THE MATCHUP

- The Deacs close the 2023 regular season on the road at Syracuse and Colgate this weekend.
- Wake wraps up ACC play at No. 10 Syracuse on Friday at 4 p.m. before ending the regular season at Colgate on Sunday with a noon start.

OPPONENT/SERIES HISTORY

- Wake Forest takes on Syracuse for the 15th time in program history. The Orange lead the Deacs 8-6 all-time with Wake Forest taking the most recent matchup in 2022, 4-0.
- The Demon Deacons take on Colgate for the first time since 1998 in the two programs only prior meeting. Wake took the match 5-0 back in '98.

2023 WAKE FOREST HIGHLIGHTS

- Head coach Jen Averill enters her 32nd season at the helm of the Wake Forest field hockey program, amassing an overall record of 417-321-3 as a Demon Deacon and an overall mark of 437-264-6 in 32 years of coaching. Averill agreed to a long-term contract extension this past summer to continue coaching Wake Forest for many years to come.
- Wake Forest returns 14 players from last year's 2022 squad and welcomes nine freshman and one transfer to the program. The returners made 205 appearances last season, six of which appeared in all 21 matches.
- The Deacs are averaging 4.43 saves a game ranking second in the ACC while Ellie Todd is second among league keepers with 3.86 SPG. Todd ranks third in the league with 54 saves on the season. The Demon Deacons are tied for first in the ACC with six shutouts through 14 matches of the 2023 campaign while the .429 Sho/G ranks first as well.
- Faye Janse (15th) and Nat Friedman (22nd) rank in the top 25 of the ACC in shots per game with Janse averaging 1.86 with Friedman behind her with 1.50 per game.
- The Deacs bounced back with a 3-0 win over Longwood on Sunday afternoon at Elizabeth Burger Jackson Field for their third-straight nonconference win with all three coming on the road for the Demon Deacons.
- The Wake Forest field hockey team earned their second-straight nonconference victory with a 2-1 win over the Ohio Bobcats on Sunday at Pruitt Field. Freshman Mia Shoenbeck opened the scoring in the match with her first career goal as a Demon Deacon coming off of a penalty corner in the opening minutes of the second quarter. Shoenbeck finished the contest with three of Wake's 13 shots. Junior Brooke McCusker extended the Wake lead in the third with her second goal of the season and seventh of her career. In the cage, Ellie Todd made six saves, while the Wake defense surrendered just one goal on 18 Bobcat shots.
- The team got back in the win column with an impressive 2-0 victory over Davidson at Belk Turf Field. Sophomore goalie Ellie Todd and the Wake defense pitched their fourth shutout of the season while Todd notched a new season-high turning away eight Wildcat shots on the afternoon.
- The Deacs defeated the No. 4 Michigan Wolverines, 1-0, for the first win of the 2023 campaign. It marked the first win over a top-five team and first win over Michigan since 2018 when the Deacs defeated the No. 5-ranked Wolverines. Sophomore goalkeeper and Preseason All-ACC player Ellie Todd recorded six saves for the second game in a row while defending eight Michigan corners. Freshman Ava Moore found the back of the net around the right side for her first collegiate goal off a penalty stroke in just her second game wearing the Old Gold and Black.
- The No. 12 Wake Forest outshot James Madison by a margin of 17-3 to earn a 1-0 victory for their second win of the 2023 season. The Deacs also recorded seven corners to JMU's zero. Off a corner late in the third quarter, Nat Friedman fired one at the cage and Georgia Leary was there to tap it in for her first career goal to give the Deacs the 1-0 advantage that held through the remainder of the contest.
- Behind a trio of goal scorers and a stingy defense that included five saves by Wake Forest's goalkeepers, the No. 17-ranked Demon Deacons field hockey team powered past App State inside Kentner Stadium, 3-0. The Deacs (3-2) were led offensively by senior Anna Gwiazdzinski who scored and registered a team-high five shots during the match. Wake Forest scored its first two goals within 42 seconds of one another at the beginning of the second period. Freshman Faye Janse opened the second at the 18:17 mark with her second-career score and sophomore Rachel Thetford registered her second goal of the 2023 season moments later at 18:59. Those scores were assisted by freshman Florence Tuthill and sophomore Amelia Frey, respectively. In goal, sophomore Ellie Todd kept the Mountaineers scoreless in the first half and graduate Jodie Brine made five saves in the second half as the Deacs goalkeeper. Sunday's match marked the Demon Deacons third shutout of the 2023 season.
- Sophomore Ellie Todd was named to the 2023 USA Junior World Cup U21 Team. The Junior World Cup is set to take place November 29 through December 10 at the newly renovated National Stadium Sports Park in Santiago, Chile. During her breakout freshman season, Todd earned second team All-ACC honors and was also selected to join the 2023 U.S. Field Hockey Junior Pan-American Championship roster in April. The Boston Mass. Native notched a 14-5 record with 52 saves and only allowed 22 goals (1.30 goals per game). Todd came in third in the ACC in saves and posted 6 shutouts during her freshman season.
- Anastasia Franco, Mia Schoenbeck, and Ava Moore were also representing Wake Forest on the 2023 USA Junior World Cup U21 team. These athletes were selected through their performance at the 2023 U-21 Junior and Senior Nexus Championship, presented by Osaka Hockey. All current U.S. Women's National Team athletes that remain eligible for U-21 competition in 2024 have been included in this group.

2022 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Coach Averill earned her eighth career ACC Coach of the Year award in 2022. Averill has also taken home the prestigious honor in 1999, 2002, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2008 and 2014.
- Averill secured her 400th win as the head coach of Wake Forest Field Hockey on Friday, Sept. 16, 2022 with the Deacs' 4-3 victory against Richmond.

COACHING STAFF

Jennifer Averill
Head Coach
32nd Season
Northwestern '87

Jennifer Averill is Wake Forest Field Hockey.

In her 32nd season at Wake Forest in 2023, Averill owns a record of 417-332-3 as a Demon Deacon and an overall mark of 437-264-6 in 33 years of coaching. She has built the Wake Forest program, almost from scratch, into a perennial national power. The ACC recognized Averill's continual improvement with her seven ACC Coach of the Year awards, including her most recent honor after the 2014 season.

In 2018, a strong postseason run landed the Deacs in the Final Four for the first time since 2008. Wake Forest fell to eventual champion North Carolina, but strung together a 13-10 record, defeating four top-12 teams in its final six contests.

The Deacs went 12-8 overall and 3-3 in the conference, which included two wins over top-five opponents and made a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2017. Jule Grashoff earned NFHCA Second Team All-American honors. Grashoff and Nicola Pluta were named to the All-ACC First Team.

The Demon Deacons finished 2016 with an 11-8 overall record. The season was highlighted by a 10-1 record in nonconference games. Nicola Pluta was named ACC Freshman of the Year and earned NFHCA Third-Team All-American honors.

In 2015, the Deacs went 13-6, including a 4-2 mark in a loaded ACC field. Wake Forest, which earned the second seed in the conference tournament, qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the third year in a row and for the 15th time under Averill's watch.

Her 23rd season in 2014 was another memorable year as part of her decorated history at Wake Forest and one that she will never forget, as the Demon Deacons won their fourth ACC Field Hockey Championship in program history. Wake Forest defeated Syracuse, 2-0, in the championship game to take home the title.

The title was Wake Forest's first ACC team title since women's soccer in 2010, and is the athletic department's 47th all-time team ACC Championship. Averill's accomplishment earned her a seventh-career ACC Coach of the Year honor. The ACC Championship victory marked the program's 450th win and coach Averill's 325th at Wake Forest.

Perhaps the most prestigious honor Averill has received came in January of 2010 when she was inducted into the National Field Hockey Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Prior to Averill's arrival in Winston-Salem, Wake Forest had never played in an NCAA postseason game. The Deacons enjoyed 12-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 1999-2010.

Here are just a few more of the reasons why Averill continues to earn respect on the national and global field hockey stage:

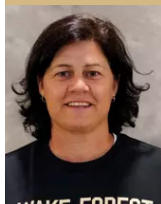

- In 2008, Wake Forest appeared in the NCAA Final Four for the ninth consecutive season.
- Wake Forest won back-to-back-to-back NCAA championships in 2002, 2003 and 2004. No other women's athletic team at Wake Forest has won an NCAA title of any kind.
- The Deacons captured championships in the nation's strongest conference, the ACC, in 2002, 2003, 2006 and 2014.
- Averill has coached two National Players of the Year - Kelly Doton in 2003 and Kelly Dostal in 2004. Dostal, in fact, was named the ACC Female Athlete of the Year for all sports.
- Averill's players have earned first team All-American honors 16 times and first team All-ACC honors 51 times. She has coached the ACC Player of the Year four times.
- In 2008, two of Averill's former athletes, Lauren Crandall and Kelly Doton, represented the U.S. at the Olympic Games in Beijing.

Averill's coaching goes far beyond the playing field. She expects her players to make good grades, graduate on time and to represent the campus and community. In 2021, Wake Forest placed a program-record 20 Demon Deacons on the NFHCA Division I National Academic Squad, while tying a program record with seven All-ACC Academic honorees.

Perhaps more importantly, she cares about her players after they leave Wake Forest. Several former players have returned to work as assistant or volunteer assistant coaches. Most recently, Lauren Crandall Liska was on the 2021 Wake Forest Field Hockey staff as a volunteer assistant coach.

Averill competed in two Final Fours as a Wildcat and from 1983 to 1987 and played on the U.S. National Team. She was inducted into the Northwestern Hall of Fame in September of 1996.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Pietie Coetzee-Turner
Associate Head Coach
First Season

Coetzee-Turner officially joined the Wake Forest field hockey program on Jan. 27, 2023 after a three-year stint as an assistant coach at UMass. The Minutewomen posted back-to-back double-digit win seasons in 2021 and 2022, highlighted by an Atlantic 10 Championship appearance last season.

One of the most highly-regarded strikers in the world, Coetzee-Turner is a three-time Olympian, representing South Africa at the 2000 (Sydney), 2004 (Athens) and 2012 (London) Summer Games. She finished her career as the all-time female scoring leader, notching 287 goals over 289 matches in international play.

Her international senior career began in 1995, when Coetzee-Turner represented South Africa at the Atlanta Challenge Cup and became the youngest player (16) to represent the nation on such a stage. The two-time South African Hockey Player of the Year (1997, 2002) went on to play in four World Cups. At the 2002 event in Perth, Australia, Coetzee-Turner was the tournament's leading scorer.

In addition to serving in an assistant capacity at Indiana (2006), she held numerous roles across South Africa. Along with leading the University of Witwatersrand Johannesburg as head coach, Coetzee-Turner also was director of hockey at St David's Marist Inanda from 2016-19.

She earned her bachelor's degree in sport psychology from the University of Johannesburg in 2003.

Jackie Briggs
Assistant Coach
Fourth Season

Jackie Briggs enters her fourth season as the assistant coach of the Wake Forest field hockey team in 2023.

Briggs joins the Demon Deacons after serving as the volunteer assistant with North Carolina during the 2019, 2018 and 2012 seasons. Briggs graduated from UNC in 2010 and then spent nine years with the U.S. National Team before retiring from competition in 2018.

As a Tar Heel, Briggs helped lead North Carolina to two NCAA Championships in 2007 and 2009 and one ACC Championship in 2007. She earned first-team All-America honors in her junior and senior years, when she also was named to the All-ACC and All-NCAA Tournament teams. As a senior, she was the recipient of the team's Carmen and Michael Hooker Leadership Award and the Laree Beans Practice Player of the Year Award.

Roxy Coetzee-Turner
Assistant Coach
First Season

Coetzee-Turner is the newest assistant coach and also operate as the program coordinator. She joins Jackie Briggs and Pietie Coetzee-Turner on staff with Averill. Her duties and responsibilities will include assisting the current coaching staff with specific needs, culture and player development, travel and recruiting. She comes to Wake Forest after two years at the University of Massachusetts as an assistant. She brings 17 years of coaching experience to the Deacs and was at Amherst College prior to UMass.

Coetzee-Turner was part of two successful seasons at UMass with an overall record of 27-12, including an 11-3 record in the Atlantic 10, having advanced to the championship game of the 2022 conference tournament. The 2022 season also included a win over then-ranked No. 23 Maine.

With Coetzee-Turner on staff, Amherst College had two NFHCA All-Region honorees in 2019 as Sophia Kaplan and Beth Williamson both had standout seasons on the backline. The duo also collected NESCAC All-Conference accolades in a league consistently regarded among the best in NCAA Division III.

Coetzee-Turner arrived with the Mammoths following six years in South Africa at St. Mary's School, Waverley. She served as the Director of Field Hockey, the head coach of the school's top field hockey team, and as a sports conditioning specialist.

A South Africa Hockey Association Level 2-certified coach, Coetzee-Turner also served as head coach with the Southern Gauteng Hockey Association's U18 team.

Coetzee-Turner was a member of the South Africa national field hockey team from 2008-12, as well as a two-time captain and three-time member of the South African U21 Team. In 2008, she was named University of Johannesburg Sportswoman of the Year. She frequently competes in triathlons and qualified for the Ironman 70.3 World Championship in 2018.

Coetzee-Turner earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Sports Psychology from the University of Johannesburg in 2009 and holds a Master's degree in Sports Management from Ulster University at Belfast (2012). She also earned a diploma in Exercise Science from the Health and Fitness Professional Academy (HFPA) in 2013.
