DONALD COPELAND

HEAD COACH

Donald Copeland is the 19th head men's basketball coach in Wagner College history. In his second season at the helm, Copeland guided the Seahawks to their first NCAA Tournament in 21 years and coached Wagner to its first-ever NCAA Tournament win, a 71-68 victory over Howard in the First Four of the 2024 NCAA Tournament.

Under Copeland's leadership, Wagner became the lowest seed since 1999 to win the Northeast Conference (NEC) Tournament and became the first team ever to win three straight road games en route to an NEC Championship.

As a result, Copeland was named a finalist for the 2023-24 Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year award. The award is presented annually to the top minority head coach in Division I college basketball.

On March 12, 2024, the Seahawks earned a 54-47 victory over #2 Merrimack to win the NEC title and earn the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. One week later, Copeland guided the Green and White to a thrilling 71-68 victory over Howard in the First Four of the NCAA Tournament.

Copeland was named head men's basketball coach in the spring of 2022.

"We are excited to welcome Donald Copeland back to Grymes Hill as we begin to write a new chapter in Wagner men's basketball history," Wagner College President Angelo Araimo said. "Coach Copeland knows what it means to be a Seahawk, and we look forward to seeing him recruit, develop, and mentor our student-athletes into winners on the court, in the classroom and in the community."

"We are proud to introduce Donald Copeland as our new head men's basketball coach," Athletic Director Walt Hameline commented. "After discussions with current and former players as well as a thorough interview process, Donald stood out as the clear favorite for the job. This hire helps us build upon our recent success and brings a proven winner aboard to continue the rich tradition of basketball at Wagner College. We are confident that Donald will bring talented student-athletes to Wagner who will excel in the classroom and community while making our fans proud with their performance on the court."

"I would like to thank Angelo Araimo and Walt Hameline for this tremendous opportunity," Copeland added. "Having started my coaching career here, returning to Wagner is a special moment for me and my family. Bashir Mason left this program in great shape and I'm thankful for our friendship. I'm excited to get to work with our student-athletes and promise that we will do everything we can to make our students, alumni, and fans proud on and off the court."

Copeland, who spent the 2021-22 season as an assistant coach at Big East member Seton Hall, served six years on the Seahawks' staff prior to becoming the head coach, including four seasons as an assistant coach.

Copeland played an integral role in the Seahawks' recent success. Over the course of those six seasons with Copeland on staff, Wagner won three Northeast Conference regular season championships, advanced to the NEC Tournament final twice, appeared in the NIT twice, including an upset win over top-seeded St. Bonaventure in 2016, and compiled an NEC league record of 64-44.

In 2021-22, Copeland was part of a Seton Hall team that earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament after compiling a 21-11 record along with an 11-8 mark in Big East play.

Copeland helped lead the Seahawks to a 13-7 overall record and 13-5 mark in Northeast Conference play in 2020-21 as Wagner earned a third regular season championship and No. 1 seed in the conference tournament during Copeland's tenure on Grymes Hill.

During one of the toughest seasons college basketball has ever seen, Copeland helped the 2020-21 Seahawks to a regular season championship after being picked eighth in the preseason poll. The Seahawks rewrote the record books as the Green and White won 10 straight games.

In the process, senior Alex Morales was named NEC Player of the Year and freshman DeLonnie Hunt earned Rookie of the Year honors while head coach Bashir Mason was recognized as NEC Coach of the Year and senior Elijah Ford was named to the All-NEC First Team. The 2020-21 season marked the first time Wagner has ever won NEC Coach of the Year, Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year honors in the same season and first time since 2007-08 that two Seahawks earned First Team All-NEC status.

The 2017-18 season ended with a 23-10 overall record, highlighted by a 14-4 mark in conference play that garnered a regular season conference championship and the league's automatic bid to the postseason NIT. That season, the team set a program record for home victories and consecutive wins when the Seahawks rattled off 16 straight prior to the conference championship game, tied for the second-longest streak in the NCAA that year.

HEAD COACH

In Copeland's first season on Grymes Hill, he was part of a staff that guided Wagner to the 2015-16 NEC Tournament Championship game and a berth in the National Invitational Tournament, which was highlighted by the program's first-ever postseason victory, an impressive 79-75 win at top-seeded St. Bonaventure of the Atlantic 10 Conference.

The Seahawks' NIT appearance in 2015-16 capped a 23-11 season that included a 13-5 NEC mark which earned Wagner the league's regular season championship and No. 1 seed in the conference tournament.

Wagner finished the 2016-17 season with a 16-14 record and an 11-7 mark in conference play as the Seahawks compiled an overall record of 39-25 over Copeland's first two seasons on staff, headlined by an NEC mark of 24-12. That year, Copeland helped the Seahawks advance to the semifinals of the NEC Tournament.

The Jersey City native arrived on Grymes Hill prior to the start of the 2015-16 campaign after enjoying a near decade-long professional career that spanned seven countries.

While playing in Puerto Rico, Copeland captured two professional championships, in 2011 and 2015, with the last coming as a member of Leones de Ponce.

Before embarking on his professional career, Copeland was a standout guard at Seton Hall. While a member of the Pirates, the Garden State product helped lead them to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances in his sophomore (2004) and senior (2006) seasons.

In helping lead the Pirates to an 18-12 record and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament as a senior in 2005-06, Copeland led the Hall in a host of statistical categories including scoring (16.1 ppg), assists (4.5), steals (41), three-pointers (71) and free-throw percentage (84.4). For the season, he ranked third in the Big East in assists per game (5.1) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.69).

After being named to both the All-Big East and All-Metropolitan Second Teams, Copeland was tabbed as Seton Hall's Senior Male Athlete of the Year.

Before accepting a full scholarship at Seton Hall, Copeland played for legendary head coach Bob Hurley Sr. at St. Anthony, helping lead the Friars to New Jersey State Championships in 2001 and 2002, with the latter team ranking No. 2 in the nation. He earned First-Team All-State and First-Team All-Tri-State honors following his senior season of 2001-02.

In 2006, Copeland earned his bachelor's degree in communications and media studies at Seton Hall. In addition to his duties on the Wagner basketball staff, Copeland earned a master's degree in business administration from Wagner in 2017.

KEVIN LYNCH

ASSISTANT COACH

Kevin Lynch joined the Wagner men's basketball staff in 2023 and was part of Wagner's NEC Championship run in 2024.

Lynch arrives on Grymes Hill after nine seasons at Big East member Seton Hall. As the Coordinator of Basketball Operations for the Pirates, Lynch assisted with the day-to-day operations of the program, which included practice and game day preparation. He also served as a lead coordinator for the Seton Hall University Basketball Camp.

"We're excited to welcome Kevin to Wagner," Copeland commented. "He brings a tremendous work ethic, attention to detail, and knowledge of the game to our program. We built a great working relationship at Seton Hall, which I look forward to continuing here at Wagner."

During Lynch's tenure at Seton Hall, the Pirates amassed a record of 177-111 and earned five NCAA Tournament appearances, most recently in 2022. During the 2022 season, Lynch served alongside Copeland on the Pirates' staff.

Lynch joined the Seton Hall program as a walk-on for the 2013-14 campaign and appeared in four games for the Pirates while also garnering Big East Academic All-Star status. He previously spent three years as the manager of the Seton Hall women's basketball team in which he served as video coordinator and organized practice and gameday operations.

Lynch earned a Bachelor of Science degree in sports management from Seton Hall in 2014.

KYLE SMYTH

ASSISTANT COACH

Kyle Smyth joined the Wagner men's basketball staff in 2024.

Smyth joins the Seahawks after spending a decade at Big East Member Seton Hall in various roles. Most recently, Smyth was elevated to Director of Basketball Operations under head coach Kevin Willard and alongside coach Copeland, where he coordinated all the day-to-day aspects of the program managed the scheduling of practices, served as academic liaison and coordinated community service initiatives.

Smyth helped the Pirates to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 2016-19 and the 2016 BIG EAST Championship title.

Prior to his promotion, Smyth spent two seasons as the coordinator of basketball operations, assisting in the development of practice plans and gameday coordination.

Smyth, a native of River Edge, N.J., was recruited to Iona College by Willard where he played three years before transferring to Seton Hall for his final collegiate season. The 6-foot-4 sharpshooter started 92 of 129 appearances, scoring 930 points and hitting 210 three-pointers over his collegiate career.

A 2012 graduate of Iona College, Smyth holds a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing.

COREY FISHER

ASSISTANT COACH

Corey Fisher joined the Wagner men's basketball staff in 2024 as an assistant coach.

A former standout guard at Villanova and Bronx native, Fisher arrives on Grymes Hill after one year on the Wildcats' staff as a Student-Athlete Development Assistant.

Fisher helped Nova advance to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in 2008 and to the NCAA Final Four in 2009. He was selected BIG EAST Sixth Man of the Year as a sophomore before earning First Team All-Philadelphia Big Five and third team All-BIG EAST in 2009. A year later he was chosen second team All-BIG EAST before earning his Villanova degree in 2011. In four seasons, he scored 1,652 points (12.1 ppg) and 487 assists.

Fisher played professional basketball for over a decade, as his career spanned across Turkey, Spain, Russia, China, Croatia, Israel and other nations.

DWAN MCMILLAN

ASSISTANT COACH

Dwan McMillan joined the Wagner men's basketball staff in 2024 as an assistant coach.

A former graduate manager under Bashir Mason at Wagner from 2013-15, McMillan re-joins Wagner's staff after three years at Fordham, where he was elevated to the position of Director of Player Development and Recruiting Coordinator in the spring of 2023.

In 2022-23, McMillan helped Fordham to one of its best seasons in program history, as the Rams went 25-8 and tied for second in the final Atlantic 10 regular season standings with a 12-6 effort, the program's best-ever finish in the conference. His other coaching stops include positions at New Heights Youth, Inc., New York City Parks Department at St. John's Recreation Center in Brooklyn, and head coach Nazareth High School in Brooklyn.

McMillan played two seasons at Hofstra after transferring from nationally renowned Indian River Community College. In his first year in Hempstead, he helped the Pride to 21 wins, which included a school-record 14 Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) victories. Additionally, Hofstra's second place CAA finish was the best in school history and helped propel the team to a the 2011 College Basketball Invitational (CBI). As a senior in 2011-2012, he was second in the CAA in assists, earning CAA All-Academic First Team honors.

TIM RODRIGUEZ

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Rodriguez comes to Wagner after serving one year at the NBA as a Production Trainee and Replay Operator, supporting officiating and broadcast teams in making informed decisions and maintaining the flow of the game.

Rodriguez was a four-year student manager for the Seton Hall men's basketball team, assisting with basketball operations on a daily basis and was part of the Pirates' NCAA Tournament run in 2022 alongside coach Copeland.

Additionally, Rodriguez was an intern for Seton Hall's Pirate Blue Athletic Fund, where he played an integral role in planning and executing networking events, ensuring a seamless and enjoyable experience for donors and the athletic department team, resulting in increased donations and strengthened relationships.

The New Jersey native holds a Bachelor of Science in Finance and Sport Management and will pursue his Master's Degree while at Wagner.

KENNETH JONES

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Kenneth Jones joined the Wagner men's basketball staff in 2024.

Jones arrives on Grymes Hill after a standout collegiate and professional basketball career. In 2023-24, Jones played professionally for KK Gostiv AR in North Macedonia, leading the league in assists while averaging eight points per contest.

A five-year player and team captain at Loyola (MD), Jones scored 1,091 points and ranks second all-time with 139 games played, fourth in threes (199), fifth in assists (413), and eighth in steals (162).

Jones averaged a career-high 11.6 points per game in his final season in 2022-23 after leading the Patriot League with 4.6 assists per game as a senior, which ranked 58th nationally.

Jones holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration.

As Seahawk basketball heads into its 97th season, Wagner College can look back with pride on the unique niche it has cut through the annals of New York City basketball.

The patriarch of Seahawk athletics, Herb Sutter, compiled a 352-252 record in 27 seasons as the Wagner basketball mentor from 1937 to 1965. Fast forward for an instant, Sutter was in charge that night in December 1963 when the Seahawks, still

Under Sutter, the Seahawks regularly challenged New York basketball powers such as St. John's, NYU and Fordham throughout the 1950s, and it was during this time that Sutter coached some of Wagner's greatest teams, averaging 17 wins from 1949-56, including a 20-3 slate during the 1955-56 season.

Seahawk legends such as Bob Bosley, Bob Mahala, Sr., and the great Lonny West led this Seahawk golden age under Sutter, and all have since been inducted to the Wagner College Athletic Hall of Fame.

On the December 18, 1963 evening, Sutter's chargers turned what was supposed to be a 'tune-up' game into a nightmare for No. 1 ranked New York University, scoring the final six points of overtime and claiming the win on Hank Pedro's top-of-the-key jumper with just two seconds remaining.

Two seasons later, Sutter turned the team over to assistant Chester Sellitto, who went on to guide the Seahawks to great success in the late 1960s. Nearly 30 years following his retirement, Sutter was still being honored for his years of service, with his 1994 induction to the NIT Hall of Fame. This followed other citations from the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, and his 1988 induction by acclamation as the inaugural member of the Wagner College Athletic Hall of Fame.

Under Sellitto, and led by prolific scorers such as Russ Selger and Ray Hodge, Wagner career rebounding leader Oliver Featherston and team leader Arnold Obey, the Seahawks rolled to a 21-8 record in 1967-68, as well as their second consecutive Middle Atlantic Conference title.

Hodge would go on to score 1,996 points in just three varsity seasons. He is third all-time in scoring at Wagner, and his 24.5 point per game average remains the standard.

As Seahawk basketball heads into its 96th season, Wagner College can look back with pride on the unique niche it has cut through the annals of New York City basketball.

The patriarch of Seahawk athletics, Herb Sutter, compiled a 352-252 record in 27 seasons as the Wagner basketball mentor from 1937 to 1965. Fast forward for an instant, Sutter was in charge that night in December 1963 when the Seahawks, still playing at the Division III level, upset No. 1 ranked NYU, 77-76, in what many still call the greatest game ever played in Sutter Gymnasium.

THE 2002-03 TEAM EARNED THE SCHOOL'S FIRST-EVER NEC CHAMPIONSHIP

Under Sutter, the Seahawks regularly challenged New York basketball powers such as St. John's, NYU and Fordham throughout the 1950s, and it was during this time that Sutter coached some of Wagner's greatest teams, averaging 17 wins from 1949-56, including a 20-3 slate during the 1955-56 season.

On the December 18, 1963 evening, Sutter's chargers turned what was supposed to be a 'tune-up' game into a nightmare for No. 1 ranked New York University, scoring the final six points of overtime and claiming the win on Hank Pedro's top-of-the-key jumper with just two seconds remaining.

Two seasons later, Sutter turned the team over to assistant Chester Sellitto, who went on to guide the Seahawks to great success in the late 1960s. Nearly 30 years following his retirement, Sutter was still being honored for his years of service, with his 1994 induction to the NIT Hall of Fame. This followed other citations from the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, and his 1988 induction by acclamation as the inaugural member of the Wagner College Athletic Hall of Fame.

Under Sellitto, and led by prolific scorers such as Russ Selger and Ray Hodge, Wagner career rebounding leader Oliver Featherston and team leader Arnold Obey, the Seahawks rolled to a 21-8 record in 1967-68, as well as their second consecutive Middle Atlantic Conference title.

Hodge would go on to score 1,996 points in just three varsity seasons. He is third all-time in scoring at Wagner, and his 24.5 point per game average remains the standard.

Following their years of success at the Division III level, the Seahawks moved to NCAA Division I for the 1976-77 season, led by a young coach named P.J. Carlesimo.

Just three seasons later, Wagner made a stirring run to its first-ever postseason appearance in the NIT. Led by the school's fourth all-time leading scorer Jamie Ciampaglio, and consummate point man Henry Dillard, the Seahawks finished 21-7, spurred by a 16-game winning streak which included a double-overtime win over Seton Hall in Sutter Gymnasium. A crushing overtime loss to St. John's, 86-82 in the semifinals of the ECAC Tournament left the Seahawks just a game short of the NCAA Tournament.

Carlesimo moved on to Seton Hall in 1982, thereby missing stunning exploits of Wagner's career scoring leader, Terrance Bailey. A three-time first team All-NEC honoree, Bailey was the conference's Player of the Year during his amazing 1985-86 season.

The 6-2 guard led all of Division I with his 29.4 point per game average that junior year, and followed that up with a 28.1 rate as a senior before being selected in the second round of the NBA draft by the Atlanta Hawks.

Another chapter in Seahawk history began when Wagner alum Tim Capstraw took over the coaching reins in 1989. The former walk-on under Carlesimo brought the excitement back to Sutter with a unique combination of players that included Long Island scoring guard Bobby Hopson, Utah junior college point guard Quincy Lewis and a pair of frontcourt men from Yugoslavia, Misha Mutavdzic and Milan Rikic.

Those players engineered the biggest turnaround in Division I during the 1991-92 season, as Wagner's 16-12 record earned Capstraw NEC Coach of the Year honors.

The Seahawks went on to post a three-year record of 50-36, appearing in the preseason NIT for the first time, and capturing the imagination of the nation with a heartbreaking, 65-64 loss to Rider in the 1993 Northeast Conference Championship, televised live on ESPN. It was Wagner's first appearance in the conference championship game on national television, as the Seahawks once again had an NCAA bid within their grasp.

Capstraw continued to bring in strong talent to the Grymes Hill hardcourts including sharpshooter Dan Seigle and low-block force Frantz Pierre-Louis.

The next chapter in Wagner hoop history began and ended with head coach Dereck Whittenburg. Whittenburg, the first minority head coach in school history, brought a championship fever to the Spiro Sports Center. Whittenburg got right to the job and brought scoring forward Jermaine Hall to Staten Island as his first signee. The lefthanded leaper finished his career second all-time in school history with 2,278 points to

(NEC Regular Season & Tournament Champs)

(NCAA First Round)

The 2002-2003 incarnation of the Wagner Seahawks dominated the Northeast Conference (NEC) from start-to-finish, ending up with a league mark of 14-4 while earning the Regular Season Championship. In the NEC Tournament, the Green & White took their play to another level. Wagner handled Long Island in the quarterfinals via an 88-66 score as Jermaine Hall notched a game-high 26 points. In the semifinals, the Seahawks avenged the previous year's NEC Tournament loss to Quinnipiac with a come-from-behind 61-54 victory.

Then in the finals behind a rowdy Spiro Sports Center crowd, the Green & White dominated St. Francis (NY) with a wire-to-wire 78-61 victory while securing the school's first-ever N C A A Tournament berth. Wagner earned the No. 15 seed in the Midwest Region before losing to No. 2 Pitt 87-61. Senior Jermaine Hall claimed NEC Regular Season Player of the Year and Tournament MVP accolades en route to concluding his career with 2,278 points. For the season, the Seahawks matched the school-record with 21 victories under head coach Dereck Whittenburg.

IN 2015-16, THE SEAHAWKS CLAIMED THEIR FIRST-EVER POSTSEASON VICTORY BY DEFEATING TOP-SEED ST. BONAVENTURE, 79-75, IN THE NIT FIRST ROUND, AFTER PREVIOUSLY CLAIMING THEIR SECOND-EVER NORTHEAST CONFERENCE REGULAR SEASON TITLE WITH 69-54 WIN OVER SAINT FRANCIS U

Also, under the guidance of Whittenburg, Wagner led the NEC in scoring three of his four seasons and in just his third season as head coach led the Green & White to their second appearance in the NIT Post-Season tournament losing a overtime thriller to the University of Richmond, 74-67.

In the 2002-03 campaign, the Seahawks won their first-ever NEC regular-season crown and in front of the largest crowd in the young history of the Spiro Sports Center, the Seahawks blitzed Brooklyn rival, St. Francis, 78-61 on ESPN2 to capture their first-ever NEC Championship.

Whittenburg, who twenty years earlier helped N.C. State top a heavily-favored Houston team to the National Championship with his last second alley-oop to Lorenzo Charles, brought Wagner to Boston, Massachusetts for a NCAA Tournament meeting with second ranked Pittsburgh in the Midwest regional. The Panthers defeated Wagner, 87-61 but college hoop loyalists now remember Wagner Seahawk Basketball.

Taking over in 2003-2004, Mike Deane, the school's 16th men's coach, extended the Green and White's streak to five straight NEC Tournament appearances, before pulling off a remarkable turnaround. Wagner won 11-of-12 games down the stretch to earn a spot in the NEC Championship game for the second time in three season, where the Seahawks fell to FDU by a final of 58-52.

In the 2005-06 season, Wagner posted a 63-61 win at Rhode and nearly missed an upset at #12 ranked, UCLA, the eventual nation runner-up at the historic Paule Pavilion. In 2007-08, the Seahawks set a then school record for wins in a season by compiling a mark of 23-8, including a 15-3 record in the NEC.

In just his second year on Grymes Hill, Dan Hurley led Wagner to a school-record 25 victories in 2011-12, highlighted by a 59-54 victory over then ranked No. 15, Pittsburgh squad. The win was the first-ever by a NEC team over the Panthers and was the school's first victory over a ranked opponent since besting Alabama in November of 1978.

Head Coach Bashir Mason emarks on his sixth season season as the head coach of the Seahawks. The 2015-16 NEC Coach of the Year will look to continue upon the team's recent successes, which included the program's first National Invitational Tournament (NIT) win and second-ever regular season title.

Mason, who is among the youngest head coaches at the Division I level, has led the Seahawks to four top-four finishes in the Northeast Conference.

On the opening night of the 2016-17 season, Mason's Seahawks shocked then ranked No. 18 and four-time National Champions, the University of Connecticut (UConn) Huskies, defeating Kevin Ollie's bunch, 67-58, at Gampel Pavilion.

The only lead of the game for the Huskies was 2-0 with 19:23 left in the first half. In the process, Wagner handed the Huskies their first loss in a home opener at Gampel as UConn came in 27-0 in such games.

During one of the toughest seasons college basketball has ever seen, Mason led the 2020-21 Seahawks to a regular season championship after being picked eighth in the preseason poll. Mason helped the Seahawks re-write the record books, as the Green and White won 10 straight games, marking the longest winning streak by an NEC team since LIU reeled off 13 straight victories during the 2010-11 campaign and longest by a Wagner team since a 16-game streak under PJ Carlesimo in 1978-79.

In the process, senior Alex Morales was named the NEC Player of the Year, Mason was named NEC Coach of the Year, while freshman DeLonnie Hunt earned Rookie of the Year honors. Additionally, senior Elijah Ford was named to the All-NEC First Team. The 2020-21 season marked the first time Wagner has ever won NEC Coach of the Year, Player of the Year, and Rookie of the Year in the same season and first time since 2007-2008 that two Seahawks earned First Team All-NEC honors.

One year later, the Seahawks re-wrote the record books. Mason led the Seahawks to a 21-6 overall record and an appearance in the NEC title game. This marked the third time under Mason and ninth time in program history that Wagner won 20 or more games in one season. The 2021-22 Seahawks were the first team in NEC history to feature four All-NEC players, as Alex Morales earned Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year honors along with a spot on the All-NEC First Team, while Will Martinez and Rae-kwon Rogers earned Second Team honors and Elijah Ford earning Third Team honors. Zaire Williams picked up a spot on the All-Rookie Team.

Wagner's 15 conference wins matched the most in program history. During the regular 2021-22 regular season, Wagner's 14 consecutive wins set the record for the longest winning streak for a Seahawk team under Mason and was the longest winning streak for a Wagner squad since winning 16 straight during the 1978-79 season under P.J. Carlesimo.

Wagner's 13-0 start in NEC play fell two short of the NEC standard set by UMBC, which won 15 in a row in 1998-99 before dropping two of its last three games to settle for a 17-3 record. The last conference school to rattle off 13 straight NEC wins was LIU. The Sharks won 13 in a row in 2010-11, a stretch that included three NEC Tournament wins. Wagner's win over Fairleigh Dickinson marked the 100th career victory in conference play for Mason, who became the 11th coach in NEC history to reach the century mark. Mason also earned his 150th overall victory against Fairfield.

Following ten years as Wagner's coach, Mason announced his departure from Wagner to become the next head coach at Saint Peter's University. In the process, Donald Copeland will coach the Seahawks in 2022-23.

2023 Foreign Tour

In 2023, Wagner went on a foreign tour to the U.S. Virgin Islands. Wagner played two games against the U.S. Virgin Islands national team, earning a split on consecutive nights.

Apart from playing two games, the Wagner delegation took in numerous cultural experiences, including a catamaran tour, a swimming session with dolphins and sea lions, along with sightseeing tours of multiple historical venues in Saint Thomas.

2023-24 Year In Review

For the first time since 2003, the Wagner men's basketball team hoisted the Northeast Conference (NEC) Championship trophy, earning the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

With a thrilling, 54-47, victory over #2 Merrimack, the Seahawks became the first NEC team to win three road games en route to a conference championship, running the perpetual gauntlet by defeating #3 Sacred Heart and #1 CCSU before dethroning the reigning NEC Champion Warriors.

With just seven healthy scholarship players, this year's Wagner team tied the 1999 Mount St. Mary's team for the lowest seed to ever win the NEC title after becoming the first team since the 2005 Seahawks to qualify for the NEC championship game as the #6 seed.

Selection Sunday

Wagner hosted an on-campus event for Selection Sunday in the days following the NEC Championship. With the campus community in attendance, Wagner celebrated the school's second-ever NCAA Tournament berth and found out the Seahawks' next opponent. Following the selection show, Wagner's coaches and players answered questions from local and national media outlets, highlighted by an appearance on NBC4's Sports Final with Bruce Beck at Rockefeller Center.

NCAA Tournament

A few days later, Wagner earned its first-ever NCAA Tournament victory by defeating #16 Howard 71-68 in the First Four of the 2024 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. Sophomore Julian Brown scored 15 points on 3-for-4 shooting from beyond the arc, while fellow sophomore Keyontae Lewis and junior Tahron Allen joined Council Jr. and Brown in double figures with ten apiece. After leading for a majority of the game, Howard cut Wagner's lead to one point with 17 seconds remaining. Two clutch free throws by Brown pushed the lead back up to three and the Bison's attempts at tying the game all fell short.

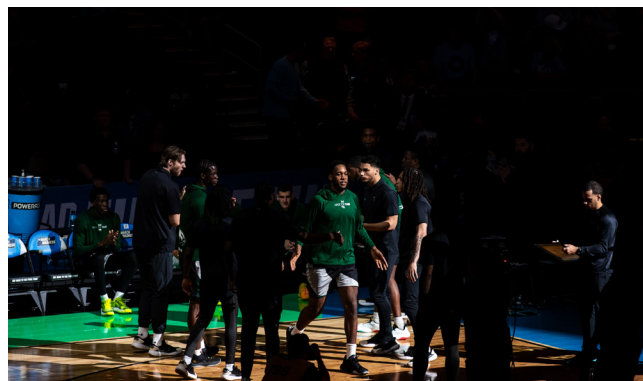

Allen led the Green and White with 22 points in the title game and was named NEC Tournament MVP, while junior Melvin Council Jr. joined Allen in double figures with 12 points. Sophomore Keyontae Lewis had eight points and 12 rebounds in the victory.

Wagner led 41-30 with 12:38 remaining in the contest, but Merrimack rattled off 13 consecutive points to take a 43-41 lead with 8:07 left to play. However, the Seahawks finished the game on a 13-4 run, cementing their legacy as the first Wagner team to make the NCAA Tournament in over 20 years.

Javier Ezquerro and Council scored on consecutive possessions to take a three-point lead just ahead of the final media timeout. An Allen bucket with 2:38 on the clock made it 48-43, before clutch free throws down the stretch capped off the upset.

The Seahawks punched their ticket to the NEC title game with a 66-56 victory at #1 CCSU three days prior. The Seahawks were led by sophomore Julian Brown's 20 points, while Council Jr. and sophomore Keyontae Lewis added 12 points apiece. Tahron Allen was the fourth Seahawk in double figures with 11 points.

Three days earlier, Wagner earned a 60-57 victory over #3 Sacred Heart in the NEC quarterfinal. In a game that was a one-possession game for the final 11:13 minutes of the second half, the Green and White prevailed late in dramatic fashion.
