

Post-Game Notes

Washington at Michigan

Michigan Stadium, Oct. 18, 2025

Husky running back Jonah Coleman entered the week as the nation's leader in scoring (12.0 points per game), rushing touchdowns (11), and total touchdowns (12), and was second total points (72). He added his 12th rushing and 13th total touchdown late in the second quarter on a one-yard run. He needs one more rushing touchdown to reach the top 10 in UW single-season history, and three more total touchdowns to make that top 10.

Today's announced attendance of 110,701 was the second largest crowd ever to watch a Husky football game. Here are the updated top-10 attendances in UW football history (seven of the top 10 are vs. Michigan, either in Ann Arbor or at the Rose Bowl):

Aug. 31, 2002	at Michigan (L, 31-29)	111,491
Oct. 18, 2025	at Michigan (L, 24-7)	110,701
Nov. 9, 2024	at Penn State (L, 35-6)	110,233
Sept. 11, 2021	at Michigan (L, 33-10)	108,345
Jan. 1, 1982	vs. Iowa (Rose Bowl; W, 28-0)	105,611
Jan. 2, 1978	vs. Michigan (Rose Bowl; W, 27-20)	105,312
Aug. 30, 2003	at Ohio State (L, 28-9)	105,078
Jan. 1, 1981	vs. Michigan (Rose Bowl; L, 23-6)	104,863
Jan. 1, 1992	vs. Michigan (Rose Bowl; W, 34-14)	103,566
Sept. 15, 1984	at Michigan (W, 20-11)	103,072

The Huskies' last nine true road games (not counting the Sun Bowl, nor the neutral site game last season vs. Washington State) have all been announced sell outs, including today's game at Michigan.

UW defensive linemen and twin brothers Armon and Jayvon Parker, fourth-year juniors from Detroit, played in the same UW football game for the first time ever. Armon had not played at all prior to this season, due to injuries, and Jayvon had not played this season, also due to injury. Early in the third quarter, they were both on the field at the same time.

Washington entered the game with just three turnovers all season, but doubled that total with three today.
