THE MATCHUP

■ The No. 24 Wake Forest baseball team continues their ACC schedule with their third-consecutive conference series against a ranked foe as No. 10 Virginia heads to Winston-Salem on March 25-27 for a three-game set at David F. Couch Ballpark.

LAST TIME OUT

- The No. 24 Wake Forest baseball team earned their fourth victory against a top-15 opponent on Tuesday March 22, defeating No. 15 Liberty, 13-6, at Liberty Baseball Stadium.
- The Deacs jumped out to a 1-0 lead over the Flames in the first inning and never looked back, scoring runs in the third, fourth, seventh, eighth innings before plating five runs in the ninth to post their ninth double-digit scoring game of the season.
- Overall, the top of the Demon Deacon lineup produced in a big way during the midweek showdown as Wake Forest's one through six hitters drove in 10 of Wake Forest's 13 runs and combined for 13 hits.
- Wake Forest tallied 16 base hits, the most Liberty has given up all season and the Demon Deacons' 13th double-digit hit game of the season.
- Nick Kurtz launched a pair of two-run home runs and now leads Wake Forest with seven long flies on the year while Pierce Bennett posted a team-high four hits, including a two-run home run, marking the second time this season the Baltimore, Md. native has tallied four base knocks.
- Michael Turconi and Tommy Hawke joined Bennett with multiple-RBIs. Brock Wilken registered his sixth home run of the season with a solo shot in the top of the seventh.

OPPONENT & SERIES HISTORY

- Wake Forest and Virginia have faced off 166 times prior to this year's three-game set as the Deacs hold a 86-80 advantage in the all-time series.
- In the Cavaliers' last trip to Winston-Salem in 2018, the Demon Deacons took the series with victories in game one as well as the rubber match.

WAKE FOREST STORYLINES

- After claiming their first ACC series victory of the 2022 season with wins on Friday and Saturday at No. 6 Georgia Tech and defeating No. 15 Liberty this past Tuesday, the Demon Deacons are off to their best start through 21 games since the 2002 season when Wake Forest also began the year 17-4.
- Overall, Wake Forest has outscored their opponents 220-87 to open the new campaign with a team batting average of .329 with a .446 on-base percentage and team ERA of just 3.45
- Wake Forest's season-opening 11-game win streak marked the longest overall winning streak since the Deacs won 15 in a row during the 2012 season.
- Wake Forest has one of the top offenses in the entire nation and ACC as the Deacs rank in the top five in the conference in every offensive category, while ranking in the top 10 in the nation in those same categories.
- The Demon Deacon offense exploded in their second game against Georgia Tech, setting a new program record for most runs (27) and hits (28) in an ACC game. Wake Forest's 28 hits rank tied for third in program history, while their 27 runs stand as the sixth-most runs scored in a single game.
- On the mound, Wake Forest's starting pitchers have accounted for half of the team's innings and strikeouts.
- The Demon Deacons have been able to rely on their bullpen as four relievers have given up three runs or less this season.
- Heading into Tuesday, Wake Forest is fourth in the ACC in team ERA (3.45) and fifth in fielding percentage(.977)
- Brendan Tinsman has caught eight base runners trying to steal a base, the most in the ACC.
- 10 Demon Deacons have notched at least 10 base hits this season, led by Pierce Bennett with 30.
- Wake Forest has been patient at the plate over the opening 24 games of the season as the Deacs have been walked 143 times, the most in the ACC and the third most in the entire nation. The Deacs have been walked at least 10 times in five games this season. In all but one of those contests, Wake Forest has notched double-digit hits, while scoring double-digit runs in three of the five instances.
- Wake Forest's offense has been successful from the jump as the 2022 squad posted two games of at least 20 runs for just the second time in program history. Wake Forest plated 29 runs against Argentina and 23 runs against Brazil as the United States representative in the 1951 Pan-American Games.
- After a historic day at the plate on Saturday against Georgia Tech, Nick Kurtz tallied two home runs, a double and RBIs to lead Wake Forest to their road victory at Liberty. In Atlanta, the freshman became the first Wake Forest batter since 2005 to record six hits in the game. This is also tied for the second most in program history and is the most by a freshman in school history. Overall, Kurtz ranks in the top 10 in the conference in home runs, runs scored, RBIs and bases.
- After another strong performance from the Demon Deacon Friday starter against Georgia Tech, Rhett Lowder remained perfect on the season as he is now 5-0 with a 2.22 season ERA. Lowder became the first starting pitcher in the ACC with five wins last Friday, striking out five Georgia Tech batters while allowing just two earned runs in five innings.

*Denotes in ACC Tournament

■ This year's squad became the first team since 2003 (sixth all-time) to score at least 20 runs in three games in a season. Additionally, this ties the most 20-run game in a single season in program history.

■ Wake Forest's bats erupted for 12 runs in the fifth inning to jump out to a 18-5 lead as the Deacs tallied 10 hits and three home runs.

■ Brock Wilken blasted two home runs in the frame. Tinsman joined Wilken with a long fly in the inning, his second of the game.

■ After Wilken's leadoff home run, the next 10 Demon Deacons reached base safely as Wake Forest scored 10 runs before a single out was recorded.

■ With the bases loaded, Wake Forest tallied consecutive RBI-singles from Hawke, Kurtz, Bennett and Michael Turconi.

■ Wilken became the first Demon Deacon since 2017 to hit two home runs in one inning (Nick DiPonzio on April 4). Overall, Wilken tallied four RBIs on his pair of home runs in the inning.

DEFENSE & PITCHING THRIVING

■ On the mound, Wake Forest's starting pitchers have accounted for 56.3 percent of the team's innings (99-of-176). Additionally, the Deacs' starters have tallied 50.1 percent of the team's overall strikeouts (98-of-193)

■ The Demon Deacons have been able to rely on their bullpen as four relievers have given up three runs or less this season (six innings pitched minimum):

- 1: Gabe Golob, Crawford Wade
- 2: Derek Crum, Camden Minacci

■ In the series opener against No. 6 Georgia Tech, the Deacs gave up just three runs, tying the Yellow Jackets' season low.

■ Overall, the Deacs have only conceded 71 earned runs through 24 games (2.96 per game) and have held opponents to five or less runs in every game except three. Their team ERA ranks fourth in the ACC.

■ Through the first four games, the Deacs gave up just 11 runs, the fewest number of runs the Deacs have allowed in the first four games in head coach Tom Walter's tenure.

■ Four Wake Forest arms have held opponents to a sub-.100 batting average (at least nine innings minimum):

- Gabe Golob - .163 in 15.0 innings
- Eric Adler - .171 in 9.1 innings
- Camden Minacci - .172 in 18.1 innings
- Crawford Wade - .178 in 12.1 innings

■ Heading into Tuesday's game, Wake Forest is fifth in the ACC with a .977 fielding percentage.

■ Brendan Tinsman has caught eight base runners trying to steal a base, the most in the ACC.

LOWDER LEADING THE CHARGE

■ After another strong performance from the Demon Deacon Friday starter against Georgia Tech, Rhett Lowder remained perfect on the season as he is now 5-0 with a 2.22 season ERA.

■ Lowder became the first starting pitcher in the ACC with five wins last Friday, striking out five Georgia Tech batters while allowing just two earned runs in five innings.

■ This season, Lowder has posted a team-high 34 strikeouts (seventh in the ACC) compared to just 11 walks as opponents are only hitting .222 against him.

■ Last season, Lowder tallied 78 punchouts, the third most by a freshman in Wake Forest history.

BATS EXPLODE DURING OPENING WEEKEND

The Deacs outscored their opponents by a tally of 40-8 during Opening Weekend, highlighted by a 25-3 victory on Opening Day against Lafayette. With the victory, the Deacs won their eighth-straight season opener dating back to 2015 and marked Wake Forest's largest margin of victory in a season opener since 2003.

The Deacons' 25 runs were the most they have scored since March 10, 2015 and Friday was the first time they scored 20-plus runs since April 13, 2019 against Pitt. Additionally, 20 hits were the most in a single game since Feb. 15, 2020 against UW-Milwaukee.

The Deacons went on to score a program single-inning record-tying 16 runs in the fifth, and they tacked on another eight in the sixth to defeat the Leopards.

In the weekend finale, the Deacs crushed four home runs against VCU:

- Jake Reinisch (Third)
- Nick Kurtz (Third)
- Adam Cecere (Sixth)
- Adam Cecere (Eighth)

BEST DUO ON THE CAPE

Wake Forest baseball third baseman Brock Wilken and right-handed pitcher Eric Adler received top honors from the Cape Cod Baseball League after stellar first-year performances at the top collegiate summer league.

Wilken was named the league's most valuable player after an incredible debut season for the Harwich Mariners, while Adler was named the league's top relief pitcher as the right hander continued to slam the door as the Bourne Braves' closer.

Wilken posted a batting average of .302 with 39 hits, 10 doubles, six home runs, 26 RBIs and 26 runs scored. The Valrico, Fla. native led the league in doubles and walks, while he also finished in the top ten in batting average (tied for eighth), hits (second), home runs (tied for fourth) and RBIs (fourth).

On the mound, Adler struck out 29 batters while only conceding two runs and six hits in 15.2 innings. Adler fanned 22 batters and walked just three batters in 11 appearances before giving up his first earned run, becoming the first Cape Cod pitcher to post averages of 0.00 ERA, over 10 strikeouts per nine innings and less than 2.5 walks per nine innings since Marcus Stroman in 2010.

WELCOME TO THE STAFF

Wake Forest's staff added a trio of newcomers to the program this offseason.

- Corey Muscara (Pitching Coach): Muscara comes to Winston-Salem with over a decade of collegiate coaching experience, elevating multiple program's pitching staffs to new heights. Under Muscara's leadership, his teams have finished in the top 10 in ERA and strikeouts on the conference and national level on several occasions, while developing numerous MLB draft prospects at every stop throughout his career.

- Ty Blankmeyer (Volunteer Assistant): Blankmeyer joins the Demon Deacons with a wealth of experience as a player and baseball professional, most recently serving as an Area Scout with the Milwaukee Brewers from 2017-21. During his time with the organization, Blankmeyer was in charge of all scouting responsibilities in the Northeast region of the United States, highlighted by the drafting and signing of Sal Frelick, the 15th overall pick in the 2021 MLB Draft. Blankmeyer was selected by the Cincinnati Reds in the 2016 MLB draft and tallied a batting average of .280 in the Pioneer League before stepping into a player development role with the franchise at the Arizona Complex League (AZL) under Jose Nieves and Miguel Cairo in the summer of 2017.

- Mike McFerran (Pitching Lab Coordinator): Prior to Wake Forest, McFerran served as the Associate Head Coach, Pitching Coach, & Recruiting Coordinator at Skidmore College from 2017-2020. His pitchers saw a quick and vast improvement under his tutelage, moving from eighth in conference ERA in 2017 to fourth in 2018. Additionally, McFerran's pitchers went from last in strikeouts to fourth in a year span. In 2019, Skidmore conceded the least amount of walks in the conference.

HIGHLY-RATED NEWCOMERS

After Wake Forest's 2021 class was ranked in the top 20 for the first time in program history, the 2022 class landed at No. 13 according to D1 Baseball.

Freshman Josh Hartle heads into his first collegiate season as the top-rated recruit to attend college from this year's class. D1 Baseball's Andrew Fitt says "LHP Josh Hartle (5) was the top southpaw in the 2021 class, but withdrew from the MLB Draft, giving the Demon Deacons the best recruit in the country. He is loose and projectable with a fastball in the low 90s and the ability to manipulate spin on his breaking ball."

Danny Corona was selected in the 16th round of the 2021 MLB Draft, but decided to head to Winston-Salem. Fitt on Corona: "Shortstop Daniel Corona (267) has a solid all-around skill set and an advanced feel for the game. The left-handed hitter has a good feel at the plate and actions in the infield, which gives him the look of the Deacons shortstop of the future."

Overall, the class consists of 13 freshmen as well as six incoming transfers.

HEAD COACH | 13TH YEAR | GEORGETOWN, 1991 | IN THE DUGOUT | WEARS NO. 32

A proven program builder and player developer, Tom Walter enters his 13th season in 2022 as the head coach of Wake Forest baseball.

With 325 wins at Wake Forest, he enters 2022 as the second-winningest coach in program history, trailing only George Greer (608 wins in 16 years). Additionally, Walter is one of just two active head coaches in the country to lead three different programs to the NCAA Division I Tournament, becoming just the seventh coach all-time to do so. He joins the ranks of Larry Cochell, Augie Garrido, Sunny Golloway, Andy Lopez, Ron Polk and Jack Stallings, while Randy Mazey joined that group after Walter.

Walter has helped 41 players get drafted or sign pro contracts over the last eight years, including six Deacs drafted among the top 50 picks and back-to-back first rounders in 2021 (Ryan Cusick) and 2020 (Jared Shuster).

#ProDeacs in the major leagues include Gavin Sheets and Stuart Fairchild, who both A program-record eight Demon Deacons were selected in the 2017 MLB Draft, including records of two selected in the top 50 and four in the top seven rounds. Six selections (2012) and five selections (2021) round out the top three of Wake Forest's draft classes under Walter.

While at Wake Forest, Walter has overseen the development of 2016 National Player of the Year Will Craig, All-America selections Craig, Nate Mondou, Stuart Fairchild, Gavin Sheets, Ben Breazeale, Bobby Seymour and Chris Lanzilli, as well as a total of 22 All-ACC selections. Wake Forest had nine All-ACC picks in 2017, a program record and most in the ACC. In 2019, Seymour was named ACC Player of the Year - the second at Wake Forest in Walter's tenure, and led the country with 92 RBIs.

Walter and the Deacs had a banner season in 2017, which includes Wake Forest hosting and sweeping the Winston-Salem Regional and finishing a game away from the College World Series, concluding the year with a 43-20 overall record. The Demon Deacons set program records in ACC wins (19), ACC series wins (eight), All-ACC honorees (nine) and home runs (106). The Deacs also set a new team-high with eight student-athletes drafted, including program records of two in the top 50 overall picks and four in the top seven rounds.

Wake Forest earned back-to-back NCAA Regional bids after competing in the College Station Regional in 2016. The Deacs have posted seven winning seasons in the last eight years.

To Walter and the coaching staff, development off the field is equally as important as on the field. All of the program's seniors have graduated on time for six consecutive years, and the team has raised more than $100,000 for various charities including the ALS Association, JDRF, the V's. Cancer Foundation and Brenner Children's Hospital. On May 1, 2021, the Deacs hosted its first-ever Fight Against Pediatric Cancer Game, where fans were given the opportunity to bid on special edition, game-worn yellow jerseys that matched the pediatric cancer ribbon. The program raised $9,485, with all proceeds being donated to Brenner Children's Hospital.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BILL CILENTO

ASSOCIATE HEAD

COACH

HITTING COACH

13TH YEAR

SIENA, 2003

■ Coaches Third Base

■ Wears No. 37

■ Bill Cilentio enters his 13th year at Wake Forest in 2022, after being promoted to Associate Head Coach in January 2019. He works primarily with the Demon Deacon hitters and infielders.

■ In his time as a coach, 63 of his student-athletes have gone on to play professionally, including seven big leaguers.

■ He oversaw the development of National Player of the Year Will Craig, the first-round pick of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2016. After not making an all-conference team his freshman year, Craig's improvement earned him ACC Player of the Year honors in 2015 and made him a unanimous first team All-American in 2016.

■ Wake Forest has had 17 hitters earn all-ACC honors the last six seasons. In 2017, Wake Forest became the first Division I school in the nation to surpass 100 home runs in the BBCOR era, leading the nation with 106 blasts and 1.68 longballs per game. Additionally, Wake Forest led the nation in 2021 with 91 home runs at the end of the regular season.

■ Cilentio has coached with Tom Walter for 13 years, including a pair of seasons at New Orleans. Cilentio was a four-year starter at Siena.

■ He and his wife, Jen, have three daughters: Brooke, Katie, Megan and Reese.

COREY MUSCARA

ASSISTANT COACH

PITCHING COACH

1ST YEAR

FRANKLIN PIERCE, 2009

■ Wears No. 44

■ Corey Muscara begins his first season with the Demon Deacons after being officially added to the staff on July 2, 2021. Muscara works directly with the Wake Forest pitching staff.

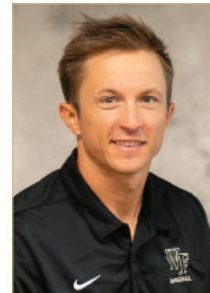

■ Muscara comes to Winston-Salem with over a decade of collegiate coaching experience, elevating multiple program's pitching staffs to new heights. Under Muscara's leadership, his teams have finished in the top 10 in ERA and strikeouts on the conference and national level on several occasions, while developing numerous MLB draft prospects at every stop throughout his career.

■ Most recently, Muscara served as Maryland's pitching coach for the previous four seasons. In 2021, the Terps' pitching staff registered a team ERA of 4.76, the fifth-best in the Big Ten and their lowest mark during Muscara's tenure. The success on the mound was crucial to the team's overall success as Maryland won multiple NCAA Tournament games for the first time since 2015, defeating Norfolk State and Charlotte in back-to-back games at the Greenville Regional.

■ In 2020, Maryland earned a program record seventh-best recruiting class in the country, highlighted by Muscara's efforts to secure a number of highly-regarded pitchers.

■ He tutored Hunter Parsons to Third Team All-Big Ten accolades in 2019 as the right hander led the conference with nine wins before. Parsons went on to be drafted in the 19th round by the New York Mets and is currently in the High-A affiliate within the organization.

■ Muscara graduated from Franklin Pierce with a degree in history in 2009. He and his wife Suzie have two sons, Theodore and Thomas.

TY BLANKMEYER

VOLUNTEER ASST.

COACH

ASST. HITTING COACH

1ST YEAR

ST. JOHN'S, 2016

■ Coaches First Base

■ Wears No. 38

■ Blankmeyer joins the Deacs prior to the 2022 season with a wealth of experience as a player and baseball professional, most recently serving as an Area Scout with the Milwaukee Brewers from 2017-21.

■ During his time with the organization, Blankmeyer was in charge of all scouting responsibilities in the Northeast region of the United States, highlighted by the drafting and signing of Sal Frelick, the 15th overall pick in the 2021 MLB Draft.

■ Blankmeyer was selected by the Cincinnati Reds in the 2016 MLB draft and tallied a batting average of .280 in the Pioneer League before stepping into a player development role with the franchise at the Arizona Complex League (AZL) under Jose Nieves and Miguel Cairo in the summer of 2017. His job responsibilities included working with the infielders and assisting with day-to-day baseball tasks and operations.

■ From 2013-16, Blankmeyer was an outstanding middle infielder at St. John's, appearing in 128 games and being a part of the 2015 Big East Championship team. In the summer before his senior campaign, Blankmeyer took home a Gold Glove in the Northwoods League.

■ Blankmeyer received a degree in Communications from St. John's in 2016.

■ The Morristown, N.J. native grew up in a baseball family. His father, Ed Blankmeyer, is the winningest coach in St. John's history with 869 wins. His grandfather, Mike Sheppard Sr., coached at Seton Hall for several years and earned 998 victories, 10 NCAA Tournament appearances and two College World Series runs.

DAVID F. COUCH BALLPARK & CHRIS HURD PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

- David F. Couch Ballpark is home to the Demon Deacon baseball team. The Deacons moved in to the facility before the start of the 2009 season after playing the previous 28 seasons on campus at historic Gene Hooks Stadium.
- Formerly known as Ernie Shore Field, the park was home to Winston-Salem's Carolina League minor league team for more than 40 years. Wake Forest purchased the facility after the team, now known as the Winston-Salem Dash, moved in to a new downtown ballpark.
- In February 2016, Wake Forest baseball park was renamed David F. Couch Ballpark in honor of former baseball player David Couch ('84). A longtime supporter of Wake Forest Athletics and the baseball program, Couch made the lead gift toward a new $12 million facility, which opened in February 2017, and included construction of a new dugout and bullpen, locker room, equipment room, training room, team lounge, nutrition area, and pitching lab.
- The latest phase of the Chris Hurd Player Development Center was made possible, in part, thanks to the generosity of Chris and Nancy Hurd who made the lead gift toward the project. It features a team meeting room, dedicated video room, coaches' offices, a biomechanist's office, a conference room, game day suites, and a baseball heritage area. It was dedicated on Oct. 12, 2018, and the construction wrapped up in January 2019.
- With the completion of the pitching lab inside the Chris Hurd Player Development Center at David F. Couch Ballpark, the state-of-the-art biomechanics lab is used to develop Wake Forest student-athletes and transform the game of baseball. Wake Forest Athletics is partnering with Wake Forest Baptist Health on a historic agreement, which combines the two units to enhance player safety and development. On Wake Forest's side, pitching coach Corey Muscara, pitching lab coordinator Mike McFerran, athletic trainer Jeff Strahm and strength coach Mark Seaver works with Wake Baptist's Dr. Brian Waterman, the team physician specializing in shoulder and elbow care, and biophysicist Dr. Kristen Nicholson.
- Wake Forest players also have access to state-of-the-art technology with the Trackman Pro video system with cameras set up on both the first and third base dugouts, center field and behind home plate. The system allows hitters to view their swings and pitchers their pitching motions following each game, and tracks 27 different data points varying from pitch velocity to spin rate to launch angle.
- Other renovations include:
 - 2020: New FieldTurf DoublePlay Classic surface installed prior to the season.
 - 2015: Visiting clubhouse converted into state-of-the-art weight room facility.
 - 2013: Multi-colored chairback seats replaced with modern all-black seats.
 - 2012: 18' x 24' LED video board installed.
 - 2011: AstroTurf GameDay 3D52H Grass installed, as well as the manual scoreboard in left field.
 - 2010: Indoor hitting facility built beyond left field.
 - 2009: Wake Forest purchased and moved into stadium. It previously belonged to the Winston-Salem Dash since it was built in 1956.

ON THIS DATE IN HISTORY

March 25, 2006

Wake Forest sophomore Eric Niesen tossed 5.0 shutout innings, freshman Evan Ocheltree added a two-run triple and sophomore closer Ben Hunter picked up his ACC-best eighth save of the season to help the No. 24 Demon Deacons to a 3-2 victory over No. 21 Virginia Saturday night at Davenport Field. Wake Forest improves to 19-6 overall and 5-3 in the ACC, while the Cavaliers drop to 21-5 and 5-3.

Niesen was absolutely dominant in the victorious effort. The sophomore did not allow a single Cavalier into scoring position. Niesen yielded just two hits, both singles, including one that barely rolled past the mound. He struck out a career-high seven and did not walk a single batter.

Niesen had only thrown 57 pitches over the five innings, but was forced to leave the game after ripping his left middle fingernail. He only pitched out of a multiple ball count on three occasions. In fact, Virginia only had one at-bat over the first five innings with a three-ball count.
