#6/6 WASHINGTON vs. FRESNO STATE Dawgs Wrap Up Non-Conference Season Vs. Bulldogs

THE GAME: The Washington football team (2-0) wraps up the non-conference schedule this Saturday as Fresno State (1-1) visits Husky Stadium for a 6:30 p.m. game, which will air on Pac-12 Network. The Huskies have opened the season with wins at Rutgers and home against Montana while the Bulldogs, under first-year head coach Jeff Tedford (who spent last season at the UW as a consultant), opened with a win vs. Incarnate Word and a loss to No. 1 Alabama. The Huskies are ranked No. 6 in both of the latest polls. After Saturday's game, the Huskies open Pac-12 play with back-to-back road games, Sept. 23 at Colorado and Sept. 30 at Oregon State.

QUICK SLANTS: Washington's Dante Pettis tied the Pac-12 record with his sixth career punt return for a touchdown, with a 61-yard score at Rutgers ... against Montana, he broke that record, with his seventh, a 67-yard TD ... he's now one shy of the NCAA record of eight, shared by Wes Welker (Texas Tech) and Antonio Perkins (Oklahoma) ... in the win over Montana, eight different Huskies scored a touchdown, including five different players on rushing plays ... Washington played 74 players in the Montana game ... Washington led the nation in turnover margin in 2016 ... this year, the Huskies have six takeaways and one turnover, and the Huskies' +2.50 per game is currently third-best in the nation ... Keishawn Bierria led the nation in fumble recoveries last year, with five ... he recovered one against Montana, giving him seven for his career, one shy of the UW career record ... tailback Myles Gaskin scored his 25th career rushing touchdown vs. the Grizzlies, placing him 10th on the UW list ... two games into his junior season, Jake Browning currently sits fourth on the UW career passing yards (6,928) and career completions (515) charts ... his 63 career TD passes remain second on the list, behind Keith Price's 75 ... six true freshmen have seen action for the UW so far this year: TE Hunter Bryant, TE Jacob Kizer, TB Salvon Ahmed and DBs Keith Taylor, Brandon McKinney and Elijah Molden ... UW entered the year with 32 players on the roster who had started at least one game ... four more (LB Ben Burr-Kirven and DBs Jordan Miller, Myles Bryant and Murphy) earned their first starts at Rutgers, meaning that 36 different Huskies have started a game.

TELEVISION: The Washington-Fresno State game will air live to a national audience on Pac-12 Network with Ted Robinson (play-by-play), Yogi Roth (color) and Jill Savage (sidelines) providing the commentary.

RADIO: The Washington IMG College Network, with its flagship station KOMO AM-1000 and FM-97.7, will carry the live broadcast of every football game on 17 Northwest radio stations. Longtime play-by-play man Bob Rondeau and color analyst Damon Huard are joined by sideline reporter Elise Woodward. The home broadcast of the game will also air on Sirius (145) and XM (197) satellite radio.

THE HEAD COACH: When Chris Petersen was hired after the 2013 season, no one knew for sure how long it might take to return the Husky program to the top levels of the college football world. It turns out, it took about three years. In 2016, the Huskies had their best season since 2000 and one of their best ever, winning the Pac-12 Championship, earning a spot in the College Football Playoff and finishing ranked No. 4 in the final polls. They did it with high-achieving, young players across the starting lineup while also succeeding in the classroom at an unprecedented and sustained rate. Petersen, who built a reputation as an offensive innovator who carried the Boise State football program to its highest highs and had been courted by innumerable programs, was swayed to take on a new challenge when he agreed to become head coach of the Huskies in December of 2013. Petersen's "Built for Life" philosophy, on which the program is based, achieved its highest level of fruition to date with the successes of the team in 2016. Along with those on-field victories, the team continued to achieve at never-before-seen levels academically as the team achieved a 3.09 grade point average (second-highest in recorded history for UW football) during the fall academic quarter. Three Huskies earned District 8 Academic All-America and Jake Eldrenkamp was named the Pac-12's Scholar-Athlete of the Year for football. Along with a 12-2 (8-1 in the Pac-12), the Huskies posted other eye-popping numbers on offense, defense and special teams. The Huskies led the nation in turnover margin and were first in the conference and eighth in the nation in both total offense and total defense. The UW led the Pac-12 in 17 different team statistical categories. Following the 2016 season, in May of 2017, Petersen was honored with the Stallings Award, awarded annually to a college head football coach who is both a humanitarian and an exceptional coach, and named after former Alabama and Texas A&M head coach Gene Stallings. In 2015, Petersen's Huskies, featuring one of the nation's youngest squads and a schedule ranked by many as the nation's toughest, rallied for the Dawgs' sixth consecutive bowl berth, which resulted in a victory over Southern Miss in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. A stout Husky defense (first in the Pac-12 in scoring and total defense) led the way as a freshman-laden offense showed steady growth en route to a 7-6 season record. Off the field, Petersen's impact on the program's academic success was clear as well. During the season (fall academic quarter, 2015), the football team posted a team GPA of 3.12, highest in team history, breaking the old record, set the previous spring. In his first season at UW, Petersen led the Huskies to an 8-6 record and a berth in the TicketCity Cactus Bowl. He became the fastest active FBS coach to reach 100 career victories – doing so in 117 games – and tied with Knute Rockne for fifth fastest all-time. In 2014, UW produced three first-team and seven honorable mention All-Pac-12 players, and five players earned first or second team Academic All-Pac-12 recognition, including Danny Shelton who was named First-Team Academic All-American – a first for the UW since 1991. Petersen, 52, the only two-time winner of the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award (2006 and 2009), compiled an exceptional 92-12 record in his eight seasons as Boise State head coach (2006-2013), including two unbeaten seasons (13-0 in 2006 and 14-0 in 2009) and two BCS bowl berths. He won five conference titles and posted a 57-6 record in conference play. Petersen, who also won the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award in 2010, led the Broncos to 10 or more wins in seven of his eight seasons and to 12 or more in four straight (2008-11). In 2006, Petersen's first season in charge in Boise, he led the Broncos to their first undefeated season since 1958, when the school was a junior college. The 2006 season was capped by a 43-42 overtime win over Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl, a game remembered by many as one of the greatest in bowl-game history. That Boise team ended the year ranked No. 5 in the final Associated Press top 25 poll. The following season, the Broncos went 10-3 and finished out of the polls for what would be the only time in Petersen's first seven seasons. The 2008 squad went 12-1 and ranked No. 11 in the final top 25, finishing the regular season undefeated. In 2009, Petersen led the Broncos to their second undefeated campaign and another Fiesta Bowl berth. Boise State beat TCU, 17-10, in Arizona, becoming the first team from a non-BCS conference ever to win two BCS bowl games. The '09 Broncos checked in at No. 4 in the final AP poll. The 2010 season ended with a 12-1 record, a No. 9 final ranking and a win in the Las Vegas Bowl, the first of three straight trips to Vegas for Boise State. In 2011, BSU once again went 12-1, finishing with a No. 8 final ranking. Last season, Petersen's team went 11-2 and beat Washington in the Las Vegas Bowl, good for a No. 18 final ranking. In 2013, Boise State, which faced Washington in the first game at the newly renovated Husky Stadium, finished the regular season with an 8-4 record (Petersen came to the UW prior to the Broncos' bowl game). Throughout his teams' unmatched on-field success, Petersen also saw his Broncos succeed in the classroom. In 2011, Boise State was the only school to finish in the top 10 in both major polls and also receive a Public Recognition Award from the NCAA for finishing in the top 10 percent of the Academic Progress Rate (APR), the second of three straight such awards for the program. Boise State's APR was second in the nation in 2011 and 2012 and Petersen was recognized in 2012 for having the best APR for the two previous years among all FBS coaches. Known for his work with quarterbacks, Petersen tutored Ryan Dinwiddie, Jared Zabransky and Kellen Moore at Boise State. Moore set an NCAA record with 50 career wins as a starting QB while winning three conference player of the year awards.

Moore was the only player ever to record four 3,000-yard seasons in both passing and total offense. His 142 passing touchdowns were second-most in NCAA history while his 14,667 career passing yards were fifth-most. Before taking over as head coach at Boise State, Petersen served as the Broncos' offensive coordinator from 2001-05. Petersen began his coaching career in 1987 as freshman coach at his alma mater, UC Davis. In 1989, he became the Aggies' varsity wide receivers coach. In 1992, Petersen moved to Pittsburgh, where he was quarterbacks coach. In 1993, Petersen moved back west to take over a QBs coach at Portland State, helping the Vikings to Division II playoff berths in each of his two seasons. In 1995, he took a job at Oregon as the receivers coach under Mike Bellotti, a position he held before moving to Boise as offensive coordinator in 2001. Born in Yuba City, Calif., on Oct. 13, 1964, Petersen graduated from Yuba City High in 1983 and went on to play quarterback at Sacramento City College. From there, he transferred to UC Davis, earning a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1988. He later earned a master's in educational psychology from Davis. At Davis, he set numerous school records, including the season standards for passing efficiency, completions, completion percentage, TD passes and total offense as well as the career mark for completion percentage. He still remains in the top 10 in Aggies history in numerous season and career categories and his season and career completion percentage records still stand. In 1986, Petersen was named the Northern California Athletic Conference Player of the Year and earned UC Davis' Colby E. Slater Award as the school's Male Athlete of the Year. He was also a captain and won the team's Jerry Norris Award (Most Valuable and Inspirational) and was inducted into the Cal Aggie Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997. Petersen and his wife, Barbara, have two sons, Jack and Sam.

100 WINS: With the 2014 victory over Washington State in the Apple Cup, UW head coach Chris Petersen reached his 100th career victory. At the time, it put his record at 100-17, meaning that it took him 117 career games to reach his 100th victory. Only four coaches in major college history did it faster:

Gil Dobie (North Dakota State, UW, Navy, Cornell): 108 games
 George Woodruff (Penn): 109 games
 Bud Wilkinson (Oklahoma): 111 games
 Fielding Yost (Neb., Kansas, Stanford, San Jose St., Michigan): 114 games
 Chris Petersen (Boise State, Washington): 117 games
 Knute Rockne (Notre Dame): 117 games

Additionally, Petersen's 117 games were fewer than any ACTIVE FBS coach required to make it to 100 victories. Here were the top five, at the time:

Chris Petersen: 117 games
 Urban Meyer: 118 games
 Bob Stoops: 122 games
 Gary Patterson: 128 games
 Steve Spurrier: 129 games

PETERSEN THIRD ON LIST: The 2016 NCAA record book lists the top active FBS coaches in terms of winning percentage (minimum five years at FBS) and the Huskies' own Chris Petersen is No. 3 on this list. Here are the top 10 FBS coaches by career winning pct. (FBS only), at the start of the 2017 season:

No.	Name, Current School.....	Yrs.	W	L	T	Pct.
1.	Urban Meyer, Ohio State.....	15	165	29	0	.851
2.	Jimbo Fisher, Florida State.....	7	78	17	0	.821
3.	Chris Petersen, Washington.....	11	119	26	0	.821
4.	David Shaw, Stanford	6	64	17	0	.790
5.	Nick Saban, Alabama.....	21	205	61	1	.770
6.	Dabo Swinney, Clemson	9	89	28	0	.761
7.	Mark Richt, Miami, Fla.....	16	154	55	0	.737
8.	Gary Patterson, TCU.....	17	149	54	0	.734
9.	Brian Kelly, Notre Dame.....	27	230	88	2	.722
10.	Bobby Petrino, Louisville.....	12	109	43	0	.717

PETERSEN'S FIRST FIVE: The NCAA Record Book also notes that Petersen won more games in his first season as a head coach (13-0 in 2006) than any coach in history and that his record over his first five seasons as a head coach (61-5) was fifth-best in history, ahead of the likes of Knute Rockne and Bud Wilkinson and behind coaching legends like Gil Dobie and Walter Camp. Here are the 10-best coaching performances over the first five years of a career:

Coach, Team(s)	Seasons	W	L	T	Pct.
Gil Dobie, North Dakota St., Washington.....	1906-10	26	0	1	.981
Walter Camp, Yale, Stanford	1888-92	69	2	2	.959
George Woodruff, Penn	1892-96	67	5	0	.931
Bob Neyland, Tennessee.....	1926-30	43	2	3	.927
Chris Petersen, Boise State	2006-10	61	5	0	.924
Knute Rockne, Notre Dame.....	1918-22	39	3	3	.900
Barry Switzer, Oklahoma.....	1973-77	51	5	2	.896
Elmer Henderson, Southern California	1919-23	36	5	0	.878
Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma.....	1947-51	46	6	1	.877
Henry Williams, Army, Minnesota.....	1891, 1900-03	47	4	6	.877

COACHING STAFF: Washington welcomes back seven of nine full-time assistant coaches from last year's staff, with two new additions. Six of the nine assistants are in their fourth season at UW under Petersen (one of which was a holdover from the prior staff). Of the nine full-time coaches on the 2017 staff, five came to the UW from Boise State along with Petersen after 2013. Defensive coordinator Pete Kwiatkowski was on Petersen's staff in Boise in all eight seasons as head coach, including the last four as coordinator. Kwiatkowski, a BSU Hall-of-Fame defensive lineman, also worked at his alma mater from 1988 to 1996. Running backs coach and recruiting coordinator Keith Bhonapha was also on Petersen's Broncos staff during Petersen's entire eight seasons, though he started as director of operations. He coached running backs his last five years at BSU. Assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and linebackers coach Bob Gregory came to Washington having spent the previous four seasons at Boise State. He was the defensive coordinator at California from 2002 to 2009 and, along with also having coached at Boise State in 2001, has also worked in the conference at Oregon. Former Oregon State quarterback Jonathan Smith, who turned in several top-class performances vs. the Huskies during his playing days, was quarterbacks coach at Boise State for Petersen's last two seasons. Previously an offensive coordinator at Montana, he returned to that role (along with QBs) at Washington. Defensive backs coach and co-defensive coordinator Jimmy Lake, who spent the 2004 season in the same position at Washington under head coach Keith Gilbertson, was Petersen's DBs coach in Boise the last two years there, having spent five seasons in the NFL before that. Tight ends coach Jordan Paopao is entering his fifth season in that position, having worked as a Husky GA the previous two. UW alum Ikaika Malloe, who lettered as a Husky from 1993 to 1996 and once worked as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, is back for his second season as UW's defensive line coach. He joined the staff after last season, coming to Seattle from Utah State. New wide receivers coach and co-offensive coordinator Matt Lubick joins the Husky staff this season, having spent the last four years at Oregon, including the 2016 season as offensive coordinator. New offensive line coach and run game coordinator Scott Huff spent the last 11 seasons at Boise State, his alma mater, where he played under Coach Petersen (when Petersen was an assistant) and coached for him for all eight years Petersen was head coach. Two of four UW graduate assistant coaches are returners to their position. Former North Carolina offensive lineman Kyle Jolly and former Stanford DB Terrence Brown are back, joined by former Montana State linebacker Jody Owens and Tyler Osborne, who worked as a student coach at Oregon the last five years.

THE YOUNG AND THE OLD: Washington has been a notably and demonstrably young team the last couple of years and, while the Huskies have gotten distinctly more experienced across the board, the roster still skews towards youth. The 2017 roster includes 40 freshmen and 26 sophomores, compared to just 16 seniors and 27 juniors, meaning just under 61 percent of the players have three or more years of eligibility left. At the same time, Washington has 53 returning lettermen and, not counting specialists, 32 different Huskies have started at least one game during their career, entering the 2017 season.

THE DEFENSE: Washington's defense has been the strongest it has been in years in 2015 and again in 2016, once again leaving a standard for this season that will be a challenge to match. Last year, the Husky defense finished first in the Pac-12 in scoring defense, allowing just 248 points, or 17.7 per game, the best average by the UW since 1992 (12.3 per game). The Dawgs also led the conference in total defense (316.9 yards per game), passing defense (182.9), opponent first downs (246), third-down conversion defense (.306) and turnovers gained (33).

THE OFFENSE: Washington had one of its most successful offensive seasons ever in 2016, scoring more points and more touchdowns than ever before – both by a wide margin. The Huskies notched 77 touchdowns, 13 more than the old record (64 in 2013) and scored 585 points, 93 more than the old standard (493 in 2013). The Huskies' 41.8 points per game were just one-tenth of a point shy of the school record (41.9 in 1991). The Dawgs also had their second-highest totals ever in both rushing yards (2,774) and passing yards (3,623).

TEAM NOTES

1,000-YARDERS: Prior to the 2007 season, Washington running backs had compiled 11 1,000-yard seasons in the school's long history. Since then, Washington has had a back reach 1,000 yards eight out of the last 10 years, and seven in a row. Here's a look at those eight recent 1,000-yard seasons:

2007	Louis Rankin.....	1,294 yards
2009	Chris Polk.....	1,113 yards
2010	Chris Polk.....	1,415 yards
2011	Chris Polk.....	1,488 yards
2012	Bishop Sankey.....	1,439 yards
2013	Bishop Sankey.....	1,870 yards
2015	Myles Gaskin.....	1,320 yards
2016	Myles Gaskin.....	1,373 yards

HOME vs. NON CONFERENCE: Washington has been very tough to beat in home, non-conference games over the last several decades. Going back to (and including) the 1981 season, the Huskies have posted a 66-13 record against non-Pac-10/Pac-12 foes in Husky Stadium. Those 13 losses have come to Nebraska (2010), LSU (2009), BYU (2008), Oklahoma (2008), Ohio State (2007), Notre Dame (2005), Fresno State (2004), Nevada (2003), Air Force (1999), Nebraska (1997), Notre Dame (1995), Colorado (1989) and Oklahoma State (1985). Notable wins during that stretch include victories over No. 19 Boise State last season, No. 22 Boise State in 2007, No. 11 Michigan in 2001, No. 4 Miami in 2000, and No. 12 Nebraska in 1992. Prior to the 2004 loss to Nevada, Washington hadn't lost a home game to a non-league opponent since falling to Air Force, 31-21, on September 18, 1999. The Huskies had won 10 such games before that Nevada loss. The UW is 16-2 over its last 19 home, non-league games, with a 15-game winning streak.

HUSKIES vs. BULLDOGS HISTORY: Surprisingly enough for two teams from the West Coast, Washington and Fresno State have met only three times in their history. Sept. 29, 1979, at Husky Stadium, the No. 9-ranked Huskies beat Fresno State, 49-14, in what many in the press (as well as Coach Don James) regarded as a lackluster UW performance, final score notwithstanding. Washington, fresh from a come-from-behind 21-17 win the previous week vs. Oregon in Eugene (the UW scored on a 53-yard punt return with 1:59 left to win 21-17) had moved into the top 10 for the first time in the Don James era when the unranked Bulldogs came to Husky Stadium. After quarterback Tom Porras got the UW on the board with a nine-yard TD run 2:48 into the first quarter, Fresno State replied with a 73-yard touchdown drive that was helped along by a converted fourth down and a 40-yard pass interference penalty. Ken Lovely scored on a one-yard run to cap the drive. On the ensuing kickoff, UW return man Anthony Allen was tackled in the endzone for a safety and Fresno (which had missed its earlier PAT) led 8-7. Late in the opening quarter, the Bulldogs made it 14-7 when Gary Kaiser hit James Terry on a 20-yard pass. However, Washington would go on to score 42 unanswered points, including 21 in the second quarter, to roll to the win. Mike Lansford hit two field goals, the UW got scoring runs from Toussaint Tyler, Joe Steele and Willis Ray Mackey, and two TD passes (Tom Porras to Paul Skansi and Steele) to account for their total. Steele finished with 133 rushing yards on 14 carries while Porras passed 11-for-16 for 158 yards and one TD. For the Bulldogs, Lovely ran for 83 yards on 24 tries while Kaiser was 10-for-27 for 197 yards and a TD to go with five interceptions. The next UW-Fresno State game took place in the 2004 season opener, when the Bulldogs handed the Huskies a 35-16 loss. After a scoreless opening quarter, UW took the game's first lead on an eight-yard run from Isaiah Stanback early in the second quarter. However, James Sanders returned an interception for a 19-yard TD later in the second and Joe Fernandez caught a 12-yard scoring pass from Paul Pinegar in the third to put the visitors on top, 14-7. In the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs pulled away as Brian Morris returned a fumble 18 yards for one touchdown and Dwayne Wright ran in a score from 28 yards to make it 28-10. After Kenny James ran in a one-yard TD, Fresno's Richard Marshall ran back an interception for a 75-yard TD to ice the game, the third time in the game that the Bulldogs returned a Husky turnover for a touchdown. Receiver Charles Frederick led the Huskies statistically, notching 114 yards on nine receptions. Wright rushed for 109 yards to lead the Bulldogs while Pinegar was 13-for-21 for 125 yards. Two years later, in the third game of the 2006 season, UW's 6-foot-7 Caesar Rayford blocked a Fresno State extra-point attempt with 4:30 on the clock to give the Huskies a 21-20 win. The Bulldogs had scored what looked to be the game-tying TD on a one-yard run from Dwayne Wright. Fresno State actually got the ball back, but a Mesphin Forrester interception sealed the win. Wright had given the visitors a 7-0 lead on an earlier, one-yard run, but Stanback hit Johnie Kirtson with a TD pass to tie it. Stanback then scored on a run to make it 14-7, UW. In the third quarter, Fresno State's Paul Williams (brother of former Husky Curtis Williams) scored on a 38-yard reception to tie it, before Washington went in front, 21-14, on a Stanback TD pass to Sonny Shackelford.

DAWGS VS. THE MWC: Washington has a pretty fair amount of history with the current (2017 season) members of the Mountain West Conference. Washington has played all but three (Colorado State, New Mexico and UNLV) of the 12 schools that comprise the MWC. All totaled, the Huskies are 29-11 against current MWC members. Here's the breakdown: 2-6 vs. Air Force; 2-2 vs. Boise State; 2-1 vs. Fresno State; 4-1 vs. Hawai'i; 1-1 vs. Nevada; 3-0 vs. San Diego State; 10-0 vs. San Jose State; 3-0 vs. Utah State; and 2-0 vs. Wyoming.

THE PAC-12: Prior to the 2011 season, the Pac-10 Conference added Utah and Colorado to expand to the Pac-12. Washington, which along with California is one of two schools who have been in the conference since its founding in 1915, plays in the Pac-12 North, along with the other three Northwest schools (Oregon, OSU, WSU) and Stanford and California. Under current plans, each school will play all five division rivals, plus four of six teams in the other division each season. The first two seasons, the Huskies did not face UCLA or Arizona State. In 2013 and 14, the Huskies didn't face Utah or USC. In 2015 in 2016, neither UCLA nor Colorado are on the UW schedule, while the Huskies don't face USC and Arizona this year and next.

THE 100-YARD FACTOR: Since the 1947 season, Washington is 207-65-3 (.758) when a Husky player rushes for 100 yards in a game. The Huskies were 8-0 in such games last year, but have not had a 100-yard rusher in two games in 2017.

HISTORY LESSON: Successfully rushing the football and winning go hand-in-hand for the Huskies. Since 1990, UW has rushed for 200 yards in a game 109 times. The Huskies' record stands at 92-16-1 (.849) in those contests. Since 1995, UW is 67-13-1 (.833) when rushing for 200 yards.

HUSKY STADIUM RENOVATION: Husky Stadium underwent a major renovation over from Nov., 2011, through Aug., 2013, as the entire lower bowl and south upper deck were demolished and replaced. The new facility features a new, state-of-the-art football operations center (weight room, training room, locker room, meeting rooms, coaches' offices) in the west end, much more premium seating options and a new playing surface. Husky Stadium had featured a track up until 2011, so seats that were once far from the field, particularly in the west end, are much closer to the action. UW is 22-8 at home since the re-opening of Husky Stadium.

ALASKA AIRLINES FIELD AT HUSKY STADIUM: The Oregon game on Nov. 5, 2011, marked the final game in Husky Stadium prior to major renovations that have now been completed. The Huskies re-opened their home field with a 38-6 win over then-No. 19 Boise State on Aug. 31, 2013. The 2017 season marks the 97th season of play in Husky Stadium. Original construction on the facility was completed in 1920 when Washington played one game in the new campus facility. UW's all-time record in Husky Stadium stands at 378-177-21 (.674).
