A Season for the Record Books: Looking Back at 2002

For the Wake Forest men's soccer team, the 2002 season was one for the ages. The team established several "program firsts" during the course of the season. For the first time in school history, the Deacons were the nation's top ranked team - a position Wake Forest held for six consecutive weeks. The Deacons went undefeated in the regular season and wrapped up the top seed in the Atlantic Coast Conference, ranked annually as the top soccer conference in the nation.

The Deacons captured the top seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the round of 16 before falling to Clemson, 2-1 in overtime at Spry Stadium. It was Wake Forest's only home loss of the year, snapping a ten-game winning streak, the longest such mark in program history.

Spry Stadium was the place to be during the fall as five of the team's final seven home games drew crowds of more than 3,000 including games against Clemson (twice), South Carolina, Georgia Southern and Old Dominion.

Wake Forest finished the year with a 15-2-4 record (4-0-2 ACC), setting a new record for wins in a single season. Wake Forest had its first ever Missouri Athletic Club Hermann Trophy finalist in Brian Carroll.

Carroll and William Hesmer were named All-Americans. They were joined by junior Jeremiah White on the All-ACC first team. Justin Moose was named ACC Rookie of the Year and made the All-ACC second team with fellow freshman Michael Parkhurst.

Ninth-year head coach Jay Vidovich was voted ACC Coach of the Year by his peers.

Deacons Sit Atop National Rankings

Wake Forest was ranked number one for six straight weeks entering the NCAA Tournament and was the top seed in the College Cup. Both were program firsts.

The Deacons ended the season ranked eighth by the NSCAA. To begin the 2003 campaign, Wake Forest has been ranked in the top five for 13 straight polls and the top 25 for 22 consecutive polls.

Doing It With Defense

Wake Forest's defense was clearly one of the best in the nation. The Deacons had a 0.59 goals against average, second in the NCAA, and 11 shutouts.

The Deacons had two lengthy streaks without allowing a goal including one span of 569 minutes, more than nine hours of soccer. After allowing a first half goal to St. John's on Sept. 21, Wake Forest did not give up another goal until Oct. 19.

Second Half Heroics

The Deacons outscored their opponents 35-4 in the second half, only allowing goals in the regular season meetings to Virginia, ODU and UNC. Wake scored in the final ten minutes of regulation nine different times and Jeremiah White had three of those goals.

White Becomes Wake's Third All-Time Leading Scorer

Jeremiah White passed Raimo deVries to become the school's third all-time leading scorer with 72 points (29 goals, 14 assists).

Early in the fall, White missed five games with a leg injury. He came off the bench in his first nine games but scored as a reserve against Maryland, Clemson, NC State and the game-winner against Virginia.

He is the only player in Wake Forest history to score ten or more goals in back-to-back seasons.
