HUSKY HARBOR MOORAGE LOCATIONS

Husky Harbor Boat Moorage Policies

- Moorage permits are sold, issued, and collected through the Boat Moorage Manager and must be purchased prior to game day.
- Moorage is assigned based on boat length overall. Positions within designated areas are a first come, first served basis.
- Applications for single game permits must reach the Boat Moorage Manager at least one week before the game that the permit is needed in order to distribute the permit before game day.
- Only boats displaying a valid moorage permit will be permitted to enter Husky Harbor.
- Large boats in areas C, D & E (are recommended to have) a passerelle (about 12' x 2') for off loading and may be asked to drop anchor to help secure the float.
- Dinghies ARE NOT permitted in Husky Harbor and should not be attached to boats that will be mooring on the Husky Harbor docks on game day. If you arrive at the Husky Harbor docks with a dinghy attached to your boat on game day, you will be asked to turn-in your permit and vacate the premissis.
- No overnight moorage is allowed in Husky Harbor.
- Season pass permit applications are available March 1st and single game permits are available beginning August 1st.
- The University of Washington ICA is not responsible for lost or stolen permits.
