Colorado School of the Mines is fourth, while Grand Valley State rounds out the top five. West Florida is 11th, West Georgia is 12th, while Delta State, Virginia Union and West Alabama all are among others receiving votes. The Blazers face five teams this season in the preseason Top 25 as voted on by the AFCA. Released last week, the Blazers were picked second in the D2Football.com Top 25. West Florida was seventh in the poll, while West Georgia checked in at tenth.

The 29 NCAA postseason victories are good for fifth-most all-time in D2 and third-most among active D2 members (Northwest Missouri State, 52 / Grand Valley State, 36).

HEAD COACH TREMAINE JACKSON

Valdosta State Director of Athletics announced at a press conference on Thursday, Jan. 6, 2022, at a press conference Tremaine Jackson as the 11th head coach in Blazer football history. "I am honored and humbled to be named the Head Football Coach at Valdosta State University," Jackson said. "I'd like to thank Athletic Director Mr. Reinhard and President Carvajal for the opportunity to lead the Blazer football program. It is my intent to continue and enhance the storied tradition of Blazer football for many years to come. I cannot wait to get to Titledown USA to meet the local community and begin our work on the 2022 season! There are three main things that attracted me to Valdosta State, (1) the history, tradition and brand of VSU football, (2) the chance to compete on the national stage every year, (3) the chance to be coached by a seasoned Athletic Director like Mr. Reinhard." During Jackson's tenure at Colorado Mesa, he went 10-3 in his two seasons, including 8-2 this season and posted a thrilling 26-21 victory over then-No. 3-ranked Colorado School of Mines on Oct. 23, 2021, for Homecoming. It was the Mavericks' first victory over a top five opponent since they became an NCAA Division II school in 1994. Jackson's squad went 2-1 in the spring of 2021 during the COVID-19 Pandemic. The 2021 fall edition of the Mavericks finished 13th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 15.6 points per game, while the team was 34th nationally in scoring offense at 33.7 points per game. CMU finished in the top 20 nationally in both total defense (10th – 258.2 ypg) and total offense (16th – 452.0 ypg). Jackson coached two Academic All-America players this season and one AFCA Second Team All-America honoree, along with 21 All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) performers, including RMAC Offensive Freshman of the Year in Karst Hunter.

FOR OPENERS

The Blazers are 27-12 all-time in season-openers and have won three-straight, including a 53-7 victory in 2021 in Valdosta. VSU is 16-4 in home games to open the season and have won its last five openers in Valdosta. Keiser is the 14th different school to open versus Valdosta State in Blazer history. VSU has outscored the opposition 1,045 to 557 in season-openers for an average of 26.8 points per game to 14.3 points per game.

THOMPkins MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Heading into the 2022 season, senior running back Jamar Thompkins is third all-time in school history in rushing yards with 3,280. VS. NON-DIVISION II

The Blazers are playing their first non-Division II game since Sept. 26, 2015, in a 56-22 victory over Cumberland. This marks just the fourth non-division II game since 2000 for VSU (3-0). VSU defeated Edward Waters (now NCAA Division II) in both 2009 and 2012. VSU is 7-0 all-time against current non-NCAA institutions.

MORE PRESEASON HONORS

The Blazers had more preseason honors with the D2Football.com Elite 100 as senior quarterback Ivory Durham and senior running back Jamar Thompkins were named to the second team, while graduate offensive lineman Jeremiah Campbell, senior linebacker Jameon Gaskin and senior running back Seth McGill were named to the Squad Team. In addition, the College Gridiron Showcase announced its Players to Watch this season among small colleges, including Campbell, Durham, McGill and Thompkins.

THIRD STRAIGHT GSC TITLE IN 2021

VSU and West Florida shared the Gulf South Conference title last season, marking the third-straight year VSU has either won outright or shared the league title. The Blazers won the outright title in 2018 and 2019. The Blazers have won or shared nine titles in program history to tie for second-most all-time in GSC history (Jacksonville State) and the nine titles are the most of any current GSC school. Former member, North Alabama, had 13 league titles.

FOURTH COACH TO REACH NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Last season, VSU became the first program in NCAA Division II to have four different coaches reach the national championship game in program history. Chris Hatcher went 1-1 in 2002 and 2004, while David Dean was 2-0 with wins in 2007 and 2012 and Kerwin Bell won in 2018 over Ferris State and Gary Goff lost against Ferris State in 2021. Only VSU and former D2 member North Dakota State are the only programs with three different coaches winning national titles at the Division II level.

VALDOSTA STATE COACHING TREE RUNS DEEP

Since football began in 1982 at Valdosta State, there has been an outstanding lineage of coaches who have come through Titledown. Beginning in 1992, Hal Mumme took over the Blazer program and was off and running in 1994 with the program's first playoff berths in both 1994 and 1996. Under Mumme, who is considered the founder of the air raid offense, has a fantastic coaching tree. Both he and Mike Leach conceived the Air Raid Offense at Iowa Wesleyan College and perfected it in Titledown. Among the coaches under Mumme who came to Titledown are; current Mississippi State head coach Mike Leach, current Houston head coach Dana Holgorsen, Guy Morriss (Kentucky, Baylor, Texas A&M-Commerce), current Samford head coach Chris Hatcher (also Blazer head coach), along with current Samford offensive line coach Shawn Bostick. Former Blazer head coach Gary Goff played wide receiver for Mumme at VSU, and now is the head coach at McNeese State, while Leach was his offensive coordinator and Holgorsen was the quarterback coach of Hatcher. Hatcher then took over as head coach at VSU in 2000. On is inaugural coaching staff were Bostick, current University of Georgia head coach Kirby Smart, along with current Georgia analyst Will Muschamp, who also served as head coach at Florida and South Carolina. In addition, former Blazer head coach and two-time Blazer national champion David Dean served on Hatcher's staff. Dean now is the head coach at West Georgia and is the only Blazer head football coach to win two national titles in 2007 and 2012. On January 10, 2020, Leach became the third former Blazer assistant football coach to be named the current head coach at a Southeastern Conference school. (Leach, Mississippi State), Smart (Georgia) and Muschamp (South Carolina). Former Blazer head coach Kerwin Bell, who won the national title in 2018, now is the head coach at Western Carolina. Along with the coaches listed above, some other notable coaches who have come through Valdosta include; Seth Wallace (Iowa), Doug Belk (Houston), Joe Cauthen (Buffalo), Danny Verpaele (Kennesaw State), Kerry Webb (Western Carolina) and Jeremy Darveau (Western Carolina), to name a few.

1,000 X 3

Valdosta State has three players returning this season who eclipsed 1,000 yards rushing last season. Senior running backs Seth McGill and Jamar Thompkins each had over 1,000 yards on the ground, while senior quarterback Ivory Durham rushed for over 1,000 yards in 2021. McGill finished with a team-best 1,235 yards, while Durham rushed for 1,012 yards and Thompkins for 1,001 yards. VSU was the only Division II team with three 1,000 yard rushers in 2021 and the only school in each of the NCAA Football Divisions.

LEADING THE NATION

The Blazers lead the nation in sacks allowed at a 0.29 clip and have surrendered just four sacks all season for a total of 33 yards. VSU finished in the top ten nationally in 3rd down conversion (8th, 0.491), defensive touchdowns (7th, 4), first down offense (3rd, 338), red zone offense (3rd, 0.932), rushing offense (6th, 255.8), scoring offense (5th, 41.4), tackles for loss allowed (9th, 3.43) and total offense (2nd, 508.7).

FOR STREAKS

Despite the loss at UWF on Nov. 13, the Blazers have had quite a winning streak over the last four playing seasons. Since the final five games of 2017, VSU has gone 40-3 overall and won a GSC-record 25-straight games from the final game of 2017, through the 2019 regular season. VSU won 23-straight GSC regular season games from the final game of 2017 to Nov. 13, 2021.

NO SHUTOUTS

The Blazers lead all of NCAA Division II with 353 consecutive games without being shutout dating back to a 12-0 loss to Central Florida on Sept. 14, 1991. VSU only has been shut out five times in program history. Grand Valley is just behind the Blazers at over 340 games without a shutout.

A HISTORY OF SUCCESS

The Blazers have had an outstanding 39 years of football since the program began in 1982. The Blazers have the second-highest winning percentage all-time in NCAA Division II with a 316-129-4 record (.708) behind Grand Valley State (416-143-3) with a .741 clip. VSU went 88-27 from 2010-2019 for a .765 average which is good for eighth in NCAA Division II for the decade.

ABOUT KEISER

The Seahawks enter the game with a 1-0 record after a 44-7 dismantling of Warner (Fla.) on Saturday. KU put up 538 yards of offense and held Warner to just 121 yards of total offense, including holding the opposition to minus-2 yards rushing. KU went 27 of 34 passing for 362 yards and rushed the ball for 176 yards on 38 attempts. The Seahawks are in their fifth season of football as a program and are an impressive 34-9 under head coach Doug Socha. Last season the Seahawks were 9-3 overall and 5-1 in Sun Conference play, earning a berth in the NAIA Quarterfinals. VSU marks the first NCAA Division II program the Seahawks will face in program history.

TREMAINE JACKSON

Head Coach | First Season at Valdosta State
Houston, 2006 | Interdisciplinary Studies

Discipline. Obedience. Grit. Three words that Valdosta State University Head Football Coach Tremaine Jackson lives by that have become fundamentals in his coaching philosophy. Jackson, who was named by ESPN as one of 45 minority coaches under 45 to watch and to FootballScoop's 2022 Minority Watch List, is in his first season with the Blazers after spending the 2020 and 2021 seasons leading the Colorado Mesa Mavericks.

In just two years in Grand Junction, Jackson raised the bar both on and off the field and has quickly made an impact on the total program in Titletown since he was hired as the 11th head coach in VSU history in January, 2022. In addition to a successful 2022 Black-Red Spring Game, the team produced nearly 600 hours of community service, assisting with Habitat for Humanity, Blazer Kids' Day and the #ValdostaMiracles Softball Game and had 45 student-athletes achieve a 3.0 grade-point average or better in the classroom.

During Jackson's tenure at Colorado Mesa, he went 10-3 in his two seasons, including an 8-2 mark in 2021, highlighted by a thrilling 26-21 victory over then-No. 3-ranked Colorado School of Mines. It was the Mavericks' first victory over a top-5 opponent since becoming an NCAA Division II school in 1994. Jackson's squad went 2-1 in the spring of 2021 during the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Statistically, the Mavericks finished 13th nationally in scoring defense in 2021, allowing just 15.6 points per game, while the team was 34th nationally in scoring offense at 33.7 points per game. CMU finished in the top 20 nationally in both total defense (10th - 258.2 ypg) and total offense (16th - 452.0 ypg). Jackson coached two Academic All-Americans and one AFCA

Second Team All-America honoree, along with 21 All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) performers, including RMAC Offensive Freshman of the Year in Karst Hunter.

Prior to Colorado Mesa, Jackson was the defensive line coach at Texas State and before that served as defensive coordinator at Abilene Christian (2017-18). He also spent time as assistant head coach at the University of Sioux Falls, helping lead the Cougars to a combined 32-5 record in four seasons. During his time in South Dakota, Jackson assisted in guiding the team to a 2016 Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Championship and postseason appearances in all three years after being promoted to the Cougars' defensive coordinator (2014-16). He began at USF as defensive line coach in 2013.

The Cougars went 12-1 in 2016 as they won their first-ever NCAA playoff game and finished No. 5 in the national poll. Jackson guided 11 defensive players to All-NSIC honors while his unit led the conference in four defensive categories.

In 2015, USF went 9-3 and earned the program's first Division II playoff berth to go along with a No. 21 national ranking following an 11-1 season in 2014 and No. 18 final national ranking.

Promoted to the role of assistant head coach after those two seasons, Jackson coached seven defensive players to All-NSIC honors and a back-to-back AFCA First Team All-America defensive back in Solomon St. Pierre in both 2014 and 2015.

At Abilene Christian, Jackson led one of the biggest defensive turnarounds in the country as the Wildcats recorded their first winning season in their Division I history in 2018 (6-5). Ranking last in the country prior to his arrival, Jackson's defensive unit entered the nation's top 25 in five different team categories in 2018 after leading the Southland Conference in pass defense in 2017.

Jackson, Vice President of the Minority Coaches Advancement Association, has served on several AFCA committees and was recipient of the 2022 Harry Butler Community Service Award for dedicated community service and outstanding volunteerism.

A former student-athlete, Jackson played on the defensive line at Texas Southern for two years after transferring from the University of Louisiana-Monroe. He is a 2006 graduate of the University of Houston, where he obtained a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies.

Bazemore-Hyder Stadium

Valdosta State's home football field for 35 of the Blazers' 38 years, Cleveland Field at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium offers Valdosta State with a football facility conveniently located adjacent to VSU's main campus.

The original stadium was constructed in 1922 and was named for the late Dr. A.G. Cleveland, who was superintendent of Valdosta City Schools from 1919 through 1949. In the spring of 1996, two legendary coaches from the Valdosta area were honored when the complex was named after the late Wright Bazemore and Nick Hyder.

The original stadium was leveled following the 2003 season and rebuilt from the ground up, providing the Blazers with a state-of-the-art facility for its home games. The seating capacity of the stadium rose to 10,100 including three prime sections featuring theater-style seating with the remainder of the stands featuring benches with seat backs. New SprintTurf was installed on the playing surface while locker rooms were added to each end of the stadium and a new press box was built above the main stands on the home side of the field.

Valdosta State played its first seven seasons at Cleveland Field, tallying a 24-14 record, before returning to the stadium prior to the 1992 season. The Blazers have been dominant since returning to the stadium as they have gone 135-35-1 over the course of the last 28 seasons, including a 99-24 mark since the beginning of the 2000 season.

In 2018, VSU went a perfect 8-0 at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium for its eighth undefeated season at home in program history. The eight home wins in 2018 were the most since recording a school-record nine home victories in 2002. In addition, the eight wins this past season tied the record with the 1994 team for second all-time in a season. VSU is 17-7 all-time in the NCAA Playoffs at home.
