#8/8 WASHINGTON at MICHIGAN STATE Dawgs Make First Trip to East Lansing in 54 Years

THE GAME: The Washington football team (2-0) heads east to face Michigan State (2-0) this Saturday in the final non-conference game of the season. The game will stream exclusively on Peacock and kicks off at 5:00 p.m. ET/2:00 p.m. PT. It's the Huskies' first trip to East Lansing in 54 years, though the teams met last season in Seattle (a 39-28 UW win). The Dawgs have retained the No. 8 spot in both the AP Top 25 and the coaches' poll following comfortable wins over Boise State and Tulsa to begin the season. Michigan State has notched wins over Central Michigan and Richmond to open 2023. Following the trip to Spartan Stadium, the Huskies return to Seattle to open Pac-12 play the following Saturday, Sept. 23, vs. California.

QUICK HITTERS: Over just 15 games as a Husky, Michael Penix Jr. has notched five of the top-10 single-game passing yards marks in UW history, including his first two games this season (450 vs. Boise State – 5th; 409 vs. Tulsa – 9th) ... Penix is up to sixth in UW history in career TD passes, with 39 ... he has thrown multiple TDs in 12 of his 15 games at UW ... through two games, Penix is No. 1 in FBS in total offense, No. 2 in passing yards per game, and No. 4 in completions per game, yards per game and passing TDs ... three different UW receivers – Jalen McMillan, Rome Odunze and Ja'Lynn Polk – have scored a rushing TD so far this season ... only two true freshman have played for the Huskies so far this year – LB Deven Bryant (2 games) and WR Taeshaun Lyons (1) ... through two games, UW has had 20 scrimmage plays of 20 yards or more, good for fourth in FBS (and two of three teams ahead of UW have played three games) ... Penix is currently No. 2 in the nation (behind three different players) in pass plays of 10-plus (34 plays), 20-plus (16 plays) and 30-plus (8 plays) yards ... Washington enters the week with the nation's second-longest active winning streak among Power 5 teams, with nine victories in a row ... only Georgia, with an 19-game run, has a longer active streak among P5 programs ... UW has had only six win streaks of 10 or more games in its history ... not counting the four-game 2020 season, the Huskies have won 10 or more games in four of the last six seasons ... the current UW roster includes players who list hometowns from 19 different states, as well as in Germany.

TELEVISION: The Washington-Michigan State game will stream on Peacock, with Brendan Burke, Chris Simms and Caroline Pineda calling the action. Fans will need a Peacock subscription to view the game.

RADIO: All Washington football games will air on the Washington Sports Network from Learfield, with Tony Castricone (play by play), former Husky tight end Cameron Cleeland (analyst) and former UW basketball player Elise Woodward (sidelines) on the call. Radio coverage begins four hours before kickoff on the network's flagship station – Seattle's SportsRadio KJR 93.3 FM – with "Husky Gameday" live from The Zone for Husky home games. Statewide coverage on the 17-station Washington Sports Network begins two hours before kickoff. The entire broadcast is available worldwide on the Huskies Gameday mobile app and the Varsity app. The UW broadcast of this game will also air on Sirius/XM channel 109 or 197. Additionally, the Husky Football Coaches Show airs each Wednesday during the season at 6:00 p.m. PT.

KALEN DeBOER

HEAD COACH

Second Season at UW

Success has come consistently and quickly at every stop in the career of UW football coach Kalen DeBoer. On Nov. 29, 2021, DeBoer took his next step, when he was named the 30th head football coach in UW history. His first season was an undisputed success.

DeBoer, 48, came to Montlake from Fresno State, where during the 2021 season, he led the Bulldogs to a 9-3 regular-season record in his second year in charge.

In his first year at UW, he led the Huskies to a 11-2 overall record, including a 3-0 mark against ranked teams, and a win over Texas in the Valero Alamo Bowl. His Huskies swept its three Northwest rivals, finished in a tie for second in the Pac-12, and he was named Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year. He was also the Associated Press Pac-12 Coach of the Year and, at the 88th annual Seattle Sports Star of the Year Awards in Feb., 2023, earned the inaugural Seattle Sports Leader of the Year Award.

Not only were 11 wins in 2022 three more than any first-year coach in UW history had ever compiled, DeBoer was the first Husky coach ever to win a bowl game in year one.

Over his eight seasons as a head football coach (through 2022), DeBoer has compiled a 90-11 (.882) record. During his 26 years in coaching, he has consistently prospered at multiple levels and in different roles, helping to build and revitalize programs while establishing a diverse network of contacts, in both coaching and recruiting, across the country.

In two years at Fresno State, which included the pandemic-shortened 2020 season, DeBoer's teams made great strides on both sides of the ball.

In 2021, Fresno State finished first in the MWC and 14th in the nation in total offense (464.8 yards per game) and second in the conference and 26th in FBS in scoring (30.5 points per game). The Bulldogs' passing offense ranked second in conference and ninth in the country, with 326.7 yards per game.

The offense, and passing game in particular, also flourished in 2020, as it produced a conference-best 479.3 yards total offense per game, and the league's second-highest points per game total (32.8). Fresno State also led the Mountain West in passing yards per game, and ranked fifth in the FBS in that category, with 356.3 per game.

In DeBoer's two seasons in Fresno, the defense also made vast improvements in nearly every team defensive category over the 2019 season, the year before his arrival.

The Bulldogs' defense went from 82nd in the national in scoring defense and 88th in total defense in 2019, to No. 20 and No. 31 in the FBS in 2021, respectively – improvements of 62 and 57 places. In terms of NCAA-FBS national ranking, the run defense improved from 71st to 24th while the pass defense leapt from 107th to 58th. Fresno State also improved its national ranking by 45 or more places in yards allowed per play, opponent first downs, sacks, TFLs, third-down percentage defense, and fourth-down percentage defense.

In 2021, Fresno State ranked among the top 25 in the nation in numerous categories.

Immediately prior to leading Fresno State's program, DeBoer was on staff at Indiana University, as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. After helping to guide the Hoosiers to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Gator Bowl, DeBoer returned to Fresno State, taking over for Jeff Tedford, who resigned for health reasons following the 2019 season.

The Hoosiers' eight victories in 2019 matched their highest wins total in 26 seasons, and IU ranked No. 3 in the Big Ten in total offense.

In 2017, Tedford, in his first season as head coach at Fresno State, hired DeBoer as his offensive coordinator and QBs coach. In two seasons in that role, DeBoer helped the Bulldogs to overall records of 10-4 (2017) and 12-2 (2018), along with two division titles, two bowl game victories and the Mountain West Conference Championship in 2018.

DeBoer's two years as the Bulldogs' offensive coordinator concluded with a Mountain West Championship and Las Vegas Bowl win to cap a 22-6 run during the 2017-18 seasons. Those two seasons included double-digit winning seasons each year, coming off a 1-11 campaign in 2016, the year prior to Tedford's (and DeBoer's) arrival.

Fresno State reached unprecedented heights in year No. 2 with DeBoer as the OC as the Bulldogs posted a school-record 12 victories, and finished ranked No. 18 in both polls.

The offense ranked 26th nationally in scoring offense (34.6) and 29th in passing offense (267.1), and produced five all-conference honorees. The Bulldogs finished eighth nationally in team passing efficiency (156.58), tied for 15th in turnovers lost (14), tied for 19th nationally in red zone offense (89.5 percent) and 25th in third-down conversions (44.6).

Under DeBoer's coaching, quarterback Marcus McMaryion completed 62.1 percent of his passes, third-best in the MWC. With five interceptions on the year, McMaryion finished the season with the seventh-lowest interception percentage in Bulldog history at 1.42.

A school-record setting wide receiver at the University of Sioux Falls (S.D.), DeBoer later led his alma mater to three NAIA National Championships in five seasons as head coach, winning the title in 2006, 2008 and 2009, while also finishing as runner-up in 2007 and making the semifinals in his first season as head coach, in 2005.

During his five seasons at Sioux Falls, DeBoer compiled a 67-3 overall record, including a 49-1 mark in Great Plains Athletic Conference play. In two seasons at Fresno State, he had a 12-6 overall record, giving him a career record of 79-9. He was NAIA National Coach of the Year in each of his three championship seasons at USF.

DeBoer coached three NAIA National Players of the Year winners in quarterbacks Lorenzo Brown (2009) and Chad Cavender (2007), and running back Nick Kortan (2002). During his time at USF, he helped develop 25 first-team All-Americans.

After the 2009 season, he took a job at Southern Illinois as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach from 2010 through 2013. He moved to Eastern Michigan as OC and QBs coach from 2014-2016, helping the Eagles to their third-ever bowl-game berth in 2016. That year, the Eagles posted their first .500-or-better season since 1995 and tied the FBS mark for biggest turnarounds in 2016, improving on its one-win season in 2015.

DeBoer's offense shattered the school record for total yards, with 5,917. School records were also set for points scored (385), passing yards (3,849), touchdown passes (25), first downs (303), pass completions (309), plays (999), as well single-game plays (99).

In his four seasons (2010-13) as offensive coordinator at Southern Illinois, the Salukis beat 10 Top-25 opponents. In 2013, the SIU offense led the Missouri Valley Conference with 231.8 passing yards per game, fourth-highest total in school history. SIU's 25 passing touchdowns on the season tied for the third-highest total in school history. Under DeBoer's tutelage, tight end MyCole Pruitt was named to the 2013 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS All-America team while John Lantz developed into an All-MVFC receiver.

During the 2011 campaign, the Salukis ranked third in the nation with an average of 183.1 rushing yards a contest. Bryan Boemer also developed into the Rimington Award winner, which is presented to the nation's premier center.

As a student at Sioux Falls, DeBoer set records in both football and baseball. During his football career, he compiled 3,400 yards and 33 touchdowns on 234 career receptions – all school records at the time – and played on the 1996 NAIA Division II National Championship team, which beat Western Washington in the final. He also played baseball for the Cougars, batting .520 (still a school record) as a senior in 1998. His career average of .492 is still best in USF history as are his 37 career homers, and .944 slugging percentage.

A 1998 graduate of the University of Sioux Falls with a degree in secondary education, DeBoer and his wife, Nicole, are the parents of two daughters, Alexis and Avery.

COACHING STAFF: All 10 of UW's full-time assistants from the 2022 season are back in 2023. Nine of the Huskies' 10 were new to the program last year, with six of them having worked at Fresno State under DeBoer, including all of the coordinators. On the offensive side, Ryan Grubb serves as coordinator and quarterbacks coach, having held both of those titles in 2021 at Fresno State, where he spent the previous four seasons. A former assistant at Sioux Falls under DeBoer, the two also worked alongside one another at Eastern Michigan. UW has two co-defensive coordinators: Chuck Morrell and William Inge. Morrell was a teammate of DeBoer's at Sioux Falls, and later served as his defensive coordinator there as well. In the interim, he spent nine seasons as head coach at Montana Tech before working as safeties coach at Fresno State in 2020 and 2021. Inge, who played against the UW in the 1995 Sun Bowl as a defensive end for Iowa, first worked with DeBoer at Indiana in 2019. He then joined DeBoer's staff in Fresno, where he was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2020 and 2021. Special teams coordinator and edges coach Eric Schmidt handled special teams and the d-line at Fresno State in 2020-21. A standout player at North Dakota, he first worked alongside DeBoer at Southern Illinois (2010-13). Cornerbacks coach Julius "Juice" Brown also comes to Seattle from Fresno, where he coached the Husky position and was recruiting coordinator under DeBoer. Like Brown, Lee Marks is former Boise State player. Early in his coaching career, he spent a season as a GA at Sioux Falls (after DeBoer's departure), but spent the 2020 and 2021 seasons as running backs coach for the Bulldogs under DeBoer. Tight ends coach Nick Sheridan, a former Michigan quarterback, held the same title at Indiana in 2019, the year DeBoer was the Hoosiers' offensive coordinator. Sheridan was OC and quarterbacks coach in Bloomington for two seasons before coming to Seattle. Three UW assistants were working with DeBoer for the first time in '22: offensive line coach Scott Huff, wide receiver coach JaMarcus Shephard, and defensive line coach Inoke Breckterfield. Huff, a former teammate of Marks and Brown at Boise State, returns for his seven season as the Huskies' o-line mentor in 2023. Shephard came to Washington after a very successful stint as receivers coach at Purdue the previous five years. Breckterfield, a standout defensive lineman at Oregon State, most recently worked in the same role at Vanderbilt, but has also worked at Wisconsin, Pitt and UCLA, among others.

STAFF CONTINUITY: Washington's entire full-time coaching staff remained in tact following the 2022 season, which was coach Kalen DeBoer's first at the UW. He, along with all 10 full-time assistants, are back in 2023. That's actually rare in UW history as the coaching staffs have gone unchanged over two or more seasons only three times before (UW records for coaching staffs go back to the mid-1950s): 1989-90, 2009-11, and 2014-15.

HUSKIES vs. MICHIGAN STATE: Washington and Michigan State have played one another only four times – twice in Seattle, once in East Lansing, and once in Honolulu. UW leads the series, 3-1. In reverse chronological order, here's a look at those four meetings:

UW 39, Michigan State 28 • Husky Stadium • Sept. 17, 2022

Even after two successful games to open the schedule, Washington truly introduced its new quarterback and new offense to the wider world in week three of the 2022 season, beating the Spartans, 39-28, in a game the Huskies led 39-14 into the second half of the fourth quarter. In his third game as a Husky, Michael Penix Jr. completed 24-of-40 passes for 397 yards and four touchdowns, three of them to Ja'Lynn Polk, who finished 153 receiving yards on six catches. The Huskies opened the game with a seven-play drive that resulted in an 8-yard TD pass to Polk. After the Spartans kept the Huskies out of the endzone with a goal-line stand, Washington got a safety to make it 9-0. In the second quarter, the Huskies got a rushing TD from Cam Davis, and a pair of TD passes from Penix, to Wayne Taulapapa and Polk. Michigan State got on the board with a pass from Payton Thorne to Keon Coleman. In the third quarter, TD receptions from Polk sandwiched another Thorpe score, to Tre Mosley, to send the game into the fourth quarter with UW with that 36-14 lead. The Spartans got a pair of TDs in the final seven minutes of the game to close the gap.

UW 51, Michigan State 23 • Aloha Bowl, Aloha Stadium • Dec. 25, 1997

The Huskies wrapped up the 1997 season with a convincing win over the Nick Saban-coached Spartans, led by numerous big plays and 193 rushing yards and two TDs from tailback Rashaan Shehee. The win broke a three-game losing streak that had ended the Huskies' regular season. Along with Shehee's big day, the Huskies got 179 passing yards and two touchdowns from quarterback Brock Huard, while both Tony Parrish (56 yards) and Lester Towns (66 yards) returned interceptions for touchdowns. (Towns would go on to work for Saban at Alabama.) Additionally, fullback Mike Reed scored on a 64-yard run in the third quarter.

UW 42, Michigan State 16 • Husky Stadium • Sept. 19, 1970

The 1970 season opener is still a memorable game for Husky fans as it marked the debut of quarterback Sonny Sixkiller, who had burst on to the scene at the 1970 spring game, which followed a dreadful 1969 season (1-9), which had been marked by sluggish, run-heavy offense. Against the Spartans, Sixkiller completed 16 of 35 passes for 276 yards, three interceptions, and three touchdowns, in just three quarters, before the second string took over. On the game's fourth play, Sixkiller connected with Ira Hammon for a 59-yard touchdown pass. Later in the first, Sixkiller threw an interception that was returned for a touchdown to tie the game at 7-7, but in the second quarter, Sixkiller connected with Bo Cornell on a five-yard TD toss. Early in the third, UW made it 21-7 thanks to a 37-yard connection with Hammon. Halfback Mark Wheeler provided another highlight, running for a 48-yard score. Sixkiller would go on to become one of UW's all-time fan favorites and appeared on the cover of the Oct. 4, 1971, edition of Sports Illustrated.

TEAM NOTES

Michigan State 27, Washington 11 • Spartan Stadium • Sept. 20, 1969

Washington opened the 1969 season facing a challenging, three-game non-conference slate with games at Michigan State and Michigan (the team remained in Michigan for the entire week), before taking on Ohio State in Seattle. The '69 season would prove to be a tumultuous one for the Huskies, who won the Apple Cup to finish 1-9. The year opened in East Lansing in front of 63,022 fans, who watched the Spartans come back from a 9-7 deficit through three quarters to win 27-11, thanks to a 20-point fourth quarter. Quarterback Bill Triplett rushed for two scores (one of them on the first play of the final quarter go give MSU the lead), while running backs Don Highsmith (143) and Eric Allen (113) each topped 100 yards. Don Law added a 70-yard interception return and halfback Tom Love threw a 29-yard TD pass to Frank Foreman. UW's lone touchdown was a second-quarter, 20-yard run from Luther Sligh. The Huskies also got a field goal from Ron Volbrecht and then score two points in the final quarter on a safety.

HUSKIES vs. THE BIG TEN: Washington holds a 49-47-2 record all-time vs. current (i.e., 2023) Big Ten teams, a record that includes an 0-3 mark against Penn State (though the Nittany Lions were not members of the Big Ten at the time of two of those games against the UW) and 4-5-1 vs. Nebraska, also not a Big Ten member at the time of any of those games. Washington has played all 12 current Big Ten teams but have faced a Big Ten opponent only 10 times since 2003 (the UW played Indiana in '03, Ohio State in '07, Illinois in 2013-14, Rutgers in 2016-17, Penn State in the 2017 Fiesta Bowl; Ohio State in the 2019 Rose Bowl; at Michigan in 2021; and Michigan State last year). The Huskies have played Big Ten teams nine times in bowl games since 1990 (not counting Nebraska in the Holiday Bowl in 2010): Iowa in the 1990 Rose Bowl, Michigan in the 1992 and 1993 Rose Bowls, Iowa in the 1995 Sun Bowl, Michigan State in the 1997 Aloha Bowl, Purdue in the 2001 Rose Bowl, Purdue in the 2002 Sun Bowl, Penn State in the 2017 Fiesta Bowl and OSU the 2019 Rose Bowl (2018 season). The Huskies went 4-5 in those games. Here's the UW's all-time record vs. current Big Ten teams: 7-4 vs. Illinois; 1-2 vs. Indiana; 3-3 vs. Iowa; 1-0 vs. Maryland; 5-8 vs. Michigan; 3-1 vs. Michigan State; 7-10 vs. Minnesota; 4-5-1 vs. Nebraska; 3-0 vs. Northwestern; 3-9 vs. Ohio State; 0-3 vs. Penn State; 7-2-1 vs. Purdue; 2-0 vs. Rutgers; 4-0 vs. Wisconsin.

EXPERIENCE AND YOUTH: Washington's current roster includes a total of 34 players – 17 each on offense and defense – who have started at least one game for the Huskies prior to 2023. Entering the year, the 17 offensive players had totaled 145 starts in the Purple & Gold, while the 17 defensive players (which includes former offensive line starter Ulumoo Ale) had 156 starts between them. Tight end Devin Culp entered the 2023 season with the highest total of starts under is belt among offensive players, with 18, while safety Asa Turner, with 23 career starts entering 2023, led the defensive side. The list of Dawgs with starting experience doesn't take into account the 10 current Huskies who transferred to UW after having started at another four-year college, nor does it account for starting "specialists." Washington 119-man roster entering the year included just 15 players in their final year of eligibility, along with 29 true freshmen, 15 redshirt freshmen, 35 sophomores and 25 juniors. Potentially, 104 current Huskies could return for 2024, while 79 enter the 2023 season with three or more years of eligibility remaining.

GRADUATED DAWGS: The 2023 Washington football roster includes 23 players who have earned their bachelor's degree. Here are those 23, alphabetically: Ulumoo Ale, Jacob Bandes, Julius Buelow, Devin Culp, Troy Fautanu, Drew Fowler, Ralen Goforth, Dominique Hampton, Antonio Hill, Giles Jackson, Tuli Letuligasenoa, Matteo Mele, Quentin Moore, Dylan Morris, Jabbar Muhammad, Richard Newton, Michael Penix Jr., Faatui Tuitele, Zion Tupuola-Fetui, Alphonzo Tuputala, Asa Turner, Edefuan Ulofoshio, and Jack Westover.

LONG PLAYS: Washington has notched 20 scrimmage plays of 20 or more yards over its first two games, the fourth-highest total so far this season (and two of the four ahead of UW have played three games). That includes 16 passes of 20 or more yards from quarterback Michael Penix Jr. Penix's 16 20-plus-yard passes are second-most in the nation so far, along with USC's Caleb Williams. Penix is also second in the nation in 30-plus yard passes and 40-plus yard passes. Last year, Washington finished the season with 62 passing plays for 20 or more yards, tied for eighth-most in the nation (five teams that ranked higher played more games than UW's 13). Washington led the nation last year with 193 pass plays for 10 or more yards.

CONFERENCE MOVES: Along with USC, UCLA and Oregon, the Huskies will move to the Big Ten Conference after this coming academic year (2023-24) and will play a Big Ten schedule in 2024. Four other current Pac-12 programs – Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado and Utah – are also departing, as those four will join the Big 12 Conference in 2024-25. Washington has been a member of what is now the Pac-12 since the inception of the league, in 1915. Only the UW and California have/had been members in every year since. The UW football team has won a league title in every decade since the 1910s, other than the 2020s – the Dawgs will have one last chance to extend that streak this year.

ALASKA AIRLINES FIELD AT HUSKY STADIUM: The Oregon game on Nov. 5, 2011, marked the final game in Husky Stadium prior to major renovations that were completed in summer, 2013. The Huskies re-opened their home field with a 38-6 win over then-No. 19 Boise State on Aug. 31, 2013. The 2023 season marks the 103rd season of play in Husky Stadium. Original construction on the facility was completed in 1920 when Washington played one game in the new campus facility. UW's all-time record in Husky Stadium stands at 408-185-21 (.682). Washington is 52-16 in home games since the stadium re-opened in 2013.
