HEAD COACH MIKE NEIGHBORS

FOURTH SEASON

Mike Neighbors enters his fourth season as the head coach at Washington and sixth with the Huskies overall. He was promoted to head coach on April 21, 2013. He had previously worked as the top assistant coach for two seasons with the Huskies.

In just three seasons at the helm, Neighbors has built the Huskies into a national contender, amassing a 95-39 record, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament, punctuated by last season's historic run to the Final Four. Last year's Huskies won 26 games, the most at UW since 1990, while also advancing to the semifinals of the Pac-12 Tournament. The Dawgs entered the NCAA's as a No. 7 seed, defeating No. 10-seed Pennsylvania, No. 2 Maryland, No. 3 Kentucky and No. 4 Stanford to reach the Final Four.

He has mentored UW's all-time leading scorer in Kelsey Plum who was a 2016 USBWA All-American, a WBCA All-American, a Wooden Award All-American, a third team AP All-American and ESPW second team All-American. Plum finished the season 2,418 points while also breaking the 20-year old Pac-12 career record for free throws made (676).

In 2014-15, the Dawgs made their first trip to the NCAA tournament in eight seasons. Washington won 23 games, which was at the time, the most since 1995 and defeated five teams ranked in the top-25 at some point during the season. Those wins included beating No. 5 Texas A&M, No. 7 Oregon State and Florida State who finished with a No. 7 ranking and made the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

Neighbors record now includes wins over 16 ranked teams in three seasons, while owning a career Pac-12 winning percentage of .592 (32-22), which ranks third among active conference coaches behind only Tara Vanderveer and Lindsay Gottlieb.

In 2015, the Dawgs also earned their first national ranking since 2003 when they earned a spot in the top-25 of the Coaches Poll. The Huskies were named midseason as one of the top-20 teams in the country in the NCAA Tournament Early Look. The Dawgs would go on to earn a No. 6 seed in the NCAA's, traveling to Iowa City where they were upset by No. 11 Miami in an exciting up-tempo game that went down to the final possessions.

In his first year at the helm of the Husky program, Neighbors led the Dawgs to a third-straight 20-win season and trip to the quarterfinals of the WNIT. Washington finished 20-14, including 10-8 in the Pac-12. The Dawgs defeated five teams that were ranked at some point during the season, including an upset of then-No. 3 Stanford at Alaska Airlines Arena in front of a nationally televised audience. The win ended the 58-game road conference winning streak of the Cardinal.

Neighbors has overseen the development of several individuals, including Jazmine Davis who was named All-Pac-12 First Team all four seasons, becoming the first player in Washington history to achieve that distinction. Under Neighbors' tutelage, Davis would also become the Dawgs all-time leading scorer, while breaking nearly every school offensive record in the process. Neighbors also has continued to develop two other players that would break major school records with Aminah Williams and Talia Walton taking down the school's all-time rebounding and blocked shots records.

Previously as an assistant, Neighbors worked with the team's guards, including Davis who through two seasons has scored more points than any Husky in school history. He was regarded as one of the country's best defensive and player-development specialists.

In 2013, Neighbors helped the Huskies to a second-straight 20-win season and a return trip to the WNIT. Washington finished 21-12, including 11-7 in the Pac-12, good for a fifth-place finish.

In his first year at UW, Neighbors assisted the Husky women to a 20-14 season and trip to the quarterfinals of the WNIT. It was the first 20-win season for UW since 2002-03. Neighbors also saw the development of guard Jazmine Davis, who was named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year after averaging 15.7 points for the season.

Neighbors' accomplishments in women's basketball speak for themselves. He's helped sign nine McDonald's All-Americans, including Deja Strother who joins Katie Collier and Plum as McDonald's All-Americans on the Huskies roster. He has seen nine of his players drafted in the WNBA, including three who have won WNBA Championships. Everywhere Neighbors has coached, he's overseen the development of either the No. 1 or No. 2 all-time leading scorer in program history, most recently with Plum at UW. Neighbors is a regular speaker at coaching conventions and clinics around the nation, and his weekly newsletter is popular with coaches at all levels.

Neighbors came to Seattle after four seasons at Xavier, where he worked with former Huskies coach Kevin McGuff. During Neighbors' tenure in Cincinnati, he helped mold a Musketeers program that established itself as one of the best in the nation. Neighbors was named one of basketballcoop.com's "Rising Stars" in 2009, an award that recognizes assistant coaches who are some of the best in the business.

While at Xavier, Neighbors was a part of a coaching staff that produced some of the best seasons in school history. During the 2009-10 season, the Musketeers posted a 30-4 record, including a flawless 14-0 season in Atlantic-10 Conference play. Xavier ended the season ranked No. 5 in the polls. In addition, Xavier advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

In his final year at Xavier, Neighbors helped lead the program to a 29-3 record and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Second Round. During his tenure at Xavier, Neighbors was part of a staff that compiled a 61-5 non-conference record (108-22 overall), captured three A-10 Tournaments, three A-10 Regular Season Champs, and competed in four straight NCAA Tournaments.

Neighbors is also considered an excellent recruiter, and helped the Musketeers ink the No. 18 rated class of 2010 according to ESPN Hoopgurlz.

As the coach responsible for developing post players, Neighbors was instrumental in the growth of Amber Harris and Ta'Shia Phillips, two of the best players in Musketeer history. Harris, a 6-5 forward, was a two-time State Farm All-America selection and was drafted fourth overall by the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx. Meanwhile, Phillips was noted as one of the premier defensive players in the nation. The 6-6 center was the leading rebounder in XU history, in addition to her numerous national accolades.

Neighbors came to XU from the University of Arkansas, where he was an assistant coach for a season, his second stint in Fayetteville. Prior to returning to his alma mater, Neighbors was an assistant coach at the University of Colorado and the University of Tulsa, both under Kathy McConnell-Miller. In Boulder, Neighbors helped develop the school's all-time leading scorer in Brittany Spears, a 2011 WNBA draft selection. At Tulsa, Neighbors was an assistant on the up-and-coming Hurricane's program that enjoyed back-to-back postseason appearances.

A native of Greenwood, Ark., Neighbors received his bachelor's degree from the University of Arkansas in 1993. Following his graduation, Neighbors was a director of basketball operations for the women's basketball program, serving under legendary coach Gary Blair, who won the NCAA Championship in 2011 with Texas A&M. Before moving into the collegiate ranks, Neighbors was a highly successful head coach in the Arkansas girls' high school ranks. His most notable achievement was taking a 1-24 Bentonville team to the State Championships two years later.

Neighbors has two children, one daughter Abby and a son Alec. He lives in Seattle.

- Came off the bench and scored eight points with two triples against Savannah State (Dec. 18)
- Tallied six points behind two three-pointers in games against Colorado State (Nov. 14) and Idaho (Nov. 22)

ABOUT AMBER: At 5-foot-10-inches, Melgoza is an agile off-guard who displays a smooth stroke in mid-range and behind the arc. The freshman is a versatile player who can also rebound, handle the ball and attack in transition.

Melgoza played at Santa Barbara High School and with the Cal Storm. As a senior, she averaged 26.3 points per game and 8.7 rebounds per game after averaging 33.5 points per game and 8.7 rebounds per game as a junior and earning the CIF Division III Player of the Year award. Melgoza also earned MaxPreps All-State First Team honors for Division II in California and was named the Presidio Sports All-City Player of the Year. The Santa Barbara, Calif. native has proven she can score with games of 50, 48 and 47 points as a junior, all breaking the school record. She became just the fourth player in CIF Southern Section history to score 1,000 points in a season, joining Cheryl Miller, Guiliana Mendiola and Amy Jalewalia.

FRESHMAN (2016-17): Sidelined with knee injury.

ABOUT GIGI: At 6-foot-2-inches, Garcia is a versatile player who will add additional size and athleticism in the frontcourt. Garcia played her high school ball at CK McClatchey in Sacramento, Calif. and AAU for one of the top travel programs in the country, JBS (Just Believe Sports). The forward was the No. 89 player and 20th-ranked forward by prospectsnation.com.

As a junior, she averaged 17.7 points and 11.3 rebounds per game, leading McClatchey to a 27-7 record, including 7-1 in the playoffs and capped the season as the region's only state champion. Garcia had 19 points, 20 rebounds, four assists and three steals in the title game as the Lions became the first Sacramento City Unified School District girls' team to win a state title.

For her efforts, Garcia was named the Sacramento Bee All-Metro Player of the Year in 2015. The Sacramento, Calif. native also earned honorable mention honors for the All Division California All-State Team and Second Team for Division I by MaxPreps.

After tearing two ligaments, including her ACL, in her knee during a summer league game, Garcia missed her senior season, but has been working hard to get back to full strength for her freshman debut in the Purple and Gold.

NEIGHBORS ON GARCIA:

"Gigi Garcia has a unique combination of size and athleticism. Her height makes you think post, but her agility makes you think guard. She can impact a game in so many ways scoring, rebounding, blocking shots. Her versatility fits our identity perfectly."

PERSONAL: Daughter of Aaron Garcia, who played quarterback for 19 seasons in the Arena Football League, and Shelby Boudreaux, who played basketball at Sacramento State.
