In 2012, Wagner Celebrated the 25-Year Anniversary of “The Unforgettable Season”

On September 15, 2012, the 1987 Seahawks were honored on the 25th anniversary of their Division III National Championship in a ceremony on a field that had been dedicated just minutes before as Hameline Field at Wagner College Stadium

THEN

It's a story that's been told many times. It's the story of a tiny college in New York City that defied the odds...and won it all. It's the story of the 1987 Wagner College Seahawks football team.

A group of tough, wide-eyed young men, guided by an energetic, enthusiastic, and driven seventh-year head coach a 36-year old man named Walt Hameline who, a quarter century later, still plies his same trade; nurturing, prodding, molding, disciplining and, above all, leading young men,

The greatest day in the long and illustrious gridiron history of Wagner College came on a sunny December 12, 1987 in Phenix, Alabama, as the Seahawks captured the 1987 NCAA Division III National Championship with a 19-3 victory over the University of Dayton in the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl.

Winners of seven straight and 12 of 13 heading into the championship, Wagner rose to the challenge, jumping out to a 19-0 first-half lead. The Green & White never looked back in cruising to the College's first and only national championship in any sport.

Following the season, their story grew as six players were named All-American, including three first-teamers. Their story was even splashed across a two-page spread in Sports Illustrated. Over these last 25 years, the Seahawks' achievement has been well-told.

It will be told again and again.

A COMPLETELY RECONSTRUCTED WAGNER COLLEGE STADIUM OPENED FOR THE 1997 SEASON. FINANCED ENTIRELY THROUGH FUND-RAISING EFFORTS BY THE COLLEGE, THE $2.5 MILLION STADIUM WAS PART OF A $13 MILLION PROJECT WHICH INCLUDED THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE SPIRO SPORTS CENTER - A 93,000 SQUARE-FOOT MULTI PURPOSE ATHLETIC FACILITY. DURING THE SUMMER OF 2006 THE PLAYING SURFACE OF THE STADIUM WAS REDONE. WAGNER COLLEGE STADIUM NOW FEATURES FIELD TURF, A SYNTHETIC GRASS SURFACE THAT IS NOW USED BY OUR DIVISION IAA FOOTBALL TEAM ALONG WITH OUR DIVISION I MEN'S AND WOMEN'S LACROSSE AND WOMEN'S SOCCER PROGRAMS.

OPENED IN 1999 AND PART OF A $13 MILLION CAMPUS-WIDE IMPROVEMENT, THE SPIRO SPORTS CENTER IS A 93,000 SQUARE FOOT STUDENT-ORIENTED MULTIPURPOSE ATHLETIC AND RECREATIONAL FACILITY. SINCE ITS OPENING, IT HAS BECOME A MAJOR FOCUS OF STUDENT ACTIVITY ON CAMPUS. THE FACILITY, WHICH TRIPLED THE EXISTING ATHLETICS FACILITIES IS DESIGNED TO SERVE THE RECREATIONAL AND INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC NEEDS OF THE WAGNER COLLEGE COMMUNITY.

DR. RICHARD GUARASCI WAGNER COLLEGE PRESIDENT

Dr. Richard Guarasci, (Pronounced Ga-rah-see) has served as President of Wagner College since June 2002. He arrived at Wagner in July 1997 when he took up the position of Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs which he held for the five years prior to his selection as Wagner College's 18th President.

Dr. Guarasci authored a comprehensive four year undergraduate program required of all Wagner students that links interdisciplinary course clusters with experiential learning and civic engagement. Wagner has become a practice centered liberal arts college. This became a reality with the advent of The Wagner Plan for the Practical Liberal Arts in 1998.

As President, Dr. Guarasci led the first comprehensive capital campaign in Wagner's modern history, successfully realizing the $50-million goal ahead of schedule. He raised the College's endowment from $4 million to $80+ million today. In addition, the College just opened an 80,000 sq. ft., 200-bed residence, Foundation Hall in 2010. A new capital campaign is now underway for a major academic building, The Center for Global Learning, a $40 million project that will link Wagner's students and faculty with counterparts internationally, as well as house new facilities for the Nursing School, Business, Education, Government and Language programs.

At Wagner classroom teaching is linked with its dynamic New York City location through the extensive use of field based experiential learning. As part of the Plan, the large majority of students engage in over a combined 80,000 hours in professional and public service for Staten Island and Manhattan in all areas of the curriculum. Civic education- service to the community- is also a signature of Wagner's undergraduate program.

The Wagner Plan has been nationally acclaimed by Time Magazine, US News & World Report, Newsweek, The Chronicle of Higher Education and numerous higher education commissions and organizations. The Princeton Review has ranked Wagner College as the Most Beautiful Campus in America. Most recently, US News ranked Wagner College first in the North under the category the "most innovative college" and first in the North for its commitment to undergraduate teaching.

Dr. Guarasci serves on three national civic engagement initiatives: Bringing Theory to Practice Initiative of the Association of American Colleges and Universities, supported by the Englehard Foundation and the Johnson Endeavor, promoting civic learning and democratic engagement; The Anchor Institution Steering Committee, promoting university-community planned neighborhood partnerships; The National Task Force for Civic Engagement, advising the U.S. Department of Education in establishing civic learning and democratic citizenship as an essential part of our undergraduate degree and authored The Crucible Moment: College Learning and Democracy's Future. Dr. Guarasci also serves on the board of the Coalition of Urban and Metropolitan Universities, the national board of Campus Compact and chairs their national board of directors, and is the past board chair of the New American Colleges and Universities, a consortium of 20-plus private comprehensive universities and colleges from across the United States. He also chairs the Presidents' Council for Project Pericles. In addition, Dr. Guarasci helps lead a major Wagner College initiative on Staten Island, the Port Richmond Partnership. Through the Partnership the College and its students work in a democratic partnership with over 20 neighborhood organizations and institutions addressing the challenges of the Port Richmond neighborhood in the areas of health care, K-12 education and economic development.

Dr. Guarasci received his B.S. from Fordham University and his M.A. in Economics and Ph.D. in Political Science from Indiana University.

THE WAGNER PLAN

Wagner College has developed a curriculum that unites deep learning and practical application. The Wagner Plan incorporates our longstanding commitment to the liberal arts, experiential learning and interdisciplinary education with our geographical location enduring bond with New York City.

Beginning their very first semester at Wagner, students not only study issues and learn critical-thinking, writing and problem-solving skills, but they also see and practice what they are learning. This “practical” side of liberal education is clearly seen in our Learning Communities and Reflective Tutorials and in the investment faculty make in connecting students with the world outside the classroom.

Under the Wagner Plan, students complete a liberal arts core program and a major, totaling 36 units/courses. As part of these requirements, students complete three Learning Communities (LC’s)-one in the first year, one during the intermediate years and one in the senior year in the major.

For students admitted to the Honors Program, courses are designed to stimulate and challenge them intellectually and to offer exceptional academic and co-curricular opportunities. Honors courses are more challenging, involve more discussion/debate, and often (if not always) require longer and more in depth research papers and oral presentations by students. The Program is affiliated with the National Collegiate Honors Council.

WALT HAMELINE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Walt Hameline, who announced on November 24, 2014 that he was stepping down as Wagner College head football coach after 34 years, continues to amass an astounding record of achievement and consistency as the Seahawks' athletic director, a position he has held since 1982.

The longest-tenured athletic director in Division I, the results derived during his tenure have been profound. This natural-born leader approaches each day with a relentless energy, passion and enthusiasm. On June 4, 2015, the Wagner community demonstrated its loyalty and affection for Hameline as more than 300 guests attended a tribute dinner here on campus in recognition of his sterling 34-year record of molding young men into leaders and winners – both on and off the field.

"Walt Hamline represents the best of what Wagner is all about - high achievement, integrity and hard work," said Wagner College President Richard Guarasci. "He has been an excellent teacher, mentor and leader, and one of the truly great influences on the development and history of Wagner College. It has been my good fortune to work alongside him.

"He is a Wagner treasure and he will continue as Athletics Director to leave his indelible mark of character and commitment on this special place," Guarasci continued. "I look forward to many years of his fine leadership in athletics and on all aspects of our campus community."

For the last nine years, the Northeast Conference (NEC) has presented the Institutional Academic Award to the league member who attains the highest overall institutional grade-point average amongst student-athletes competing in sports sponsored by the NCAA Division I conference.

In 2014-2015, for an NEC-record fourth time, Wagner claimed this award, tying Sacred Heart for top honors with a 3.279 grade point average in its 19 sponsored sports.

The NEC also recognized those teams that compiled the highest GPA in their respective sports. Wagner claimed an NEC-best seven Team GPA awards, while Sacred Heart had four teams honored, along with three apiece for St. Francis Brooklyn and Saint Francis U.

The seven Seahawk teams that garnered the top GPA in their respective sports were Men's Cross Country (3.342), Men's Indoor Track & Field (3.193), Men's Lacrosse (3.265), Men's Outdoor Track & Field (3.193), Women's Soccer, (3.557), Softball (3.583) and Women's Tennis (3.541).

Each year, the NCAA recognizes teams that score in the top 10 percent in their sport with respect to Academic Progress Rates (APR). In 2014-2015, three Wagner College varsity programs – women's basketball, women's cross country and women's golf – received public recognition from the NCAA for their academic success following the release of the latest Academic Progress Rate (APR) data. The most recent data covers academic years from 2010-11 through 2013-14.

In the 2014-15 academic year, six Wagner student-athletes earned All-America recognition. Additionally, Wagner produced the NEC Student-Athlete of the Year, and, for the second time in the last three years, placed a student-athlete on the prestigious AFCA Good Works Team in recognition for outstanding community service.

The 2015 Seahawk Water Polo team captured its second straight MAAC Championship and accompanying trip to the NCAA's while earning a team GPA of 3.63 which was the No. 1 mark among all Water Polo programs in the nation for the fourth straight year.

Last fall, in his final season as Wagner's head football coach, Hameline guided the Seahawks to a share of the NEC regular season title.

Wagner had five student-athletes earn Conference Player of the Year honors in 2014-15, had another individual qualify for the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field East Regional Preliminary Championships, and saw four Seahawk coaches recognized as Conference Coach of the Year winners. In women's basketball, Wagner was also home to the nation's No. 2 scorer.

In addition, three individuals were the Scholar-Athletes in their respective sports, and 57 student-athletes were named to the NEC Commissioner's Honor Roll for achieving a 3.75 or higher GPA. These 57 individuals were among the 206 student-athletes who made the NEC Honor Roll with a GPA of 3.2 GPA.

In April of 2012, Hameline, who has enjoyed a long and proud association with metropolitan area basketball and the National Invitation Tournament (NIT), was the recipient of the 2012 Distinguished Service Award from the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association (MBWA). Distinguished Service Awards are presented by the MBWA to individuals that have made significant contributions to college basketball.

For more than two decades, he was one of five metro area athletic directors, along with his peers at NYU, Fordham, Manhattan and St. John's, who helped comprise the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Basketball Association (MIBA). Along with NIT Executive Director Jack Powers, Hameline helped select teams for both preseason and postseason NIT's, while directing other functions such as the NIT All-Star Summer Tour.

Under Hameline's leadership, the Wagner athletic department has undergone an ambitious expansion in both sport offerings and facility improvements. Most recently, and thanks to the generosity of one of his former offensive lineman and now highly-successful business man, Marc Lebovitz, Wagner College Stadium was the beneficiary of a striking state-of-the-art video scoreboard in 2010.

The scoreboard, donated by Lebovitz, a member of the Seahawks' 1987 Division III National Championship football team and a 1991 Wagner graduate, represented a major facility upgrade for the Green & White football program, while also benefiting the women's soccer, men's lacrosse, women's lacrosse and men's & women's track and field programs. Hameline is currently spearheading a fundraising drive to support the Wagner College Stadium Expansion Project, an initiative that will benefit all 20 Seahawk athletic programs.

Head Football Coach

Hameline completed his 34th season on November 22, 2014 as the Seahawks posted a riveting 23-20 win at Bryant, giving the Green & white a 7-4-record and a share of the 2014 Northeast Conference (NEC) regular season title at 5-1, Wagner's second league crown in the last three years.

During his marvelous 34-year coaching career, Hameline amassed an all-time record of 223-139-2 (.615) on Grymes Hill. At the conclusion of the 2014 regular season, those 223 victories ranked fifth among active head Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) head coaches.

This past February, Hameline was honored by the Metropolitan New York Football Writers and USA College Football at the Eastern College Football Awards Banquet at MetLife Stadium. On this night, Hameline received the FCS Bob Ford Award, named for the man who guided a highly-successful Great Danes' program from 1970 to 2013. Established in 2012, the Bob Ford Award honors Legendary FCS coaches who have recently retired from the sidelines.

In a stirring ceremony prior to kickoff of the September 15, 2012, Wagner vs. Monmouth game, the field at Wagner College Stadium was named Hameline Field in honor of his long-time success at the helm of the Seahawk gridiron program.

November 6, 2010 was another historic day in Hameline's career, another that also involved Monmouth, as the Seahawks' 31-20 win over the Hawks marked career victory number 200.

In 2012, Hameline, who has coached more than 100 All-Americans and nearly 100 All-NEC players, led the Seahawks to their first-ever Northeast Conference (NEC) Football Championship with a thrilling 23-17 come-from-behind victory over Duquesne on November 17, 2012, while clinching a berth in the 2012 Division I FCS Playoffs. The win personified the Green & White's exhilarating season. Wagner began the season with three straight losses, before winning its next nine games.

In defying the odds throughout its triumphant march to the school's first-ever Northeast Conference (NEC) title and the conference's first-ever NCAA FCS win, Wagner compiled a 9-4 record, including a 7-1 mark in the NEC. The Seahawks finished the season ranked 21st in The Sports Network Final Top-25 Poll and 22nd in the Final FCS Coaches Poll, an achievement that marked the first time an NEC team has ended the season with an appearance in both official Top-25 polls.

The accolades soon began to pour in for Hameline. After being named the 2012 NEC Football Coach of the year, he was tabbed the 2012 Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Coach of the Year by both College Football News (CFN) and the College Sports Journal (CSJ). Hameline was also named as one of the 20 nominees for the Eddie Robinson Award, which since 1987 has been awarded annually to college football's top head coach in the Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

Shortly after receiving the news of his twin National Coach of the Year honors, Hameline was inducted into the New Jersey Sports Writers Association Hall of Fame

Not to be lost amid the host of accomplishments by the 2012 team, is the fact that Hameline helped lead the school to a 30-0 victory at nationally-ranked Albany in the week following Hurricane Sandy. After returning from the state capital, Hameline joined many of his team members aiding in the recovery efforts in some of Staten Island's hardest-hit areas.

Hameline also saw his first former player crack the NFL ranks when Julian Stanford made the 2012 Jacksonville Jaguars' 53-man roster, becoming the first Seahawk in the NFL since Wagner Hall of Famer Rich Kotite suited up for the New York Giants in 1972. Currently a member of the Detroit Lions, Stanford is one of three former Seahawks currently playing in a major professional football league, along with Dominique Williams of the Minnesota Vikings and C.O. Prime of the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

Prior to the momentous 2012 season, Hameline's overall coaching ledger included five ECAC Titles and three NCAA Tournament Appearances, highlighted by 1987 NCAA Division III National Championship. In the magical Championship Season of 1987, Wagner posted a 19-3 win over heavily-favored Dayton in the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl to earn the NCAA Division III National Championship. Against one of the toughest schedules in the nation, Hameline's Seahawks rolled to a 13-1 record, winning more games than any college football team in America.

The team earned the school's second Lambert Trophy, symbolic of football superiority in the East among Division III schools, and ECAC Team of the Year recognition. Following the season, in addition to Sports Illustrated writing a feature story, a host of national and regional organizations recognized Hameline, highlighted by him being named the Chevrolet National Coach of the Year. In 1990, just three years after winning the school's only National Championship, Hameline became the winningest coach in school history.

The 64-year old administrator has been a key developer of the NEC, serving on numerous committees, and is a past president of the league. Nine years ago, the New Hartford, NY native was honored for his playing, coaching and administrative achievements when he was inducted into the Utica Sports Hall of Fame. In addition, Hameline was given the All-America Football Foundation Johnny Vaught Lifetime Achievement Award in 1998.

CREDENTIALS — Media credentials for Wagner College home games are issued only for working members of the media, and should be requested as early as possible. Requests must be made in writing on company letterhead and are honored only from sports editors of daily newspapers/magazines and sports directors of radio and television stations.

Wagner College follows the guidelines set forth by the NCAA in governing the issuance of credentials. Season credentials will be granted only to daily newspapers and television/radio stations that cover Seahawk football on a regular basis. Otherwise, television/radio stations and weekly newspapers will be granted credentials on a single-game, space-available basis.

Requests for season credentials should arrive by September 1. Requests for single-game credentials should arrive no later than one week in advance of a game. All requests for credentials should be made to:

John Beisser
Assistant Athletic Director For Media Relations
Spiro Sports Center
One Campus Road
Staten Island, NY 10301

Phone: (718) 390-3227 FAX: (718) 420-4015

PRESS POLICIES — Press box seating is reserved for working press only. Should any special needs arise, please contact the sports information office.

MEDIA PARKING — Available adjacent to Wagner College Stadium on a limited, first-come, first-serve basis. There is no designated media parking area. Contact the sports information office for further information.

STATISTICAL SERVICES — Working media at Wagner College Stadium will receive the following:

- * Game program and notes
- * Complete halftime statistics
- * Complete final statistics
- * Complete play-by-play

REFRESHMENTS — Refreshments will be available in the press box prior to the game and at halftime. Credentials are required for entrance to the press box.

MEDIA WILL CALL — Located at the Stadium's main gate.

TELEPHONES — A limited number of telephone lines are available at the Stadium. Newspapers and radio stations desiring their own private lines, to be installed in the press box, are recommended to contact the sports information office at (718) 390-3227.

INTERVIEW POLICIES — All interviews with Wagner College football players must be arranged through the sports information office. PLAYERS WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE ON GAME DAY UNTIL AFTER THE GAME.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS — Following each game, there will be a 10-minute cooling-off period, during which the players will shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Hameline will be available for comment. Following Coach Hameline's interview session and the cooling-off period, the Seahawk locker room will be open to all members of the media.

PLAYER TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS — Telephone interview requests for Coach Hameline and Seahawk players, which should be made 48 hours in advance when possible. Player interview will be made at an appropriate time, so as not to interfere with the academic schedule of the player(s).

NORTHEAST CONFERENCE AND PACK NETWORK TEAM UP TO LAUNCH NEC FRONT ROW

The Northeast Conference (NEC) is revolutionizing the way its fans follow and interact with their favorite teams and the student-athletes who comprise them via a digital sports network to enhance fan experience with free live & on-demand content. The 10-member NCAA Division I conference has launched NEC Front Row, an online digital network with multi-platform access.

Developed and launched in partnership with Pack Network, NEC Front Row features a rich set of content, including live events, on-demand video, highlight packages, coaches shows, features, original programming and access to league's extensive digital library, all of which is free of charge to users. The network gives fans free inside access to the stories from across the Northeast Conference and its student-athletes on the field, in the classroom, across campus, and in the community.

NORTHEAST CONFERENCE

NORTHEAST CONFERENCE SERVICES -- The NEC office, located in Somerset, NJ, provides weekly releases and updated statistics to working media and fans. Assistant Director of Communications Ralph Ventre can be reached at (732) 469-0440 or by email at rventre@northeastconference.org. All NEC new releases, standing and statistics are posted on the league web site (www.northeastconference.org) on a daily basis.

DIRECTIONS TO WAGNER

FROM POINTS SOUTH

Mid Atlantic States and Southern New Jersey: Take the New Jersey Turnpike north to Exit 10 (Outerbridge Crossing). After crossing the bridge, take Route 440 North (West Shore Expressway) for approximately 6 miles to I-278 East (Staten Island Expressway). Take I-278 East for approximately 5 miles, following signs to the Verrazano Narrows Bridge and Brooklyn. Take Exit 13 (Clove Road/Richmond Road/Hyland Boulevard). At the first traffic light, turn left onto Clove Road. At the second light on Clove Road, turn right onto Howard Avenue. A sign for the College is visible at this intersection. Follow Howard Avenue to the top of Grymes Hill.

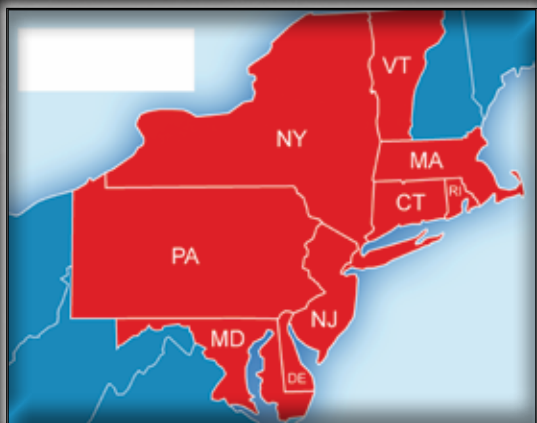

Southern New Jersey Shore: Take the Garden State Parkway north to Exit 127 (Outerbridge Crossing/Staten Island). Follow directions from Outerbridge Crossing provided above.

BY PLANE/TRAIN/PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Plane: Three major airports serve New York City. Wagner College is most easily accessed from Newark Liberty International Airport in New Jersey, though LaGuardia and JFK Airports are within reasonable travel distance. Car service is available between Wagner College and all three airports for around $40-$50 each way.

Train: Amtrak, Long Island Railroad and New Jersey Transit trains arrive at Penn Station in Manhattan at 34th Street and 7th Avenue. Wagner College can be reached from Manhattan by taking the Staten Island Ferry, leaving at regular intervals throughout the day from the ferry terminal in lower Manhattan. From Penn Station, take either a cab or the New York City Subway (IRT Downtown #1 train to South Ferry; IRT #4 or #5 train to Bowling Green; IRT N or R to Whitehall Station) to the Battery Park Ferry Terminal. Take the Staten Island Ferry (no fare) to Staten Island. From the ferry terminal on Staten Island, the College is a short ride via car service, which can be picked up at the terminal.

FROM POINTS NORTH AND EAST

New England (via New York) and Long Island: Take either the Belt Parkway or the Brooklyn-Queens Expressway to the Verrazano Bridge onto Staten Island; remain on I-278 West. Take Exit 13 (Clove Road/Richmond Road). Follow the service road to the third traffic light and turn right onto Clove Road. Take the first right onto Howard Avenue and proceed to the top of Grymes Hill.

New England (via New Jersey): Take I-95 South. Cross the George Washington Bridge into New Jersey. Follow signs to the New Jersey Turnpike. Follow the Turnpike to Exit 13 (Goethals Bridge). Cross the Goethals Bridge onto Staten Island and follow I-278 East. Follow directions from I-278 East provided above.

Northern New Jersey: Take the New Jersey Turnpike to either Exit 13 (Goethals Bridge) from northern New Jersey, or Exit 10 (Outerbridge Crossing) from southern/central New Jersey. Follow directions provided above from the Goethals Bridge or Outerbridge Crossing.

The Staten Island Ferry is run by the City of New York for one pragmatic reason: To transport Staten Islanders to and from Manhattan. Yet, the 5 mile, 25 minute ride also provides a majestic view of New York Harbor and a no-hassle, even romantic, boat ride, for free! One guide book calls it "One of the worlds greatest (and shortest) water voyages." For a complete ferry schedule visit www.siferry.com

JASON HOUGHTALING

FIRST SEASON

Jason Houghtaling (hO - Tail- Ling), who has spent seven seasons on the Wagner sidelines, serving as offensive coordinator during Wagner's 2012 and 2014 Northeast Conference (NEC) title runs, while in-between, spending the 2013 season as offensive coordinator at Cornell, has been elevated to head football coach.

Wagner's associate head coach/offensive coordinator in 2014, Houghtaling takes over for Walt Hamline, who served in the dual role as Seahawk athletic director and head football coach for 34 years, before announcing that he is stepping down from his role as head coach. Hamline will remain as Wagner's athletic director.

In his last three seasons as Wagner's offensive coordinator, the Seahawks have amassed a 16-6 NEC record with league titles in two of the last three seasons. In the 2014 season finale, the Green & White staged a dramatic 23-20 come-from-behind victory at Bryant, marching 65 yards in the waning minutes for the game-winning touchdown that gave the Seahawks a 7-4 record, a 5-1 NEC mark, and a share of the 2014 NEC title.

The 2014 Seahawk offense followed a similar formula to the 2012 Seahawks, finishing the regular season ranked No. 4 nationally in time of possession (33:02), while not committing a single turnover in the last three games of the season.

When he returned to Grymes Hill in the capacity of associate head coach/offensive coordinator in January, 2014, this marked Houghtaling's third stint at Wagner. Known as 'Hoss' to his players and fellow coaches, Houghtaling was a Seahawk assistant coach from 2006-2009, before becoming head coach at Hudson Valley Community College in 2010. Following one season as head coach of the Vikings, he returned to Wagner as offensive coordinator in 2011, where he spent two seasons, including the 2012 NEC Championship campaign.

"Jason has a sharp football mind and he is an excellent teacher and leader of young men," said Wagner College President Richard Guarasci. "He has prepared himself carefully to be a head coach of a Division I program. He completed his Masters degree in education from Wagner where he learned how to teach students with different and unique skills and personalities. I am delighted that he will lead Wagner's football program and continue his partnership with Walt Hamline as they take Wagner into the next generation of athletic and academic success."

During Wagner's 9-4 NEC Championship season of 2012, that saw the Seahawks become the first team in NEC history to win a NCAA FCS Playoff game and rank in the Top 25 of both final national polls, Houghtaling tutored the Seahawks' record-setting quarterback, Nick Doscher, as he evolved into one of the all-time great quarterbacks to ever compete at Wagner and in the NEC.

Doscher operated Houghtaling's offensive system with precision, finishing his career ranked No. 1 in Seahawk history, and No. 2 in NEC history, with 8,404 yards of total offense. His 6,100 passing yards are also No. 1 on the Wagner all-time list and No. 9 on the all-time NEC list. As a senior in 2012, Doscher fashioned a passer rating of 133.9, with 13 touchdown passes and just one interception, ending his career with a remarkable 221 consecutive pass attempts without an interception.

Led by Doscher, and star running back Dominique Williams, who is now a member of the NFL's Minnesota Vikings' practice squad, the 2012 Seahawks were one of the nation's most balanced units, ranking No. 1 nationally with the fewest turnovers (6) in all of FCS football.

"I am thrilled that Jason Houghtaling will take over as Wagner head coach and I have full confidence that he will continue to keep the Seahawks on the path to success for years to come," said Hameline. "His work ethic, passion, football knowledge, recruiting contacts, and familiarity with Wagner College are all major assets that will pay huge dividends for our program. In Hoss, we have an individual who has the respect of everyone that he comes into contact with, and is highly-regarded by high school coaches both within our region, and on a national scale."

During the 2013 season as offensive coordinator at Cornell, Houghtaling coached quarterback Jeff Mathews, who led the Ivy League in attempts, completions and passing yards, before signing a free agent contract with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons. Following the 2013 season, Mathews, who is currently a member of the practice squad of the Indianapolis Colts, was named to the College Sports Journal FCS All-America Team and received the additional honor of participating in the East-West Shrine Game, serving as captain of the East squad.

During his first season as a collegiate offensive coordinator (2011), Houghtaling directed the talented Williams to impressive numbers. Williams ranked among the national leaders by rushing for 121.6 yards per game and 14 total touchdowns, while posting eight 100-yard games in 11 contests. The following season, Williams was a 2012 College Sports Journal All-American, in addition to earning First-Team All-NEC honors.

"Wagner is a special place for both my family and I, so it's truly an honor to be selected to continue to build this program," said Houghtaling. "I thank Coach Hameline and Wagner College President Dr. Guarasci for entrusting me with this position and can't wait to lead this program, coach our current players, and attract even more elite student-athletes in the coming years."

When he first arrived at Wagner in 2006, Houghtaling served as running backs coach, before heading the Seahawk offensive lines from 2007-2009.

With an emphasis on New York State and Florida, Houghtaling has been the lead recruiter for a host of student-athletes who have gone on to enjoy outstanding careers on Grymes Hill. The list of top Wagner student-athletes that Houghtaling has recruited include New Jerseyan Dominique Williams, New York State natives Quintin Anderson, Tyrone Collins, Chazz Legette, Stefan Gage, Patrick Gibbons, and Sidiq Soulemana, as well as Floridians Keith Hernandez, Frantz Placide and Otis Wright. In 2010, his one season as head coach at Troy, NY-based Hudson Valley, he tutored two All-Conference performers.

Houghtaling began his collegiate coaching career at prep powerhouse Milford Academy in Berlin, NY, where he helped lead the Falcons to a 20-3 mark as defensive coordinator, while also serving as defensive line and strength and conditioning coach. A 2004 graduate of the University of Binghamton with a degree in History, Houghtaling earned a Masters in Education from Wagner in 2009. He originally attended Lafayette, where he was a defensive lineman for the Leopards, before injuries cut short his playing career and he transferred to Binghamton.

A native of Windsor, NY, Houghtaling got his start in coaching at his high school alma mater, Windsor Central High School, where he spent two seasons working with the Black Knights' offensive line and linebackers under the head coach he played for, Dan Hodack. Houghtaling and his wife Mary are the proud parents of two daughters, Abbie and Emma.

What They're Saying About Jason Houghtaling

Dave Archer, Head Coach – Cornell University

"Jason Houghtaling is not only an incredibly knowledgeable football coach but he does a great job relating to student-athletes from all over – all over the country, from all different backgrounds. He does a great job of being able to get them to work together, as proven by his offensive lines, and his offenses, and I'm excited to see him on larger scale, with a full team, as a head coach."

Keith Carter, Offensive Line Coach - San Jose State University, Former Quality Control Coach - 2014 Super Bowl Champion Seattle Seahawks, Former Wagner College Assistant Coach

"He's tenacious, he's a go-getter, and he's somebody who, as a colleague and working with him, he's someone I was constantly trying to keep up with. He's the type of guy who just pushes you. As a consequence, iron sharpens iron, and he made me better just trying to keep up with him. I'm just really excited for him honestly. He's going to do a great job, he's really organized, with a really good ability to see the big picture, make a plan and adjust when you have to, and see it through in the right way. He's just a balanced, humble person and is about as blue collar and as tough as they come and I think it's a really good fit."

Tom Masella, Defensive Coordinator – UMass, Former Wagner College Associate Head Coach, Former Head Coach – Boston University, Fairfield, Central

Connecticut, Fordham, and a former Seahawk standout and 1981 Wagner College graduate

"I'm really happy for Hoss. If you could pick a guy to replace Walt Hameline, Jason Houghtaling is the guy you'd pick. He's very determined, knowledgeable, hard-working, and he really loves Wagner, has a genuine passion for the school and the community. That's his school now. I think it's a great fit and, like I said, I couldn't be happier for him and for the Wagner football program."

Bill Chaplick, Head Coach – Milford Academy

"He came to me as a position coach and halfway through his first year with me I made him our defensive coordinator and we ended up going 11-1 and he had a chance to coach Antonio Dixon, who went to the University of Miami, and the NFL (Redskins, Eagles, Colts). And he coached Terrance Knighton, who's now with the Denver Broncos, the guy they call 'Pot Roast'. Hoss was totally loyal to the sport of football and totally loyal to me as a head coach, and that's why I gave him his promotion. We went 9-2 his second year and then he told me he wanted to do this the rest of his life. So, I hooked him up with Coach Hameline, I put my word on Hoss, and he's done a great job, obviously, and I wish him and Coach Hameline the best."

Dan Hodack, Former Head Coach - Windsor Central High School (NY)

"I remember, as a freshman, Jason was a big, bruising fullback/linebacker but we needed help on the offensive line. I figured we could probably find another fullback but we can't find another person to play center and anchor our line for three years. He controlled the whole offensive line from that point forward and made all the defensive calls as our middle linebacker on three championship teams. His leadership skills were evident early."

Gary Vail, Former Athletic Director, Football, Basketball, Baseball Coach- Windsor Central High School (NY)

"I was no longer coaching football when Jason came through but I coached him in basketball and baseball and he was really an outstanding athlete. He was incredibly coachable and extremely team-oriented and a young man who's always pretty much known what he wanted to do which is to be a coach. He understands the work ethic that he needs and he also understands having a first-class attitude about things, knowing how deal with all the different people that he has to. He's done very well with each of his opportunities and I know he'll do a great job as Wagner's head coach."

HEAD COACH JASON HOUGHTALING

DID YOU KNOW?

The Wagner football program is under the direction of the nation's third-youngest Division I head coach.

At the age of 34, first-year head coach Jason Houghtaling is younger than every D-I head coach except for David Archer of Cornell, and Murray State's Mitch Stewart, each of whom will turn 34 in November, making them some eight months older than the high-energy Houghtaling.

In another age-related twist, Seahawk athletic director, and former longtime head football coach, Walt Hameline, will enter his 33rd season leading the Wagner athletic program in 2015-2016, as the longest-tenured Division I athletic director.

In addition, Wagner features the second-youngest men's head basketball coach in the nation in Bashir Mason. Entering his fourth season on Grymes Hill, Mason was the youngest Division I head men's hoops coach until Dana Ford of Tennessee St. took over prior to the 2014-15 season. Ford is nine months younger than Mason.

RYAN FULLEN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Ryan Fullen arrived at Wagner in March, 2010. After serving a Seahawk secondary and special teams for the past five seasons, including both of the Seahawks' NEC championship teams in 2012 and 2014, Fullen enters his first season as defensive coordinator while continuing to oversee the secondary.

In 2014, Fullen led a talented, deep and experienced defensive backfield, spearheaded by fifth-year senior All-American and First-Team All-NEC performer, Jarrett Dieudonne, who led the nation with three interception returns for touchdowns last season while finishing No. 2 in total interceptions with seven.

"It's just a natural progression to have Ryan Fullen in charge of this defense," said head coach Jason Houghtaling. "He's a secondary guy by trade and things start from the back forward on defense and you have to protect against the big play. And he's been a part of it now for five years and is ready to go, and I'm excited about what he'll do on the defensive side of the ball."

Under Fullen's tutelage, long-snapper Phil Faccione went on to earn Second-Team All-American recognition by The Sports Network in 2014.

Fullen achieved a rare "triple crown" in 2013, as he helped develop First-Team All-NEC kicker David Lopez, one of the best in school history, First-Team All-NEC punter AJ Firestone, as well as Faccione, who earned Third-Team All-American honors by The Sports Network.

In 2012, Fullen's units played an integral role in the Seahawks' run to the NEC title. As a team, the 2012 Seahawk special teams unit ranked No. 1 in kickoff returns (26.8), and second in both kickoff coverage (40.7) and net punting (33.4). Individually, sophomore Otis Wright topped the NEC and ranked ninth nationally at 27.71 yards per kickoff return, including a pair of touchdown returns.

In addition to Dieudonne, who developed into a ball-hawking First-Team All-NEC cornerback with 11 pass breakups and three interceptions, the senior safety tandem of Patrick O'Connor and second-team All-NEC choice Sidiq Soulemana also turned in tremendous seasons under Fullen's watch during the 2012 NEC Title season, contributing 86 and 85 tackles, respectively. In 2012, freshman Otis Wright also earned a spot on the All-NEC Team as a kick returner.

In 2010, Fullen mentored Seahawk safety Stefen Gage, who led the NEC in interceptions, was a First-Team All-NEC performer and was named team MVP. That season, he also coached dynamic return specialist Frantz Placide, another First-Team All-NEC selection.

Prior to arriving on Grymes Hill, Fullen spent the 2009 season as Linebackers Coach/Video Coordinator at Brockport State, where the Toms River, NJ native mentored All-NJAC and All-ECAC linebacker Nate Bull.

From 2007-2009, Fullen served as a member of the Fordham coaching staff. In his first years with the Rams, he handled all aspects of video editing and film exchanges, before taking over as running backs coach in spring in 2008 where he helped develop running back Xavier Martin into the Patriot League's leading rusher.

Prior to arriving at Fordham, Fullen served as an assistant coach at Arizona Western College, where he was the special teams coordinator/running backs coach from January through May of 2007, which preceded a two-year stint (2005-2006) as an assistant coach at Cortland State, where he was in charge of the cornerbacks. In time stint there, four NJAC All-Conference performers at defensive back.

During his tenure with the Red Dragons, Fullen helped guide Cortland St. to a pair of championships with the 2005 squad advancing to the NCAA playoffs. In addition to assisting with the organization and coaching of special teams at Cortland, he was also responsible for the defensive scouting report and film breakdown of opposing offenses.

Fullen earned a Bachelor's degree in history from Salve Regina University in 2005, where he was a three-year starter at safety. In 2002, he earned Defensive Impact Player of the Year honors.

On July 4, 2014, Fullen and his wife Lisa (Gathman) were married.

CUSTAVIOUS PATTERSON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QBS

Custavious Patterson enters his fourth season as an assistant coach at Wagner and is in his first as offensive coordinator after spending the 2014 season as quarterbacks coach after serving two seasons as the Seahawks' wide receivers coach.

"The biggest thing for him last year was what he got out of our quarterback position," said head coach Jason Houghtaling. "Obviously the leader of our offense is the quarterback and if you compare the production from 2013 to 2014, it starts with wins and losses. We were able to go 5-1 in the conference and it starts by taking care of the football and making enough plays to win games and I think Chris Andrews did that and Brian Gehring both progressed very well last season. Custavious Patterson has showed that he can really coach, he does a great job with the quarterbacks, and I look forward to what he's going to do with our offense."

On January 16, 2015, Patterson had the distinction of serving as a head coach in the third annual Dream Bowl, a premier College Football All-Star Game featuring top FCS, D-II and D-III student-athletes, held on Martin Luther King Day in Virginia Beach, VA.

Patterson arrived on Grymes Hill in 2012 after spending the previous six seasons as an assistant coach at Fordham University.

In 2013, Patterson tutored senior Tyree Watkins, the NEC's sixth-ranked receiver (4.1 per game) who corralled 45 passes for 484 yards and four touchdowns. Sophomore Anthony Carrington also delivered a solid season under Patterson's watch, with 25 receptions for 250 yards and one touchdown.

In his first season on Grymes Hill, Patterson's receiving corps contributed mightily to Wagner's historic 2012 NEC Championship run. The sure-handed and fleet-footed Seahawk receivers impacted an offensive unit that ranked No. 1 in the NEC in time of possession (32:55), second in third-down conversions (46.5%) and third in both pass efficiency (129.4) and red zone offense (84.8 %).

The Green & White receiver corps was led by fifth-year senior David Crawford, who paced the team with 37 receptions while ranking second in receiving yards (483) and yards per catch (13.1). The rangy 6-4 Crawford finished his Seahawk career ranked eighth all-time in career receptions with 109.

Patterson also helped develop Anthony Carrington into one of the most dangerous and promising receivers in the NEC. After catching six passes as a freshman, Carrington broke out in his first season under Patterson's tutelage, with 27 receptions for a team-leading 491 yards. Cody Morgan progressed into a reliable receiver out the slot, catching 12 passes for 189 yards.

A native of the Sunshine State, Patterson handles the Seahawks' recruiting efforts in Florida.

Patterson was Fordham's wide receiver coach from 2006 to 2010 before taking over as running backs coach in 2011. Patterson played a prominent role in developing wide receiver Jason Caldwell who, as a senior in 2010, led the Patriot League and ranked tied for 12th in the NCAA FCS in receptions/game (6.5). Caldwell also placed second in the league and 23rd in the NCAA FCS in receiving yards/game (82.7).

Caldwell, who graduated with 186 career receptions for 2,643 yards and 18 touchdowns, ranks second on the Fordham all-time receptions and receiving yards lists and fourth on the career touchdown list. Under Patterson's tutelage in 2009, Caldwell received Associated Press Third-Team All-America honors after turning in one of the most productive seasons for a Fordham wide receiver, catching 79 passes for 1,252 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2005, Patterson served as wide receiver coach at Central Connecticut in 2005, after spending 2004 on the staff at Leon High School in Tallahassee, FL where he served as varsity wide receivers coach as well as head junior varsity coach.

Patterson also possesses professional coaching experience. In 2007, he completed a Minority Coaching Internship with the New York Giants, working with the quarterbacks and wide receivers. In 2008, Patterson served as Guest Coach with the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the CFL.

Patterson earned a bachelor's degree from Morgan State in 2004 where he was a one-year starter at quarterback for the Bears. He began his career as a quarterback at SUNY-Morrisville where he earned All-Conference and Honorable Mention All-American honors in his two seasons.

In his two seasons there, set the career records for passing touchdowns and total yardage and was a team captain in his final season.

In June of 2006, Patterson was inducted into the Morrisville State College Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2014, Patterson attained a Master's Degree from Wagner College in Education.

TONY BRINSON LINEBACKERS/SPECIAL TEAMS/ RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Tony Brinson enters his 22nd season as a collegiate football coach, serving his fifth season at Wagner. In 2015, Brinson adds the responsibilities of special teams coach and recruiting coordinators to his duties as linebacker coach.

His two-decade career has taken him up and down the eastern seaboard where he has developed a host of deep and lasting recruiting relationships and contacts.

"Tony Brinson is a really good football coach and he has a lot of off-the-field responsibilities," said head coach Jason Houghtaling. "He's going to take over special teams for Coach Fullen and he's also now heading up our recruiting efforts. He had a heckuva year recruiting North Jersey for us and brought in close to 15 kids himself. Tony is a veteran guy, carries himself the right way, and does what you expect of a top football coach."

In his four seasons at Wagner, including NEC championships in 2012 and 2014, Brinson has tutored four Seahawks who went on to sign NFL Free Agent contracts.

Following the 2011 season, Julian Stanford signed a free agent deal with the Jacksonville Jaguars after earning first-team All-NEC accolades. The 6-2, 225-pound Stanford earned a spot on the team's final roster, went on to make an early impact on special teams which led to his starting six of Jacksonville's 16 games.

One of 19 players to play in all 16 games for the Jaguars, Stanford finished his rookie campaign with 23 total tackles, including 18 solo stops. In making the Jaguars' roster, Stanford became the first Seahawk to appear on an active NFL regular season roster since Wagner Hall of Fame member Rich Kotite (1967-1972). Stanford then signed a free agent contract with the Detroit Lions in 2013. Two of Stanford's teammates, also tutored by Brinson, inked NFL free agent deals following the 2011 season in safety Jeremiah Brown and DE Quintin Anderson and were in training camps with the Jaguars and Tampa Bay Buccaneers, respectively.

In 2014, the Seahawk defensive unit, spearheaded by its fine linebacker play, led the NEC in a host of categories while also ranking in the NCAA Top 10 in three major categories – Rushing Defense, No. 2 (83.1), Total Defense, No. 6 (281.3) and Scoring Defense, No. 10 (18.0). Thanks in large part to the relentless brand of defense displayed by the Green & White defense, the 2014 Seahawks went 7-4 overall and 5-1 in league, sharing the NEC title with Sacred Heart. This marked Wagner's second NEC title in the last three years as the Seahawks won the 2012 championship en route to an appearance in the Division I NCAA Playoffs. Brinson helped develop senior Max Wassel into a First-Team All-NEC performer whose 81 tackles, a 7.5 average per game, ranked No. 6 in the NEC. In addition, his 21 tackles for loss (for minus 61 yards) ranked No. 2 in the NEC while his 52 solo tackles ranked No. 3 in the league.

In 2013, Brinson helped develop outside linebacker Trevor Loveland, the only student-athlete to hail from a NEC program among the 43 members of the Athletics Directors Association (FCS ADA) Academic All-Star Team. The 6-3, 230-pound Loveland, who returns to the 2014 team as a fifth-year senior, led the 2013 team with 69 tackles, while registering a team-best 12.0 tackles for loss for minus 33 yards.

In Wagner's historic run to the 2012 NEC title and FCS Playoffs, senior linebacker C.O. Prime recorded a team-best 98 tackles and earned second-team All-NEC honors. In April, 2013, the 6-1, 255-pound Prime became the fourth Seahawk in Brinson's tenure to sign an NFL free agent contract when he inked a deal with the Indianapolis Colts. Also In 2012, Wagner's starting outside linebacker tandem of seniors Theodore Clohessy and Mike Milone turned in stellar campaigns despite not possession the physical stature of most top FCS linebackers. Clohessy, who was named Defensive MVP at the postseason banquet, made play after play despite being relatively undersized at 5-10, 210. Fifth on team in tackles with 77, including 35 solo, Clohessy forced a team-high six fumbles. He was also credited with nine tackles for loss for minus 43 yards, three sacks for minus 23 yards, while adding two fumble recoveries and one pass breakup.

Much of the groundwork that led to the 2012 NEC title was laid in 2011 under Brinson's direction as defensive coordinator. That season, Wagner ranked No. 1 in the NEC in three different categories: rushing defense (141.1 yards per game), red zone defense (71.8%) and takeaways (29).

Brinson arrived on Grymes Hill in 2011 after serving three years as an assistant at Columbia University. Brinson joined the Columbia staff in April 2008 and was the Lions' tight end coach throughout his tenure there. With the Lions, Brinson helped produce an offense that ranked No. 2 in rushing in the Ivy League in 2009 and No.1 in passing efficiency en route to a fourth place finish in the Ivy, Columbia's best since 1996 honor.

From 2004 to 2007, Brinson served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Rhode Island, where he coached the defensive line for three years and the secondary for one year. Prior to his stint at Rhode Island, Brinson spent four seasons as an assistant at Bryant (2000-2003) where he served as wide receiver coach his first year. The next three seasons, he wore many hats, serving as Bryant's Recruiting Coordinator/Secondary Coach, Co-Defensive Coordinator and Special Teams Coordinator. Prior to his arrival at Bryant, Brinson spent four seasons (1996-99) at Kean University where served as wide receivers coach, then linebackers and finally, secondary coach.

In his career, Brinson has been nominated to serve as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at two All-Star Bowl games, the Holiday Bowl (1996) and the East-West Bowl (1997). Brinson is a 1995 graduate from the University of Rhode Island.

STEFON WHEELER OFFENSIVE LINE

Former Michigan St. standout offensive tackle and professional player Stefon Wheeler enters his second season at Wagner and first heading up the coaching efforts of the Seahawk offensive line.

Wheeler arrived on Grymes Hill after serving three seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, Milford Academy, in Berlin, NY, the last two seasons as Offensive coordinator/Recruiting coordinator.

After starring along the Milford offensive line in 2000, where he led the Falcons to a 10-3 record, Wheeler was awarded a full scholarship to Michigan State where he went on to start 35 games at left tackle. A two-time All-Big 10 Honorable Mention selection, he was voted to the Spartans First-Team All-Decade squad in 2012.

“Stefon Wheeler learned under Jeff Stoutland, who’s now the offensive line coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, he brings NFL playing experience to our program, and did a tremendous job assisting with our offensive line last year,” said head coach Jason Houghtaling. “Whenever a new offensive line coach comes in, there’s a learning curve and in the beginning of the year we saw some of that. And the one thing that you can say about a good football coach is that his guys keep getting better and better as they year went on. I’m really excited about him being with this group as he develops his own offensive line for a second year.”

A 2005 Michigan St. graduate, Wheeler signed a free agent contract with the New Orleans Saints in 2006 and played in NFL Europa for the Cologne Centurions in 2007.

While playing left tackle overseas, he helped open holes for the league’s leading rusher. Later in 2007, Wheeler signed with the CFL’s Toronto Argonauts.

ALVIN SMITH DEFENSIVE LINE

Alvin Smith is in his first as Wagner defensive line coach after serving the previous four years in this same role at Columbia University of the Ivy League.

While at Columbia, Smith helped Josh Martin achieve First-Team All-Ivy League honors in 2012 after he posted 6.5 sacks and was signed as a free agent by the Kansas City Chiefs in April 2013.

“Alvin Smith is a technician at teaching defensive line play and I’m excited at what he can do with our veteran group d-linemen,” said head coach Jason Houghtaling. “I think there’s some little things that he brings to the table technically that will help our guys and get a little more out of them as they’re a year older. He does a great job recruiting, he played at a very high level, he played in the NFL a little bit. Alvin is energetic, a very good teacher at the defensive line spot.”

Smith was a three-time letterwinner at Oregon State from 2003-05 and earned All-Pac 10 honors in 2005, before signing NFL contracts with the San Diego Chargers and the Cleveland Browns in addition to playing in NFL Europe.

In 2011, Smith was a defensive graduate assistant at Arizona State, and prior to that he worked with the defensive line at Portland State. Smith also interned with Oregon State’s football program in 2009.

PATRICK GIBBONS RUNNING BACKS

Following a standout four-year Seahawk career, Patrick Gibbons enters his first year as an assistant on the Wagner coaching staff where he will serve as running backs coach while pursuing a master's degree in education.

"Patrick Gibbons played both sides of the football here for us and is a young guy who has a great passion for the game and who truly wants to be a football coach," said head coach Jason Houhtaling. "He's a guy that naturally we would want on our staff. Having played fullback for us, he knows the offense, and he's a young man who works extremely hard and he will get a lot out of the guys."

After spending two seasons as the Seahawk's starting fullback, the Carthage, NY native was shifted to the defensive line where he developed into a consistently productive performer. In helping lead the NEC's top defensive unit which played an integral role in the Seahawks' 2014 Co-NEC Championship team that went 5-1 in league play and 7-4 overall, Gibbons was credited with 20 tackles, including six tackles for loss, two sacks and one fumble recovery.

In 2012, his seven receptions for 68 yards and hard-nosed blocking ability from his fullback spot contributed greatly to Wagner's NEC championship team and eventual second-round appearance in the NCAA Division I FCS Championships.

Prior to his arrival on Grymes Hill, Gibbons was a top player at Carthage Central High School where he earned All-State, All-CNY, and All-League honors and was selected to play in the New York Upstate vs. Downstate Game, before prepping a year at Milford Academy for Coach Bill Chaplick.

Also a scholastic standout wrestler and lacrosse player, he competed one season on the Wagner men's lacrosse team where his physicality served him well in a defensive role.

DAVID FREDRICKSON TACKLES & TIGHT ENDS

A Staten Island native, David Fredrickson is entering his first season as an assistant coach at his alma mater after serving as a mainstay, two-year captain, and eventual All-NEC center.

After earning the starting center spot in 2011 preseason camp, Fredrickson, a rare left-handed center, started all 46 games in his Seahawk career, playing an integral role on the 2012 and 2014 NEC Championship teams. On the Seahawk staff, Fredrickson will tutor Wagner's tight ends and tackles.

"Obviously everyone around here knows who David is. He started 40-plus straight games for us at the center position and was an All-NEC player," said Seahawk head coach Jason Houghtaling. "He has an energy and an enthusiasm about the game, he wants to be a football coach. We know what we're going to get from him, which is what we want – high energy, high effort and someone who is accountable."

Fredrickson originally attended Idaho State University in Pocatello, Idaho, where he was a member of the football team, following a standout career at Poly Prep in Brooklyn where he played for Staten Island native and former NFL star Dino Mangiero.

ASSISTANT COACHES

MAX WASSEL INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Max Wassel enters his first season as an assistant coach. Following a brilliant playing career for the Seahawks, Wassel will coach the Seahawk inside linebackers in 2015.

"Max Wassel was a four-year guy here, started his last two years, fought through an injury, went on to be a captain for us an All-League player and just another one who really illustrates and exemplifies what we want out of our coaches, and out of our kids," said Seahawk head coach Jason Houghtaling.

As a senior in 2014, Wassel was a terror all season from his inside linebacker spot en route to earning First-Team All-NEC honors. Seemingly always around the action, the 5-11, 235-pound Totowa, New Jersey native was tops on the team with 81 tackles, a 7.5 average per game, which ranked No. 6 in the NEC. In addition, his 21 tackles for loss (for minus 61 yards) ranked No. 2 in the NEC while his 52 solo tackles ranked No. 3 in the league. He added four sacks (minus 35 yards), along with three pass deflections, two interceptions and two forced fumbles.

Against Sacred Heart on November 1, Wassel wowed the Seahawk faithful on hand as well as the audience viewing the game on ESPN3.com, by totaling an astounding 18 tackles, which was the highest individual tackling mark by an NEC player in 2014.

ZAMEL JOHNSON WIDE RECEIVERS

Zamel Johnson, a former standout at Port Richmond High School here on Staten Island, and Temple University, was named wide receivers coach in August, 2015.

"I'm thrilled to add Zamel to our staff," said Houghtaling. "He was a tremendous player at Temple, is someone who has a passion for teaching and brings obvious local ties as a former top student-athlete at Port Richmond. I'm confident Zamel will be of tremendous value to the Wagner football program and our wide receiver unit in particular."

Johnson originally attended Hofstra for one year before transferring to Temple after the Pride dropped its football program. In his four-year career at Temple, Johnson was a three-year starter at cornerback who amassed 77 tackles for the Owls. In 2013, Johnson earned a bachelor of arts degree from Temple while majoring in communications with a minor in Sociology.

Prior to embarking on his collegiate career, Johnson was a Staten Island Advance All-Star Team selection under head coach Lou Vesce at Port Richmond, where he starred at wide receiver and in the secondary, leading the Raiders to the 2008 PSAL championship and a perfect 13-0 record.

A four-year honor roll student at Port Richmond, Johnson was also a 2009 Staten Island Advance All-Star in both indoor and outdoor track, where he excelled in a host of different sprints.

In addition to his coaching duties at Wagner, Johnson will continue pursuing his master's degree in social work. Prior to his arrival on Grymes Hill, Johnson served as a teacher within the New York City Board of Education.

ERIC FRANKLIN DEFENSIVE BACKS

Eric Franklin is in his first season as an assistant coach at Wagner and will assist with the tutoring of the Seahawk defensive backs.

Franklin was a standout safety at the University of Maryland A fourth-year defensive back who was a key contributor where he saw action in 40 games with 25 starts for the Terrapins, amassing 181 tackles with 13 pass breakups and three interceptions.

Following his 2013 graduation from Maryland, he served as an assistant coach at his high school alma mater, Archbishop Curly High School in Baltimore, MD.

In 2013, Franklin served as wide receiver/tight ends, defensive backs and special teams coach before assuming the duties of defensive coordinator in 2014. He has also worked as a coach at the Danny O'Brien Elite Football Camp.

"Eric Franklin comes highly-recommended from Maryland where he was a really good player there in the secondary who's just cutting his teeth from a coaching standpoint and I think his assisting Coach Fullen back there will really give us an edge in the secondary. Eric has a bright future in coaching and we're fortunate to have him on our staff."

BRIAN TRACZ DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Brian Tracz became Wagner's strength and conditioning director in May, 2014 following a one-year stint on the strength staff at Elon University. Prior to his arrival at Elon, Tracz served as director of human performance at New Mexico Military Institute where he coordinated and implemented strength and conditioning programs for the football and eight other programs. His time at New Mexico Military Institute followed a five-year tenure at The Citadel, where he assisted nine varsity teams. A 2008 graduate of Fordham, Tracz earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in finance. While at Fordham, Tracz was a two-year letter-winner as a defensive lineman after transferring from Indiana University. His play helped Fordham earn the 2007 Patriot League title and a berth in the FCS Playoffs. Tracz was awarded his master's degree in health, exercise and sport science from The Citadel in 2011. His professional certifications include the NSCA's certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS), the Certified Sports Performance Coach through United States Weightlifting (USAW), and the Certified Level 1 Movement Specialist, Functional Movement Screen (FMS). He is also a certified CPR/AED Professional Rescuer.

A.J. FIRESTONE OPERATIONS DIRECTOR

A.J. Firestone, one of the most consistent and productive punters in Wagner history and a member of the Seahawks' 2012 and 2014 NEC championship teams, enters his first year on staff in the role of operations director.

At Wagner, Firestone is entrusted with the important function of coordinating a myriad of non-coaching aspects of the Seahawk football program, including budget, team travel, team meals, summer camps and housing program. Other duties include game day management as well as handling the coordination and planning of team events and special projects.

In his role, Firestone interfaces with the college's faculty and staff as well as the athletic department's facilities, marketing and media relations offices. A 2015 Wagner graduate, the Mercersburg, PA native, who began his collegiate career at Penn State, was a Second-Team All-NEC punter in both 2013 and 2014. For his career, Firestone punted the ball 168 times with a 37.9 yard average, with a long of 57 yards recorded at FIU (9/6/15). For his career, he had 48 punts downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line, 27 that were fair caught and another 18 that went into the end zone for touchbacks.

Firestone, who earned his degree while majoring in mathematics, was a three-time member of the NEC Academic Honor Roll.

STEVEN FUNK EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Steven Funk enters his first season as equipment manager for the Seahawk football program, having served for three years as an undergraduate student assistant at Randolph-Macon College.

Funk played football at Randolph-Macon before suffering a career-ending injury. He recently coached the tight ends and H-backs for the Yellow Jackets during spring ball. Last season, he assisted with the defensive coaching staff and more specifically, mentored the defensive line.

As a player, Funk contributed to the offensive scout team and competed for playing time as a freshman. During his first year as a student assistant he worked as a video coordinator, filming all of the practices and games. Funk's responsibilities grew into his junior year when he was brought back to the sidelines to mentor the offensive line.

2015 ALL-NEC PRE-SEASON TEAM

East Rutherford, NJ – Wagner was picked fourth in the 2015 Northeast Conference (NEC) Preseason Coaches Poll, while fifth-year defensive tackle Al Page (Bronx, NY/Columbus/Rutgers), senior tight end Ryan Owens (Gainesville, MY/Letchworth), and junior offensive lineman Matt Diaz (Edison, NJ/Edison/Milford Academy), were named to the 27-man 2015 Preseason All-NEC Team, the league office announced today at the first annual #NECFB Social Media Day today at MetLife Stadium.

Bryant was picked as the NEC preseason favorite. One of three teams to receive at least one first-place vote, the Bulldogs collected four top nods en-route to earning the moniker of “preseason favorite” for the first time in their history as a NEC member.

Duquesne, which earned the top spot on one of the seven ballots, finished second in the annual predicted order-of-finish. Meanwhile, two-time defending NEC champion Sacred Heart, which secured the remaining two first-place votes, found itself in third place when the survey results were tallied.

Wagner, which has earned a share of the NEC crown twice in the last three years, took fourth place in the poll ahead of Saint Francis U. Central Connecticut and Robert Morris, each of whom welcomed new head coaches prior to the 2014 campaign, rounded out the preseason poll results in sixth and seventh, respectively.

Led by first-year head coach Jason Houghtaling, the Green & White open the 2015 season on September 5 at FBS-member Rice with kickoff set for 3:30 p.m. EST. The Seahawks are looking to return seven offensive and five defensive starters from a team that went 7-4 with a 5-1 league mark in sharing 2014 NEC regular season championship honors with Sacred Heart.

A powerful athlete and an impressive physical specimen at 6-2, 295, Page was one of four NEC players recently named to the 2015 STATS FCS Preseason All-America Third Team. In his first season as a Seahawk after transferring from Rutgers, Page a huge impact, while earning First-Team All-NEC honors. He played an integral role on a defensive unit that led the NEC in a host of categories while also ranking in the NCAA Top 10 in three major categories – Rushing Defense, No. 2 (83.1), Total Defense, No. 6 (281.3) and Scoring Defense, No. 10 (18.0).

For the season, Page amassed 45 tackles, including 29 solo stops, and 18 tackles for loss (No. 4 in NEC) which went for minus 46 yards and was equally disruptive against the run as he was the pass, recording three sacks and six quarterback hurries.

The 6-4, 235-pound Owens is an explosive, athletic tight end who combines outstanding size with good hands, quickness and agility. The upstate New York native enters the 2015 season with 24 career receptions for 233 yards (9.7 average) and two touchdowns in 22 games. A member of the 2014 NEC Fall All-Academic Honor Roll, Owens recorded career highs with 15 receptions for 154 yards and two touchdowns last season, and had a career-high four catches for 29 yards at Monmouth (9/13).

In the season-ending 23-20 win at Bryant, which clinched a share of the NEC regular season title for the Seahawks, he had three receptions for a career-high 35 yards and a touchdown, a 10-yard third-quarter score which staked the Seahawks to a 13-0 lead. He also had an 18-yard TD grab at Lafayette (9/27).

Preseason Poll Results

1. Bryant (4)
2. Duquesne (1)
3. Sacred Heart (2)
4. WAGNER
5. Saint Francis U
6. Central Connecticut
6. Robert Morris

First place votes in parentheses ( ).

For the second straight season in 2015, Diaz is expected to be a leader up front, anchoring the left tackle spot for the Green & White. At 6-6, 290 pounds, he is a mobile and talented offensive lineman who boasts a wealth of explosion at the point of attack, in addition to his tremendous size. Agile and athletic, Diaz also possesses quick feet which allow him to use his wide body to prevent defensive linemen from entering the backfield.

Although it has proven to have value over the years, the preseason poll hasn't always been the best indicator of the final NEC standings. One year ago, Sacred Heart became the first preseason favorite in NEC History to go on and secure the league's automatic bid to the FCS playoffs.

Meanwhile, Wagner and Bryant both finished in the lower half of last year's preseason rankings, but were two of the last three teams left standings in the title hunt. The poll results have been turned upside more than once in recent years. In 2012, Wagner ascended from a seventh-place preseason ranking and into the National Top 25 at the year's end.

One year after Wagner defied preseason expectations to win a conference crown, Sacred Heart achieved the feat. The 2013 coaches' poll pegged the Pioneers for seventh, but Mark Nofri's bunch enjoyed a 10-win season while securing the program's second league title in 2015.

Capped the season with 212 yards of total offense (140 passing, 72 rushing) in a 23-20 comeback win at Bryant that clinched a share of the 2014 NEC crown with Sacred Heart ... Completed 10-of-22 passes and accounted for another 72 on the ground on 15 carries vs. the Bulldogs ... Combination of deft passing and elusive, hard running keyed a clutch 65-yard, nine-play, game-winning drive, which allowed Wagner to overcome a 20-16 deficit vs. the Bulldogs with 44 seconds left to play ... Completed passes of 20 and four yards while ripping off runs of 15, 13 and 10 yards during the final possession ... 10-yard sprint set the offense up in a first-and-goal situation at the Bryant 3-yard line with under 1:00 left ... This effort vs. Bryant earned him NEC Offensive Player of the Week honors.

2013: Played in eight games in 2013 while gaining starting assignments in three ... Had a passer efficiency rating of 91.6 for the season ... Threw for a season-high 223 yards and three touchdowns, in addition to rushing for 46 yards against Bryant (9/28) ... Rushed for a season-high 127 yards while passing for 63 yards to key 10-7 victory at Saint Francis U. (11/16) in season finale ... For the season, completed 32-of-75 passes for 375 yards, four touchdowns and four interceptions ... Was the Seahawks' third-leading rusher on the season with 227 yards on 73 attempts with a long run of 36 yards.

2012: Enrolled at Wagner in January, 2012 and took part in spring practice.

ABOUT THE NORTHEAST CONFERENCE

It is with great pride and anticipation that the Northeast Conference (NEC) enters its 34th year as an NCAA Division I athletic conference. Ten strong and committed to strengthening the conference from within, the NEC comes off the most successful year in league history in terms of athletic and academic success. Poised for a new era of growth, innovation and achievement under the leadership of Noreen Morris, the Conference will continue to build around the theme of #NECPride.

The NEC and its member institutions are committed to providing opportunities for student-athletes to achieve their fullest potential both in athletic competition and in the classroom. Likewise, the Conference continually strives to be an NCAA Division I leader for student-athlete achievement, academic excellence, integrity, sportsmanship, equity and diversity, community partnership and national engagement.

When the Northeast Conference (NEC) was first established as the ECAC-Metro Conference back in 1981, the league's founders had one goal in mind: to create a competitive NCAA Division I men's basketball conference for unaffiliated schools on the Eastern seaboard. A single-sport entity at its inception, the NEC has grown far beyond expectations over the past three plus decades, having transformed itself into a 10-member, 22-sport conference.

The remarkable success story of the Conference began to unfold in 1985, when the league began sponsoring additional sports. Three years later, a change of name was in order and the Northeast Conference as we know it today was born. With membership and sport sponsorship continuing to grow over the years, the NEC now enjoys qualification or play-in access to 14 different NCAA Championships (baseball, men's and women's basketball, football, men's and women's golf, men's and women's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis and women's volleyball).

NEC Footprint - 2013-14 (400w)

Though the NEC has featured various incarnations since its inception, charter members Fairleigh Dickinson, LIU Brooklyn, Robert Morris, St. Francis Brooklyn, Saint Francis U and Wagner remain part of the current 10-school alignment. They are joined by Mount St. Mary's (admitted in 1989), Central Connecticut (1997), Sacred Heart (1999) and Bryant (2012). The NEC's six-state geographic footprint includes access to such major media markets as New York City, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Hartford and Providence.

NEC member institutions now compete in 22 championship sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, women's bowling, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, men's and women's indoor track and field, men's and women's lacrosse, men's and women's outdoor track and field, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's swimming, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

An Innovative Leader

The NEC has embraced new and social media to convey its message to a growing fan base. The conference has attracted a loyal following in recent years on its Twitter, Facebook and YouTube pages, and the NEC Overtime! blog continues to grow in popularity.

Attempting to revolutionize the way its fans follow and interact with their favorite teams, the Conference launched NEC Front Row at the start of the 2012 fall season. The online digital network with free multi-platform access features a rich set of content, including live events, on-demand video, highlight packages, coaches shows, features, original programming and access to league's extensive digital library, all free of charge to users. The network gives fans inside access to the NEC and its student-athletes on the field, in the classroom, across campus, and in the community. By the end of May, over 700 events had been broadcast on NEC Front Row with viewership approaching 200,000 for the year.

All NEC championship webcasts in 2012-13 were produced in HD for the first time. Championships broadcast in their entirety were men's and women's soccer, field hockey, women's volleyball, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's lacrosse, softball and baseball. The Conference also aired portions of the women's bowling championship and two women's basketball semifinal games.

NEC Front Row proudly presented its first documentary short, #NECPride, Moon Magic, in April, recounting the events of a 48-hour period in March that culminated with Robert Morris defeating defending national champion Kentucky in the Postseason NIT.

The NEC Front Row studio set made its debut last winter two new segments. A weekly NEC on the Run video podcast spotlighted the best and brightest in NEC men's and women's hoops and featured the popular NEC9 countdown of the week's top plays from around the league. The Conference also debuted NEC Now, a segment devoted to breaking news and current hot topics in and around NEC sports.

For the first time in more than a decade, the NEC hosted a basketball preseason media day, but with a special twist. Combining social media and a state-of-the-art venue, the NEC hosted "Social" Media Day last October at the brand-new Barclay's Center on Flatbush Avenue in Brooklyn. The festivities aired live on NEC Front Row and a tape-delayed broadcast received multiple airings on Fox College Sports. The Front Row broadcast was an interactive one during which fans were encouraged to tweet comments and questions with the best making it on air.

NEC Front Row was there when the basketball season tipped off at "Social" Media Day, and returned for the climax as well via NEC Front Row Live! presented by Pilot

Pen. The online digital network was on the scene at the men's and women's title games, providing live pre- and post-game coverage via an ESPN-style floor level set.

Providing an alternate take on the world of NEC sports, the NEC Overtime! blog continued to grow its following during the 2012-13 academic year. The blog, along with the league's Facebook page, served as the home for numerous fan-based contests throughout the year, including #NECRoadTrip and #SweetGetaway promotions. The blog also served to reward the most rabid NEC fans who participated in social media-related activities (#NEC13 Sixth Man Award, #NECPridePix, #NECElite) throughout the NEC Basketball Tournament.

The NEC continued its partnership with sports talk stations WFAN Sports Radio 66 (New York) and KDKA 93.7 FM "The Fan" (Pittsburgh) to air 60-second NEC Notebook radio spots throughout the basketball season. With increased support through the NEC's basketball enhancement fund, the Conference was also able to add new markets in Baltimore (CBS Radio/ESPN Radio), Hartford (ESPN Radio/Fox Sports Radio) and Altoona (ESPN Radio) to its radio advertising mix last winter and help increase the league's exposure in these areas.

Over the last five years, the NEC has regionally televised over 125 basketball and football games, as the league's coverage area has expanded to over 50 million homes. Along with flagship station MSG Network, other regional television partners include Root Sports-Pittsburgh, MASN and Cox Sports. The NEC has also partnered with ESPN, ESPN3 and Fox College Sports to bring games to a national audience. In 2013, ESPN2 broadcast the NEC men's basketball championship game for the 26th straight year, while ESPNU carried the women's championship for the sixth year in a row.

Success in the Classroom

The NEC and its member institutions raised the bar once again with respect to the academic excellence displayed by the 4,800+ student-athletes who represented the Conference during the 2012-13 academic year.

NEC student-athletes averaged a record-high 3.18 GPA for the 2012-13 academic year and nine of the ten core member institutions finished the year with at least a 3.0 GPA. A record 2,339 student-athletes - nearly half of the league's competitors - were named to the NEC Academic Honor Roll in 2012-13, while an all-time high 585 were tabbed to the Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll with GPAs of 3.75 or higher. Likewise, eight NEC student-athletes were tabbed Capital One Academic All-Americans.

Additionally, the NCAA honored 44 NEC teams with public recognition awards for exceptional academic performance with respect to their latest Academic Progress Rate scores. The 44 teams earning Public Recognition established a new league record. NEC institutions also ranked among the nation's elite in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) figures released by the NCAA with 42 teams achieving a perfect 100 percent GSR in their respective sports and nearly 40 percent earning a GSR of over 90 percent. Student-athletes at Wagner posted an NEC all-time high 3.31 GPA to win the 2012-13 NEC Institutional Academic Award.

Athletic Achievement

The NEC sent representatives to NCAA Championship events in 15 different team sports in 2012-13, with a record five teams claiming victories on the grandest stage. Likewise, there were 15 NEC teams who were ranked in national polls at some point during their respective campaigns. A total of seven men's and women's track and field performers individually qualified for NCAA championships, and the Conference also sent a representative to the NCAA men's golf championship. Individually, 13 NEC student-athletes earned All-America honors in their respective sports.

For the second straight year and third time in league history, the NEC sent three men's basketball teams (LIU, Robert Morris and Bryant) to the postseason. In the 30+ years of NEC men's basketball history, no team had ever "three-peated" as champion until LIU Brooklyn etched its name in the league recordbook last March. The Blackbirds once again hoisted the trophy on their home court, beating Mount St. Mary's, 91-70, before a raucous, sellout crowd at the WRAC and nationwide ESPN2 audience. The Blackbirds have now won 72 games and posted a 44-10 record in NEC play over the last three seasons. In perhaps the most talked about win in league history, Robert Morris became the toast of the college basketball and social media world with its stunning 59-57 win over Kentucky in the first round of the Postseason NIT. Hosting the game before a record crowd at the Sewall Center, the Colonials raced out to an early lead and held on to beat the defending national champions, setting off a madcap postgame celebration that wasn't just confined to Moon Township. RMU and head coach Andrew Toole also trended worldwide on Twitter following the win. NEC women's basketball also matched an all-time high with three teams earning invitations to the postseason (Sacred Heart, Saint Francis U and Quinnipiac).

In just the third year the NEC has earned an autobid to the NCAA FCS playoffs, Wagner made history with its 31-20 win over Colgate in the first round of the FCS playoffs at Hameline Field. It marked the first-ever NCAA football victory for the NEC, and the Seahawks gave No. 2 Eastern Washington all it could handle in the second round, leading late in the third quarter before coming up short by a 29-19 final score. Wagner was ranked No. 21 in the final Sports Network FCS Poll and 22nd in the final FCS Coaches' Poll.

The NEC continued to earn national acclaim in men's soccer. Reminiscent of its run to the Elite Eight more than a decade earlier, Fairleigh Dickinson advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament after capturing its seventh NEC championship. The Knights ousted No. 18 St. John's (1-0) and No. 12 St. Louis (2-1 in 2 OT) on the road in the first two rounds, before dropping a 1-0 overtime decision at No. 9 North Carolina. FDU, which finished the season ranked 20th in the final NSCAA poll, has posted six of the NEC's eight all-time wins in NCAA men's soccer competition.

Arguably the most dominant women's bowling program of the last decade, Fairleigh Dickinson qualified for the NCAA Championship for the ninth time in ten years and reached the quarterfinals. FDU is a two-time national champion in the sport and has advanced to the national semis on eight occasions. Incredibly, every member of the 2013 NEC women's bowling tourney field ranked in the NTCA Top-20 in 2012-13. The NEC also produced five NTCA All-Americans this past season, including FDU's Danielle McEwan, who was named the NTCA Division I Player of the Year for the second consecutive year.

It was a historic season for Bryant baseball. The Bulldogs not only won a league-record 45 games and the NEC Tournament crown in their first year of eligibility, but also became the first NEC team to win a NCAA Tournament game with a 4-1 victory over SEC power Arkansas in the opener of the Manhattan, KS Regional. Bryant won 19 straight games at one point, the longest win streak in the nation last season. The Bulldogs also achieved their first national ranking in April, and became the first Northeast team ranked nationally since the 2011 season.

It was a year of firsts for CCSU softball. The Blue Devils won their first NEC Tournament in May, then claimed their first NCAA Tournament victory with a 9-1 win over Northwestern St. in the Baton Rouge regional.

THE NORTHEAST CONFERENCE

Bryant's men's lacrosse became the first in school history to qualify for the NCAA Tournament at the DI level, defeating Robert Morris, 14-7, in the conference final in Smithfield, RI. The Bulldogs, who finished the year ranked 20th nationally, battled top-seeded Syracuse evenly through the first two quarters in NCAA first round play, before succumbing, 12-7, in front of a national audience on ESPN. Bryant's Kevin Massa enjoyed a historical year, setting new NCAA single-season marks for faceoff wins, ground balls and ground balls per game. In the NCAA first round against Syracuse, he won an astounding 22-of-23 at the faceoff X.

Fairleigh Dickinson swept the NEC men's and women's tennis titles for the second straight season last April. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, FDU's Arvis Berzins became just the second player in NEC history to win a set in NCAA competition, beating No. 3 ranked Jarmere Jenkins of Virginia in the first set by a 6-3 score.

Scintillating Saint Francis U junior forward Tesa McKibben became the first three-time NEC Women's Soccer Player of the Year. She ranked in the top-five nationally in points per game, goals per game and game-winning goals.

CCSU men's cross country and Saint Francis U women's swimming and diving both won their fourth straight NEC championships.

Achieving All-American status in their respective sports during the 2012-13 academic year were Bryant's Kevin Brown (baseball), Jordan Harris (football) and Kevin Massa (lacrosse), FDU's Danielle McEwan (bowling) and Liat Vizenfeld (bowling), LIU Brooklyn's Brendon Rodney (men's indoor track and field), Robert Morris' Nolan Nearhoof (football), Sacred Heart's Jackie Carbonetto (bowling) and Marcello Castro (soccer), Adelphi's Samantha Morlack (bowling), Duquesne's Doran Bell (football), NJCU's Kelly Daunno (bowling) and Rider's Sandra Penas (field hockey).

Sacred Heart's John Murphy (sixth round, Yankees), Wagner's Ian Miller (14th, Mariners), LIU Brooklyn's Justin Topa (17th, Pirates), and Bryant's Kevin Brown (22nd, Cubs), Joe Michaud (33rd, Athletics) and Peter Kelich (38th, Padres) were all taken in the 2013 MLB Draft.

The NEC announced its third Hall of Fame class in January, 2013. The three-member class was comprised of Fairleigh Dickinson men's basketball player Desi Wilson, Mount St. Mary's women's basketball player Vanessa Blair and longtime Sacred Heart Executive Director of Athletics Don Cook.

On Campus & In The Community

The NEC welcomed the class of 2016 to campus last summer as part of its annual outreach program designed to raise awareness and develop the league's growing fan base. Over 10,000 freshman students were introduced to the Conference with a promotional gift bag and informative NEC Fan Guide.

The NEC, its member institutions and student-athletes have made community involvement an important piece of its mission. In 2012-13, the NEC Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were instrumental in spearheading Hurricane Sandy relief efforts in their communities and met in New York City during the holiday season to donate toys to the Toys for Tots program. The SAAC also participated in a "Penny Wars" fundraiser for a fourth straight year that resulted in a significant donation to the Cancer Recovery Foundation. To assist in raising breast cancer awareness, NEC women's volleyball teams supported "Dig Pink" and women's basketball teams participated in the WBCA's "Pink Zone" promotion.

For the third straight year, Sacred Heart was awarded the NEC Building Communities award. The award recognizes the institution that demonstrates the highest dedication to making an impact in the community through the efforts of its student-athletes, coaches and administrators. Over the course of the 2012-13 academic year, Sacred Heart donated over 8,100 hours of community service. In total, Conference members logged over 20,000 hours of community service.

Commitment to Sportsmanship

The NEC continued its participation in the NCAA's Respect Campaign, an effort to promote an environment of respect and integrity at Conference events.

The NEC Team Sportsmanship Award program recognized those teams and student-athletes who adhere to the principles of sportsmanship and pursue victory with honor. Saint Francis U finished the year with a league-high five NEC Team Sportsmanship awards. The Red Flash have led the NEC in sportsmanship honors in each of the five years since the program was instituted in 2008-09.

What's Next?

The NEC opened the 2013-14 academic year by introducing a modernized version of its primary and secondary marks, giving the Conference a fresh, yet familiar look moving forward. In recent years, the NEC has taken aim at elevating the brand awareness of the league, elevating the caliber of its championship events and enhancing the opportunities and experiences for student-athletes that compete in the Conference.

The NEC has raised its commitment to basketball through a host of strategic initiatives, most notably via a Brand and Basketball Enhancement fund, revised scheduling parameters and the implementation of state-of-the-art LED signage at all arenas. The NEC has also provided each institution with a basketball marketing grant that resulted in the highest attendance on the men's side in 15 years and the highest per-game average in women's basketball history last season.

The next evolution of NEC Front Row will come this fall with the debut of HD quality webcasts around the league. Likewise, with HD Tricasters being provided to each institution, schools will be able to record games in broadcast quality high definition from multiple angles. With this long-term upgrade, highlights from Front Row broadcasts can be fed to local news stations, regional sports networks and ESPN (SportsCenter Top-10), or used during NEC-TV games. The equipment will also come bundled with an HD replay system to be implemented for the 2013-14 basketball season.

Beginning in the fall of 2013, the NEC's online digital network will also have its own iPhone/iPad application that can be downloaded at no cost. Live and on-demand events will also be free of charge, and fans can take part in the conversation through the app's built-in social media capabilities.

Coming off the success of its #NECPride, Moon Magic documentary short, the NEC also plans to go back and revisit some of the greatest teams, student-athletes and moments that have shaped the league's history, all under the #NECPride film banner.

Wagner 21, Georgetown 3

August 30, 2014

Washington, DC – Senior quarterback Brian Gehring (Tigard, OR/Tigard/Laney JC) completed 13-of-19 passes for 163 yards and one touchdown, junior running back Otis Wright (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard) rushed for 74 yards on 23 carries, and senior safety Daquan Cooper (Philadelphia, PA/George Washington/Temple) led a dominating defensive effort with five tackles, as Wagner earned a 21-3 win at Georgetown in the season opener for both teams.

The Green & White offense was sharp early as Gehring directed a crisp 14-play, 80-yard drive that took 7:12 on its opening possession. The march was capped by a 20-yard TD strike from Gehring to senior wide receiver Anthony Carrington (Toms River, NJ/Toms River North) to make it 7-0 with 4:43 left in the opening quarter. For Gehring, who saw action in five games during his first season on Grymes Hills in 2013, it was his first career scoring pass while Carrington collected his sixth career touchdown reception.

Then, late in the first half, the Hoyas marched 42 yards in 10 plays as kicker Henry Darmstadter booted a 35-yard field goal with 0:00 on the clock to cut the deficit to 7-3 at halftime. Moments earlier, Darmstadter had missed a 40-yard field goal attempt but Wagner was called for offsides. On the re-try from five yards closer, Darmstadter nailed the 35-yarder.

Following an exchange of punts to open the second half, Wagner put together its second sustained touchdown drive. Taking over at the Seahawk 33, Gehring got things started by connecting with Preseason All-NEC senior tight end Bryant Watts (Burlington, NJ/Florence) for an 11-yard pickup. The 6-4., 205-pound signal-caller then picked up nine yards with his legs to move the ball into Hoya territory.

A pair of completions to senior wide receiver Ralph Greene (Tigard, OR/Tigard) of seven and nine yards, respectively, were followed by five consecutive rushes by Wright, the last being a one-yard touchdown jaunt. The 15-play, 67-yard drive took 7:02 of the clock and staked the Seahawks to a 14-3 with 4:35 remaining in the third quarter.

The Wagner defense, meanwhile, continued to flex its muscle, limiting Georgetown to 13 yards on five plays on its ensuing possession, forcing the Hoyas to punt the ball for the sixth time. Senior Steve Rene (Brooklyn, NY/Canarsie/Syracuse) gave the Seahawks excellent field position with a 19-yard punt return out to the Wagner 45.

From there, it took Wagner just 4:15 to march 55 yards on a nine-play drive that bridged the third and fourth quarters, culminating with a five-yard TD run by Wright who received an option pitch from Gehring before racing around right end. This score, which came at the 13:17 mark of the fourth quarter, extended the Seahawk lead to 21-3, effectively putting the game out of reach.

The big play in the this drive came on a 3rd-and-10 play from the Wagner 45 when sophomore wide receiver Lloyd Smith (Willingboro, NJ/Valley Forge Military Academy) made a gorgeous, one-handed 42-yard reception to the Hoya 13-yard line.

Wagner used a balanced offensive attack on this warm, muggy afternoon. In out-gaining Georgetown 330-204, the Seahawks accumulated 167 yards on the ground and 163 through the air. Smith was Gehring's favorite target, hauling in four passes for 71 yards, Greene finished with three receptions for 38 yards, while Carrington and Wright had two catches apiece.

In addition to Wright's 74 yards rushing, sophomore running back Matthias McKinnon (Albany, NY/Jireh Prep) added 42 yards on 10 carries while Rene chipped in 29 yards on eight attempts.

Defensively, the Seahawks controlled the line of scrimmage throughout. Aided by a pair of sacks, the 11-yarder by Matt Barnett and a nine-yard sack by senior outside linebacker Greg Hillard (Brockton, MA/Suffield Academy/UMass), Wagner held the Hoyas to just 19 net rushing yards on 20 attempts. Running back Jo'el Kimpela wound up as Georgetown's leading rusher with 10 yards on seven carries. Nolan completed 20-of-41 passes for 185 yards while backup quarterback Tim Barnes was 0-of-2 through the air in his one series of action.

In support of Cooper's five-tackle effort, Hilliard and senior cornerback Deangelo James (Miami, FL/American Senior) added four stops apiece. Senior inside linebacker Max Wassel (Totowa, NJ/Passaic Valley) had three tackles, two of which went for minus six yards in losses. Also contributing three tackles apiece in this magnificent, across-the-board defensive display, were junior linebacker Najee Harris (Norristown, PA/Norristown), fifth-year senior safety Daniel Mack (Miami, FL/Dade Christian/Wake Forest), senior cornerback Nevon Williams (Teaneck, NJ/Teaneck), fifth-year senior linebacker Trevor Loveland (Cherry Hills, NJ/Cherry Hill West/Hargrave) and senior inside linebacker Jarrid Williams (Poughkeepsie, NY/Poughkeepsie).

FIU 34, Wagner 3

September 6, 2014

Miami, FL - Florida International University (FIU), a member of the Football Championship Subdivision (FBS), took advantage of six Wagner turnovers en route to posting a 34-3 victory over the Seahawks at steamy Ocean Bank Field at FIU Stadium as both teams move to 1-1 on the young season.

The Panthers led by a count of 14-3 and extended the lead to 27-3 at halftime. After the teams played a scoreless third quarter the Panthers punched across another score in the fourth quarter in fashioning the final score of 34-3.

Seahawk senior quarterback Brian Gehring (Tigard, OR/Tigard/Laney JC), was under duress for most of the evening against the Panthers who compete in Conference USA, completed 10-of-21 passes for 65 yards and was intercepted twice. In addition to the two INTs, Wagner was also victimized by losing four fumbles. Junior quarterback Chris Andrews (Queens, NY/St. Joseph's/Valley Forge) completed 1-of-2 passes with the one connection being a gorgeous 55-yard fourth-quarter strike to senior wide receiver Anthony Carrington (Toms River, NJ/Toms River North). Carrington led the Seahawks with three receptions for 63 yards.

In the rushing department, sophomore running back Matthias McKinnon (Albany, NY/Jireh Prep) gained a team-high 34 yards on eight carries, while Gehring and junior running back Otis Wright (Fort Lauderdale, FL / Dillard) had 29 and 28 yards rushing, respectively.

Defensively, junior linebacker Stefon-Font Toomer (Bethlehem, PA / Liberty) recorded a team-high six tackles, two of which went for losses, and one sack. Senior linebacker Matt Wassel (Totowa, NJ / Passaic Valley) and junior linebacker Matt Barnett (Washington Township, NJ / Paul VI) registered five stops apiece. Senior punter A.J. Firestone (Mercersburg, PA / Mercersburg Academy / Penn State University) averaged 43.4 yards on eight punts and senior Bryan Maley's (Eagle River, Alaska / Chugiak) 21-yard first-quarter field goal accounted for Wagner's points.

Monmouth 21, Wagner 16

September 13, 2014

West Long Branch, NJ – The Wagner football team dropped a heartbreaking 21-16 decision in the rain at former Northeast Conference (NEC) rival Monmouth as freshman cornerback Mike Basile intercepted a pass in the end zone with 1:31 left to play in the game, preserving the Hawk victory.

With Wagner trailing 21-16 and just 3:20 left to play in the game, the Seahawks took over at the Monmouth 26-yard line when Hawk punter Ryan Mohr mishandled a snap as Seahawk junior linebacker Najee Harris (Norristown, PA/Norristown) pounced on the loose ball.

Consecutive passes from senior quarterback Brian Gehring (Tigard, OR/Tigard/Laney JC) to junior tight end Ryan Owens (Gainseville, NY/Letchworth) of eight and five yards gave Wagner a first down at the Hawk 13-yard line with less than two minutes to play. After a two-yard loss by sophomore running back Brandon Peoples (Abington Township, PA/Archbishop Wood), Gehring lofted a high pass to the far left corner of the end zone intended for fifth-senior tight end Bryant Watts (Burlington, NJ/Florence).

With the game potentially hanging in the balance, the 6-1 Basile made a leaping interception in front of the 6-5 Watts as the Hawks held on for the victory.

Gehring set career highs in passing completions, attempts and yards, going 23-of-37 through the air for 228 yards and was credited with 25 yards rushing on 10 attempts. His favorite target on the afternoon was senior wide receiver Ralph Greene (Tigard, OR/Tigard), his former high school teammate who finished with five receptions for 69 yards, both of which were career highs.

Registering six tackles apiece for the Green & White were senior inside linebacker Max Wassel (Totowa, NJ/Passaic Valley) and senior safety Daniel Mack (Miami, FL/Dade Christian/Wake Forest). Fifth-year senior cornerback Jarrett Dieudonne (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard/Purdue) came up with a 25-yard second-quarter interception as well as a fumble recovery. The interception was the ninth of his career.

The Hawks took a 15-9 halftime lead which preceded a scoreless third quarter. Monmouth made it a two-score game with 11:53 left to play when Hill tossed a 13-yard touchdown pass to Assante to cap a seven-play, 80-yard drive in 2:52. The Hawks then went for two but came up empty as the Seahawks' pressured Hill into a hurried throw leaving Monmouth with a 21-9 lead.

Wagner struck back on its next possession, putting together a crisp eight-play, 75-yard drive, which culminated in a pretty 30-yard scoring strike from Gehring to sophomore wide receiver Lloyd Smith (Willingboro, NJ/Valley Forge Military Academy) with 8:21 left to play. Maley's extra point drew the Seahawks to within 21-16, setting up the late-game drama.

Monmouth struck first in this contest. On the third play of the game from scrimmage, the Hawks recovered a Gehring fumble at the Seahawk 35-yard line and scored six plays later on a 14-yard touchdown pass from Hill to running back Asante to take a quick 7-0 lead with 10:43 left in the first quarter.

Late in the first quarter, the Seahawks put together a sharp 13-play, 63-yard drive that took 6:27 before stalling at the Hawk 14. Senior placekicker Bryan Maley (Eagle River, Alaska/Chugiak) came on to boot a 34-yard field with 1:24 to go in the opening quarter, making it a 7-3 game.

The Hawks took over at their own 26 and marched 74 yards in eight plays. The quick-strike drive was keyed by a 42-yard pass completion up the left sideline from Hill to wide receiver Neil Sterling and was capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass from Hill to tight end Hakeem Valles with 8:30 left in the half.

With 4:13 remaining in the half, the Seahawks took over at their own five yard-line following a well-placed 39-yard punt by Ryan Mohr. With Gehring operating the two-minute drill with precision, the Seahawks put together an impressive 13-play, 95-yard drive with Peoples scoring from one-yard out on a toss to the right with 17 seconds left in the half.

GAME 4

Lafayette 35, Wagner 23

September 27, 2014

Easton, PA – Wagner scored on its very first play from scrimmage on a 46-yard pass from senior quarterback Brian Gehring (Tigard, OR/Tigard/Laney JC) to sophomore running back Brandon Peoples (Abington Township, PA/Archbishop Wood) but the Seahawks wound up on the short end of a hard-fought and physical 35-23 decision at Lafayette tonight.

Gehring went 11-of-31 passing for 179 yards, with a career-high three-TD aerals and no interceptions. Peoples was Wagner's leading rusher with 12 carries for 68 yards while junior Otis Wright (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard) added 51 yards on 13 carries. Sophomore wide receiver Lloyd Smith (Willingboro, NJ/Valley Forge Military Academy) was the Seahawks' leading receiver with five catches for 71 yards.

Following the early Gehring to Peoples score, Lafayette answered with a seven-play, 71-yard drive, capped by a 43-yard touchdown pass from Reed to wide receiver Mike Duncan with 11:40 left in the opening quarter to knot the score at 7-7.

With Searfoss at the controls, the Leopards then scored a pair of touchdowns in the final 5:48 of the half to seize a 21-7 halftime lead. Lafayette took advantage of a Wright fumble at the Seahawk nine-yard line when, after the Wagner defense was stout on first and down, Searfoss hit wide receiver Matt Mrazek for a score on third-and-goal from the nine to make it 14-7.

After Lafayette took over on their own eight with 1:04 left in the half, the Leopards quickly moved the ball downfield. Searfoss found Scheuerman out of the backfield for consecutive games of 22 and 11 yards. After a 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the latter reception tacked on another 15 yards, Lafayette had a first down at the Seahawk 24 with 28 seconds to go in the half. On the very next play, Searfoss hit Justin Adams on the near sideline at the Wagner 16 and the Leopard wide receiver was able to wriggle his way out of a would-be tackler before scampering in for a 24-yard score to make it a 14-point bulge at halftime.

This Searfoss to Adams connection capped a quick-strike five-play, 92-yard drive that took just 46 seconds.

The Seahawks made it a 21-10 game when senior kicker Bryan Maley (Eagle River, Alaska / Chugiak), who had missed three first-half field goals, came on to boot a 39-yarder with 8:10 remaining in the third quarter.

With Lafayette facing third-and-five at its own 33 on the ensuing possession, Seahawk senior safety Daniel Mack (Miami, FL / Dade Christian) stepped in front of a Lafayette receiver to pick off a Searfoss pass at the Leopard 35. Mack then worked his way 18 yards up the left sideline to give Wagner a first down at the Lafayette 17.

On second-and-11 from the Leopard 18, Gehring delivered a gorgeous throw to his left, hitting junior tight end Ryan Owens (Gainesville, NY / Letchworth) in stride on a touchdown strike that drew the Seahawks within 21-17 with 6:01 left in the third quarter.

That's the way the score remained until the 5:44 mark of the fourth quarter when Scheuerman shook loose on a 27-yard touchdown jaunt on third-and-11 to make it a 28-17 game. The Seahawks answered right back with a four-play, 61-yard drive following a short Lafayette kickoff, when fifth-year senior tight end Bryant Watts (Burlington, NJ/Florence) came down with a tipped ball in traffic, in the end zone, for a 25-yard score to make it a 28-23 game with 4:52 left.

With Lafayette maintaining possession of the ball at its own 36, Wagner was forced to burn all three of its timeouts over the next minute of play. The Leopards then sealed the victory when Scheuerman burst free for a 55-yard touchdown score on third-and-11 from their own 45, which made it a 35-23 game with just 1:29 left.

The Seahawk defense, which Scheuerman described afterwards as "the most physical that we've faced all season", was led by senior inside linebacker Max Wassel (Totowa, NJ/Passaic Valley), who came up with a team-best nine tackles, in addition to being credited with 2.5 tackles for loss (minus five yards). Mack, had seven stops on the evening.

GAME 5

Wagner 26, Alderson Broaddus 0
October 4, 2014

Staten Island, NY – Sophomore running backs Matthias McKinnon (Albany, NY/Jireh Prep) and Brandon Peoples (Abington Township, PA/Archbishop Wood/Milford) rushed for 93 and 87 yards respectively, while fifth-year senior safety Daniel Mack (Miami, FL/Dade Christian) led a dominant defensive effort in leading Wagner to a 26-0 win over Alderson Broaddus at Hameline Field.

The Seahawks took a 6-0 late first-quarter lead when McKinnon capped a 4:41, nine-play, 75-yard drive with a 13-yard touchdown jaunt but the extra point failed leaving the score at 6-0. Midway through the second quarter, Wagner marched to the Alderson Broaddus 16-yard line before the drive stalled. Senior kicker Bryan Maley (Eagle River, Alaska/Chugiak) then came on to boot a 25-yard field goal to make it a 9-0 game which is how the score remained through end of the first half.

In the second half, Wagner took over on the Battler 39 following a punt and marched 33 yards before Alderson Broaddus came up with a third-down stop which resulted in a 23-yard Maley field goal which extended the lead to 12-0. With 13:48 to play in the game and the Seahawks leading by that 12-0 margin, Wagner took over on its own 14 with junior quarterback Chris Andrews (Queens, NY/St. Joseph's/Valley Forge Military Academy) at quarterback in place of senior starting signal-caller Brian Gehring (Tigard, OR/Tigard/Laney JC).

Andrews sparked the Seahawks during an impressive 5:09, eight-play, 86-yard drive that was keyed by a 45-yard McKinnon dash up the left sideline and capped by an Andrew one-yard touchdown plunge. This score put Wagner in front by a 19-0 margin.

The Green & White then put the game away when fifth-year senior cornerback Jarrett Dieudonne (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard) picked off a Wilson Vaughn pass at the 47 and scampered home with the touchdown at the 6:36 mark of the fourth quarter, fashioning the final score at 26-0.

The Seahawks' brilliant defensive effort was highlighted by a season-high three interceptions. In addition to Duieudonne, junior outside linebacker Najee Harris (Norristown, PA/Norristown) and senior cornerback Deangelo James (Miami, FL/American Senior) also came up with picks for the Green & White.

In addition to Cooper's team-high nine stops, Harris and senior inside linebacker Max Wassel (Totowa, NJ/Passaic Valley) recorded eight tackles each. For Harris, who also registered two pass breakups, the eight tackles are a career high. Senior defensive tackle Al Page (Bronx, NY/Christopher Columbus/Rutgers) wreaked havoc all evening, notching six tackles, including one for loss, and consistently was able to gain penetration into the Alderson Broaddus backfield.

Senior running back Steve Rene (Brooklyn, NY/Canarsie/Syracuse) wound up with 57 yards rushing on eight carries with a long run of 18 yards. While not attempting a pass during his fourth-quarter stint, the athletic, left-handed QB rushed six times for 31 yards. Gehring was 6-of-13 passing for 84 yards on the evening before giving way to Andrews. Junior tight end Ryan Owens (Gainesville, NY/Letchworth) was the Seahawks' leading receiver with two catches for 32 yards while sophomore wide receiver Lloyd Smith (Willingboro, NJ/Valley Forge Military Academy) had two receptions for 16 yards. The Seahawk shutout was aided by a fourth-quarter field goal block by senior cornerback Nevon Williams (Teaneck, NJ/Teaneck). For Williams, it was his first career blocked kick and the first for Wagner this season.

For the Battlers, Wilson was 13-of-31 through the air for 118 yards with tight end Cooper Schroeder his favorite target as he was on the receiving end of six passes for 81 yards. On the ground, running back Brandon Jones gained a team-high 55 yards on 21 carries. Defensively, Alderson Broaddus was paced by the fine play defensive end Jeff Stephens who was credited with a game-high 14 tackles, including three tackles for loss for minus 10 yards.

GAME 6

Wagner 46, Saint Francis U 39 2OT

October 11, 2014

Staten Island, NY – Junior quarterback Chris Andrews (Queens, NY/St. Joseph's/Valley Forge Military Academy) tossed a nine-yard touchdown pass to fifth-year senior tight end Bryant Watts (Burlington, NJ/Florence) in the second overtime, one of three TD receptions for the 6-5, 245-pounder, as Wagner earned a wild 46-39 win over Saint Francis U in the Northeast Conference (NEC) opener for both teams.

The Seahawks sealed the victory when senior linebackers Max Wassel (Totowa, NJ/Passaic Valley) and Anthony Emmanuele (Depew, NY/Depew) combined to sack Red Flash quarterback Zack Drayer for a 14-yard loss.

Wagner jumped out to an early 21-0 lead before Saint Francis U stormed back with 22 straight points to take a 22-21 lead. The lead would change hands five more times the rest of the way. The game was tied at 32-32 following regulation.

Andrews, who stepped in for starting quarterback Brian Gehring (Tigard, OR/Tigard/Laney JC) when the senior suffered a left wrist injury in the second quarter, completed 9-of-17 passes for 165 yards and two touchdowns while also leading the Green & White ground game with 63 yards on 16 carries while junior running back Otis Wright (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard) had 62 yards on 21 carries.

Sophomore wide receiver Isaiah Gills (Bel Air, MD/Hartford Technical) had a career game with seven receptions for 152 yards with a long of 47. All of Watts' three receptions (for 33 yards) went for touchdowns, which marks a single-game career-high for TD catches.

For SFU, Drayer went 14-of-31 though the air for 286 yards and four touchdowns. His favorite target was wide receiver Anthony Abeid who finished with eight receptions for 189 yards and two touchdowns. On the ground, shifty running back Khairi Dickson, who entered the game ranked No. 1 in all of FCS football with a 183.2-yard average, gained a hard-fought 125 yards rushing while logging 30 carries.

Defensively, Wassel and senior safety Daniel Mack (Miami, FL/Dade Christian/Wake Forest) tied for team-high honors with 10 tackles apiece for the Seahawks, while Emmanuele and fellow senior linebacker Greg Hilliard (Brockton, MA/Suffield Academy/UMass) recorded seven stops apiece.

For SFU, linebacker Solomon Laeno registered a game-high 13 tackles while defensive tackle Lorenzo Coscarelli had 12 tackles, including a game-high 10 solo stops.

Fifth-year senior cornerback Jarrett Dieudonne (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard/Purdue) came up with his 10th career interception, and it was a big one, as he out-leaped wide receiver Franklyn Williamson at midfield, snaring the pick midway through the fourth quarter that led to the touchdown drive which gave Wagner a 32-25 lead.

That lead was forged when Andrews hit Watts over the middle on a third-and-six pass for a 19-yard score with just 3:10 left to play in regulation to make it a 30-25 game. The Green & White then successfully executed the two-point conversion when Andrews hit junior tight end Ryan Owens (Gainesville, NY/Leftwich), extending the lead to 32-25.

Saint Francis U then countered with an eight-play, 90-yard drive with a 33-yard strike pass from Drayer to Abeid which made it first-and-goal, setting up a two-yard TD pass from Drayer to tight end Matt Camilletti with 30 seconds left in regulation, tying the game at 32-32 and forcing overtime.

Wagner won the toss in the initial overtime and deferred, putting its defense on the field first from the Seahawk 25. On the sixth play from scrimmage, Drayer hit Williamson on a nine-yard TD pass to put SFU on top, 39-32.

The Seahawks answered in four plays, all on the ground, with Wright taking it in from the two, with senior kicker Bryan Maley's (Eagle River, Alaska/Chugiak) extra-point knotting the game at 39-39. By overtime rules, Wagner then got the ball and the Seahawks covered the 25 yards in seven plays with Andrews hitting Watts on the nine-yard score which made it a 46-39 game.

The Seahawks then staged their dramatic game-ending defensive stand. With SFU facing a second-and-10 from the Seahawk 12, senior safety Daquan Cooper (Philadelphia, PA/George Washington/Temple) deflected an on-target half-back option pass from Dickson, intended for wide receiver Terrell Smith, in the end zone. On third-and-10, Hilliard came up with a pass deflection as well, which set the stage for the fourth-and-10 play which resulted in the Wassel/Emmanuele combination sack of Drayer, sealing the win.

Wagner 20, Central Connecticut 10

October 25, 2014

New Britain, CT – Mobile junior quarterback Chris Andrews (Queens, NY/St. Joseph's/Valley Forge Military Academy) ran for a game-high 84 yards on 17 carries and two touchdowns and the Wagner defense recorded three interceptions while holding high-powered running back Rob Holloman to 54 yards rushing, in recording a 20-10 win at Central Connecticut.

Seahawk junior running back Otis Wright (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard) added 77 yards rushing on 18 carries today vs. CCSU while sophomore Lloyd Smith (Willingboro, NJ/Valley Forge Military Academy) was the Seahawks' leading receiver with four catches for 61 yards.

Defensively, the Seahawks were paced by a trio of playmakers who recorded eight tackles apiece in senior linebacker Max Wassel (Totowa, NJ/Passaic Valley), junior linebacker Stefon Font-Toomer (Bethlehem, PA/Liberty) and fifth-year senior safety Daniel Mack (Miami, FL/Dade Christian/Wake Forest).

Hollomon, CCSU's all-time leading rusher with 3,430 yards entering the day, came into the contest averaging 124.9 yards rushing per game. This afternoon, the Seahawk defense held the speedy 5-8, 170-pound Philadelphia, PA native to 54 yards on 22 carries.

Wagner made a big defensive play early which led to the first points of the game. With CCSU facing a second-and-10 from its own 42 on the Blue Devils' initial possession, senior defensive end John Aubel (Islip, NY/Nassau CC/Buffalo) hit CCSU QB Nick SanGiacomo as the junior was releasing the ball, and senior linebacker Greg Hilliard (Brockton, MA/Suffield Academy/UMass) plucked the ball out of the air and returned it 23 yards to the Blue Devil 21.

Hilliard's first career INT led to a 23-yard field goal by senior Bryan Maley (Eagle River, Alaska/Chugiak) which gave the Seahawks an early 3-0 lead midway through the first quarter. Another Wagner interception led to the Seahawks' first touchdown of the game, when fifth-year senior cornerback Jarrett Dieudonne (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard) picked off a SanGiacomo pass and returned it 43 yards.

This was the first of two interceptions on the day for Dieudonne and set up an eight-play, 53-yard drive that was highlighted by an 18-yard Andrews to Smith completion. This connection set up a three-yard Andrews touchdown run, with 9:40 left in the opening half, which staked the Seahawks to a 10-0 lead.

CCSU struck back quickly, however, on the second play of its next possession when SanGiacomo hit wide receiver Tyrell Homes on the near sideline and the senior outspurred everyone en route to a 69-yard touchdown, making it a 10-7 game with 8:55 remaining in the half.

That's the way the score remained through halftime and into the early part of the third quarter before a huge Wagner special teams play set up the Seahawks' next touchdown. After CCSU was penalized for holding on the opening kickoff the second half, CCSU was backed up to its own 12. With CCSU facing fourth-and-one from its own 21, freshman defensive lineman Jordon Baskerville (West Point, NY/Milford Academy) knifed through to block Groth's punt with Font-Toomer recovering at the Blue Devil five. On third-and-goal from the three, Andrews scampered into the end zone for his second TD on the afternoon, making it a two-score game at 17-7 with 11:52 remaining in the third quarter.

Dieudonne's second interception of the game on CCSU's ensuing drive squelched a Blue Devil threat when a heavily-pressured San Giacomo lofted a 2nd-and-10 pass from the Seahawk 34 that the Purdue transfer picked off at the five.

With 3:59 to go in the third quarter, Groth again made it a one-score game by drilling a 31-yard field goal to draw the Devils to within 17-10. Wagner then answered with an eight-play, 57-yard march that bridged the third and fourth quarters, resulting in Maley's second 23-yard field goal of the game, making it a two-score game again at 20-10 with 14:13 left to play.

The Wagner defense continued its solid play the rest of the way in preserving the win. CCSU redshirt freshman QB Quinn Fleeting came on in place of SanGiacomo, who was shaken up, and completed 3-of-6 passes for 47 yards but was unable to lead the Blue Devils to any scores.

The Seahawks took over at its own 36 with 6:34 to play after Fleeting misfired on fourth-and-one. In impressive fashion, Wagner ran the ball 11 consecutive times, recording three first downs, while taking 5:23 off the clock and forcing CCSU to call its final two timeouts. By the time the Blue Devils took over on downs at their own 25, there was just 1:11 left to play and the Seahawk defense salted it away from there.

GAME 8

Sacred Heart 23, Wagner 7

November 1, 2014

Staten Island, NY - In a wild, action-packed game that featured several huge, momentum-swinging plays, defending Northeast Conference (NEC) champion Sacred Heart posted a defensive-minded 23-7 win over Wagner this afternoon at wet and windy Hameline Field on Homecoming Day.

With the loss, the Seahawks saw their three-game winning streak come to an end as Wagner falls to 4-4 on the season, 2-1 in the NEC while the Pioneers improve to 7-2 overall, and are now 3-1 in league play.

Sacred Heart defensive back Preston Sanford returned a blocked field goal 96 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter that gave the Pioneers a 17-7 lead. On Sacred Heart's next possession, Seahawk freshman defensive lineman Jordan Baskerville (West Point, NY/Milford Academy) blocked a field goal but SHU fullback Pat Casey scooped it up and ran it in for a 26-yard touchdown.

Junior running back Otis Wright (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard) carried the ball 16 times for a career-high 98 yards, highlighted by a 53-yard first-quarter touchdown run that gave Wagner a 7-0 lead. Fifth-year senior linebacker Max Wassel (Totowa, NJ/Passaic Valley) delivered a career-high 18-tackle effort, headlined by a career-high 11 solo stops and two forced fumbles. The 5-11, 235-pound captain was credited with three tackles for loss, including a sack.

Sacred Heart quarterback RJ Noel completed 13 of 28 passes for 114 yards and gained 33 yards on 14 rushing attempts. Wide Receiver Moses Webb scored on an eight-yard reverse just before halftime to give Sacred Heart a 10-7 lead at the break, while also coming up with five receptions for 51 yards.

Trailing 10-7 early in the fourth quarter, the Seahawks were on the verge of tying the game when a 35-yard field goal attempt by senior kicker Bryan Maley (Eagle River, Alaska/Chugiak) was blocked by defensive back J.D. Roussel. Sanford picked up the loose ball at the four-yard line and weaved his way 96 yards that put SHU up by two scores.

Sacred Heart kicker Chris Rogers converted a 20-yard field goal 11 seconds into the second quarter to put the Pioneers on the board. It was the 45th career field goal for Rogers, who became the NEC all-time leader with the kick.

GAME 9

Wagner 20, Robert Morris

November 8, 2014

Moon Township, PA – Fifth-year senior cornerback Jarrett Dieudonne (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard) highlighted a dominant defensive effort with a 99-yard pick-six and junior quarterback Chris Andrews (Queens, NY/St. Joseph's/Valley Forge Military Academy) rushed for 61 yards and a touchdown while passing for 95 yards, in leading Wagner to a 20-0 Northeast Conference (NEC) win at Robert Morris.

The Green & White conclude the regular season on November 22 at Bryant. A Wagner win over Duquesne next week, coupled with a Bryant win at Sacred Heart, would mean that the Seahawks-Bulldogs matchup in Smithfield, RI on November 22 would be for the NEC Championship.

Wagner got on the board via a safety in this one late in the first quarter when a high snap sailed over the head of RMU punter Tony LaMancusa who was standing on his own 30-yard line. The ball bounded into the Colonials' end zone before the quick-thinking LaMancusa scrambled back to kick the ball through the end line for a safety and 2-0 Wagner lead.

On the Seahawk's ensuing drive, senior kicker Bryan Maley (Eagle River, Alaska/Chugiak) booted a 37-yard field goal to make it a 5-0 game. Late in the first half, Wagner put together an impressive and well-executed 11-play, 73-yard drive, keyed by a 28-yard Andrews scamper on a designed quarterback draw that gave Wagner a first-and-goal at the two in the waning seconds of the half.

On third-and-goal from the RMU one, Andrews barreled his way into the end zone, with just 18 seconds left in the half, for his fourth touchdown run of the season. A blocked extra point made it an 11-0 Wagner lead at halftime.

With 9:03 left in the third quarter, Maley banged his second field goal of the game through the uprights, this one a 30-yarder, to make it a 14-0 game. That's the way things stood until Dieudonne came up with his big INT return. A missed extra point left Wagner with a 20-0 lead which wound up being the final score.

The shutout was the second recorded by the Seahawks this season as Wagner blanked Alderson Broaddus 26-0 on October 4. That win also featured a Dieudonne interception return for a TD which also capped that day's scoring as the Sunshine State native's 47-yard fourth quarter pick-six fashioned the final score at 26-0.

For Dieudonne, today's interception was his NEC-leading sixth of the season and 13th of his career which ranks No. 6 on the Wagner all-time interception list and ties for sixth on the NEC's all-time list. In addition, his six INTs this season place him in a tie for fifth on the Seahawk single-season list and tied for second all-time on the NEC single-season list as eight different players are tied for first with seven single-season interceptions.

Dieudonne's 99-yard INT return came on the final play of the third quarter and was a game-changer as Wagner was leading 14-0 at the time and the Colonials had it second-and-goal at the Seahawk four yard line. The 6-1, 190-pound Dieudonne snared a pass from RMU quarterback Joe Carroll at the one yard line and raced it back 99 yards.

Carroll was the third RMU quarterback to see action during the game as both starter Derik Abbott and backup Luke Brumbaugh were shaken up and forced to leave the game.

The 99-yard interception return is the second-longest in Wagner history. On November 12, 1966, Jim Jenkins returned an interception 104 yards for a score vs. C.W. Post.

Fifth-year senior safety Daniel Mack (Miami, FL/ Dade Christian) led Wagner defensively with six tackles and snared his second interception of the season, which he returned 50 yards, on the final play of the first half.

This complete team defensive effort included five different players recording five tackles each in Dieudonne, senior nose tackle Al Page (Bronx, NY/Christopher Columbus, senior linebackers Max Wassel (Totowa, NJ/Passaic Valley) and Jarrid Williams (Poughkeepsie, NY/Poughkeepsie), along with junior safety Bruce Brittingham (Trenton, NJ/Perkiomen School).

The relentless Seahawk defense registered a season-high five sacks for minus 46 yards which helped contribute to Robert Morris finishing with minus 17 rushing yards on 37 attempts as the Colonials managed just 132 yards of total offense. Wagner, meanwhile, churned out 120 yards on the ground to go with 95 passing yards for a total of 215 yards.

Wagner 23, Duquesne 13
November 15, 2014

Staten Island, NY – Sophomore running back Matthias McKinnon (Albany, NY/Jireh Prep) rushed for a career-high 90 yards on 17 carries and a touchdown and fifth-year senior cornerback Jarrett Dieudonne (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard) came up with his third interception return for a touchdown this season, and seventh pick overall, in leading Wagner to a 23-13 victory over Duquesne on Senior Day.

The Seahawks got on the board first today vs. Duquesne with 1:18 left in the first quarter when McKinnon barreled into the end zone from two yards out on a third-and-goal, to cap a crisp 11-play, 80-yard drive that took 6:07, to make it 7-0.

Duquesne answered with a late second-quarter 10-play, 69-yard drive, culminating in a four-yard touchdown run by Wayne Capers with 2:11 left, and the score remained 7-7 at halftime. Two plays prior to this score, Duquesne starting quarterback Dillon Buechel was shaken up on a hit by senior linebacker Max Wassel (Totowa, NJ/Passaic Valley), who was whistled for a targeting penalty and ejected from the game.

The Seahawks took a 10-7 lead with 9:03 left in the third quarter when senior Bryan Maley (Eagle River, Alaska/Chugiak) drilled a 34-yard field goal, which capped an 8-play, 37-yard drive. In the fourth quarter, Wagner put together the drive of the season, a mammoth 19-play, 83-yard march that took 10:43 off the clock, and culminated on a one-yard score by junior running back Otis Wright (Fort Lauderdale, FL/Dillard), which made it a 17-7 lead.

Dieudonne then struck again, stepping in front of a pass by Dukes' QB Mike LoPresti and returning it 24 yards for a touchdown. Dieudonne's third pick-six of the season made it a 23-7 game at the 7:43 mark of the fourth quarter following a failed extra point try.

The Dukes answered with a one-yard touchdown run by Ryan Ho with 3:55 left to play but it was too little, too late for Duquesne.

Wagner, which entered the game No. 1 in the NEC and No. 3 nationally in run defense, held the Dukes to 90 yards rushing on 30 carries while recording three sacks. The Dukes also managed just 95 passing yards vs. a Green & White defense that came into the ranked No. 7 overall.

For the game, Wagner pounded the ball for a season-high 234 yards on the ground, averaging 4.6 yards a clip on 50 rushing attempts, and outgained Duquesne by a comfortable 309-185 advantage. Entering the contest ranked No. 7 in the nation with a time of possession average of 32:47, Wagner held a 33:48-26:12 edge in this department on the afternoon.

In addition to McKinnon's 90-yard day, Wright averaged more than seven yards per pop on 61 yards in eight carries while junior quarterback Chris Andrews (Queens, NY/Valley Forge Military) scampered for another 47 yards on 19 carries. The left-handed Andrews was an efficient 9-of-14 through the air for 80 yards, spreading the ball to eight different receivers.

The Wagner defense, which was forced to play more than half the game without Wassel, the team's leading tackler, was led by senior outside linebacker Greg Hilliard (Brockton, MA/UMass) who had a team-high eight stops, including a sack and three tackles for loss. Fellow linebackers Stefon Font-Toomer (Bethlehem, PA/Liberty), a junior, and senior Anthony Emmanuele (Depew, NY/Depew) each finished with five tackles. Fifth-year senior punter A.J. Firestone (Mercersburg, PA/Mercersburg Academy) dropped three punts inside the Duquesne 20-yard line.

For Duquesne, the Dukes were led defensively by Nathan Stone's 14 tackles while Sam Martello added 11. Offensively, Buechel was an effective 9-of-13 passing for 92 yards prior to his injury while backup Mike LoPresti was just 3-of-8 for three yards on the day. Marcus Hughes was the Dukes' leading ground-gainer with 60 yards on nine carries while wide receiver Devin Rahming caught five passes for 60 yards.

GAME 11

Wagner 23, Bryant 20

November 22, 2014

Smithfield, RI - The Wagner defense came up with four interceptions, junior quarterback Chris Andrews (Queens, NY/Valley Forge Military Academy) ran for 95 yards, while passing for another 140, and sophomore running back Brandon Peoples (Abington Township, PA/Archbishop Wood) ran for two scores as the Seahawks claimed a share of the 2014 NEC Title with a thrilling 23-20 win at Bryant.

With the victory, Wagner completes the 2014 season with a final overall record of 7-4, winning six of their final seven games, including the last three, to finish with a 5-1 mark in the NEC. The only blemish on the Seahawks' conference record was a 23-7 home loss to Sacred Heart on November 1.

The Pioneers, who completed their season with a 14-7 home win over Bryant last week, matched Wagner's 5-1 NEC record (9-2 overall) but it's the Pioneers who will represent the NEC in the upcoming Division I FCS Playoffs by virtue of their head-to-head win over the Seahawks.

For Wagner, the 2014 NEC regular season crown, which they share with Sacred Heart, marks the second regular season conference title in the last three years. After opening the 2012 season 0-3, the Green & White reeled off nine consecutive victories en route to the first NEC Championship in school history.

In similar fashion, this year's Seahawks opened the season at 1-3, dropping three straight games following a season-opening win at Georgetown. Fueled by a defense, which entered today's play ranked No. 3 nationally in rushing defense (85.7), No. 5 in total defense (271.6 yards) and No. 9 in fewest points allowed (17.8), combined with an opportunistic offense, the Seahawks closed the season by winning six of their last seven.

Four different Seahawks had one interception apiece - senior free safety Daquan Cooper (Philadelphia, PA/George Washington/Tempe), fifth-year senior inside linebacker Max Wassel (Totowa, NJ/Passaic Valley), and senior cornerback Nevon Williams (Teaneck, NJ/Teaneck) and senior cornerback Deangelo James (Miami, FL/American Senior).

Wassel and senior outside linebacker Greg Hilliard (Brockton, MA/Suffield Academy/UMass) led the Seahawks defense with six tackles apiece while Williams, senior strong safety Daniel Mack (Miami, FL/Dade Christian/Wake Forest) and junior inside linebacker Stefon Font-Toomer (Bethlehem, PA/Liberty) contributed five tackles apiece.

Wagner led for most of the game and held both the field position and time of possession battle advantage thanks in large part to the four interceptions, three of which came in the first half. The Seahawks were unable to take full advantage of the first-half turnovers in taking a 7-0 halftime lead on a three-yard TD run by Peoples just 4:03 into the game. That's the way the score stood until a James interception and return gave the Seahawks the ball at the Bulldogs' 16 which led to a 10-yard touchdown pass from Andrews to junior tight end Ryan Owens (Gainseville, NY/Leftwich) as the left-hander took a big hit as he released the ball.

The extra-point try, however, by senior Bryan Maley (Eagle River, Alaska/Chugiak), hit the left upright, leaving Wagner in front by a 13-0 count. Bryant answered quickly on its ensuing drive with Easton hitting wide receiver Keenan Thompson on a 61-yard hook-up with 8:00 left in the third quarter to make it a 13-7 game. Wagner extended its lead late in the third quarter when Maley hit a 20-yard field goal.

The Bulldogs fought back with a 12-play, 60-yard drive, capped by a 17-yard scoring pass from Easton to tight end John Lavin. Bryant's extra-point try then missed, leaving the Seahawks in front by a field goal at 16-13. Midway through the fourth quarter, Bryant took its first lead on a beautifully-executed hook and ladder play. The play began with a 17-yard completion from Easton to wide receiver Taylor Barthelette at the Wagner 40, with Barthelette then lateraling the ball to running back Rico Carty who raced into the end zone to put the Bulldogs on top, 20-16.

Wagner then answered with a drive that will undoubtedly be recalled fondly within Seahawk Nation for years to come. A combination of deft passing and elusive, hard running from Andrews keyed a clutch 65-yard, nine-play drive, which was culminated by a three-yard TD run by Peoples, his second of the game, that put the Seahawks back out in front, 23-20 with just 44 seconds left to play.

Easton marched the Bulldogs into scoring range but his "Hail Mary" pass into the end zone, on the final play of the game, was batted away in traffic and the Seahawk celebration was on.

During Wagner's game-winning drive, Andrews was the catalyst, accounting for the first 62 yards of the drive, with Peoples taking care of the final three yards. Facing a 20-16 deficit, the Wagner defense forced a Bryant punt with the Seahawks taking over on their own 35 with just 2:40 to play.

Andrews then went to work, completing passes of 20 and four yards to his tight ends, Owens, and fifth-year senior Bryant Watts, respectively. He also carried the ball three times for 38 yards, on runs of 15, 13 and 10 yards, the latter giving Wagner a first-and-goal at the three, setting up the Peoples three-yard, game-winning touchdown.

Annually at homecoming, two Wagner College football players are selected to receive special awards for outstanding play.

The James Robb Memorial Trophy is presented to the outstanding offensive player, while the Nick Lia Memorial Trophy is awarded to the Seahawks' outstanding defensive player.

Established in 1949, the Robb Trophy was named in memory of James Robb, a Seahawk gridiron star who was killed in action during World War II. It was presented to Wagner's outstanding individual player in the annual Homecoming game until 1969.

In that season, the Lia Trophy was introduced in honor of another Wagner football player, Nick Lia. The 1965 recipient of the Robb Trophy was killed in the Vietnam War. An outstanding defensive player and team captain, the Staten Island native was a graduate of Curtis High School.

In 2000, Lt. Nick Lia was honored for his athletic achievements by being inducted into the Wagner College Athletics Hall of Fame. Lia helped lead the 1964 football team to an undefeated season and captained the '65 team.

This year's winners, as selected by an alumni panel, will be announced at the end of this season's Homecoming contest.

Each recipient receives an award and his name is added to the standing trophies Son display in the Hall of Fame Room in the Spiro Sports Center.

1920-1939

The first team: Wagner College Football 1927

OCTOBER 1, 1927

Wagner plays its first varsity football game, losing 44-6 to the New York Aggies in Farmingdale, Long Island. Gus Keifer scores the first points in Wagner history on a 50-yard interception return for a touchdown.

NOVEMBER 5, 1927

The first win in Wagner football history is recorded. Wagner defeats City College of New York 14-13.

OCTOBER 13, 1928

The Green Wave plays its first game at Wagner Field. The football team will call the field home for forty seasons, until Fischer Memorial Field is christened in 1967.

Gus Keifer, 1928 Football Captain

Bill Wiley

1933

After two losses by a combined score of 71-0, the remainder of Wagner's 1933 schedule is cancelled due to a shortage of players. Coach Frank Spotts organizes intramural games and promises to field a team the following season.

NOVEMBER 12, 1938

Wagner defeats Bergen County College 24-0 to finish the season with a 4-2 record, its first winning season. This signals an amazing turnaround as the Green Wave had been winless for the previous three seasons.

1940-1959

Michael Perfect in 1940

Don Cavalli in 1959

NOVEMBER 20, 1941

Wagner's 27-0 win over Brooklyn caps a 5-1 season, the most wins in school history. Senior stars such as Bob Burton, George Schipani and Bill Wiley finish their varsity careers with an unprecedented record of 17-6-1.

MAY 26, 1947

New York Giants football star Jim Lee Howell is named Wagner's head coach. The student body adopts the name Seahawks for the school's athletic teams before the season.

NOVEMBER 12, 1949

Chester Selitto earns the first James Robb Trophy, awarded annually to the outstanding player in the Homecoming game. Robb excelled on the football field before graduating Wagner in 1935. He was killed during World War II.

NOVEMBER 19, 1949

The Seahawks trounce Panzer 52-12, the most points a Wagner team would score until 1980. They finish the season 7-1-1, closing with an eight-game unbeaten streak. Jay Quintana, Matt Scaffa, Chester Selitto and Don Drown lead an offense which scores 254 points, a Wagner mark which will be topped just once before 1980.

1957

John Mangiante becomes the only Seahawk to win three Robb Trophies. Mangiante won the award for the first time in 1952, before entering the service. He returned to Grymes Hill to capture the award in 1956 and 1957.

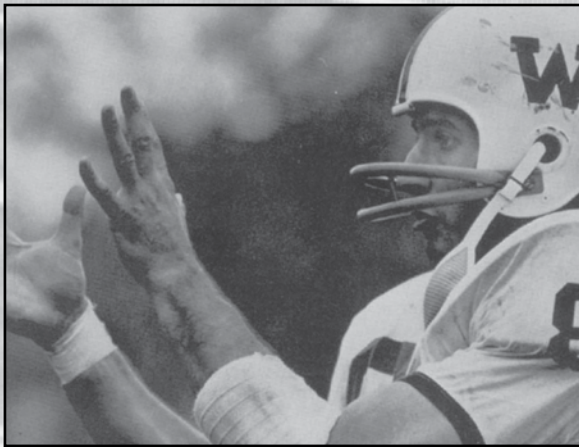

1959

Don Cavalli throws for a Wagner record 382 yards in a 28-6 win over Susquehanna, a mark which would stand for 35 years. Cavalli would go on to pass for 4,393 yards from 1958-61, a mark which would also stand until 1994.

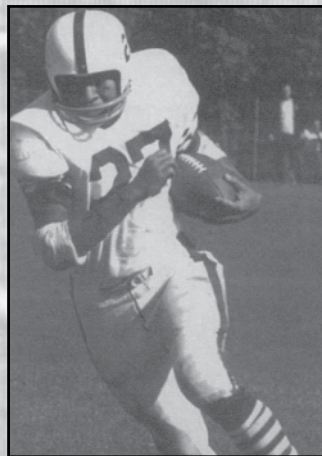

Head Coach Mickey Sullivan and John Mangiante in 1957

1960s ~ 1970s

Tight end Rich Kotite (above) and safety Mike Kelly (right) were standouts in the mid-60s and both are members of the WC Athletics Hall of Fame.

1973
Seahawk linebacker Scott Spratford is named the Met Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

1974
Defensive back Tony Parisi is named Wagner's third AP first team Little All-American. He remains Wagner's career leader with 24 interceptions.

1960

Quarterback Don Cavalli hooks up with his wide receiver roommate Al Ferrie for eight touchdowns as the Seahawks set a school mark with 256 points on the way to a 9-0 season, the first undefeated record in school history.

1962

Mickey Sullivan becomes the first head coach to leave Wagner with a career winning record, finishing 26-16-0 in five seasons.

1964

Another prolific pass-catch combo guides Wagner to its second undefeated season at 10-0. Quarterback Dan Coughlin throws for a school-record 1,810 yards, 943 of which go to tight end Rich Kotite.

1965

Tight end Rich Kotite is named Wagner's first Little All-American, earning first team honors from the Associated Press after finishing his Wagner career with 119 catches for 2,065 yards.

SEPTEMBER 23, 1967

The Seahawks play their first game on Fischer Memorial Field, defeating Western Maryland 25-8 before 2,700 fans.

DECEMBER 14, 1967

Wagner's Little All-America defensive tackle John Glostein is presented with the Lambert Bowl, awarded to the top Division III team in the East, as the Seahawks post their third undefeated season in eight years at 9-0.

NOVEMBER 1, 1969

Greg Coe is the first winner of the Nick Lia Memorial Trophy, named for the former Seahawk captain who was killed in Vietnam. The award is presented to Wagner's outstanding defensive player in the annual Homecoming game.

1976

SEPTEMBER 11, 1993

Linebacker Ryan Tobin makes a Wagner record 27 tackles against C.W. Post. He leaves Wagner second all-time in tackles and a single-season record 150 in 1993.

OCTOBER 16, 1993

Head coach Walt Hameline notches his 100th win, 47-10 over Pace.

Linebacker Ryan Tobin (1990-93) holds several defensive records for the record with 383 yards passing against San Diego. Cue finishes his Wagner career as the season and career leader in passing yards, despite playing just two seasons after transferring to Grymes Hill.

NOVEMBER 11, 1995

Kito Lockwood joins Terry Underwood and Alonzo Patterson as the only Seahawks to top 3,000 career rushing yards, finishing with 3,156.

NOVEMBER 20, 1993

Chris Purdy's four rushing touchdowns spark Wagner's 32-0 win over Iona for a record fifth ECAC Championship in the Seahawks' first season in Division I-AA.

NOVEMBER 8, 1994

Jason Cue breaks a 34 year-old Wagner

1996

Wagner becomes a charter member of the Northeast Conference in football. The Seahawks join charter members Robert Morris, Monmouth, St. Francis (PA) and Central Connecticut St.

OCTOBER 26, 1996

Sean Hurley breaks Rich Kotite's Seahawk record for career receptions. Hurley finishes his career with 131 receptions.

SEPTEMBER 13, 1997

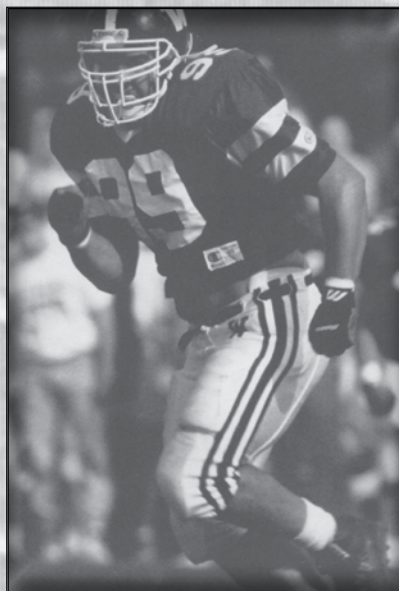

W a g n e r marks the 70th Anniversary of Seahawk Football with the debut of the first permanent stadium at Fischer Memorial Field. The day also serves as an anniversary celebration for the 1967 and 1987 teams.

OCTOBER 18, 1997

With a 116-yard performance on Homecoming vs. Central Connecticut St., Rick Sarille became the fourth Seahawk to rush for 3,000 yards and joined Terry Underwood as the only players to accomplish the feat as a junior.

OCTOBER 23, 1999

Against Marist, running back Rick Sarille becomes Wagner's all-time leading rusher, breaking the mark of 5,010 yards held by Terry Underwood. Sarille concluded his career with 5,290 career rushing yards. The All-American gained 100 or more yards 28 times in his collegiate career including eight 200-plus yard games.

All-time Sacks leader Rick Williams (1989-92)

The 21st Century

OCTOBER 28, 2000

Wide receiver Jason Bain became Wagner's all-time leader in career receptions and career receiving yards in the College's first-ever overtime contest as Robert Morris topped the Seahawks 38-31. Bain ended his remarkable career with 142 catches for 2,294 yards.

OCTOBER 20, 2002

Head Coach Walt Hameline (1981-present) wins his 150 career game at Wagner in a 38-7 win over Northeast Conference opponent St. Francis (PA).

Defensive back/kicker returner Frantz Placide was one of a school-record record nine Seahawks who earned All-NEC honors

2004

Quarterback John Sciarra sets a host of single season and single game school records in his first season as a Seahawk after transferring from UCLA.

2005

In the 75th Anniversary Season, the records continued to fall for John Sciarra as the quarterback ended his career at Wagner with numerous school single game, season and career passing records. Sciarra became the first NEC player to ever throw for 3,000 yards, ending the season with 3,321. SEPTEMBER 15, 2005

John Sciarra throws a school record five TD passes in a 52-25 win at Saint Peter's.

OCTOBER 22, 2005

Sciarra is at it again on Homecoming with a school record 409 passing yards and 33 completions in a 38-34 loss to Central Connecticut St. WR Chris Turner hauls in all four of Sciarra's TD passes to establish his own school record. ## 2012 NEC Champions, 2nd Round NCAA Playoffs

The Seahawks' sprint to a historic 2012 NEC Title featured a nine-game winning streak and the first-ever FCS Playoff win by an NEC team, a 31-20 victory over Colgate (11/24). The superlatives for Wagner were many, including a final national Top-25 ranking in both major FCS Polls, and a pair of National Coach of the Year Honors for Head Coach Walt Hameline. Running back Dominique Williams was named to the College Sports Journal (CSJ) All-America Team while defensive tackle Daevonte Barnet was tabbed a CSJ Freshman All-American.

1995 ECAC-IFC DIVISION I-AA BOWL

PITTSBURGH, PA — Duquesne jumped on Wagner early, building a 30-7 lead with a monstrous air attack that accounted for 357 yards in a 44-20 win. Two Kito Lockwood scores brought Wagner within 30-20 early in the fourth quarter, but Duquesne scored twice on the ground to clinch the game. Seahawk quarterback Jason Miletic completed 22 passes for 251 yards in the loss.

1994 ECAC-IFC DIVISION I-AA BOWL

JAMAICA, NY — The Seahawks turned the ball over five times and managed just 271 yards of total offense in a 34-14 loss at St. John's University, losing an ECAC Championship game for the first time ever. Ahead 14-7 and driving into Red Storm territory, the Seahawks fumbled. St. John's converted and never looked back. Pat Connolly caught five passes for 69 yards for Wagner.

1993 ECAC-IFC DIVISION I-AA BOWL

NEW ROCHELLE, NY — The Seahawks won a record fifth ECAC crown and avenged a regular-season loss by shutting out the Gaels on their home turf, 32-0. All-American linebacker Ryan Tobin, the game's MVP, made 18 tackles, including 12 solos, three tackles for a loss, two sacks, and forced a fumble, while Chris Purdy ran for four Seahawk touchdowns.

1992 ECAC SOUTHEAST CHAMPIONSHIP

STATEN ISLAND, NY — Senior quarterback Terry O'Hare earned MVP honors as he passed for 332 yards and three touchdowns, while also running for a score in leading the Seahawks to a 48-6 victory over the St. Francis (PA) Red Flash, avenging a regular-season loss. The Seahawk defense registered six sacks, including three by linebacker Bryan Devone.

1986 ECAC SOUTH CHAMPIONSHIP

LANCASTER, PA — Senior quarterback Jesse Foote ran for four touchdowns and passed for another as Wagner posted a 40-28 victory over host Franklin & Marshall to capture the ECAC South Championship at Williamson Field. Foote scored all four of his touchdowns in the final thirty minutes, including a 46-yard jaunt with 52 seconds remaining to seal the victory.

1985 ECAC SOUTH CHAMPIONSHIP

KING'S POINT, NY — Sophomore Peter Andolph's end zone tackle of King's Point running back Doug Jones with 7:47 remaining in the first half provided Wagner with the winning margin as the Seahawks captured the ECAC South Championship with a 9-7 victory at Captain Tomb Field. Freshman running back Terry Underwood scored Wagner's only touchdown on a two-yard run.

1983 ECAC METRO CHAMPIONSHIP

JAMAICA, NY — The Seahawks scored an ECAC Championship game record 48 points to capture the ECAC Metro NY-NJ Championship over host St. John's University, 48-7. The Seahawks took control early as tailback Ed Christensen scored three first-quarter touchdowns on runs of 77, 14 and 10 yards. Christensen ended the day with 177 yards on the ground.

1987 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The greatest day in the long and illustrious gridiron history of Wagner College came on a sunny December 12, 1987 in Phenix, Alabama, as the Seahawks captured the 1987 NCAA Division III National Championship with a 19-3 victory against the University of Dayton.

The Seahawks, winners of seven straight and 12 of 13 heading into the championship, rose to the challenge in the Stagg Bowl. Wagner jumped out to a 19-0 first-half lead and never looked back in cruising to the College's first and only national championship in any sport.

Quarterback Greg Kovar got Wagner on the board early, finding split end John Chaney in the end zone from 22 yards out with just under two minutes left in the opening quarter. Fullback Tom Pugh put the Seahawks up 13-0, bulldozing in from one yard out. Wide receiver Keith Johnson capped the Seahawk scoring 20 seconds before intermission, hauling in a 22-yard Kovar spiral for a 19-0 halftime lead.

With Kovar on the way to a 301-yard day, the defense took it the rest of the way, holding Dayton to just 234 yards of total offense and 2.9 yards per play. End George Gaspar led the way with 16 tackles and a sack, while linebackers Artie DiMella and Chris West made 13 stops each.

The Seahawks made three other NCAA Playoff appearances in the 1980s, earning berths in 1980 and 1982 and returning to defend their championship in 1988, but falling 34-31 in an overtime shoot-out to eventual national champion Ithaca.

DR. GREGORY KNAPP '66 H'00 STRENGTH ROOM

The Wagner College strength and conditioning program is as important as any other vital function of the athletic department. It is a key component in the development of the student-athlete, focusing on improving athletic performance and physical capabilities.

The Wagner College athletics department formally dedicated the modern, fully-functional 3,076 square foot Dr. Gregory P. Knapp '66 H'00 Strength Room in the Spiro Sports Center in December, 2009

The realization of this significant undertaking was performed thanks to the generosity of many people, chief among them Dr. Thomas G. Moles '65 H'00, a lifetime member of the Wagner College Board of Trustees and former Seahawk football player who made a major gift towards the project in the name of his good friend, the late Gregory Knapp '66 H'00. Knapp, who passed away in July, was also a lifetime member of the Wagner College Board of Trustees and a former Seahawk football letterwinner.

"I'd like to thank Tom Moles, a long-time friend of Wagner College and our athletic department, as well as the many other donors whose generosity in Greg Knapp's name made the installation of this center possible," said Wagner College Athletic Director/Head football coach Walt Hameline. "The Gregory P. Knapp '65 Strength Room is a tremendous addition to our athletic program and will benefit countless student-athletes in the coming years.

"This facility will also greatly benefit the general student body as this will free up our current strength center for their use," Hameline continued. "The addition of the Gregory P. Knapp '65 Strength Room is truly a win-win situation for the entire Wagner College community."

Seahawk athletes train in the facility under the guidance of Brandon Beach who oversees the weight training efforts of the burgeoning 20 varsity sports sponsored at Wagner College.

Brian Tracz - Strength & Conditioning Director

Tracz became Wagner's strength and conditioning director in May, 2014 following a one-year stint on the strength staff at Elon University. At Wagner, he has the day supervision of a five-person staff in support of Wagner's 20-sport athletic program in addition to serving as the head strength coach for the Seahawk football program.

"I'd like to welcome Brian and have him direct our strength and conditioning efforts," said Wagner Athletic Director/Head Football Coach Walt Hameline. "Brian has a proven track record of improving the strength and overall fitness levels of student-athletes while combining a positive and high-energy personality with a strong work ethic."

Tracz joined Wagner following a one-year stint on the strength staff at Elon University. Prior to his arrival at Elon, Tracz served as director of human performance at New Mexico Military Institute where he coordinated and implemented strength and conditioning programs for the football, basketball, baseball, volleyball, cross country, golf, tennis and track and field squads. His time at New Mexico Military Institute followed a five-year tenure at The Citadel, where he assisted nine varsity teams with program implementation, gaining experience with student-athletes in the sports of wrestling, baseball, football, track and field and basketball.

Tracz also earned experience as a five-month intern at Fordham University where he assisted with the Rams' football and basketball strength & conditioning programs. A 2008 graduate of Fordham, Tracz earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in finance. While at Fordham, Tracz was a two-year letter-winner as a defensive lineman after transferring from Indiana University. His play helped Fordham to earn the 2007 Patriot League title and a berth in the FCS Playoffs. Tracz was awarded his master's degree in health, exercise and sport science from The Citadel in 2011.

WALT HAMELINE TRIBUTE

On Thursday, June 4, 2015, Wagner College honored long-time head football coach and athletic director Walt Hameline with a tribute dinner in honor of his 34-year Seahawk head coaching career, with all proceeds benefitting the Wagner College Stadium Expansion Project.

AS PART OF THE #HAMELINEWEEK LEAD UP TO THE TRIBUTE DINNER, IMAGES OF HAMELINE WERE EMBLAZONED ON

This event also kicked off Reunion Weekend, which included the annual Joe Jilts Memorial Golf Outing, in honor of Wagner's beloved longtime football equipment manager. This year's Joe Jilts outing was held on Friday, June 5 at the La Tourette Golf Course here on Staten Island.

"Wagner College has been my life – my second family," said Hameline., who was named the 2014 Staten Island Advance Sportsman of the Year. "The number of people I've met and the many relationships that we've formed has been unbelievable. I'm so fortunate to have had so much great support over all of these years. I've always believed that you're only as good as the people around you. When you love what you do, and you have so much great support, it's easy to get out of bed and come here be a part of so many great things and the joy of it all."

DR. WARREN PROCCI AND DR. RICHARD GUARASCI

More than 300 guests attended the dinner, which was emceed by former Wagner head basketball coach Tim Capstraw ('82, current Brooklyn Nets' announcer), which was highlighted by a roast. The roastmasters included former New York Giant quarterback Phil Simms (current CBS analyst), former Wagner head men's basketball coach Dereck Whittenburg, former Seahawk football player and assistant coach Tom Masella ('81, Current UMass defensive coordinator), and captain of the 1987 National Championship Team Rich Negrin ('88, current city of Philadelphia Deputy Mayor for Administration & Coordination and Managing Director).

WALT HAMELINE AND EDWARD BURKE

Having served in the dual capacity of head football coach and athletic director since 1981, Hameline announced in November that he was stepping down as head football coach while continuing as athletic director.

Hameline's career coaching highlights include leading the Seahawks to the 1987 Division III National Championship, two Northeast Conference (NEC) titles and five ECAC Championships. On November 24, 2012,

WALT HAMELINE TRIBUTE

Wagner became the first NEC team to ever win a game in the FCS Playoffs when the Green & White defeated Patriot League Champion Colgate, 31-24.

The 2014 campaign marked the 24th winning season that the Green & White have enjoyed under Hameline. All told, Hameline, who coached more than 100 All-Americans and nearly 100 All-NEC players during his tenure, guided Wagner to 28 seasons with .500 or better records, while amassing an all-time record of 223-139-2 (.615). At the conclusion of the 2014 season, those 223 victories ranked fifth among active head Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) head coaches.

In a career spanning four decades, Hameline has mentored a wealth of assistant coaches who later went on to make their own marks in the coaching profession, including Dan Mullen, head coach of 2015 Orange Bowl participant Mississippi St., Patrick Graham, linebackers coach for the Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots, Andrew Dees, assistant offensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers, and Lou Anarumo, defensive backs coach for the Miami Dolphins. In addition to Mullen, there are four other current college head coaches and 45 assistants who worked under Hameline on the Wagner sidelines that remain in the profession.

Through the years, a host of student-athletes recruited and coached by Hameline have gone onto professional playing careers. Currently, Julian Stanford and Dominique Williams are members of the NFL's Detroit Lions and Minnesota Vikings, respectively, while C.O. Prime plays for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the CFL.

“Walt Hameline represents the best of what Wagner is all about - high achievement, integrity and hard work. He has been an excellent teacher, mentor and leader, and one of the truly great influences on the development and history of Wagner College. Walt is a Wagner treasure and I am elated that he is continuing as athletics director to leave his indelible mark of character and commitment on this special place.”
