Home Conference Play Begins Thursday

No. 16 Washington (7-3-0) will begin Pac-12 home play on Thursday, Oct. 6 at 7 p.m. PT with a home match at Husky Stadium against Stanford (4-2-3). The Huskies will conclude the weekend on Sunday with a 4 p.m. PT match against California (4-3-1). Both matches will be aired live on the Pac-12 Network. Both matches will also be double-headers as they follow Washington Women's Soccer matches.

Husky Stadium Blackout

Thursday's match against the Cardinal will be a blackout for Husky fans. Fans are encouraged to wear black to match the team. Fans who wear black upon ticket purchase will receive one free ticket for a friend to the match.

Last Time Out

The Huskies beat the Bruins for the first time since 2012 last Thursday in a 4-0 shutout in Los Angeles. The Huskies saw goals from Garret Jackson and Justin Schmidt in the first four minutes of action, along with Handwalla Bwana in the 43th minute and Joey Parish in the 60th. The first two goals were scored off throw-ins from Steven Wright. Unable to continue the momentum of their four game winning streak, the team fell to SDSU on Sunday, 1-0 in overtime. With their strong defense, the Huskies were able to fight off the Aztec offense, but in the 91st a ball ricocheted off goalkeeper Auden Schilder, to end the match.

Last At Husky Soccer Stadium

Last time at home, the Washington Huskies battled for ninety minutes with Seattle University for the inaugural Seattle Cup presented by the Washington Athletics Conference. The Huskies took down the Redhawks, 2-1 in a match that came down to the final horn.

Handwalla Bwana scored the first goal of the match from the top of the box in the 27th minute, his third of the season. In the 53rd minute, fellow freshman Elijah Rice, earned his first goal of the season off an assist from Luke Hauswirth. Seattle University's, John Tyler, scored the Redhawks lone goal in the 88th minute.

On an Offensive Roll

Despite the loss to SDSU, the Huskies have been on an offensive roll, totaling 11 goals in their last four wins. The offensive game has several key players. Handwalla Bwana leads the team in goals with goals (4), scoring in the last three of four wins. Mason Robertson and David Coly both hold three goals on the season, Coly has two assists. Kyle Coffee has two assists and two goals for 2016 play thus far.

Everything Went Wright

At UCLA two identical goals were scored within the first four minutes. Both started with throw-ins from Steven Wright. The first was scored off a header from Garret Jackson (assisted by a header from Justin Schmidt), the second was a header from Schmidt less than a minute later. The UCLA goalkeeper allowed four goals out of nine shots.

Weekend of Records

Last week's match marked the team's first win against the Bruins since 2012. The four goal shutout is the largest margin of victory in conference play since their 7-0 shutout against California in 2000. Prior to the loss to the Aztecs last Sunday, the Huskies were on a four match win streak, the longest since their seven win streak in 2014 (record in 2014 was 12-5-3).

Scouting the Cardinal

Stanford is currently unranked for the first time in two years. The Cardinal's offense is led by Foster Langsdorf who has scored six times in his last five matches. The team is currently made of 15 returning letter winners and five newcomers. The squad is currently 4-2-3 overall and 1-0-0 in the conference.

The Series with Stanford

Washington is 17-33-5 in 55 all-time meetings with the Cardinal. Last season, the Huskies broke Stanford's eight win streak when their match ended in a 0-0 draw. Later in the season on Nov. 2, the Huskies shatter the Cardinal's 66 day unbeaten streak when they won at home in Seattle, 2-1. It was the longest streak in Stanford history.

Scouting the Bears

California enters the week having just lost to Stanford. The team is led by trio Nick Lima, Christian Thierjung and Jose Carrera-Garcia, who were all named on Top Drawer's National Top 100 list in the preseason. The team has five freshmen, including Simon Lekressner from Bellevue, Wash. The squad is 4-3-1 overall and 0-1 in the conference.

The Series with California

Washington is 27-18-10 all-time with the Bears. The series last ended with a loss for the Huskies, 0-1.

Starting 11

Two Huskies have started all ten matches this season - Steven Wright and Luke Hauswirth. Wright has played 731 minutes while Hauswirth has played 846 minutes. Wright has one goal and two assists on the season. Hauswirth has one assist.

In the Rankings

After their four win streak, the Dawgs have entered the rankings. They are currently ranked No. 16 in the NSCAA poll and No. 25 in the Top Drawer Soccer's Top 25. The squad is currently third in the conference behind SDSU (2-0) and Stanford (1-0).

Surpassed Goals

Last season proved to be an offensive struggle for the Huskies. In the entire 2015 season the team scored 18 goals. In the ten matches this season they have already surpassed that amount by scoring 19.

In the Net

Redshirt junior Auden Schilder will most likely get the nod in the upcoming week after starting and playing in nine of ten full matches this season. He has a record of 6-3 on the season.

A Look at the Dawgs

Summer was very beneficial for the Huskies. The team took advantage of the time off school and voluntarily worked to improve their fitness and ball handling. The 2016 men's soccer team includes nine freshmen newcomers and 20 returners. The backline made of Justin Schmidt, Quentin Pearson, Luke Hauswirth and Justin Fiddes, who allowed only 13 goals in all season, returns fully intact. Mason Robertson will be returning after spending the majority of the 2015 on the bench due to a leg injury. Henry Wingo and Kyle Coffee will be returning as key attackers for the Huskies.

Nation's Top 100

Junior and Seattle native, Henry Wingo, has earned the No. 57 spot on Tap Drawer Soccer's Top 100 list. Last season he played in all 19 games in 2015, starting in 17. He was named to the NSCAA All-Far West Region Third Team, earned All-Pac-12 Second Team honors as well as given Second Team Academic All-Pac-12 honors. Wingo led the Dawgs with 50 shots and had a team-leading 18 shots on goal. Most recently, Wingo was named on the 2016 Preseason Men's Soccer All-Pac-12 Team.

2016 Captains

This season, the Dawgs will be led by senior captains Justin Schmidt, Beau Blanchard and Auden Schilder. The trio embodies the mentality Coach Clark expects from his players. Their leadership and dedication to the team show on and off the field. Last season Blanchard saw action in all 19 games, with eight starts. He scored the team's only goal in the season opener against Gonzaga, leading the team to a win. Schmidt started in 18 games and was named to the NSCAA All-Far West Region First Team. Schmidt played a team-high of 1,737 minutes in the season with 5 points scored in the season. Schilder, in 2015, only allowed one goal in his 135 minute total playing time.

Dawgs on the Pac-12

The Pac-12 Networks are set to televise 10 of Washington's 19 matches, including nine of the Dawgs' 10 conference contests. Washington's first appearance on the Network is a nonconference match against Seattle University set for Sept. 25 at 5 p.m. PST.
