WAKE FOREST VS. LOUISVILLE

2022 SCHEDULE

THE MATCHUP

- Wake Forest and Louisville will collide on Friday night with a first round bye in the ACC Tournament at stake. The Demon Deacons enter the match with 12 points in ACC play for a third place standing in the Atlantic Division while the Cardinals are in second place at 13 points.
- With a victory, the Demon Deacons would jump ahead of the Cardinals in the standings and earn a first round bye in the 2022 ACC Tournament. Louisville, meanwhile, can earn a share of the Atlantic Division title with a win and a Syracuse loss against Boston College.
- Wake Forest enters the match with a 12-4-0 overall record on the season and is 9-1-0 in action at Spry Stadium.
- Louisville is 9-3-3 on the season and 3-1-1 away from Lynn Stadium, highlighted by conference victories at NC State and Notre Dame.

LAST TIME OUT

- Despite more than doubling Virginia's shot output (15-7) Wake Forest was unable to secure a road victory last Saturday, falling to the Cavaliers by a final of 1-0.
- After a sixth-minute free kick from sophomore Ryan Fessler that banged off the post, Wake Forest recorded three shots on goal in the second half but were all saved.
- Virginia would collect the match's lone goal in the 63rd minute and then held on until the final whistle. Wake Forest recorded seven shots after the Cavaliers struck.
- Twenty Demon Deacons recorded action in the contest as sophomore Trace Alphin collected two saves.

OPPONENT & SERIES HISTORY

- This will be the 16th all-time meeting between Wake Forest and Louisville with the Deacs holding an 11-4-0 advantage in the series. Seven of those victories for Wake Forest have come at Spry Stadium.
- Louisville, like Wake Forest, is one of four ACC programs on the season allowing less than one goal per match (0.87). The Cardinals have recorded six clean sheets including three in their last four ACC matches.
- Ryan Troutman has started the last nine matches in goal for Louisville, needing to record just 15 saves while sporting a 0.56 goals against per match average.
- Offensively, the Cardinals have been led in scoring by the trio of Aboubacar Camara (five goals), Konstantinos Georgallides (four goals) and Brandon McManus (four goals).
- Sander Roed leads the team in assists (eight) and ranks second in the ACC in that statistical category.

UP NEXT

- Wake Forest will turn attention to the 2022 ACC Tournament, hosting either a first round match on Wednesday, Nov. 2 or Sunday, Nov. 6.
- The ACC Tournament will conclude with the Championship Match on Sunday, Nov. 13.

WHAT'S AT STAKE FOR POSTSEASON PLAY

- The ACC Tournament will begin on Wednesday, Nov. 2 with four first round matchups and concludes with the Championship Match on Sunday, Nov. 13. The first three rounds are at campus sites with the finals being played at WakeMed Sports Park in Cary, N.C.
- Wake Forest will host at least one match in the ACC Tournament, being either a first round match or a quarterfinals match.
- The Demon Deacons under head coach Bobby Muuss are 8-5-2 in the ACC Tournament, highlighted by back-to-back Championships in 2016 and 2017.
- Including that 2017 Championship, there have been five different winners over the last five seasons: Wake Forest (2017), Louisville (2018), Virginia (2019), Clemson (2020) and Notre Dame (2021).
- This season, nine of the 12 ACC men's soccer programs have appeared in the United Soccer Coaches poll.
- Through Wednesday's play as well, seven ACC sides – including Wake Forest – rank in the top-30 in RPI.

THANK YOU SENIORS

- Prior to the start of Friday's match, Wake Forest will honor the senior class of Sebastian Scrivner, Cole McNally, David Wrona, Takuma Suzuki and Omar Hernandez.
- Together, this class over the last four seasons has led Wake Forest to 54 victories, three trips to the Sweet Sixteen, an ACC South Region title during the 2020-21 split season and the program's sixth College Cup appearance as freshmen in 2019.
- Off the pitch, these five have served as leaders on the Student Athlete Advisory Committee while making an impact in the community.
- Wake Forest Men's Soccer earlier this year was named the HelperHelper Team Community Service Challenge National Champions, as the program logged more than 950 community service hours for 26 opportunities alongside 15 organizations.

AN IMPACT IN YEAR THREE

- Wake Forest's junior class has assisted in guiding the Demon Deacons to a 12-4-0 overall record this season.
- Offensively, Oscar Sears is experiencing a breakout season as he is tied for the team lead in goals (six) and points (15). Wake Forest is 8-0-0 when he's tallied a goal contribution.
- Jahlane Forbes, meanwhile, leads the Deacs in assists with six as he's started all 16 matches so far in 2022.
- Colin Thomas has appeared in all 16 matches with 15 starts, collecting eight points while scoring the game-winning goal against Virginia Tech.
- Chase Oliver and Sidney Paris have also provided a spark on the outside, combining for two goals and five assists.
- Defensively, Garrison Tubbs and Prince Amponsah have anchored a backline that allows less than one goal per match.

A WIN WOULD...

- Would secure a bye in the first round of the 2022 ACC Men's Soccer Tournament.
- Mark the team's fifth ACC regular season victory, extending the program's streak of winning records in conference play to 17-straight seasons.
- Move Wake Forest to 13-4-0 on the season.
- Push Wake Forest's all-time record against Louisville to 12-4-0 and 8-2-0 at Spry.
- Be the 93rd home victory for Wake Forest dating back to the 2015 season and the 10th win at Spry this year.

HEAD COACH BOBBY MUUSS

Record at Wake Forest: 127-30-12 (.787)

Career Record: 201-86-37 (.677)

ACC Record: 47-13-8 (.750)

Previous:

Denver - Head Coach (2007-14)

Wake Forest - Assistant Coach (2001-07)

UConn - Volunteer Assistant Coach (2000)

Entering his eighth season at the helm of the Wake Forest men's soccer program in 2022, head coach Bobby Muuss has guided the Demon Deacons to seven-straight NCAA Round of 16 berths and two NCAA College Cups, including a runner-up finish in 2016. The Demon Deacons also currently hold the ACC's longest streak of NCAA Tournament appearances at 11-straight.

Wake Forest has amassed an 115-26-12 record in Muuss' seven seasons, more wins than any other program in NCAA Division I in that span. During the 2020-21 season, Muuss became the fastest NCAA Division I coach to reach 100 wins at their current school, doing so in 128 matches in a 2-1 overtime victory over Louisville on March 27, 2021.

Muuss became the first coach in league history to be named the ACC Coach of the Year in four-straight seasons, doubling his predecessor Jay Vidovich (2008-09; 2020-21) and former U.S. Men's National Team coach Bruce Arena (1988-89) as the only others to win that award in consecutive seasons.

Muuss led the Demon Deacons to back-to-back ACC Championships in 2016 and 2017, just the second and third tournament trophies in program history, as well as four-straight ACC Atlantic Division crowns.

Previously an assistant coach at Wake Forest from 2001-07, Muuss returned to the Demon Deacons as the program's fourth head coach on Jan. 8, 2015. Muuss spent the previous eight years serving as head coach at the University of Denver from 2007-14.

His teams have posted a top-15 defense nationally four times at Wake Forest, recording a total of 56 shutouts while allowing just 74 goals in 119 games. The Deacs have also been potent offensively, including leading the nation with 58 goals scored in 2017, ranking second with 52 goals in 2018 and finishing seventh with 46 goals in 2019.

The Deacs have also sent 23 student-athletes into the MLS ranks in six seasons under Muuss. Wake Forest is the only program to have a first-round MLS SuperDraft selection in each of those six years.

COACHING STAFF

DANE BRENNER

Associate Head Coach

12th Season at Wake Forest

Previous:

UConn-Assistant Coach (2007-11)

Dane Brenner is in his 12th season with the Wake Forest men's soccer program in 2022 after being hired onto the staff prior to the 2011 season. He was elevated to Associate Head Coach prior to the 2018 campaign.

At Wake Forest, Brenner works primarily with the team's defensive unit and goalkeepers while also serving as the program's recruiting coordinator.

Over his last seven seasons, Wake Forest has made five trips to the NCAA quarterfinals and two trips to the NCAA College Cup. The Deacs have won the ACC Atlantic Division four times, as well as back-to-back ACC Championships in 2016 and 2017.

Brenner was a key part of the coaching staff which has earned United Soccer Coaches Region Staff of the Year in the 2016 and 2017 seasons.

Over the last seven years, the Deacs won 115 matches, more than any other Division I program over that span. The Deacs have sent 23 players to the MLS as well, including 15 MLS SuperDraft selections and eight homegrown signees.

Campbell-Assistant Coach (2005-09)

Greensboro College-Assistant Coach (2004-05)

Steve Armas is in his eighth season at Wake Forest in 2022, and was elevated to Associate Head Coach prior to the 2018 season.

He was hired by Bobby Muuss as an assistant on May 7, 2015. Armas joined the Demon Deacon staff after spending the previous nine years at Campbell University, spending five as the team's head coach from 2010-14.

Over his first seven seasons, Wake Forest has made five trips to the NCAA quarterfinals and two trips to the NCAA College Cup. The Deacs have won the ACC Atlantic Division four times, as well as back-to-back ACC Championships in 2016 and 2017.

Armas coached back-to-back MAC Hermann Trophy winners in Jon Bakero and Ian Harkes, as well as Jack Harrison, the first overall pick of the 2016 MLS SuperDraft.
