UW (2-1) vs. VIRGINIA TECH (2-1)

UW wraps up its time in NYC at the 2K Sports Classic benefiting the Wounded Warrior Project on Friday as it will face Virginia Tech in the consolation game at 2 p.m. PT at Madison Square Garden. The game will be televised on ESPN2 with Jon Sciambi and Sean Farnham on the call. Additionally fans can tune into KOMO 1000AM and 97.7 FM to hear the official UW radio broadcast from Tony Castricone and Jason Hamilton. The Huskies have faced Virginia Tech (ACC) just once in program history, 33 years ago, falling 77-88 on Dec. 21, 1974 at the Michigan Invitational in Ann Arbor.

THE COACH

Head Coach Mike Hopkins is starting his first year at Washington, and first as a head coach becoming the 19th head coach in UW history. After spending 22 years as an assistant at Syracuse, Hopkins oversaw teams that reached the NCAA Tournament 16 times including the 2003 National Championship, four Final Fours, five Elite Eights and 10 Sweet 16s along with four NIT berths. Syracuse never dipped below a 55.0 percent record while Hopkins was on staff.

QUICK HITTERS

• Washington has had 10 or more steals in two of its three games ... last season Washington recorded just three total games of 10 or more steals in 31 outings

• The Dawgs have four players averaging double-figures in Jaylen Nowell (18.7), Noah Dickerson (18.3), David Crisp (13.0) and Matisse Thybulle (12.7).

• The last time two players averaged 18 points or more over the first three outings was the 2015-16 season - Andrew Andrews (19.7) and Marquese Chriss (18.7)

• UW has outrebounded all three of its opponents to start the season

• Noah Dickerson is averaging a double-double over his first three outings with 18.3 points and 10.7 rebounds ... he's led the team in scoring in back-to-back games

• Matisse Thybulle's minutes have seen a massive increase this season, averaging 37.0 per game compared to 29.8 as a sophomore and 24.1 as a freshman.

• David Crisp's 137 career 3-point FG's made currently rank eighth on UW's all-time list and are seven shy of seventh place (Justin Dentmon, 144, 2006-09).

• Jaylen Nowell's career-high six steals tie for the third-most in a single game in program history (the school record is nine set by radio analyst Jason Hamilton - 11/28/96)

• Sam Timmins led the Huskies in rebounding against Providence for the first time this season with eight ... six of those came on the offensive glass

• This is Washington's first trip to NYC and MSG since the 2013-14 season when it played in same event

• The only current player to have played a game on the MSG court is Noah Dickerson who won two Dick's Sporting Goods National Championships when he was with Montverde Academy (Fla) in 2014 and 2015 before joining UW

• Junior Noah Dickerson recorded 22 rebounds and added 28 points against EWU, both career highs ... his 22 rebounds were the most by a UW player since Steve Hawes had 22 against Stanford (2/26/72) and they also tied for the fourth most in a game in program history

• Freshman Jaylen Nowell recorded 32 points in his Husky debut, the most points by any UW freshman in their first outing ... it is also the second-straight year a UW freshman has scored 30 or more in their debut as Markelle Fultz had 30 a year ago

• Junior Matisse Thybulle has started in 68-straight games, which is the longest streak since Abdul Gaddy started 69-straight games over the 2011-12, 2012-13 season.

2017-18 UW Men's BASKETBALL – COACH MIKE HOPKINS

COACH MIKE HOPKINS (1ST YEAR)

Mike Hopkins took over the helm of the University of Washington men's basketball program, UW Director of Athletics Jennifer Cohen announced on March 19, 2017. Hopkins comes to Washington from Syracuse University, where he spent 22 seasons alongside Hall of Fame coach Jim Boeheim. In 2015 Syracuse named him head coach designate, set to take over the Orange program after Boeheim's retirement following the 2017-18 season.

"I'm extremely excited to welcome Mike and his family to Seattle," Cohen said. "His resume and reputation within the basketball community made him stand out to us, but ultimately it was his vision for Washington, his passion for teaching and developing student-athletes and his close alignment with the core values of our institution and department that made it more than clear that he was the right fit for us."

Hopkins, 47, had been a member of the Syracuse Orange coaching staff since 1995 and will be the 19th head coach in Washington Basketball history.

"The University of Washington is such a unique place, with a world-class University, an exciting basketball history and unbelievable fan support," Hopkins said. "Together, I believe we can build something very special in Seattle, and I can't wait to get started."

During his time in New York, Syracuse advanced to postseason play in all but one year. He was a part of 16 NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 2003 National Championship, four Final Fours, five Elite Eights and 10 Sweet 16s, along with four NIT berths. Additionally, Syracuse never dipped below a .550 record while Hopkins was on staff.

"I can't express enough thanks to Coach Boeheim for so many years of mentorship and guidance," Hopkins said. "The timing is right for me and my family to make this move."

With the Orange, Hopkins spent his time in New York heavily involved in recruiting and overseeing the development of the SU guards before switching to overseeing the posts during the last four years. He played a key role in the recruitment and success of Carmelo Anthony, Rakeem Christmas, Johnny Flynn, Jason Hart, Gerry McNamara, Andy Rautins and many more who all were able to pursue professional basketball careers either in the NBA or overseas. Additionally, six players earned consensus All-American honors while Hopkins was on staff.

The Syracuse alum not only made an impact with the Orange, but he also played a major role in the success of Team USA Basketball. Hopkins has been a court coach for nine various Team USA staffs which have gone on to win six championships.

He first started with the 21-and-under team in 2000 and 2001 helping with player evaluation for the club that went on to win gold. In 2006, he was with the Senior Men's team before rejoining the staff in 2010 where he travelled with the team en route to their World Championship Title in Turkey.
