THE MATCHUP

Wake Forest continues their seven-game homestand with the second contest of a home-and-home with Liberty at David F. Couch Ballpark.

LAST TIME OUT

Behind a complete team performance, the Wake Forest baseball team swept a Saturday doubleheader against Longwood at David F. Couch Ballpark.
The Demon Deacons outscored the Lancers 30-4 in the two seven-inning games as Wake Forest tallied 35 hits, launched seven home runs and struck out 19 batters across 10 scoreless innings in the pair of Saturday wins.

OPPONENT & SERIES HISTORY

Wake Forest and Liberty have previously met 31 times, with the first meeting coming in 1971. The Deacs hold a 22-9 advantage in the all-time series.
On March 22, the Demon Deacons defeated the Flames, 13-6, in Lynchburg for their fourth top-15 victory of the season.
The Deacs jumped out to a 1-0 lead over the Flames in the first inning and never looked back, scoring runs in the third, fourth, seventh, eighth innings before plating five runs in the ninth to post their ninth double-digit scoring game of the season.

WAKE FOREST STORYLINES

Head coach Tom Walter, the second-winningest coach in program history, won his 350th game at the helm of the Wake Forest baseball program with the 16-11 series finale victory against Duke on Sunday.
Wake Forest's 31 wins are tied for the most in the ACC's Atlantic division and ranks third overall in the conference.
The Deacs have picked up five wins against top-15 opponents, four coming in ACC play.
Wake Forest has one of the top offenses in the entire nation and ACC as the Deacs rank in the top three in the conference in every offensive category, highlighted by a conference-best 266 walks, .323 batting average and 422 runs. Additionally, the Deacs rank in the top 10 nationally in batting average (second), on-base percentage (second), runs (third), walks (fourth), hits (fifth), slugging percentage (sixth) and home runs (seventh).
The 2022 Wake Forest offense is one of the most productive offenses in program history as this year's squad owns the program record for games with 20+ runs (four) as well as 20+ run games against ACC competition (two). In back-to-back games, Wake Forest posted their fourth and fifth games this season with at least 20 hits.
Pierce Bennett led Wake Forest in a 3-1 week with a team-high average of .813 with a team-high 13 hits, two home runs and a team-high tying 10 RBIs. Additionally, Bennett posted team highs in slugging percentage (1.313), on-base percentage (.833) and stolen bases (2). In the opening game of the Demon Deacons' doubleheader against Longwood, Bennett went a perfect 5-for-5 with four RBIs and a home run. The five hits marked a new career high as Bennett became the first Demon Deacon to finish with five hits in a game since 2019.
On the mound, Wake Forest's starting pitchers have combined for 192.1 innings with 192 strikeouts and just 99 earned runs allowed.
10 Demon Deacons have notched at least 10 base hits this season, led by Pierce Bennett with a career-high 61 base knocks. 12 Deacs have hit a long fly this season, led by Brendan Tinsman with 17. Additionally, Wake Forest is just one of three teams in the ACC with four players with at least 10 home runs.
Wake Forest has been patient at the plate as the Deacs have been walked 266 times, the most in the ACC and the fourth most in the entire nation. Wake Forest is the only school in the ACC with more than two players in the top-10 for on-base percentage (Tommy Hawke: second, Jake Reinisch: fourth, Nick Kurtz: seventh, Pierce Bennett: 10th).
Jake Reinisch has reached base in 43-straight games and leads Wake Forest with 41 walks. Reinisch leads the ACC in walks while ranking fourth in on-base percentage. In the series finale against Notre Dame, Reinisch launched a three-run home run and tallied a career-high four RBIs.
Freshman Nick Kurtz has strung together a stellar freshman campaign, tallying a .343 batting average with 49 hits to go along with a team-high tying 11 doubles and 10 home runs. With his pair of home runs against Clemson in the series finale, Kurtz is now tied for eighth for most home runs by a freshman in program history. He joins Brock Wilken (17 in 2021) and Brendan Tinsman (10 in 2019) as the only first-year Deacs to reach double-digit home runs since 2010. Additionally, Kurtz already ranks in the top-10 in runs scored (third) and walks (tied for fourth) by a freshman in program history.
Camden Minacci has been the most relied upon arm coming out of the Wake Forest bullpen this season. In 31.2 innings, the sophomore has struck out 46 batters while only allowing six earned runs. Minacci's career-high 46 strikeouts rank second on the team, while he sports the lowest ERA (1.71) on the squad. Minacci has also tallied five saves, the fifth-most in the ACC, highlighted by slamming the door in three-straight games against Elon (April 6), Duke (April 8) and Duke (April 9). In nine of Minacci's 22 appearances this season, the righthander has blanked the opposition, allowing no hits or runs. On Wednesday, Minacci was one of 62 relief pitchers named to the Stopper of the Year Midseason Watch List.
Brendan Tinsman has posted a career year in his fourth season in the Old Gold and Black, posting career highs in hits (60), doubles (11), home runs (17), RBIs (52) and slugging percentage (.726). Tinsman has homered in eight of Wake Forest's last 14 games as the redshirt junior is fourth in the ACC and 10th in the country in long flies. Tinsman leads the Deacs in slugging, home runs, multi-hit games and multi-RBI games. The catcher heads into the midweek on a team-high 14 game hit streak. Over the course of his streak that dates back to April 9, Tinsman is batting .375 with a team-high 21 hits, eight home runs, 24 RBIs and a slugging percentage of .857. Tinsman's next home run will place him on Wake Forest's top-10 single season home list.
Michael Turconi, a career .304 hitter, has put together a career year as the shortstop has posted career bests in hits (55), home runs (10), walks (32), triples (4), RBIs (48), slugging (.589), average (.327), on-base (.437) and stolen bases (5).
Brock Wilken reached a career milestone on Saturday, registering his 100th career hit with his three-run home run to end the second game of the double header. In 90 career contests, Wilken has 100 hits with 22 doubles, 31 home runs and 98 RBIs.

IN GOOD COMPANY

Wake Forest's 31 wins are tied for the most in the ACC's Atlantic division and ranks third overall in the conference.

The Deacs have won three ACC series this season, claiming the first two games at Georgia Tech as well as against Boston College in Chestnut Hill, Mass. before sweeping Big Four rival Duke for the first time since 2008.

Five of Wake Forest's wins have come against top-15 opponents with victories against then-No. 8 Florida State, then-No. 6 Georgia Tech twice, then-No. 15 Liberty and then-No. 10 Virginia.

With the 18-3 victory in game one of Saturday's doubleheader, Wake Forest reeled in its 30th win of the season, the fastest Demon Deacon squad to reach the 30-win mark since 2017. Overall, it is tied for the fourth-fastest since 2000 and the fastest in the Coach Walter era.

Fastest to 30 Wins Since 2000

- 2002: 30-6 (36 games)
- 2000: 30-9-1 (40 games)
- 2001: 30-12 (42 games)
- 2022: 30-13 (43 games)
- 2017: 30-13 (43 games)
- 2006: 30-13 (43 games)

With their 15-10 win on Friday night against the Eagles, the 2022 Demon Deacons reeled in its 20th victory in just 26 games, the second fastest since 2000 and the fastest in the head coach Tom Walter era.

The Deacs got off to one of the best starts in program history with an 11-0 record, the first time since 1961 Wake Forest has won their first 11 games. At that point of the season, Wake Forest stood as one of five unbeaten teams in Division I. The Deacs best starts to begin a season:

- 11-0: 2022, 1961, 1949
- 12-0: 1949
- 13-0: 1949
- 14-0: 1949
- 15-0: 1949

Wake Forest's 11-straight wins marked the longest winning streak overall since the Deacs won 15 in a row during the 2012 season. Wake Forest became the second team in the nation to reach 11 wins.

HISTORIC OFFENSIVE SEASON

The Demon Deacon offense has set multiple program records this season.

In their series-clinching victory last weekend at Boston College, Wake Forest scored 20 runs to set a new program record for most games in a season with 20 runs or more as well as the most games with 20 or more runs against an ACC opponent.

28 vs. E. Tenn. St. (3.28.90) W, 21-4
28 vs. Liberty (3.25.88) W, 23-5

Additionally, the 20-run margin of victory is the second-highest in program history for an ACC game as the Demon Deacons defeated Georgia Tech by 21 runs on April 16, 1999.

In back-to-back games, Wake Forest posted their fourth and fifth games this season with at least 20 hits:

- Feb. 22: vs. UNC Greensboro, 21 hits (23 runs)
- March 19: at Georgia Tech, 28 hits (27 runs)
- April 2: at Boston College, 22 hits (20 runs)
- April 27: at Gardner-Webb, 21 hits (17 runs)
- April 30: vs. Longwood (Game 1), 22 hits (18 runs)

DEFENSE & PITCHING THRIVING

On the mound, Wake Forest's starting pitchers have combined for 192.1 innings with 192 strikeouts and just 99 earned runs allowed.

In the series opener against No. 6 Georgia Tech, the Deacs gave up just three runs, tying the Yellow Jackets' season low. In the series finale against Virginia, the Deacs held the nation's highest scoring offense to just one run, tying Virginia's lowest-scoring performance of the season and marking the second time this year Virginia hasn't scored at least five runs in a game.

Through the first four games, the Deacs gave up just 11 runs, the fewest number of runs the Deacs have allowed in the first four games in head coach Tom Walter's tenure.

Seth Keener is scheduled to make his ninth start of the season on Tuesday. Keener has struck out five or more batters in four appearances this season, while conceding no walks in five. When Keener starts, Wake Forest holds a 7-1 record.

In Wake Forest's doubleheader sweep of Longwood, five arms combined for 10 scoreless innings (14 overall innings) with 19 strikeouts while allowing just four runs.

A pair of Demon Deacon arms have earned national recognition at the midway point of the season:

- Rhett Lowder, Pitcher of the Year Watch List
- Camden Minacci, Stopper of the Year Midseason Watch List

WAKE FOREST BASEBALL

RAKE FOREST

Wake Forest has one of the top offenses in the entire nation and ACC as the Deacs rank in the top three in the conference in every offensive category, highlighted by a conference-best 266 walks, .323 batting average and 422 runs. Additionally, the Deacs rank in the top 10 nationally in batting average (second), on-base percentage (second), runs (third), walks (fourth), hits (fifth), slugging percentage (sixth) and home runs (seventh).

Category	National	ACC
Average	2	1
On-Base %	2	1
Runs	3	1
Walks	4	1
Hits	5	2
Slugging %	6	3
Home Runs	7	3

Wake Forest heads into midweek action outscoring their opponents 422-251.

12 Deacs have hit a long fly this season, led by Brendan Tinsman with 17. Additionally, Wake Forest is one of three teams in the ACC with four players with at least 10 home runs:

- 6- Virginia Tech
- 4- Wake Forest, Georgia Tech
- 3- Virginia, NC State, Louisville, North Carolina

The Demon Deacon offense got off to a historic start as the 2022 team became just the second squad in program history to register at least 20 runs multiple times during the opening four games of a season, matching the 1951 squad that represented the United States at the 1951 Pan-American Games.

1951 (67 Runs)

- Argentina: 29 runs
- Brazil: 23 runs
- Columbia: 8 runs
- Nicaragua: 8 runs

2022 (63 runs)

- Lafayette (Feb. 18): 25 runs
- Georgetown (Feb. 19): 9 runs
- VCU (Feb. 20): 6 runs
- UNC-Greensboro: 23 runs

A LOT OF OFFENSE IN A SHORT AMOUNT OF TIME

One of the best offenses in the nation, the Deacs have scored five runs or more in an inning 20 times this season:

- Feb. 18: Lafayette - 16 runs (fifth inning)
- Feb. 18: Lafayette - 8 runs (sixth inning)
- Feb. 22: UNCG - 6 runs (first inning)
- Feb. 22: UNCG - 6 runs (third inning)
- Feb. 22: UNCG - 6 runs (eighth inning)
- Feb. 25: NJIT - 6 runs (second inning)
- Feb. 25: NJIT - 6 runs (seventh inning)
- Feb. 26: NJIT - 5 runs (seventh inning)
- March 1: Elon - 5 runs (seventh inning)
- March 15: WCU - 7 runs (third inning)
- March 19: Georgia Tech - 12 runs (fifth inning)
- March 22: Liberty - 5 runs (ninth inning)
- March 30: Coastal Carolina - 6 runs (sixth inning)
- April 1: Boston College - 7 runs (seventh inning)
- April 2: Boston College - 6 runs (first inning)
- April 10: Duke - 6 runs (third inning)
- April 16: Clemson - 7 runs (first inning)
- April 24: Notre Dame - 5 runs (fifth inning)
- April 27: Gardner-Webb - 5 runs (third inning)
- April 30: Longwood (Game one) - 10 runs (fifth inning)

Wake Forest's 10 runs in the fifth inning against Longwood sits as the third-highest scoring inning of the season.

BENNY BARRELS

- Pierce Bennett led Wake Forest in a 3-1 week with a team-high average of .813 with a team-high 13 hits, two home runs and a team-high tying 10 RBIs. Additionally, Bennett posted team highs in slugging percentage (1.313), on-base percentage (.833) and stolen bases (2).
- In the opening game of the Demon Deacons' doubleheader against Longwood, Bennett went a perfect 5-for-5 with four RBIs and a home run. The five hits marked a new career high as Bennett became the first Demon Deacon to finish with five hits in a game since 2019.
- In Wake Forest's first game of the week against High Point, Bennett went 4-for-5 with a home run, a double and two RBIs.
- Bennett now ranks second on the team and eighth in the ACC in average with a .379 mark, 11th in the league with a .474 on-base percentage and 12th in the conference in hits, 61.
- In the month of April, Bennett led Wake Forest in average (.397) and hits (29), while tying for a team-best in doubles (6).

TINSMAN'S CAREER SEASON LEADING DEACS

- Brendan Tinsman has posted a career year in his fourth season in the Old Gold and Black, posting career highs in hits (60), doubles (11), home runs (17), RBIs (52) and slugging percentage (.726).
- Tinsman has homered in eight of Wake Forest's last 14 games as the redshirt junior is fourth in the ACC and 10th in the country in long flies.
- Tinsman leads the Deacs in slugging, home runs, multi-hit games and multi-RBI games.

- The catcher heads into the midweek on a team-high 14 game hit streak. Over the course of his streak that dates back to April 9, Tinsman is batting .375 with a team-high 21 hits, eight home runs, 24 RBIs and a slugging percentage of .857.
- Tinsman's next home run will place him on Wake Forest's top-10 single season home list.

MINACCI BRINGING ENERGY OUT OF BULLPEN

- Camden Minacci has been the most relied upon arm coming out of the Wake Forest bullpen.
- In 31.2 innings, the sophomore has struck out 46 batters while only allowing six earned runs. Minacci's career-high 46 strikeouts rank second on the team, while he sports the lowest ERA (1.71) on the squad.
- Minacci has also tallied five saves, the fifth-most in the ACC, highlighted by slamming the door in three-straight games against Elon (April 6), Duke (April 8) and Duke (April 9).
- In nine of Minacci's 22 appearances this season, the righthander has blanked the opposition, allowing no hits or runs.
- On Wednesday, Minacci was one of 62 relief pitchers named to the Stopper of the Year Midseason Watch List.
- Against Boston College, Minacci struck out the side on just nine pitches.
- This season, Minacci has fanned at least five batters in seven appearances
- Minacci took over with the bases loaded and no one out against Elon, picking up his second save of the season as the right hander kept Wake Forest's lead at two in two innings.

REINISCH REACHING BASE

- Jake Reinisch has reached base in 43-straight games and leads Wake Forest with 41 walks.
- Reinisch leads the ACC in walks while ranking fourth in on-base percentage.
- In the series finale against Notre Dame, Reinisch launched a three-run home run and tallied a career-high four RBIs.

KURTZ JOINING ELITE COMPANY

- Freshman Nick Kurtz has strung together a stellar freshman campaign, tallying a .343 batting average with 49 hits to go along with a team-high tying 11 doubles and 10 home runs.
- In the series finale against Clemson, Kurtz led Wake Forest at the plate with two home runs and a double, his fourth three-hit game and the second two-home run performance of the season. Kurtz also scored a team-high three runs.
- With his pair of round trippers, Kurtz is now tied for eighth for most home runs by a freshman in program history. He joins Brock Wilken (17 in 2021) and Brendan Tinsman (10 in 2019) as the only first-year Deacs to reach double-digit home runs since 2010.
- Additionally, Kurtz already ranks in the top-10 in runs scored (third) and walks (tied for fourth) by a freshman in program history.
- In Wake Forest's historic offensive performance on March 19 at Georgia Tech, Kurtz had a historic day at the plate as the freshman became the first Wake Forest batter since 2005 to record six hits in the game. This is also tied for the second most in program history and is the most by a freshman in school history.

TURCONI TURNING HEADS

- Michael Turconi, a career .304 hitter, has put together a career year as the shortstop has posted career bests in hits (55), home runs (10), walks (32), triples (4), RBIs (48), slugging (.589), average (.327), on-base (.437) and stolen bases (5).

WILKEN REACHES MILESTONE WITH HUGE PERFORMANCE

- Brock Wilken reached a career milestone on Saturday, registering his 100th career hit with his three-run home run to end the second game of the double header.
- In 90 career contests, Wilken has 100 hits with 22 doubles, 31 home runs and 98 RBIs.
- In the month of April, Wilken posted a .296 average with 24 hits, three doubles, eight home runs, a team-high 30 RBIs, a slugging percentage of .630 and an on-base percentage of .412.
- In two wins against Longwood, Wilken went 5-8 with a team-high three home runs and nine RBIs.

PATIENCE AT PLATE PAYING DIVIDENDS

- Wake Forest has been patient at the plate as the Deacs have been walked 266 times, the most in the ACC and the fourth most in the entire nation.
- The Deacs have been walked at least 10 times in five games this season. In all but one of those contests, Wake Forest has notched double-digit hits, while scoring double-digit runs in three of the five instances.

Opponent	Hits	Walks	Runs
Lafayette	18	13	25
Georgetown	12	13	9
UNCG	21	10	23
George Mason	14	10	14
Georgia Tech	4	11	5

Wake Forest is the only school in the ACC with more than two players in the top-10 for on-base percentage:

- Tommy Hawke: second
- Jake Reinisch: fourth
- Nick Kurtz: seventh
- Pierce Bennett: 10th

TRIO OF DEACS ON MILESTONE WATCH

- Michael Turconi is 22 hits away from becoming the 29th Demon Deacon in program history to tally 200 career base knocks.
- Rhett Lowder is one strikeout away from 150 career Ks.
- Pierce Bennett is 10 away from 100 career hits.

HEAD COACH TOM WALTER

HEAD COACH | 13TH YEAR | GEORGETOWN, 1991 | IN THE DUGOUT | WEARS NO. 32

A proven program builder and player developer, Tom Walter enters his 13th season in 2022 as the head coach of Wake Forest baseball.

With 325 wins at Wake Forest, he enters 2022 as the second-winningest coach in program history, trailing only George Greer (608 wins in 16 years). Additionally, Walter is one of just two active head coaches in the country to lead three different programs to the NCAA Division I Tournament, becoming just the seventh coach all-time to do so. He joins the ranks of Larry Cochell, Augie Garrido, Sunny Golloway, Andy Lopez, Ron Polk and Jack Stallings, while Randy Mazey joined that group after Walter.

Walter has helped 41 players get drafted or sign pro contracts over the last eight years, including six Deacs drafted among the top 50 picks and back-to-back first rounders in 2021 (Ryan Cusick) and 2020 (Jared Shuster).

#ProDeacs in the major leagues include Gavin Sheets and Stuart Fairchild, who both A program-record eight Demon Deacons were selected in the 2017 MLB Draft, including records of two selected in the top 50 and four in the top seven rounds. Six selections (2012) and five selections (2021) round out the top three of Wake Forest's draft classes under Walter.

While at Wake Forest, Walter has overseen the development of 2016 National Player of the Year Will Craig, All-America selections Craig, Nate Mondou, Stuart Fairchild, Gavin Sheets, Ben Breazeale, Bobby Seymour and Chris Lanzilli, as well as a total of 22 All-ACC selections. Wake Forest had nine All-ACC picks in 2017, a program record and most in the ACC. In 2019, Seymour was named ACC Player of the Year - the second at Wake Forest in Walter's tenure, and led the country with 92 RBIs.

Walter and the Deacs had a banner season in 2017, which includes Wake Forest hosting and sweeping the Winston-Salem Regional and finishing a game away from the College World Series, concluding the year with a 43-20 overall record. The Demon Deacons set program records in ACC wins (19), ACC series wins (eight), All-ACC honorees (nine) and home runs (106). The Deacs also set a new team-high with eight student-athletes drafted, including program records of two in the top 50 overall picks and four in the top seven rounds.

Wake Forest earned back-to-back NCAA Regional bids after competing in the College Station Regional in 2016. The Deacs have posted seven winning seasons in the last eight years.

To Walter and the coaching staff, development off the field is equally as important as on the field. All of the program's seniors have graduated on time for six consecutive years, and the team has raised more than $100,000 for various charities including the ALS Association, JDRF, the V's. Cancer Foundation and Brenner Children's Hospital. On May 1, 2021, the Deacs hosted its first-ever Fight Against Pediatric Cancer Game, where fans were given the opportunity to bid on special edition, game-worn yellow jerseys that matched the pediatric cancer ribbon. The program raised $9,485, with all proceeds being donated to Brenner Children's Hospital.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BILL CILENTO

ASSOCIATE HEAD

COACH

HITTING COACH

13TH YEAR

SIENA, 2003

■ Coaches Third Base

■ Wears No. 37

■ Bill Cilentio enters his 13th year at Wake Forest in 2022, after being promoted to Associate Head Coach in January 2019. He works primarily with the Demon Deacon hitters and infielders.

■ In his time as a coach, 63 of his student-athletes have gone on to play professionally, including seven big leaguers.

■ He oversaw the development of National Player of the Year Will Craig, the first-round pick of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2016. After not making an all-conference team his freshman year, Craig's improvement earned him ACC Player of the Year honors in 2015 and made him a unanimous first team All-American in 2016.

■ Wake Forest has had 17 hitters earn all-ACC honors the last six seasons. In 2017, Wake Forest became the first Division I school in the nation to surpass 100 home runs in the BBCOR era, leading the nation with 106 blasts and 1.68 longballs per game. Additionally, Wake Forest led the nation in 2021 with 91 home runs at the end of the regular season.

■ Cilentio has coached with Tom Walter for 13 years, including a pair of seasons at New Orleans. Cilentio was a four-year starter at Siena.

■ He and his wife, Jen, have four daughters: Brooke, Katie, Megan and Reese.

COREY MUSCARA

ASSISTANT COACH

PITCHING COACH

1ST YEAR

FRANKLIN PIERCE, 2009

■ Wears No. 44

■ Corey Muscara begins his first season with the Demon Deacons after being officially added to the staff on July 2, 2021. Muscara works directly with the Wake Forest pitching staff.

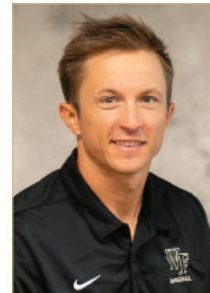

■ Muscara comes to Winston-Salem with over a decade of collegiate coaching experience, elevating multiple program's pitching staffs to new heights. Under Muscara's leadership, his teams have finished in the top 10 in ERA and strikeouts on the conference and national level on several occasions, while developing numerous MLB draft prospects at every stop throughout his career.

■ Most recently, Muscara served as Maryland's pitching coach for the previous four seasons. In 2021, the Terps' pitching staff registered a team ERA of 4.76, the fifth-best in the Big Ten and their lowest mark during Muscara's tenure. The success on the mound was crucial to the team's overall success as Maryland won multiple NCAA Tournament games for the first time since 2015, defeating Norfolk State and Charlotte in back-to-back games at the Greenville Regional.

■ In 2020, Maryland earned a program record seventh-best recruiting class in the country, highlighted by Muscara's efforts to secure a number of highly-regarded pitchers.

■ He tutored Hunter Parsons to Third Team All-Big Ten accolades in 2019 as the right hander led the conference with nine wins before. Parsons went on to be drafted in the 19th round by the New York Mets and is currently in the High-A affiliate within the organization.

■ Muscara graduated from Franklin Pierce with a degree in history in 2009. He and his wife Suzie have two sons, Theodore and Thomas.

TY BLANKMEYER

VOLUNTEER ASST.

COACH

ASST. HITTING COACH

1ST YEAR

ST. JOHN'S, 2016

■ Coaches First Base

■ Wears No. 38

■ Blankmeyer joins the Deacs prior to the 2022 season with a wealth of experience as a player and baseball professional, most recently serving as an Area Scout with the Milwaukee Brewers from 2017-21.

■ During his time with the organization, Blankmeyer was in charge of all scouting responsibilities in the Northeast region of the United States, highlighted by the drafting and signing of Sal Frelick, the 15th overall pick in the 2021 MLB Draft.

■ Blankmeyer was selected by the Cincinnati Reds in the 2016 MLB draft and tallied a batting average of .280 in the Pioneer League before stepping into a player development role with the franchise at the Arizona Complex League (AZL) under Jose Nieves and Miguel Cairo in the summer of 2017. His job responsibilities included working with the infielders and assisting with day-to-day baseball tasks and operations.

■ From 2013-16, Blankmeyer was an outstanding middle infielder at St. John's, appearing in 128 games and being a part of the 2015 Big East Championship team. In the summer before his senior campaign, Blankmeyer took home a Gold Glove in the Northwoods League.

■ Blankmeyer received a degree in Communications from St. John's in 2016.

■ The Morristown, N.J. native grew up in a baseball family. His father, Ed Blankmeyer, is the winningest coach in St. John's history with 869 wins. His grandfather, Mike Sheppard Sr., coached at Seton Hall for several years and earned 998 victories, 10 NCAA Tournament appearances and two College World Series runs.

DAVID F. COUCH BALLPARK & CHRIS HURD PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

- David F. Couch Ballpark is home to the Demon Deacon baseball team. The Deacons moved in to the facility before the start of the 2009 season after playing the previous 28 seasons on campus at historic Gene Hooks Stadium.
- Formerly known as Ernie Shore Field, the park was home to Winston-Salem's Carolina League minor league team for more than 40 years. Wake Forest purchased the facility after the team, now known as the Winston-Salem Dash, moved in to a new downtown ballpark.
- In February 2016, Wake Forest baseball park was renamed David F. Couch Ballpark in honor of former baseball player David Couch ('84). A longtime supporter of Wake Forest Athletics and the baseball program, Couch made the lead gift toward a new $12 million facility, which opened in February 2017, and included construction of a new dugout and bullpen, locker room, equipment room, training room, team lounge, nutrition area, and pitching lab.
- The latest phase of the Chris Hurd Player Development Center was made possible, in part, thanks to the generosity of Chris and Nancy Hurd who made the lead gift toward the project. It features a team meeting room, dedicated video room, coaches' offices, a biomechanist's office, a conference room, game day suites, and a baseball heritage area. It was dedicated on Oct. 12, 2018, and the construction wrapped up in January 2019.
- With the completion of the pitching lab inside the Chris Hurd Player Development Center at David F. Couch Ballpark, the state-of-the-art biomechanics lab is used to develop Wake Forest student-athletes and transform the game of baseball. Wake Forest Athletics is partnering with Wake Forest Baptist Health on a historic agreement, which combines the two units to enhance player safety and development. On Wake Forest's side, pitching coach Corey Muscara, pitching lab coordinator Mike McFerran, athletic trainer Jeff Strahm and strength coach Mark Seaver works with Wake Baptist's Dr. Brian Waterman, the team physician specializing in shoulder and elbow care, and biophysicist Dr. Kristen Nicholson.
- Wake Forest players also have access to state-of-the-art technology with the Trackman Pro video system with cameras set up on both the first and third base dugouts, center field and behind home plate. The system allows hitters to view their swings and pitchers their pitching motions following each game, and tracks 27 different data points varying from pitch velocity to spin rate to launch angle.
- Other renovations include:
 - 2020: New FieldTurf DoublePlay Classic surface installed prior to the season.
 - 2015: Visiting clubhouse converted into state-of-the-art weight room facility.
 - 2013: Multi-colored chairback seats replaced with modern all-black seats.
 - 2012: 18' x 24' LED video board installed.
 - 2011: AstroTurf GameDay 3D52H Grass installed, as well as the manual scoreboard in left field.
 - 2010: Indoor hitting facility built beyond left field.
 - 2009: Wake Forest purchased and moved into stadium. It previously belonged to the Winston-Salem Dash since it was built in 1956.

Stadium: David F. Couch Ballpark
 Clubhouse: Chris Hurd Player Development Center
 Playing Surface: Gene Hooks Field
 Capacity: 3,823
 Surface: FieldTurf DoublePlay Classic

Wake Forest baseball coach Tom Walter was one of 15 recipients of the National Sportsmanship Award on Saturday night in St. Louis. The National Sportsmanship Awards, presented by Maryville University, showcase extraordinary examples of selflessness, civility, kindness and integrity, it is one of the most meaningful and inspiring nights in sports.

"I would do anything to help any one of my players and any one of my family members. Anything I could do in my power to give them a better quality of life, is something I want to do." These are the words of Wake Forest head baseball coach Tom Walter. Many people have made this type of statement, but how many really mean it? Walter not only means it. He lives it.
