KEY STORYLINES

DC1

Senior running back Demond Claiborne has been one of the most efficient runners in the country so far this season with 5.27 yards per carry and 812 total rushing yard. His rushing yards rank third in the ACC going into Saturday:

2025 ACC Yards Per Carry

Rk.	Carries	Yards	YPC
1. J'Mari Taylor (Virginia)	187	917	4.90
2. Hollywood Smothers (NC State)	127	823	6.48
3. Demond Claiborne (Wake)	154	812	5.27
4. Haynes King (Georgia Tech)	148	807	5.45
5. Isaac Brown (Louisville)	91	782	8.59

Additionally, his 193 yards rushing against Western Carolina are the most by a Wake Forest player since Cade Carney ran for 226 yards against Duke on Nov. 24, 2018.

With three games to play in the regular season, Claiborne has a chance to finish in the top five on the all-time Wake Forest rushing list:

2025 ACC Rushing TDs

Rk.	Career Rushing Yards
4. Tarence Williams (1999-02)	2,581
5. Morgan Kane (1996-99)	2,550
6. Matt Colburn II (2015-18)	2,528
7. Demond Claiborne (2022-Pres.)	2,504
8. Cade Carney (2016-19)	2,446

Additionally with multiple rushing touchdowns against No. 16 Georgia Tech on Saturday, Claiborne is now in the top five in program history in rushing touchdowns and continues to climb:

Rank	Career Rushing Touchdowns
1. Chris Barclay (2002-05)	40
T2. James McDougland (1976-79)	30
T2. Michael Ramseur (1982-85)	30
4. Larry Russell (1969-71)	29
5. Demond Claiborne (2022-Pres.)	25

BUILT IN THE DARK

- 'Built in the Dark' is the program's new cultural identity, signaling the beginning of a bold new era under head coach Jake Dickert.
- More than a mantra, 'Built in the Dark' reflects the belief that the effort no one sees creates the moments no one forgets – a mentality rooted in preparation and discipline, and forged through connection.
- The identity aligns closely with Wake Forest University's transformational mission to prepare principled leaders through intentional effort, resilience, and purpose.

JAKE FOREST

- Jake Dickert was named the 33rd head coach of the Wake Forest football program on Dec. 18, 2024.
- During his time at the helm of the Washington State football program, Dickert accumulated a record of 23-20 (.535), reaching three bowl games in four seasons while also being nationally ranked each of the past two seasons.
- During his time on the Palouse, he trained 2024 Heisman Finalist and First Overall Pick Cam Ward and 2024 Manning Finalist John Mateer. He has also had nine players drafted to the NFL in the last four years alone.
- With the win against Delaware, head coach Jake Dickert would earn his eighth win in his first season at Wake Forest. The win would give him the most wins in program history by a first-year head coach.

NANDO TACKLES EVERYTHING

- Through 10 games, Nick Andersen leads the team in tackles, totaling 81 including a team-high and season-high 11 against NC State and Florida State.
- Going into Saturday's game, Andersen ranks fourth in the ACC in tackles per game:

Rank	School	Tackles/Game
1. Caden Fordham	NC State	10.3
2. Cade Uluave	Cal	9.0
3. Matt Rose	Stanford	8.3
4. Nick Andersen	Wake Forest	8.1
5. Sammy Brown	Clemson	7.8

Overall in his Wake Forest career, Andersen has collected 339 total tackles which ranks 10th in program history and is the third-most by a Demon Deacon since 2000:

Wake Forest Total Tackles Since 2000

Rank	Total Tackles
1. Ryan Smenda Jr. (2018-22)	355
2. Nick Andersen (2020-Pres.)	344
3. Aaron Curry (2005-08)	332
4. Ryan Javion (2013-16)	328
5. Brandon Chubb (2012-15)	326

BY THE NUMBERS

4

Jake Dickert has four bowl appearances in his five seasons since becoming a head coach in 2021.

4

In his five years as a head coach, Jake Dickert has had four ranked wins with three coming in the 2022 and 2023 seasons and last week at No. 12 Virginia.

179

Since arriving at the FBS level in 2017, Jake Dickert's defenses have totaled 179 turnovers. That total would be the 15th most by any school in the country during that seven-year stretch and the only ACC school to have more would be Clemson.

11

Wake Forest is in search of its eighth win of the season which would be the 11th time in program history and first since 2022.

22-7

Wake Forest has the best non-conference record in the ACC over the last seven years, holding an impressive record of 22-7 (.759) including a perfect 3-0 record this season.

4. Duke	36-39 (.480)

• The Demon Deacons have now won seven games during the 2025 season and are the winningest Power 4 program in the Carolinas and are tied with East Carolina as the winningest FBS team in the Carolinas.

Records of North & South Carolina FBS Programs:

• Wake Forest: 7-3 (ACC)
• East Carolina: 7-3 (American)
• Coastal Carolina: 6-3 (Sun Belt)
• Duke: 5-5 (ACC)
• NC State: 5-5 (ACC)
• Clemson Tigers: 5-5 (ACC)
• North Carolina: 4-6 (ACC)
• Appalachian State: 4-6 (Sun Belt)
• South Carolina: 3-7 (SEC)
• Charlotte 49ers: 1-9 (American)

• Additionally in the last decade (2016-Pres.), the Deacs are the sixth-most wins in the ACC:

• Clemson -- 110
• Miami -- 77
• NC State -- 74
• Louisville -- 71
• Pitt -- 71
• Wake Forest -- 68
• Florida State -- 66

• Additionally in the College Football Playoff Era (2014-Pres.), the Deacs recorded the first, second, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth highest win totals in a single five-year period and the current five-year period (2021-25) of 34 wins ranks sixth all-time:

• 38 (2017-21)
• 37 (2018-22)
• 36 (2004-08 & 2006-10)
• 35 (2019-23)

• 30 (1940-44)

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

• With record-setting crowds, multiple sellouts and the best student attendance in school history, playing at home over the past seven seasons has given Wake Forest a huge edge. The Demon Deacons hold a 28-15 (.643) record in home contests since the start of the 2019 season which included a program-record 11-game winning streak spanning from the 2020 to 2022 seasons. The 65.1 percent win rate ranks sixth in the ACC during that time period.

Rank	School	Wins	Losses	Pct.
1	Clemson	38	8	82.6
2	NC State	35	11	76.1
3	Miami	33	13	71.7

8	Florida St	29	17	63.0
9	Virginia	27	17	61.4
10	Duke	25	17	59.5

IN NON-CONFERENCE PLAY

• The Demon Deacons have the best record vs. non-ACC teams over the past seven years with a record of 22-7 (.759), the best winning percentage in that time period:

Rank	Team	Wins	Losses	Win Pct.
1.	Wake	22	7	.759
2.	Syracuse	20	7	.741
3.	Clemson	24	10	.706
4.	NC State	20	9	.690
5.	Duke	19	9	.679

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES

• During seven bowl appearances since 2016, the Deacs have found a winning formula in one-score ball games, capturing three or more wins by one score in seven of those seasons with a total of 28 wins in 49 such games, the most in the ACC. The Deacs hold the fourth-best winning percentage in those games since 2016 in the ACC and have the second-most wins overall by one score:

Rank	School	Wins	Losses	Pct.
1	Clemson	26	13	66.7
2	GT	25	18	58.1
3	SMU	27	20	57.4
T4	Wake	28	21	57.1
T4	NC State	28	21	57.1

ROAD WARRIORS

• With the win at Virginia Tech, this marks the ninth time in the last 10 years that the Demon Deacons have won their first road game of the season with the only loss coming in the COVID-shortened 2020 season at NC State:

Date	Opponent	Result
Oct. 4, 2025	at Virginia Tech	W, 30-23
Oct. 5, 2024	at NC State	W, 34-30
Sept. 16, 2023	at Old Dominion	W, 27-24

Sept. 9, 2017	at Boston College	W, 34-10
Sept. 10, 2016	at Duke	W, 24-14

• With a win at Oregon State, Head Coach Jake Dickert is one of five Wake Forest coaches to start their Demon Deacon career 2-0 or better on the road and first since 1987.

• Overall, the win at Virginia is Wake Forest's 18th victory over a top-20 ranked opponent and the highest AP poll road ranked win since defeating No. 12 Georgia on Sept. 12, 1979.

BEST TEAM IN THE STATE OF VIRGINIA

• Wake Forest has been dominant over teams in the state of Virginia as the Deacs have won nine of the last 11 over teams from the state. This includes at least one win in five of the last six seasons:

Nov. 8, 2025	at No. 12 Virginia	W, 16-9
Oct. 4, 2025	at Virginia Tech	W, 30-23
Sept. 7, 2024	vs. Virginia	L, 31-20

Oct. 24, 2020	vs. No. 19 Virginia Tech	W, 23-16
Oct. 17, 2020	vs. Virginia	W, 40-23

• Over this span, the Demon Deacons have outscored Virginia teams 336-235.

STOUT DEFENSE

• Through 10 games of the season, Wake Forest has allowed just 19.5 points per game (an improvement of 13.0 PPG from last season) and it ranks 22nd nationally and second in the ACC:

Rank	PPG Allowed
1. Miami	14.2
2. Wake Forest	19.5
3. Florida State	20.3
4. SMU	20.4
5. Virginia	21.2

• Wake's defense held SMU to 246 yards of offense, the fewest in a game for the Mustangs since Nov. 28, 2015, against Memphis. In addition to scoring defense, the Demon Deacons also rank 24th nationally in total defense and sixth in the ACC:

Rank	Total Defense
1. Miami	270.9
2. Louisville	297.9
3. Wake Forest	318.5
4. Florida State	322.0
5. Virginia	322.1

• Against Virginia Tech, Wake Forest only allowed 111 passing yards in the game which was the fewest by a Hokie team since Dec. 27, 2023 and it also marked the fewest by a Jake Dickert coached team:

Rk.	Opp.	Pass Yds	Opponent at Virginia Tech	Date
1.	111		at Virginia Tech	Oct. 4, 2025
2.	135		Oregon	Nov. 31, 2021

4.	142		Stanford	Nov. 4, 2023
5.	147		BYU	Oct. 23, 2021

• Through 10 games the Demon Deacons have had the third-best passing defense in the ACC and also rank 29th nationally:

Rank	Passing Defense
1. Louisville	188.0
2. Miami	189.1
3. Wake Forest	189.5
4. Florida State	196.9
5. Cal	199.2

• Allowing just nine points against Kennesaw State, it marked the fewest points allowed in a game since Oct. 30, 2021, and was just the seventh game with single-digit points allowed in the last decade:

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

- One of the points of emphasis for the Wake Forest football team is winning the turnover battle. They have been one of the best teams in the country in that category since the start of the 2016 season.
- Over the past eight seasons, Wake Forest has a combined +26 turnover margin. This ranks 33th nationally over that time nationally and fourth in the ACC.

Rank	TO Gained	TO Lost	TO Margin
1. Clemson	230	178	+52
2. Cal	191	157	+34
3. SMU	207	178	+29
4. Wake Forest	197	171	+26
5. Miami	198	173	+25

- Only 2018, 2022, 2023 and 2024 saw the Deacs finish with more turnovers lost than gained:

Season	TO Gained	TO Lost	TO Margin
2025	13	13	0
2024	17	20	-3
2023	16	22	-6
2022	16	19	-3*
2021	29	20	+9
2020	17	7	+10
2019	25	17	+8
2018	16	19	-3*
2017	21	13	+8
2016	27	19	+8

*Only seasons in Wake Forest history where the Deacs reached a bowl game with a negative turnover margin.

- Winning the turnover battle has been a key to victory for the Demon Deacons in the College Football Playoff Era (2014-Pres.).

Turnover Margin	Record When
Even	16-17
+1 or better	44-14
+2 or better	27-3
+3 or better	12-0

TURNING OVER THE OPPOSITION

- In the College Football Playoff era, Wake Forest has been one of the best teams in the country at forcing the opposition to turn it over.

- AMONG THE NATION'S BEST: Since the start of the 2016 season, the Deacs rank 19th nationally and fourth in the ACC in turnovers forced:

Rank	TO Gained
1. Clemson	230
2. SMU	207
3. Boston College	201
T4. Wake Forest	197
T4. Miami	197

- Additionally, the Deacons have forced a turnover in 68 of their last 80 games dating back to Sept. 28, 2019. The only games without one: vs. North Carolina, vs. NC State (9/11/25), vs. Kennesaw State (8/29/25), vs. NC A&T (8/29/24) vs. FSU (10/28/23), vs. Pitt (10/21/23), vs. UNC (11/12/22), at NC State (11/5/22), vs. Clemson (9/24/22), at Louisville (12/12/20).

T5. MTSU	2021	32
T5. Ohio	2018	32
T5. Utah State	2018	32
T5. UCF	2017	32

- Coach Jake Dickert also coordinated the 2021 Washington State defense which forced 29 turnovers that season, tying for the 24th-highest total since the start of the 2017 season.

THE FASTEST MAN IN AMERICA

- Demond Claiborne has been one of the most electrifying players in college football his entire career, but also he is simply the fastest player in FBS. Last season, he clocked the fastest measured speed by any player in the country:

Rank	Speed	Week
1. Demond Claiborne (WF)	22.6 MPH	Week 13 vs. Miami
T2. De'Zhaun Stribling (OKST)	22.3 MPH	Week 5 vs. KSU

HEAD COACH JAKE DICKERT

First Season

Jake Dickert was named the 33rd head coach of the Wake Forest football program on Dec. 18, 2024.

Dickert, who has been a college football coach for 17 seasons, has risen up the ranks, holding experience at nearly every level of the game. He has proven to be a consistent developer of NFL-caliber talent throughout his career while also winning at each of his coaching stops.

In four seasons as the head coach at Washington State, Dickert had a winning record and went to a bowl three times. His Cougars were ranked inside the top-20 each of the previous two seasons, climbing as high as No. 13 in 2023. Over the last three seasons, Dickert led the Cougars to a pair of wins in the Apple Cup versus arch-rival Washington, a pair of ranked wins over No. 19-ranked Wisconsin in 2022 and 2023 and a victory against No. 14 Oregon State in 2023. Additionally, his program tallied an impressive 14-6 record in non-conference play.

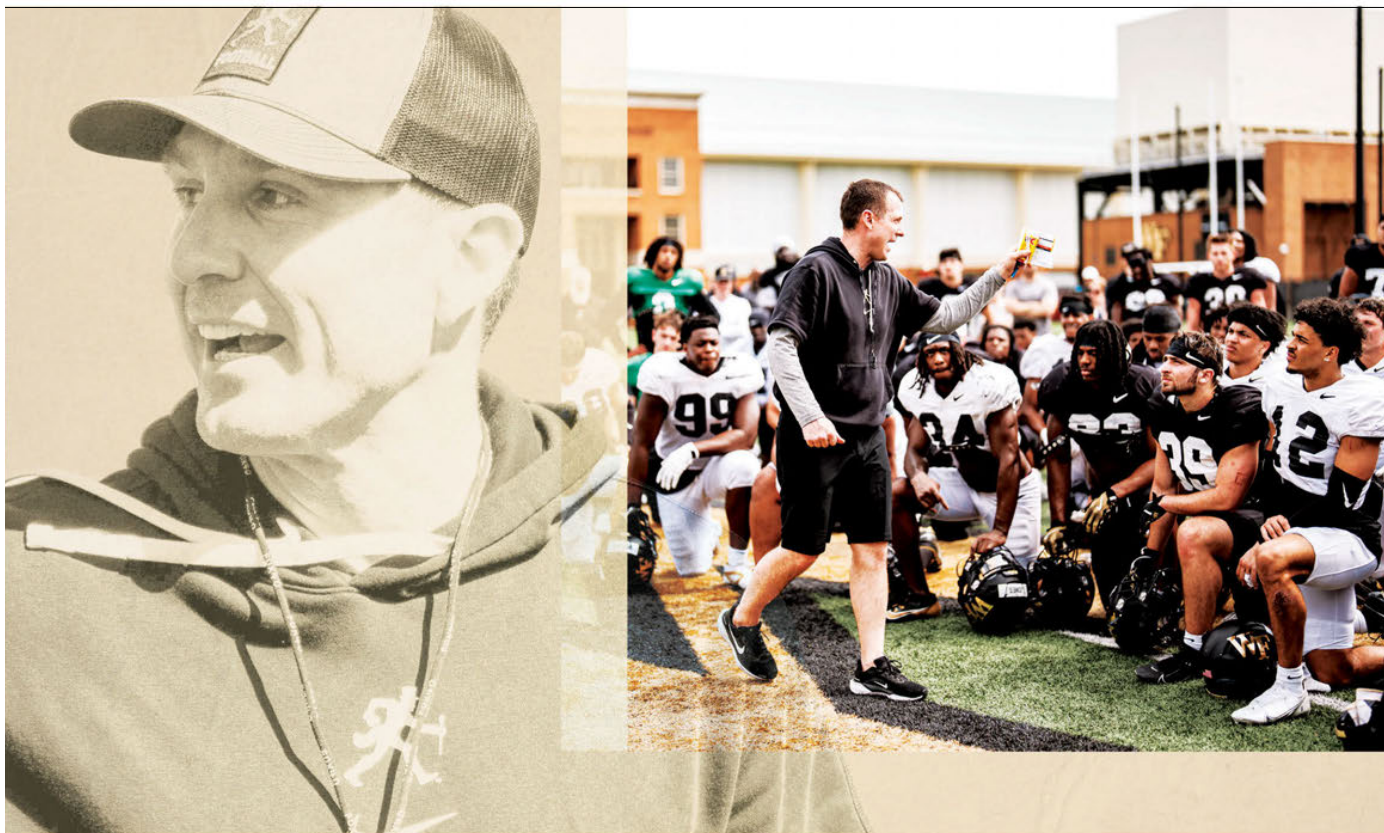

Dickert has coached seven players selected during the three previous NFL Drafts. Washington State's three draft picks in 2024 marked the most for the Cougars since 2005.

Since joining the FBS coaching ranks in 2017, Dickert's defenses have totaled 166 turnovers. That total ties the 10th most by any school in the country during that seven-year stretch and the only ACC school to have more was Clemson.

In the classroom, Washington State had 45 players earn Pac-12 Fall Academic Honor Roll honors (3.3 GPA or higher) in his first three seasons as head coach.

During Dickert's time in Pullman, he had multiple AFCA Good Works Teams, Allstate Wuerffel Trophy Semifinalists for their work around the university and in the community as well as semifinalists for the William V. Campbell Trophy, awarded to the college football player with the best combination of academics, community service and on-field performance.

During his time at the helm of the Washington State football program, Dickert accumulated a record of 23-20 (.535), reaching three bowl games in four seasons while also being nationally-ranked each of the past two seasons.

In 2024, Washington State jumped out to an historic start, winning eight of its first nine games of the season and climbing inside of the top-20 in the AP Poll. It marked the first time since 2018 that the Cougars started a season 8-1 or better and the lone loss during that stretch came to College Football Playoff qualifier Boise State on the road.

For the second-consecutive year, Dickert and Washington State claimed multiple non-conference wins over Power Four conference teams, defeating Texas Tech and Washington in consecutive weeks.

Washington State's offense was one of the best in the country over the last two seasons — led by different quarterbacks (Cam Ward, 2023 and John Mateer, 2024). The Cougars averaged over 31.0 points per game each of the last two seasons including having the No. 11 scoring offense in the country in 2024 with 36.8 points per game.

The 2023 season began 4-0 under Dickert, including wins over nationally-ranked No. 19 Wisconsin and No. 14 Oregon State. It marked the second-straight season Dickert led the Cougs to a win over the Badgers. With the help of the early wins, Dickert and Washington State climbed to as high as No. 13 in the AP Poll rankings, the highest ranking for the school since 2018.

A convincing 56-14 win over Colorado accounted for the Cougar's fifth win of the season; for the year, four of WSU's seven losses came by one possession. The Cougar defense continued its aggressive play from previous years as Washington State led the nation in defensive touchdowns with five on the season, the third-most defensive scores dating back to the 1996 season. In the 2024 NFL Draft, three Cougars were drafted, led by safety Jaden Hicks to Kansas City (fourth round). Jackson (fifth, Los Angeles Rams) and cornerback Chau Smith-Wade (fifth, Carolina) were also selected, giving WSU its most draft picks in a season since the 2005 NFL Draft.

Dickert began the 2022 season, his first full year leading the Cougars, with three-straight wins — including a victory at No. 19 Wisconsin. The win was Washington State's first regular-season non-conference road win over a ranked team since 2003. The Cougars captured three of its final four games and reached a bowl game — the Jimmy Kimmel L.A. Bowl — for the seventh-straight season which was then the second-longest current streak in the Pac-12. Under Dickert's leadership, WSU again was strong defensively, finishing in the top four of numerous Pac-12 categories, including second in red zone defense and tackles-for-loss, third in scoring defense and turnovers gained and fourth in sacks. Washington State also led the Pac-12 in red zone offense. In 2022, Washington State had 10 All-Pac-12 players, including first-team linebacker and third-team All-American Daiyan Henley, while safety Jaden Hicks garnered third-team Freshman All-America honors. Henley was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Chargers.

Dickert spent the final five games of the 2021 regular season serving as the Cougar's acting head coach, leading Washington State to a 3-2 record with wins over Arizona State, Arizona and a dominating 40-13 Apple Cup victory in Seattle, earning a trip to the Tony The Tiger Sun Bowl. The Apple Cup win snapped a seven-game skid to the Huskies and was the Cougar's largest margin of victory in series history.

Under Dickert's leadership, the Cougar defense was a huge spark in 2021, leading the Pac-12 with 29 takeaways, fifth-most nationally, while also leading the Pac-12 and tied for ninth nationally in turnover margin. 14 players earned All-Pac-12 honors including first-team selections in right tackle Abraham Lucas, kicker Dean Janikowski and edge Ron Stone Jr. while punter Nick Haberer was named a Freshman All-American. In the 2022 NFL Draft, offensive lineman Abraham Lucas was selected in the second round by the Seattle Seahawks and cornerback Jaylen Watson went in the seventh round to the Kansas City Chiefs. Entering the 2021 season, Dickert was in his second year as Washington State's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

In 2020, his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections including linebacker Jahad Woods, who was second on the team with 31 tackles and led the team with 4.5 tackles-for loss. The Cougars led the league with eight forced fumbles and was fourth in rush defense (154.8), a 30-yard improvement from the previous season.

Prior to his time at Washington State, Dickert helped build Wyoming into one of the best Group of Five programs in the country. During his three including the final as the defensive coordinator, Wyoming played in a pair of bowl games while he tutored four future NFL Draft selections on the defensive side of the ball. In 2019, the Cowboys were sixth in the country in red zone defense, No. 11 in the country in rush defense (107.1) and scoring defense (17.8), No. 40 tackles-for-loss (83) and No. 43 in total defense. Dickert mentored All-American linebacker and Butkus Award Finalist Logan Wilson while redshirt-freshman defensive end Solomon Byrd was named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America.

In 2018, Wyoming's defense was among the best in the nation, finishing the season No. 19 in total defense (326.2), No. 25 in rushing defense (129.5), No. 28 in scoring defense (22.0) and No. 32 in pass defense (196.7). In his first season at Wyoming, Dickert help the 2017 Cowboy defense become one of the best groups in the country as they led the country in takeaways (38), ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.5), were first in fumbles recovered (18), second in interceptions (20), eighth in defensive touchdowns scored (four TD), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9) and No. 23 in total defense (335.2).

Before arriving at Wyoming, Dickert spent the 2016 season as the safeties coach and co-special teams coordinator at South Dakota State. In his one season on the South Dakota State coaching staff, Dickert helped guide the Jackrabbits to the 2016 Missouri Valley Football Conference Championship and a No. 8 seed in the 2016 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoffs, where they advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals.

As defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Minnesota State, Mankato for the 2014 and 2015 seasons Dickert was part of a coaching staff that led the Mavericks to back-to-back Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) championships and consecutive NCAA Division II Playoff berths, earning their way to the 2014 National Championship Game. Minnesota State posted a combined record of 24-3 over that two-year span. Dickert's 2014 defense ranked second in the nation in scoring defense (12.9).

In his first season as a college defensive coordinator in 2013 at Augustana, Dickert's defense ranked No. 20 in the nation at the NCAA Division II level in scoring defense. Prior to that, Dickert had full-time assistant stops at Southeast Missouri State in 2012, South Dakota in 2011 and North Dakota State in 2009-10.

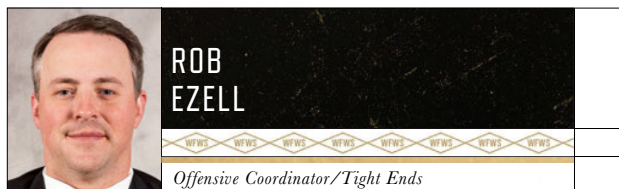

He also served as a graduate assistant for North Dakota State in 2008 and got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at his alma mater Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2007.

Dickert played football at Wisconsin-Stevens Point from 2002-06 where he earned All-Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) honors as a wide receiver his senior season of 2006 and was named his team's Wide Receiver of the Year both his junior and senior seasons. Dickert earned his bachelor's degree in secondary math education from Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2007, and completed his master's degree in general education, also from UW-Stevens Point in 2009.

He and his wife, Candice, have three children: daughter Rylee and sons Jett and Jace.

PRO DEACS

Pro Deacs shined throughout week 10 of the 2025 NFL season, highlighted by multiple head-to-head matchups between former Demon Deacon stars, along with safety Jessie Bates III grabbing his second interception in as many games and John Wolford signing a new practice squad deal with the Minnesota Vikings.

Bates III Grabs Interception in Second-Consecutive Game

Safety Jessie Bates III recorded an interception for the second-consecutive game on Sunday, as he and the Atlanta Falcons played the Indianapolis Colts in the first ever regular season game in Berlin, Germany. With time running out in the first half and Indianapolis driving to take the lead, Bates stepped in front of a pass from Daniel Jones with 20 seconds left for his second pick in as many games. Overall, Bates ended the game with nine tackles with six solo efforts, as well as two pass defenses and a forced fumble, helping him earn a 70.2 defensive grade and an 82.1 coverage grade by PFF.

Through the first nine games of the season, Bates has totaled 56 tackles, which currently ranks second on Atlanta. Meanwhile, Bates' 30 solo efforts lead the Falcon defense. In addition, his pair of interceptions is tied for 14th in the NFL this season. Overall, Bates has continued to be one of the best safeties in the NFL, as his 82.8 tackle grade ranks in the top-20 among all qualified safeties.

Light the Dortch

Wide receiver Greg Dortch added another solid performance on Sunday as he and the Arizona Cardinals took on the Seattle Seahawks. Against the Seahawks, Dortch added 69 all-purpose yards, including 67 yards on three kick returns. In addition, Dortch recorded just his second touchdown of the season on a four-yard touchdown run in the second quarter.

This season, Dortch has logged 15 catches for 73 yards and a touchdown, while also totaling 20 yards and a score on the ground. Meanwhile, Dortch has become one of the most reliable kickoff and punt returners in the league, having totaled 128 punt return yards (14.2 yards per return) and 575 kickoff return yards (26.1 yards per return) this season. As a result, Dortch has earned an 83.8 returner grade by PFF, which ranks eighth in the NFL.

Walker Shines for Seattle

On the other side of the field, running back Kenneth Walker III continued to shine for the Seattle Seahawks, helping the Seahawks come away with a dominant 44-22 win over the Cardinals to stay atop the NFC West. Walker totaled 67 yards on the ground while averaging 4.8 yards per carry. He also caught one pass for three yards against Arizona. Overall, Walker has had a solid 2025 season, having rushed for 539 yards and three touchdowns through the first nine games of the season.

Mustapha, Turner Face Off in NFC West Battle

Week 10 of the 2025 NFL season featured another game between former Demon Deacons, as defensive lineman Kobie Turner and the Los Angeles Rams faced off against safety Malik Mustapha and the San Francisco 49ers in a key NFC West divisional matchup. In the end, Turner, who finished the game with a tackle, and the Rams came away with a 42-26 win to keep pace in the NFC West and the chase for the No. 1 overall seed in the NFC. Meanwhile, despite the loss, Mustapha had another great game for the 49ers, finishing the afternoon with eight tackles, including four solo efforts.

Wolford Signs Practice Squad Deal with Vikings

Two weeks ago, former Wake Forest quarterback John Wolford signed a practice squad deal with the Minnesota Vikings. After signing with the New York Jets as an undrafted free agent in 2018, Wolford has spent the majority of the last eight seasons as a reliable backup quarterback. Wolford has played seven games while making four starts during his career, all of which came during his stint with the Los Angeles Rams from 2018-22. During his time with the Rams, Wolford helped secure a playoff spot in 2020 in his first career start before starting in the following playoff game against Seattle. Wolford also won a Super Bowl during the 2021 before signing with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2023. Most recently, Wolford served as a backup quarterback for the Jacksonville Jaguars last season. With the deal, Wolford will be reuniting with head coach Kevin O'Connell, who was the offensive coordinator with the Rams in 2020.

THE NFL DRAFT

The Deacs has a long and rich history of players being selected in the NFL Draft:

Wake Forest has had 145 players drafted in its history including one in each of the last seven seasons.

During the course of the 2024 NFL Draft, Wake Forest saw three players selected as defensive back Malik Mustapha was taken by San Francisco in the fourth round, 124 overall, defensive back Caalen Carson by Dallas in the fifth round, 174 overall, and offensive lineman Michael Jurgens by Minnesota in the seventh round, 230 overall.

In 2023, defensive tackle Kobie Turner was taken in the third round, 89th overall by the Los Angeles Rams while wide receiver A.T. Perry was selected by the New Orleans Saints in the sixth round, 195th overall.

Since the 2014 season, 15 Wake Forest players have been taken in the NFL Draft including 11 in the past six drafts combined.

Defensive back Kevin Johnson was taken with the 18th overall selection by the Houston Texans. He became the fifth Demon Deacon to be selected in the first round and the third since 2003. Linebacker Aaron Curry went fourth overall to Seattle in 2009, defensive lineman Calvin Pace 18th overall to Arizona in 2003, quarterback Norm Sneed second overall to Washington in 1961 and running back Elmer Barbour 10th overall to the New York Giants in 1945.

GROVES STADIUM - ALLEGACY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION STADIUM

CAPACITY: 31,500 - OVERALL RECORD SINCE 1968 AT ALLEGACY STADIUM: 157-175-4

STADIUM NOTES

A NEW NAME FOR THE DEACS' HOME

- In June 2023, Wake Forest University announced a historic, long-term agreement with Allegacy Federal Credit Union, a leading financial institution and a longtime, trusted partner with mutual deep roots in Winston-Salem. The new, multi-year commitment deepens Allegacy's existing partnership with Wake Forest University by establishing the home of Wake Forest football as Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium.
- For more than 20 years, Allegacy has partnered with the Wake Forest family to advance the community's wellbeing. One example of this is the Allegacy Center for Leadership and Character at Wake Forest's School of Business. The ACLC accelerates the School's mission to develop leaders of character to serve the greater good through a proven track record of thought leadership, practical relevance, and partnership across Wake Forest and the broader community. Primary focus areas include creating and publishing new knowledge in top academic journals across the world, and integrating ethical leadership and character strengths into courses, academic programs, co-curricular activities, and faculty and staff development programs.

NOTABLE UPDATES OVER THE YEARS

2005 - The facade along the sidelines and south endzone were re-faced with approximately 89,000 bricks, specifically created for this project by Pine Hall Brick Company

2006 - FieldTurf surface was installed

2007 - McCreary Tower, which was built at a cost of $48 million, houses luxury suites, club seats, boxes for the University President, home and visiting athletic directors and print and electronic media.

2011 - A state-of-the-art video board to the South end zone was put in. The board measures 42 feet in height and 90 feet in width. It contains over 1.5 million pixels and 3,780 square feet of active video area.

2023 - Athletics installed new LED Lighting, Handrails Between Sections & Stairs on Deacon Hill and a new LED Videoboard on Bridger Field House.

PROVIDING THE HOME EDGE

- Wake Forest is an astounding 28-14 at home since the start of the 2019 season. The Deacs won a program record 11-straight contests from Oct. 2, 2020 until Sept. 17, 2022. Wake Forest's perfect 6-0 mark in 2021 is the program's first undefeated home record since 1979 and it is just the third time that this feat has been accomplished since its 1970 ACC Championship team.

HISTORY

ABOUT ALLEGACY STADIUM

After playing football in Groves Stadium since 1940, Wake Forest renamed its facility BB&T Field from 2007-19 season. Ahead of the 2020 season, it was renamed to Truist Field at Wake Forest. Now, prior to the 2023 season, Allegacy Federal Credit Union dons the stadium's name.

Wake Forest began playing intercollegiate football in Groves Stadium in 1940 when the school, then located in Wake Forest, N.C., first dedicated a 20,000-seat facility by that same name on its original campus. When Wake opened its current facility in 1968, the school kept the Groves name.

The stadium was named in honor of Henry H. Groves, Sr., who passed away in 1985. It was his generous gift that made possible the construction of the original stadium, which would be the site of some of the finest moments in Wake Forest athletic history.

The Deacs played their final game in old Wake Forest in 1955 before the school moved to Winston-Salem. After several years of playing at Bowman Gray Stadium, the Deacs moved to Groves Stadium in 1968.

In 1957, the original Groves Stadium was sold to Wake Forest High School for the sum of $10 and became the home of high school football and other community events. It was later renamed Trentini Stadium, in memory of the late Tony Trentini, a Wake Forest football player and 1956 graduate, who later returned to serve as the high school team's coach.

AUGUST 29 - ALLEGACY STADIUM - WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - ATTENDANCE - 30,789

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – In front of an energized Opening Night crowd at Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium, Wake Forest ushered in the Jake Dickert era with a 10-9 victory over Kennesaw State to launch the 2025 season.

Tonight’s game, which was sponsored by the Winston-Salem Police Department and the Winston-Salem Police Foundation, was kicked off with the annual Deacon Dash as Wake Forest’s Class of 2029 stormed the field in front of a spirited crowd of 30,789 at Allegacy Stadium on Friday evening. In total, 4,319 Wake students attended the Demon Deacons Opening Night victory.

The Deacs recorded nearly 350 yards of total offense, led by redshirt senior quarterback Robby Ashford who was 20-of-28 for 218 yards through the air and 18 carries for 42 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

On the ground, five different Demon Deacons contributed to 130 rushing yards while redshirt senior tight end Eni Falayi led the team in receiving with four catches for 52 yards.

Defensively, the Deacs as a unit limited Kennesaw State quarterback Dexter Williams II to just a 36 percent completion percentage on 12-of-33 attempts. Redshirt senior defensive back Nick Andersen paced the defense with nine total tackles and two passes defended while redshirt junior defensive end Gabe Kirschke and redshirt defensive lineman Jayden Loving each recorded a sack.

Over the last 15 years, Wake Forest is now 12-3 in season openers.

Wake Forest will look to continue its winning ways at home next week as it takes on in-state foe Western Carolina on Saturday, Sept. 6 at 2 p.m.

SEPTEMBER 6 - ALLEGACY STADIUM - WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - ATTENDANCE - 28,239

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – In the second game of the head coach Jake Dickert era, the Wake Forest Football team defeated Western Carolina, 42-10, in its annual Gold Rush Game at Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

This game, which included two lengthy severe weather delays, was sponsored by Allegacy Federal Credit Union and Strickland Brothers Oil Change and it served as Wake Forest’s Gold Rush Childhood Cancer Awareness Game. Additionally, Saturday’s game was the highlight of Wake Forest Football’s Alumni Weekend where legendary former head coach and 2006 ACC Champion Jim Grobe (2001-13) served as an honorary captain and earlier this week all living former head coaches came together for a special event.

In addition to the pageantry and atmosphere, the Deacs recorded nearly 550 yards of total offense, led by 193 rushing yards and three touchdowns from senior running back Demond Claiborne.

In the air, two different Deacs hauled in receiving touchdowns as redshirt senior quarterback Robby Ashford passed for 227 yards and a touchdown while also recording 66 yards on the ground with an additional score. Sophomore quarterback Deshawn Purdie also made his season debut connecting on 3-of-4 attempts for a touchdown as well. Skip Ad

Seven different wideouts recorded receptions, led by an explosive performance from redshirt freshman Chris Barnes who hauled in six catches for 149 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, the Deacs limited the Catamounts to just 34 yards on the ground and combined for 14 tackles for loss. Redshirt sophomore defensive back Davaughn Patterson, redshirt senior defensive back Lardarius Webb Jr. and junior linebacker Aiden Hall each recorded a team-high seven tackles while junior defensive back Zamari Stevenson snared his first interception of the season.

Wake Forest returns to action on Thursday, hosting NC State in a nationally-televised Big Four showdown from Allegacy Stadium. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. and the contest will be live on ESPN. Prior to the game, ESPN’s SportsCenter show will air live from Hearn Plaza at 2 p.m.

SEPTEMBER 11 - ALLEGACY STADIUM - WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - ATTENDANCE - 29,043

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - The Wake Forest football team (2-1, 0-1 ACC) dropped a hard-fought 34-24 contest to NC State (3-0, 0-1 ACC) on Thursday evening inside Allegacy Stadium.

Redshirt freshman Chris Barnes continued his strong start to the year, totaling 177 all-purpose yards, including an electric 98-yard kickoff return on the opening kickoff of the game, and a 70-yard reception to set up an early Wake Forest touchdown.

Senior safety Nick Andersen totaled double-digit tackles for the seventh time in his career, and the third time in the last seven contests dating back to last season, leading the Demon Deacons with 11 stops.

The Demon Deacons will have their first bye weekend of the season next weekend before returning to Allegacy Federal Credit Union on Saturday, Sept. 27, against Georgia Tech. The game against the Yellow Jackets will serve as Wake Forest's annual Family Weekend game, as well as the We Are Wake Green Game in support of Mental Health Awareness. Tickets can be purchased by clicking here.

SEPTEMBER 28 - ALLEGACY STADIUM - WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - ATTENDANCE - 30,264

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - In a back-and-forth contest that needed overtime to decide the outcome, the Wake Forest football team (2-2, 0-2 ACC) dropped a close contest to No. 16 Georgia Tech (5-0, 2-0 ACC) on Saturday afternoon inside Allegacy Stadium.

The Demon Deacons recorded nearly 450 yards of total offense, as senior running back Demond Claiborne finished the game with 21 carries for 119 yards and two touchdowns while redshirt senior quarterback Robby Ashford completed 14 passes for 222 yards. Seven different Demon Deacons recorded a catch, led by redshirt senior tight end Eni Falayi's four receptions for 42 yards.

Defensively, redshirt senior linebacker Quincy Bryant and redshirt senior defensive back Nick Andersen paced the Deacs with 11 tackles each apiece while redshirt senior linebacker Dylan Hazen recorded a forced fumble that was recovered by redshirt senior defensive back Karon Prunty.

The Demon Deacons will have their first road of the season next weekend when Wake Forest travels to Virginia Tech on Saturday, Oct. 4 with kickoff scheduled for 1 p.m. on The CW.

OCTOBER 4 - LANE STADIUM - BLACKSBURG, VA. - ATTENDANCE - 65,632

BLACKSBURG, VA. - For the ninth time in the last 10 seasons, the Wake Forest football team (3-2, 1-2 ACC) won its first road game of the season, defeating Virginia Tech (2-4, 1-1 ACC), 30-23, on Saturday afternoon inside Lane Stadium.

Additionally, the Demon Deacons now have a record of 8-2 in the last 10 games played against schools from the state of Virginia. This includes at least one win in five of the last six seasons, dating back to the 2020 season. The win also marks the first victory for the Demon Deacons inside Lane Stadium since the 1983 season.

The Demon Deacons recorded nearly 350 yards of total offense, as senior running back Demond Claiborne had a touchdown score for the fourth-straight game while redshirt senior quarterback Robby Ashford completed 24 passes for 256 yards and a touchdown. Seven different Demon Deacons recorded a catch, led by senior Sawyer Racnelli, who hauled in three passes for 88 yards.

In addition, redshirt senior tight end Eni Falayi added five catches for 50 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown reception, his first as a Demon Deacon. Sophomore tailback Ty Clark added his first career touchdown as the Nashville native ran for 22 yards on four attempts.

Defensively, Wake Forest was led by a standout effort from redshirt sophomore Davaughn Patterson, who notched eight tackles with three solo efforts and a tackle-for-loss. Senior defensive back Nick Andersen also added seven tackles with two solo efforts, half a tackle for loss, and the game sealing pass breakup on fourth down with less than two minutes to play.

In total, the Demon Deacons defense limited the Hokies offense to 263 yards, including only 11 passing yards. The Deacs also came away with a takeaway in the first quarter, as junior Dallas Afalava recorded his first career interception, becoming the first Wake Forest defensive tackle to record an interception since Kevin Pointer did so against Virginia last season.

The Deacs will continue their road trip swing next weekend when Wake Forest travels to Corvallis, Ore. to face Oregon State on Saturday, Oct. 11 for a 3:30 p.m. ET kickoff on The CW. This will be the first ever game for the Demon Deacons in the state of Oregon.

OCTOBER 11 - RESER STADIUM - CORVALLIS, ORE. - ATTENDANCE - 29,710

CORVALLIS, ORE. - In the first meeting between the two schools, the Wake Forest football team (4-2, 1-2 ACC) captured a road victory over Oregon State (0-7, 0-0 PAC-12), defeating the Beavers, 39-14, on Saturday inside Reser Stadium.

With Saturday's win, Wake Forest improved to 2-0 on the road for the second consecutive season. Last year, the Deacs opened the season with three straight road victories—something they had previously accomplished only in 2021 and 2006 since 2000. Additionally, Wake Forest is now 5-2 on the road against non-conference opponents since 2020. Over the last five seasons, the Deacs have started 2-0 or better on the road in four of those five campaigns.

On Saturday in Corvallis, the Demon Deacons recorded over 450 yards of total offense, as senior running back Demond Claiborne tallied a rushing touchdown in his fifth-straight game as the Aylett, Va., native finished the afternoon with 144 yards on the ground.

Meanwhile, sophomore quarterback Deshawn Purdie completed 14 passes for 270 yards and four touchdowns in his first start at Wake Forest. With his performance on Saturday, the Baltimore product became the first Demon Deacons quarterback to throw for four touchdowns since Sam Hartman did so against North Carolina in 2022.

Six different Demon Deacons recorded a catch, led by redshirt freshman Chris Barnes, who hauled in three passes for 102 yards and three touchdowns. This marked the first time a Wake Forest wide receiver has recorded three receiving scores since AT Perry accomplished that feat against Syracuse in 2022.

Additionally, redshirt sophomore Micah Mays Jr. added a pair of catches for 69 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, Wake Forest was led by a standout effort from redshirt senior Nick Andersen, who notched nine tackles with five solo efforts.

Defensively, the Demon Deacons held the Beavers to just 309 total yards, including only 175 through the air. Redshirt senior linebacker Quincy Bryant led the way with seven tackles, while redshirt junior Langston Hardy added seven stops and a sack. Wake Forest also forced two turnovers, highlighted by an interception from defensive lineman Nuer Gatikouth, who finished with six tackles and a sack. Redshirt junior Mateen Igbiroga forced a fumble that was recovered by redshirt senior Jayden Loving.

Wake Forest has an open date next weekend and next plays at home on Saturday, Oct. 25 for its annual Homecoming Game against SMU in Allegacy Stadium. Tickets are on sale now with prices as low as $55 and there is a limited amount of Bojangles Four-Pack ticket packages that include four tickets, a Joel Coliseum lot parking pass and a $20 Bojangles gift card. Wake Forest Athletics is also offering a special $99 ticket package for a ticket to Homecoming and the North Carolina game on Nov. 15. OCTOBER 26 - ALLEGACY STADIUM - WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - ATTENDANCE - 28,358

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – Kicker Caleb Calvert drilled a 50-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Demon Deacons to a dramatic home victory, as the Wake Forest football team (5-2, 2-2 ACC) extended its winning streak to three games with a victory over SMU (5-3, 3-1 ACC), defeating the Mustangs, 13-12, on Saturday inside Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium.

The win marked a gritty, come-from-behind effort for Wake Forest, who trailed for much of the second half before rallying in the final minute behind quarterback Deshawn Purdie. The redshirt freshman engineered a clutch 25-yard drive in just 12 seconds, highlighted by a 25-yard strike to junior tight end Kameron Johnson that set up Calvert’s game-winning kick.

Wake’s defense held SMU to 246 yards of offense, the fewest in a game for the Mustangs since Nov. 28, 2015, against Memphis. The victory also snapped SMU’s streak of 20-straight conference wins in the regular season, including all 11 previous ACC contests and their final nine games as a member of the American.

This game served as the centerpiece of Wake Forest University’s Homecoming Weekend as the reunions and celebrations brought the community together to witness the game.

With Saturday’s win, Wake Forest completed a perfect October, including road wins over Virginia Tech and Oregon State.

Great value remains for the Demon Deacons two remaining home games at Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium! Fans still interested in purchasing tickets against North Carolina (Nov. 15) and Delaware (Nov. 22) can do so by clicking HERE.

NOVEMBER 1 - DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM - TALLAHASSEE, FLA. - ATTENDANCE - 63,667

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- Wake Forest football (5-3, 2-3 ACC) dropped a 42-7 contest at Florida State (4-4, 1-4 ACC) on Saturday night inside Doak Campbell Stadium.

The Demon Deacons amassed 247 yards of total offense on Saturday and a fourth quarter receiving touchdown from redshirt sophomore Micah Mays Jr. Individually, redshirt senior Robby Ashford was under-center for the Demon Deacons and completed 12 passes for 93 yards and he tallied 59 rushing yards on Saturday night. Meanwhile, Mays led the Deacs with five receptions for 51 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, the Deacs were led by redshirt senior Nick Andersen as the safety amassed 11 tackles and two tackles-for-loss. As a team, the Deacs tallied 10 tackles-for-loss tackles and three sacks, including a strip sack by defensive lineman Gabe Kirschke to set up the Mays’ touchdown.

Wake Forest hits the road again next week as the Demon Deacons play at No. 15 Virginia on Saturday, Nov. 8 with kickoff at Scott Stadium set for 7 p.m. on ESPN.

NOVEMBER 8 - SCOTT STADIUM - CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA. - ATTENDANCE - 55,568

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - Sparked by an 88-yard punt return touchdown from junior Carlos Hernandez in the second quarter and standout defensive performance that featured three takeaways and keeping the Cavaliers out of the end zone for the first time since 2022, Wake Forest (8-3, 3-3 ACC) earned a statement road win at No. 12 Virginia (8-2, 5-1 ACC) 16-9 on Saturday night at Scott Stadium to clinch bowl eligibility for the eighth time in the last 10 seasons.

Additionally in his first season in Winston-Salem, head coach Jake Dickert has already made history—becoming the first coach in Wake Forest history to lead the program to a bowl berth in his inaugural season.

Saturday's ranked win in Charlottesville marked the Demon Deacons first victory over a ranked opponent since defeating No. 22 Florida State on Oct. 1, 2022, and its first over a top-20 foe since topping No. 16 NC State 45-42 at Allegacy Stadium on Nov. 13, 2021. Overall, the win was Wake Forest's 18th all-time over a top-20 opponent and its highest-ranked road win since defeating No. 12 Georgia on Sept. 12, 1979.

From a coaching perspective, the Demon Deacons triumph gave head coach Jake Dickert his fourth career win over a ranked opponent and his first as the Demon Deacons' head coach. In his debut season in Winston-Salem, Dickert has already made program history, becoming the first coach to lead Wake Forest to a bowl berth in his inaugural year.

Within the white lines on Saturday, special teams was the spotlight for the Deacs. Redshirt freshman Connor Calvert nailed a 39-yard field goal in the second quarter, a 50-yard try in the third quarter, and a 49-yarder to secure the game in the fourth quarter. Additionally, Hernandez's aforementioned punt return for a touchdown was the second-longest in Wake Forest history and the game's only touchdown.

Defensively, the Demon Deacons were stout all night as linebacker Dylan Hazen logged a pair of fumble recoveries and a forced fumble, along with seven tackles and 1.5 tackles-for-loss. The Deacs forced three Virginia turnovers with a pair coming on forced fumbles by Wake's stellar defensive line, including one from redshirt junior Nuer Gatkuoth and another from junior Dallas Afalava.

Additionally, the Demon Deacons kept the Cavaliers out of the end zone for the first time since 2022 while also holding their high powered offense to over 100 yards fewer than their average yard per game this season.

Offensively, Wake Forest executed when it needed it most as senior running back Demond Claiborne rushed for 75 yards on 25 attempts, while redshirt senior quarterback Robby Ashford connected on seven passes for 46 yards while adding 57 yards on the ground.

This highly-anticipated matchup, which was broadcast nationally on ESPN, was a hard-hitting ACC football game that featured the two programs that have played the most one-score games in the league. The Demon Deacons improved to 4-1 in such games this fall while the Cavaliers fell to 4-2.

NOVEMBER 15 - ALLEGACY STADIUM - WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - ATTENDANCE - 32,390

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Led by a pair of touchdowns and a career-high 181 all-purpose yards from junior Carlos Hernandez, Wake Forest (7-3, 4-3 ACC) grabbed its first Big-4 win of the Jake Dickert era against North Carolina (4-6, 2-4 ACC) 28-12 on Saturday night in front of a sold out crowd at Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium. Coach Dickert's seven-win total is tied for the most by a first year head coach in program history (Bill Dooley, 1987).

Since 2001, Wake Forest football has been the best football program in the state of North Carolina as the Demon Deacons boast an overall record of 49-30 (.620) against all in-state opponents. The Deacs lead in win percentage in this category among its Big Four rivals.

Hernandez led the way for the Demon Deacons offense against the Tar Heels as he scored a pair of touchdowns, including a 51-yard fumble recovery and a 70-yard touchdown pass off a flea-flicker by quarterback Robby Ashford. The Alhambria, Calif., native finished the game with a team-high six catches and 100 yards.

Ashford and senior Demond Claiborne both added a touchdown run as the Deacs ran for 223 yards, marking their third 200-yard rushing game of the season. Claiborne ended the game with 98 yards, as well as two catches for 12 yards. Meanwhile, Ashford connected on 15 passes for 161 yards and he accounted for a pair of scores (one passing, one rushing).

Defensively, the Demon Deacons held the Tar Heels to only 56 yards rushing, well below their season average of 115 yards per game. Additionally, the Deacs became the first team to keep the North Carolina offense out of the end zone since 2016.

Junior linebacker Aiden Hall led the team with nine tackles with five solo efforts and a tackle-for-loss.

One more chance remains for fans to see the Deacs at Allegacy Stadium this fall with the season finale on Saturday, Nov. 22, against Delaware at 12 p.m. The game will be broadcast on ACC Network. The matchup will be just the third in series history and the first since the Deacs beat the Blue Hens 38-21 on September 17, 2016. Next Saturday's game will serve as the Demon Deacons annual Senior Day Game. Additionally, next Saturday's game will be the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools Educator Celebration Game for Wake Forest. Partnering with community-minded organizations – Allegacy Federal Credit Union, Proof of the Pudding, Pepsi, and Inmar Intelligence – Wake Forest will provide 3,000 sponsored packages for WSFCS teachers, staff, and their families. Each package includes a game ticket, complimentary stadium meal, parking, and a celebratory T-shirt, offering these dedicated educators a well-deserved day together inside Allegacy Stadium. This initiative also underscores the broader community effort to support and uplift Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools as they navigate current financial challenges.
