WASHINGTON HUSKY ALL-AMERICANS

Washington's Consensus All-Americans

Washington has had 20 players recognized as consensus All-Americans (i.e. the players who were accorded a majority of votes at their respective positions by the selectors). Currently, to be named a unanimous All-American a player must be a first-team selection by the following parties: Associated Press, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Football News, The Sporting News and the Walter Camp Football Foundation.

TEAM AWARDS

Guy Flaherty Award

The Guy Flaherty medal is awarded annually to the player voted "most inspirational" by his teammates, and is considered the top award given to a football player.

The medal was first awarded in 1908 to Guy Flaherty, whose sacrifices as a performer inspired the trophy. The senior class established the award with the help of former Dean of Faculty, Herbert Condon, to use up the $25 remaining in the class treasury. Flaherty was the unanimous choice of the squad and the Flaherty Medal was born.

Flaherty began his football career at Washington and played every minute of every game during the 1906 and 1907 seasons. A severe case of boils on his arm prevented him from playing in all but the first and last game of the 1908 season. But even while too handicapped to play football, Flaherty turned out every day with the squad, and actually performed manager and assistant manager duties while unable to play.

His willing service to Washington football was recognized by every member of the squad, thus the medal is named in his honor. The Flaherty Award is generally regarded as the first inspirational award offered in the country in intercollegiate athletics.
