HEAD COACH MIKE NEIGHBORS

FOURTH SEASON

Mike Neighbors enters his fourth season as the head coach at Washington and sixth with the Huskies overall. He was promoted to head coach on April 21, 2013. He had previously worked as the top assistant coach for two seasons with the Huskies.

In just three seasons at the helm, Neighbors has built the Huskies into a national contender, amassing a 71-35 record, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament, punctuated by last season's historic run to the Final Four. Last year's Huskies won 26 games, the most at UW since 1990, while also advancing to the semifinals of the Pac-12 Tournament. The Dawgs entered the NCAA's as a No. 7 seed, defeating No. 10-seed Pennsylvania, No. 2 Maryland, No. 3 Kentucky and No. 4 Stanford to reach the Final Four.

He has mentored UW's all-time leading scorer in Kelsey Plum who was a 2016 USBWA All-American, a WBCA All-American, a Wooden Award All-American, a third team AP All-American and a ESPW second team All-American. Plum finished the season 2,418 points while also breaking the 20-year old Pac-12 career record for free throws made (676).

In 2014-15, the Dawgs made their first trip to the NCAA tournament in eight seasons. Washington won 23 games, which was at the time, the most since 1995 and defeated five teams ranked in the top-25 at some point during the season. Those wins included beating No. 5 Texas A&M, No. 7 Oregon State and Florida State who finished with a No. 7 ranking and made the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

Neighbors record now includes wins over 16 ranked teams in three seasons, while owning a career Pac-12 winning percentage of .592 (32-22), which ranks third among active conference coaches behind only Tara Vanderveer and Lindsay Gottlieb.

In 2015, the Dawgs also earned their first national ranking since 2003 when they earned a spot in the top-25 of the Coaches Poll. The Huskies were named midseason as one of the top-20 teams in the country in the NCAA Tournament Early Look. The Dawgs would go on to earn a No. 6 seed in the NCAA's, traveling to Iowa City where they were upset by No. 11 Miami in an exciting up-tempo game that went down to the final possessions.

In his first year at the helm of the Husky program, Neighbors led the Dawgs to a third-straight 20-win season and trip to the quarterfinals of the WNIT. Washington finished 20-14, including 10-8 in the Pac-12. The Dawgs defeated five teams that were ranked at some point during the season, including an upset of then-No. 3 Stanford at Alaska Airlines Arena in front of a nationally televised audience. The win ended the 58-game road conference winning streak of the Cardinal.

HEAD COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

OVERALL RECORD: 71-35 (.670)

POSTSEASON: 2 NCAA appearances (2015, 2016), 1 NIT (2014)

SWEET SIXTEEN APPEARANCE: 1 (2016)

ELITE EIGHT APPEARANCE: 1 (2016)

FINAL FOUR APPEARANCE: 1 (2016)

OVERALL POSTSEASON RECORD: 7-3 (.700)

Neighbors has overseen the development of several individuals, including Jazmine Davis who was named All-Pac-12 First Team all four seasons, becoming the first player in Washington history to achieve that distinction. Under Neighbors' tutelage, Davis would also become the Dawgs all-time leading scorer, while breaking nearly every school offensive record in the process. Neighbors also has continued to develop two other players that would break major school records with Aminah Williams and Talia Walton taking down the school's all-time rebounding and blocked shots records.

Previously as an assistant, Neighbors worked with the team's guards, including Davis who through two seasons has scored more points than any Husky in school history. He was regarded as one of the country's best defensive and player-development specialists.

In 2013, Neighbors helped the Huskies to a second-straight 20-win season and a return trip to the WNIT. Washington finished 21-12, including 11-7 in the Pac-12, good for a fifth-place finish.

In his first year at UW, Neighbors assisted the Husky women to a 20-14 season and trip to the quarterfinals of the WNIT. It was the first 20-win season for UW since 2002-03. Neighbors also saw the development of guard Jazmine Davis, who was named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year after averaging 15.7 points for the season.

Neighbors' accomplishments in women's basketball speak for themselves. He's helped sign nine McDonald's All-Americans, including Deja Strother who joins Katie Collier and Plum as McDonald's All-Americans on the Huskies roster. He has seen nine of his players drafted in the WNBA, including three who have won WNBA Championships. Everywhere Neighbors has coached, he's overseen the development of either the No. 1 or No. 2 all-time leading scorer in program history, most recently with Plum at UW. Neighbors is a regular speaker at coaching conventions and clinics around the nation, and his weekly newsletter is popular with coaches at all levels.

Neighbors came to Seattle after four seasons at Xavier, where he worked with former Huskies coach Kevin McGuff. During Neighbors' tenure in Cincinnati, he helped mold a Musketeers program that established itself as one of the best in the nation. Neighbors was named one of basketballcoop.com's "Rising Stars" in 2009, an award that recognizes assistant coaches who are some of the best in the business.

While at Xavier, Neighbors was a part of a coaching staff that produced some of the best seasons in school history. During the 2009-10 season, the Musketeers posted a 30-4 record, including a flawless 14-0 season in Atlantic-10 Conference play. Xavier ended the season ranked No. 5 in the polls. In addition, Xavier advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

In his final year at Xavier, Neighbors helped lead the program to a 29-3 record and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Second Round. During his tenure at Xavier, Neighbors was part of a staff that compiled a 61-5 non-conference record (108-22 overall), captured three A-10 Tournaments, three A-10 Regular Season Champs, and competed in four straight NCAA Tournaments.

Neighbors is also considered an excellent recruiter, and helped the Musketeers ink the No. 18 rated class of 2010 according to ESPN Hoopgurlz.

As the coach responsible for developing post players, Neighbors was instrumental in the growth of Amber Harris and Ta'Shia Phillips, two of the best players in Musketeer history. Harris, a 6-5 forward, was a two-time State Farm All-America selection and was drafted fourth overall by the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx. Meanwhile, Phillips was noted as one of the premier defensive players in the nation. The 6-6 center was the leading rebounder in XU history, in addition to her numerous national accolades.

Neighbors came to XU from the University of Arkansas, where he was an assistant coach for a season, his second stint in Fayetteville. Prior to returning to his alma mater, Neighbors was an assistant coach at the University of Colorado and the University of Tulsa, both under Kathy McConnell-Miller. In Boulder, Neighbors helped develop the school's all-time leading scorer in Brittany Spears, a 2011 WNBA draft selection. At Tulsa, Neighbors was an assistant on the up-and-coming Hurricane's program that enjoyed back-to-back postseason appearances.

A native of Greenwood, Ark., Neighbors received his bachelor's degree from the University of Arkansas in 1993. Following his graduation, Neighbors was a director of basketball operations for the women's basketball program, serving under legendary coach Gary Blair, who won the NCAA Championship in 2011 with Texas A&M. Before moving into the collegiate ranks, Neighbors was a highly successful head coach in the Arkansas girls' high school ranks. His most notable achievement was taking a 1-24 Bentonville team to the State Championships two years later.

Neighbors has two children, one daughter Abby and a son Alec. He lives in Seattle.

ASSISTANT COACH MORGAN VALLEY

Morgan Valley is in her second season as an assistant women's basketball coach at the University of Washington in 2016-17 after being hired in August of 2015. The three-time NCAA Champion at the University of Connecticut has a deep tradition of winning at the highest level of collegiate women's basketball.

During her first season on the Washington staff, Valley helped guide the team to an historic run to the Final Four. The Huskies won 26 games, the most at Washington since 1990, while also advancing to the semifinals of the Pac-12 Tournament. The Huskies entered the NCAA's as a No. 7 seed, defeating No. 10-seed Pennsylvania, No. 2 Maryland, No. 3 Kentucky and No. 4 Stanford to reach the Final Four.

"We challenge our players on a daily basis to surround themselves with 'championship people'," said Neighbors. "We did just that with the addition of Morgan Valley to our program today. I have racked my brain trying to think of another assistant coach in the game that was a two-time high school All-American and won three NCAA Championships."

can and won three NCAA Championships."

Valley began coaching immediately after completing her eligibility, serving as a student assistant at UConn under Geno Auriemma. She then moved on to Holy Cross (2005-07), Towson, New Hampshire, University of Massachusetts (2010-14) and most recently Virginia Tech, working her way up from a graduate assistant to a full-time coach.

Valley played for some of the best teams in NCAA women's basketball history, winning a then-record 70-straight games at UConn to go with the three national titles. A guard for the Huskies from 2000 to 2004, Valley was a BIG EAST All-Star in 2001 and finished her career by helping UConn to a 139-8 record.

Known for her intelligence, leadership and hard work on the court, the transition to the sideline was a natural for Valley following her playing career.

"Morgan has worked tirelessly from a graduate assistant to every chair as a full time assistant at five Universities to break the stigma that great players can't become great coaches," said Neighbors. "Her experiences and relationships that she has developed in her 16 years in the game will be unique for our current and future student-athletes to learn from."

Valley has a Bachelor's Degree in Human Development and Family Studies from Connecticut.

"To bring a seasoned coach like Morgan speaks loudly to the commitment the University of Washington and our athletic department has made to women's basketball," said Neighbors. "Help us in welcoming the newest Dawg to the Pack."

What Valley's colleagues are saying...

"Morgan was one of the hardest working and smartest players we have had. It's no coincidence that she has had success as a coach. UW is getting a great person who's driven, passionate and loyal. Morgan will have a tremendous impact on the Huskies program." -- Hall of Fame Coach Geno Auriemma

"Morgan is one of the hardest working assistant coaches in the country. She has a passion for the game, a talent for player evaluation and loves recruiting. Most importantly, she is loyal and will be a great addition to the Washington Huskies staff." -- UConn Associate Head Coach Chris Dailey

"Morgan is the most passionate and hard-working individual I have met in the game of basketball in my 20 years. As a freshman at UConn, she taught me what it was to be focused and determined to reach your maximum potential. She brings the best out of people in so many ways. University of Washington has added a championship mentality in a flash!" -- WNBA Star Diana Taurasi

"To this day I don't know anyone that can match Morgan's work ethic and passion for the game. Morgan was a great teammate but most importantly a loyal friend. If I was going to war she would be the one that I want by my side. The University of Washington got a True Champion!" -- Seattle Storm Legend Sue Bird

ASSISTANT COACH TODD SCHAEFER

Fresh off of a Final Four run, University of Washington head coach Mike Neighbors has announced the hiring of Todd Schaefer as an assistant coach for the women's basketball program. Schaefer comes to Seattle after spending the last three seasons at the University of Mississippi.

"Todd and I have been trying to work together for 17 years," said Neighbors. "We tried to team up various times but the timing was never right. I couldn't be more excited to step onto the court as a team with him. His experience will benefit every student-athlete in our program. On the court, he is passionate about skill development and helping everyone reach their maximum potential and off the court he is a perfect cultural fit. He gives us another father figure to help insure our Huskies use their four years with us to best attack the next 40 years. I am excited for our Husky fans to get to know Coach Schaefer and his family and welcome them to UW."

"I want to thank Coach Neighbors for the opportunity to join the Husky program," said Schaefer. "The chance to work with Mike is something I have wanted to do for some time now and to be asked to join the Huskies coming off the season they just had is very humbling. I am more than ready to get to work and I would also like to thank my wife Lisa and my three boys for supporting this move Seattle, we can't wait to meet all the Husky fans."

In just three years as the head coach at Washington, Neighbors' coaching tree grew following the 2015-16 season as assistants Adia Barnes and Fred Castro took head coaching jobs at Arizona and Eastern Michigan, respectively. Additionally, former staff under Neighbors have gone on to work at the University of Portland (Megan Osmer) and StonyBrook (Adam Call).

Schaefer worked primarily with the Rebel guards and wing players at Ole Miss. During the 2015-16 season, Schaefer helped sophomore Shandricka Sessom blossom. Sessom, who averaged just 5.3 points per game as a freshman, was Ole Miss' leading scorer as a sophomore scoring 15.6 points per game. Schaefer also helped develop freshman Madinah Muhammad. Muhammad was Ole Miss' top scoring freshman with 7.5 points per game – a number that increased to 8.4 points per game against SEC competition and was second to just Sessom.

The 2015-16 season also saw three-point specialist, freshman Torri Lewis set the Tad Smith Coliseum single-game record by drilling 10 three-pointers against New Orleans. Lewis joins former Ole Miss men's player Marshall Henderson as the only players to record double-digit three-point field goals.

Schaefer went to Oxford with 18 years of coaching experience at various levels following two years at Arkansas State.

At Arkansas State, Schaefer's duties included working with the Red Wolves' perimeter players, opponent scouting and video. During the 2012-13 season with the Red Wolves, the team finished second in the Sun Belt Conference West Division and won 12 conference games.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Schaefer came to Arkansas State after serving two seasons (2009-11) as the head coach at Greenbrier (Ark.) High School. Before coaching at Greenbrier, Schaefer was an assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati from 2007-09, where he coordinated the Bearcat offense and served as the director of opponent scouting, among other duties.

Prior to his time at Cincinnati, he spent three seasons at Arkansas Tech, including two as head coach during the 2005-07 seasons. While head coach at Arkansas Tech, he led the Golden Suns to a road victory over the top-ranked team in Division II basketball and a berth in the 2007 NCAA Division II Regional Tournament. He also spent 1999-2004 as the head coach at Christian Brothers University in Memphis, Tenn., where he led the Lady Buccaneers to their first-ever berth in the Gulf South Conference Tournament. Four years later, Schaefer directed CBU to the GSC West Division title and to the NCAA South Regional Tournament for the first time in school history.

Before coaching at CBU, he spent two seasons as head coach at Allen County Community College and two seasons as an assistant at Western Illinois.

Schaefer earned his Bachelor of Arts degree while majoring in English at Thomas More College in Crestview, Ky., where he was a student assistant basketball coach and a member of the football team. He and his wife, Lisa, have three sons, Landon, Will and Jake.

ASSISTANT COACH JASMINE LISTER

Former WNBA player and Vanderbilt graduate, Jasmine Lister enters her first season as an assistant coach at the University of Washington. Lister has spent the last two years as a graduate assistant on Geno Auriemma's staff at Connecticut as the Huskies took home back-to-back national titles.

"You don't have to look too deeply into Jasmine Lister's basketball journey to find excellence," said Neighbors. "One doesn't start every game of her career at Vanderbilt, play more minutes than anyone in the history of the program, earn All-SEC accolades on the court and in the classroom, play professional basketball in the WNBA, then win two consecutive NCAA Championships with UCONN without having excellence. Now that she's a Husky, we're excited for her to have the opportunity to mentor our student-athletes and share how she was able to be successful at a high level – through hard work and sacrifice."

"I'm really excited for the opportunity that Coach Neighbors has presented and I can't wait to get started," said Lister. "This program has really reached some new heights under Coach Neighbors' guidance the last couple of years and I'm ready to be a part of it and contribute the best that I can. I'm looking forward to working with this great staff and with the talented group of student-athletes that are a part of our program."

Lister competed collegiately at Vanderbilt from 2010-14, where she earned her BA degree in Women's and Gender Studies. She left Nashville as one of the most durable players in program history. She started every single game of her career (129), shattered Vandy's record for minutes played (4,626) and was named to one of the All-SEC teams each season she competed along with earning WBCA All-American Honorable Mention honors as a senior.

While Lister was at Vanderbilt, the Commodores didn't miss the NCAA Tournament once and advanced as far as the second round twice. Following her stellar career in Nashville, Lister spent the 2014 WNBA preseason in training camp here in Seattle with the Storm before accepting the position on Auriemma's staff in Storrs. When the 2015 WNBA season started, the Los Angeles Sparks called and the 5-4 guard saw action in seven games during that season.

She recently finished her Master's Degree in Sports Management at UCONN after helping the Huskies to their 10th and 11th NCAA titles.

I have seen her dominate a game scoring 40 points and seen her dominate a game scoring two points. I saw her get 15 rebounds in a half. I saw her defend some of the nation's best guards.
