THE MATCHUP

■ The Wake Forest baseball team was selected to the 2022 NCAA Baseball Tournament as the No. 2 seed in the College Park Regional. In addition to the second-seeded Demon Deacons (40-17-1), the regional will include No. 15 national seed Maryland (45-12), No. 3 seed UConn (46-13) and No. 4 seed Long Island (37-19).
■ Wake Forest will begin play against the Huskies on Friday, June 3 at 1 p.m. on ESPU in the opening game of the regional. Maryland and Long Island will follow at 7 p.m.

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

■ This is the Demon Deacons' 14th all-time NCAA Tournament appearance and its first since the 2017 season. Wake Forest has made two College World Series Appearances, highlighted by winning the program's first national championship in 1955. Overall, the Demon Deacons hold a 44-29 record at the national tournament.
■ In 2017, Wake Forest hosted West Virginia, Maryland and UMBC at David F. Couch Ballpark. After going a perfect 3-0, the Deacs advanced to the Gainesville Super Regional, where Wake Forest fell in three games to the eventual national champion Gators.
■ This year's opening game against UConn marks the first time the Deacs and Huskies have faced off in the NCAA Tournament. Additionally, Wake Forest has never faced off against the Terrapins or Sharks in NCAA play.

WAKE FOREST HIGHLIGHTS

■ Head coach Tom Walter, the second-winningest coach in program history, won his 350th game at the helm of the Wake Forest baseball program with the 16-11 series finale victory against Duke on Sunday.
■ The 2022 Demon Deacons became the first squad since 2017 to reach 40 wins and posted Wake Forest's seventh 40-win season in program history.
■ This year's team increased their win total by 20 games from last season (40 wins to 20 wins), the largest year-to-year turnaround in program history.
■ Wake Forest ended the regular season with 39 wins, tying the 1999 Demon Deacons for the second-most regular season wins in program history. Additionally, the Deacs finished tied for the second-most wins in the conference, while leading the ACC's Atlantic division.
■ The Deacs are currently ranked 6th in the RPI, the third highest in the ACC.
■ Wake Forest's 24-2 record in non-conference play tied for the best non-league winning percentage in the nation with Tennessee.
■ The Deacs won four ACC series this season, claiming the first two games at Georgia Tech as well as against Boston College before sweeping Big Four rivals Duke (first time since 2008) and NC State (first time ever).
■ The 2022 Deacs got off to one of the best starts in program history with an 11-0 record, the first time since 1961 Wake Forest has won their first 11 games. At that point of the season, Wake Forest stood as one of five unbeaten teams in Division I.
■ The Demon Deacon pitching staff held ACC opponents to three runs or less in 13 games.
■ Wake Forest's offense has been firing on all cylinders this season, ranking as one of the top offenses in the entire nation. Wake Forest ranks in the top 10 nationally in all offensive categories while ranking in the top three in the conference across the board, highlighted by an ACC-best in on-base percentage, runs and walks.
■ This year's offense will go down in the record books among Wake Forest's best offenses, setting program records in home runs (115), walks (354), RBIs (513), 20-run games (four), 20-run games in ACC play (two), runs in ACC game (27) and hits in an ACC game (28).
■ Seven of Wake Forest's wins have come against top-15 opponents with victories against then-No. 8 Florida State, then-No. 6 Georgia Tech twice, then-No. 15 Liberty, then-No. 10 Virginia, then-No. 5 Louisville and then No. 9 Miami.
■ The Deacs head into the national tournament fresh off a dominant 16-3 victory over national seed Miami in the ACC Tournament. Wake Forest's 16 runs were fueled by 15 hits and seven home runs, tying an ACC Tournament record set by last year's Louisville's squad. The offensive explosion was the most runs scored in an ACC Tournament game by Wake Forest since 2005 (20 runs vs. Maryland) and the 23rd game of the season the Demon Deacons notched double-double hits and runs.
■ Rhett Lowder was named the 2022 Atlantic Coast Conference Pitcher of the Year the first Demon Deacon to win the award in program history. His 11 wins are currently lead the ACC, while ranking second in ERA (2.61), second in innings pitched (93) and third in strikeouts (98). He is the only hurler in the ACC to rank in the top three of each category. Additionally, Lowder ranks in the top 10 in WHIP (fourth), walks allowed per nine innings (seventh) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (seventh). In conference play, Lowder holds the lowest ERA (2.60) and has pitched the most innings (65.2) in addition to the second-most victories (six) and fourth-most Ks (63).
■ In addition to Lowder's honors, Brendan Tinsman (Third Team), Nick Kurtz (Third team and All-Freshman) and Tommy Hawke (All-Freshman) also garnered conference accolades.
■ Camden Minacci has been one of the most relied upon arms coming out of the Wake Forest bullpen. In 43.2 innings, the sophomore has struck out 57 batters while only allowing nine earned runs. Minacci's career-high strikeout number ranks tied for second on the team, while he sports the lowest ERA (1.85) on the squad. Minacci has also tallied six saves, the sixth-most in the ACC, highlighted by slamming the door in three-straight games against Elon (April 6), Duke (April 8) and Duke (April 9).
■ Freshman Nick Kurtz has strung together a stellar freshman campaign, tallying a .356 batting average with 68 hits to go along with 14 doubles and 15 home runs. Kurtz is now tied for second on the Wake Forest freshman home run list after a three-run shot against Miami in the ACC Tournament. Kurtz also ranks in the top 10 in runs (second), walks (second), RBIs (third) and doubles (tied for ninth) by a Demon Deacon freshman. The Lancaster, Pa. native finished the regular season leading the ACC with a .422 batting average and .548 on-base percentage in conference play. Brendan Tinsman has posted a career year in his fourth season in the Old Gold and Black, posting career highs in hits (81), doubles (13), home runs (23), RBIs (65) and slugging percentage (.703). Tinsman is fourth in the ACC and ninth in the country in long flies. Defensively, Tinsman has been just as impressive. Tinsman has thrown out an ACC-best 13 base runners and ranks second in the conference with a .996 fielding percentage.

WAKE FOREST BASEBALL

DEFENSE & PITCHING THRIVING

■ On the mound, Wake Forest's weekend rotation has combined for 266.2 innings with 253 strikeouts and just 129 earned runs allowed.

■ In the series opener against No. 6 Georgia Tech, the Deacs gave up just three runs, tying the Yellow Jackets' season low. In the series finale against Virginia, the Deacs held the nation's highest scoring offense to just one run, tying Virginia's lowest-scoring performance of the season and marking the second time this year Virginia hasn't scored at least five runs in a game.

■ Through the first four games, the Deacs gave up just 11 runs, the fewest number of runs the Deacs have allowed in the first four games in head coach Tom Walter's tenure.

■ In Wake Forest's doubleheader sweep of Longwood, five arms combined for 10 scoreless innings (14 overall innings) with 19 strikeouts while allowing just four runs.

■ Against High Point, eight arms combined to shut out High Point for Wake Forest's first shutout since April 16, 2021.

■ Teddy McGraw, Gabe Golob, Crawford Wade and Camden Minacci combined to allow just two runs in Wake Forest's series finale victory at North Carolina, marking the 11th game this season the Deacs allowed two runs or less.

■ Over the course of the weekend series against NC State, the Demon Deacons allowed just four runs, the lowest number of runs given up in an ACC series since Boston College in 2018 (one run).

■ Against Louisville (9.5 runs per game), Wake Forest held the nation's third-highest scoring offense to 4.7 runs per game. In the series opener, Rhett Lowder, Gabe Golob and Seth Keener held the Cardinals to three runs, marking the sixth time Louisville has been held to three runs or less this season.

■ The bullpen trio of Camden Minacci, Gabe Golob and Crawford Wade have made at least 20 appearances each and have held the opposition to an average below .225:

- Camden Minacci: .196 (43.2 innings)
- Crawford Wade: .217 (30.2 innings)
- Gabe Golob: .224 (42.1 innings)

WAKE FOREST

■ The Demon Deacon offense has been firing on all cylinders this season, ranking as one of the top offenses in the entire nation.

■ Wake Forest ranks in the top 10 nationally in all offensive categories while ranking in the top three in the conference across the board, highlighted by an ACC-best in on-base percentage, home runs, runs and walks.

Category	National	ACC
Walks	4	1
On-Base %	2	1
Runs	3	1
Home Runs	4	1
Hits	5	2
Average	4	2
Slugging %	7	3

■ Wake Forest outscored opponents 539-309.

■ The Deacs have scored five runs or more in an inning 24 times this season.

■ Wake Forest is the only school in the ACC with three players with at least 60 RBIs: Brock Wilken (73), Michael Turconi (66) and Brendan Tinsman (65).

■ The Demon Deacon offense got off to a historic start as the 2022 team became just the second squad in program history to register at least 20 runs multiple times during the opening four games of a season, matching the 1951 squad that represented the United States at the 1951 Pan-American Games.

FOUR DEACS RECEIVE ALL-ACC HONORS

■ Rhett Lowder, Brendan Tinsman, Nick Kurtz and Tommy Hawke were named to the 2022 All-Atlantic Coast Conference teams, as voted on by the ACC coaches and announced by the league this morning.

■ Wake Forest's four honorees are the most since the 2017 season. This marks the first All-ACC postseason accolade for each of the four honorees.

■ Lowder, who became the first Demon Deacon to be named the conference's Pitcher of the Year this morning, was named to the First Team, while Brendan Tinsman and Nick Kurtz landed on the third team.

■ Kurtz and fellow rookie Tommy Hawke were selected to the All-Freshman team.

THE LONG BALL

■ 12 Deacs have hit a long fly this season, led by Brendan Tinsman with 23. Additionally, Wake Forest is one of three teams in the ACC with five players with at least 10 home runs: Tinsman (23), Brock Wilken (21), Nick Kurtz (15), Michael Turconi (14), Adam Cecere (13):

6- Virginia Tech
5- Wake Forest, Georgia Tech

TINSMAN'S CAREER SEASON LEADING DEACS

■ Brendan Tinsman has posted a career year in his fourth season in the Old Gold and Black, posting career highs in hits (81), doubles (13), home runs (23), RBIs (65) and slugging percentage (.703). Tinsman is fourth in the ACC and ninth in the country in long flies.

■ Tinsman leads the Deacs in hits, slugging, home runs and multi-hit games.

■ Tinsman is just two home runs away from setting the single season home run record.

■ The redshirt junior heads into the NCAA Tournament on a 28-game reached base streak.

■ Defensively, Tinsman has been just as impressive. Tinsman has thrown out an ACC-best 13 base runners and ranks second in the conference with a .996 fielding percentage.

■ Tinsman was named to the Buster Posey Collegiate Pitcher of the Year Watch List last week.

MINACCI BRINGING ENERGY OUT OF BULLPEN

■ Camden Minacci has been one of the most relied upon arms coming out of the Wake Forest bullpen.

■ In 43.2 innings, the sophomore has struck out 57 batters while only allowing nine earned runs. Minacci's career-high strikeout number ranks tied for second on the team, while he sports the lowest ERA (1.85) on the squad.

■ Minacci has also tallied six saves, the sixth-most in the ACC, highlighted by slamming the door in three-straight games against Elon (April 6), Duke (April 8) and Duke (April 9).

■ In 12 of Minacci's 28 appearances this season, the righthander has blanked the opposition, allowing no hits or runs.

■ This season, Minacci has fanned at least five batters in seven appearances.

■ Against Boston College, Minacci struck out the side on just nine pitches.

■ In Wake Forest's last game against No. 5 Louisville, Minacci threw a career-long 4.1 innings with three strikeouts while allowing zero runs.

■ In Wake Forest's last win at North Carolina, Minacci retired the side, highlighted by a game-ending strikeout, to clinch the finale victory.

■ Minacci was one of 62 relief pitchers named to the Stopper of the Year Midseason Watch List.

KURTZ JOINING ELITE COMPANY

■ Freshman Nick Kurtz has strung together a stellar freshman campaign, tallying a .356 batting average with 68 hits to go along with 14 doubles and 15 home runs.

■ Kurtz is now tied for second on the Wake Forest freshman home run list after a three-run shot against Miami in the ACC Tournament.

■ Kurtz also ranks in the top 10 in runs (second), walks (second), RBIs (third) and doubles (tied for ninth) by a Demon Deacon freshman.

■ Kurtz finished the regular season leading the ACC with a .422 batting average and .548 on-base percentage in conference play.

■ Additionally, Kurtz has the second-highest OPS (1.254) and fifth-highest slugging percentage (.706) in conference play.

■ In Wake Forest's historic offensive performance on March 19 at Georgia Tech, Kurtz had a historic day at the plate as the freshman became the first Wake Forest batter since 2005 to record six hits in the game. This is also tied for the second most in program history and is the most by a freshman in school history.

TURCONI TURNING HEADS

■ Michael Turconi has put together a career year as the shortstop has set career bests in batting average (.320), hits (73), home runs (14), walks (41), triples (5), RBIs (66), slugging (.596), on-base (.428) and stolen bases (5).

■ In Wake Forest's midweek finale, Turconi blasted a home run with two doubles for a total of six RBIs, tying a career high.

■ Turconi is just four hits away from becoming the 29th Demon Deacon to reach 200 hits over their collegiate career.

PATIENCE AT PLATE PAYING DIVIDENDS

■ Wake Forest has been patient at the plate as the Deacs have been walked 354 times, the most in the ACC and the fourth most in the entire nation.

■ The Deacs have been walked at least 10 times in eight games this season. In all but one of those contests, Wake Forest has notched double-digit hits, while reaching double digits in all three categories five times.

Opponent	Hits	Walks	Runs
Lafayette	18	13	25
Georgetown	12	13	9
UNCG	21	10	23
George Mason	14	10	14
Georgia Tech	4	11	5
Liberty	11	12	10
Louisville	16	12	14
App State	15	12	18

■ Wake Forest is the only school in the ACC with four players in the top-15 for on-base percentage:

- Tommy Hawke: first
- Nick Kurtz: fourth
- Jake Reinisch: eighth
- Pierce Bennett: 12th

■ Overall this season, the Demon Deacons are +108 in walks compared to their opponents.

HAWKE AMONG WAKE FOREST & ACC LEADERS

■ Tommy Hawke leads Wake Forest in batting average (.376) and on-base percentage (.502). These numbers rank first (on-base percentage) and fifth (batting average) in the ACC.

■ The Oak Island, N.C. native holds the second-highest batting average (.406) and on-base percentage (.525) in the ACC against conference opponents.

■ Hawke leads the Deacs in stolen bases with seven, and is on a seven-game hit streak.

WILKEN REACHES MILESTONE WITH HUGE PERFORMANCE

■ Brock Wilken reached a career milestone against Longwood, registering his 100th career hit with his three-run home run to end the second game of the double header.

■ In game one against Louisville, Wilken had his best game of his career, hitting a career-high three home runs and driving in a career-high eight runs.

■ In 104 career contests, Wilken has 115 hits with 24 doubles, 38 home runs, 117 RBIs, a .601 slugging percentage and .363 on-base percentage.

HEAD COACH | 13TH YEAR | GEORGETOWN, 1991 | IN THE DUGOUT | WEARS NO. 32

A proven program builder and player developer, Tom Walter enters his 13th season in 2022 as the head coach of Wake Forest baseball.

With 325 wins at Wake Forest, he enters 2022 as the second-winningest coach in program history, trailing only George Greer (608 wins in 16 years). Additionally, Walter is one of just two active head coaches in the country to lead three different programs to the NCAA Division I Tournament, becoming just the seventh coach all-time to do so. He joins the ranks of Larry Cochell, Augie Garrido, Sunny Golloway, Andy Lopez, Ron Polk and Jack Stallings, while Randy Mazey joined that group after Walter.

Walter has helped 41 players get drafted or sign pro contracts over the last eight years, including six Deacs drafted among the top 50 picks and back-to-back first rounders in 2021 (Ryan Cusick) and 2020 (Jared Shuster).

#ProDeacs in the major leagues include Gavin Sheets and Stuart Fairchild, who both A program-record eight Demon Deacons were selected in the 2017 MLB Draft, including records of two selected in the top 50 and four in the top seven rounds. Six selections (2012) and five selections (2021) round out the top three of Wake Forest's draft classes under Walter.

While at Wake Forest, Walter has overseen the development of 2016 National Player of the Year Will Craig, All-America selections Craig, Nate Mondou, Stuart Fairchild, Gavin Sheets, Ben Breazeale, Bobby Seymour and Chris Lanzilli, as well as a total of 22 All-ACC selections. Wake Forest had nine All-ACC picks in 2017, a program record and most in the ACC. In 2019, Seymour was named ACC Player of the Year - the second at Wake Forest in Walter's tenure, and led the country with 92 RBIs.

Walter and the Deacs had a banner season in 2017, which includes Wake Forest hosting and sweeping the Winston-Salem Regional and finishing a game away from the College World Series, concluding the year with a 43-20 overall record. The Demon Deacons set program records in ACC wins (19), ACC series wins (eight), All-ACC honorees (nine) and home runs (106). The Deacs also set a new team-high with eight student-athletes drafted, including program records of two in the top 50 overall picks and four in the top seven rounds.

Wake Forest earned back-to-back NCAA Regional bids after competing in the College Station Regional in 2016. The Deacs have posted seven winning seasons in the last eight years.

To Walter and the coaching staff, development off the field is equally as important as on the field. All of the program's seniors have graduated on time for six consecutive years, and the team has raised more than $100,000 for various charities including the ALS Association, JDRF, the V's. Cancer Foundation and Brenner Children's Hospital. On May 1, 2021, the Deacs hosted its first-ever Fight Against Pediatric Cancer Game, where fans were given the opportunity to bid on special edition, game-worn yellow jerseys that matched the pediatric cancer ribbon. The program raised $9,485, with all proceeds being donated to Brenner Children's Hospital.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BILL CILENTO

ASSOCIATE HEAD

COACH

HITTING COACH

13TH YEAR

SIENA, 2003

■ Coaches Third Base

■ Wears No. 37

■ Bill Cilentio enters his 13th year at Wake Forest in 2022, after being promoted to Associate Head Coach in January 2019. He works primarily with the Demon Deacon hitters and infielders.

■ In his time as a coach, 63 of his student-athletes have gone on to play professionally, including seven big leaguers.

■ He oversaw the development of National Player of the Year Will Craig, the first-round pick of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2016. After not making an all-conference team his freshman year, Craig's improvement earned him ACC Player of the Year honors in 2015 and made him a unanimous first team All-American in 2016.

■ Wake Forest has had 17 hitters earn all-ACC honors the last six seasons. In 2017, Wake Forest became the first Division I school in the nation to surpass 100 home runs in the BBCOR era, leading the nation with 106 blasts and 1.68 longballs per game. Additionally, Wake Forest led the nation in 2021 with 91 home runs at the end of the regular season.

■ Cilentio has coached with Tom Walter for 13 years, including a pair of seasons at New Orleans. Cilentio was a four-year starter at Siena.

■ He and his wife, Jen, have four daughters: Brooke, Katie, Megan and Reese.

COREY MUSCARA

ASSISTANT COACH

PITCHING COACH

1ST YEAR

FRANKLIN PIERCE, 2009

■ Wears No. 44

■ Corey Muscara begins his first season with the Demon Deacons after being officially added to the staff on July 2, 2021. Muscara works directly with the Wake Forest pitching staff.

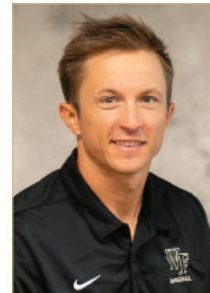

■ Muscara comes to Winston-Salem with over a decade of collegiate coaching experience, elevating multiple program's pitching staffs to new heights. Under Muscara's leadership, his teams have finished in the top 10 in ERA and strikeouts on the conference and national level on several occasions, while developing numerous MLB draft prospects at every stop throughout his career.

■ Most recently, Muscara served as Maryland's pitching coach for the previous four seasons. In 2021, the Terps' pitching staff registered a team ERA of 4.76, the fifth-best in the Big Ten and their lowest mark during Muscara's tenure. The success on the mound was crucial to the team's overall success as Maryland won multiple NCAA Tournament games for the first time since 2015, defeating Norfolk State and Charlotte in back-to-back games at the Greenville Regional.

■ In 2020, Maryland earned a program record seventh-best recruiting class in the country, highlighted by Muscara's efforts to secure a number of highly-regarded pitchers.

■ He tutored Hunter Parsons to Third Team All-Big Ten accolades in 2019 as the right hander led the conference with nine wins before. Parsons went on to be drafted in the 19th round by the New York Mets and is currently in the High-A affiliate within the organization.

■ Muscara graduated from Franklin Pierce with a degree in history in 2009. He and his wife Suzie have two sons, Theodore and Thomas.

TY BLANKMEYER

VOLUNTEER ASST.

COACH

ASST. HITTING COACH

1ST YEAR

ST. JOHN'S, 2016

■ Coaches First Base

■ Wears No. 38

■ Blankmeyer joins the Deacs prior to the 2022 season with a wealth of experience as a player and baseball professional, most recently serving as an Area Scout with the Milwaukee Brewers from 2017-21.

■ During his time with the organization, Blankmeyer was in charge of all scouting responsibilities in the Northeast region of the United States, highlighted by the drafting and signing of Sal Frelick, the 15th overall pick in the 2021 MLB Draft.

■ Blankmeyer was selected by the Cincinnati Reds in the 2016 MLB draft and tallied a batting average of .280 in the Pioneer League before stepping into a player development role with the franchise at the Arizona Complex League (AZL) under Jose Nieves and Miguel Cairo in the summer of 2017. His job responsibilities included working with the infielders and assisting with day-to-day baseball tasks and operations.

■ From 2013-16, Blankmeyer was an outstanding middle infielder at St. John's, appearing in 128 games and being a part of the 2015 Big East Championship team. In the summer before his senior campaign, Blankmeyer took home a Gold Glove in the Northwoods League.

■ Blankmeyer received a degree in Communications from St. John's in 2016.

■ The Morristown, N.J. native grew up in a baseball family. His father, Ed Blankmeyer, is the winningest coach in St. John's history with 869 wins. His grandfather, Mike Sheppard Sr., coached at Seton Hall for several years and earned 998 victories, 10 NCAA Tournament appearances and two College World Series runs.

WAKE FOREST BASEBALL

DAVID F. COUCH BALLPARK & CHRIS HURD PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CENTER

- David F. Couch Ballpark is home to the Demon Deacon baseball team. The Deacons moved in to the facility before the start of the 2009 season after playing the previous 28 seasons on campus at historic Gene Hooks Stadium.
- Formerly known as Ernie Shore Field, the park was home to Winston-Salem's Carolina League minor league team for more than 40 years. Wake Forest purchased the facility after the team, now known as the Winston-Salem Dash, moved in to a new downtown ballpark.
- In February 2016, Wake Forest baseball park was renamed David F. Couch Ballpark in honor of former baseball player David Couch ('84). A longtime supporter of Wake Forest Athletics and the baseball program, Couch made the lead gift toward a new $12 million facility, which opened in February 2017, and included construction of a new dugout and bullpen, locker room, equipment room, training room, team lounge, nutrition area, and pitching lab.
- The latest phase of the Chris Hurd Player Development Center was made possible, in part, thanks to the generosity of Chris and Nancy Hurd who made the lead gift toward the project. It features a team meeting room, dedicated video room, coaches' offices, a biomechanist's office, a conference room, game day suites, and a baseball heritage area. It was dedicated on Oct. 12, 2018, and the construction wrapped up in January 2019.
- With the completion of the pitching lab inside the Chris Hurd Player Development Center at David F. Couch Ballpark, the state-of-the-art biomechanics lab is used to develop Wake Forest student-athletes and transform the game of baseball. Wake Forest Athletics is partnering with Wake Forest Baptist Health on a historic agreement, which combines the two units to enhance player safety and development. On Wake Forest's side, pitching coach Corey Muscara, pitching lab coordinator Mike McFerran, athletic trainer Jeff Strahm and strength coach Mark Seaver works with Wake Baptist's Dr. Brian Waterman, the team physician specializing in shoulder and elbow care, and biophysicist Dr. Kristen Nicholson.
- Wake Forest players also have access to state-of-the-art technology with the Trackman Pro video system with cameras set up on both the first and third base dugouts, center field and behind home plate. The system allows hitters to view their swings and pitchers their pitching motions following each game, and tracks 27 different data points varying from pitch velocity to spin rate to launch angle.
- Other renovations include:
 - 2020: New FieldTurf DoublePlay Classic surface installed prior to the season.
 - 2015: Visiting clubhouse converted into state-of-the-art weight room facility.
 - 2013: Multi-colored chairback seats replaced with modern all-black seats.
 - 2012: 18' x 24' LED video board installed.
 - 2011: AstroTurf GameDay 3D52H Grass installed, as well as the manual scoreboard in left field.
 - 2010: Indoor hitting facility built beyond left field.
 - 2009: Wake Forest purchased and moved into stadium. It previously belonged to the Winston-Salem Dash since it was built in 1956.

Stadium: David F. Couch Ballpark
