2021 COLORADO BUFFALO FOOTBALL WEEKLY RELEASE, NOTES & STATISTICS

COLORADO BUFFALOES vs. WASHINGTON HUSKIES

HOME FINALE TO POLISH OFF 98TH SEASON AT FOLSOM FIELD

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 2021 • 1:10 p.m. MST • Folsom Field (50,183) • Boulder, Colo.

RELEASE NUMBER 11 (November 15, 2021)

PAC-12 NETWORKS (National) | KOA-RADIO | CUBUFFS.COM (Live Stats)

BUFFALO BITS ...

The Colorado Buffaloes (3-7, 2-5 Pac-12) have their home finale and will honor the program's seniors this Saturday, Nov. 20 in hosting the Washington Huskies (4-6, 3-4 Pac-12) in a 1:10 p.m. MST kickoff at Folsom Field ... It thus finishes off CU's 98th season of play in the facility first named Colorado Stadium back in 1924 ... It will be Senior Day, as it will be the final home game for three seniors, one graduate transfer and a handful of juniors who have either graduated or will in December or May ... UW head coach Jimmy Lake was relieved of his duties on Sunday, and the Huskies will be coached the rest of the year by defensive coordinator Bob Gregory ... Since 1989 when the Associated Press started ranking a top 25, Colorado and Washington are tied for the 11th-most games against ranked teams with 142 (CU is 47-93-2, UW is 55-86-1) ... Washington leads the all-time series by a 12-6-1 margin, which includes a 7-1 edge since the Buffs joined the Pac-12 in 2011, as well as a win in the 2016 league's championship game); UW also leads 5-2 in Boulder, where CU won the last time the two played in 2019, which ended a nine game winning streak in the series by the Huskies ...

Colorado is coming off a 44-20 loss at UCLA; the Buffaloes led 20-7 late in the first half only to see the Bruins get a field goal at the first half gun and then score 34 second half points en route to the win ... The loss eliminated the Buffs from bowl eligibility, barring a shortage of teams and 5-7 ones become an option ... Washington had a similar experience in a 35-30 loss to Arizona State; the Huskies also owned a 10-point lead at the half (17-7), and still led 24-14 at the end of the third quarter only to see the Sun Devils score three touchdowns in a 5:14 span to go up 35-24 with 32 seconds left ... The Huskies need to beat CU and then rival Washington State to become bowl eligible ... UCLA's strip-sack of QB Drew Carter with 3:55 left in the game ended a run of 190 minutes and 54 seconds with the Buffaloes turning the ball over ... CUBuffs.com/media is all things Buff (on-line media guide, game notes, quotes, boxscores, live stats, etc.); 2021 media guide: <https://cubuffs.com/2021FBMG>.

STAT(S) OF THE WEEK

1,715. That is the number of snaps (out of 7,511) that freshmen players have had on defense thus far in 2021 – or 22.8 percent of all plays. And of those, 620 have been by true (first-year) freshmen. At UCLA, frosh played 229 of 748 defensive plays – 31 percent – and that could be the case the last two games.
Mr. 300. Congrats to CU alum Dave Logan ('75), as he won his 300th game as a high school football coach last Friday night when Cherry Creek defeated Mountain Vista, 34-0, in the second round of the Colorado state 5A playoffs. Creek now advances to the quarterfinals to face Regis, as Logan is in pursuit of his 10th state title, his fourth at CCHS. He is in his 29th season coaching prep football in the state and now owns a 300-67 overall record (an 81.7 winning percentage; he is 99-24 at Creek). Logan, who coached several current and dozens of former Buffs, earned eight letters at CU, four in football as a wide receiver/kick returner and four in basketball as a forward as his was the first class back in 1972 when freshmen once again became eligible.

OBSCURE NOTE OF THE WEEK

1,379 x 2. Through 10 games, here's something rarely if ever seen: CU is averaging 137.9 yards per game rushing and 137.9 yards per game passing (or 1,379 yards of each). The closest the season averages for both in school history is 2.9 yards, in 1979: 139.8 rushing and 136.9 passing.

COLORADO MEDIA SERVICES

IN-SEASON CHANGE: Head coach Karl Dorrell's weekly media press conference will now be held on Mondays beginning at 1:30 p.m. (light snacks and beverages will be provided). The location remains the same (UCHealth Champions Center, third floor, Room 319). Dorrell takes the podium at 2:00 p.m. and select players before and/or afterward depending on class schedules. This year's dates: Sept. 20-27, Oct. 11-18-25, Nov. 1-8-15-22-29, Dec. TBA. It is also streamed live on www.CU Buffs.com with Zoom access available for others to interact is: <https://cuboulder.zoom.us/j/97078740636>.

Season Interview Schedule. Dorrell will address the media after practice on Mondays at his presser and Wednesdays. Interviews with players are allowed post-practice Mondays (indoors), Tuesdays and Wednesdays; phone interviews can be coordinated around their class schedules. Sunday interviews are at the discretion of the player (and only if selected as a national player of the week), as it being the standard player day off, CU can't require due to NCAA rules. Assistant coaches are game-planning on Sunday and are also only available at their discretion. Note: the interview cutoff for players is 72 hours before games.

Reminder: there is no longer a Tuesday Pac-12 Teleconference Call (ended in 2018).

Video highlights of CU games are available through the Pac-12 Network Assignment Desk (assignment@pac-12.org). However, there are usage restrictions; contact Dustin Rocke to coordinate your needs (drocke@pac-12.org).

The Pac-12 Networks are available nationwide through many platforms; check with local cable or satellite subscribers for more info. Comcast and Time Warner carry the Network in Colorado and DISH Network is the league's satellite provider. In the Boulder-Denver area: Comcast 430 & 431 (840 HD); Pac-12 DISH channels include 406 (hopper) and 409 (along with 5453 and 5454 in its auxiliary area).

The Colorado locker room (home and road) is closed after games; following the customary 10-minute cooling off period, players will be available in a timely manner COVID-restrictions permitting (requests will be solicited following the game).

Colorado's football practices are generally closed, but there is a 20-25 window open early in practice for media photography/videography needs on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday (follow parameters list in CU's media policies). Thursday & Friday practices are open only to network TV talent if in town.

The standard practice schedule (mountain time): Sunday: Off; Monday: 11:00-Noon (IPF); Tuesday: 9:15-11:15 (LF); Wednesday: 9:10-11:10 (LF); Thursday: 10:45-11:45 walk-through (IPF); Friday: 10:45-11:45 (IPF; home and road games). IPF—Indoor Practice Facility; LF—Lower Fields.

COVID-19 Protocols. At present, any one desiring any in-person access to the program must provide proof of vaccination and must wear a mask regardless in all public areas on campus (press box).

Photo Requests. Please direct any photo (.jpg) requests to either david.plati@colorado.edu or curtis.snyder@colorado.edu.

QUARTERBACK DEBUTS

A list of all quarterback starting debuts can be found in CU's media guide on page 168; Brendon Lewis became the 52nd player since 1959 to start a game at the position for the Buffs, the 20th in a season opener (27-24-1 record overall, 11-9 in the opener). He became the second freshman to start a season opener, joining Cody Hawkins in 2007 (he was a redshirt frosh); no true freshman has ever started a season opener for Colorado, and of the 52 players, only 13 were freshmen (six true, one second-year — Lewis — and six redshirts). Those performances (*—season opener):

FRESHMAN-TO-FRESHMEN

QB Brendon Lewis has 10 touchdown passes this season, seven of which have been thrown to freshmen; that is two more than the entire total of TD passes previously thrown from a freshman to a freshman wide receiver in CU history, and one shy of the total of eight by a freshman to other freshmen (the three others were to running backs). Lewis passed Cody Hawkins for the most by quarterback to freshmen (who had completed his five to a receiver (four) and a running back (one). The list (*—denotes running back; rest are wide receivers):

Season	Quarterback	Receiver	TDs	Season	Quarterback	Receiver	TDs
1981	Randy Essington	Walter Stanley	1	2021	Brendon Lewis (7)	Brenden Rice	3
1986	Marc Walters	*O.C. Oliver	1			Montana Lemonious-Craig	2
2007	Cody Hawkins (5)	Scotty McKnight	4			Chase Penry	1
		*Demetrius Sumler	1			Ty Robinson	1
2013	Sefo Liufau	*Michael Adkins	1

SINGLE-SEASON TOUCHDOWN PASSES BY A FRESHMAN

Cody Hawkins 19 (2007); Sefo Liufau 12 (2013); Brendon Lewis 10 (2021); Steven Montez 9 (2016); Koy Detmer 8 (1992); Craig Ochs 7 (2000).

SINGLE-SEASON TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS BY A FRESHMAN

Paul Richardson 6 (2010); Michael Westbrook 5 (1991); Scotty McKnight 4 (2007); Don Holmes 3 (1979); Brenden Rice 3 (2021).

► Lewis came back after the bye week and posted his career-best single-game rating in CU's 34-0 win over Arizona. He completed 12-of-19 passes for career-highs of 248 yards and two touchdowns (no picks), with his rating of 207.5 the second-best by a freshman in CU history, behind only a 224.3 by Steven Montez against Idaho State in 2016 (6-of-10, 117 yards, 2 TDs); but that was in relief; the 207.5 is the best by a freshman who started a game. It was also the best by a Buff QB since Montez recorded a 246.8 figure in the 2018 season opener against Colorado State.

RICE CHECKS

Super frosh WR Brenden Rice has shown a pension for the long play in his short time as a Buffalo. Against Cal, he returned a kickoff 67 yards, the longest by a Buff since Marques Mosley returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Utah in 2012. That was his fourth career play of 60 yards or longer: he has two touchdowns receptions of 61 yards (versus Utah last year) and 62 yards (vs. Arizona) and one punt return of 81 yards (versus Utah, also last year). He also had a 51-yard reception at Arizona and returned a kickoff 44 yards against Northern Colorado, and was a slip away from returning one to the house at Oregon.

Father-Son Comparison (in the making): When Jerry Rice played in the NFL, he had at least one reception of 60 or more yards in 14 different seasons and still holds the record for most 50-yard receptions.

► Rice had the 25th 250-yard all-purpose yards game in CU history against Oregon with 281 yards (which rank 13th on the all-time list). He did it with 12 touches: five receptions for 102 yards, one rush for 17 and six kickoff returns for 162. The last one occurred last Dec. 5, when TB Jarek Broussard had 301 yards at Arizona (all rushing); the last one with yards gained in all three areas was on Nov. 23, 2007 (Hugh Charles: 169 rushing, 33 receiving, 125 kickoff return vs. Nebraska in Boulder).

► The 162 kickoff return yards tied for the sixth most; the six KOR returns tied the 10th-most. He's already 26th all-time in kickoff returns yards (506).

► He has 53 touches in his career (6-54 rushing, 27-419 receptions, 20-587 returns) for 1,060 yards, an average of 20.0 per touch.

THIS-N-THAT

► Karl Dorrell has coached 78 games as a head collegiate coach, his 2,000th point was scored on a 1-yard run by TB Alex Fontenot at UCLA.

► Colorado averaged a season-best 8.1 yards on first down plays (29 for 236 yards) against Oregon State; that was the best since 8.9 in the 2019 opener against CSU, and the fifth-best over the last 111 games (high was 10.1 vs. Idaho State in 2016, then 8.3 vs. Arizona State in '16 and 8.2 vs. OSU in '18).

► Special Teams Spotlight. Colorado is currently fifth in the Pac-12 in punt returns (13.6 average), fourth in kickoff returns (26.6) and sixth in net punting (37.9). The last time the Buffs led a conference in those categories was 2001 in the Big 12 (punt returns), 1998 (kickoff returns) and 2004 (punting).

► No Turnovers or Sacks. CU is now 20-4 dating back to 1972 when not committing a turnover or allowing a quarterback sack, of which neither happened in the Oregon State win. It was also the first time in 21 games that CU did not allow a sack (since the 2019 Arizona game in Boulder).

► Longest Conversion. The 16-yard TD pass from QB Brendon Lewis to WR Montana Lemonious-Craig that gave CU a 27-24 lead over Oregon State in the fourth quarter was the longest third down conversion (3rd-&-15) by Colorado this season.

► Injuries. Through 10 games, CU has lost 80 games by players projected to be or in the two-deep; out of 480 possible games, that works to 16.7 percent of games lost, which is the fourth-most since being tracked back to 1987. See full chart on page 37.

► 4-of-4 on 4th. The Buffs were 4-for-4 on fourth down at Oregon ... the last time CU converted that many was in 2017, when it also went 4-of-4 against Arizona; the most fourth down conversions in school history came in 1980, when the Buffs were 6-of-8 in a loss to Indiana (the eight is the all-time high for attempts).

► Back-to-Back. SS Isaiah Lewis had his first career interception at Oregon and then followed it up with another the next week against Oregon State. The last Buffalo to make picks in back-to-back games was ILB Nate Landman, who did so in the first two games of the 2018 season (versus Colorado State in Denver and at Nebraska). The last Buff to have one in three straight? CB Greg Henderson in 2013 (vs. Central Arkansas, at Oregon State and vs. Oregon).

► Freshmen. The assorted classifications of freshmen have started 52 games (out of a possible 220 through 10 games); that represents 23.6 percent of the starts this season. At present, that's the highest percentage of freshmen starters over the last 23 seasons, besting the 23.0 percent in 2012. Upperclassmen (juniors and seniors) have started just 48.6 percent, also the lowest over the same span, edging 49.6 in 2012 and 50.4 2014. See full chart on page 27.

SCORING IN ALL THREE PHASES

The Buffaloes scored touchdowns in all three phases of the game – offense, defense and special teams – in the 34-0 win over Arizona. It marked the first time CU had done that since twice during the 2004 season. It's happened to date on just 10 occasions in the FBS this season (eight with TDs, and two unique ones):

School	Date	Opponent	Touchdowns			Result

Trevor Woods

► Non-Offensive Scores. CU had two non-offensive touchdowns in the same game for the first time since 2013 and for the seventh time this millennium. A look at all seven instances:

Oct. 16, 2021 ARIZONA W, 34-0

(Trevor Woods 36 blocked PR; Carson Wells 50 INT return)

Sept. 7, 2013 CENTRAL ARKANSAS W, 38-24

(Greg Henderson 46 INT return; Jered Bell 79 INT return)

Oct. 22, 2005 KANSAS W, 44-13

(Dominique Brooks 28 blocked PR; Stephane Robinson 81 PR)

Nov. 6, 2004 at Kansas W, 30-21

Sept. 11, 2004 Washington State (at Seattle) W, 20-12

Oct. 26, 2002 TEXAS TECH W, 37-13

(Medford Moorer 51 INT return; Tyler Brayton 14 fumble return)

Sept. 1, 2002 Colorado State (at Denver) W, 41-14

(Donald Strickland 51 INT return; Michael Lewis 41 INT return)

With the NCAA granting all student-athletes an extra year of eligibility due to the COVID-19 pandemic, along with the 2018 rule where if you played four games or less, you don't lose a year, the number of underclassmen nationally have skyrocketed—and it's no exception at Colorado. Of the 120 players on the roster, 68 are freshmen (42 first-year, 16 second-year, 10 third-year); when adding in 21 sophomores (three first-time, 15 second-time and three third-time), that's 90 underclassmen on the Buff roster. There are 23 juniors (20 classified as Jr.-2, or super juniors, with three Jr.-3), and just 4 seniors in their final year of eligibility (once DL Mustafa Johnson is reinstated later this season). The other 3 are graduate transfers (two of whom have two years of eligibility remaining). The Buffaloes are tied for the second-fewest seniors/graduates in the nation:

FEWEST SENIORS IN THE FBS IN 2021: BYU 3, Colorado 7, Northern Illinois 7, Oregon 7, Central Michigan 8, Old Dominion 9, Louisiana 10, Middle Tennessee 10, UConn 10, Utah 11, Southern Miss 12, Bowling Green 13, Georgia Tech 13.

FONTENOT A FIRST SINCE 2018 AND LIKELY A FIRST, PERIOD

In CU's 52-29 loss at Oregon, junior TB Alex Fontenot scored two touchdowns, one on a 2-yard reception from QB Brendon Lewis and the other on a 1-yard run up the middle with a terrific block from TE Alec Pell, among others.

► His 2-yard reception on fourth down for CU's second TD was the first receiving TD of his career ... and CU's first receiving TD by a running back since Travon McMillian had a 57-yard one at Arizona on Nov. 2, 2018.

► He became the first Buff to have a rushing and receiving TD in the same game since WR Laviska Shenault had two of each versus Arizona State in 2018.

► It is highly likely that he is the first player to score two touchdowns on fourth down in the same game in school history; Colorado last had two touchdowns on fourth down plays in 2011, and the last player to score TDs on two fourth downs in the same season was WR Scotty McKnight in 2008 (in back-to-back games against Iowa State and Oklahoma State). TE Tyson DeVree had three coming in back-to-back-to-back games in 2007. Cody Hawkins was the QB throwing to both McKnight and DeVree.

RODRIGUE RELIEVED OF COACHING DUTIES

On Oct. 25, Karl Dorrell announced that he has relieved offensive line coach Mitch Rodrigue of his duties, effective immediately. Coaching the linemen for the remainder of the season will be handled internally. Filling in the remainder of the year is William Vlachos, who has been in quality control, specifically as the defensive blitz and offensive front specialist; he was an All-American center for Alabama as a senior in 2011 and has spent the majority of his coaching career working with the offensive line. He is being assisted by graduate assistant Donovan Williams, who has been working with the line for the better part of the last two seasons and has previous experience coaching linemen as a graduate assistant. Rodrigue joined Dorrell's original Colorado staff in March 2020 and coached 13 games for the Buffaloes (he signed a two-year contract that runs through Feb. 14, 2022; the school will meet the terms of the contract).

IS 20 IS THE NEW 40?

Long plays from scrimmage have been noticeably absent from CU's nine games this season — just 63 total (40 by the opponent and 23 by the Buffs—which works to an average of just seven per game between the two). There was not a play of 40 yards or longer in a CU game this season until the fifth game, when USC had two: a 53-yard run by Keaontay Ingram and a 46-yard TD pass from Kedon Slovis to Michael Trigg. CU countered with its first 40-plus play in the third quarter on a 65-yard catch-and-run by Brady Russell from Brendon Lewis and then came back with three against Arizona. CU has the edge in 40-plus yard plays, 6-2, and the opponent a 13-11 edge in 30+ plays; the enemy has the major advantage in double-digit plays by 148-84.

SHUTOUT ROLL CALL

Colorado's 34-0 win over Arizona on Oct. 16 was its first since a 48-0 blanking of Nicholls State on Sept. 26, 2015. And:

- It was the first shutout in Pac-12 conference play this year; the only other since 2017 was on Oct. 26, 2019 when Utah shutout Cal at home (35-0);
- It was CU's first shut out over an FBS opponent since a 34-0 win at Oklahoma State on Oct. 1, 2005 (the first in Boulder since three weeks earlier that year, 39-0 over New Mexico State on Sept. 10);
- It was the third time CU shutout an Arizona team (others: 14-0 in Boulder in 1955 and 18-0 at Tucson in 1959);
- It was only the second true shutout of a Pac-12 team as a conference member, with a 12-0 win at Washington State on Sept. 18, 1982 (Bill McCartney's first win); Arizona was not in the league in the 1950s and 13 shutouts over Utah all came prior to 1960;
- It was the first time an opponent had been shutout through three quarters since leading CSU 37-0 in Denver on Sept. 2, 2016;
- And it was the first FBS opponent not to score in the first half against CU since Washington on Nov. 23, 2019 (CU led that, 13-0 at half en route to a 20-14 win).

DEFENSIVE EFFORT AGAINST A&M NETS SECOND BEST PERFORMANCE

The 10 points No. 5 Texas A&M scored in its 10-7 win over the Buffs tied for the second fewest by a Top 5 team against a Colorado defense:

JOHNSON REINSTATED

DL Mustafa Johnson has regained his eligibility after going through the NCAA-mandated process to be reinstated after he wasn't selected in the 2021 NFL Draft. After meeting those requirements and sitting out four games, he will be able to play his second time as a senior beginning this Saturday against USC. "I hope I can be an impact player again and do something that will help this team win in whatever facet of the game, whether it just be my energy of lifting up the team, being a leader again, doing those things, or whether it's my play on the field, as well," Johnson said. "Most definitely, this is a second chance opportunity that many people do not get, so I need to make the best of it. It's (also) a second chance opportunity to create better film (for NFL scouts), perfect techniques, change things that I didn't do good in the last round this time around."

BECKER MAKES HISTORY

When Cole Becker trotted on to the field to try (and make) CU's first PAT kick of the season in CU's 35-7 win over Northern Colorado, he became just the fifth true freshman placekicker in school history to score at least one point in a Buff season opener. He joined Tom Field (1979 vs. Oregon), Mason Crosby (2003 vs. Colorado State), Will Oliver (2011 at Hawaii) and James Stefanou (2017 vs. Colorado State). He was bidding to tie the second-longest first career field goal made (53 yards), but the kick hit the crossbar.

He missed his second try (a 46-yardr against Texas AM in Denver that sailed wide right), and also his third try (46 yards at Arizona State that was partially blocked). But when he did make his first kick, a 51-yarder at Arizona State, it registered as the fourth-longest in two different categories at Colorado:

Longest First Career Field Goal Made

54—Davis Price vs. Oregon State in Boulder, Oct. 1, 2016.
53—Jim Harper vs. Tennessee at Anaheim, Aug. 26, 1990
53—Mitch Berger vs. Oklahoma in Boulder, Oct. 17, 1992.
51—Cole Becker vs. Arizona State at Tempe, Sept. 25, 2021.

Longest Field Goal Made By A Freshman

54—Davis Price vs. Oregon State in Boulder, Oct. 1, 2016.
53—James Stefanou vs. Arizona State at Tempe, Nov. 4, 2017
52—Will Oliver vs. California in Boulder, Sept. 10, 2011.
51—Cole Becker vs. Arizona State at Tempe, Sept. 25, 2021.

BECKER'S OT WINNER

True freshman PK Cole Becker made CU's fourth overtime game-winning field goal after the opponent failed to score in school annals when he drilled a 43-yarder to lead to CU to a 37-34 double-OT win over Oregon State. In addition to being the longest field goal to win an overtime game for Colorado, it is the fourth-longest to win a game in the final 2 minutes or in overtime. The lists:

2021 Oregon State, 37-24	Cole Becker 43 FG (OSU missed 38 FGA)	Oct. 29, 2005 0:06	at Kansas State, 23-20	Mason Crosby 50 FG
2007 CSU, 31-28	Kevin Eberhardt 35 FG (Tyrone Wheatley INT)	Sept. 3, 2005 0:04	Colorado State, 31-28	Mason Crosby 47 FG
2015 CSU, 27-24	Diego Gonzales 32 FG (CSU 27 FGA blocked)	Sept. 29, 2007 0:00	Oklahoma, 27-24	Kevin Eberhart 45 FG
2008 West Virginia, 17-14	Aric Goodman 25 FG (WVU missed 23 FGA)	Nov. 6, 2021 OT2	Oregon State, 37-34	Cole Becker 43 FG
(in 2019, James Stefanou made a 34-yard FG before Nebraska missed 48 FGA)		Nov. 9, 2019 0:00	Stanford, 16-13	Evan Price 37 FG

WOODS BLOCKS FIRST PUNT BY A BUFF SINCE 2018

Freshman S Trevor Woods blocked punt was CU's first since Alex Fontenot blocked punts at Cal (Nov. 24, 2018) and against Utah (Nov. 17, 2018), and his first blocked punt return for a TD since Lawrence Vickers recovered a punt in the end zone against Washington State in Seattle on Sept. 11, 2004.

OUT OF THE GATE

Through 10 games, there has been just four scores by CU or its opponent on the game's opening possession — two field goals at home by CU (versus Arizona and Oregon State), and two scores by the opponent in their home stadiums (field goal by Cal, touchdown by Oregon). In the second half, neither team did so on the first drive of the third quarter until the Arizona State game, when both teams did it: CU marched 75 yards in eight plays to pull to within 14-10, and then ASU returned the favor by driving 71 yards in six plays to go back up by 11). Oregon and UCLA also scored a TDs on its first drive of the second half; these are only the seven times out of a possible 40 that CU or its opponent has scored to open a half.

- In fact, there have been 15 three-and-outs (CU 7, Opponent 8).

SERIES HISTORY—CU vs. WASHINGTON

Washington owns a 12-6-1 lead in the series; the Huskies lead 5-2 in Boulder, 5-3-1 in Seattle and 2-1 at neutral sites (two bowl games and the '16 Pac-12 championship game). UW had won nine in a row in the series and all eight games with CU as a member of the Pac-12 Conference until the Buffs finally broke through with a 20-14 win in Boulder two years ago. vArguably, the span of six games in the series (1985-2000) all had elevated importance, including the two bowl games (1985 Freedom, CU's first bowl game in nine years; 1996 Holiday). In 1989, CU traveled to Washington the week after QB Sal Aunese died from complications due to stomach cancer, building a 38-6 lead late in the third quarter en route to a 45-28 win. In 1990, CU's national championship season, the Buffs closed a non-conference gauntlet with a 20-14 win over UW in Boulder, thanks to Deon Figures' interception in the end zone to preserve the win (CU opened the year tying Tennessee, defeating Stanford, losing by a point at Illinois, and then rallying for a win at Texas; those kind of non-league schedules are sadly gone in college football). Then, in 1999-2000, the Buffs squared off against UW and its new head coach, Rick Neuheisel, who the Huskies lured away from the Buffaloes; both games were emotional and went down to the wire, with the Huskies claiming each, scoring late to break a tie in '99 to win 31-24, and holding off a furious CU rally a year later to win, 17-14, in Boulder. The schools split the first three games (1-1-1), with the tie likely being an ultimate bore: in Seattle in 1957, a 6-6 draw that was scoreless in the second half, both teams missed their PAT kicks, 14 punts, a total of seven turnovers, 4-of-15 combined passing and 449 total yards.

► CU coach Karl Dorrell is 4-1 against the Huskies as a head coach (all games at UCLA), with an additional win when he was CU's offensive coordinator in 1996 when the Buffs defeated UW in the Holiday Bowl. He was Washington's offensive coordinator in 1999 when he accompanied Rick Neuheisel to UW from Colorado when he took the Huskies' head job (UW won, 31-24). UW interim head coach Bob Gregory is 0-0 against the Buffaloes.

SERIES DID YOU KNOW?—Two Washington head coaches had Colorado roots; Rick Neuheisel, who succeeded Bill McCartney as CU's boss in 1995 and spent four years in Boulder (33-14 record) before Washington lured him away with a million dollar salary, and more importantly, a contract that he did not have at Colorado. Legendary UW head coach, the late Don James, was the late Eddie Crowder's defensive coordinator from 1968-70 before being named head coach at Kent State in his native Ohio; that was his lone stop between CU and accepting the reins of the Huskies.

SERIES SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME— 45th. In 1976, the Buffs needed a win after losing at Texas Tech in the season opener (24-7) but were faced with a second straight game on the road to open the season (that was the third time in four seasons that CU's first two were on the road; it's happened just once since, in 1980). CU got off to a strong start, as 1-yard touchdown runs by Jim Kelleher and Jeff Austin gave CU a 14-0 first quarter lead and the Buffs never looked back in winning, 21-7. UW did cut the lead to 14-7 by halftime, but Emery Moorehead took a pitchout wide on the left side and scored on a 12-yard with 2:44 left in the third quarter that closed the scoring on the day. CU had a slight edge in total offense (304-287), but forced three turnovers while committing none.

COLORADO-WASHINGTON AT-A-GLANCE / SERIES TRENDS

Washington leads the series, 12-6-1 (CU is 2-5 in Boulder, 3-5-1 in Seattle, 0-1 in Anaheim, 0-1 in Santa Clara, 1-0 in San Diego): A game-by-game look:

THIS WEEK'S BUFFALO HISTORICAL NOTE / 1951

In 1951, television was basically still in its infancy; programs that debuted that year included I Love Lucy, Amos & Andy, Dragnet and The Roy Rogers Show. But it was a big year for sports debuts as well:

- August 11 - The first baseball game is televised in color, a doubleheader between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Boston Braves.
- September 29 - The first live sporting event seen coast-to-coast, a college football game between Duke University and the University of Pittsburgh, is televised on NBC.
- September 29 - CBS broadcasts the first college or pro football game in color, between the University of California and the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.
- October 3 - The first live coast-to-coast network telecast of a World Series game (New York Yankees-New York Giants).

And for the Buffaloes, they had their first-ever game televised on Nov. 17, 1951 from Lincoln, Neb. It was an independent broadcast, one billed as "part of the NCAA's experimental TV plan." Westinghouse was the sponsor, it was a regional telecast on 19 stations throughout the Midwest, stretching from Toledo to Kansas City; the game was not on in Colorado (and for some reason, blacked out in Schenectady. Bill Stern and Ray Michael were the announcers. As far as the game was concerned, Nebraska took an early 7-0 lead but Colorado eventually ran away with it, 36-14.

CU-WASHINGTON BY THE NUMBERS

Here's a look at some numbers-related trivia in the Colorado-Washington series:

- 4 The number of games in the series when both teams were ranked, including the 2016 Pac-12 title game (1989, 1990, 1996, 2016);
- No. 4 The highest national ranking of Washington when the two have lined up across from each other;
- No. 5 The highest national ranking of Colorado (1989) when the two have lined up across from each other;
- 17-14 The series lead by Washington in women's basketball (the Huskies lead 15-8 since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011-12);
- 17-11 The series lead by Washington in men's basketball (the Huskies lead 10-5 since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011-12);
- 19 The number of games in the series between Colorado and Washington;
- 20-14 The only final score that has been recorded twice in the series: both wins by Colorado (in 1990 and 2019);
- 47° 36' 22" The latitude of Seattle, the furthest north Colorado has ever played a football game;
- 59 Seconds left in the 1990 game when Deon Figures preserved a 20-14 CU win with an interception in the end zone (on a 4th-&-7 play);
- 106 The number of years since the two schools first played (1915, a 46-0 whitewashing by Washington in Seattle);
- 143 The number of rushing yards by Eric Bieniemy in the 1989 game, the most by a Buffalo in the series;
- 162 The number of receiving yards by Rae Carruth in the 1996 game (Holiday Bowl), the most by a Buffalo in the series (on seven receptions);
- 371 The number of passing yards by Koy Detmer in the 1996 game (Holiday Bowl), the most by a Buffalo in the series;
- 420 The number of rushing yards by Colorado in the 1989 game, when CU's I-bone offense was clicking in full gear;
- 998 The number of miles between Boulder, Colorado, and Seattle, Wash.;
- 1,467 The combined number of wins by the two programs: Washington (750) and Colorado (717), ranking as the 18th and 27th most in the NCAA;
- 5,045 The difference in elevation (feet) between Boulder (5,345) and Palo Alto (300; though some areas are 0).
- 175,400 The combined square miles of both states (Colorado 104,100/ Washington 71,300), ranking eighth and 18th, respectively, in the nation.

COLORADO 20, WASHINGTON 14*(NOVEMBER 23, 2019)*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado's defense came up with a second straight outstanding effort and the Buffaloes offense delivered in the clutch to produce a 20-14 win over Washington at Folsom Field.

The game marked the final Folsom appearance for 17 CU seniors, and was also the final appearance for CU mascot Ralphie V, who had announced her retirement two weeks prior.

The Buffs clinched the win in the final minutes, forcing a UW punt from midfield while holding a 20-14 lead, then grinding out an 81-yard drive over the last 5:09 to end the game in victory formation deep in Huskies territory.

UW made just two forays into plus territory in the entire first half as the Buffs defense pitched a shutout for the first 30 minutes. The first ended deep in Colorado territory when the Buffs put big pressure on Washington's Jacob Eason, who forced a quick throw that was intercepted by Nate Landman.

The second came late in the half and the Buffs ended that drive by recording their fourth sack of the half to push UW back to midfield.

CU's offense, meanwhile, had trouble in the red zone early, but still got a pair of field goals from Evan Price. The first gave CU a 3-0 lead with 7:23 to go in the first quarter; the second came with 7:18 to go in the second for a 6-0 lead.

The Buffs finally found the end zone late in the first half when Montez connected with Shenault for his CU career-record 61st career touchdown pass, a 39-yard strike. Shenault made a terrific catch on the play, plucking it off the shoulder of defensive back Trent McDuffie, who almost had an interception. Price's PAT gave Colorado a 13-0 lead at the half.

But Washington took the opening second half kickoff and drove 75 yards in 15 plays for a touchdown. The Huskies converted four third downs on the drive, including one on a CU penalty, and capped the march with a 1-yard Richard Newton run to cut CU's lead to 13-7.

CU though, responded, going 82 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown. Montez completed two passes on the drive, including a 15-yarder to Tony Brown, and Fontenot carried eight times for 44 yards. Fontenot carried in from 2 yards out with 2:40 left in the third quarter and Price's PAT gave the Buffs a 20-7 lead.

Washington, however, made it a one-score game again with a 75-yard scoring drive in 12 plays. The Huskies converted two fourth downs on the march, a fourth-and-2 and a fourth-and-8. The second set up a 15-yard scoring pass from Eason to Cade Otton, cutting Colorado's lead to 20-14 with 12:35 to play.

The two teams then traded a pair of punts, with Colorado regaining possession with 5:09 left after a big sack from Mark Perry stranded UW at midfield.

The offense then put the game away. The Buffs started from their own 1-yard line and pounded out an 81-yard drive, eating up all the remaining clock in the process. CU forced Washington to use all its timeouts on the drive, then went into victory formation on the last play to end the game.

Montez actually missed three plays on the drive after taking a vicious hit after a 12-yard run, with freshman Blake Stenstrom stepping in behind center. But Montez returned to throw a key completion to Dimitri Stanley, then turned it over to Fontenot to hammer out the remainder of the drive.

GAME NOTES

The Buffs are now 2-4-2 in Pac-12 home doubleheaders (back-to-back home league games); this was the second sweep when combined with the 16-13 over Stanford; the other came in 2016 (Washington State, Utah) ... CU last won two straight Pac-12 games to open the 2018 league slate ... CU is now 65-24 against unranked teams in November dating back to 1985 ... Washington's 238 total yards were the fewest CU allowed in game since last year's finale at Cal (211) ... The Buffs rushed for 207 yards (averaging 5.04 yards per carry), its second-most rushing yards this season (243 in the opener against CSU; it's the most in a league game since they had 217 against Oregon State last October) ... Washington now leads the series 12-6-1 (5-2 in Boulder, 7-1 since CU joined the Pac-12); UW had won nine straight, four in a row in Boulder. In 19 series games, this marked the first time Colorado had ever shut out Washington in the first half; previous low was in the 2000 game in Boulder when the Buffs led 7-3 at halftime, though Washington rallied to win, 17-14. CU's last two-score lead in the series came late in the first half in 2014 in Boulder, leading 20-10 (UW rallied to win, 38-23) ... CU had five sacks (four on third downs—17 of 22 this season have come on third or fourth down); UW came into tonight allowing just 13 in 10 games ... CU allowed season lows for a half in points (0; previous low—6 against Stanford) and in yards (91; Stanford had 123) ... CU last shutout an opponent in the first half on Sept. 15, 2018, leading New Hampshire 28-0 ... CU had its fourth turnover-free game of the year, tying the school record for a season ... This was the 48th time in school history CU has had a 100-yard rusher (Fontenot 105) and receiver (Shenault 100); CU is 37-11 in such games ... The Buffaloes had five quarterback sacks for 51 yards in losses; it was the second-most this season (six vs. Nebraska); the yards lost was a season-high, which reduced UW's rushing to 32 yards on 32 attempts (allowing for the sacks, it was still only 26 for 83, 3.2 per) ... Washington rushed 12 times on first down for a net 13 yards; it also gained a net minus-9 yards on its 17 third down plays.

IN COLORADO BUFFALO HISTORY: NOVEMBER 20

Colorado is 7-3-1 all-time on November 20, having won six of the last seven times on the date; four of the games have been against Kansas State (three CU wins). Here's a brief look at each of the games played on the date: 1918—What was referred at the time as a practice game counted on the official record, as CU beat "The Lieutenants" by a 20-6 score. It was a team comprised of several players based on the Boulder campus in the S.A.T.C. program who had considerable experience in high school and college football, according to the recap in CU's yearbook. Colorado, on the other hand, was still a bit depleted from those who served in World War I, those still with influenza from the Spanish Flu and other who were inoculated but not cleared to participate. One of the freshmen however was Lee Willard, who would go on to earn 16 letters in four sports during his college career. 1920—CU and Colorado A&M battled to a 7-7 tie in Boulder, as Lee Willard's 40-yard punt return were the first points scored against the Aggies all season. 1926—Bill Bohn (no relation to former CU AD Mike) scored both touchdowns for the Silver & Gold in a 12-3 win over Greeley Teachers (now Northern Colorado) in the last home game of the season. 1943—Colorado College completed a rare sweep by winning 6-0 in the Springs; CC had won earlier in the year, 16-6 in Boulder; both teams were missing many of its stars who by now were in the military fighting in World War II. 1948—Colorado ended its first season as a member of the Big 7 with a 29-25 loss to Colorado A&M. The loss must have angered the writer for the school yearbook, who wrote, "Colorado, not playing the sharp brand of ball exhibited in previous weeks, committed numerous miscues and the Plow-jockeys took advantage of the Buff errors." 1954—The Buffs rolled over Kansas State in the season finale, 38-14 in Boulder; Carroll Hardy carried 10 times for a whopping 238 yards ... but Emerson Wilson had seven attempts for 124 yards and Frank Bernardi nine totes for 113 (that's 475 yards on 26 carries by those three alone). CU had 498 yards overall, 493 on the ground. 1971—CU rolled up 556 yards of total offense, some 352 on the ground, in a 53-17 drubbing of Air Force. Charlie Davis had 196 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries, with John Tarver adding 139 and a score on 15 tries. Ken Johnson threw for 130 yards and two touchdowns, a 55-yarder to Larry Brunson and a 27-yard toss to J.V. Cain. And not to be outdone, Cliff Branch scored on a 65-yard punt return as well as a 34-yard run. 1976—With the Big 8 title on the line, the Buffs needed a 35-28 win in Manhattan to cement a tie at the top of the standings with Oklahoma and Oklahoma State; but CU earned the bid to the Orange Bowl by virtue of wins over both the Sooners and Cowboys in one of the old Big 8's most balanced seasons ever. Yards were tough to come by; Tony Reed had 36 carries for 140 yards and the game-clinching TD, while Jim Kelleher had 27 attempts for 76 yards and three touchdowns: CU gained 217 yards rushing on 79 tries. The Buff defense forced seven turnovers, picking off four passes and recovering three fumbles, with five of those coming in the second half. 1982—Kansas State won in Manhattan, 33-10, a year after redshirting most of its seniors-to-be in order to try and earn a bowl berth... and it worked. KSU went 7-4 and played in the Independence Bowl. 1993—Colorado traveled to Ames and left town with a 21-16 win over Iowa State. Lamont Warren rushed for 71 yards and scored two touchdowns, passing for another (49 yards to Charles Johnson), with Kordell Stewart adding 113 on the ground and Rashaan Salaam gaining 93. Five Buffs had 10 or more tackles on defense, led by Ted Johnson with 15. 2010—The Buffs rallied from down 14-3 early for a 44-36 win over Kansas State; CU scored 27 straight points to go up 30-14 and K-State never got closer than eight. Rodney Stewart rushed 34 times for 195 yards and two TDs along with passing for a third, while Cody Hawkins threw for 202 yards and three scores; Scotty McKnight caught two of the TDs.

NOVEMBER 20 COLORADO MVP: FB Jim Kelleher, despite averaging less than three yards a carry against a tough Kansas State defense, scored on three bulldozing short runs to help CU to a 35-28 win, a share of the Big 8 title and a trip to the Orange Bowl. He earned six first downs in all (two receiving) and converted twice on fourth down runs, one for a TD.

THIS WEEK'S HISTORICAL NOTE / 1957

In the 10-game season in 1957, Colorado amassed 3,224 rushing yards, leading the nation for the second time in its history (joining the '37 team that did so with a 310.1 average for eight games); the Buffs haven't topped the country since, but have been in the top 10 a dozen times. Colorado was also second in total offense that year (415.2 yards per game). Colorado led the Big 7 Conference in both categories, the first time CU led the league in total offense since joining the old Missouri Valley six in 1948; the Buffs topped the league on the ground in 1954 as well. The '57 team was a well-oiled machine, piling up the rushing yards with a star-laden offense in the Single-wing/Wing-T formation, led by G John Wooten (who was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012), QB Boyd Dowler (a CU Hall of Fame inductee next month), backs Bob Stransky, Eddie Dove, Howard Cook, George Adams and Gene Worden (all of whom gained 339 or more yards – Stransky was second in the nation with 1,097 yards. CU gained over 200 yards in all 10 games, going over 400 three times, with 478 yards and six touchdowns in a 42-14 win at Kansas State; the next week, No. 1 Oklahoma held the Buffs to a season-low 213 yards rushing (on 64 tries) in Norman, barely escaping with a 14-13 win. The Buffs closed the year with wins at Nebraska (27-0) and at home over Iowa State (38-21) to finish 6-3-1; in those two wins, the Buffs rushed for 831 yards (404 and 427, respectively).

FIFTY-YEARS AGO: 1971 FLASHBACK SERIES GAME 11 (Colorado 53, Air Force 17)

Air Force came in with a 6-3 record; the Falcons were ranked 18th after opening 6-1 with a scant 16-14 loss at No. 9 Penn State; but consecutive losses to No. 18 Arizona State and Oregon dropped them out of the polls. The Falcons were no doubt out for revenge to turn the tables on the Buffs: in 1970, a 5-4 CU team went down to the Springs and trounced the 9-1, 10th-ranked Air Force squad by 49-19. CU, on the other hand, was shooting for its fourth 9-win season; CU went 9-0 in 1923 and 9-2 in both 1961 and 1967. The irony was present: unranked CU clobbered the No. 10 Falcons to end the '70 regular season, only the second time in school history three Buffs ran for 100 yards in a single game (Bobby Anderson, Paul Arendt and Ward Walsh). Now, the unranked Falcons had designs on doing the same to the No. 10 Buffs, and had a good defense, allowing only 134 points in nine games (14.9 per, and 44 of those came in the loss to ASU).

In the '70 game, Air Force scored on its first possession, and then watched Colorado reel off the next 42 points – including 28 in the second quarter as the Buffs led 35-7 at halftime. John Tarver got CU on the board first in the season-ending rematch, as the Buffs needed just three plays to capitalize on an AFA fumble. Charlie Davis picked up four yards on the first play, then Tarver tried the middle and busted through for 28 yards before going over left guard for a 1-yard TD pop. J.B. Dean's PAT kick made it 7-0 with 9:24 on the clock. The Falcons put three on the board and the contest remained close at the end of 15 minutes with CU ahead 7-3.

For the second straight year, CU pulled away in the second quarter, this time scoring 20 points to go up 27-10 at halftime. Ken Johnson and Larry Brunson hooked up on 55-yard touchdown pass early in the period, but Air Force matched it on a 50-yard TD pass play to pull back to within 13-10. But the Falcons would get no closer. The Buffs took the ball and marched 82 yards in eight plays, capped by a 7-yard TD run by Davis; CU overcame a 1st-and-25 after a most of a 52-yard run by Tarver was wiped out due to a clipping call (and were aided by pass interference on AFA). Brian Foster intercepted a pass with 1:15 left in the half, and after a roughing the kicker (punter John Stearns) call on AFA gave CU new life, Cliff Branch raced 34 yards on a reverse and the Buffs led 27-10 at intermission.

The Falcons scored on their first possession of the second half, a quarterback sneak by Rich Haynie from a yard out cut the CU lead to 27-17. It would remain a 10-point game until a little over a minute remained in the third quarter; the Buffs put together their longest scoring drive of the season, covering 95 yards in 11 plays with Johnson hitting J.V. Cain for an 11-yard TD pass (Dean's PAT kick was no good, leaving the score at 33-17). Davis picked up 19 yards on the first play to get CU some working room, and on a 3rd-and-2, Johnson hit Dean for a 27-yard pickup to the AF 41. Davis picked up another first down as did a Johnson to Willie Nichols 10-yard pass play as with the scoring play, CU had five plays on the drive in double figures.

Branch ended the quarter with a 51-yard punt return to the Falcon 35, and on the third play in the fourth stanza, Davis took a pitch from Johnson and scampered 30 yards for six (Dean's PAT kick was blocked, but CU was well ahead, 39-17). CU stuffed the AFA offense on the next drive, and this time Branch alluded all tackles and returned the ball 65 yards for a touchdown. Bo Matthews added the final points on a 1-yard plunge over right tackle, capping a 12-play drive with 6:55 remaining. The benches emptied late in the game and a fistfight among some ensued, but no one was ejected and CU had won its ninth game in the 13 in the series.

Davis finished with 196 yards and the two scores on 25 attempts, while Tarver galloped for 139 and his TD on just 15 tries. Davis had 1,386 yards for the season, setting a new Big Eight sophomore record. The Buffaloes as a team, with the help of the extra game, set team records for total offense as well as for rushing and passing yards.

Colorado finished with 352 rushing yards with 204 passing, just the fifth time in CU history that the Buffaloes gained at least 200 in each phase – and the first time for a 300/200 effort. The 556 yards on offense was bolstered by another 175 return yards, 140 of which came on six punt returns by Branch. Air Force finished with 333 yards, and by comparison, just 43 via return.

Lennie Ciufu led a stout CU defense with 14 tackles, with Billie Drake adding 12 and Bud Magrum in on 10.

Now 9-2 on the year, and ascending to No. 7 in the final regular season polls, the Buffaloes unanimously voted postgame to accept an invitation to play in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl on New Year's Eve (the invitation came over the telephone after the game). The opponent confirmed the next day would be hometown host and No. 15-ranked Houston. The independent Cougars were also 9-2, with their two losses to No. 16 Arizona State in the second week of the season (18-17) and at No. 4 Alabama in week seven (34-20).

NOTE: Newspaper accounts at the time said that the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl was the only postseason game interested in the Buffaloes, despite the 9-2 record and No. 10 ranking at the time of the invitation. CU head coach Eddie Crowder said following the game and the likelihood of playing a team in more or less what would be a home game for it, "Our guys are enthusiastic enough that I think they'd play anybody anywhere."

As mentioned above, the 1971 Air Force game was the fifth time in school annals the Buffaloes gained at least 200 yards both rushing and passing in the same game. Through the 2020 season, that has now happened 72 times overall, with the Buffs owning a 61-11 record in those games. Thirteen of those games, CU has rushed for 300-plus yards twice over 400), and on 15 occasions, CU had 300 yards or more passing (two 400-plus, one 500-plus). CU has not had a game with 300 of each; in last year's season opener against UCLA (a 48-42 win), CU tied for the second-most "balance" ever in a 200/200 game: 264 yards rushing and 261 passing. The only closer games in differential came against Utah in 1961 (210-208) and at Texas in 1997 (208-211).

WHERE THEY FELL BY GAME NUMBER ON THE SCHEDULE: GAME 11's

#1—2001: Colorado 62, Nebraska 36 in Boulder.

Nebraska came in ranked No. 2 in the major polls, but were atop the BCS Computer standings and may have felt it was destined for a Big 12 championship game match against No. 4 Oklahoma the next week. The Huskers were 7-0 and the Buffaloes 6-1 in the Big 12 North race, but no one was giving CU much of a chance; Nebraska was a 10-point favorite having won 13 straight games coming in and 11-0 in 2001; CU entered 8-2, minus one game (at Washington State) that was not replaced after the September 11 terrorist attacks on the east coast. CU scored on its first two possessions (in five plays) and then on three of its next four, and lo and behold, 19 minutes into the game, after two touchdown runs by Chris Brown (right) and one each from Bobby Purify and Bobby Pesavento, along with a Pesavento-to-Daniel Graham 21-yard TD pass after an NU fumble had the Buffaloes in full control, up 35-3 (and with a 314-73 edge in total offense). ABC’s Brent Musburger called it “the most shocking first quarter in college football this season,” while his analyst, Gary Danielson, said “This is like Colorado is going against its scout team.” Nebraska did close to within 42-30 late in the third quarter, but Brown would score three times in the final stanza to finish the day with 198 yards and a school-record six touchdowns. Purify finished with 154 yards on 20 carries (with a 78-yard TD run called back due to a holding call). Graham caught four balls for 112 yards while Pesavento threw for 202 overall. And in the end, when Oklahoma State knocked off OU the next day, Texas won the Big 12 South opposite the Buffaloes the ensuing Friday night in Irving.

#2—1994: Colorado 41, Iowa State 20 in Boulder.

Memorable for three things: first, Rashaan Salaam (left) needed 204 yards to reach 2,000 yards for the season; he would gain 259, the last 67 coming on a touchdown run around the right side (he had 123 yards at halftime, more than halfway to two grand at that point). He went on to win the Heisman Trophy, Doak Walker Award and the Walter Camp Player of the Year honor. Kordell Stewart would become the Big 8 Conference’s all-time leader in total offense (7,770 yards), which would hold up as the record until the conference was dissolved two years later. And of course, coach Bill McCartney announced after the game that he was retiring from coaching to spend more time with his family and Promise Keepers, the organization he co-founded. The Buffaloes jumped to 17-3 lead after the first quarter, but couldn’t put the Cyclones away until the fourth quarter. CU led 20-13 after ISU’s Troy Davis returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown late in the third, but the Buffs came right back to go up again by two scores on a Stewart 23-yard run to open the fourth. That proceeded Salaam’s dramatic touchdown run that brought own the house, 41,000-plus fans waving goldenrod placards with the number 2,000 on them. The Buffs finished second in the Big Eight Conference and earned an invitation to the Fiesta Bowl, where CU trounced Notre Dame, 41-24, in McCartney’s final game at the reins of the program.

#3—2016: Colorado 38, Washington State 24 in Boulder.

The Buffs were a surprising (to most) 8-2 entering the game (6-1 in Pac-12 play and ranked No. 12 in the nation), and also in control of their own destiny if they could win the final two games to claim the Pac-12 South Division title. But Washington State stood in the way, and the Cougars were no slouch, ranked No. 20 after rebounding from two opening losses to win eight straight and were in control of their own fate in the Pac-12 North. The game featured four lead changes; the Cougars led 14-7 after the first quarter and 17-14 at halftime; WSU had 314 yards on offense at that point. And with 3:18 left in the third quarter, WSU pulled ahead, 24-21. But the resilient Buffaloes retook the lead on the next series, Sefo Liufau capping an 8-play, 75-yard drive with an 11-yard TD run. Chris Graham added a 46-yard field goal and Phillip Lindsay closed the scoring with a 13-yard run to cinch the game for the Buffaloes. CU’s defense stiffened in the second half, allowing WSU just 148 yards and seven points and forcing two turnovers, while the Colorado offense cranked up to put 603 yards on the Cougar defense, including 317 in the second half. Known for a consistent passing attack, Cougar quarterback Luke Falk completed under 50 percent of his passes for the only time all season, as Buff defenders batted down 11 passes and intercepted another while sacking him twice. Lindsay gained 144 yards on 31 carries and scored twice, while Liufau had 453 yards of total offense, 345 passing and 108 rushing – and he scored three times.

IT TOOK A LOT OF TIME

Colorado did not commit a turnover in a season opener for the 11th time in its history (but have never opened with two games turnover-free). The first one in 2021 took place 2:28 into the second game (Texas A&M picked off a deflected Brendon Lewis pass), with the 62:28 into the season the 11th-longest on the clock before CU’s first of a season. It took a similar deflected pass and then an interception by UMass early in the third quarter for CU to have its first in 2014, marking the longest CU had ever played into a season before committing its first (92 minutes, 28 seconds); the 11 season opener turnover-free seasons and when the first occurred:

RECORD WATCH

The Buffaloes have set 7 records so far in 2021. NOTE: A reminder that CU did not adopt the NCAA 2002 policy of adding bowl game statistics in its season or career numbers, thus some may differ from NCAA totals.

CU COACHES VS. ALMA MATERS

21-13. That's the record of CU head coaches against their alma maters — five in all — as Karl Dorrell joined the previous four in coaching against the team he played for. And all five have taken the Buffs to the stadium they played in as player for those teams, Dorrell joining the group when CU fell 44-20 to UCLA at Rose Bowl (which made his record 1-1 against the school that awarded him a diploma; his first win at CU was against the Bruins in Boulder. Joe Mills (University of Denver) lost in 1918 at DU but won the next year in Boulder to go 1-1; Eddie Crowder (Oklahoma) lost his first game against the Sooners in 1963 in Norman, and would eventually go 4-7 overall; Bill McCartney (Missouri) lost in Columbia in 1982, and after dropping the first three, ended up with a 10-game winning streak to finish up 10-3; and Gary Barnett (Missouri) would go 6-1 against the Tigers; he won the first game in Boulder in overtime in 1999 and then won in his first time back at Columbia's Faurot Field, 28-18, in 2000 (in a game where CU set a still-school record 14 quarterback sacks).

OPENING DEPTH CHART NOTES

The Buffs released their season-opening depth chart on August 30, and for the seventh time in the last nine seasons, CU has more underclassmen than upperclassmen listed (though not a surprise with the NCAA granting an extra year of eligibility). Of the 69 players in the opening depth (who are not listed as being out for an extended period of time), 45 were underclassmen (31 freshmen, 14 sophomores); there are 19 juniors (16 second-time, three third-time), two “super” seniors and three graduate transfers (two first-year, one second-year).

► The 31 freshmen breakdown into four categories: true (13), redshirts (2), second-time (7, meaning they played as true freshmen in 2020) and third-time (9, which means they played less than four games in 2019 and then qualified for the extra year of eligibility due to the NCAA’s COVID exception).

► In both 2016 and 2017, CU did not start a true freshman in any game over the course of the season; that had not happened since 2005. In 2018, true freshmen collectively started 15 games, in 2019, 12 did so and last year, true frosh started seven games (CB Christian Gonzalez 6, WR Brenden Rice 1).

► Zero Again. As in zero starts by quarterbacks on the CU roster for the second straight season; it hadn’t happened since 2007 prior to last year. Only two players on the team have attempted passes in a game: QB Brendon Lewis was 6-of-10 for 95 yards last year when he replaced Sam Noyer in the Alamo Bowl (his only appearance of the season), and WR Dimitri Stanley, who was 0-of-1 on a trick play, also last season.

NON-CONFERENCE TWO-FERS

Not many teams in the so-called “Power 5” schedule two “Power 5” teams in their non-conference slates. Notre Dame technically leads the way with four, not including the agreement to play five ACC teams annually, which then puts it at nine total (but you would have to count all the conference games for the others listed below). Stanford has three scheduled and just 12 will line up against two, including Colorado. (For season total, add nine Power 5 opponents to the count below to any Pac-12, Big Ten or Big 12 team, and eight to any ACC or SEC team.) A look at who is double dipping (or more) in 2021:

Clemson (2; 0-1): vs. Georgia (L), at South Carolina (Nov. 27)

WILSON'S DC DEBUT A SUCCESS

New Colorado defensive coordinator Chris Wilson joined some fine company when the Buffaloes defeated Northern Colorado 35-7 in the 2021 season opener. The 7 points allowed tied for the third-fewest, while the 256 yards were the third-lowest (with 48 of those against second/third-teamers on UNC’s final possession). Here’s a look at CU’s top defensive efforts in the first game of a defensive coordinator since the position evolved in the late 1960s:

POSSESSIONS DOWN IN 2021

Through 10 games, Colorado is averaging just 11.4 offensive possessions a game, down nearly a full three from 2020 and around two fewer than what the Buffs have traditionally averaged. It’s at present the fewest average possessions per game since 2006, when the Buffs had 135 total in 12 games, or 11.25 per. We have tracked this statistic at Colorado since 1984; in 37 previous seasons, CU has averaged under 12 possessions per game just twice (2006, 2019). The high average was 15.2 in 1992, when CU had a great defense and got the ball back to the offense more than any other season. A year-by-year look:

In 1989, CU scored on over half of its possessions: 72 of 138 times, or 52.1 percent (with 59 touchdowns). No other team has eclipsed the 50 percent plateau.

BROUSSARD: BACKGROUND TO BRUISING & RECORD SETTING DEBUT

Background: Sophomore TB Jarek Broussard was a member of CU's 2018 recruiting class: he initially tore the ACL in his left knee in high school, but by the time he arrived on campus, he was still in the rehab progression; he thus redshirted that fall (2018). Then in 2019, near the end of CU's August camp, he again tore the ACL in the same knee and subsequently had a second surgery (on Sept. 6) and again missed the full season. He began a second rehabilitation immediately, and would spend the remainder of the fall, all of winter, and then the entire lockdown due to the COVID-19 pandemic in Boulder working with CU's sports medicine staff with his rehab. "He has done an incredible job with his rehab and is truly a lesson in delayed gratification," said Andrew Hamstra, Colorado's head football trainer. He finished as the third-leading rusher in 2020, averaging 149.2 yards per game and was a co-recipient of the Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year Award.

When he was finally cleared to participate, he started showing flashes in CU's 2020 fall camp and emerged as the starter at tailback for the season opener. He came out raring to go in Colorado's 48-42 opening win over UCLA on its roster. Of the seven occasions where a player rushed for at least 100 yards in his first game in a CU uniform, he recorded the most yards (note: freshmen were ineligible from 1953-1971; #—in Denver):

As far as the first start at the tailback position, Broussard's effort ranked as the third-most yards gained (all other players in the top 10 appeared in games at previous positions (Pritchard started his only game at tailback in his career in the '90 season opener versus Tennessee (subbing for Eric Bieniemy; he and Flannigan appeared at halfback on several occasions before CU moved to the I-Bone in 1989 and went with one featured back instead of two halfbacks); Anderson was a quarterback for two-plus seasons who was moved to tailback the third game of the '69 season). The top efforts in a first start at tailback in CU history (a—first game in a CU uniform):

- ➔ Broussard earned the Pac-12 Conference's Offensive Player-of-the-Week honor for his efforts, just the second Buffalo running back to do so since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011; Phillip Lindsay won in 2017 for the Arizona State game. Rodney Stewart won it twice in the Big 12 Conference (2009 vs. Kansas, 2010 vs. Kansas State), otherwise you have to go back to 2002 when Chris Brown earned it twice (against UCLA and Kansas).
- ➔ Not only did Broussard set the record for the most rushing yards gained (187) in the first game in a CU uniform, he also set the record for yards from scrimmage (208) and all-purpose yards (221).

BROUSSARD PART 2: JOINS MORE ELITE COMPANY

Broussard had a second 100-yard game at Stanford (27-121), and in the process became the seventh Buffalo (on eight occasions) to rush for 100 or more yards in the first two games of a season, and the first to do so in 15 years, or when TB Hugh Charles did it against Colorado State and New Mexico State to open the 2005 season. He joined TB Charlie Davis (1971) and TB Marcus Houston (2000) as the only three to do it in their first two career games,

- ▶ With 124 yards against San Diego State, he joined Davis as the only ones to rush for 100 or more in the first three games of a CU career.
- ▶ Then, with 301 yards at Arizona, he has now rushed for more yards in the first four games of a season than any player in Colorado history, and is the first to hit the century mark or more for the first four games of a CU career. He also became just the fourth player in Division I-A/FBS since 1996 to gain 100 or more yards in the first four games of his career (chart below).

- ▶ Against Arizona in 2020, his 155 yards in the second quarter (eight carries) set a CU record for rushing yards and for all-purpose yards in a quarter. His 184 rushing yards in the first half is the second-most for a half, behind 206 by Davis against Oklahoma State in Boulder on Nov. 13, 1971.
- ▶ And in the win over the Wildcats, he set the school record for most 50+ yard rushes in a game with three (75, 72, 59); several had two.
- ▶ Broussard accounted for 38.6 percent of CU's total offense in 2020 (813 of 2,105 yards); in 1994, CU's Heisman Trophy winner, Rashaan Salaam, ran for 2,055 yards, which was 37.7 percent of CU's 5,448 yards on offense.
- ▶ Broussard led the Pac-12 in rushing (149.2 yards per game, bowl game counted); the first Buff to lead a conference since 2002 (TB Chris Brown, 153.4, Big 12).

Broussard earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors (AP, Coaches), the first CU running back make first-team all-conference since Chris Brown in 2002. Also named the league's Offensive Player of the Year (Coaches, co-honors from the AP), he's the first since Brown to earn a similar honor (2002, Big 12 for Brown), and the sixth on offense in CU history, joining QB Darian Hagan (his position coach, 1989 Big 8), TB Eric Bieniemy (1990, Big 8), WR Charles E. Johnson (1993, Big 8), TB Rashaan Salaam (1994, Big 8, his Heisman Trophy Year) and Brown.

BROUSSARD EARNS MAYO CLINIC COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR HONORS

Sophomore tailback Jarek Broussard was named one of three annual recipients of the 2021 Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year Award.

A member of CU's 2018 recruiting class, Broussard initially tore the anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in his left knee in high school, but by the time he arrived on campus, he was still in the rehab progression; he thus redshirted that fall. Then in 2019, near the end of CU's August camp, he again tore the ACL in the same knee and subsequently had a second surgery and again missed the full season. He began a second rehabilitation immediately, and would spend the remainder of the fall, all of winter, and then the entire lockdown due to the COVID-19 pandemic in Boulder working with CU's sports medicine staff with his rehab.

After an injury sidelined Alex Fontenot, the returning starting tailback, Broussard moved from third on the depth chart into the top spot by the time CU opened its 2020 season against UCLA on Nov. 7. He would have a record-setting performance against the Bruins in CU's 48-42 win, rushing for the most yards (187) in the first game in a CU uniform, as well as for those for yards from scrimmage (208) and all-purpose yards (221). He was named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week for his performance, an honor he would earn four weeks later when he rambled for 301 yards in a 24-13 Buff win at Arizona, just the third 300-yard single game rushing performance in school history.

Also named the Pac-12 Conference's Offensive Player of the Year (by both the AP and the league coaches), he finished the regular season as the NCAA's second-leading rusher, averaging 162.6 yards per game; three-fourths of the way through the bowls, he's still third, with a 149.2 per game norm (895 yards in six games) after gaining 82 yards in the Alamo Bowl against Texas. He became just the fourth player in the NCAA since 1996 to open a career with four consecutive 100-yard rushing games, with Oklahoma's Adrian Peterson the last to do so in 2004.

"Winning the Comeback Player of the Year Award is a great honor, Broussard said. "I'd like to thank the Mayo Clinic, CoSIDA, the AP and Fiesta Bowl for making this award possible and honoring me with it.

"First and foremost, this is a team award," he continued. "I really need to recognize and thank the support I received from my coaches and teammates, especially my offensive line, and all the people in sports medicine who were with me throughout. They all believed in me. Even making a finalist for this prestigious award showed that all the hard work coming back from two knee surgeries was worth it, and winning it is truly special."

"I remember back in March, we weren't sure if he'd be ready by the fall; he wasn't ready to participate in spring practices had we been able to have them," Colorado head coach Karl Dorrell said. "So he was one of those guys that was just on the peripheral of our thoughts, and it was, 'We'll see if he's ready for camp, where he would be in our depth chart, things like that.'"

"So for that scenario to happen back in March and how we ended camp, he was our best player in that position," Dorrell added. "He's come a long way, from where we weren't sure if he was going to be healthy enough to play to becoming the conference's player of the year, a first-team All-Pac-12 performer and now one of the three comeback players of the year. A truly great story of perseverance."

Broussard's position coach, Darian Hagan, echoed Dorrell's sentiments, and along the way gave the CU sophomore some very sound advice.

"I am so proud of Jarek, how far he's come after what he's been through," Hagan said. "It takes a lot out of you not only physically but mentally to comeback after one knee surgery, much less two. But he was all-in to do everything he needed to do in his rehabilitation and more, it proves good things can happen when perseverance prevails."

Hagan should know; he suffered a torn ACL in the '91 Orange Bowl but worked hard to return for his senior season that fall, not only in his third year as CU's starting quarterback, but also as the team's punt return to help his professional prospects. He knew how much potential Broussard had when he recruited him out of Dallas' Bishop Lynch High School. That carried over to CU's preseason camp.

"Just watching him with the ball in his hands, we had nobody on our defense who could tackle him," Hagan said. "I knew that he had that special trait that you want as a running back. Then, unfortunately, he gets hurt again. I sat down with him and told him he needed to be all-in with his rehabilitation, and that he needed to make his injured leg bigger and stronger than his healthy one. He took it to heart and everyone can see the results."

"He has done an incredible job with his rehab and is truly a lesson in delayed gratification," said Andrew Hamstra, Colorado's head football trainer.

The other two recipients for the 2020 honor were Kenneth Horsey, a sophomore offensive lineman for the University of Kentucky, and Silas Kelly, a senior linebacker at Coastal Carolina University. The three football student-athletes overcame injury and illness to excel on the field this season. They were selected by a vote of Associated Press college football writers and were officially recognized during the PlayStation® Fiesta Bowl.

BROUSSARD BACK-TO-BACK

TB Jarek Broussard scored CU's first points of the year the last two seasons; when Bobby Anderson did the same in 1967-68 (the fifth to do so twice in school history), it didn't occur again until WR Roman Hollowell scored on a TD reception in 1999 and then on a punt return in 2001. Since, it's become common place: TB Bobby Purify (2003-04), PK Mason Crosby (2005-06), WR Scotty McKnight (2007-08), WR Paul Richardson (2011-13) and WR Nelson Spruce (2012, 2014). No player has scored CU's first points of a season three times.

FASTEST TO 1,000

TB Jarek Broussard, with 1,431 career rushing yards, reached the 1K pinnacle in just nine regular season games (CU doesn't include bowl stats in season or career records). The fastest to 1,000 in the number of games played had been Charlie Davis, who reached the mark in his 10th game, the 10th of his sophomore season in 1971 (doing so on a 67-yard TD run). He hit 1,000 on his 172nd carry, the fourth-fewest. Eddie Dove (1956-58) hit 1,000 yards on his 139th carry, Carroll Hardy (1951-54) did it on his 148th rush, Frank Bernardi (1951-54) on his 156th and Davis on his 163rd.

► He is already 33rd on CU's all-time rushing list, as he is averaging 95.4 yards per game (15 games).

LANDMAN BUTKUS SEMIFINALIST FOR SECOND STRAIGHT YEAR

Senior ILB Nate Landman has once again been named for the second straight year as one of 16 semifinalists for the 37th annual Butkus Award by its selection committee. He currently leads the team in tackles with 71 – bidding to become the first to lead CU in the stat for four years – but is currently doubtful this week with a soft-tissue shoulder injury. He is the sixth player in school history to record 400 career tackles (409, which ties for fifth).

The Buffaloes have two previous winners, Alfred Williams (1990) and Matt Russell (1996); two runner-ups, Ted Johnson (1994) and Jordon Dizon (2007), and one other semifinalist, Greg Biekert (1992). Russell also finished fourth for the honor in 1995 (the 2020 Butkus Award was eventually won by Notre Dame's Jeremiah Owusu-Koramoah).

Prior to suffering a torn Achilles tendon last Dec. 12 against Utah (he has since returned to 100 percent), had a “landmark” two weeks, beginning with a monster effort in CU's 20-10 win over San Diego State. Against the Aztecs, he recorded 11 tackles (10 solo), which included six stops at or behind the line of scrimmage: three quarterback sacks, a tackle for loss, and two tackles for zero gains. He had four third down stops, as all three of his sacks were on third downs, and added a pass broken up (also on third down) and a touchdown save. He was in for all 59 snaps on defense, and on special teams duty, he added a forced fair catch on punt coverage. On Sunday (Nov. 29), Landman was selected as the Walter Camp Football Foundation's National Defensive Player of the Week, the first defensive Buffalo to earn the honor since CB Terrence Wheatley for his three interception game at Texas Tech in 2007. Otherwise, you have to go back to 1996 for the player previously honored, FS Steve Rosga against Oklahoma State.

Landman led the team in tackles in 2020 with 61, and also has team-bests of 13 third down stops (including two on fourth down), and seven tackles for zero which also gave him a team-high of 14 stops at or behind the line of scrimmage when including his eight TFL's. (Career numbers and ranks below.)

And later on that same Monday, he was named the Pac-12 Conference's Defensive Player of the Week for the second time this season (also for CU's win at Stanford); the last CU defensive player to win twice in the same season was SS Tedric Thompson in 2016 (for the Stanford and Utah games). Other players on the defense who have been recognized twice in a season as conference players of the week include DE Bill Brundige (1969), ILB Bill Roe (1979), DT Art Walker (1989), OLB Darin Schubeck (1986) and FS Steve Rosga (1996); Roe is the only one to also win in back-to-back games. Landman has now earned the honor three times, joining Rosga, ILB Greg Biekert as three-time defensive POW selections in their careers.

But wait – there was more: on Dec. 1, the FWA named him as the Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week, the second time in his career that he has been afforded that honor (also for the 2018 Nebraska game). He's the third Buffalo to win the Nagurski honor since its inception in 2001; Wheatley won it in 2007 for the Texas Tech game. Then on Dec. 8, the Maxwell Club tabbed him as the Chuck Bednarik National Defensive Player of the Week for his monster game at Arizona (17 tackles, 14 solo, three for losses including a sack, four third stops and two tackles for zero). He is also one of 24 semifinalists for the Lott Impact Award.

LANDMAN'S LANDMARKS

All-American candidate and second-time senior ILB Nate Landman healed from a torn Achilles suffered against Utah in the fifth game of the 2020 season in time to start the 2021 season. A roll call of what he has accomplished in a CU uniform:

- He is bidding to become the first player in school history to lead the team in tackles four times; he has 71 (52 solo) thus far in 2021 (seven more than two players at present).
- He has become the sixth player in CU history to be in on 400 career tackles, as his 409 are now tied for fifth in all-time total stops, while his 285 unassisted stops are second; he is sixth in tackles for loss with 40, first in third down stops with 53, first in fourth down stops (9) and tied for 32nd in quarterback sacks (11), but tied for third among inside linebackers).
- He recorded 200 career tackles in just 24 career games on defense and hit 300 in 33 career contests. Only five players have 400 or more (all-time leader Barry Remington reached 400 in his 31st game).
- He had 137 tackles in 2019 (112 solo), or 11.4 per game; he finished with the most stops since ILB Jordon Dizon racked up 160 in 2007 (120 solo). The 137 tied him for the 14th-most in a single season at Colorado.
- His 112 solo tackles in 2019 ranked as the second-most in a single season, the fourth Buff to reach the century mark. Only ILB Jordan Dizon had more (120 in 2007); ILB Greg Biekert (105 in 1990) and ILB Ray Cone (102 in 1982).
- He had 16 unassisted tackles at Oregon in 2019 (16TT), tied for the fifth-most solo stops in school history.
- Landman's 137 tackles in 2019 were one more than the next two players combined (136; 69 by Davion Taylor and 67 by Mikial Onu); since CU started keeping tackle statistics in 1964, that's the first time that the team leader had more than the next two players combined.
- In his first career start on defense (2018 opener against CSU) he was in on 14 tackles (four solo), tying for the most tackles in a first career start.
- He has 22 double-digit tackle efforts in 46 career games (three this season; his personal best in tackles (19, 11 solo) came at Utah in 2018). The list:

CAREER CHART WATCH

Here's where several Buffaloes rank on some of CU's all-time lists through games of November 13 (Note: Colorado does not count bowl stats into career totals to protect past history, thus career numbers for players past and present will differ from NCAA):

- ⇒ WR DANIEL ARIAS is second in forced fair catches (26), is second in first downfield credits (13) and is eighth in special team points (70).
- ⇒ TB JAREK BROUSSARD is 33rd in rushing yards (1,431).
- ⇒ TB ALEX FONTENOT is 41st in rushing yards (1,214), is 79th in scoring (72 points) and is 83rd in receptions (37).
- ⇒ DL MUSTAFA JOHNSON is for 14th in quarterback sacks (16) and is 15th in tackles for loss (33).
- ⇒ ILB NATE LANDMAN is tied for fifth in total tackles (409), is second in unassisted tackles (285), is sixth in tackles for loss (40), is tied for 32nd in quarterback sacks (11; tied for third-most by an inside linebacker); is first in third down stops (53) and is first in fourth down stops (9).
- ⇒ QB BRENDON LEWIS is 29th in passing yards (1,344) and tied for 19th in touchdown passes (10).
- ⇒ PK EVAN PRICE is 88th in scoring (66 points) and is tied for 19th in field goals made (14).
- ⇒ WR BRENDEN RICE is tied for 106th in receptions (27) and is 100th in receiving yards (419).
- ⇒ TE BRADY RUSSELL is tied for 50th in receptions (53) and is 65th in receiving yards (603).
- ⇒ WR DIMITRI STANLEY is 40th in receptions (62) and is 54th in receiving yards (677).
- ⇒ OLB CARSON WELLS is tied for 12th in tackles for loss (35) and is tied for 22nd in quarterback sacks (13½).

AROUND THE NATION

Colorado has traditionally stocked its rosters primarily with players from three states: Colorado, California and Texas (77.6 percent of the entire roster—active and inactive—as of Oct. 17: 90 of 116 players, including three inactive). The roll call of state producers for the Buffaloes: Colorado 35, California 33, Texas 22, Florida 4, Alabama 2, Arizona 2, Mississippi 2, Washington 2, Arkansas 1, Georgia 1, Illinois 1, Iowa 1, Louisiana 1, Massachusetts 1, Michigan 1, Nevada 1, North Carolina 1, Oregon 1, Tennessee 1, Virginia 1, Wisconsin 1. That's 21 states total along with AUSTRALIA (1) that has produced the 2021 Buffaloes.

- ➔ AROUND THE WORLD: Five Buffaloes were born outside of the United States: WR Daniel Arias (Santa Domingo, D.R.), OLB Joshka Gustav (Germany), ILB Nate Landman (Zimbabwe) and P Josh Watts (Tasmania).
- ➔ BY CLASS: 3 graduate transfers; 4 seniors (4 fifth-year), 22 juniors (2 second-time), 21 sophomores (16 second-time, 2 third-time); 66 freshmen (44 true, 13 redshirt/2nd-year; nine third-time).

AND THE J'S (STILL) HAVE IT

Statistics show that more first names in the U.S. begin with the letter "J," followed by M, S, D and C. The Buffs take that to the extreme: on the 2021 Colorado roster, almost 22 percent on the team has first names that begin with J: 25 players overall who go by 24 different J names. The list:

Jack (2)	Jalen	Janaz	Jayle	Jeremiah	Jonathan	Joshka
Jackson	Jamar	Jarek	Jaylen	Joe	Jordan	Joshua
Jake	James	Jayden	Jaylon	John	Josh	Justin

THIRD DOWN SUCCESS

Colorado has converted over 40 percent on third down in four of the past five seasons (exception: in 2018 when it converted at 36.1 percent).

In 2020, and granted, just a five-game sample, the Buffs converted at a 46.8 percent clip, averaging 6.9 yards to go on 79 tries (and one of those "misses" came on a kneel-down to end the UCLA game). The Buffs were 35-of-64 on 3rd-&-10 or less (54.7), and 2-of-15 on 3rd-&-11 or longer has brought the average down. Opponents converted at a 33.8 clip in the regular season (just 10-of-30 on 3rd-&-6 or less, 33.3) despite averaging 7.4 yards to go. In the bowl game, Texas was just 2-of-11.

➔ But 10 games into 2021, Colorado is 42-of-128 (though 30-of-58 on 3rd-&-6 or less), while needing an average of 7.7 yards to go for a first down. CU is only 17-of-80 when calling a pass play (includes 15 sacks), but in its three wins, it is 19-of-39 (48.7).

- ➔ CU's best season of third down conversion percentage came in 1989 – 53.9 (83 of 154, including 30-of-30 on 3rd-&-1) – followed by 1990 (48.9), 1954 and 2020 (46.8), 1966 (46.0), 1987 (45.2), 1957 (45.1) and 2016 (44.5).

AND ON DEFENSE...

The Buffaloes did a great job on third down defense in 2020. Last year, including the bowl, the enemy was just 27-of-85 overall (31.8 percent, 13th-best nationally), and just 7-of-24 in tries of one-to-four yards. The Buffs recorded 12 quarterback sacks on third downs as well, whereas the opponent had just two on CU signal callers.

OLB Carson Wells had 4½ of those third down sacks and ILB Nate Landman three.

- ➔ 2021: Opponents are just 52-of-134 (38.8 percent, with only two teams converting half the time or better (Oregon, 7-of-10, Arizona State (5-of-10.) The other eight opponents thus are just 40-of-114, or 34.6 percent.

CU'S IN & OUT (Not the Burgers)

ILB Nate Landman and OLB/DE Carson Wells formed a pretty solid combination in 2020, so much so that CU's long-time linebacker coach, Brian Cabral, nicknamed the pair "The Dynamic Duo" a la Batman & Robin. Landman's accomplishments are detailed on the previous page, and Wells has quietly contributed nearly if not just as much. Wells finished third on the team with 34 tackles (26 solo), and was the NCAA leader in tackles for loss with 2.7 per game (13½ overall, including 4½ sacks). He also had five passes broken up, five pressures and eight third downs stops to go with an interception. Two of the third down stops were on pass breakups, thus he had 20 tackles at or behind the line of scrimmage.

► Wells has three career interceptions after he returned one 50 yards for a touchdown against Arizona; the other two have come against UCLA and its stellar quarterback, Dorian Thompson-Robinson. DTR is 2-2 against Colorado as a starter, and in both losses, he failed to complete over 50 percent of his passes.

- Wells has been a TFL machine; he had four in the win over Arizona and closed 2020 with three or more in the last four 2020 regular season games (3, 4, 4, 3), the first Buffalo to have four in a row with that many since Alfred Williams in 1990. He then had 2½ in the Alamo Bowl against Texas (the NCAA recognized him with 16 in six games; CU does not include bowl stats).

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

FUMBLE ME OR FUMBLE ME NOT

Hanging on to the football is one thing that the Colorado Buffaloes have done most of last decade, and they took it up a notch in 2019. The Buffaloes did not fumble the ball in six games, and had just 11 fumbles, and "11" is actually a bit misleading: three were charged to the team on bad snaps and a fourth happened on a muffed try at scooping up a punt; the three that were lost were on special teams (two on kickoff returns and that muffed punt; the offense never lost a fumble. The Buffs set a record with four consecutive games without a fumble, which included a stretch of 446 touches (scrimmage plays, punts/placement kicks, returns, fair catches).

- ▶ In 2019, 1,021 touches, that was one fumble for every 92.8 touches. The ones most prone to fumble, running backs, had just three in 367 (rushes, receptions, returns).
- ▶ In 2020, 445 touches, that was one fumble for every 75.7 touches. The ones most prone to fumble, running backs, had just one in 185 (rushes, receptions, returns).
- ▶ 2021 numbers: 8 fumbles (two of which came one on punt return muffs and two on center exchanges) in 735 touches (600 scrimmage plays; 3 recoveries, 6 interceptions, 126 special teams: 35 returns, 54 punts and 37 placements)—one for every 91.9 touches;
- ▶ Since the start of the 2013 season, Colorado has a total of 128 fumbles (losing 55) — out of 9,183 touches (or 1 in for every 71.7 touches).
- ▶ CU's tailbacks have just 23 over the last eight-plus seasons in 2,903 carries (or just one in every 126.2 attempts).
- ▶ CU's first lost fumble in 2020 came 193 minutes and 31 seconds into the season (fourth game), a school record for the longest into a year before losing one;
- ▶ CU had no fumbles in six games in 2019, tying the school record set in 2014 and 2017 (and has none in 38 of its last 99 games).
- ▶ CU has lost just 22 fumbles (4 this season) dating back into the 2016 season (out of 84 fumbles overall in this 64-game span).
- ▶ CU lost just 3 fumbles in 2019, none on offense (two on kickoff returns, one on a muffed punt return); that tied for the third fewest in the NCAA, and lost only 3 again in 2020; and have just 4 through 10 games in 2021.

ALMOST PERFECT IN CLOSE

Dating back to nine games into the 2016 season, Colorado has had 94 goal-to-go situations, scoring 92 times (or 97 percent of the time); 73 of the scores have been touchdowns to go with 19 field goals. The only non-scores came on a drive ending on downs in 2018 against Oregon State (in overtime) and an interception last year at Oregon. A look at perfect (or near) seasons in this regard since 1984 when the stat was first tracked (CU is 13-for-13 in 2021, 9 TDs):

CHEV'S "COACHED" A HATRICK ... PLUS

Darrin Chiaverini is in his sixth year as CU's receivers coach; in 64 regular season games, he's coached six 1,000-yard receivers, five who have passed him on CU's all-time receiving yards list. WR Shay Fields passed him as a junior in 2016, while seniors WR Devin Ross and WR Bryce Bobo did so in 2017. WR Laviska Shenault zoomed by him in the first game of 2019, and WR K.D. Nixon became the fifth in the fifth game of the shortened 2020 season:

THAT REDSHIRT RULE

Beginning with the 2018 season, incoming freshmen can now play in up to four games but not lose a year of eligibility; this also applies to anyone else on the roster. In any year they play in four games or less, they get the year back (and the four can be at any point during the season; they do not have to be the first four games). Also if a player redshirts as a true freshman and then suffers a season-ending injury within the first four games of another season, he's now eligible for a sixth-year without having to lose two years to injuries and go through the old petition process. A perfect example would be Derek McCartney, who redshirted as a true freshman in 2013, and was injured in game three of his fourth-year (2016); he would have been awarded a sixth-year of eligibility under this rule change.

If this rule had been permanently in place since freshmen were allowed to play, here are some notable Buffaloes that would have earned a full season back due to either playing in four games or less at some point in their career due to injury, and others who were simply inserted at the end of games over the course of the season when the outcomes had already been decided (assuming the four-game maximum would have applied in 11-game seasons prior to 2006; *—denotes true freshman):

WR *Dave Logan, 1972	Debuted late in week two in a 56-14 win over Cincinnati, when he had his lone reception of the year. He was on the travel squad, but appeared just a couple of more times.
TB *James Mayberry, 1975	Appeared late in several games, had 16 rushing attempts and one reception.
DT George Smith, 1982	Injured in the fourth game of the year, he had 34 tackles, four for losses when he was lost for the year.
WB *Mike Pritchard, 1987	Appeared in six games and 17 rushes and threw seven passes.
QB *Darian Hagan, 1988	Appeared in five games (plus the Freedom Bowl), had 38 rushes and threw seven passes.
QB *Vance Joseph, 1990	Appeared in four games, had 13 rushes and threw seven passes (and was next in line to play in the '91 Orange Bowl).
QB *Kordell Stewart, 1991	Appeared in two games, had 18 rushes and threw two passes.
QB *Koy Detmer, 1992	Pressed into duty to rally CU over Minnesota in game three, started two others and appeared in seven overall; but he was also injured early in the fourth game in 1995, so either would have applied.
ILB Jashon Sykes, 2001	Injured in the fourth game of the year, he had already racked up 33 tackles and 3½ sacks
QB *Joel Klatt, 2002	Played three snaps late against Baylor in game seven, appeared in a handful of others after, including on the punt team.
OLB Derek McCartney, 2016	Had already utilized his redshirt year, so when lost for the season with a torn ACL in game three at Michigan, he lost that year.

And there were several players in 1984, when CU resurrected its junior varsity team for one year; several played in the three JV games and then saw some time afterward in some of the last six varsity games. These included WR Lance Carl, ILB Don DeLuzio, TB Dion Dyson, TE/P Keith English, WR Drew Ferrando, QB Mark Hatcher, P Barry Helton, TB Sam Smith, CB David Tate and FB Anthony Weatherspoon.

AND WHO BENEFITTED THE FIRST YEAR? SEVEN BUFFS ... THIRTEEN DO SO IN YEAR TWO

In 2018, there were seven Buffaloes who benefitted from the NCAA's new redshirt which permits players to play in up to four games and not lose a year of eligibility provided they had a redshirt year available to them (no fifth-year seniors played in four games or less who were lost for the season due to injury, as exceptions could have been made in those instances). Those players, with the games they appeared in parenthesis (*—no longer on team): OLB *Jacob Callier (4), PK *Tyler Francis (2), P Alex Kinney (4), PK Evan Price (2), WR Dimitri Stanley (3), DB *L.J. Wallace (1) and ILB *Jake Yurachek (1).

► In 2019, the rule was applied to 10 current players who met the criteria: CB Mehki Blackmon (4), OT Frank Fillip (2), OLB Joshka Gustav (3), ILB Marvin Ham (4), OL Austin Johnson (1), OLB Jamar Montgomery (4), OLB Alec Pell (4), ILB Quinn Perry (1), PK Evan Price (4) and WR La'Vontae Shenault (4).

SEASON OPENERS: UNDERCLASSMEN STARTERS

The depth is always fluid leading up to the first game, but with 10 underclassmen (four freshmen, six sophomores) atop the opening season depth chart, it was the third most upperclassmen that would start a Colorado opener dating back to 1995. The last four season opener numbers are among the top 10 in this time frame. A look at the most underclassmen starters for the Buffaloes over the last 27 seasons:

Season	Fr.	So.	Total	Season	Fr.	So.	Total

WATTS DEVELOPED INTO A MAJOR WEAPON

Junior P Josh Watts, the Pac-12 Conference's leading punter (fourth in the NCAA), has enjoyed a breakout year, averaging 48.3 yards for 54 punts net of 39.7). He had six games with at least five punts, and has averaged 47.8 yards or more in each. He is averaging 51.8 yards for 16 punts from the CU 25 and inside, and 49.5 for 46 kicks from CU's side of the field. He averaged 48 yards or more for a six game stretch; the last time a CU punter averaged over 47 yards a kick for that many games in a row (minimum of four punts) was back in 2004, when P John Torp had that number or better also for six straight. Karl Dorrell credits some of his improvement to CU's new strength coach, Shannon Turley, who has worked extensively with Watts to eliminate the soft tissue injuries he had in 2020. (See his expanded punting stats on the last page of CU's statistics sheets.)

IN THE POLLS / SOME HISTORY

Colorado re-entered the national polls on Dec. 6, 2020 (No. 21 AP/No. 22 USAT), after last being ranked on Oct. 13, 2018 (No. 25 in the USA Today/Coaches poll), and was last in the AP poll on Oct. 6, 2018 (No. 19; the Buffs were a season-high No. 18 the same day in the coach's ballot). The Buffs were not ranked in 2017, and had climbed to as high as No. 9 in both polls (twice) in 2016; CU had not been ranked previous to '16 since 2005. Colorado owns the ninth longest streak of all-time, as from the 1989 preseason poll through the fifth week of 1997, CU had a run of 143 consecutive weeks in the AP poll. CU has been ranked 305 times in its history, the 29th most all-time; the Buffs have finished in the top four on four occasions, tied for 22nd most (the College Football Playoff includes the top four teams; only USC, with 12, has more than CU from the Pac-12).

47 WINS OVER AP RANKED TEAMS 23RD BEST SINCE '89

CU's 47 wins over Associated Press ranked teams dating back to the 1989 season (when the AP expanded to a top 25) are tied for the 23rd most in the nation in this time frame (33 seasons). Through games of Nov. 6, Alabama has the most (103), followed by Ohio State (100), LSU (87), Florida State (84), Florida (81), Oklahoma (81), Michigan (77), Southern Cal (73), Georgia (70), Miami, Fla. (65), Auburn (64), Oregon (64), Tennessee (63), Notre Dame (60), Texas (60), Clemson (58), Penn State (58), UCLA (55), Washington (55), Stanford (52), Wisconsin (52), Virginia Tech (50), Michigan State (49), COLORADO (47), Nebraska (47) and Texas A&M (44).

- All-time, Colorado's 70 wins over ranked teams are the 23rd most in history.
- CU is 4-35 against ranked teams dating back to 2009; also 1-31 on road since 2002 (win at ASU in 2019 snapped a 29-game losing streak).
- CU's last win over a top 5 or 10 team was on Sept. 29, 2007: a 27-24 win over No. 3 Oklahoma in Boulder (16 straight losses).
- Since 1989 (when the Associated Press started ranking a Top 25), Colorado is tied for the 11th most ranked teams played in the nation (142, 47-93-2), trailing Alabama 169 (103-65-1), LSU 167 (87-80), Florida 160 (81-78-1), Tennessee 159 (63-93-3), Ohio State 155 (100-52-3), Michigan 154 (77-75-2), Auburn 153 (64-88-1), Georgia 151 (70-80-1), Oklahoma 147 (81-64-2), Florida State 145 (84-60-1), Washington 142 (55-86-1); USC 140 (73-66-1), Texas 140 (60-78-2), UCLA 136 (55-80-1), Notre Dame 134 (60-72-2), Michigan State 132 (49-83), Penn State 133 (58-75), Stanford 132 (52-80), Miami, Fla. 131 (65-66), Wisconsin 130 (52-77-1), Mississippi 126 (32-94), Texas A&M 126 (44-82), Oregon 123 (64-59), Clemson 123 (58-65), Nebraska 115 (47-67-1), Iowa 112 (39-73), Virginia Tech 111 (50-60-1).
- Pac-12 Records versus ranked teams (by wins; since start of 1989 season): USC 73-66-1; Oregon 64-59; Washington 55-86-1; UCLA 55-80-1; Stanford 52-80; Colorado 47-93-2; Arizona 37-83; Arizona State 34-79; Washington State 31-87; Cal 30-79-1; Utah 23-34; Oregon State 22-81.

THE TRANSFER PORTAL

Since the transfer portal became the NCAA's version of free agency, Colorado has acquired eight players, five as graduate transfers and three who decided to transfer as undergraduates (*—denotes graduate transfer; Status—clock at start of 2021 season, i.e., 2/1: two years to play one in eligibility; all but Mott are on scholarship):

700 CLUB

Colorado became the 25th school to reach the 700-win mark with a 44-28 win over California in 2017; the Buffs have an all-time record of 717-524-36 (a .576 winning percentage). In addition to being 27th on the all-time win list, CU is 36th in winning percentage (29th for schools with 1,000 or more games [-played in the FBS]). THE VERTICAL GAME (EXPLOSION PLAYS)

CU, as in the case with most teams, often is most dangerous on offense when the unit can strike for the big play both via the rush and pass. Colorado had 57 “explosion” plays in 2016, or ones that gained 20 or more yards; that was the most by a CU team since 2007 (49 in 2017). Here’s a look at CU’s 20-plus plays in recent memory, not including bowls, going back to 1994, when CU had a high of 76 plays over 20-yards, almost equal in nature (37 rush, 39 pass):

Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass	Season	Total	Rush	Pass

100/300

The Buffaloes have historically done well when holding the opponent to under 100 yards rushing and under 300 yards total offense. Dating back to the start of the 1985 season, Colorado is 106-15-1 when the opponent fails to reach 100 yards on the ground, and 107-20-1 when the enemy is held under 300 yards overall. CU is 13-1 and 18-0 in each, respectively, dating back to the start of the 2013 season (1-0 in 2021).

AHEAD IN A BIG WAY

From 2006-15, the opponent had almost always had a distinct advantage in TSL (time spent in the lead), but CU reversed that and then some in 2016. The Buffs led for 457 minutes and 20 seconds, or 59 percent of the time; opponents for just 24 percent and the score tied the other 17 percent. CU led for more minutes in 2016 than it had in all 11 previous years after just eight games (and when it held the edge over an entire season just twice: 2005 and 2010. But alas, the opponent held a slight edge in both 2017 and 2018 (bowl games not included):

TURNOVER FREE

Colorado has had an impressive number of turnover free games dating back 10-plus seasons, and in 2017, Colorado had a record run of 16 consecutive quarters played without turning the ball over (253:52 in total time). Colorado played 17 games out of 74 in six seasons under Mike MacIntyre without a turnover, the highest percentage in any CU head coach’s tenure over two years since World War II. Take a look (TFG—turnover free games; TG—total games):

Coach	TFG	(Record)	TG	Pct.	Coach	TFG	(Record)	TG	Pct.	Coach	TFG	(Record)	TG	Pct.
Mike MacIntyre	17	(11-6)	74	23.0	Dal Ward	5	(2-1-2)	110	4.5	Brian Cabral	1	(1-0)	3	33.3
Bill McCartney	23	(18-3-2)	153	15.0	Bill Mallory	1	(1-0)	57	1.7	Jon Embree	5	(1-4)	25	20.0

Eddie Crowder	6	(5-1)	118	5.1	Mel Tucker	4	(5-7)	12	33.3

- Karl Dorrell became CU’s third straight head coach to not have his team turn the ball over in his first game (vs. UCLA in 2020).
- Colorado has played 18 turnover-free games in its last 51, easily the school-best for a span of that few number of games. And in 2017, it nearly had a fifth—an interception on a Hail Mary as time ran out at Arizona State was the lone turnover of that game.
- Post-World War II (dating back to 1946), Colorado has played 94 turnover-free games, owning a record of 61-29-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls).
- Colorado played at least three turnover-free games in the five seasons from 2015-19, easily the longest streak in school history; the 18 games without a turnover over those five seasons are the most in any five-year span in school history, besting 12 mistake-free games from 1987-91.
- Colorado has now had at least one turnover-free game for 12 straight seasons (2010-21, 34 total), now the longest run in school annals: the Buffs had at least one for 10 straight years (1998-2007, 19 total); CU also had a run of nine consecutive seasons (1987-95, 22 total).

ELEVEN HAVE DASHED 100 ... OR FURTHER

In 2017 (Oct. 28), then-junior DB Nick Fisher joined a very exclusive club when he returned an interception 100 yards in the fourth quarter to close out CU’s 44-28 win over California. It was the 11th 100-yard play in CU history, the fourth interception return of that length. However, the NCAA seals returns at a 100-yard maximum; if it allowed returns to be scored like the NFL, counting end zone yardage, Fisher would have been credited with a 109-yard return (CU’s head statistician is also the Broncos’). It was the first 100-yard interception return since 1996, when FS Steve Rosga pulled it off against Oklahoma State (his would have been 105 yards). ILB Marcus Burton came close in 2005, when he picked one off at the half yard line and raced 99 yards for a score — at Oklahoma State.

DID YOU SAY UTES?

Stealing from My Cousin Vinny and the last Fred Gwynne's classic line, as of press time, Bowling Green conducted a survey on who is carrying the most freshmen on their rosters. They did the survey based on high schoolers that graduated either in the class of 2020 or the class of 2021 (so, not counting anyone from 2019 that did not lose a year of eligibility by playing four games or less).

FATHER-SON SCORING

When WR Dimitri Stanley scored the first touchdown (and points) of his career with a 13-yard TD reception against Air Force in 2019, he joined his father Walter ('81) as the fourth father-son duo to score points for the Buffs; they are now the highest-scoring father-son duo in CU history (the list; year is the last season on the Buffs):

Father: Larry Brunson, 1971 (3 TDs)
Father: Marc Walters, 1986 (2 TDs)

Son: Matt Brunson, 2001 (2 TDs)
Son: Ryan Walters, 2006 (1 TD)

Father: Dick Anderson, 1967 (2 PATs)
Father: Walter Stanley, 1981 (5 TDs)

Son: Blake Anderson, 1994 (1 TD)
Son: Dimitri Stanley, 2019-21 (4 TDs)

FATHER-SON "100"

WR Dimitri Stanley recorded his first 100-yard career receiving game when he caught six balls for 126 yards and a TD in CU's 35-32 win over Stanford. His father, Walter, caught five passes for 222 yards and two scores in the 1981 season opener against Tech. The younger Stanley thus joined his dad as the only father-son duo in school history to record 100-yard receiving games. How common is that at the same school around the nation? Here's a look from a survey of other schools, as apparently it is fairly uncommon (number in parenthesis is the number of 100-yard games for each):

School	Father, Seasons (#)	Son, Seasons (#)
Colorado	Walter Stanley, 1980-81 (1)	Dimitri, 2019-20 (1)
Florida	Lee McGriff, 1972-74 (5)	Travis, 1995-98 (7)
Illinois	John Wright, Sr., 1965-67 (12)	John, Jr., 1988-91 (1)
Kentucky	Dicky Lyons, Sr., 1966-68 (1)	Dicky Jr., 2004-08 (3)
Stanford	Ed McCaffrey, 1987-90 (8)	Christian, 2014-16 (2)
UCLA	George Farmer, 1967-69 (2)	Danny, 1996-99 (11)
Wisconsin	Al Toon, 1982-84 (6)	Nick, 2008-11 (4)

► And be on the alert for a potential "Brother-Brother 100." With freshman La'Vontae Shenault in the regular rotation at receiver, his older brother Laviska had eight 100-yard receiving games for the Buffaloes. They would be the first brother-brother combo to do it if the younger Shenault has a 100-yard game (the younger Shenault is serving an indefinite suspension at present).

INSIDE-THE-20

(FACT: CU invented charting the red zone in 1981 as "Penetrating the 20"; as in the NFL, the 20 is not in the red zone in its stats)

The Buffaloes, after going through a period where they had their frustrations once penetrating the opponent 20-yard line, has been very efficient over the last six-plus seasons in the stats' original name, "Scoring Percentage Inside-the-20." Dating back to the start of the 2014 season, Colorado is 279-of-327 in the "Red Zone" (85.3 percent, 196 touchdowns/83 field goals). In 2021, the Buffaloes are having one of their best years overall, scoring on 27-of-29 penetrations (19 touchdowns). Here's a look at CU's best Red Zone performances on offense in its history; numbers were researched from 1953 to the present (bow! games not included):

STIFLE, EDITH! (I'm so 70s). Since losing in Lincoln on Nov. 12, 1988 against Nebraska by a 7-0 score, the Buffaloes had won 75 straight games when holding the opponent to 13 points or less until dropping a 10-7 decision to Texas A&M in Denver on Sept. 11. CU had also won 29 in a row when the enemy has scored 14 or fewer dating to a 14-13 setback at Georgia in 2006; and 24 straight when the opponent has been held to 17 or fewer points (dating to a 17-10 loss at Iowa State in 2009). Colorado's last loss at home when allowing 13 points or less remains the 1987 season opener against Oregon, when the Ducks left Boulder with a 10-7 win.

FUN FOUR FACT. Four schools can boast that they have won a national championship in football, have had a Heisman Trophy winner, a U.S. Supreme Court Justice and at least one man that either walked on the Moon or traveled there to and from. Those are Colorado, Michigan, Texas and Army-West Point. For CU, that would be Rashaan Salaam (Heisman), Byron White (Supreme Court) and Apollo command module pilots Jack Swigert (Apollo 13) and Stuart Roosa (Apollo 14). Other schools that would join the above with at least one astronaut (who was not on an Apollo mission) include California, Navy, Stanford and Wisconsin. CARRY OUT TO FIVE: Throw in a U.S. Open (golf) winner, and the only schools with all five are CU (Hale Irwin, Steve Jones) and Texas.

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS IN 2021

- 0 The number of penalties CU had in the first three quarters at California, the first time since the 2016 Utah game.
- 0-8-3 The Buffs record in Pac-12 road “doubleheaders” (road games in back-to-back weeks: no sweeps, three splits, swept eight times including this year (Cal-Oregon);
- 2-4-2 The Buffs record in Pac-12 home “doubleheaders” (two sweeps—WSU and Utah in 2016 and Stanford and Washington in 2019; two splits, swept four times);
- 1 The number of starts at quarterback by all players on the roster at the position entering the season (and that was by the injured J.T. Shrout);
- 3:17 The average length of CU’s games in 2021 (the quickest—California, 2:59; the longest—Oregon State 3:41). The average in 2020: 3:24;
- 4 The number of fumbles lost by CU in 2021 after losing just 3 in 2020 and in 2019 (out of 25 total over the three years);
- 4:25 (a.m.) The time Colorado returned to the Champions Center on campus from its road game at UCLA;
- 4:40 (a.m.) The time Colorado returned to the Champions Center on campus from its road game at Arizona State;
- 5 Turnover-free games by Colorado to date (all three in the first six games for just the third time in school history—also in 2017 and 2018);
- 5-6 Colorado’s record in Pac-12 Conference openers, including this year’s 35-13 loss at Arizona State (3-2 on the road);
- VI Ralphie VI made her long-awaited debut, after 2020 marked the first year dating back to 1967 that a Ralphie did not lead the team out on the field;
- 7 The number of total turnovers by Colorado in 2021, the third-fewest in the nation;
- 7 The number of touchdowns from freshman quarterback to freshman wide receivers, two more than in CU’s previous history combined;
- 10 The points scored by No. 5 Texas A&M in its 10-7 win over CU, the second-fewest a Top 5 team has ever scored against the Buffaloes;
- 11.4 The average number of possessions per game for Colorado (114 in 10 games), the lowest since 11.25 in 2006 (135 possessions in 12 games);
- 12 The Buffaloes have had at least one turnover-free game for the last 12 seasons, the longest run in school history (CU has had none twice in 2021);
- 12 The number of true freshmen the Buffs have played in 2021 (4 offense/7 defense/1 specialist);
- 13 The number of drives the opponent has started in Colorado territory in 2021 (out of 117 possessions, eight scores (6 TD/2 FG);
- 18.8 The average length of QB Brendon Lewis’ touchdown passes (10 for 188 yards);
- 20-9 Colorado’s non-conference record dating back to the start of the 2013 season (includes Pac-12 title game two Alamo Bowl losses; 20-6 regular season);
- 22 The number of players who have made their debut in CU uniform this season;
- 23 The number of fumbles by CU tailbacks (on offense) in 102 games from 2013-21 (2,903 carries; 0 this year in 283; 8 in the last 1,425);
- 27 The number of different NFL teams that have scouted the Buffaloes on game days in 2020;
- 27 Karl Dorrell was named the 27th head coach in Colorado history on February 23, 2020 (only Bill McCartney was named later, on June 9, 1982);
- 29-2 CU’s record in season openers since 1967 when scoring first;
- 32 The number of Colorado games played in less than three hours since 1990 (out of 382 games; last: 2:59 at California this season);
- 34 The average yardline CU has made its 54 punts from (about 6 yards lower than last year);
- 34 The number of games decided by one score (8 points or less) that CU has been involved in over the last nine seasons (two this year);
- 34.5 The average length of PK Cole Becker’s made field goals (10 for 345 yards);
- 36.9 The third down efficiency of opponents against Colorado in the state’s borders since the ‘09 opener (450-of-1,221);
- 39.8 The opponents’ combined percentage on third down inside-the-CU 20 (130-of-326) in the last 130 games (dating to 2008; 11-of-22 this year);
- 43-of-66 The abnormal number of coin tosses CU has won dating back to the ‘16 opener (65.2%; 6-of-10 this year; CU was 13-of-14 in ‘16);
- 51 The length of the first career field goal made by PK Cole Becker, the fourth-longest by a freshman and the fourth-longest first career make in school history;
- 65.4 Colorado’s third down efficiency on 3rd-&-4 or less the last three seasons (225-of-346; 25-of-41 this season/61.0; on 3rd-&-1: 91-of-119);
- 71.4 The average temperature at kickoff for CU’s eight games thus far in 2021 (compared to 50.0 for five games in 2020 and 63.3 for 12 games in 2019);
- 77.1 The opponents’ scoring percentage inside-the-20 (red zone; 22 TD/5 FG in 35 trips);
- 93.6 Over the last two seasons, CU’s scoring percentage inside-the-20 (Red Zone), 44 of 47 times (33 TDs); scoring 27 of 29 times (19 touchdowns) in 2021;
- 152 The number of touches by Colorado (127 plays, 18 special team snaps, 7 returns) before committing its first fumble of the year (high center snap);
- 190:54 The time between CU turnovers from a fourth quarter interception at Cal to a fourth quarter fumble lost at UCLA, spanning four games (111 TO-free quarters);
- 300 < CU allowed under 300 yards in the first two games this season (256 by Northern Colorado, 288 by Texas A&M), the ninth time dating back to 1971;
- 323 The number of all-time wins Colorado has recorded at Folsom Field since it opened on Oct. 11, 1924 (409 overall at all home venues);
- 717 The number of all-time wins by Colorado, as the Buffaloes became the 25th school to win 700 games.
- 11,537 The number of students scanned into the opener against Northern Colorado, the most since ticket officials started scanning students for admittance.

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS (2020 LEFTOVERS)

- 4th Karl Dorrell became the fourth coach since 1932 to win his debut at the reins of the CU program with the Buffs’ 48-42 win over UCLA;
- 5 The number of regular season games played in 2020, the fewest since 1918 (when CU went 2-3, also the year of the last major U.S. pandemic);
- 8th Time since league players-of-the-week started being selected (in 1963), CU had both offensive (QB Sam Noyer) and defensive (ILB Nate Landman) vs. Stanford;
- 14 The number of times CU ran at least one play in UCLA territory (out of 16 possessions) in the season opener;
- 18-22 San Diego State ran 18 plays in plus territory for a net 22 yards, and never penetrated CU’s 20 (red zone).
- 35+ The number of points Colorado scored in its first two games, the 17th time it has done so in school history and fourth time this century (2005-13-16-20).
- 45 < The time in hours between when CU found out the USC game was canceled (7 p.m. on Thurs., Nov. 26) and kickoff with San Diego State (3:37 on Sat., Nov. 28);
- 63 The number of days the start of CU’s 2020 season was delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic (Sept. 5 to Nov. 7);
- 189:37 The time Colorado was in the lead in 2020, or 79 percent of the time;
- 228 The number of days between when Dorrell was hired as head coach (Feb. 23) and when he held his first practice (Oct. 9);
- 240 The number of touches the Buffaloes had this season before committing its first fumble (on a center snap; included 161 scrimmage plays);
- 342 The number of days between CU’s final game in 2019 and its first game in 2020 (Nov. 30 – Nov. 7);

LITTLE KNOWN RARITY

In CU history, the Buffaloes have had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game on 49 occasions (38-11 when this occurs). Since CU joined the Pac-12 in 2011, it has occurred 19 times overall (once each in 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2019 and now 2020; four times in 2016, thrice in 2017 and four times in 2018). In 2001, the first time the same player had 100 yards in both in the same game at Colorado occurred when TB Cortlen Johnson had 172 rushing and 105 receiving at Iowa State. The full list can be found on page 178 of the 2021 CU Media Guide.

*—graduate transfers from other programs; GC—Graduate Certificate Program. There are 3,284 graduates playing across all divisions of NCAA/NAIA football this fall.GRADUATION REVIEW

(Through August 2021) Over the last 20 years, Colorado has had 360 of its 393 seniors graduate, translating to 91.6 percent in this time frame (including 17 of the 20 seniors in 2019); these are the 2001-2020 senior classes, including those players who received medicals. Over the last 13 years, 243 of the last 263 have graduated (92.4%), with 10 of those 20 either playing in the NFL or attempting to do so and haven't yet been able to complete their requirements. NCAA numbers will not match these (it doesn't allow a school to count transfers who graduate, but it does count against a school if it had a player transfer; it also does not count walk-ons). It is one of the reasons the numbers are skewed to be lower than they really are, especially at tougher academic schools like Colorado and its Pac-12 brethren. TEAM GRADE POINT AVERAGE: The team's 2.794 cumulative grade point average through the Spring 2021 semester is its highest on record (data collected since 1996); the team has 21 straight semesters over a 2.5. Its spring semester ('21) GPA of 2.8514 is also an all-time non-COVID best.

100+ RETURN YARDS NOT THAT COMMON

Though CU outgained Arizona 365-280 on offense, another key factor in the game was return yards; the Buffaloes had a huge 121-4 edge in return yards (71 punt, 50 interception, with two scores). Often lost in all the conversation about total offense and defense are return yards — but they often swing a game. In 2017, CU owned a 396-234 edge, and had two games with 100-plus return yards (116-9 versus Texas State and 126-5 against Cal).

► CU's had just six games since 2002 with over 100 return yards in a game (and have had two in the same season just that once since 2002; the last time with three was 2001). In 2016, CU had 175 against UCLA in its 20-10 win, and they played a huge role, accounting for one touchdown via punt return and setting up CU's lone offensive score via an interception return. It was the most return yards by the Buffs since Oct. 26, 2002, when they had 183 in a 37-13 win over Texas Tech (125 interception, 44 punt, 14 fumble). The other two games with 100-plus came in 2008 against Eastern Washington (135) and in 2013 against Central Arkansas (125).

► The opponents' last 100-plus return yard game was by Michigan in 2016 (the Wolverines had 132); opponents have had seven 100+ games dating back to 2011.

► In 2018, CU had an overall edge of 372-275, which included edges of 87-0 against CSU and 32-(-2) at Nebraska.

► For the ultimate example of how rare 100 return yards can be, look no further than CU's game at UCLA in 2017. The Buffs held the edge in return yardage ... 1-0. There were no punt or fumble returns, no miscellaneous returns, and the only yard game on the lone interception and return of the game. And then against Arizona, the Wildcats had a 6-0 edge (a single punt return).

99 IS SO NICE

Colorado scored for the seventh time in its history on a 99-yard drive to close out the scoring in the 2015 Arizona State game. TB Christian Powell started it with a 42-yard burst from the CU 1, and a Sefo Liufau-to-Nelson Spruce touchdown pass covering 31 yards ended the seven play march over a gassed ASU defense. CU covered the 99 yards in the third fewest plays of the seven, and it was just the second to occur in Boulder:

99—vs. Northwestern at Evanston, Sept. 29, 1951 (6 plays)

99—vs. Miami, Fla., at Miami, Oct. 13, 1961 (21 plays)

99—vs. Iowa State in Boulder, Oct. 29, 1988 (8 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (8 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Oct. 19, 1991 (14 plays)

99—vs. Oklahoma State at Stillwater, Oct. 27, 2001 (5 plays)

99—vs. Arizona State in Boulder, Sept. 13, 2014 (7 plays)

22 PLAYERS HAVE SEEN FIRST CU ACTION IN 2021

A total of 22 players saw their first action in a CU uniform against Northern Colorado (17 did so against UCLA in 2020; the record in an opener of 34 was set in 2018). Here is the breakdown by class of those players (*—mainly special teams duty):

TRUE FRESHMEN (12): PK *Cole Becker, QB Drew Carter, LB Zephaniah Maea, DL Tyas Martin, CB Kaylin Moore, WR Chase Penry, CB Nikko Reed, WR Ty Robinson, CB Tyrin Taylor, TB *Noah Wagner, DL Ryan Williams, S Trevor Woods.

REDSHIRT FROSH (7): OT Gerad Christian-Lichtenhan, TE Caleb Fauria, OL Noah Fenske, WR *Michael Harrison, S Trustin Oliver, DL Jayden Simon, DL *Blayne Toll.

SOPHOMORES (1): OT Max Wray.

GRADUATE TRANSFERS (2): ILB Robert Barnes, ILB Jack Lamb.

Recent counts: 28 (2020), 32 (2019), 45 (2018), 25 (2017), 23 (2016), 35 (2015), 26 (2014), 18 (2013), 26 (2012), 33 (2011), 26 (2010).

HEAD COACH KARL DORRELL

Karl Dorrell is in his second season as the head coach at Colorado, and his seventh as a head coach on the collegiate level; he was named CU's 27th full-time coach on February 23, 2020: he is 7-9 at Colorado and owns an overall 42-36 record. A truly veteran coach with a pedigree second to none, he started as a graduate assistant at his alma mater (UCLA) in 1988 and has spent the last 33 seasons coaching football, with a little more in college (19 years) than in the National Football League (14). He joined the Buffaloes from the Miami Dolphins, where he coached the wide receivers in 2019 and had just been promoted to assistant head coach, but Dorrell was no stranger to Colorado and Boulder. Bill McCartney hired him ahead of the 1992 season as CU's receivers coach, his first Division I-A/FBS job; he left CU for one year at Arizona State in 1994, but when Rick Neuheisel was named head coach after McCartney retired, he returned for his second stint at the school, this time as offensive coordinator, receivers and quarterbacks coach for the 1995-98 seasons until he accompanied Neuheisel to the University of Washington in 1999. The lure of the state of Colorado brought him back a third time, in this instance as the wide receivers coach for the Denver Broncos for the 2000, 2001 and 2002 seasons until his alma mater came calling and named him its head coach. He was 35-27 in five seasons at UCLA (2003-07), and would then go on to spend 12 of the next 13 years in the NFL.

- ◆ Dorrell, 57, has coached in a total of 444 football games in his career (78 as a collegiate head coach; 106 as a Division I assistant for 184 total in NCAA Division I/FBS; 22 as an I-AA/FCS assistant and 10 in Division II); plus 228 as an assistant in the NFL (224 regular season, four playoff).
- ◆ He has coached in nine bowl games (1993 Fiesta, 1993 Aloha, 1996 Cotton, 1999 Holiday, 2003 Silicon Valley, 2004 Las Vegas, 2005 Sun, 2006 Emerald, 2020 Alamo).
- ◆ The 2020 Pac-12 Coach of the Year, he was previously the co-coach of the year in 2005 when he was in his third year at UCLA (with USC's Pete Carroll).
- ◆ In his two previous stints at Colorado, the Buffaloes were 50-19-2 (17-5-2 under Bill McCartney, 1992-93; 33-14 under Rick Neuheisel, 1995-98).
- ◆ He is the third African-American head football coach at Colorado, as Jon Embree headed the program in 2011-12 and Mel Tucker (2019). He is one of four in the Pac-12: David Shaw (10th year at Stanford), Herm Edwards (third season at Arizona State) and Jimmy Lake (first-year at Washington).
- ◆ How much did Dorrell and his family love Colorado? They had a house built here in nearby Lafayette as he decided that when his coaching days were over, they wanted to retire to the state. Thus, this is definitely his dream job and he was actually headed to town for a few days prior to planning to attend the 2020 NFL Combine when he got the call from athletic director Rick George about interviewing for the vacant head coaching position.
- ◆ In his first two stints at Colorado, he coached three All-Americans (Michael Westbrook in 1992, Charles Johnson in 1993, Rae Carruth in 1996), ___ All-Conference (Big 8 or Big 12) performers on various levels (receivers Westbrook, Johnson, Carruth, Phil Savoy all first-team, along with Darrin Chiaverini, Javon Green and James Kidd and quarterback Mike Moschetti). Johnson, Westbrook and Carruth were all first round NFL draft picks.
- ◆ Dorrell is not the first to be hired as the head coach at Colorado who previously was an assistant coach at the school; in fact, he is the fifth. He joins an impressive list of those who spent time in Boulder as an assistant before being named head coach: Frank Potts (assistant for the 1927-39, 1941-43 and 1946-47 seasons), Rick Neuheisel (1994), Gary Barnett (1984-91) and Jon Embree (1993-2002). Dorrell joined the Buffs the season after Barnett was named head coach at Northwestern, and Neuheisel actually had replaced Dorrell on the Colorado staff under Bill McCartney.
- ◆ Dorrell is also the third CU coach to take over the program after signing day: Chuck Fairbanks arrived in Boulder on April 4, 1979 after a lengthy court battle with the New England Patriots to release him from their contract, and McCartney was hired on June 9, 1982 after Fairbanks left to coach New Jersey in the fledgling United States Football League (USFL).
- ◆ Dorrell was the seventh Colorado head coach to have their debut at the reins of the program televised nationally (ESPN2), as he joined Chuck Fairbanks (ESPN; 1979 vs. Oregon), Rick Neuheisel (ABC; 1995 at Wisconsin), Gary Barnett (FOX; 1999, Colorado State in Denver), Jon Embree (ESPN2; 2011 at Hawai'i), Mike MacIntyre (CBS-SN; 2013, Colorado State in Denver) and Mel Tucker (ESPN; 2019, Colorado State in Denver).
- ◆ A 1986 graduate of UCLA, earning his bachelor's degree in Psychology, also earning a minor in Business Administration. A member of Terry Donahue's seventh recruiting class at UCLA, he lettered four years at wide receiver for the Bruins (and actually played a game against CU in Boulder in 1982; he caught one pass for 23 yards from Rick Neuheisel). He played his entire Bruin career for Donahue, who would coach UCLA for 20 seasons (1976-95).
- ◆ CONTRACT. Dorrell was officially named CU's 27th full-time head coach on Feb. 23, 2020, and signed a 5-year contract worth $18 million overall ($500,000 base; $1.2 million radio/TV income & public appearances; $1.2 million with promotions and fundraising income), plus various annual incentives that add to $300,000. The radio/TV income and promotion/fundraising components will increase annually by $100,000; thus $3.2 million for the first year, $3.4 for the second, etc., not including additional income from any of several incentive components. The contract runs through Dec. 31, 2024.
- ◆ Dorrell is not a voter for the 2020 USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll; coaches are selected by a random draw. CU's head coach voted every season from 1987-2009, and the Buffalo coach has had a vote now for the 29 of the last 34 seasons.

Of the 23 coaches hired to lead new programs in 2020, only one won his first four games: Karl Dorrell; just two others won their first three: Jim Traylor (UTSA) and Jimmy Lake (Washington); see all first-year coaches in 2020 on page 33.

DORRELL / DID YOU KNOW

- In his first two seasons at Colorado under Bill McCartney (1992-93), he coached the wide receivers; he was tasked with taking over coaching a position that was returning to the spotlight after the Buffs had been a wishbone (1985-87) and I-Bone (1988-91) team the previous seven years.
- He returned as offensive coordinator from 1995-98 under Rick Neuheisel, also coaching the receivers. Neuheisel coached the quarterbacks from '95 through '97, then added the quarterbacks to Dorrell's coaching chores in 1998. When Neuheisel was hired by Washington in January 1999, Dorrell accompanied him and became the Huskies offensive coordinator and receivers coach, where he coached future NFL receiver Dane Looker.
- In his first game ever as an offensive coordinator – for Colorado on Sept. 2, 1995 at No. 21 Wisconsin, he called one of the best games by any offensive coordinator on the road against a ranked team in college football history. The Buffs rolled up 507 yards of offense (278 passing, 229 rushing) in a 43-7 win over the Badgers. It remains the most points and yards on the road against any opponent, much less a ranked foe, in the first game by an offensive coordinator in CU history.
- In his career he has coached a College Hall of Famer (Michael Westbrook); a Fred Biletnikoff Award finalist (Rae Carruth); three pairs of 1,000-yard receivers in the same season (Westbrook, Charles Johnson at CU; Rod Smith and Ed McCaffrey at the Denver Broncos; Brandon Marshall and Eric Decker at the N.Y. Jets); four Pro Bowl selections (Smith in 2000, 2001; Matt Schaub in 2012; Marshall in 2015); three first round draft picks (Westbrook, No. 4 overall; Johnson, Carruth), and five CU receivers in all being selected (Phil Savoy in '98 and Darrin Chiaverini in '99).
- In his two previous stints at Colorado, he coached seven receivers who are still among the top 20 in school history in receptions and yards. And of the 18 games at Colorado where two receivers gained 100 or more yards in the same game, he coached in seven of those contests.
- Dorrell's UCLA teams were 24-7 at home (77.4 winning percentage); that included a 6-3 mark against ranked teams. His 2005 team finished with a 10-3 record, as he was selected as the Pacific 10 Conference's co-coach of the year.
- In the history of college football, 655 different head coaches have led their teams to bowl games. Of those, only 26 coached their first six teams into the postseason, and Dorrell is one of those 26, as all five of his teams at UCLA and his first CU played in postseason bowls. His streak is one of only four who are currently active among the 130 FBS head coaches (exceptions made for the pandemic): 13 seasons—Dabo Swinney, Clemson; 9—James Franklin, Vanderbilt/Penn State; 9—Gus Malzahn, Arkansas State/Auburn; 6—Karl Dorrell, UCLA/Colorado; next up: 5—Kirby Smart, Georgia. Others among the 32 include Tom Osborne, Nebraska (first 25 teams coached earned bowl invitations), Bob Stoops, Oklahoma (18), Lloyd Carr, Michigan (13), Phillip Fulmer, Tennessee (13), Jim Tressel, Ohio State (10), Pete Carroll, USC (9), Mike Leach, Texas Tech/Washington State (9), David Shaw, Stanford (8), Chris Peterson, Boise State (7), Troy Calhoun, Air Force (6), Larry Coker, Miami-Fla. (6) and Jimbo Fisher, Florida State (6). (Twenty-six have coached their first six teams into the postseason; 20 their first seven.)
- Developing Players. Throughout his career, Dorrell has been challenged to develop rookies as well as take veterans to the next level; examples:

Charles Johnson & Michael Westbrook, Colorado. Dorrell arrived at CU in an offseason where the Buffaloes were converting from an option offense for the previous seven seasons to a one-back, pro-style passing attack. But CU hadn't really recruited for that style of an offense so as a young coach, he had great challenge from the get-go. The end result? The pair combined for 133 receptions for 2,209 yards and 13 touchdowns, averaging a 16.6 yards per catch. The pair alone combined for more receiving yards than any of the previous seven CU teams had for a season.

Rae Carruth. Before his well-documented troubles after graduating from CU, Carruth was a first-team All-American receiver in 1996. He emerged from the shadows of former teammates Johnson and Westbrook to have back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons, joining Johnson as the only duo to accomplish the feat in program history at the time. Over his final two seasons, Carruth had monster numbers: 107 catches for 2,124 yards (19.9 yards per) and 17 touchdowns, with 75 of those receptions earning first downs.

Rod Smith, Denver Broncos. In his first five seasons in the NFL, he caught 257 passes for 3,811 yards and 25 touchdowns; with Dorrell as his position coach for three years (2000-02), he had 302 receptions for 3,972 yards and 24 TDs.

Ed McCaffrey, Denver Broncos. McCaffrey was in his 10th NFL season, his sixth with the Broncos, when he first came under the tutorship of Dorrell for the 2000 season. He would post career-high numbers that season: 101 receptions for 1,317 yards (with 9 touchdowns). In 2001, he suffered a broken leg in the season opener, but he would come back under Dorrell's supervision to start all 16 games in 2002, making 69 grabs for 903 yards and two scores.

Ashley Lelie, Denver Broncos. Dorrell had him for his rookie season in 2002, playing a significant role in his early development, when he emerged with the third-best numbers by the receivers on the team. Two years later, he would become a 1,000-yard receiver teaming with Smith.

Brandon Marshall, N.Y. Jets. Coming off a season with the Chicago Bears that saw him produce the lowest numbers of his career since he became a starter, Marshall rebounded the second time he was under Dorrell's coaching in 2015 to have his second best season in his 13-year career, catching 109 balls for 1,502 yards and a league-high 14 touchdowns. He had two 1,000-yard seasons with Dorrell earlier in the decade at Miami.

Robby Anderson, N.Y. Jets. Signed by the Jets as an undrafted free agent out of Temple, he started eight games as a rookie and had been a regular ever since. He caught 42 passes for 587 yards (two TDs) as a rookie in 2016, and under Dorrell's wing, caught 113 the next two seasons for 1,693 yards and 13 touchdowns, averaging a healthy 15.0 yards per catch.

DaVante Parker, Miami Dolphins. Parker at best was an average receiver in his first four years in the NFL. Dorrell coached him in his fifth season in the league, and finished with career highs across the board – 72 receptions for 1,202 yards and nine touchdowns – he really came on during the second half of the year when Dorrell's coaching really took hold (48 catches for 859 yards and six scores over the final nine games), averaging an "old school" 17.9 yards per catch during that span).

Davone Bess, Miami Dolphins. An undrafted free agent out of Hawai'i, Bess would blossom under Dorrell's coaching. He caught 54 passes as a rookie in 2008, and in four years with Dorrell as his position coach, he would catch 260 passes for 2,669 yards and 11 TDs. In 2010, he teamed with Brandon Marshall to form one of the top pass-catching duos in the league, their 165 combined receptions the most by a tandem in team history.

Brian Hartline, Miami Dolphins. A fourth round pick out of Ohio State by the Dolphins in the 2009 draft, he was the fourth receiver on the depth chart while Dorrell was with the club. But he still got his coaching early on in his career, and when the top of the depth cleared due to attrition, he would emerge as a two-time, 1,000-yard receiver in 2012 and 2013.

Matt Moore, Miami Dolphins. Dorrell also parlayed his coaching influences when he has had the opportunity to coach quarterbacks. In 2011, he molded Moore, who had started 13 games in his first three years in the league, into the team's starter who completed 60.5 percent of his passes for 2,497 yards and 16 touchdowns (his 87.1 rating was the fifth-best in the AFC). Some eight years later, Moore has been one of the league top backup QB's, playing a key role at times in Kansas City's run to its first Super Bowl title in 50 years.

Matt Schaub, Houston Texans. In 2012, Schaub led the Texans to a 12-4 record and the AFC South Division title by passing for 4,008 yards and 22 touchdowns. His rating (90.7) was the fourth-best in the AFC and ninth-best overall in the league. It was his second best career among 16 seasons in the NFL (2004-19), and those numbers came in a year after he missed six games due to injury the year before.

CU, STANFORD LEAD IN AFRICAN-AMERICAN HEAD COACHES

CU is one of two schools on the FBS/Division I-A level to have had three African-American head coaches lead their football programs. Since Wichita State hired Willie Jeffries in 1979 as the first black head coach in college football's top division, just 14 schools have had as many as two full-time African-American head coaches. WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT KARL DORRELLBRIAN FLORES, Miami Dolphins Head Coach (2019-present)

"The University of Colorado hit a home run hiring Karl as their head coach. I'm excited for him to have this opportunity. He is a great teacher and excellent leader. He is a coach I would want my kids to play for."

BILL McCARTNEY, Colorado Head Football Coach (1982-94)

"Awesome, that's fabulous. Karl Dorrell is the real deal. He's genuine, he's authentic and extremely talented. I'm a Buff to the core, through and through, and this really excites me. This is a big, big deal and I am thrilled and overjoyed. Why? Because you have to get the right people in leadership, everything comes down to leadership. And with CU getting a man like Karl to lead the program, that's a feather in Rick George's cap. When Rick came on board for us (as recruiting coordinator in 1987), he improved our recruiting, and 30 years later, he's still getting it done."

ED McCAFFREY, Denver Bronco Receiver (1995-2003)

"Coach Dorrell is a true pro with a wealth of football coaching experience. I enjoyed my time with him as my position coach with the Broncos. His strong communication and intelligent leadership helped us achieve great success as a unit. His return to CU is a good hire for the program and will bring steady hand."

MIKE MOSCHETTI, Colorado Quarterback (1998-99)

"Karl is a smart, hard-nosed football coach who isn't flashy. When he says something, you will trust it, you will run through a wall for him. He has incredible experience, and he knows the challenges and in his previous stops coaching at Colorado in the 1990s, he has recruited to the academic challenges that coaches face with the high standards academic-wise at the University of Colorado. I was at the game in 2006 when his UCLA team beat No. 2 ranked USC and Pete Carroll that kept them out of the BCS title game. I can't wait to see what he does with the Buffs – we have been to just one bowl game in the last 12 or so years, and he led UCLA to five straight bowl games. He knows the tradition, and I know he's grateful for the opportunity to be a head coach again."

RICK NEUHEISEL, Colorado Head Football Coach (1995-98)

(Rick and Karl were teammates at UCLA.) "I'm very happy for Karl. Colorado definitely hit a home run. Karl's very knowledgeable, very passionate, and I know he loved his time in Boulder. His strong point is organization and leadership. He's always been an offensive guy, and by spending a lot of time in the NFL, he's learned even more. This is making me a bit nostalgic about the fun we had coaching together with the Buffs and when we played together at UCLA

– he was my go-to guy." (Neuheisel was a quarterback at UCLA, Dorrell his top receiver).

ROD SMITH, Denver Bronco Receiver (1995-2007)

"I want to say congratulations to Coach Karl Dorrell and the CU Buffaloes. I had personal experience with him, he took my game to a whole new level. I was doing really well, but when I got with him, in three years (under him) I had over 300-plus catches, pro bowls and all that stuff. He's a technician, he knows what he's doing, he's been around and he's studied with some of the best. I can tell you right now, this team, this program is about to take off. Coach Dorrell, I appreciate you and thank you for everything you've done for me and I'm looking forward to the CU Buffaloes go to a whole new level."

KORDELL STEWART, Colorado Quarterback (1991-94)

"Karl was and is a smart coach, understands all aspects of the game of football. When he was at Colorado when I was there, he had what I would call 'young energy,' to where I think Michael (Westbrook), CJ (Charles Johnson), Phil Savoy and the other receivers really respected him. He made them understand the game through the eyes of a quarterback, which isn't always easy to do. I'm excited about this opportunity for him. With his combination of head coaching experience at UCLA and his time as a position coach in the NFL, he brings a tremendous amount of credibility to the table. I would hope that the players on the team now and the incoming recruits will appreciate that – he's got the background that should earn him an enormous amount of respect. He understands how CU operates, understands the community, knows the lay of the land. It was important for Rick (George) to hire someone who understands the Colorado way and our tradition. Karl fits that mold of what CU is trying to do and will pick up the pieces that were broken with the last coach and put them back together. In time, he will make this thing really work."

MICHAEL WESTBROOK, CU All-American Receiver (1991-94)

"I'm glad to hear that someone with Karl's character will be CU's new coach. I loved Karl. He was a huge disciplinarian, but in both a good and tough way. It was definitely brought to your attention if you weren't doing what you're supposed to do. You come to realize that he'll be tough when he has to be, which is what young kids need, and in the end, that makes you a better player and a better person. He was very much like Bill McCartney in that manner, that was Karl's thing as well, they are cut from that same cloth. I know him, trust him, the program is in good hands and I'll enjoy coming back to watch the Buffaloes play under Karl."

CU COACHES ON GAME DAY

The location for CU coaching staff during games (all except the quality control staff are among those allowed within the NCAA maximum to wear headsets):

SIDELINE: Head coach Karl Dorrell (on headset); Chris Wilson (defensive coordinator/defensive line), Danny Langsdorf (quarterbacks/passing game coordinator), Darian Hagan (running backs), Demetrice Martin (cornerbacks), Mark Smith (inside linebackers), William Vlachos (offensive line) Reggie Moore (quality control/offense), Jeff Smart (QC/defense), Chris Reinert (QC/special teams), grad assistants Jason Grossman (offense) and Kyre Hawkins (defense) and Shannon Turley (strength & conditioning).

COACH "DORR-WELL"

The 27 head coach in CU history, Karl Dorrell started 4-0 in his CU coaching career; only Harry Heller (won his first seven in 1894), Willis Kleinholz (six in 1905), T.W. Mortimer (five in 1900) and Rick Neuheisel (five in 1995) won as many or more to open their CU careers (and Dorrell was OC on Neuheisel's staff). Dorrell was the sixth CU coach to open 3-0 in conference games, but the first since Jim Yeager in 1941.

- ▶ Named the Pac-12 Coach of the Year by both the Associated Press and the league coaches, the sixth coach to be recognized in CU's history with the honor;
- ▶ Named Football Writers Association of America's First-Year Coach of the Year, honoring the top coach among those in their first-year at a new school in 2020;
- ▶ Of the 23 new head coaches in 2020, he was the last of the group who was undefeated come Dec. 6 (finished with the fourth-best winning percentage).
- ▶ He was the third CU head coach to lead the Buffs to a bowl game in his first season, joining Neuheisel ('96 Cotton) and Gary Barnett ('99 Insight.com).
- ▶ He was the first CU coach in his first season to have his team go from unranked to ranked (No. 21 AP, No. 22 USAT/Coaches on Dec. 6; No. 21 CFP on Dec. 8), leading a team that many prognosticators were saying would win maybe one if any games (the over/under in Vegas was 1½ wins).

DORRELL: A COLLEGE FOOTBALL FIRST?

Ironically, with the Buffaloes drawing UCLA for their first game, Karl Dorrell coached against the school he served as head coach for five seasons (2003-07). He was 35-27 with the Bruins over those years. Another irony – his first game as head coach at UCLA was in Boulder against CU, a game in which the Buffs rallied to win, 16-14. He had been an assistant with CU twice (1992-93, 1995-98), but played collegiately at UCLA (1983-86). Thus, in his first game as a head coach, he went up against a former team on which he was an assistant, and his first game his second opportunity as a head coach be against his alma mater, where he also made his head coaching debut. UCLA did win it next game (6-3 over Illinois), which was the school's 500th at the time.

ONLY A HANDFUL HAVE OPENED AGAINST THEIR ALMA MATER

Karl Dorrell was the ninth known Division I head coach to face his alma mater in his first game at his new school (not necessarily his first game overall):

Year	Coach	School	Alma Mater/Opp.	Result	Year	Coach	School	Alma Mater/Opp.	Result
1918	Andy Gill	Kentucky	at Indiana	W 24- 7	2010	Jimbo Fisher	Florida State	Samford	W 59- 6
1982	George Welsh	Virginia	at Navy	L 17-30	2010	Mike London	Virginia	Richmond	W 34-13
1999	Randy Walker	Northwestern	Miami-Ohio	L 3-28	2011	Larry Coker	UTSA	Northeastern State	W 31- 3
2001	Jim Tressel	Ohio State	*Akron (Gr. School)	W 28-14	2020	Karl Dorrell	Colorado	UCLA	W 48-42
2009	Gary Anderson	Utah State	Utah	L 17-35

➡ In 1995, Rick Neuheisel's first game as a head coach (CU) was at Wisconsin; while he didn't go there (he is also a UCLA grad), he was born in Madison. Dorrell's first win as a head coach was in his second game, a 6-3 win over Illinois, which happens to be CU athletic director Rick George's alma mater; the Bruins won that day with two field goals from Justin Medlock. Bill McCartney's first win came in his second game in 1982, a 12-0 triumph at Washington State, on the strength of four Tom Field field goals.

DORRELL A FINALIST FOR 2020 FWAA/EDDIE ROBINSON COACH OF THE YEAR AWARD

For the second time in his career, Karl Dorrell was a finalist for the Football Writers Association of America/Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award in 2020. He was a finalist in 2005 when he was in his third year at UCLA; of the nine finalists this year, he is the only first-year coach at his current school. The other finalists were: Jamey Chadwell, Coastal Carolina, the winner; Tom Allen, Indiana; Brent Brennan, San José State; Matt Campbell, Iowa State; Luke Fickell, Cincinnati; Nick Saban, Alabama; Kalani Sitake, BYU; and Dabo Swinney, Clemson.

INAUGURATIONS

Karl Dorrell was named the 27th full-time head coach in Colorado history last February 23, the 17th dating back to 1935; after the first 10 CU coaches opened 8-1-1, the next 10 lost all theirs; the last six have gone 3-3. Rick Neuheisel snapped the losing streak when his team defeated Wisconsin in Madison, 43-7 in 1995 (the first to win his opener since Herbert Hoover was U.S. president); Mike MacIntyre became just the second coach in that group to win his CU opener in an 81-year span with a 41-27 win over Colorado State in Denver in 2013; and Mel Tucker the third to do so in his inaugural game in 2019 over Colorado State in Denver, 52-31 with Dorrell following in 2020. overall, Colorado coaches are 12-14-1 in their debut games at the reins of the Buffaloes; here's a closer look (no head coach 1890-93; number in parenthesis indicates how many games that coach won in a row to begin career):

... AND IN CONFERENCE PLAY

Head coaches have had more success in their first conference game piloting the Buffaloes, going 18-8 including this year when Karl Dorrell's first CU squad opened with the 48-42 win over UCLA (CU was an independent in 1905 when Willis Kleinholtz coached his lone season). He was the first since Gary Barnett won his Big 12 Conference debut, a 51-17 win over Kansas in Boulder; the last three CU head coaches lost their league lid-lifters. As far as winning their first conference game on the road, Tucker became the sixth to do so (number in parenthesis indicates how many conference games that coach won or lost in a row in his first year):

MUSIC IN HIS BLOOD: Assistant head coach Darrin Chiaverini has music in his blood, though not to the extent of his father, Eddie "Day" Chiaverini, who played the rhythm guitar for The Lively Ones, a rock and roll band in the early 1960s. One of their songs, Surf Rider, made the soundtrack of the 1994 blockbuster movie, Pulp Fiction, playing over the opening and closing credits. You can hear it here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CxQYRjjxvc>.

200/200 BALANCING ACT

In the 2020 season opening 48-42 win over UCLA, Colorado rushed for 264 yards and passed for 261, improving to 59-11 dating back to the first time it happened in school history in 1960. The three-yard difference tied for the second most-balanced offensive game in CU history. A closer look at all CU games with 200-plus yards rushing and passing that were within 10 yards of each other (*—CU head coach Karl Dorrell was involved in three of the top four and four of the eight games; (Dorrell was an assistant coach at CU in 1993, was the offensive coordinator in 1997):

HIGH SCORING FROM THE GET-GO

The 90 points scored by CU and UCLA in 2020 marked the highest scoring season opener in CU history, eclipsing the 83 points in 2019 (CU's 52-31 win over Colorado State in Denver). But it was also a conference opener, and it rose to the second highest scoring league lid-lifter in Buff annals (trailing the infamous Oct. 4, 1980 clash between CU and Oklahoma at Folsom Field. A look at the top five in each (home team in CAPS):

HIGHEST SCORING SEASON OPENERS / CU History

IN DIVISION II: Pete Shinnick ('88), head coach at West Florida; John Donahoe ('03), CSU-Pueblo, WR; Jack Harris ('13), West Texas A&M, OL; Chris Symington ('87), AHC/OL/RG at CSU-Pueblo.

IN THE NAIA: Jason Burianek ('02), HC, Missouri Baptist.

IN THE NFL (see page with Buffs in the Pros).

SHINNICK EARNS TOP HONOR

Pete Shinnick ('88), who finished his fourth season as head coach at West Florida in 2019, was named the Gulf South Conference Coach of the Decade (2010-19). Ow does someone win that honor after just four years? First, he started the program in 2016, and one year later, the team reached the Division II championship game. Four years later in 2019, West Florida won the title. Shinnick's Argos were the second-fastest football program to go from startup to national champion in NCAA history. At 9-1, UWF currently owns the best postseason winning percentage in NCAA history (all on the road or at neutral sites).

AND THEN THERE'S WRISTO

John Wristen was the first of two individuals with Buff football ties to win an NCAA Division II title as he led CSU-Pueblo to the 2014 championship. Wristen returned to Pueblo in 2007 after coaching the previous 17 years in the NCAA Division I ranks at Colorado, Northwestern and UCLA where he served on Karl Dorrell's staff as a tight end and special team coach. Wristen's career in Division I football started in 1990 as a graduate assistant on CU's National Championship team. He worked 14 seasons on Gary Barnett's staff at Northwestern (1992-1998) and CU (1999-2005) before joining Dorrell at UCLA. In his 13th season at CSUP, Wristen entered the year with a 119-28 mark at his alma mater.

LAST NOTE ON SEASON OPENERS

The Buffaloes are 23-10-1 in their last 33 season openers (dating back to 1988). In those 23 wins, Colorado scored 851 points, or an average of 37.0 per game; in the 10 losses, CU scored 172 points, or 17.2 per (it had 31 in the tie with Tennessee in 1990). In the six-game season opener winning streak, CU has scored 241 points, or 40.2. In the 23 victories, the opponent has scored 392 points, or 17.0 per. The bulk of the games have been against Colorado State (20; CU won 14), but the Buffaloes are 5-0-1 against Power-5 teams.

CONIFER REPPED

When freshman TB Noah Wagner saw his first action against Arizona Stat on Sept. 25 (on special teams); he also made some program history as he became the first-ever Buffalo from Conifer (Colo.) High School to play for CU in a game. It is located in Jefferson County, directly south of Evergreen and southwest of Morrison off U.S. Highway 285.

LYNCH REPEATS AS CU'S CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST

Second-year graduate student Matt Lynch is one of 176 semifinalists for the William V. Campbell Trophy, the National Football Foundation announced this week. The honor, which is also known as the "Academic Heisman" is annually bestowed by the NFF to the nation's top football scholar-athlete. As a semifinalist, he will have an opportunity to receive an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship, which is awarded to each of the 12-to-14 finalists for the Campbell Trophy, and if he is the recipient, an opportunity to be the winner of the coveted 24-pound bronze Campbell Trophy, which comes with a $25,000 post-graduate scholarship and an appearance on the Home Depot College Football Awards Show on ESPN. CU's Jim Hansen won the award in 1992, but when it was known as the Draddy Award. Lynch was CU's nomination in 2020; at Colorado, he owns a 3.675 / 4.0 GPA in second year of master's program in Organizational Studies.

HISTORICALLY

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes are in their 130th season of competition having played 1,277 games with an all-time record of 717-524-36. CU currently stands 27th on the all-time win list and is 36th in all-time winning percentage (.576; the Buffs are 29th for those schools with 1,000 or more games played in Division I-A). Only 12 Division I schools have played more seasons of intercollegiate football than Colorado; Washington is the only Pac-12 school that matches CU's total of 132 (Cal is the only one who has played more games – 1,284), with only USC (856) and Washington (750) having won more games (CU is sixth in the league in winning percentage).

➔ In Boulder, the Buffs are 411-203-16 (.665) all-time and 323-181-10 (.639) in their 98th season on the “hilltop” (Folsom Field).

OVERTIME

Colorado is 8-9 all-time in overtime games (5-6 at home), with seven losses by three points; the Buffs became the 84th team in FBS/I-A to play an overtime game when it played its first extra session affair against Missouri in 1999. Here's a chart summarizing the Buffs in overtime (*—denotes in Denver):

COMEBACK BUFFS

Over the last 14 seasons, CU has rallied to win from 10 or more points down 14 times. Three of the rallies have come from 17 down: this season, CU spotted Arizona a 13-0 lead, but TB Jarek Broussard's school record 155 yards in the second quarter helped the Buffs take the halftime lead and never look back. In 2019 against Nebraska, the turning point a 96-yard flea-flicker from QB Steven Montez to WR K.D. Nixon that pulled CU to within three; in 2012, Washington State led, 31-14, early in the fourth quarter, but CU scored three straight TDs to close the game, capped by QB Jordan Webb scoring on fourth down from four yards out with 0:09 remaining; PK Will Oliver added the game winning PAT. In 2007, the Buffs got the best of No. 3 Oklahoma when PK Kevin Eberhart capped a run of 20 straight points with a 45-yard field goal for a 27-24 win. Nine have taken place in Boulder, one in Denver, and three on the road (the WSU comeback was the largest fourth quarter comeback on the road CU has ever had).

COLORADO NEAR THE TOP IN ALL-TIME 2,000-YARD / 1,000-YARD CAREER RUNNERS

Colorado is tied for 12th in players who have gained 2,000 or more career rushing yards, as 19 Buffaloes through the years have reached that milestone. TB Phillip Lindsay was the last to do it, as he finished his career in 2017 with 3,707 yards (second all-time at the school). Colorado is also in the top 10 (sixth) in all-time 1,000-yard rushers with 56 (Oklahoma tops that list with 77, followed by Ohio State 69, Nebraska 65, USC 61, Alabama 60, Colorado 56, Army 53, Texas 51, West Virginia 50, LSU 48). The all-time leaders in players who have reached the career 2K plateau:

Oklahoma	32	Alabama	20	Texas	19	Boston College	17	South Carolina	16	Western Michigan	15
Nebraska	30	Clemson	20	Virginia	19	East Carolina	17	Tennessee	16	San Diego State	14
Georgia Southern	28	Michigan	20	Virginia Tech	19	Illinois	17	Florida State	15	Utah	14
Ohio State	27	Texas A & M	20	Arkansas	18	Wisconsin	17	Houston	15
Oklahoma State	25	Colorado	19	Colorado State	18	Georgia	16	Iowa	15
Syracuse	22	Northern Illinois	19	Florida	18	LSU	16	Tulsa	15
Southern California	20	Penn State	19	Auburn	17	Michigan State	16	West Virginia	15

In 1989, Colorado had four players on the roster at the same time with at least 1,000 career yards: TB Eric Bieniemy, TB J.J. Flannigan, QB Darian Hagan and FB Erich Kissick. Only two other times did the Buffs have three players that had hit that plateau on the same team, in 1993: FB James Hill, TB Rashaan Salaam and TB Lamont Warren and in 2015: Christian Powell, Michael Adkins and Phillip Lindsay.

Historical Note. Colorado was 1-yard away from another 2,000-yard rusher: the late Carroll Hardy (‘54) ended his career with 1,999 yards. CU's SID at the time, Fred Casotti, never forgave himself, especially since his final game came against Kansas State, when he had 10 carries for 238 yards. In that 38-14 win, the Buffs rushed 36 times for 493 yards, or 13.7 yards per; he no doubt could have picked up that extra yard. Hardy went on to play pro football and baseball, and his claim to fame was becoming the only player to pinch-hit for Ted Williams (he also pinch-hit for Roger Maris and Carl Yastrzemski).

SCORING STREAKS

The Buffs scored in a school record 242 consecutive games until Missouri ended the streak on October 25, 2008; it was first shutout loss since November 12, 1988 to Nebraska in Lincoln (7-0). The Buffs had scored in 94 consecutive road games (123 including neutral sites) as well as in 153 straight league games, all 103 in Big 12 play, including the four title games, and their final 50 in Big Eight competition, dating back to the '88 shutout at Nebraska. CU had scored in 150 straight games at home until Stanford shut out the Buffs, 48-0 on Nov. 3, 2012; the previous last shutout was a 28-0 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 15, 1986.

Current streaks:

- CU has scored in 7 straight games overall, as the 30-0 loss to Minnesota snapped a 36-game scoring streak).
- CU had scored in 170 straight games against non-conference opponents (1979-2021, until Minnesota won 30-0 in Boulder on Sept. 18, 2021).
- The home shutout losses to Minnesota ('21), Stanford ('12), Oklahoma in '86 and LSU in '79 are the only four times CU has not scored at Folsom Field over the course of the last 339 games (all the way back to 1963).
- CU has been shutout just five times in the last 398 games overall (by Missouri in 2008 and 2010, Stanford in 2012, Washington State in 2017 and Minnesota in 2021).
- CU has been shutout just 12 times in its last 631 games (dating to October 5, 1968), but only seven different schools have administered them: Oklahoma (three times), Missouri (twice), Nebraska (twice), Louisiana State, Michigan, Minnesota and Stanford.

THE BUFFS IN NFL STADIUMS

The Buffaloes have played 26 games to date in seven current NFL venues, owning a record of 16-10 (12-5 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 1-2 in Houston, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City and 0-1 in Santa Clara). All-time, the Buffs are 21-22-1 playing games in stadiums that simultaneously hosted NFL teams (13-7 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in Irving, 1-0 in San Diego, 1-0 in Seattle, 2-3 in Houston, 1-2 in Miami 1-2 in Tempe, 0-2-1 in Anaheim, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City, 0-1 in Santa Clara and 0-3 in Los Angeles).

SAFELY AHEAD

The Buffs have been a virtual lock to win once they have a lead of two or more scores (nine-plus points) over the past 46 seasons. Since the 1976 opener, CU has protected a two-score lead 253 of 291 times, losing 35 and tying three when it blew the lead. Included in those 35 are four leads that were lost of 20-plus points:

Date	Opponent	CU Lead (when)	Result
10/27/18	OREGON STATE	28 (31-3, 3rd Quarter)	L, 34-41 OT
11/06/10	at Kansas	28 (45-17; 4th Quarter)	L, 45-52
11/10/07	at Iowa State	21 (21- 0; 3rd Quarter)	L, 28-31
10/10/79	OKLAHOMA STATE	20 (20- 0; 4th Quarter)	L, 20-21

(CU has lost a 14-point lead on nine occasions in this time frame).

Colorado has lost only 36 games (and was tied twice) dating back to 1980 when leading by any margin at any point in the fourth quarter or overtime. The most recent loss was in 2019 (Oct. 25), a 35-31 setback to USC after entering the final stanza with a 31-28 advantage. The ties came against Tennessee in 1990 (31-31, after leading 31-17) and Kansas State in 1993 (16-16 after taking a late 16-13 lead).

- Colorado has won 138 of its last 165 games in which it at any point has held a two-score lead. A 2003 loss to Baylor snapped a 26-game winning streak in such situations on the road, and an overall streak of 49 consecutive wins from 1993 to 1999 was snapped by CSU in 2000. In this same span, Colorado has rallied to win 42 games and tie two others dating back to 1981 after once trailing at some point in the fourth quarter. The most recent are the Nebraska and Stanford games this year: the Cornhuskers led 17-0 late in the third period when the Buffaloes started taking over the game, and the Cardinal led briefly in the fourth quarter. Two of the biggest ones occurred in 2007: CU rallied from 28-17 down in the third and 28-25 in the fourth to defeat CSU 31-28 in overtime) and Oklahoma (down 24-7 late in the third, eventually tying the fourth largest comeback in school history in winning 27-24).

INJURIES UP IN 2021

Injuries were kept to a minimum over the 2016 and 2017 seasons after a flurry in 2015, as that season 10 positions had a starter miss at least one game due to injury. But in 2018, it was a different story as injuries hit 11 different starting positions (including punter and placekicker) that lost their starter for multiple games. In 2019, the count of full games missed was down again (though an abnormal number of partial games was the case). Below are the worst regular seasons for injuries/illness for the CU program over the last 35 years (KEY: GL—Games lost to injury; GL/2—Games lost by 2-deep scrimmage players; MG—"Man games" as defined by as the total number of games if all players NOT ticketed to redshirt played every game; Pct. Lost – percentage of man games lost, knowing that in actuality, the number is higher as third-team players and reserves don't see that much action; 2/MG—2-deep man games, or starting 24 positions (including kickers and punters plus backups):

2021	10	119	900	13.2	80	480	16.7

*—man-games for 2-deep include P and PK spots.

Dating back to 1987, CU has lost over five percent of its "man game" count due to injury 16 times (1995-97-98-2000-02-03-08-10-11-12-13-15-16-17-18-19).

FOLSOM FIELD CAPACITY SNAPSHOT

Folsom Field's official capacity had been 53,613, expanded last in 2003 when 1,903 club seats and 41 suites were added in the east side stadium expansion; however, with CU's $156 million Athletics Complex Expansion nearing completion and the northeast corner of the stadium and the north stands now redesigned, the new capacity now stands at 50,183. Folsom is tied for the 18th oldest venue among the 128 NCAA Division I-A/FBS stadiums. It is the fourth oldest stadium in the Pac-12 Conference, as only Husky Stadium (Washington, 1920), Rose Bowl Stadium (UCLA, 1922) and Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (USC, 1923) are older.

"OUTSIDE THE NINE DOTS"

Some out of the ordinary records by the Buffs in some unique situations:

- ❑ Colorado is 91-55 against teams with three or more losses dating back to the 1985 season;
- ❑ Colorado is 90-52-1 in its last 143 games against schools that include the word "State" (dating to 1986);
- ❑ Colorado is 568-294-25 all-time in games played in the Mountain Time Zone (Colorado, Arizona, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming)

18 TO THE HOUSE ON THE FIRST TRY WHEN IT COMES TO THEFTS & SCORES

CU players have a penchant to return their first career interceptions for touchdowns, as since 1992, 18 Buffaloes have scored after stealing their first college pass. Junior CB Dante Wigley is the most recent to accomplish it, racing 27 yards with his first pick for a touchdown versus Oregon State on Oct. 27. S Nick Fisher did it in grand style on Oct. 28, 2017: he picked off a pass in the end zone against Cal, his momentum taking him back nine yards deep, and then he raced 109 yards for the score (100 officially by the NCAA). Previous to that, ILB Rick Gamboa returned a deflected pass 20 yards for a score against OSU in 2016, and ILB Kenneth Olugbode had the one before that, racing 60 yards for a score in a 27-24 overtime win over Colorado State in 2015. That was the first in eight years, going back to 2007, when redshirt frosh CB Jimmy Smith had a 31-yard return that cut Nebraska's lead to 35-31 early in the second half and was the impetus to a 65-51 comeback win. Prior to that was another spectacular one: ILB Marcus Burton returned a pick 99 yards at Oklahoma State in 2005, preserving CU's shutout in the waning seconds of the game. Three did it in 2004: OLB Brian Iwuh did it off the bat when he made his first career pick and returned it 37 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown against Colorado State in the season opener; a week later, Joe Sanders, plucked off a ball against Washington State and raced 51 yards for six, snapping a 3-3 deadlock in the process; then versus Texas, CB Terrence Wheatley plucked one off and ran 37 yards for six with his first theft. Two did it in 2001: S Medford Moorer picked off his first career pass and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown against Texas in the Big 12 Championship game, while CB Donald Strickland returned his first career pick 31 yards for a touchdown just one minute into the CSU game. Frosh redshirt CB Phil Jackson did it in 2000, as he returned his first career INT 28 yards for a TD against Washington. SS Rashidi Barnes had his first one in CU's win over CSU in 1997, returning it 26 yards for a score, rallying the Buffs into a 14-14 tie early in the second half. Barnes was the fourth Buff in a 14-game span to return a first career pick for a TD—Marcus Washington had a 95-yard theft for a score in the '96 Cotton Bowl against Oregon; Vili Maumau had a 33-yard interception for six (and a Hula dance) at Colorado State in 1996; and Nick Ziegler stole one for a 31-yard score against Washington in the '96 Holiday Bowl. In 1992, Dwayne Davis returned one 31 yards for a TD in a 21-20 win at Minnesota to start this amazing run.

➤ And three did it with their first punt returns: Ben Kelly (vs. Utah State in 1998), Jeremy Bloom (vs CSU in 2002) and Laviska Shenault (2017 vs. Texas State).

BUFFALO DINOSAURS

CU's longtime radio voice, Larry Zimmer, wrapped up his career following the 2015 season, calling 486 CU games; a string of 251 in a row came to an end after he was hospitalized in October 2014 (and missed the final six games that year). He only missed 17 games overall; prior to the six due to illness, he had missed three bowls (two due to contracts forbidding teams to originate broadcasts), three regular season games due to travel conflicts and five road games in his final season; his 400th at CU was also the 1,000 of his professional career. In 2009, Zim was honored as the 15th recipient of the Chris Schenkel Award, which recognizes those who have enjoyed a long and distinguished career broadcasting college football at a single institution (he called a total of 570 college games, including 50 for Michigan and 34 for CSU).

OTHER DINOSAURS: Darian Hagan has been a part of 286 Colorado games (139 in two stints as an assistant coach, 62 as a football staff member, 35 as the Alumni C-Club director and 49 as a player); Gary Barnett, now an analyst with KOA, has worked 261 (106 as an assistant coach, 87 as head coach and 67 on the radio); Mark Johnson, who succeeded Zimmer as the voice of the Buffaloes, has called 215 games. SID Dave Plati has worked 481 in person (497 overall; a streak of 410 dating from the '83 finale came to an end in the sixth game of 2017; streaks of 261 straight home games and 283 in the state of Colorado are intact). The late Fred Casotti, the school's longtime SID/associate AD from 1952-87, witnessed 477 CU football games (including 268 in a row at Folsom) prior to his passing in 2001. Jon Burianek, who retired as senior associate AD in June 2006 and then briefly rejoined the department on a contract basis in 2013, worked 444 CU football games, including a run of 415 in a row (229 of which were at home). The record by a coach is held by Brian Cabral, who, including his playing days (46 games), was a part of 340 (the last 294 of which were in a row); former facilities man John Krueger worked 325 (1980s to 2012). Then there are CU's "Super Twins," Betty Hoover and Peggy Coppom, who have been to all but handful of CU's home games – since 1940 and every single one – 358 – from 1958 through 2019 (we lost Betty in the summer of 2020; Peggy is 96). And the late F.M. "Dutch" Westerberg is the all-timer; the long-time season ticket holder saw every CU home game (394 of 'em) from 1921 until 1999, when he passed away at the age of 94.

STAT CREW: Jack Landon (son of one-time presidential candidate Alf Landon) completed his 47th year as a member of the CU football stat crew in 2019; he joined the basketball crew in 1971 and then football two years later. The 10th longest person to serve on a stat crew nationally, he decided to retire ahead of the 2021 season.

NFL SCOUT WATCH

Colorado has just four players in their final year of eligibility on its 2021 roster, and as history has indicated, they will receive plenty of looks from scouts all around the National Football League; scouts/player personnel types pass through Boulder every season for a game and/or practice(s), with over three fourths of the league doing so on average every season (and 17 teams managed to scout CU in the shortened 2020 season). Thus far in 2021, CU has been scouted in person on game days by over three-fourths of the league (27 teams): Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Green Bay, Houston, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Miami, Las Vegas, L.A. Chargers, Miami, Minnesota, New Orleans, N.Y. Jets, N.Y. Giants, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Seattle, Tampa Bay and Washington. Since the 2000 season, 1,106 NFL scouts have attended Colorado games (home, road and neutral sites). At the 2016 UCLA game in Boulder, the record for a CU game occurred: 31 scouts from 20 teams were in attendance for the game (next most: 20 for USC in 2017).

PLAYING ON SUNDAY: IN-THE-PROS

There are 18 former Colorado Buffaloes on the current 2021 National Football League rosters (as of Nov. 14; 23 started out in camps, 18 were on final rosters in 2020). Colorado has had 269 players all-time go on to make an active NFL roster and 276 all-time draft picks, which ranks as the fourth most among Pac-12 programs and 23rd overall. CU had continually been one of the top 20 producers for the last quarter century of NFL talent and at one time in the late 1970's had the most active players (47) of any school in the nation. The last time Colorado was in the top 10 in players produced was in 2002 (10th, 29). The active list (KEY: Exp.—denotes number of years in the league including 2021; I—on injured reserve/physically unable to perform; P—practice squad):

CANUCKS: Two former Buffs are in the Canadian Football League, S Afolabi Laguda (Edmonton), DL Chris Mulumba (Hamilton).

DAD PLAYED ON SUNDAYS: Five players are the sons of former NFL players: TE Caleb Fauria (father and former Buff Christian played 13 seasons for four teams); RB Alex Fontenot (father Albert played 10 seasons with three teams); ILB Marvin Ham II (father Marvin, Carolina); WR Brenden Rice (father Jerry played 20 seasons for three teams, 16 with San Francisco); WR Dimitri Stanley (father Walter, played eight seasons with five teams).

COLORADO HIGH SCHOOL COACHES: Six former Buffaloes are serving as high school head coaches in the state; the five who head prep programs: Matt Flavin (Buena Vista), Dave Logan (Cherry Creek), Spencer Colter (Denver East), Dusty Sprague (Holyoke), Scott Yates (Kent Denver) and DaVaughn Thornton (Vista Peak). Marcus Washington is a defensive coordinator (Adams City), and three are assistants at Arapahoe: Tyler Brayton, Jay Leeuwenburg and Paul Rose.

ALL-TIME CU PRO NOTE: How good was CU's 1994 offense? Ten of the 11 starters were drafted into the NFL (Tony Berti, Rae Carruth, Christian Fauria, Heath Irwin, Chris Naeole, Rashaan Salaam, Kordell Stewart, Bryan Stoltzberg, Derek West and Michael Westbrook), with the 11th signing as a free agent (Lepsis). All played, and three even remained on NFL rosters some 11 years later. And six of the '94 defensive starters wound up playing professionally as well.

CROSBY WATCH

PK Mason Crosby ('06) is the Green Bay Packers' all-time leading scorer both for the regular season and the regular and postseason combined; assuming the top spot in 2015. Through games of Nov. 14, he has scored 1,748 points in 234 regular season games (now 15th in NFL history) and 159 in 22 playoff games (fourth all-time) for a total of 1,907 (he also made an NFL record 23 straight field goals in the postseason). Crosby also holds both Packers' field goal marks: 359 regular season (19th all-time) and 30 postseason (fifth all-time); his 671 extra points made are eighth all-time (69 in the postseason are third) and recently had a personal best streak of 31 straight field goals made (regular season and playoffs combined). He is second all-time on the points and field goal (and third on the PATs made) charts for players who have/had spent their career with just one team. Crosby, of course, is CU's all-time leading scorer with 307 points.

➔ 200-PLUS. Crosby, with 234 NFL games under his belt (tied for 97th all-time), is the second Buffalo to participate in 200 pro games, as he has caught OT Stan Brock ('79) for the most-ever by a CU alum. Brock also appeared in 234 games (223 starts; 97th and 38th, respectively, all-time) in his career that spanned 16 seasons with New Orleans (1980-92) and San Diego (1993-95).

➔ How many players have led a professional team and their college alma mater in scoring (regular season and playoffs combined)? The list is short (six including Crosby): PK Jason Elam, Denver Broncos/Hawai'i (1,870/395); PK Stephen Gostkowski, New England Patriots/Memphis (1,875/369); PK Martin Gramatica, Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Kansas State (640/349), WR Jerry Rice, San Francisco 49ers/Mississippi Valley State (1,244/310); and PK Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis Rams/Youngstown State (1,300/373).

➔ ALL-TIME FWAA ALL-AMERICAN TEAM: The Football Writers Association of America placed Crosby on the second-team of its All-Time All-America Team, announced in conjunction with the group's 75th anniversary in August 2015.

O-LINEMEN PIPELINE TO THE NFL

CU has been a solid conduit to the NFL League when it has come to offensive linemen and the research below indicates CU may very well be a place to go if an offensive lineman wants to take it to the next level. Dating back to the 1991 NFL draft, or the '87 recruiting class, 30 of 47 players who started at least two years on the Buff offensive line were either drafted or signed as free agents. The list is impressive (with four others who started just one season):

A LONG LINE OF WALK-ONS HAVE RISEN TO FIRST-TEAM AT COLORADO

After the NCAA reduced the number of scholarships from 95 to 85 (completed in 1992), more and more players have had to make their bones starting as walk-ons. Here's a short list (41 count) of some of the standout former and current walk-ons who rose to first-team status at Colorado:

Player	Pos.	First Season	Letters	Notes
Willie Beebe	FB	1978	4L	Solid blocker who scored nine career touchdowns as a bruiser near the goal line
Kyle Rappold	NT	1985	3L	Known as the "trash compactor" for his stature, the Fort Lewis transfer clogged the run
Jeff Campbell	WR/KR	1986	4L	Earned scholarship second day of freshman camp; played five years in the NFL
Ken Culbertson	PK	1986	3L	Scored 98 points in CU's 11-0 run in '89 season, making 59-59 PAT and 11-17 FG
David Gibbs	CB	1986	4L	Solid corner and special teams performer; enjoying a log coaching career in college and the NFL (now with UCF)
Mark Henry	WR	1987	3L	Big play guy with 18 career catches for 416 yards, or 23.1 per catch
Robbie James	WR	1987	1L	Threw TD pass on third down FG fake at Oklahoma State to lead CU to 16-12 win in 1991
Charles Johnson	QB	1987	2L	Often subbed for an injured Darian Hagan, earning Orange Bowl MVP honors in '91 vs. Notre Dame
Erik Norgard	C	1987	2L	Walked on in the spring after transferring from Western Washington; All-Big 8 as a senior
Chris O'Donnell	LB/SN	1987	4L	Solid as a rock at long snapper on special teams all four years
Keith Miller	FB	1992	2L	From tiny Ovid, Colo., he was a solid blocking back. Now an opera singer with the MET.
Ryan Black	SS	1993	4L	Led team in tackles as a junior in 1996 with 154 (78 solo)
Ryan Sutter	FS	1993	3L	CU's all-time special team points leader, led Buffs in tackles (170, 98 solo) in 1997
Neil Voskeritchian	PK	1993	2L	Won the starting placekicker job in 1994, finished career ninth in scoring at CU (161 points)
Nick Pietsch	P	1996	4L	Led CU in punting in 1997-98-99, finished with a career average of 39.9
Beau Williams	TE	1998	2L	Primarily a blocking tight end, played a big role on CU's 2001 Big 12 title team
D.J. Hackett	WR	2001	2L	Walked on after CS-Northridge dropped football; led CU in receiving in '03, four-year NFL veteran
Tom Hubbard	FS	2001	2L	Defensive MVP of the 2004 Houston Bowl with two interceptions
Evan Judge	WR	2001	4L	Caught 69 balls for 903 yards to finish in top 20 in receiving yards
John Torp	P	2001	3L	Finished second for the '05 Ray Guy Award; set a school records with 205 punts, 65 inside the 20
Paul Creighton	TE	2002	4L	Also saw action at FB, he primarily was a
Greg Pace	SN	2002	4L	Took over all special team snapping chores early as a freshman and handled through senior year
Joel Klatt	QB	2003	3L	Former infielder in Padres organization went on to set 44 CU passing and total offense records
Cody Crawford	WR	2004	3L	Has cracked the school's all-time lists in catches and yards
Jeff Smart	ILB	2005	4L	Earned a scholarship 3 games into the 2007 season, first LB to do so under Cabral; second most tackles by a WO
Scotty McKnight	WR	2006	4L	First freshman WR to ever lead CU in receiving (43-488, 4 TD), finished first in career receptions and third in yards
Aric Goodman	PK	2008	3L	In his first season, he was awarded a scholarship after making the game-winning FG versus West Virginia
Jason Espinoza	WR	2008	3L	Suffered two breaks to his collarbone in '08, playing briefly in-between; co-first team WR in '09
Dustin Ebner	WR	2009	3L	Primarily on special teams until his senior year, when he became a regular in the rotation and caught his first TD pass
Keenan Stevens	C	2009	2L	Pressed into duty in the season opener due to injury, he soon became a fixture and started 10 games
Alex Wood	FB	2009	2L	Hybrid tight end/fullback worked exceptionally hard and became the first player from Steamboat to start in decades.
Scott Fernandez	TE	2010	2L	Ascended to the top of the depth chart his senior year ('13); first career catch was fifth longest (71 yards vs. UA).
Travis Sandersfeld	DB (N)	2010	4L	One of the CUs top perennial special teams performers, he emerged as the starting nickel back for 5 games in 2010
David Goldberg	DE	2011	3L	Coaches cited how hard he worked daily in practice and assumed a starting spot midway through his senior year
Darragh O'Neill	P	2011	4L	Had more punts (74) than any other freshman at CU, with his 42.3 average second best by a frosh in the NCAA
Ryan Moeller	FS	2013	4L	Starred at Rifle HS in the middle of the Colorado Rockies, top special teams performer and had 14 UT in first start
Colin Johnson	H	2015	1L	He earned the holder position in spring drills
T.J. Patterson	H (QB)	2016	1L	He earned the holder position in spring drills
J.T. Bale	SN	2016	3L	He earned the snapping job (long and short) in August camp
Josh Goldin	H (QB)	2018	1L	He joined the team after serving as a student equipment manager and handled the holding chores for 9 games
Brady Russell	TE	2018	3L	The nephew of CU's Butkus Award winning linebacker Matt ('16), he caught the coaches attention early.
Jack Shutack	OG	2019	1L	He transferred to CU from Rutgers and played sporadically until earning his first start at Washington State in 2019
Derek Bedell	SN	2020	1L	The nephew of OG Brad Bedell ('98-99), he assumed the top snapping job (long and short) in game 2 in 2020

STAT SHOTS

Here are some interesting statistical bullets about Colorado football:

- ➔ 30+. In its history, Colorado is 331-29-1 when scoring 30 or more points (3-0 in 2021, 23-6 over the last five years), with records of 235-9 with 35-plus points and 218-7 with 36-plus, 199-5 with 38-plus and 112-2 with 43 or more tallies. The seven losses with 36 or more points came to Air Force (58-35 in 1968), Oklahoma (82-42 in 1980), Stanford (41-37 in 1993), Toledo (54-38 in 2009), Kansas (52-45 in 2010), Utah (42-35 in 2012), California (59-56 in 20T in 2014) and Arizona in 2017 (45-42). CU has played 1,277 games in its history, registering point totals of every number between 0 and 70 except 1 (duh!) and 68, and 75 and 109 above that mark.
- ➔ 30 points / 3 TDs. CU has scored 30 or more points in 163 of its last 380 games, posting a 138-24-1 record; the Buffs have scored at least three touchdowns in 247 of these games dating to the start of 1989; in this time frame, CU is 30-115-2 when held to two or fewer touchdowns.
- ➔ The most common point total CU has scored in winning a game are 27 and 31 (34 times each), followed by 20 (32 times); in losing a game, it's 0 (92 times, but the bulk of those—63—were prior to the end of World War II); otherwise, it's 7 (57 times).
- ➔ Colorado is 127-132-3 in its last 262 league games: within this record is a 25-game span in which CU did not lose a conference game, the fourth longest streak all-time in the Big Eight (1958-1995). Colorado was 23-0-2 during that run.
 - ➔ Colorado, however, is only 25-67 as a member of the Pac-12.
- ➔ For years, the mark of a strong CU team was that the Buffaloes routinely averaged six or more yards on first down. Technically the last time the Buffs averaged six or more for a season was in 2001, their Big 12 Championship year (6.7; CU did average 5.98 per first down play in 2016). Colorado did it six times between 1989 and 1997, including a team record best of 7.2 in both 1989 and 1994.
 - ➔ Since 1966, CU has averaged less than 4.3 just seven times (last in 2012) and less than 4.1 once—3.5 in 1979. In 2012, the Buffs averaged 4.25 yards on first down, the lowest since that 3.5 figure in 1979.
 - ➔ The 2016 Buffs had their best average on first down in years with that 5.98 figure, their best since 2001 (6.7). CU had a strong year in 2019, averaging 5.69 yards on 369 first down plays, but it dropped back down to 4.83 in the pandemic-shortened 2020 campaign.
 - ➔ In 2021, the Buffs are averaging 4.73 yards on first down, bolstered by the 8.1 average it enjoyed against Oregon State. That stopped a 7-game run where CU averaged 3.75 per 160 plays.
- ➔ Dating back to the fifth game of the 1999 season, an OT win over Missouri, the Buffs have 67 scores by return, or non-offensive scores, in the last 23-plus seasons (highs of eight in 1999 and 2002). Since the '95 opener and including postseason, CU has 87 scores by return in 319 games (80 regular season, seven in bowls). The last two came against Arizona this year (TD returns via interception and a blocked punt).
- ➔ 200/200. Colorado has accomplished the 200 "double-double," that is 200 yards both rushing and passing 55 times in the last 344 games, dating to 1993), having accomplished it 1 time under Dorrell (1-0). CU averaged over 200 in each for the season in 1993, 1994 and in 2001 (and threatened to do it in 2016). The Buffs are 53-8 since 1981 when they have reached the 200 plateaus in both and 61-11 overall. Prior to '93, CU accomplished the feat only 19 times in its first 929 games in its history.
- ➔ 600+. Colorado is 17-1 all-time in games when it has gained 600 or more yards on offense; the first and only loss was in 2014 when the Buffs had 630 in a 59-56 double overtime loss at California on Sept. 27, 2014. CU is 0-0 under Dorrell; the last two games with 600-plus were against Nicholls State in 2015 and Washington State in 2016.
- ➔ 500+. Colorado is 15-8 in games when it has gained 500 or more yards on offense since it joined the Pac-12 conference, 8-7 in Pac-12 games. All-time (since 1946 when records are available), the Buffs are 86-14 with at least 500 yards of total offense. CU is 1-0 under Dorrell.
- ➔ Grass. Colorado is 106-111 in its last 217 games on grass, including a 70-65 mark at home (20-12 in the last 32 games at Folsom), dating back to the 1999 season when Folsom Field converted back to grass.
- ➔ Artificial Turf. Colorado is 101-70-3 in its last 174 games on non-grass fields dating back to 1989, including a 66-53-3 mark in conference games. CU is 2-3 on the fake stuff under Karl Dorrell.
- ➔ Goal-to-Go Situations. Over the last seven seasons, the Buffs have scored in 156 out of 170 situations when it has been first-and-goal. This includes 125 touchdowns and 31 field goals, thus the TD percentage is 73.5 and the overall percentage is 91.8. The 14 non-scores: seven fourth down misses, four missed field goals (from 26, 28, 31 and 33 yards) and three turnovers.
- ➔ No Turns or Sacks. Dating back to 1972, Colorado is 20-4 in games when not allowing a sack or committing a turnover (1-0 under Dorrell, the double OT win over Oregon State in 2021). In these 24 games, the Buffs have outscored the opponent by 942-543 (eight games decided by less than 17 points).
- ➔ Turnover Free. Colorado has played 94 turnover-free games dating back to the 1946 season, owning a record of 61-29-4 in those games (2-1 in bowls). Under Dorrell, CU is 4-2.
- ➔ Time Spent In The Lead. In their last winning season (2016), the Buffaloes held leads in 11 of 14 games, and were ahead for a total of 457:20 on the season. That's the second-most by a hair in the 27 years CU has tracked the stat (CU led for 458:01 in 1996—a 12-game season including the bowl). In 2017 and 2018, CU held the edge up until both season finales, the opponent owning edges of 16:43 in 2017 and 12:32 in 2018. In 2019, CU led just 34.7 percent of the time, over 100 minutes behind the opponent.
 - ➔ In 2021, CU has led for 220:05, but went over 200 minutes between leads from the end of the A&M game in week two until Arizona in week six.
- ➔ The Buffs averaged 439.2 yards per game in 2016, in part thanks to a school record eight games in a row with 400 or more, with an average 284.6 yards through the air. Colorado has averaged 400 or more yards per game over the course of an entire season 16 times (last in 2017), with the school record of 495.3 set during the 1994 season. CU was averaging over 400 through 10 games in 2018 and through 11 in 2019 but finished just below both seasons.
 - ➔ CU had six games in 2019 with 400 or more yards (high of 520).
 - ➔ The Buffaloes have averaged over 300 yards passing in a season just once — 303.5 — in 1996, and came close the year before (297.2) and in 1992 (297.4); otherwise, CU has thrown for 250 or more per game just four times, including 2014 and 2016 (254.4).
- ➔ CU rarely folds when the opponent is faced with a 3rd-and-20 or longer. Dating back to 1993, opponents are just 5-of-134 on 3rd-and-20 or more. The Buff defense have had streaks of 51 and 30 in this span (Stanford is the last team to convert one, in 2011; the opponent is now 0-of-25 since). The CU offense is 13-of-156 when it's faced with 3rd-and-20 plus in the same span (0-of-15 since last converting on a 3rd-&-27 in the '16 Alamo Bowl against Oklahoma State).
- ➔ Plus Territory. CU has scored 27 times (19 TD/8 FG) in 29 trips into the Red Zone (penetrating the 20); but the other 23 times it has crossed into plus territory have ended on downs (9), punts (9), field goals (2), the clock (2) and 1 touchdown.
- ➔ CU has scored in only 22 of 40 quarters this season (20 of 24 in 2020) and in 143 of 208 quarters dating back to the start of the 2017 season).

TRENDS I

1985-PRESENT

Since 1985, when the Buffs returned to their traditional winning ways after six frustrating years from 1978-84, corresponding with coach Bill McCartney switching to the wishbone, Colorado is 235-204-4; in these 443 games spanning the last 37 seasons, CU has posted the following records (including bowls):

◆ with 400-plus yards total offense	137-42-2	◆ when holding opponent to 17 points or less	134-20-1
◆ with 500-plus yards total offense	66-13-0	◆ when holding opponent under 100 yards rushing	114-19-1
◆ when rushing for 200-plus yards	131-19-1	◆ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	109-22-1
◆ when rushing for 250-plus yards	91- 6-1	◆ when scoring first	155-62-1
◆ when rushing for 300-plus yards	57- 2-1	◆ when leading at halftime	186-39-2
◆ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	51- 8-0	◆ when leading after three quarters	193-28-3
◆ when out-rushing the opponent	203-39-3	◆ when scoring 30 or more points	151-23-1
◆ when converting 50 percent or better on 3rd down	94-18-1	◆ when held to 13 points or less	4-73-0
◆ when punting three or fewer times	79-30-1	◆ with a 100-yard rusher and receiver	35-10-0
◆ with zero turnovers (179-93-2 with two or fewer)	53-26-2	◆ when not committing a turnover or allowing a sack	20- 4-0
◆ when scoring 40 or more points (19-2 since joining Pac-12)	84- 3-0	◆ when holding edge in 1st downs & possession time	135-39-2

TRENDS II

ASSORTED TIMELINES

A look at some Colorado records in games over assorted periods of time:

Since Start of 1892 Season (or all-time):

➤ with a 100-yard rusher and receiver	38-11
➤ when scoring 43 or more points	126- 2

Since Start of 2001 Season:

➤ when opponent has under 100 yards rushing (18-4 last 22)	48-17
➤ when opponent scores 17 points or less (26-1 last 27)	52- 6
➤ when rushing for 250-plus yards (13-1 300-plus)	32- 2
➤ with 500-plus yards total offense (3-1 with 600-plus)	28- 9

Since Start of 2013 Season:

➤ when rushing for 200-plus yards	22- 6
➤ when rushing and passing for at least 200 yards	14- 5
➤ when holding opponent under 300 yards total offense	19- 1
➤ with a 100-yard rusher	23- 9
➤ with a 100-yard rusher and receiver	12- 3
➤ when leading at halftime	32-13
➤ when scoring 30 or more points	30-12
➤ when leading after three (3-46 trailing, 4-1 tied)	35- 7

TURNOVER ANALYSIS / DORRELL ERA

Most head coaches believe that when it comes to turnovers, they are one of the single most important factors in winning or losing ball games. Statistics usually back up the argument, thus the numbers under Karl Dorrell. A closer look:

Dorrell Era	Turnovers Committed	Turnovers Forced	+/-	Scoring Off Turnovers PF	PA	+/-
7 WINS	5	11	+ 6	35	10	+25
9 LOSSES	13	5	- 8	15	37	-22
16 GAMES	18	16	- 2	50	47	+ 3

POST BYE WEEKS

Colorado is 31-24 in games following a bye week in the post-World War II Era (or since 1946); after the Buffaloes joined the Big Seven Conference in 1948, CU stopped playing Denver in an annual Thanksgiving game that year and byes became much rarer. In fact, the Buffs had just five bye weeks between 1948 and 1984 (going 3-2; one was created in 1963 after the assassination of JFK). Since 1985, CU has had at least one bye in 32 of 35 seasons, with two weeks off 12 of those years (including 2019) and one season with three idle Saturdays (2001, due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks). CU is 27-21 in games following byes dating back to 1985, which includes a 5-6 mark as a member of the Pac-12 (losing to Arizona State in 2012, at Oregon State in 2013, at USC and Oregon in 2014, at Utah in 2017 and to Arizona in 2019; and wins over UCLA in 2016 and 2018, Washington in 2019 and San Diego State in 2020).

TOUCHDOWNS ON FIRST CAREER TOUCH

Five players in the last six years have scored a touchdown on their first career touch, with two on the current: in 2018, WR Daniel Arias caught a 37-yard pass from QB Steven Montez to become the 16th known player to do so in CU history (he did so in his hometown, making it even more special). S Trevor Woods joined the list as the 17th to do so when he returned a blocked punt against Arizona this season. Not including those players whose first career interception were returned for scores (see elsewhere in these notes), here's a list of known players in CU history that scored a TD the first time they touched the football:

Player	Date	Opponent	Score	How	Player	Date	Opponent	Score	How
Lamar Meyer	Sept. 18, 1954	DRAKE	W 61-0	26 pass from Frank Bernardi	Jeremy Bloom	Aug. 31, 2002	Colorado State	L 14-19	75 punt return

SOUTH PARK RALPHIE INTRO

Most know that the creators of Comedy Central's popular South Park are University of Colorado alums: Trey Parker, Matt Stone and animator Eric Stough. Trey voices Eric Cartman; he teamed with Eric this summer to create a short (roughly 20 seconds) vignette that debuted during the countdown to kickoff prior to the 2014 Arizona State game. It's been a hit since, especially among the CU student section. Cartman is seen in his usual garb and he introduced Ralphie before the real buffalo led the Buffs on the field.

2021 ANNIVERSARIES

The annual listing of what happened years ago, or anniversaries of 5, 10 and 25-year increments:

- 1891 (Nov. 26) After going 0-4 in its first season of intercollegiate football the previous year, and dropping the first four games in '91, Colorado earns its first-ever win in the sport with a 24-4 win on the road against the Colorado Springs Athletic Association.
- 1896 Colorado records its first undefeated season with a 5-0-0 mark, outscoring the five opponents 161-6.
- 1901 After a one-year absence, Fred Folsom returns for his second of three stints as CU head coach, piloting the Buffs to a 5-1-1 mark.
- 1906 Colorado posts perhaps its weirdest record in its football history: 2-3-4, the four ties all of the scoreless variety. CU scored just 28 points but allowed only 32.
- 1911 The third of three 6-0 teams in a row while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912. Colorado outscores the six opponents 88-5, allowing one field goal on defense and a safety for the only points.
- 1916 The first year of the post-Fred Folsom Era, as CU's legendary coach retired following the 1915 season; Bob Evans takes over but the Silver & Gold go 1-5-1.
- 1921 (Oct. 29) CU travels its furthest east for a football game, some 926 miles, but lose 35-0 at the University of Chicago, then a powerhouse in college football; the only longer trip at the time in program history was a 1915 game against Washington in Seattle, 999 miles from the CU campus. Trains took CU to both locales.
- 1926 CU opens the year with four straight home games, only done three times since (1937, 1943 and 1978 – in all of which the first five were at Folsom Field).
- 1931 (Nov. 26) Colorado defeats Arizona in Tucson, 27-7, on Thanksgiving, the last time (and of three total) Thanksgiving Day games CU has played out of the state.
- 1936 (Nov. 7) Byron White sets a then-school record by scoring 25 points (4 TD, 1 PAT) in a 31-7 win at Utah. White sets up his All-America season the following year by rushing for 643 yards with 1,339 all-purpose yards and 10 touchdowns.
- 1946 Jim Yeager reassumes head coaching position after serving in World War II for two years. An Oct. 12 win at Wyoming (20-0) was played in a blizzard.
- 1951 (Nov. 17) Colorado drills Nebraska in Lincoln, 36-14, in the program's first-ever televised game. Bill Stern (play-by-play) and Ray Michael (commentary) call the game, produced independently and aired regionally on NBC.
- 1956 (Nov. 4) After giving Oklahoma fits most of the decade, the Sooners roll into Boulder ranked No. 1 in the nation, CU's first-ever against the No. 1 team, and it appears the Buffaloes might finally break through. CU builds a 19-6 halftime lead, only to see OU rally with 21 second half points for a 27-19 win. The Buffs go on to finish 4-1-1 in the Big 7, earning the invitation to the Orange Bowl where CU beat Clemson, 27-21, for the first bowl win in school history.
- 1961 Colorado won its first Big 8 Conference championship, its first league title since 1942 (when it shared the Mountain States crown). The two biggest wins were a 20-19 win over Kansas (after trailing 19-0 early in the fourth quarter), and a 7-6 win over No. 10 Missouri. A 7-0 win at Nebraska remains to this day one of the school's all-time defensive gems: the Buffs held Nebraska to 31 total yards and zero first downs. CU reached No. 6 in the polls but lost to No. 4 LSU in the Orange Bowl, 25-7. Joe Romig is named an All-American for the second straight year and earns the Rhodes Scholarship.
- 1966 Colorado finished second in the Big 8 Conference race with a 5-2 mark (7-3 overall), the two league setbacks by a combined three points, 11-10 at Oklahoma State and 21-19 against Nebraska. After losing 24-3 to open the season at No. 20 Miami, the Buffaloes bounce back and win at No. 10 Baylor, 13-7, in a game where CU was on a mission to win after its black players were subject to racist taunts, including on a pregame radio show piped into the team lockerroom.
- 1971 Artificial surfacing makes its debut in Boulder on Sept. 18 versus Wyoming, as an AstroTurf carpet blanketed Folsom Field; fittingly, it snowed two feet that day and likely prevented cancellation of the game. CU's stunning road upsets of No. 9 Louisiana State and No. 6 Ohio State paved the way for a 10-2 season, as the Big 8 owned the top three spots in the final Associated Press poll after the bowls. With Nebraska (#1), Oklahoma (#2) and Colorado (#3), it was the first and to date only time in history one conference has occupied all top three positions at the end of the year. Charlie Davis rushes for a then-record 1,386 yards for the season, including a still-record 342 against Oklahoma State on Nov. 13, while Cliff Branch returns an NCAA record four punts for touchdowns. CU caps its first 10-win season with a 29-17 win over No. 15 Houston in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.
- 1976 Colorado won its second Big 8 Conference title with a 5-2 league record; the Buffs were tied with Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, but CU earned the title via tiebreaker by virtue of its wins over the Sooners (42-31) and Cowboys (20-10). Nine players off the '76 team would be selected in the following spring's NFL Draft, including five in the second round in an 18-pick span between Nos. 35 and 52.
- 1981 The Buffs were 3-8, winning their season opener (45-27 over Texas Tech), homecoming (11-10 over Oklahoma State) and season finale (24-21 against Kansas State). Coach Chuck Fairbanks would resign the following June 1 to take a similar job with the New Jersey Generals of the fledgling USFL.
- 1986 Fresh off a season where CU won the NCAA Most Improved Team Award (+5½ games over a 1-10 record in 1984), the Buffaloes open up a disappointing 0-4, the last three of those losses by a combined eight points. CU rallies to win its next five, including a 20-10 win over No. 3 Nebraska which many refer to as the "Turning Point" in the Coach Bill McCartney Era. That run set up a battle for first place in the Big 8 and the Orange Bowl berth that went with it against Oklahoma on Nov. 15. But the Sooners end the dream with a 28-0 win in Boulder, in a game where OU did not attempt a single pass.
- 1991 Colorado ties for a third straight Big 8 title with a 6-0-1 mark, as a Nov. 2 tie with Nebraska (19-19) ends a 19-game winning streak in conference play, dating back to the '88 finale. Lamont Warren rushes for 830 yards, to this day a single-season best by a CU freshman, and in one of the most daring personnel moves since the days of platoon football, coach Bill McCartney plays his starting quarterback, senior Darian Hagan, as the team's top punt returner so he can better showcase his talents for professional football.
- 1996 A 33-21 win over Washington gives CU a 10-2 record, its third consecutive 10-win season for the first time in school history. It was also the inaugural season of the Big 12 Conference, and Colorado won its first league game, 24-10, at Texas A&M in a game where the Buffs had the quickest score from scrimmage in their history: after Ryan Sutter recovered an A&M fumble on the opening kickoff, Rae Carruth scored on a 28-yard end around just 13 seconds into the game. Koy Detmer set a school record with 3,156 passing yards, and the 20-4 start over his first two seasons as a college coach by Rick Neuheisel ranks as one of the top 5 all-time in NCAA history.
- 2001 A Sept. 15 game at Washington State was cancelled due to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on the east coast. CU plays in its first Big 12 Championship game and wins the title with a 39-37 win over Texas in basically a road win at Irving; a 62-36 win over Nebraska the previous week gave the Buffs their first North Division title, as Chris Brown rushed for 198 yards and a school-record six touchdowns. Daniel Graham wins the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, and is named the school's sixth unanimous All-American. No. 2 Colorado plays in its first (and only) BCS game, but loses to No. 3 Oregon 38-16 in the Fiesta Bowl.
- 2006 Dan Hawkins named 23rd full-time head coach at Colorado; PK Mason Crosby repeated as first-team All-American, as he was the first placekicker at CU to earn the honor even one time.
- 2011 Colorado officially became a member of the Pac-12 Conference, joining along with Utah what was previously known as the Pacific-10; both became members on July 1, 2011. Jon Embree named the 24th head coach in CU football history. The Buffaloes win league titles in men's and women's cross country and claim the postseason men's basketball championship by winning four games in as many days.
- 2016 Colorado pulls off the last-to-first accomplishment in winning its first Pac-12 South Division title with an 8-1 record, though losing the league's title game to Washington. The Buffs rise as high as No. 8 in the College Football Playoff standings and earn their first bowl bid (Alamo Bowl opposite Oklahoma State) in nine years. CU defeats Arizona State, Oregon, Stanford and UCLA for the first time as members of the Pac-12.

FIVE CU GAMES IN ESPN's TOP 150 ALL-TIME

ESPN compiled all kinds of top lists commemorating the 150th anniversary of college football in 2019, and came out with its listing of the top 150 games. Five Buffalo games made the list (all wins); while we might not necessarily agree as in our opinion, the “Fifth Down” game could have been bumped for the 62-36 win over Nebraska in 2001, or the 21-21 tie with Oklahoma in 1952 (the Sooners’ only blemish in Big 7 play). Five out 150 is not too bad; those games:

No. 21	Ann Arbor	Sept. 24, 1994	#7 Colorado 27, #4 Michigan 26
No. 64	Miami	Jan. 1, 1991	#1 Colorado 10, #5 Notre Dame 9 (Orange Bowl)
No. 87	Columbia	Oct. 6, 1990	#2 Colorado 33, Missouri 31
No. 123	Irving	Dec. 1, 2001	#9 Colorado 39, #3 Texas 37 (Big 12 Championship)
No. 130	Boulder	Nov. 4, 1989	#2 Colorado 27, #3 Nebraska 21

Number one on the list? The true game of the century, Nov. 25, 1971, #1 Nebraska 35, #2 Oklahoma 31 in Norman, Okla.

AND OF THE TOP 150 COACHES ... CU had two on their list:

No. 87 Fred Folsom 107-28-6 (Colorado: 1895-1902 and 1908-15; 78-23-2, Dartmouth: 1903-06; 29-5-4)

Folsom enjoyed four unbeaten seasons at Colorado, including three straight from 1909-11, part of a 21-game winning streak over five seasons. That was his second tenure with the Buffs; Folsom retired from coaching in 1915 at age 42, but he continued at his chief job on the Boulder campus: He taught at the law school until 1943.

No. 144 Bill McCartney 93-55-2 (all at Colorado, 1982-94)

McCartney won seven games in his first three years at Colorado and never had a losing season again. The all-time leader in wins at the school, he won three conference championships, won the school's only national championship (in 1990) and played for the national championship in 1989. McCartney coached 1994 Heisman Trophy winner Rashaan Salaam and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

AND OF THE TOP 150 PLAYERS ... Just one Buffalo, surprisingly (was hoping for two or three (e.g. QB Darian Hagan, TB Rashaan Salaam):

No. 116 Byron "Whizzer" White (RB, Colorado, 1935-37; Rushing yards: 1,864 | Total offense: 2,538 yards | Touchdowns: 24)

White excelled on the field and in the classroom at Colorado. In 1937, the Heisman runner-up led the nation in four major statistical categories: scoring, rushing, total offense and all-purpose yards. White's record-setting 246 all-purpose yards per game stood until Barry Sanders broke the mark in 1988. White was a Phi Beta Kappa scholar and first in his class at Colorado (180 hours of A, six of B). He became a Rhodes Scholar and was No. 1 in his class at Yale. White won two Bronze Stars in Pacific combat in World War II and in 1962, President John F. Kennedy appointed him to the U.S. Supreme Court, the youngest man at the time (44 years old) to be named to the nation's highest court (approved by a voice vote).

BUFFS ON ESPN'S GAMEDAY

Colorado has hosted ESPN's College GameDay three times (Sept. 23, 1995 vs. Texas A&M, Oct. 28, 1995 vs. Nebraska, Sept. 14, 1996 vs. Michigan); the Buffs have been the visiting team on three occasions as well (Oct. 29, 1994 at Nebraska, Sept. 30, 1995 at Oklahoma, Sept. 13, 1997 at Michigan).

TRUE FRESHMAN O-LINE STARTERS

It's pretty rare when a true freshman starts on the offensive line; in fact, in Colorado history current sophomore OT Frank Fillip became just the 12th player to do so when he started for the first time against Oregon State. Those dozen players have combined to make a total of 51 starts; no true freshman has started the entire season on the O-line. As the late great Keith Jackson would say, here's a list of CU's "big uglies" who have started games on the line (total number of starts in last column):

Player	Pos.	First Start	Opponent	Total	Player	Pos.	First Start	Opponent	Total
Leon White	OG	Nov. 10, 1973	at Kansas	3	Kai Maiva	OG	Sept. 29, 2007	OKLAHOMA	8
Guy Thurston	OG	Nov. 10, 1979	OKLAHOMA STATE	3	Ryan Miller	OT	Oct. 13, 2007	at Kansas	6
Eric Coyle	OG	Oct. 30, 1982	OKLAHOMA	4	Max Tuioti-Mariner	OG	Sept. 6, 2008	EASTERN WASHINGTON	2
Clint Moore	OG	Sept. 7, 1991	*WYOMING	3	Alex Lewis	OT	Sept. 17, 2011	Colorado State (Denver)	1^
Dolyn Jackson	OG	Sept. 21, 1991	MINNESOTA	8	Frank Fillip	OT	Oct. 27, 2018	OREGON STATE	2
Marwan Hage	OG	Oct. 21, 2000	at Kansas	2	(*—season opener; ^—started two other games at tight end)
Brian Daniels	OG	Sept. 20, 2003	at Florida State	9

COLD WEATHER GAMES

With the 2020 season commencing on Nov. 7 and seven games on the revised schedule, chances were the Buffaloes would play in at least one game that would crack the school's coldest list in its history. And that's exactly what happened, as the Dec. 12 home game against Utah saw a 23 degree temperature at kickoff (which was the same temp at game's end), with a wind chill of 19 degrees. It snowed all day into the night on Friday, subsiding in the wee hours. Here's a list of a sub-30 degree weather at kickoff in CU annals (the Buffs are 14-9-1 all-time, including a 12-3-1 mark at home, when the thermometer doesn't crack 30):

COLORADO'S COLDEST GAMES (*—night game)

COLORADO BY THE NUMBERS ALL-TIME HISTORIC

- 8-9 Colorado's record in overtime games (last: 1-1 in 2019);
- 9 The number of Buffaloes enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (eight players: Byron White, Joe Romig, Dick Anderson, Bobby Anderson, Alfred Williams, John Wooten, Herb Orvis, Michael Westbrook); and one coach: Bill McCartney).
- 16 The number of career interceptions by CU's all-time leader, S John Stearns (1970-72).
- 20-4 Colorado's record in games since 1972 when not committing a turnover or allowing a quarterback sack (1-0 in 2021).
- 26 All-time CU conference titles (tied for 10th nationally: OU 49, NU 46, Michigan 42, Ohio St. 38, USC 37, Tulsa 35, Alabama 31, Texas 30, Fresno St. 28, UU 26).
- 29 The number of national championships CU has won in its athletic history: 20 skiing, 8 cross country (5 men's/3 women's), 1 football.
- 30 The number of tackles by LB Jeff Geiser against Kansas State on Nov. 24, 1973, CU's single game record (5 solo, 25 assists).
- 30 The number of states CU has played a football game in with the most recent addition of Massachusetts in 2014.
- 35 The number of career quarterback sacks by CU's all-time leader, OLB Alfred Williams (1987-90).
- 36-1-1 Colorado's all-time record when rushing for 300-plus yards in a game (last: 407 at Arizona in 2020).
- 38-11 Colorado's record in games in its history when it has had a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver in the same game.
- 42-30 Colorado's all-time record in games decided by one (27-17) or two (15-13) points.
- 56 The number of all-time players who have rushed for 1,000 or more yards in a CU uniform (seventh in the NCAA).
- 60 The length of the school record field goal PK Mason Crosby made against Iowa State in 2004.
- 62-36 The final score of CU's 2001 win over BCS No. 1 Nebraska, which earned the Buffs the Big 12 North title.

MONTHLY TAB

The Buffs 76-62-1 in its last 139 November games (70-45 against all-comers aside from Nebraska, going 6-16-1 against NU in turkey month, and 69-25 against unranked teams since 1985. Colorado is 60-66-2 in their last 128 October games dating back to 1989. CU is The Buffs are 13-20 all-time in the month of December (5-8 in regular season games) and are 4-3-1 in August games in its history. Colorado is 72-44 in its last 116 September games, a pretty decent record considering the quality of non-conference schedule CU almost annually plays.

300+AT FOLSOM

Colorado is 323-181-10 in its 98th season playing its home games at Folsom Field (514 in all). The first game at Folsom was Oct. 11, 1924 (then known as Colorado Stadium, built at a cost of $75,000). Previously, CU was 60-14-6 at Gamble Field and 28-8 on other grass fields of campus; the Buffs are 412-203-16 all-time at home. The 2016 season marked CU's first winning one at home in six years, as the Buffaloes went 6-0; Colorado's last winning record at home had been in 2010 (with a 4-2 mark); it was CU's first undefeated season at home since 1994, when the Buffs went 6-0 in the late Rashaan Salaam's Heisman Trophy winning year. Over the 2011-12 seasons, CU was just 1-10 in Boulder before going 3-3 in Folsom in Mike MacIntyre's first season; the Buffs pulled even at home under "Mac" with the 6-0 mark in 2016 and finished 18-17 at Folsom in his tenure. CU is 5-3 at home under Karl Dorrell.

RANKED "UNDEFEATEDS" FALL AT FOLSOM

Eleven ranked, undefeated teams have lost their "0" in the loss column at Folsom Field since 1989. The last was Kansas in 2009, as the Jayhawks (5-0) hit town ranked No. 17 and lost 34-30. In 2007, Oklahoma (4-0) rolled in ranked No. 3 and left with a 27-24 setback; in 2002, Kansas State came to Boulder ranked No. 13 at 4-0 and lost, 35-31. Two bit the dust in 2001: Nebraska (11-0, No. 1 in the BCS and No. 2 in the polls) fell 62-36 game to the Buffs, as did Texas A & M (5-0, No. 20), 31-21. In 1998, No. 22 Texas Tech (6-0) lost 19-17; in 1995, No. 3 Texas A&M (2-0) lost, 29-21; in 1994, No. 10 Wisconsin (2-0) was crushed, 55-17; and in 1990, No. 12 Washington (3-0) left a 20-14 loser. In 1989, No. 10 Illinois (2-0) lost 38-7 and No. 3 Nebraska (8-0) fell, 27-21. (Not included is a 43-10 win over No. 23-FCS Charleston Southern in 2013, which came to Boulder with a 7-0 mark.)

THE PRIMO TWENTY-FOUR

Colorado is one of just 24 schools in I-A/FBS history to be able to make the claim of winning (or sharing) a national championship and also having a Heisman Trophy winner. The criteria for national championship consideration included those crowned by the Associated Press, the coaches, the BCS and the CFP; 30 total schools at one point in the past have been able to claim the throne. This prestigious short list (Alabama is the latest to join, doing so in 2009):

Schools with national championships and no Heisman winner are Michigan State (2), Tennessee (2) and Clemson, Georgia Tech, Maryland and Washington (all 1).

THE BUFFS & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HARDWARE

Colorado is in an elite group when it comes to claiming college football's prestigious trophies dating back to the 1990 season. A proliferation of awards has emerged since the late 1980s, and the Buffs are near the top of the list when it comes to collecting these statues. CU has had eight different players win 10 trophies over the last 21 seasons (1990-2020), tied for the 16th most nationally when it comes to trophies (and tied for 15th as well in the number of different players who have been honored). The below postseason "hardware" count includes the Heisman Trophy and the Lombardi, Maxwell, Walter Camp, Butkus, Thorpe, O'Brien, Unitas, Groza, Biletnikoff, Doak Walker, Nagurski, Bednarik, Mackey, Tatupu (defunct), Ray Guy, Rimington, Lott, Hendricks, Hornung, Mayo/Comeback, Bullsworth (on-field player awards only—for example, if the Draddy/Campbell was included, CU would have one more on each list; so players only, no coaches, no "fad" awards around for a year or two, and no Disney Spirit, Orange Bowl Courage, etc. awards). The list of schools that have had winners between 1990 and 2020 (players only):

ALL-TIME CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

Through 2020, Colorado is tied for 21st all-time with 31 consensus All-America selections, the fourth-most among Pac-12 schools (per NCAA guidelines: players need to be named first-team on at least two of the five organizations the NCAA recognizes: AFCA, AP, FWAA, Walter Camp and The Sporting News). The top 25: Notre Dame 105, Ohio State 87, Michigan 83, Oklahoma 81, USC 82, Alabama 80, Texas 61, Nebraska 54, Pittsburgh 53, Florida State 45, Penn State 42, UCLA 41, Tennessee 40, Army 37, Stanford 37, Miami-Fla. 36, LSU 35, Georgia 33, Minnesota 33, Florida 32, Colorado 31, Michigan State 31, Auburn 30, Texas A&M 31, California 29, Wisconsin 29 (rest of Pac-12: 32. OPPONENTS & 2021 SCHEDULE TIDBITS

The 11 FBS opponents on the 2021 Colorado schedule combined for a 39-33 record in the COVID-19 shortened 2020 season (a 54.2 winning percentage); only one opponent played as many as 10 games (Texas A&M, going 9-1); three teams played as few as four.

- Colorado and Texas A&M were set to resume their rivalry from their Big 12 Conference days last year in College Station, now delayed until this year in Denver (which as a possible site was built into the original contract).
- With the A&M game at Denver's Empower Field at Mile High, it was the 44th game CU will play in a stadium that is or has been home to an NFL team (21-22-1 record); CU is 16-10 in current NFL venues, which includes a 12-5 record at Empower (16 previous games against Colorado State).
- With the season opener on a Friday night, it was the seventh time in eight years the Buffaloes will open on a weeknight (2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 in Denver, 2015 in Honolulu and now 2021 in Boulder); the Buffs opened the 2013 season on a Sunday.
- Minnesota was the first Big Ten Conference team to visit Boulder since Nebraska in 2019, but the first pre-realignment since Michigan in 1996.
- Only UCLA has a bye before playing the Buffaloes in 2021 (CU hosts Oregon State that day); Colorado's bye comes the week before hosting Arizona for Family Weekend (the Wildcats host UCLA when the Buffs have their Saturday off).
- CU is 5-5 overall in Pac-12 openers (2-4 at home) and will open against Arizona State for the third time (1-1, the second time in Tempe).
- Friday Night Lights. The Buffaloes play on a Friday night at least once for the seventh time in eight years; a 2020 Friday game versus Utah was moved to the next day. With the UNC win, CU is 19-25 all-time on Fridays (9-10 night; CU is 6-7 on Friday nights since joining the Pac-12, 1-6 in league games).
- With two Friday night affairs, Colorado will have had at least one regular season game on a non-Saturday for the 26th time over the last 27 seasons; the only exception was in the abbreviated 2020 campaign. The Buffs had played the Friday after Thanksgiving from 1996 through 2012, a span of 17 seasons (Nebraska 1995-2010, Utah 2011-12). But starting in 2013, the game with the Utes was passed on by the Pac-12's television partners for Friday airing until FOX will show the 2021 contest on one of its platforms (FOX/FS-1/FS-2).
- Colorado is scheduled to travel 7,563 ground and air miles round-trip for its non-Boulder games in 2021: Texas A&M (Denver, 60); Arizona State (Tempe, 1,261), Cal (Berkeley, 1,941), Oregon (Eugene, 1,787), UCLA (Pasadena, 1,719) and Utah (Salt Lake City, 795).
- In Pac-12 play, Colorado will miss Stanford and Washington State this year and in 2022; they rotate back in for 2023-24 when Cal and Washington come off.
- The 2020 game canceled at Colorado State was the last in an 11-game series renegotiated and signed in December 2009; the schools will resume the series in 2023-24 (Sept. 16 in Boulder and Sept. 14 in Fort Collins), and earlier this year signed a six-year series to continue what has become known as the Rocky Mountain Showdown. Those games are set for 2029-30, 2033-34 and 2037-38. The two had played every year since 1995 and 31 times dating back to 1983.

All times listed are MDT/MST. *—denotes Pacific-12 Conference game. Television selections Sept. 25 and beyond are made on 12 days' notice by the Pac-12 television partners (ESPN/ABC, FOX/FOX Sports 1, Pac-12 Networks); ESPN/ABC also has an option of utilizing a 6-day selection process three times annually. With the advent of the Pac-12 Networks (National; Arizona, Bay Area, Mountain, Oregon, Southern California, Washington), all conference games and all home non-league games will again be televised in 2021 (81 in all). ABC's standard afternoon regional telecast window is at 1:30 p.m. MT in addition to a number of prime-time windows (6 p.m. MT; those games will be selected from the Pac-12, American Athletic, ACC, Big 10 or Big 12 conferences).

A LOOK AT THE PAC-12 DIVISIONS

After the Pac-12 announced it was expanding to 12 teams in 2010 with the late spring additions of Colorado (June 10) and Utah (June 17), the divisions were announced later that year (football only). CU and Utah joined Arizona, Arizona State, Southern California and UCLA in the Pac-12 South; the Oregon and Washington schools along with Cal and Stanford comprised the Pac-12 North. Here's a look at the divisions and the all-time records of each program as listed by the NCAA through games of Nov. 13 (2021 records in parenthesis):

FOLSOM FIELD #1

In 2017, LawnStarter.com ranked its top 16 College Football Stadiums with the Best Natural Scenery, and lo and behold, coming in at the top was CU's own Folsom Field. The top 10: 1. Folsom Field (Colorado); 2. Lavell Edwards Stadium (BYU); 3. Utah Stadium (Utah); 4. Romney Stadium (Utah State); 5. Rose Bowl (UCLA); 6. Sun Bowl (UTEP); 7. Ryan Field (Northwestern); 8. Scott Stadium (Virginia); 9. Michie Stadium (Army); 10. Kidd Brewer Stadium (Appalachian State); 11. Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium (East Carolina); 12. Dix Stadium (Kent State); 13. Memorial Stadium (California); 14. Kenan Stadium (North Carolina); 15. Memorial Stadium (Kansas); 16. Spartan Stadium (San Jose State).

The same publication ranked CU's natural grass field the third best national behind Iowa State (Jack Trice Field) and Northwestern (Ryan Field).

CU IS BLACK & GOLD, BUT FOLSOM WAS FIRST TO GO "GREEN"

The University of Colorado at Boulder established a goal to move toward zero-waste at Folsom Field during the 2008 football season and invest in local carbon-reduction projects. They anticipated recycling or composting at least 90% of the waste generated at Folsom Field and met those goals. According to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency information and other sources, Folsom Field was the first major sports stadium in the nation, professional or collegiate, to collect all materials in recycling or compost containers, eliminate trash cans and transform its materials collections systems into a zero-waste process.

U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT TABS BOULDER #1

In October 2020, U.S. News & World Report released its annual ranking of the top 150 places to live in the United States. In its summary, the publication wrote: "Snug against the foothills where the Great Plains give rise to the Rocky Mountains, Boulder is nothing if not a looker. This city reveals its spectacle at the crest of a hill on U.S. Route 36 from Denver with its iconic sandstone slabs rising from the mountains, prefaced by pine-clad mesas and cradled within the backdrop of the snow-capped Indian Peaks." Boulder received high scores for desirability, job market and quality of life (also receiving the No. 1 ranking in the latter).

The top 10: 1. Boulder; 2. Denver; 3. Austin, Texas; 4. Colorado Springs; 5. Fort Collins, Colo.; 6. Charlotte, N.C.; 7. Des Moines, Iowa; 8. Fayetteville, Ark.; 9. Portland, Ore.; 10. San Francisco. Other Pac-12 Metro Areas: 13. Seattle; 29. San Jose, Calif.; 31. Salt Lake City; 53. Phoenix; 76. Eugene; 80. Salem, Ore.; 85. Spokane; 97. Los Angeles; 113. Tucson.

CU FOOTBALL REMAINS SECOND MOST POPULAR PER-GAME SELL IN STATE

The final home attendance figure for 2019 was 297,435, an average of 49,573 for six home games. It marked the 25th straight season that Colorado football was the second largest average draw per game in the state behind the NFL Denver Broncos (and the 43rd time in the last 45 years). The fledgling Colorado Rockies took over the second spot the two years they played at old Mile High Stadium, averaging in the mid-to-upper 50s in 1993 and 1994. The Broncos wrestled the state's top spot away from the Buffs permanently in 1975 after first doing so in 1969, with six years of see-sawing in-between (CU had been the state attendance leader since Folsom Field was built in 1924). CU continues to have the second largest public and overall season ticket base in the state (the count for 2021 was 33,589 when adding in 13,990 student holders to 19,599 public tickets (student tickets are purchased, just at a discounted rate). In 2019, CU was again first in the state in college football attendance for the 54th straight year, ahead of Colorado State (23,337) and Air Force (27,084; AFA was the last school top CU's figure, in 1965); 2020 not figured in due to the pandemic.

► In 2021, the Broncos are averaging 76,299 per game and the Rockies finished at 24,854 (lower than normal as COVID restrictions weren't lifted until late June).

ALL-BLACK UNIFORMS

Colorado has worn its all black uniforms on 56 occasions, when the Buffaloes wear both black jerseys and black pants, owning a 24-31-1 record; the Buffs have also added black helmets to the look, having worn black top-to-bottom on seven occasions (0-8 in that combo). A little history on the all-black look: the brainchild of then-head coach Bill McCartney, CU first wore the garb on Nov. 28, 1987 for a game after Thanksgiving at the time; the opponent was CU's old Big 8 rival, Nebraska. The Buffs came out and warmed up in gold pants, and upon returning to the locker room at the conclusion of warm-ups, the players found black pants hanging in their lockers. "It was something we thought about a long time ago," Mac said at the time. "You couldn't do this overnight. We didn't tell the kids, and they were real excited." He went on to say that it was planned a month or so out to give the team a shot of adrenaline prior to kickoff.

PAC-12 BOWL AGREEMENTS FOR 2021

Here are the current Pac-12 Conference bowl agreements (all times mountain; order not confirmed):

- # 1 Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual (Pasadena; ESPN: Jan. 1 if in CFP semifinal, 3:00 p.m.; otherwise, see below).
2 Valero Alamo (San Antonio; ESPN: Dec. 29 vs. Big 12, 7:15 p.m.)
3/4 San Diego CCU Holiday (San Diego; FOX: Dec. 28 vs. ACC, 6:00 p.m.)
3/4 SRS Distribution Las Vegas (Las Vegas; ESPN: Dec. 30 vs. SEC, 8:30 p.m.)
5 Tony the Tiger Sun (El Paso; CBS: Dec. 31 vs. ACC/Notre Dame; 10:30 a.m.)

- # 6 Jimmy Kimmel LA (Los Angeles; ABC: Dec. 18 vs. Mountain West #1, 5:30 p.m.)
7 One of the following ESPN Bowls will be the Pac-12's 7th (& maybe 8th option):
Lockheed Martin Armed Forces (Fort Worth; ESPN: Dec. 22 vs. At-Large, night)
Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla (Tampa; ESPN: Dec. 23 vs. At-Large, 5:00 p.m.)
SERVEPRO First Responder (Dallas; ESPN: Dec. 28 vs. At-Large, 1:15 p.m.)

Note: If the Pac-12 champion is in the top four of the College Football Playoff poll following the 2021 season it would play in either the Cotton or Orange bowls (both Jan. 1) as a participant in the CFP semifinals. If the champion is not among those four, it will play in the Rose.

WHO IS/HAS BEEN IN ON OFFENSE & DEFENSE

The last Buff to play on both sides of the ball was OLB Carson Wells, who played some fullback late in 2018 (three snaps, picking up two touchdown block credits) ... George Frazier, as he did his freshman year in 2014, appeared on both offense (TE/FB) and defense (DE) as senior in 2017 (he played 506 total snaps between offense, defense and special teams). In 2014, he played both defensive end and fullback for the first time against Arizona State, becoming the first Buff to appear on both sides of the ball since 2005 in the process, and continued to do so the remainder of the season. Otherwise, you have to go back to the 2008 season, when Eugene Goree was on-call to do so, as the redshirt frosh was both a DT and an OG during the second half of the season; he did appear on both sides of the ball but not in the same game. Through the years, there have been a few players who wind up playing on both sides of the ball in the same game: DT John Guydon (DT/OG at Texas on October 15, 2005) and that was the first time it happened other than a gimmick here or there since WR Michael Westbrook played a series at safety against Baylor in 1993 (linemen DE James Garee, DT Sam Wilder and DT Justin Bannan all appeared on offense, catching one pass each). CB Ben Kelly tried tailback in 1999 at Texas Tech; he finished with three yards on one carry (a nice 5-yard run was wiped out by a penalty). Between 1994 and 2005, several Buffs played on both sides of the ball, as offensive linemen often played on the goal line or short yardage defense units—OG Heath Irwin, OG Clint Moore, OG Chris Naeole, OT Melvin Thomas and OG Brad Bedell all did it at one time or another between 1993 and 1998. In 1990, OLBs Alfred Williams and Kanavis McGhee played some tight end in a 64-3 win over Kansas State (Williams caught a pass for 17 yards).

SUPER BOWL BUFFALOES

In 2020, 247Sports looked at all 108 rosters of the 54 Super Bowls and developed an all-time list of the schools that have the most players appear in the game (results for SB55 were not updated). Colorado came in tied for 10th with LSU and Ohio State with 93 players (Buffs have won a total of 52 Super Bowl rings). Topping the list was Miami-Fla. with 122, followed by USC (120), Michigan (114), UCLA (112), Penn State (110), Notre Dame (105), Tennessee (102), Georgia and Nebraska (96). Next after the Buffs from the Pac-12 were Stanford (16th, 84), California (17th, 83), Arizona State (19th, 75) Oregon (23rd, 71) and Washington (28th, 65).

SUPER BOWL SCORING. In the 55 Super Bowls, Colorado is tied for 21st in producing points with 37: WR Cliff Branch scored 18 for the Raiders, PK Mason Crosby seven for the Packers, FB Cullen Bryant six for the Rams and WR Boyd Dowler six for the Packers. The all-time list:

Miami, Fla.	84	Stanford	54	USC	42	LSU	32	BYU	24

WHY CU AND NOT UC?

A question often asked of many former Big Eight schools: Why is it the University of Colorado, but the moniker is CU and not UC? (The same applies at Kansas—KU, Missouri—MU, Nebraska—NU and Oklahoma—OU). "Midwestern casualness," said CU historian, the late Fred Casotti. It has always been this way at Colorado, for whatever reason, and at the other four—but seemingly nowhere else in the USA (except for Tulsa, but its midwest, too). In the 1950s, there was a concerted effort to eliminate the use of "CU" on the Boulder campus, both as a symbol and in speech, but Casotti said that no one would buy into it. "Nobody would change," he said. "It's easier to say than U of C, UC sounds like slang or something (as in 'you see'), and it was traditional. By trying to eliminate it, they reinforced it."

HISTORY OF THE END ZONE "COLORADO"

As in the south end zone, that is. In 1967, the stadium was lowered when the track was removed, and that area remained basically a dirt hill. Former long-time senior associate A.D. Jon Burianek said that we tried to grow grass and bushes there, but none took. The first artificial field was installed during the summer of 1971, and that area was then covered with asphalt and the large, block COLORADO was painted on it, then in all-white block lettering. Trim was later added, and at one time, when blue was one of the school colors, the end zone as well was painted blue instead of the familiar black.

RALPHIE VI MAKES HER DEBUT

On September 1, the University of Colorado Ralphie Program Manager Taylor Stratton announced that the school had anointed its newest live Buffalo mascot – Ralphie VI – and she made her debut last Friday night at the Buffaloes' season opener against Northern Colorado. The 44,153 in attendance started chanting "Ralphie ... Ralphie" prior to her initial run, and Folsom Field exploded in applause and cheers as she completed two runs in CU's 35-7 win.

(Ralphie did not attend the Texas A&M game in Denver as her caretakers are easing her into different environments.)

The newest Ralphie is a shade over 15 months old, as she was born on May 27, 2020 on a ranch in western Nebraska. An orphan rejected by her mother at birth, she was adopted and raised in part by a beef cow. She now tips the scales at just under 500 pounds; the previous quintet of buffalo mascots eventually weighed around 1,300 pounds, but it is hard to predict just how big VI will grow. Ralphie V was retired after the 2019 season after serving the university for 12 years, matching the tenures of both Ralphies I and IV. She is in good health and is enjoying her "retirement."

Stratton was the assistant coach and took over the Ralphie program on April 1, 2020; she was involved from the get-go with former head coach John Graves to identify a new mascot. The search for her successor started immediately, but the process was put on hold and then delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The newest Ralphie was donated to the program in November 2020, and after months of training, evaluation and getting to know the fast-growing calf, Stratton felt confident over the course of this past summer that she had secured the candidate for VI.

"I couldn't be more excited to introduce Ralphie VI this Friday night," athletic director Rick George said. "This will be a really special moment in our Ralphie history as Ralphie VI makes her first appearance to open our 2021 season. Colorado football is synonymous with Ralphie and I'm ecstatic to continue this tradition with Ralphie VI as the best tradition in college athletics."

"We're very excited for the opportunity to continue the Ralphie live mascot program," Stratton said. "We understand how much Ralphie means to everyone in Buff Nation. Throughout the entire process, we have always prioritized the care and safety of the buffalo and her handlers above all else. All of Ralphie's training is completed with positive reinforcement, and ultimately the decision on whether or not she runs will always depend on her safety and that of her handlers."

The Backstory of Finding VI

On his ranch just north of Chadron, Neb., Will Isham has been in the buffalo business for the last 20 years. As a CU Boulder graduate (Finance '80), he has always had a love for these majestic animals. His daughter Drew followed in her father's footsteps and also attended CU (Communication '13). After graduation, her close friend and sorority sister Sara Abdulla, began working with CU's Alumni Association (program manager of student outreach). Drew started attending more alumni events and over time, became friends with Sara's colleague, Taylor Marie Stratton, who started working with the organization in 2017. Stratton left the alumni office when she was named as the manager of CU's Ralphie Live Mascot Program. After it was decided for Ralphie V to retire and the need for a new Ralphie arose, she remembered the young woman from all those alumni gatherings who grew up on a bison ranch and gave her a call. Nine months ago, the Isham family formally donated a bison heifer calf to CU and hope to remain a part of the program for years to come. While the ranch may be in northwestern Nebraska, the Ishams are truly CU through-and-through. Five members of the Isham family have attended the university: in addition to Will and Drew, Michael Burns ('67), Glory Isham Burns ('75 and a board member of CU's prestigious Leeds School of Business) and most recently, Jay Braddock Voss (Graduate School of Banking '15).

The Handlers

Taylor Stratton succeeded John Graves as the program's director on April 1, 2020. A 2013 CU graduate, she lettered three years as a handler and represented the program on HBO's Real Sports with Bryant Gumbel. Growing up in Southern Colorado on her family's multi-generational working ranch, she was always around horses and livestock so it was natural for her to become involved in the program. She was the assistant coach for four years before being promoted. The assistant coach is Colton Behr, himself also a four year letterwinner as a handler. He was the rookie of the year for 2015, was twice named the recipient of the Tough Buff Award for strength and conditioning prowess, and as a senior, was presented with the Heart of the Buffalo Award. Then there are 16 handlers in all – 12 men, four women – all current CU students, including four first-year members, all of whom also help care for Ralphie year-round,

The History

The six Ralphies in all, dating back to her first appearance on Sept. 16, 1967, have led the Buffaloes on to the field for 356 games (not including spring games or scrimmages). Those break down into 297 home games, 24 bowl games, 19 Rocky Mountain Showdowns in Denver, 12 regular season road games and four Big 12 Championship games. Ralphie I ran the most times (78), with V next (76), followed by IV (75) and III (73); Ralphie II had the shortest tenure – 53 games -- but passed away early in the 1987 season. The original Ralphie performed six times at away games and in seven bowls for the most outside the state of Colorado (13); III appeared at the most bowl games (8, including CU's two Orange Bowl national championship games).

STREAKING

Colorado has active multiple win streaks going against 11 Division I-A/FBS schools. The list: 5—Colorado State; 4—San Jose State; 3—Stanford, Utah State, Wyoming; 2—Arizona, Iowa, Louisiana-Monroe, Massachusetts, Nebraska, Notre Dame and San Diego State. CU's longest current losing streaks are to Southern California (15), Texas (6), Missouri (5), Utah (4) and LSU, Michigan, Ohio State, Oklahoma State (3).

GAME 1: COLORADO 35, NORTHERN COLORADO 7*SEPTEMBER 3, 2021*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Karl Dorrell's Colorado Buffaloes overcame a slow start to grind out a 35-7 win over Northern Colorado in both teams' season opener at Folsom Field.

While new CU mascot Ralphie VI had a successful debut in front of an enthusiastic crowd of 44,153, the Buffs offense struggled to find its footing early. But CU finally put two scores on the board in the second quarter while the defense produced a first-half shutout, then added 21 points in the second half to wrap up the win.

CU's Jarek Broussard ran 15 times for 94 yards and a touchdown as Colorado dominated the game on the ground. The Buffs finished with 383 yards total offense, including an overwhelming 281-17 edge on the ground as four different CU running backs found the end zone. CU freshman quarterback Brendon Lewis completed 10 of 15 attempts for 102 yards and a touchdown in his starting debut.

One big downside to the night proved to be penalties, as CU was flagged for 12 miscues for 117 yards. And both teams struggled offensively in the first half before CU finally found its footing early in the second quarter.

Thanks to a UNC penalty that kept a Buffs drive alive at the Bears 38, the Buffs took advantage of the opportunity to get to the end zone. Lewis hit tight end Brady Russell with a 7-yard pass, Broussard burst up the middle for a 12-yard gain and two plays later, he capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run.

CU's defense continued to keep the Bears bottled up and forced two more UNC punts before the Buffs struck again.

Colorado drove 56 yards in five plays for its second touchdown and a 14-0 lead. Broussard provided a big play with a 30-yard run down the left sideline before Lewis then found Montana Lemonious-Craig in the end zone with a 17-yard throw.

CU's defense then turned away UNC's most productive drive of the half. The Bears moved from their own 25 to the Colorado 15, only to see UNC quarterback Dylan McCaffrey overthrow his receiver, giving CU's Mekhi Blackmon an interception in the end zone.

After Becker hit the crossbar on a 53-yard field-goal try on CU's first possession of the second half, the Buffs took their next possession and hammered out their third scoring drive of the night.

Starting from its own 10-yard line, Colorado drove 90 yards in 16 plays for a touchdown, using 7:25 off the clock. Alex Fontenot performed the bulk of the work, carrying six times for 32 yards, including a 3-yard touchdown run to cap the drive.

UNC finally got on the board on its next possession, going 75 yards in seven plays. The Buffs helped the Bears on the drive with two costly penalties, including an unsportsmanlike conduct flag on fourth down. Northern Colorado finally reached the end zone when McCaffrey connected with Washington State transfer Cassidy Woods for a 34-yard touchdown pass to cut CU's lead to 21-7 at the end of the third quarter.

The Buffs, however, quickly answered. After a nice kick return by Brenden Rice to the CU 46, the Buffs went 64 yards in six plays for a touchdown. Ashaad Clayton finished the drive with a 1-yard scoring run for a 28-7 Colorado lead.

The Buffs then tacked on another touchdown to their total midway through the quarter after the defense held at midfield on fourth down. Deion Smith ran for 21 yards, Lewis connected with La'Vontae Shenault on a 23-yard pass and Smith then ran 7 yards for CU's fifth touchdown of the night and a 35-7 lead.

GAME NOTES

Colorado now leads the series by an 11-2 count (2-0 since the rivalry resumed in 2017 after being dormant since 1934). CU leads 7-1 in Boulder ... Tonight's attendance of 44,153 was bolstered late in the week by the announcement of Ralphie VI and an awesome turnout by the students; all 14,000 sport passes sold out (all-time student tickets sold were 14,442 in 1972, followed by 14,000 in 1990; 11,537 students were scanned in tonight) ... The Buffaloes are now 83-44-5 in 132 season openers, 55-20-1 at home; it was the first season opening win in Boulder since 2005, as most openers since 1988 took place in Denver ... Colorado is now 20-3 in non-conference regular season games dating back to 2013 ... CU is now 19-25 all-time on Fridays ... Karl Dorrell improved to 40-29 as a collegiate head coach 5-2 at Colorado) ... The late Hank Aaron would be proud: this was CU's 715th all-time victory (715-517-36) ... UNC had 18 rushes for 20 yards; it was the fewest in a season opener since 1996, when Washington State had 21 rushes for a net 5 yards ... CU did not turn the ball over (or even have a fumble) in its third straight season opener; it's the second turnover-free game under Dorrell ... Colorado was 5-for-5 in the red zone (5 TDs), and is now an incredible 54-of-58 over the last 16 season openers (93.1%; 39 TDs/15 FGs). CU is 19-of-19 in the last four season lid-lifters ... The last time four different running backs scored in a game was on Sept. 26, 2015 in a 48-0 win over Nicholls State.

GAME 2: TEXAS A&M 10, COLORADO 7*SEPTEMBER 11, 2021*EMPOWER FIELD AT MILE HIGH, DENVER

DENVER — Colorado's defense played lights out all afternoon, but the Buffaloes' bid for an upset of No. 5 Texas A&M fell just short as the Aggies used a fourth-quarter touchdown to escape Empower Field with a 10-7 win.

The Buffaloes scored first, putting a touchdown on the board in the first quarter, but they never found the end zone again. Both teams missed field goals in the first half, and CU also came up short on a fourth-and-1 attempt at the Texas A&M 5-yard line in the second quarter while the Aggies lost a fumble in the end zone in the fourth quarter.

The Buffs stymied the high-powered A&M offense for 57 minutes before the Aggies finally put together a 77-yard scoring drive to take their first lead with just 2:41 left in the game.

Colorado's defense had an outstanding first half, dominating the Aggies for most of the first two quarters. CU forced six three-and-out possessions in the first half and held the Aggies without a first down until their final possession of the half.

Offensively, the Buffs started slowly — Brendon Lewis threw an interception on CU's first possession — but then found their ground game to reach the end zone.

After Colorado's defense forced its fourth straight three-and-out, the Buffs drove 69 yards in nine plays for a touchdown. Lewis carried three times for 48 yards on the march, including a 30-yard gain, before Jarek Broussard bulled in from 2 yards out for the touchdown. Cole Becker's PAT gave CU a 7-0 lead with 2:24 still to go in the first quarter.

Colorado's defense continued to hold the Aggies in check. With backup QB Zach Calzada at the helm after an early injury to starter Haynes King, A&M failed to collect a first down on its first six possessions.

The Buffs missed a chance to add to their lead early in the second quarter when a 46-yard field goal try went wide right and they came away empty again 10 minutes later after driving from their own 29 all the way to the A&M 5. Needing just 1 yard, the Buffs came up short on two straight plays and turned the ball over at the A&M on downs.

The Aggies finally got on the board late in the second quarter, driving 57 yards to the CU 23-yard line before settling for a 41-yard field goal just before halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter in which neither team could muster any kind of offensive threat, CU's defense came up with a huge play after the Aggies drove from their own 13 to the Colorado 13 midway through the fourth.

On third-and-13, Calzada scrambled from the pocket up the middle and lunged for the end zone, with the ball coming loose just as he reached the goal line. Officials initially signaled a touchdown, but upon review, changed the call to a fumble and CU recovery, protecting the Buffaloes' 7-3 lead.

Cornerback Mekhi Blackmon came up with the recovery, the second straight week he produced a turnover in the end zone (he had an interception last week vs. Northern Colorado).

But the Buffs could not move the ball on their ensuing possession and the Aggies moved from their own 23 to go 77 yards in 11 plays. Calzada threw an 18-yard scoring pass to Isaiah Spiller with just 2:41 left in the game.

CU couldn't move the ball on its next possession and turned the ball over on downs and A&M ran out the clock to escape with the win.

GAME NOTES

Colorado now leads the series by a 6-4 count (4-1 in Boulder, 2-2 in College Station, 0-1 in Denver) ... With the temperature 92 degrees at kickoff, it tied the sixth-warmest at kick in CU history, and tied for the second hottest in the state of Colorado (warmer: 94, CU vs. CSU in Denver on 9/1/2012; matched 92 vs. Kansas in Boulder, 9/24/1949 ... Colorado is now 12-55-1 all-time versus top 5 teams ... The last time the Buffs lost a game allowing 10 points or less was on Nov. 12, 1988 in a 7-0 loss at Nebraska (and a similar 10-7 loss to Oregon in Boulder in the '87 opener); CU had won 75 straight games when allowing 13 points or less ... Texas A&M ran 27 plays in the fourth quarter to CU's 6 ... There were just four plays (out of 142 scrimmage and returns) for 20-plus yards: one rush (30 by CU's Brendon Lewis), two receptions (29 and 25 by Jalen Wydermyer by and Devon Achane for A&M) and a 21-yard kickoff return by Achane ... The 10 points No. 5 Texas A&M scored today tied for the second fewest by a Top 5 team against a Colorado defense ... Colorado forced A&M into six straight three-and-outs to open the game (a missed FGA counts), and didn't allow A&M a first down until its 19th play (at the 1:50 mark of the second quarter) ... A&M was just 2-of-23 in second down efficiency for the game, and missed on its first 18 tries ... P Josh Watts (7-49.0 avg., 0 In20, 1 TB; 41.9 net), had the best day of his career, including three punts of 50 yards or more, matching the total he had in his first 30 kicks as a Buff (he averaged 54.7 yards on three punts inside-the-CU 30) ... ILB Nate Landman (8,2—10 TT) had the 19th double-digit career tackle game of his career.

GAME 3: MINNESOTA 30, COLORADO 0*SEPTEMBER 18, 2021*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado's offense struggled from the beginning and Minnesota's ground game wore down the Buffaloes' defense as CU dropped a 30-0 decision at Folsom Field.

The Gophers put two touchdowns on the board in the first half, then added two more touchdowns and a field goal after intermission to hand CU its first shutout loss at home since a 48-0 loss to Stanford in 2012.

CU's offense, meanwhile, never established any kind of consistency. Colorado finished with just 63 yards total offense, did not cross midfield until late in the second quarter and did not hit Minnesota territory again until late in the fourth. CU starting quarterback Brendon Lewis completed 8-of-16 pass attempts for 55 yards. Backup quarterback Drew Carter, who came into the game in the fourth quarter, led CU in rushing with 9 yards on two carries.

Minnesota finished with 441 yards total offense, including 277 on the ground. Trey Potts led the Gophers with 121 yards and three touchdowns on 26 carries. Quarterback Tanner Morgan was an efficient 11-for-17 for 164 yards passing.

Buff's linebacker Nate Landman proved to be one of the few bright spots for Colorado, finishing with 13 tackles (10 solo, three for loss) and a forced fumble. Linebackers Quinn Perry and Guy Thomas chipped in 10 tackles each.

The Gophers dominated from the beginning, driving for two touchdowns in the first half while the Buffs' offense could not move the ball.

CU finished the half with just 7 total yards, including minus-27 on the ground due in great part to four quarterback sacks by the Gophers.

Minnesota, meanwhile, used a solid ground attack to slowly hammer the Buffs. Colorado dodged a bullet early when the Gophers' first possession ended at the CU 6-yard line with a missed field goal, but UM came back to tally a pair of touchdowns.

The Gophers drove 82 yards in eight plays for their first touchdown, getting a 13-yard scoring run from Potts for a 6-0 lead (the PAT try was no good).

Following CU's fourth punt of the day, Minnesota marched 62 yards in six plays for its second touchdown. Potts carried in from 2 yards out for a 13-0 Gophers lead.

Colorado, meanwhile, never found an offensive rhythm. The Buffs managed just four first downs in the first half, with their longest series consisting of just six offensive snaps. The Gophers had all four of their sacks in the first half and CU's longest play of the half was an 11-yard completion from Lewis to Brenden Rice.

The Buffs dodged a bullet early in the second half when the Gophers missed another field goal attempt. But CU failed to move the ball, gaining just one first down and punted.

CU then forced a Minnesota punt and had decent field position at its own 40. But Lewis fumbled the ball away on the first play of the series and the Gophers then put the game away for all intents and purposes with a seven-play, 43-yard touchdown drive. Potts capped the march with a 3-yard scoring run with 23 seconds remaining in the third quarter to give Minnesota a 20-0 lead.

The Gophers then added a field goal and another touchdown in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring.

GAME NOTES

Colorado now leads the series by a 3-1 count (1-1 in Boulder, 2-0 in Minneapolis) ... The last time CU was shutout at home was on Nov. 2, 2012 in a 48-0 loss to Stanford; the last non-conference team to shutout CU in Boulder was Louisiana State on Sept. 15, 1979 (44-0) ... The last team to shutout Colorado at any location was Washington State in Pullman on Oct. 21, 2017 (28-0); CU had scored in 36 straight prior to today ... The 63 yards on offense was the eighth-lowest in school history (the fewest since 46 against Oklahoma in the 2004 Big 12 title game at Kansas City). It was the third-lowest output in a home game (51 vs. Nebraska in 1964, 61 vs. USC in 2002) ... CU had just 7 yards of offense in the first half, the fewest since 29 years earlier, ironically at Minnesota when the Buffaloes had just 4 (CU rallied to win that game, 21-20) ... The scoreless first quarter was just the seventh involving the Buffaloes over the last 204 games (dating back to 2003); the first quarter against UNC was also scoreless; the last time there were multiple scoreless opening stanzas was in 2007, when there were three ... P Josh Watts (8-51.9 avg., 3 In20, 0 TB; 46.4 net, 62 long) enjoyed the best game of his career for the second straight week, including five punts of 50 yards or more, including his career long of 62 (topping his 60-yarder in the 2020 Alamo Bowl). He averaged 51.9 for eight punts, the highest by a Buffalo with six or more punts since 2002, when Mark Mariscal had eight kicks for a 57.4 norm in a loss to USC at home (he went on to win the Ray Guy Award that season) ... ILB Nate Landman recorded 18 tackles (14,4—18 TT; 3 TFL, 1 3DS, 1 TZ), the 20th double-digit tackle game of his career, tying for fifth-most, and moved into the top 10 in tackles for loss with 39 (jumping from 11th into a tie for sixth) ... TB Alex Fontenot (3-4 rushing) finished the game with exactly 1,000 career rushing yards, the 55th Buffalo to reach that plateau.

GAME 4: ARIZONA STATE 35, COLORADO 13*SEPTEMBER 25, 2021*SUN DEVIL STADIUM, TEMPE

TEMPE, Ariz. — Colorado finally ended its offensive drought, but it wasn't enough as the Buffaloes dropped a 35-13 decision to Arizona State at Sun Devil Stadium in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

CU fell to 1-3 overall with its third straight loss and 0-1 in Pac-12 play while ASU improved to 3-1, 1-0.

Colorado's offensive struggles continued for much of the first half, as the Buffs came up empty on their first four possessions, one of which ended in a missed field goal.

Meanwhile, the Sun Devils found the end zone twice, with both scoring drives extended by third down penalties on CU.

ASU took its second possession 45 yards to the end zone, getting new life when a facemask penalty on third down negated a Colorado sack. Four plays later, Daniels scored from 7 yards out and the Buffs trailed, 7-0, with 7:45 to play in the first quarter.

Penalties plagued CU for much of the half, as they were flagged for six infractions for 59 yards in the first 30 minutes. CU finished with eight penalties for 84 yards.

After the two teams traded punts following ASU's score, the Buffs finally drove into Arizona State territory. CU's Brendon Lewis ran for 42 yards on back-to-back plays before the drive stalled at the ASU 28. A 46-yard field goal try, however, was partially blocked and the Buffs came away empty.

ASU then took advantage of another Colorado penalty on the ensuing possession. The Buffs forced an incomplection on third down, but a roughing the passer penalty kept the drive alive and Rachaad White scored from 11 yards out on the next play to extend ASU's lead to 14-0.

The Buffs finally ended their scoreless streak at eight quarters late in the half. CU drove 58 yards over the final three minutes before getting a 51-yard Becker field goal with 13 seconds left in the half, sending CU to the locker room trailing 14-3.

Finally putting points on the scoreboard seemed to inspire the Buffs as they took the opening kickoff of the second half and drove 75 yards to the end zone. Jarek Broussard had two carries for 20 yards to open the drive before Lewis dropped a jet sweep pass to freshman receiver Ty Robinson, who raced 26 yards upfield.

Alex Fontenot then took over, carrying five times in a row for 29 yards, capping the drive with a 1-yard dive into the end zone. Becker's PAT pulled the Buffs to within 14-10 with 11:01 still to play in the third quarter.

Colorado's momentum, though, didn't last long, as the Sun Devils quickly answered with a long drive of their own. ASU's Jayden Daniels completed three passes for 42 yards, setting up a 17-yard touchdown carry on a reverse, giving ASU a 21-10 lead midway through the quarter.

Colorado managed to move close to midfield on its next possession, but a dropped pass on third down ended the drive.

ASU then extended its lead to 28-10 two possessions later on a trick play when wide receiver Ricky Pearsall threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to White.

After another Colorado punt, the Sun Devils capped their evening with a 59-yard scoring drive, with Daniels scoring from 15 out to wrap up the march for a 35-10 lead.

CU did get on the board once more, driving 61 yards before settling for a 33-yard Becker field goal late in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring for the night.

GAME NOTES

The 90-degree temperature at kickoff marked the 20th game in school history of 90 or hotter at kick; CU is 10-10 in these games) ... The Sun Devils now lead the series by an 8-4 margin, including a 6-1 dg in Tempe and 6-4 in night games ... CU is 5-6 in Pac-12 conference openers (3-2on the road) and are 83-43-2 all-time in conference openers ... CU had 63 yards of total offense last week against Minnesota (45 plays); it took 16 plays tonight to accumulate that total (first play of second quarter) ... CU did not commit a fumble for the third time in four games this season (all four came last week versus Minnesota) ... CU has now scored 80 of its last 82 times in goal-to-go situations (63 TD/17 FG) over the course of its last 54 games ... CU had no turnovers for the second game this season (also: UNC) and now has three in 10 games under Karl Dorrell (5-5 record) ... PK Cole Becker's 51-yard field goal ended a run of eight straight scoreless quarters (137:11 in time); it was the first field goal of his career (after missing from 53, 46 and 46 yards; it was both the fourth-longest first career field goal by a Buffalo as well as the fourth-longest mad by a freshman ... One player saw his first action in a CU uniform tonight: TB Noah Wagner (on special teams; he's the first-ever Buffalo from Conifer, Colo., High School) ... TB Jarek Broussard He became the 56th player in CU history to record 1,000 career rushing yards (1,001), doing so in his ninth game, the fastest of all Buffalos to do so; Charlie Davis ('71-'73) previously hit the mark in 10 games. (Reminder: CU dos NOT include bowl stats and will not until the NCAA counts all bowl games. This is to protect history.)

GAME 5: SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 37, COLORADO 14*OCTOBER 2, 2021*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado's defense couldn't contain Southern California's high-powered offense and consistency continued to evade the Buffaloes' offense as CU dropped a 37-14 decision at Folsom Field.

Colorado fell to 0-15 all-time vs. the Trojans.

USC scored the first 20 points of the game before the Buffs finally put together a touchdown drive following a forced fumble and recovery by the defense late in the second quarter.

The Trojans then built their lead to 30-7 in the third quarter before CU scored again to pull within 30-14 heading into the final period. But the Trojans put the game away with one more touchdown early in the fourth quarter.

CU quarterback Brendon Lewis had his most productive game of the season, completing 10 of 17 passes for 162 yards, one touchdown and an interception. Brady Russell caught three passes for 87 yards, including a 65-yard reception (CU's longest play of the year) and the Buffs finished with 234 yards total offense.

But USC finished with 494 yards offense, with quarterback Kedon Slovis throwing for 276 yards and three touchdowns. Wide receiver Drake London had nine catches for 130 yards and a score.

The Trojans went 70 yards in 14 plays before settling for a field goal on their first possession, then added their first touchdown of the game following a CU punt. Slovis capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass to London for a 10-0 lead, set up by a 28-yard completion to London.

Colorado's offense continued to struggle into the second quarter and the Trojans added another touchdown and field goal for a 20-0 lead.

While Colorado's offense managed just 40 yards on its first five possessions, CU's defense could not take advantage of good field position. The Trojans' first three scoring drives covered 70, 64 and 85 yards.

But the CU defense finally did come up with a big play late in the second quarter when linebacker Guy Thomas forced a USC fumble. Cornerback Christian Gonzalez recovered at the Trojan 48-yard line, giving CU its first takeaway in three games.

Colorado's offense took advantage of the opportunity, as the Buffs drove 48 yards for their first score of the game. Lewis completed passes of 7 yards to Dimitri Stanley and 13 to Russell, with Jarek Broussard adding a 19-yard run. Alex Fontenot then put the Buffs at the 1-yard line with a 5-yard burst before Deion Smith scored from 1 yard out and Cole Becker's PAT cut USC's lead to 20-7 at intermission.

But the Trojans extended their lead with 10 more points in the third quarter. USC added a field goal on its first possession after CU's Lewis was hit in the pocket and turned the ball over, then added a touchdown after taking over on downs near midfield on downs for a 30-7 lead with 6:52 left in the third.

Colorado finally answered with a 75-yard touchdown drive, fueled by a 65-yard Lewis pass to tight end Brady Russell, the Buffs' longest play of the year. Two plays later, Lewis connected with Chase Penry for a 2-yard touchdown pass with 5:18 left in the third quarter, giving the freshman receiver his first career TD catch.

USC finally put the game away for good early in the fourth quarter. After the Trojans claimed their second takeaway of the game — an interception by Lewis — USC went 35 yards for a touchdown, with Slovis throwing 15 yards to Gary Bryan for the score and 37-14 lead with 14:08 to play in the game.

GAME NOTES

USC now leads the series a 15-0 count (8-0 in Boulder, 7-0 in Los Angeles) ... The Buffaloes are now 24-31-1 all-time when wearing all black uniforms (0-5 vs. USC) ... CU has won four of five coin tosses this year, and dating back to 2016, 41 of the last 61 ... Weird Stat of the Game: the bulk of the yards in this game came on second down conversions: CU gained 158 yards on its 11 second down makes, while USC had 168 on its second down conversions (CU was 11-of-22 on second down compared to 1-of-10 on third) ... Five "new" NFL teams scouted the game, bringing the total to 23 that have seen CU games in person in 2021 ... Colorado has run just 289 plays on offense through five games (57.8 per; high of 64 in the opener against UNC; the last time CU didn't have a game with at least 70 plays in the first five of a season was in 2006, and before that, 1986) ... CB Nigel Bethel, Jr., and ILB Jack Lamb made their first career starts as Buffaloes; DT Mustafa Johnson made his first start of the season in the first game he became eligible ... The flags were flying, particularly against USC: the Trojans were penalized 12 times for 125 yards. It was the most penalties by an opponent since USC had 13 in the 2018 game and the most yards since Arizona had 129 later than same season ... TE Brady Russell (3-87 receiving) had career-highs for yards (87) and long reception (65), topping his previous bests of 77 and 34, respectively, against UCLA in 2020. It was just the second time since 2012 that a tight end led the Buffs in a game in receiving yards, and he had the other (5-77 vs. UCLA in 2020); it matched the most yards by a Buff tight end in a game also since 2012, when Nick Kasa caught three passes for 87 yards in CU's 35-34 win at Washington State, and the most in a home game since Oct. 20, 2007 (Tyson DeVree, 7-90 and a TD in a 19-14 loss to Kansas).

GAME 6: COLORADO 34, ARIZONA 0*OCTOBER 16, 2021*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado's defense and special teams provided a scoring boost and the Buffaloes recorded three touchdowns in a five-minute span, paving the way for a 34-0 win over Arizona at Folsom Field.

The Buffs ended a four-game losing streak while UA lost its 18th straight game.

CU led just 6-0 at intermission after getting two first-half field goals. But the Buffs recorded a 36-yard blocked punt scoop-and-score from Trevor Woods midway through the third quarter, then added a 50-yard interception return for a score by defensive end Carson Wells for a 20-0 lead with 5:32 left in the period.

CU's offense then stamped the exclamation point on a 21-point third quarter surge with a perfect 62-yard touchdown strike from quarterback Brendon Lewis to wide receiver Brenden Rice. Colorado's longest scoring play of the year gave the Buffs a 27-0 lead on the back of three touchdowns in a five-minute span — one from special teams, one from the defense and one from the offense.

Lewis then threw an 11-yard scoring pass to Dimitri Stanley in the fourth quarter to complete the scoring and wrap up his best day as a Buff. Lewis finished 12-for-19 for 248 yards and two scores.

CU's defense, meanwhile, was outstanding from beginning to end in recording the first CU shutout of an opponent since a 48-0 win over Nicholls State in 2015. The defense also produced two interceptions, held Arizona to just 3-for-15 on third-down conversion tries, and limited the Wildcats to just 280 yards total offense.

CU also had nine tackles for loss in the game, including four by Wells.

Defense ruled in the first half, as both teams came up with big red zone stops — but the Buffs had the biggest, when they stopped Arizona four straight times from the Colorado 1-yard line.

CU did manage to put two field goals on the board in the first half for a 6-0 lead at intermission.

But it was the Buffs' third-quarter surge that made the difference, starting with Woods' blocked punt after Colorado's defense forced Arizona's sixth punt of the day. The true freshman broke through the line, got inside the upback and got a hand on Kyle Ostendorf kick; he then scooped up the ball and raced 36 yards to the end zone for CU's first touchdown of the day and a 13-0 lead.

Colorado's defense then got in on the scoring action on UA's next drive when Wells picked off UA quarterback Gunner Cruz and rumbled 50 yards to the end zone, bumping the Buffaloes' edge to 20-0.

On the Buffs' next offensive possession, Lewis uncorked a perfect deep ball to a speeding Rice down the sidelines. Rice gathered in the pass in stride and raced to the end zone for a 27-0 lead.

The Buffs completed the scoring with 4:08 left in the game when Lewis hit Dimitri Stanley in the end zone with an 11-yard scoring pass.

The Buffs took the lead on their first possession of the game, going 68 yards in 10 plays before settling for a 19-yard Cole Becker field goal with 8:26 to play in the first quarter. CU added another field goal midway through the second quarter, going 61 yards in seven plays.

Colorado's defense then came up with a terrific goal-line stand. After the Wildcats had punted on their first four possessions, they finally put together a long drive, going from their own 25 to the CU 1-yard line for a first and goal.

But the Buffs defense came up with four straight stops for no gain, with Gunner Cruz throwing incomplete on fourth down.

CU shutout an opponent for the first time since a 48-0 blanking of Nicholls State on Sept. 26, 2015; it was CU's first shutout over an FBS opponent since a 34-0 win at Oklahoma State on Oct. 1, 2005; it was the third time CU shutout an Arizona team (others: 14-0 in Boulder in 1955 and 18-0 at Tucson in 1959).

GAME 7: CALIFORNIA 26, COLORADO 3*OCTOBER 23, 2021*MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY

BERKELEY, Calif. — Colorado's offense couldn't maintain its momentum from a win over Arizona and CU's defense had no answer for Cal quarterback Chase Garbers as the Buffaloes dropped a 26-3 decision at FTX Field.

Karl Dorrell's Buffs fell to 2-5 overall and 1-3 in Pac-12 play while the Bears improved to 2-5, 1-3.

Colorado could never get untracked offensively and the defense could not contain Cal's offense early. The Bears scored on all five of their first-half possessions while the Buffs could muster only a field goal and trailed 23-3 at intermission.

Colorado's defense stiffened in the second half and held the Bears to just one field goal. But the CU offense never crossed midfield after intermission, managing just 13 yards total offense over the last two quarters.

CU finished with only 104 yards total offense while the Bears compiled 438 (225 passing, 213 rushing). Garbers threw for 225 yards and two touchdowns and also ran for 96 yards.

Buffs starting quarterback Brendon Lewis, who was sacked six times, was nine-for-17 for 69 yards. Lewis was replaced by true freshman Drew Carter late in the fourth quarter.

Colorado linebacker Nate Landman, who surpassed 400 career tackles in the game, and defensive back Mekhi Blackmon were each credited with 10 tackles.

Colorado's offensive struggles returned in a big way in the first half, with the Buffs managing just 91 total yards while Cal rang up 297 in taking a 23-3 lead at intermission.

The Bears collected a field goal on their opening drive, then took over at midfield after Colorado couldn't convert a fourth-and-1. Broussard was stopped for a 1-yard loss, making it the seventh time in eight tries this year that Colorado failed to move the sticks on fourth down tries, and the Bears took over at the 50.

Cal quickly cashed in on the short field with a 50-yard scoring march in three plays. Garbers completed a 24-yard scoring pass to Keleki Latu for a 10-0 lead with 6:05 still to play in the first quarter.

The Bears then added another field goal early in the second quarter before the Buffs finally got on the board.

Thanks to a 67-yard kickoff return by Brenden Rice, the Buffs took over on the Cal 33-yard line. But after gaining a first down on a Cal penalty, the CU drive stalled at the Cal 15 and the Buffs settled for a 33-yard Cole Becker field goal to cut their deficit to 13-3.

The Bears added another touchdown on their next possession, getting a 31-yard scoring pass from Garbers to tight end Gavin Reinwald.

CU could not move on the ensuing possession and Cal went 50 yards in seven plays over the remaining 58 seconds to get a field goal on the final play of the half for a 23-3 lead at intermission.

CU's defense made some halftime adjustments and held Cal at bay for the entire third quarter, but the Buffs offense could not take advantage. Colorado's longest drive of the half covered just 15 yards.

The Bears added one more field goal in the final period to complete the scoring.

The Buffs were dominated in virtually every statistical category. CU finished 3-for-12 on third downs — none in the second half — while Cal converted six of its 15 tries. The Bears finished with 23 first downs while the Buffs had just seven; and CU averaged just 2.3 yards per offensive play while the Bears averaged 6.3.

GAME NOTES

California now leads the series, 7-4 (5-0 in Berkeley) ... The Buffaloes are now 4-26-1 overall all-time in games played in California ... CU fell to 0-8 when wearing black helmets, white jerseys and black pants, and 3-21 when donning the black headgear ... Penalty-Less Half: Colorado was not penalized in the first half (one was declined), the first penalty-free half this season (either half). The last first half without a penalty was at Arizona State on Sept. 21, 2019 (CU finished with 3-30 yards that day); CU's only two penalties came in the fourth quarter. The two penalties matched CU's season low; the Buffs also had only two against Texas A&M ... The game time of 2:59 was CU's first sub-3 hour game since the 2019 finale at Utah (2:56); it's just the 32nd time out of 379 Colorado games dating back to 1990 not to last three hours or longer ... First Career Starts: at wide receiver, Chase Penry made his first career start, subbing for Dimitri Stanley who was injured in pregame; Trevor Woods started on defense in place of Mekhi Blackmon (due to the package CU opened the game in) ... ILB Nate Landman (4,6—10 TT; 2 TZ) became the sixth player in CU history to record 400 career tackles when he made his first in the game (on the second play of the game) ... WR Brenden Rice's 67-yard kickoff return was the longest by a Buff since Marques Mosley returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Utah on Nov. 23, 2012 (it was his fourth career play of 60 yards or longer ... P Josh Watts (7-48.9 avg.) enjoyed his sixth consecutive game averaging over 47 yards in each, matching John Torp's run of six in a row in 2004.

GAME 8: OREGON 52, COLORADO 29*OCTOBER 30, 2021*AUTZEN STADIUM, EUGENE

EUGENE, Ore. — Colorado's defense struggled without injured linebacker Nate Landman but the offense provided a bright spot in a 52-29 loss to No. 7 Oregon at Autzen Stadium.

The Ducks scored on all five of their possessions in the first half — four touchdowns and a field goal — to take a 31-14 lead at intermission, then added two more touchdowns on their first two possessions of the second half.

But CU's offense did find some life, putting together two long touchdown drives in the second quarter and two more in the fourth. The Buffs had 152 yards total offense in the second quarter, their most productive quarter this year, and finished with 341, the third-highest output of the season and the second-most in Pac-12 play.

The Ducks took control early, going 67 yards on their first possession for a touchdown, then adding scoring drives of 78 and 90 yards on their next two possessions.

Colorado finally got on the board in the second quarter when quarterback Brendon Lewis engineered a nine-play, 77-yard touchdown drive.

Lewis completed three passes on the drive, including a 28-yarder to tight end Brady Russell. The Buffs gained 40 yards on the ground on the march, with Alex Fontenot, Deion Smith and Jarek Broussard all picking up nice gains.

The Buffs then capped the march with a 9-yard pass from Lewis to Ty Robinson, giving the freshman receiver his first collegiate score. Cole Becker's PAT pulled the Buffs to within 21-7 with 9:10 still left in the first quarter.

But the Ducks answered with another long touchdown march, going 73 yards in 10 plays.

Colorado, though, stayed within striking range as CU took the ensuing kickoff and drove 65 yards in eight plays for a touchdown. Lewis had completions of 26 and 36 yards to Rice before finding a wide open Fontenot on fourth-and-goal from the 2-yard line for the score to pull CU to within 28-14.

But the Ducks had an answer again, using the remaining time on the clock to drive downfield and collect a field goal just before the half ended for a 31-14 lead.

Oregon left no doubt about the outcome early in the third quarter. The Ducks forced a CU punt on the Buffs' opening possession, then drove 68 yards for a touchdown. Oregon's sixth score on its sixth possession gave the Ducks a 38-14 lead with 9:46 to play in the third quarter.

The Ducks then made it 7-for-7 after another Colorado punt. The Ducks went 81 yards in six plays, with QB Anthony Brown capping the drive with his third touchdown pass of the day, a 25-yard strike to Devon Williams for a 45-14 lead late in the third quarter.

But the Buffs didn't go away quietly, adding two fourth quarter touchdowns to throw a minor scare into Oregon.

CU scored early in the fourth period, driving 67 yards in 17 plays. CU converted its third fourth-down try of the day, getting a 1-yard touchdown run from Fontenot on fourth-and-goal to pull within 45-21.

Then, following an interception by safety Isaiah Lewis, the Buffs went 65 yards for their fourth touchdown of the day. CU kept the drive alive by converting yet another fourth-and-1 on a Smith run, then capped the drive with a 16-yard Lewis pass to Rice. Lewis then added a two-point conversion throw to Chase Penry, and CU trailed 45-29 with 6:04 to play.

But the Ducks quickly turned the game back into a three-score contest, driving 46 yards in eight plays on their ensuing possession for the final score of the game with just 50 seconds remaining (though most teams would have taken a knee that late).

GAME NOTES

Oregon leads the all-time series with by a 14-9 margin (6-3 in Eugene, 6-1 with both as members of the Pac-12) ... CU won the coin toss, the sixth out of eight this year; dating back to 2016, 43 of the last 64 (which is 67 percent) ... The rare point total of 29 was actually the 14th time CU scored that amount in a game (last: vs. USC in 2013) ... Colorado had 152 yards in the second quarter, its most in a single quarter this season. The 14 points tied for the second most (but the most on offense; CU has 21 in the third quarter against Arizona but that included two by returns) ... For the fourth time this season, CU did not suffer a turnover and has just a total of six on the season (fifth-fewest in the nation) ... A season-high 11 different Buffaloes caught passes ... OLB Joshka Gustav and CB Tyrin Taylor made their first career starts. WR Brenden Rice (5-102, 1 TD receiving; 1-17 rushing; 6-162 KOR: 281 all-purpose yards) had the 25th 250-yard all-purpose yards game in CU history; the 281 yards rank 13th on the all-time list (the 162 kickoff return yards tied for the sixth most) ... SS Isaiah Lewis made his first career interception, coming in the 35th game of his career ... QB Brendon Lewis became the 35th player in school history to pass for 1,000 career yards (1,016, ending the day in 34th) ... TB Alex Fontenot's 2-yard reception on fourth down for CU's second TD was the first receiving TD of his career ... and CU's first receiving TD by a running back since Travon McMillian had a 57-yard one at Arizona on Nov. 2, 2018 (also the first Buff to have a rushing and receiving TD in the same game since Laviska Shenault had two of each versus Arizona State in 2018).

GAME 9: COLORADO 37, OREGON STATE 34 (2 OT)*NOVEMBER 6, 2021*FOLSOM FIELD, BOULDER

BOULDER — Colorado's Cole Becker kicked a 43-yard field goal in the second overtime to lift the Buffaloes to a 37-34 win over Oregon State in front of a Folsom Field homecoming crowd of 47,984.

The Buffs led for most of the game (over 49 minutes), but were forced to rally late in the fourth quarter. A 16-yard Brendon Lewis touchdown pass to Montana-Lemonious Craig gave CU a 27-24 lead with 2:24 left to play.

OSU's Everett Hayes then missed a 51-yard field goal on the Beavers' next possession, but CU couldn't move the ball after taking over and punted, using just 27 seconds off the clock.

The Beavers reaped a 26-yard return to take over a midfield with five seconds remaining. That was enough for a 9-yard gain on first down, then a 60-yard field goal from Hayes as time expired to send the game into OT.

Both teams scored touchdowns in the first overtime, with Lewis cashing in for the Buffs on a 9-yard run for a 34-27 lead.

But after tying the game with a touchdown, the Beavers then came up empty on their next possession when Hayes was wide left on a 38-yard try.

The Buffs then ran the ball three times before Becker booted the game winner.

The Buffs, who hadn't scored a first-quarter touchdown since the second game of the season, broke that drought against the Beavers.

CU took the opening kick and marched to the OSU 5-yard line before settling for a 28-yard Becker field goal.

But the Colorado defense quickly gave the offense another possession by forcing a three-and-out from the Beavers, and the offense took full advantage.

Moving from their own 21, the Buffs drove 79 yards in seven plays to find paydirt. Lewis capped the drive when he found a wide-open Daniel Arias from 43 yards out for a touchdown and Becker's PAT gave CU a 10-0 lead with 6:47 still to play in the first period.

But the Beavers finally found their run game on the ensuing possession. OSU marched 75 yards in 13 plays and got a 14-yard scoring run from Jack Colletto on fourth-and-1 to cut Colorado's lead to 10-7.

Colorado pushed its lead to 13-7 late in the second quarter when Becker delivered a career-long 52-yard field goal with 39 seconds left in the half.

That, however, was just enough time for the Beavers to drive within field goal range, and a 45-yard Hayes field goal as time expired sent Colorado into intermission with a 13-10 lead.

The two teams traded punts early in the third quarter before CU defensive end Carson Wells came up with a big fourth-down play, forcing an incompleteness from OSU quarterback Chance Nolan.

That gave the Buffs the ball at the OSU 41-yard line. Six plays later, including runs of 14 and 16 yards from Jarek Broussard, Lewis found Brenden Rice for a 5-yard touchdown pass to give CU a 20-10 lead.

But the Beavers quickly answered, going 75 yards for a touchdown to cut Colorado's lead back to three, 20-17 with 3:19 to play in the third quarter.

OSU then took its first lead of the game midway through the fourth on a 27-yard Nolan pass to Tre'shaun Harrison for a 24-20 edge.

Colorado regained the lead two possessions later. A 49-yard Broussard run put Colorado deep in OSU territory. Six plays later Lewis stepped up in the pocket under pressure and connected with Lemonious-Craig giving CU the lead back with 2:24 to play.

That set the stage for the wild final two minutes of regulation and overtime.

GAME NOTES

The game time temperature of 73 was warmer than CU's four October games (66, 64, 62, 52) ... The series is now tied 6-6 count (CU leads 4-3 in Boulder) ... Colorado is now 8-9 in overtime games (1-3 multi-OT: 1-2/2OT, 0-1/3OT). It was the 8th time CU started on offense ... CU improved to 65-36-5 record in Homecoming contests (winning four of the last five) and to 69-24 against unranked teams in the month of November dating back to 1985 ... Colorado had 144 yards in the first quarter, its most in an opening quarter this season (previous: 127 against Texas A&M); CU scored on the back-to-back possessions to open a game for the first time this season ... The 10 points in the first quarter matched the total CU had in the first eight first quarters in 2021 ... For the fifth time this season (and second straight game), CU did not suffer a turnover; it has just six on the season (third-fewest in the nation). The five times set a school record for a season ... It was the 24th time dating back to 1972 that CU did not commit a turnover or allow a quarterback sack (20-4 in those games) ... The Buffs did not allow a sack for the first time in 21 games ... Entering the game, Oregon State had just 20 punts total on the season, with just one returned and that for zero yards; CU's La'Vontae Shenault returned three punts for 38 yards ... OSU's Everett Hayes tied the stadium record for longest field goal made (60 yards), matching Mason Crosby against Iowa State on Oct. 16, 2004.

GAME 10: UCLA 44, COLORADO 20*NOVEMBER 13, 2021*ROSE BOWL, PASADENA

PASADENA, Calif. — Colorado jumped out to a 20-7 first-half lead, only to see UCLA score 37 unanswered points as the Buffaloes dropped a 44-20 decision at the Rose Bowl.

The loss dropped Karl Dorrell's Buffs to 3-7 overall and 2-5 in the Pac-12, and eliminated the Buffs from postseason contention. The Bruins improved to 6-4 and 4-3 to clinch bowl eligibility.

The Buffs started quickly, taking a 10-0 lead for the second week in a row.

CU took its second possession and drove 70 yards for a touchdown. Jarek Broussard had a 16-yard run on the march, quarterback Brendon Lewis converted a third-and-3 with a 4-yard run and completed three passes on the drive. Ale Fontenot wrapped up the march with a 1-yard scoring burst for a 7-0 Colorado lead.

The Buffs then got a break on UCLA's second possession when a Zach Charbonnet 51-yard run was nullified by a Bruins penalty, and another break on UCLA's next turn with the ball when a 40-yard touchdown pass was negated by another penalty.

Colorado took advantage by driving 56 yards deep into UCLA territory before settling for a 23-yard Cole Becker field goal and 10-0 lead.

But the Bruins finally found the end zone on their next possession. Dorian Thompson-Robinson guided a 64-yard touchdown march in just three plays, with the big gainer a 47-yard toss to Kyle Philips.

The Buffs, though, had an answer, going 75 yards to the end zone in six plays. Broussard covered the bulk of the march with a 46-yard run before Fontenot scored his second touchdown of the game, another 1-yard burst with 5:22 to play in the half for a 17-7 CU lead. The Buffaloes then pushed their margin to 20-7 with just 57 seconds left in the half on a 40-yard Becker field goal.

But that left the Bruins enough time to maneuver into position for a field goal as the half ended, sending CU into the locker room with a 20-10 lead.

The Bruins opened the second half with a bang. UCLA drove 76 yards for a touchdown on its opening possession to pull within 20-16 after the PAT try clanged off the upright.

Colorado then punted on its next possession and UCLA needed just 1:54 to drive 83 yards in seven plays for the go-ahead touchdown. Thompson-Robinson ran 23 yards for the score and Colorado trailed for the first time in the game, 23-20.

CU had one more chance to pull back into the game. After UCLA's second touchdown of the half, the Buffs drove to the Bruins 25, but Becker was wide right on a 43-yard field goal try.

The Bruins then marched 75 yards for their third touchdown of the quarter, getting a 3-yard Zach Charbonnet run for the score and a 30-20 lead with just 30 seconds left in the period. The Bruins had 219 yards of offense in the period, including 149 on the ground.

Down by 10, the Buffs then gambled early in the fourth quarter by trying to convert a fourth-and-1 in their own territory. But tight end Brady Russell, lining up as the fullback, was stopped for no gain and the Bruins took possession. UCLA then drove 34 yards for its fourth touchdown in four possessions for a 37-20 lead with 12:12 left in the game.

Colorado's offense failed to move the ball again and the Bruins put the game away for good when Philips returned a Josh Watts punt 82 yards for a touchdown. The PAT provided UCLA with its 37th unanswered point and a 44-20 lead with 10:10 to play.

GAME NOTES

UCLA's lead in the series is now 12-5 (8-1 in California; 6-1 in Pasadena) ... The Buffs are now 4-27-1 all-time in the Golden State ... CU coaches are now 21-13 against their alma maters (Karl Dorrell 1-1; Gary Barnett 6-1, Bill McCartney 10-3, Eddie Crowder 4-7, Joe Mills 1-1) ... Under Dorrell, CU is now 7-3 when leading at halftime ... Colorado had 242 yards in the first half, its most in a first half this year; the previous first half high was 206 against Texas A&M (second-most in any half, 274 vs. UNC). The 20 points were also a first-half high ... This was Dorrell's 78th game as a collegiate head coach; his teams (UCLA & Colorado) had scored 1,995 points coming in: TB Alex Fontenot scored the 2,000th point for Dorrell with a 1-yard TD run in the first quarter ... Nearly Three Straight With No Turnovers: CU's first turnover in three games came on a strip-sack of QB Drew Carter with 3:55 to play; CU's last turnover came with 14:49 remaining in the Oct. 23 loss at California (an interception), thus the span without one was 190 minutes and 54 seconds; CU's last lost fumble was on Oct. 2 versus USC, thus that span was 322:35 ... OLB Devin Grant played for the first time in 2021 and responded with five tackles ... WR Daniel Arias had career single-game bests in receptions (four) and yards (70) ... TB Jarek Broussard had the second 100-yard game of the season and the sixth of his career ... QB Brendon Lewis completed over 60 percent of his passes for a third straight game; in that span, he is 57-of-83 (68.7) ... He has now thrown 83 consecutive passes without an interception; that is now the second-most by a freshman at Colorado (Craig Ochs threw 104 without one over the course of four games in 2000).

BRANCH TO FINALLY MAKE HALL?

CU Athletic Hall of Famer Cliff Branch, who passed away in 2019, might finally see his dream come true and be selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in its next class in 2022. Branch, a three-time All-Pro, and former Super Bowl-winning head coach Dick Vermeil were named finalists on August 24 a five-person panel of selectors for the Hall of Fame. Branch was selected as the Senior finalist and Vermeil the Coach finalist.

Branch, who many say changed the game after he was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the fourth round of the 1972 NFL Draft, as he was deemed a "football player with speed and not a speedster who played football." And he would become one of the most dynamic receivers of his era as the speedy deep threat who stretched opposing defenses. He caught 501 passes for 8,685 yards and 67 touchdowns in 14 seasons (1972 to '85) for the franchise, and added 73 receptions for 1,289 yards and five touchdowns in the postseason (only Jerry Rice, Julian Edelman and Michael Irvin have more postseason receiving yards than Branch). He was a part of three Super Bowl championship teams with the Raiders (two in Oakland, one in L.A.), and led the NFL in touchdown receptions twice, with 13 in 1974 and 12 in 1976. He was a first-team All-Pro in 1974, '75 and '76.

At Colorado, in two seasons, he caught 36 passes for 665 yards and three touchdowns (averaging 18.5 yards per), while rushing 31 times for 354 yards and five scores (11.4 per carry). He returned eight kicks for touchdowns (six punts, two kickoffs); he averaged 25.2 yards per kickoff runback and 16.7 per punt try. He amassed 2,507 all-purpose yards in just 22 games, seventh-most in school history at the time (the six ahead of him all played three years). He died at the age of 71; his sister, Elaine Anderson, said in a call with Hall of Fame president David Baker that her brother "dreamed of this" and "wanted this so bad, he could taste it." If selected, and while not a 100 percent certainty, he would become the first Buffalo in the Pro Hall.

2021 HONORARY C RECIPIENTS

Through the years beginning in 1955, head coaches, university and athletic staff members, faculty, donors, long-time fans and supporters and others have been recognized with an Honorary C Award for their dedication of service or contributions to University of Colorado Athletics. The most famous recipient is one no one has been able to explain how he qualified: in 1971, Milburn "Doc" Stone who for 21 seasons played Dr. Galen Adams on Guns Smoke was the sole award that year. He passed at the age of 75 in 1980. He did co-star in the 1940 movie Colorado with Roy Rogers (who did not receive a C, so that can't be the reason). This year's recipients were honored at halftime of the USC game on October 2:

Tad Boyle (CU men's basketball coach, 2010-current; on the verge of becoming CU's all-time winningest coach in the sport with a 233-143 [620] record and has led the program to five NCAA tournament appearances)

Kevin Brennan (long-time academic tutor and mentor for the athletic department for over two decades, he retired this past spring)

Deb Coffin (retired as CU's vice chancellor for advancement in 2021 after having served the CU Boulder community in a variety of capacities)

Teri Leiker (one of the 10 victims of the March 22 King Soopers shooting; she was an avid supporter and one of the biggest fans of the Golden Buffalo Marching Band)

Peter & Peggy Nelson (major donors to the CU ski program and the skiing community in general; parents of the late Spencer Nelson, a former CU skier who died tragically in a climbing accident in 2010 and has CU's home ski invitational named in his honor)

Miguel Rueda (CU senior associate AD for Health & Performance; joined CU as director of sports medicine in 2006 and has chaired several COVID panels)

Tim Simmons (CU sports information director, 1979-81; created a scholarship endowment for SID student assistants, longtime AD supporter who has provided numerous opportunities for CU students through the years to gain real world experience in public and media relations in the sports world)

WESTBROOK SET FOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTION

Some 27 years later, it still resonates and sends chills through CU football fans as if it happened just yesterday through the late Keith Jackson's call on ABC: "Stewart with time ... He lets it go ... He's got three people down there ... The ball's up in the air ... Caught! Touchdown! ... Caught by Westbrook for a touchdown! ... Incredible!" (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5Nt6HjqJt8&t=87s>).

On Sept. 24, 1994, Michael Westbrook cemented his name in CU and college football history with that catch, dubbed the "Miracle in Michigan." He was officially recognized as one of college football's all-time greats as he was selected for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in its 2020 Class. He will become the ninth Buffalo enshrined in the Hall, joining Byron White (inducted in 1952), Joe Romig (1984), Dick Anderson (1993), Bobby Anderson (2006), Alfred Williams (2010), John Wooten (2012), Coach Bill McCartney (2013) and Herb Orvis (2016). Westbrook becomes the second player who was coached by McCartney to enter the Hall, joining Williams who played for him during his tenure as head coach (1982-94).

"I knew I had been on the ballot, and you anticipate getting in, but you never expect it so I kind of let my guard down a bit," Westbrook said in a Colorado release after the announcement in March 2020. "Then I got the package from the Hall of Fame, and I'm like, 'Wow!' I think back to those days, and it was such an awesome time in our lives. You couldn't ask for a better situation to go through and succeed in. We had quality coaches, a great support staff and awesome teammates. Beginning with Coach Mac when he came to my high school and recruited me on the spot when he was there looking at someone else."

At the time of his graduation, he finished his career as CU's all-time leader in receptions (167), receiving yards (2,548) and receiving touchdowns (19). Those numbers still remain fourth, third and seventh, respectively, a quarter century after he played, while his average of 15.3 yards per reception is the fourth-highest among the 36 players in CU history with 70 or more catches. He had eight career 100-yard games (six over 125) and was 11th in all-purpose yards (2,858) and 22nd in scoring (116 points). To this day, he remains tied for the school's most receptions in bowl games (14) and the leader in yards (283).

The NFF Hall of Fame On-Campus Salute program, which began with the inaugural College Football Hall of Fame Class in 1951, has become a hallowed tradition, and officials were in town on Oct. 2 and honored Westbrook with an on-field presentation during the CU-Southern California football game,

The 2020 and 2021 Hall of Fame Classes will be officially inducted during the 63rd NFF Annual Awards Dinner Presented by Las Vegas Dec. 7 at the ARIA Resort & Casino Las Vegas. (The 2020 event was canceled due to COVID-19.)

"Michael Westbrook left his stamp on the record books during his Colorado career, and cemented his place in college football lore during the 'Miracle at Michigan,'" said NFF President & CEO Steve Hatchell.

A consensus First Team All-American in 1994, Westbrook received the Touchdown Club of Columbus Paul Warfield Trophy as the nation's top wide receiver. During that stellar senior season, he led Colorado in receiving while guiding the team to a No. 3 final ranking and an 11-1 record.

A two-time First Team All-Big Eight performer, he became only the third CU receiver to earn all-league honors and the first to be selected twice. An AP Second Team All-American in 1992, he led the Buffs to four bowl berths, including wins in the over Fresno State (1993 Aloha) and Notre Dame (1995 Fiesta).

As a freshman, he led the Buffs to a share of the Big Eight title and a No. 20 ranking, followed by a No. 13 finish in 1992 and a No. 16 spot in 1993. The 1995 East-West Shrine Game MVP racked up eight 100-yard receiving games in his career under McCartney. Westbrook was inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2016.

McCartney was pleased to hear that Westbrook will be joining him in the Hall of Fame. "He could have gone in before I did, you're only as good as the players you are privileged to coach," McCartney said. "I'm excited for Michael. He was a game changer, the real deal and looked the part. He was big, strong and fast. The defense always had to be concerned with where he lined up and he was nearly impossible to cover one-on-one. As a blocker, he was downright vicious, probably the best blocking receiver I've ever coached – and it was something he took great pride in. He's obviously known for the catch in Michigan, but he shouldn't be defined by it. He was so much more for us than that one play."

The fourth overall pick in the 1995 NFL Draft, Westbrook played eight seasons in the league for the Washington Redskins (1995-2001) and Cincinnati Bengals (2002).

Having dabbled in martial arts during his football days, he focused on Brazilian jiu-jitsu after retiring from the NFL and has since obtained a black belt. Westbrook has won national and Pan-American events as a brown belt, and he won the 2008 International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation World Championship at purple belt.

The 2020 College Football Hall of Fame Class includes Lomas Brown (Florida), Keith Byars (Ohio State), Eric Crouch (Nebraska), Eric Dickerson (SMU), Glenn Dorsey (LSU), John "Jumbo" Elliott (Michigan), Jason Hanson (Washington State), E.J. Henderson (Maryland), E.J. Junior (Alabama), Steve McNair (Alcorn State), Cade McNown (UCLA), Leslie O'Neal (Oklahoma State), Anthony Poindexter (Virginia), David Pollack (Georgia), Bob Stein (Minnesota), Michael Westbrook (Colorado), Elmo Wright (Houston) and coaches Dick Sheridan (Furman, North Carolina State), and Andy Talley (St. Lawrence [NY], Villanova).

The 2021 College Football Hall of Fame Class includes Harris Barton (North Carolina), David Fulcher (Arizona State), Dan Morgan (Miami [FL]), Carson Palmer (Southern California), Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois), Kenneth Sims (Texas), C.J. Spiller (Clemson), Darren Sproles (Kansas State), Aaron Taylor (Notre Dame), Andre Tippett (Iowa), Al Wilson (Tennessee) and coaches Rudy Hubbard (Florida A&M) and Bob Stoops (Oklahoma).

The accomplishments of both classes will be forever immortalized at the Chick-fil-A College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta, and each inductee will receive a custom ring created by Jostens, the official and exclusive supplier of NFF rings.

Including the 2020 and 2021 Hall of Fame Classes, only 1,038 players and 223 coaches have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame from the nearly 5.47 million who have played or coached the game during the past 152 years. In other words, less than two one-hundredths of a percent (.02%) of the individuals who have played the game have earned this distinction.

THREE BUFFALOES ONCE AGAIN ON COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME BALLOT

Garten, Hudson, Salaam appear on ballot for 2022 class

Three University of Colorado football players once again made the national ballot for the 2022 class that will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, which the National Football Foundation (NFF) released on June 2.

Offensive guard Joe Garten (1987-90), defensive back Chris Hudson (1991-94) and tailback Rashaan Salaam (1992-94) appear on the ballot for the 2022 class, which will be announced early next year. All have advanced to the national ballot from the district selection process at least once before.

“It’s an enormous honor to just be on the College Football Hall of Fame ballot considering more than 5.47 million people have played college football and only 1,038 players have been inducted,” said NFF President & CEO Steve Hatchell. “The Hall’s requirement of being a First-Team All-American creates a much smaller pool of about 1,500 individuals who are even eligible. Being in today’s elite group means an individual is truly among the greatest to have ever played the game, and we look forward to announcing the 2022 College Football Hall of Fame Class early next year.”

Garten was a two-time first-team All-American, consensus as a junior in 1989 and unanimous as a team captain and senior in 1990, when he finished as the runner-up for the Outland Trophy. He was a member of CU’s Big Eight champion teams both years and the ’90 consensus national championship team. The Buffaloes were 22-2-1 those two years, rising to No. 1 in the national polls late in both seasons.

Hudson, who played both safety and cornerback during his CU career, was a consensus first-team All-American as a senior in 1994, when he also won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation’s top defensive back. He is one of six Buffaloes in history to earn first-team All-Conference honors three times, at corner as a sophomore and senior and at free safety his junior year. He had 141 career tackles with 15 interceptions – second-most in CU annals – and 20 passes broken up. He helped CU to an 11-1 mark his last season despite playing the bulk of the year with a turf toe injury.

Salaam, CU’s only Heisman Trophy winner, passed away on Dec. 5, 2016, became the fourth player to rush for 2,000 yards in a season at the time when he rambled for 2,055 yards in 1994. He also claimed the Doak Walker Award as the nation’s top running back, the Walter Camp Trophy for the national player of the year and was a unanimous first-team All-American and first-team All-Big Eight, also selected the conference’s offensive player of the year.

Other Buffaloes on the district ballot include Eric Bieniemy (tailback, 1987-90), Deon Figures (cornerback, 1988-92) and Matt Russell (linebacker, 1993-96). Bieniemy has previously advanced to the national ballot, but since he is an active coach in the NFL, he isn’t eligible for selection until his coaching days are complete.

The 2020 and 2021 classes will be inducted this Dec. 7 in Las Vegas. CU’s Michael Westbrook is a member of the 2020 class, and he will become the eighth Buffalo player to be enshrined, along with one coach, Bill McCartney. Westbrook will be honored with an on-field celebration by the NFF on Oct. 2 when CU hosts Southern California.

CU ANNOUNCES FUTURE FOOTBALL GAMES & SERIES

Colorado announced on July 8 that it has added four football opponents – for a total of seven games – to its future football schedules. Wyoming filled a vacancy in 2025 that was created when a previously scheduled game against Missouri was moved to 2031, as the Tigers needed dates to rekindle their rivalry with Kansas. Three home-and-home series were revealed, with Southern Methodist (2030, 2031), North Texas (2032, 2033) and Oklahoma State (2036, 2037).

PAC-12, BIG TEN & ACC ANNOUNCE ALLIANCE

On August 24, the commissioners of the Pac-12, Big Ten and Atlantic Coast conferences held a joint press conference announcing an alliance between the three. Many particulars have yet to be figured out, but they did announce crossover scheduling between the three in football and men's and women's basketball (the conferences will work on scheduling games, not the individual schools, which number 41 in all (Notre Dame comes under the ACC umbrella and will be included in all except football). The three conferences remain competitors in every sense but are committed to collaborating and providing thought leadership on various opportunities and challenges facing college athletics, including: student-athlete mental and physical health, safety, wellness and support; strong academic experience and support; diversity, equity and inclusion; Social justice; Gender equity; future structure of the NCAA; federal legislative efforts and postseason championships and future formats.

A note about CU's depth: in-season, charts reflect change and generally do not announce it unless there are long-term injuries.

Colorado has 66 lettermen returning for the 2021 season (63 from the 2020 team, two from 2019 and one from 2017); they break down into 32 on offense, 30 on defense and five specialists; the Buffs lost 19 lettermen off the 2020 squad (9 offense/7 defense/3 specialists). CU returns 18 starters from 2020 (9 offense—three players started three games each at two receiver and an offensive line positions/9 defense), losing six (3 offense/3 defense); the starter count was based off 14 players with three plus-starts on the offensive side of the ball. The 2020 starters are listed in bold (three or more starts); *—denotes letters earned primarily on special teams; QIS—quit in season. The breakdown:

(includes 2-pt play at Oregon). Sacks/pressures allowed by others or coverage not included; sacks & pressures may exceed overall team total as two players can be awarded a pressure on the same play. Graded plays may exceed play count if a player or players were called for a penalty that prevented a play from proceeding (plays for other players in for those penalties are removed from their totals). KEY: TDB—Touchdown Blocks (direct); PPTD—Perfect plays on passing touchdown/conversions.
