blazers had 167 yards of offense in the first half with 86 passing yards and 81 on the ground, while ASU had 60 yards passing on just two completions and 80 yards on the ground for 140 total. Durham was 7 of 17 passing in the half with first drive touchdown pass, while Bonneau was just 2 for 10 with one interception.

The first three drives of the second half resulted in punts, but on the fourth drive and second possession for the Blazers, the Durham and the offense found some momentum thanks to a great run Durham from Durham, going 19 yards on a 3rd and 13 to keep the drive alive. VSU moved to the ASU 33 and Durham connected with Gallimore on a beautiful throw and catch for a touchdown and a 14-3 lead with 5:30 left in the frame.

Blazer junior Taurus Dotson came up with the second Bonneau interception on the ensuing drive on a deep pass to the VSU 25 as Dotson outjumped the ASU receiver and pulled the ball away from him for the pick and the fourth turnover of the game. Once again, VSU was unable to score off the miscue.

Early in the fourth, VSU began at its own 14 and drove down to the ASU 43 when Durham hit graduate Brian Saunds for a 43-yard strike and a 21-3 lead.

VSU improved to 20-2 all-time against Albany State and improved to 11-0 against the Golden Rams in Valdosta. The Blazers have allowed just six points in the last eight quarters in the 38-3 win at ASU in 2019 and the victory tonight. VSU forced ASU into four turnovers, but was unable to score any points off the miscues as the Blazers have forced ten turnovers with just one interception on the Blazers this season for a +9 average in turnover margin. The four turnovers were the most by VSU in a game this season as they had three turnovers in each of the first two games.

The Blazers have a bye week this week and return to Bazemore-Hyder Stadium on Oct. 2 at 7 p.m. versus Shorter University to begin Gulf South Conference play.

Stong Second Half Surges No. 3 Blazers Past Shorter, 49-13

VALDOSTA, Ga. -Behind a 35-0 run in the second half, the No. 3 Valdosta State football team posted a 49-13 victory over Shorter University Saturday evening to improve to 4-0 on the year and 1-0 in Gulf South Conference play.

The Blazers amassed a season-high 574 yards of offense in the game and held Shorter to just 49 yards of offense in the second half as it accumulated 202 yards of offense in the first half and trailed 14-13 at intermission. VSU rushed for a season-high 316 yards and passed for a season-high 258 yards. The Blazer "D" recorded its third touchdown with a house call by graduate Christian Matthew late in the fourth quarter on a 40-yard pick six for the 49-13 margin. VSU senior linebacker Nick Moss recorded 13 tackles and eight solo stops to lead the team, while VSU recorded four sacks and six tackles for loss for 30 yards. It was Moss' second-straight game of double-digit tackles.

After a great start by the Blazers as they forced the Hawks into a punt on the first possession of the game, VSU wasted no time in getting on the board needing just two plays and an 83-yard drive. On the first play from scrimmage, junior quarterback Ivory Durham hit senior wide receiver Victor Talley for 46 yards and then Durham found senior Lio'undre Gallimore for 37 yards and a touchdown with 11:04 left in the first. VSU added its second score of the opening frame on a seven play, 70-yard drive late in the quarter as Durham used his feet for 23-yards on a 3rd and 10 from the VSU 47. He then scored from nine-yards out for a 14-0 lead.

The upset-minded Hawks (2-3, 0-2 GSC) got things going offensively early in the second quarter, following an interception from Durham for just the second turnover of the season on the Blazers as Devonn Lane picked off the deflected pass. With renewed energy, SU quarterback Aeneas Dennis hit Kyle Morlock on a 2nd and 8 from the 50 for 39-yards and then Dennis scored from one yard out for a 14-7 score. Following a Blazer punt, the Hawks took over at their own 13 and Dennis hit John Dietl III for 20-yards on a 3rd and eight and then Dennis hit Tony Bethea for a 28-yard strike and a 14-13 score. SU went for two but the Cam Shirley pass was intercepted in the end zone.

The game remained 14-13 at intermission, but the Blazers came out firing on all cylinders in the second half. The onslaught began with a five play, 75-yard drive to get things started as junior running back Jamar Thompkins rushed for 25 yards on the first play of the half and junior running back Seth McGill had back-to-back 14-yard scampers setting up Durham from four yards out for his second rushing touchdown of the game and a 21-13 lead.

VSU went up 28-13 with another 75-yard drive later in the quarter as McGill scored from five yards out for a 28-13 lead through three frames. The offensive production continued in the fourth as McGill scored his second rushing touchdown of the game, this time from 37-yards out and a 35-13 lead. The Blazers then used the longest drive of the game, going 91 yards on nine plays as Durham connected with Gallimore for his second score of the game and a 42-13 lead. Matthew then had the pick six for the final margin.

After just 216 yards of total offense in the first half, the Blazers exploded with 25 rushes for 236 yards on the ground, while Durham and freshman quarterback Sam Edward threw for 122 yards and the Blazers had 41 plays in the half for 358 yards of total offense.

Thompkins and McGill each went over 100 yards, marking the second time this season the Blazers had two players over 100-yards rushing. Thompkins finished with 108 yards and McGill had 104 yards with two scores. Durham finished with 82 yards on the ground on nine carries and two rushing scores. He was 17 of 32 passing for the game for a season-high 258 yards and two scores, along with one interception. Gallimore had seven catches for a season-high 135 yards and two scores.

The Hawks ran 24 plays in the second half for a total of 49 yards, while the running game was stymied to just 13 carries for 30 yards in the half and Dennis passed for just 19 yards in the second half. For the game, Dennis was 12 of 24 passing for 136 yards, one touchdown and one interception, while Noah Holland led the way with 71 yards on the ground on 18 carries. Dennis had 11 carries for eight yards and one score on the ground.

No. 3 Blazers Blast Delta State, 55-0

VALDOSTA, Ga. -Behind a season-high 401 yards on the ground, the No. 3 Valdosta State football team scored early and often in a 55-0 victory over Delta State Saturday evening at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium. VSU amassed 566 yards of total offense for the second-most this season in a game.

The Blazers improved to 5-0 on the year and 2-0 in Gulf South Conference play, posting their first shutout since a 52-0 blanking of Shorter on Sept. 18, 2018. It was the 26th shutout in program history and the second time blanking the Statesmen (42-0, Sept. 21, 2002, in Valdosta).

VSU won its 19th-straight regular season game against GSC competing dating back to the final game of 2017 and the 26th-straight regular season game overall. VSU now has won 33 of its last 34 games.

Junior running back Seth McGill tallied a career-high 190 yards on 13 carries with one touchdown, while fellow junior Jamar Thompkins had 11 rushes for 135 yards and two touchdowns and junior quarterback Ivory Durham tallied four carries for 29 yards and a score. The 401 yards on the ground is the second-most all-time in program history for the team as VSU tallied 446 yards at Shorter on Sept. 28, 2019. VSU averaged a blistering 10.3 yards per carry on the ground for the game against the Statesmen.

The 566 yards for the game marked the second-straight game and third of the season VSU has eclipsed the 500-yard mark. Last week versus Shorter, VSU tallied a season-high 574 yards of offense and 559 yards at Virginia Union (Sept. 11). VSU finished the game 7 of 14 passing for 165 yards as Durham was 7 of 13 with two touchdowns and 165 yards passing.

Blazer senior Lio'undre Gallimore had a night to remember as he took a lateral from Thompkins at the VSU ten on the opening kickoff and went 90 yards for a touchdown just 14 seconds into the contest and a 96-yard kickoff return for the duo. It was the first kickoff return for a touchdown for the Blazers since Vincent Dallas versus Albany State on Sept. 6, 2014 for 85-yards.

The touchdown was the quickest score of the season for the Blazers and led the game for a season-high 59:46 minutes. VSU entered one of just two teams (Wingate) as the only teams in NCAA Division II who had not trailed so far this season. Wingate battled back from a 14-0 deficit to defeat Limestone Saturday for a 35-17 victory as the Blazers now are the only team in the country to not trail thus far this season. VSU now has led for 276:25 minutes and been tied for just 23:35 minutes this season.

Following a three-and-out by the Statesmen, VSU took over at the 50. McGill scampered 19 yards for a first down and then Durham hit Gallimore in stride for a 31-yard strike and score and a 14-0 lead with 12:44 left in the first quarter.

DSU (2-4, 0-3 GSC) had one of its best drives of the game marching from its own 18 to the VSU 23 as starting quarterback Patrick Shegog had three incomplete passes from the VSU 23. DSU kicker Connor Mantelli missed a 33-yard field goal wide left as the Statesmen came away empty.

VSU suffered its first lost fumble of the season on the ensuing possession, but the Blazer "D" stood tall and forced Delta State into another three-and-out. From there, McGill and the Blazers went to work, once again, with great runs of 12 and 27 yards, while Durham hit graduate student Brian Saunders for 31 yards and McGill ran once again to the DSU 5. Thompkins scored from four yards out for a 21-0 lead with 4:07 left in the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter, Shegog got hit hard and left the game and didn't return to the field the rest of the evening. Cole Kirk came in for Shegog and drove the Statesmen to the VSU 5. Kory Gainwell rushed to the one and then a huge tackle on fourth down from Blazer sophomore Jaylen Jackson stymied DSU with the goal line stand. VSU held DSU to 0 for 4 in the red zone as Mantelli missed three field goals in the game.

VSU then went 96 yards in six plays using just 1:53 on the clock for a 28-0 lead as Durham hit Gallimore for 35, Thompkins ran for 12 and McGill scored on a 35-yard run with 10:14 left in the half.

The Statesmen then had a game-high, 18-play drive for 48 yards, using 7:43 on the clock as DSU converted two fourth downs on the drive. However, Mantelli missed his second field goal of the game, this time from 44-yards with 2:31 left in the half. McGill used a 40-yard run and Thompkins finished the drive with a five-yard score for a 35-0 lead with 57 seconds left in the half. VSU went into the break in complete command of the game and held a 331 to 186-yard advantage in total offense and the Blazers at 223 yards on the ground on just 15 carries. McGill had ten rushes for 176 yards and a score in the half as he and Thompkins were the only two rushers in the half.

Despite leading 35-0, DSU held a staggering 22:52 to 7:08 lead in time of possession in the first half. For the game, DSU had the ball for 37:53 minutes, while VSU held it for 22:07.

The Blazers added two touchdowns in the third quarter from senior Chris Barrett and Durham, while sophomore kicker Estin Thiele connected on two field goals in the fourth quarter from 36-yards and 41-yards.

Defensively, senior linebacker Nick Moss was all over the field, yet again, as he recorded a career-high 17 tackles and eight solo stops. Moss entered the game 29th nationally and tops in the GSC in solo tackles per game at 5.8, while he entered seventh nationally in total tackles at 11.5 per contest. Moss also had one tackle for loss. Senior Cory Roberts had a game-high nine solo stops and 11 tackles total, while VSU re-recorded three sacks and eight tackles for loss in the game.

No. 3 Blazers Tame No. 10 Tiges in Top Ten Matchup, 42-17

LIVINGSTON, Ala. – Trailing for the first time this season, the No. 3 Valdosta State football team didn't panic and quickly erased their early 14-0 deficit as it rolled to a 42-17 victory at No. 10 West Alabama Saturday afternoon. VSU improved to 35-5 all-time against West Alabama and 16-3 in Livingston, Ala. The win garnered VSU its 33rd winning season in 39 years of football.

VSU (6-0, 3-0 GSC) won its 20th-straight regular season game in the Gulf South Conference and 27th-straight regular season game overall dating back to 2017. The Blazers also now have won 31 of the last 32 games overall also dating back to 2017. It was the 310th victory all-time in program history (310-127-4) and the 66th all-time victory against a ranked opponent (66-60-2).

Behind the third-straight game of over 500 yards of total offense, the Blazers recorded 504 yards Saturday on 76 plays and 6.6 yards per play, while holding UWA to 329 yards of offense. VSU rushed for 163 yards and threw for a season-high 341 yards. VSU junior quarterback Ivory Durham went 21 of 31 passing for a career-high 341 yards and three touchdowns with one interception. Graduate student Brian Saunders had a season-high 168 yards on nine receptions and one touchdown, while senior Lio'ndre Gallimore had four catches for 79 yards and two scores. Junior Jamar Thompkins rushed 12 times for 54 yards and a score, while junior Seth McGill had 14 carries for 47 yards and a score.

The Blazer "D" settled down following the 14-0 deficit and stymied the Tigers the rest of the way, spoiling UWA's Hall of Fame Day and 50th Anniversary of its NAIA National Championship football season. VSU outscored UWA 42-3 after the 14-0 hole, moreover, after allowing 271 yards of offense in the first half and 17 points, the Blazers held UWA to just 58 yards of total offense in the second half for 329 yards and no points. Junior Taurus Dotson had an interception return for a touchdown in the game, while senior Cory Roberts helped cause the interception with a big hit. UWA entered the game 18th nationally and second in the GSC behind VSU in total offense at 462.0 yards per game.

For UWA, Demetrius Battle had 17 carries for 99 yards, while Jack McDaniels was 14 of 37 passing for 155 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. Tyriq Martin had seven catches for 90 yards and two score.

The VSU special teams also had a good outing Saturday as sophomore punter John Miller turned field position a couple of times in the first half with good punts as he tallied three punts for 144 yards and a 48.0 average. He had a long of 53 yards, while sophomore and reigning GSC Special Teams Player of the Week, Estin Thiele had seven kickoffs for 450 yards and a 64.3 average with four big touchbacks.

The Tigers (6-1, 3-1 GSC) came out and took the opening kickoff and moved methodically down the field as McDaniels hit Tyriq Martin for nine yards on a third and five and then McDaniels called his own number for 39 yards to the VSU 22. On second and five from the VSU five, senior Cory Roberts looked to have had an interception in the end zone, but was ruled incomplete. From there, McDaniels hit Martin for the score and a 7-0 lead with 11:38 left in the first half. It marked the first time VSU had trailed all season as VSU was the last remaining team in NCAA Division II to not trail in a game this season.

VSU had a great pass from Durham to McGill, but the Blazers were called for offensive pass interference spoiling the ensuing drive as VSU was forced to punt. With the momentum, UWA needed just two plays as Battle rushed for 27 yards and McDaniels hooked up with Martin for the second score on a 39-yard strike for a 14-0 lead with 8:07 left in the quarter.

From there, it was all Blazers as VSU roared back, beginning with a 46-yard strike on the ensuing possession to senior Lio'ndre Gallimore from Durham for a 14-7 score deficit as the Blazers needed just five plays for 73 yards and 2:19 off the clock. After a three-and-out by the Tigers, Durham and Saunders connected for 47 yards on two passes and junior Jamar Thompkins scored on the ground leveling the game at 14 with 3:08 left in the quarter.

Durham hit Gallimore for his second touchdown of the half on a 21-yard pass for a 21-14 with 11:35 left in the half. UWA then used a 16 play, 72-yard drive and settled for a 25-yard field goal from Gabriel Dunkle for a 21-17 VSU lead. Later in the half, Durham found Saunders for a 59-yard strike and a 28-17 lead with 1:38 left in the half. The Tigers moved down the field on the ensuing drive and reached the VSU 19, but Dunkle missed the 36-yard field goal with 12 seconds left in the half.

For the half, Durham threw for 242 yards and three touchdowns on 12 of 18 passing, while Saunders had five catches for 144 yards and a score, while Gallimore had four catches for 79 yards and two scores. Thompkins had six carries for 38 yards and a score. VSU tallied 311 yards of offense in the half, while UWA had 271 yards of offense with 142 on the ground and 129 through the air.

For the fifth time in six games, VSU began the second half with a touchdown on its opening possession (Punt, vs. Albany State). It wasn't easy however, as freshman quarterback Sam Edwards, who had to borrow Durham's helmet came in after Durham's helmet got knocked off and scampered 16 yards on a 3rd and 14 at the VSU 15 to continue the drive. Durham returned and then hit Saunders for 19 yards and 7 yards, followed by freshman Council Allen for 25. Graduate transfer Victor made a great leaping catch for 10 yards and a first down at the UWA 21. Reigning Gulf South Conference Player of the Week, junior Seth McGill, scampered 16 yards for a score and a 35-17 lead.

On the ensuing drive, Battle rushed for 18 yards for the Tigers and McDaniels' pass was intercepted by junior Taurus Dotson as senior Cory Roberts put a huge hit on the UWA receiver forcing the ball in the air. Dotson went 47-yards for the score and the 42-17 lead with 7:57 left in the third. It was VSU's fourth defensive touchdown of the season as it entered the game fifth nationally in defensive scores.

UWA had a good drive moving to the VSU 25, but Dunkle missed his second field goal of the day – this time for 42-yards with 5:33 left in the quarter. The teams played a scoreless the rest of the way.

The Blazers continue on the road next week as they travel to Mississippi College for a 3 p.m. ET game in Clinton, Miss., then return home to host West Georgia on Oct. 30 at 7 p.m. at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium.

No. 2 Blazers Hold Off No. 3 Wolves in Top Five Thriller, 36-34

VALDOSTA, Ga. - In a top five matchup Saturday evening in the Gulf South Conference, the No. 2 Valdosta State football team held off a furious second half rally by No. 3 West Georgia for a 36-34 victory to remain unbeaten at 8-0 overall and atop the Gulf South Conference standings at 5-0.

VSU keeps the Peach Basket for another year and also takes a 3-0 lead in the new Red Clay Rivalry, which was announced as an annual series between the two schools encompassing all sports both schools sponsor, earlier in the week. VSU finished higher at both cross country championships last weekend in Clinton, Miss., for the early lead.

VSU improved to 27-13 all-time against West Georgia and now has won the last three meetings in the series. VSU improved to 13-4 all-time against the Wolves in Valdosta and won the seventh-straight meeting between the two teams in Tithetown. The win also gave VSU its 22nd-straight regular season GSC victory since 2017 and the 29th-straight regular season game overall since 2017. VSU now has won 33 of its last 34 games overall.

UWG (7-2, 5-2 GSC) trailed 27-13 at halftime, but outscored the Blazers 21-9 in the second half and pulled within 33-26 with three minutes left in the third quarter. From there, VSU extended the lead to 36-27 with a field goal from sophomore kicker Estin Thiele with 11:28 remaining in the game.

The Wolves converted two big third downs and had a first and ten at the VSU 32 with 6:30 left in the game. A rush by quarterback Harrison Frost moved the ball to the 21 for a first down, but a big tackle for loss from sophomore Brian Williams brought up second and 13 from the 24. A third and ten followed and UWG converted its fourth third down conversion of the drive to the VSU seven with under four minutes left. On a reverse Frost found Jace Jordan in the back of the end zone pulling UWG within 36-34 with 3:09 left. UWG went 17 plays and 94 yards, chewing up 8:08 off the clock. UWG had two drives in the game of double-digit plays, but VSU held a 30:10 to 29:50 lead in possession time for the game.

UWG elected for the kick into the end zone with 3:09 left and two timeouts. Two runs by the Blazers left them with a third and eight followed by the second timeout by the Wolves with 2:13 left. VSU junior quarterback Ivory Durham scampered for just enough on a nine-yard run for a fresh set of downs. UWG used its final timeout after a short run by the Blazers with 1:20 left. Blazer junior quarterback Seth McGill rushed for three years for a third and five at the VSU 40. McGill, the reigning GSC Offensive Player of the Week, finished with 14 carries for 56 yards and two catches for eight yards. The Blazers let the play clock run all the way down to one with 31 seconds left before calling a timeout. With no timeouts left for UWG, VSU took a knee as the game ended.

In a game that saw the Blazers pile up 488 yards of offense, including 276 on the ground and 212 through the air, Durham finished 19 of 23 passing with two touchdown tosses, while he had ten rushes for 72 yards and two scores. Junior running back Jamar Thompkins had 14 rushes for 150 yards and a score, including a huge 63-yard scamper for a 27-13 lead with 10:39 left in the third. Graduate student Brian Saunders had seven catches for 96 yards, while fellow graduate student Lio'ndre Gallimore had five catches for 49 yards and a score. Freshman Noah Gillan had one catch for 12 yards and a touchdown.

The Blazer defense held the high-powered UWG offense to just 339 yards of total offense in the game as the Wolves entered averaging 478.2 yards per game, for second in the GSC behind VSU and eighth nationally. Frost passed for 228 yards on 27 of 43 with one interception and three touchdowns. Frost entered the game averaging 317.5 yards per game through the air for sixth nationally and the Wolves led the nation in passing offense as a team at 340 yards per game. Quan Harrison, Mechane Slade and Jace Jordan each had touchdown catches for the Wolves. Blazer senior Nick Moss had 13 tackles and three solo stops, while senior Cory Roberts had nine tackles and eight solo stops, along with his first interception of the season and sixth of his career. Leading pass defender, senior Christian Matthew, came up with three huge deflections in the game for 14 for the season. He entered the game seventh nationally and first in the GSC in passes defended at 1.7 per game.

UWG won the toss and deferred as the Blazers started with two passes and one rush - all first downs getting to the UWG 29. After a run to the 27, Durham called his own number and scampered 27 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead with 13:01 left in the first quarter. It was Durham's seventh rushing score of the season. VSU went five plays for 75 yards in just 1:59 for the early lead.

Following a field goal by the Wolves, Durham used his feet, once again, on the ensuing drive for a huge gain on a second and five and then hit Gillan for a wide-open 12-yard touchdown pass for a 14-3 lead with 6:55 left in the first quarter.

Saunders coughed up a punt return at the VSU 21 as UWG took over in plus territory. It was just the second lost fumble of the season by the Blazers as they entered leading the nation in fewest fumbles lost with just one this season. Frost connected with Harrison for a nine-yard touchdown pass, pulling UWG within 14-10 with 14:54 left in the first half.

Durham found Gallimore for a 30-yard strike and a 21-10 lead with 9:04 left in the half. It was Gallimore's ninth receiving touchdown of the season. VSU finished the game 6 of 11 on third down, while UWG was 8 of 13 on the pivotal down.

Frost missed a deep pass to Harrison in the end zone on third down as Cervantes hit his second field goal of the game for a 21-13 VSU lead with 4:04 left in the half. It was a 14-play, 57-yard drive using 5:00 of game time.

VSU came down the field with more great runs and passing as they got the second unsportsmanlike penalty of the game on UWG on a third down in the red zone. VSU then moved the ball to the UWG three for a second and goal with 27 seconds left in the half. McGill, got to the UWG one for a 3rd and goal with 17 seconds left in the frame. After back-to-back timeouts by both teams, Durham rushed in for his second rushing score of the game and a 27-13 lead as sophomore kicker Estin Thiele missed his first extra-point of the season with 13 seconds left in the half.

For the half, VSU had 39 plays for 307 yards, including 22 rushes for 148 yards and 159 passing yards as Durham was 14 of 17 passing with touchdowns. UWG totaled 36 plays for 159 yards on 10 carries for 30 yards and Frost was 14 of 26 passing with one interception and one touchdown. Durham had seven carries for 59 yards to lead the Blazers on the ground and rushed for two scores. Saunders had six catches for 88 yards, while Gallimore had four catches for 35 yards and a score. Gillan had the one catch for 12 yards and a touchdown. Harrison had five catches for 61 yards and a score for the Wolves, while Christian Royalston had three carries for 20 yards. Defensively, Roberts had eight tackles and seven solo stops with the one interception for the Blazers, while Mike Miller had four tackles for the Wolves with three solo stops.

No. 2 Blazers Hold Off No. 3 Wolves in Top Five Thriller, 36-34

VALDOSTA, Ga. -The No. 2 Valdosta State football team scored 21 points in the second quarter, after trailing 7-0 early, for a 31-21 victory over North Greenville Saturday afternoon for Homecoming and Senior Day. The Blazers improved to 9-0 overall and 6-0 in Gulf South Conference play, while North Greenville fell to 4-6 and 1-5 in GSC play.

VSU earned at least a share of its third-straight Gulf South Conference title with the victory and can win the outright title next week with a win at No. 4 West Florida in the regular season finale for both teams.

The Blazers finished the game with 530 yards of offense for the fifth game this season of over 500 yards of offense. VSU had 215 yards on the ground, led by 107 yards on 11 carries from junior quarterback Ivory Durham, while he went a career-high 27 of 40 passing for 315 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. It was Durham's second game of over 300 yards passing this season. Saunders had a career-high 15 catches for 220 yards, marking the second time he has gained over 200 yards receiving as he had a school-record 246 yards on ten catches against Florida Tech also on Homecoming in 2019. Saunders tied his career-high with 10 catches in the first half alone Saturday for 123 yards and a touchdown. Junior Seth McGill had 15 carries for 44 yards and three rushing touchdowns.

With the win on Saturday, the Blazers won for the 34th on Homecoming in 39 seasons, while winning their 23rd-straight Gulf South Conference regular season victory and the 30th-straight regular season victory overall since 2017. Third-year head coach Gary Goff improved to 19-1 at VSU.

NGU came out ready to play and took the early lead as the Crusaders finished with 258 total yards, including 185 on the ground and 73 through the air. Cale Swift led the team with 21 carries for 113 yards and a score on the ground, while quarterback Kaelan Riley had 29 yards on the ground on seven carries and two touchdowns. He went 4 of 10 for 38 yards and one touchdown and one interception.

Defensively, Blazer junior Jameon Gaskin paced the team with 11 total tackles, while Jefferson added eight stops. VSU recorded two sacks in the game and had five tackles for loss. Roberts, the reigning GSC Defensive Player of the Week, had his second interception in as many games and seventh for his career. For NGU, Deandre Mack had nine tackles for the Crusaders and Kameron Burton recorded two interceptions in the game.

After stalling on the first drive of the game for both teams, NGU's Stephen Antley came up with a block on the Blazer punt as NGU took over at the VSU 40. Staying completely on the ground, the Crusaders used a six play, 40-yard drive and Riley scored for a 7-0 lead with 6:10 left in the first quarter. It marked just the second time VSU had trailed all season. Prior to that, VSU had trailed for just 8:30 for the entire season in the 42-17 victory at West Alabama (Oct. 16). NGU held the lead for 8:44 Saturday.

Following a three-and-out by the Blazers, NGU took over and moved down the field, courtesy of a pass interference penalty and a face mask on VSU. Matthew came up with the first blocked kick of the season for the Blazers on a 38-yard field goal attempt from Colin Karhu, keeping the deficit at 7-0. It was just Karhu's second missed field goal of the season as he was 9 of 10 to that point.

After the block, VSU took over at it's 30 and moved to the NGU 29 highlighted by a good catch from Saunders and 14-yard run from junior Jamar Thompkins. On 3rd and nine from the NGU 28, Durham saw an opening and scampered 24 yards to the NGU 4. McGill scored on the ground to tie the game at 7-7 with 12:26 left in the second quarter.

VSU took over after a North Greenville punt and used a huge run from Durham for 26 yards down to the NGU 22. Durham then threaded the needle to junior Victor Talley for a good first down to the NGU nine. From there, McGill scored his second touchdown for a 14-7 lead with 4:31 left in the half.

Riley completed his first pass of the game on a 3rd and nine inside VSU territory and then hit Logan Byrd out of the backfield for a 21-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 14 with 1:13 left in the first half.

VSU used a good kickoff return between Gallimore and Thompkins to the VSU 35. The last time the duo shared a kick return, Gallimore took it to the house on the opening kickoff for 90 yards against Delta State (Oct. 9). Saunders had a pair of good catch and runs to the NGU 31 with 35 seconds left in the half. A run by Durham moved the ball to the NGU 24 and a timeout with 28 seconds left. Saunders made a great route for a 24-yard touchdown catch with a defender on him for a 21-14 lead. VSU went five plays in just 42 seconds on the drive for 65 yards as the Blazers won the toss to begin the game and deferred to the second half.

Following a great catch on 3rd and 7 from Talley and Saunders made his career-record 11th catch of the game for 28 yards down to the NGU 32. Durham then ran for 16 more to the NGU 15. A great leaping catch from Gallimore followed by McGill on an option from Durham for his third rushing score of the game and a 28-14 lead with 1:43 left in the third. It was the second, three rushing touchdown game of McGill's career as he scored three times in the Homecoming victory in 2019 against Florida Tech.

VSU forced NGU to punt on the ensuing possession as VSU took over at its 29. Durham's pass was picked off at the NGU 21 by Burton as Durham thought NGU had jumped offsidelines and floated a ball down the far side. VSU's defense stood tall and forced a three-and-out.

NGU intercepted Durham for the second time by Burton at the VSU 39. A personal foul on VSU moved the ball to the VSU 17. The Blazers returned the favor with a great diving interception from Roberts in the end zone thwarting a key opportunity for the Crusaders to cut into the deficit.

Two more great catch and runs by Saunders, as he went over 200 yards receiving, set the Blazers up at the NGU 10 with eight minutes left in the game. It was Saunders' 14th catch of the day. VSU settled for a 22-yard field goal from sophomore Estin Thiele for a 31-14 lead with 7:03 left.

A halfback toss from Swift set the Crusaders up at the VSU 40 with a little trickeration and then he went 21 yards, going over 100 yards for the game into the red zone. Riley called his own number, once again, for an 18-yard run and a 31-21 score with 5:22 left.

VSU converted one third down on the ensuing drive and then had a 3rd and 3 from its 46 when the Crusaders began using their timeouts and the first one with 2:43 left. Durham called his own number for a first down as he went over 100 yards on the ground for the game. VSU was then able to run out the clock for the victory.

Next Saturday's game likely will be the second top five matchup in three weeks for the Blazers with a scheduled kickoff of 5 p.m. ET in Pensacola, Fla.
