WAKE FOREST VS. LOUISVILLE

THE MATCHUP

- Wake Forest and Louisville will meet in the 2023 regular season finale for both programs, as a win by the Demon Deacons would secure a fifth Atlantic Division title in nine seasons and the first since the 2018 season.
- Through the first seven ACC matchdays of the 2023 campaign, Wake Forest is 4-1-2 with victories over Clemson, Boston College, NC State and then-No. 14 North Carolina along with draws against then-No. 7 Syracuse and current No. 5 Notre Dame.
- Wake Forest has won its last three matches away from Spry Stadium while Louisville is 6-1-1 on home turf this fall including ranked victories over then-No. 16 Tulsa then-No. 19 Kentucky.
- While Wake Forest will seek to lock up the division title on Friday night, Louisville is looking to secure a home first round match to begin next week's ACC Tournament.

LAST TIME OUT

- In a highly contested top-10 battle between the ACC's Atlantic and Coastal leaders, No. 3 Wake Forest and current No. 5 Notre Dame played to a 1-1 draw last Friday.
- After scoreless action in the first half, the Demon Deacons and Fighting Irish exchanged goals in the final 11 minutes of action. In the 79th minute, Leo Guarino netted his fourth goals of the season off of assists from Jahlane Forbes and Babacar Niang before Notre Dame responded with a goal off a free kick in the 85th minute.
- Due to a red card issued on Notre Dame's goal celebration, Wake Forest played the remaining five minutes of the match up a man but the team's four shots in the waning minutes of action did not result in a winner.
- Wake Forest finished the night with advantages over Notre Dame in total shots (18-12), shots on goal (6 to 4), corner kicks (7 to 3) and possession (55 percent).

OPPONENT & SERIES HISTORY

- Wake Forest and Louisville will meet for the 17th time in their respective histories, as the Demon Deacons hold a 12-4-0 advantage over the Cardinals.
- Louisville is one of just five ACC sides to average two or more goals per match this season, as the Cardinals have scored 30 goals this season from nine different goal scorers.
- Damien Barker John has come on strong for the Cardinals recently, scoring a team-high nine goals including five in his last six appearances. The Queen, N.Y., native has scored Louisville's last three game-winning goals as well. Three different Cardinals have recorded at least four assists on the season, led by David Boccuzzo's five assists.
- After redshirting in 2022, Alex Svetanoff has played every minute in goal this season for the Cardinals, recording 56 saves with six shutouts.

UP NEXT

- The Deacs will begin postseason play next Sunday, hosting an ACC Tournament quarterfinals match.

ACC ATLANTIC DIVISION TITLE UP FOR GRABS

- With one ACC match remaining on the season, Wake Forest can secure an Atlantic Division title with a win on Friday night. Additionally, Wake Forest could also win the division's crown in the event of a loss and a Clemson draw vs. NC State.
- Through the first seven ACC matchdays of the season, Wake Forest has gone 4-1-2 and the Deacs' 14 points tops the Atlantic Division over Clemson (13 points), Syracuse (10 points), Louisville (seven points), NC State (four points) and Boston College (two points).
- Against Atlantic Division opponents, Wake Forest is 3-0-1 and holds the head-to-head tiebreaker over second place Clemson due to a 1-0 victory over the Tigers on Sept. 22.
- A win would also secure the program's fifth ACC Atlantic Division title (2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018) as the Demon Deacons have already clinched a first-round bye in the ACC Tournament.

THE MAC HERMANN TROPHY CANDIDATE

- Senior captain Garrison Tubbs has been instrumental in Wake Forest's strong defensive efforts this season, as the Demon Deacons have conceded just 11 goals in 16 matches this season and only two to ACC opponents over the last six matches.
- Starting with a 1-1 draw with then-No. 7 Syracuse where the Orange scored in the second minute, Wake Forest went 533 consecutive minutes without allowing a goal to an ACC opponent.
- The Demon Deacons have recorded four ACC clean sheets this season and seven overall.
- A 2022 United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-American, 2022 United Soccer first-team All-South Region selection and 2022 All-ACC second-team honoree, Tubbs earlier this year was named to the Mac Hermann Trophy Watch List.

LEO'S LATE GAME MAGIC

- Including his 79th minute strike in a 1-1 draw with then-No. 6 Notre Dame last Friday, eight of Leo Guarino's 10 career goals have come in the 68th minute or later and four have come in the last six minutes of a match.
- Last season, Guarino also scored in the 79th minute of a 3-0 victory over Louisville in the regular season finale.
- This year, three of the junior's four goals have come in the 79th minute or later.

A WIN WOULD...

- Clinch Wake Forest's fifth ACC Atlantic Division title in nine years (2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2023).
- Complete Wake Forest's regular season at 12-1-4 overall and 5-1-2 in the ACC.
- Extend Wake Forest's 12-match unbeaten streak (10-0-2) and be the second-longest unbeaten streak under head coach Bobby Muuss (18-straight in 2017).
- Mark the seventh time in eight fall-only seasons in the last nine years that the Demon Deacons reached at least five ACC regular season wins.
- Extend Wake Forest's current road winning streak to four-straight dating back to a 3-1 victory at Campbell on Sept. 26.
- Push Wake Forest's all-time record against Louisville to 13-4-0 and 5-2 in away matches played in the series.
- Mark Wake Forest's first road win at Louisville since a 3-1 decision on Sept. 25, 2020.
- Move Wake Forest's record in October to 5-0-1.
- Mark the 53rd ACC regular season win for the Deacs over the last nine seasons.

Previous:

Denver - Head Coach (2007-14)

Wake Forest - Assistant Coach (2001-06)

UConn - Volunteer Assistant Coach (2000)

Completing his eighth season at the helm of the Wake Forest men's soccer program in 2022, head coach Bobby Muuss has guided the Demon Deacons to sustained success unmatched in the college game.

From 2015-22, Wake Forest has: collected the most overall wins in NCAA Division I men's soccer (130), collected the most home wins in NCAA Division I men's soccer (94), collected the most regular season ACC wins (48), extended Wake Forest's NCAA Tournament appearances streak to 12-straight years -- eight more years than any other ACC program, appeared in seven Sweet Sixteens (2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021) appeared in two College Cups (2016 and 2019) and won back-to-back ACC Tournament titles (2016 and 2017) for the first time in program history

Wake Forest has amassed an 129-32-12 record in Muuss' eight seasons, more wins than any other program in NCAA Division I in that span.

He reached 200 career wins in a 3-1 victory over Boston College on Oct. 15, 2022, and during the 2020-21 season, Muuss became the fastest NCAA Division I coach to reach 100 wins at their current school, doing so in 128 matches in a 2-1 overtime victory over Louisville on March 27, 2021.

Muuss became the first coach in league history to be named the ACC Coach of the Year in four-straight seasons, doubling his predecessor Jay Vidovich (2008-09; 2020-21) and former U.S. Men's National Team coach Bruce Arena (1988-89) as the only others to win that award in consecutive seasons.

Muuss led the Demon Deacons to back-to-back ACC Championships in 2016 and 2017, just the second and third tournament trophies in program history, as well as four-straight ACC Atlantic Division crowns.

The Deacs have also sent 26 student-athletes into the MLS ranks in eight seasons under Muuss. Wake Forest was the only program to have a first-round MLS SuperDraft selection from 2015-21. Additionally, Wake Forest's nine homegrown signings since 2017 are most in the country over the last five years.
