JEDD FISCH

HEAD COACH

Second Season at UW

Jedd Fisch, who spent the previous three seasons restoring the football program at the University of Arizona and bringing it to its highest level in decades, accepted the position of head football coach at the University of Washington on Jan. 14, 2024.

After arriving in Seattle, he wasted no time in making his mark on a Husky program that had experienced an unprecedented amount of turnover, leaving Fisch and his staff to quickly re-assemble a team that returned just two starters on defense and none on offense. In his first season, 2024, Fisch's Huskies stretched their home winning streak to 20 games (longest-ever at Husky Stadium) and earned a berth in the Sun Bowl.

In the meantime, Fisch began building for the long term, recruiting some of the top-ranked recruiting classes in history, while also firmly embracing the new realities of college football in the era of the portal, revenue sharing and NIL. And, in spring of 2025, his team compiled a cumulative grade point average of 3.27, highest in program history.

Fisch, 49, came to Seattle with a long, dynamic history of coaching in college and the NFL.

Fisch's Wildcats went 10-3 in 2023, his last year in Tucson, beating Oklahoma in the Alamo Bowl and finishing No. 11 in the final AP Top 25 poll. The Wildcats outscored opponents, 36.1 to 21.1 over the season, relying on a balanced offense that averaged 448 yards a game.

Arizona quarterback Noah Fifita was Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year, while 12 Wildcat players earned some level of All-Pac-12 honors. Arizona's stingy defense registered 34 sacks and led the conference in the red zone.

He garnered national acclaim in 2023, and was named as a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and the Dodd Trophy, given annually to the nation's top head coach.

Prior to Arizona, Fisch served as the quarterbacks coach with the New England Patriots under Head Coach Bill Belichick. He previously served as an offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach or assistant with the Los Angeles Rams, UCLA, the University of Michigan, Jacksonville Jaguars, the University of Miami, Seattle Seahawks, the University of Minnesota, the Denver Broncos and the Baltimore Ravens, and as a quality control coach with the Houston Texans. He got his start at the collegiate level serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida under Steve Spurrier.

In addition to Belichick and Spurrier, other mentors include Pete Carroll, Brian Billick and Jim Harbaugh.

Fisch is a native of Livingston, N.J. and graduated from the University of Florida with a bachelor's degree in criminology in 1998. He also earned his master's degree, in sports management in Gainesville, in 2000.

Fisch and his wife, Amber, are parents to three daughters: Zaylee, Ashlee and Kendall.

COACHING STAFF: Washington's coaching staff for the 2025 season includes six returning, full-time assistants from 2024, plus four entirely new assistant coaches, plus two more who were on staff in 2024, but have been promoted for 2025. The current season's staff includes six assistants who came to Seattle from Arizona, where Jedd Fisch was head coach from 2021-23. On the offensive side, that group includes running backs coach Scottie Graham, receivers coach Kevin Cummings, and two offensive coaches that previously worked at Washington. Tight ends coach and special teams coordinator Jordan Paopao spent nine seasons (2011-19) coaching tight ends at Washington (two as a GA and seven as a full-time staff member). Offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Jimmie Dougherty, who worked with Fisch at both Michigan and UCLA before being hired at Arizona, was passing game coordinator and receivers coach at UW from 2009 through 2012. The two defensive staff members who came to UW from Arizona are defensive running game coordinator and defensive line coach Jason Kaufusi and secondary coach John Richardson. The only new member of the offensive staff is offensive line coach Michael Switzer, who was on the Arizona staff for the last two of Fisch's seasons, and was a quality control coach at UW in 2024. Washington's defensive staff includes three newcomers, led by new defensive coordinator Ryan Walters, who turned Illinois' defense into one of the best in the nation before serving as Purdue's head coach in 2023 and 2024. He's joined by former USC and NFL safety Taylor Mays, a Seattle native who joins the staff as safeties coach, and Brian Odom, a very experienced coach at Big 12, Big Ten and SEC programs, who is the new linebackers coach. Aaron Van Horn, who served as a quality control assistant in 2024, is the team's new outside linebackers coach, while the Huskies also hired Chris Petrilli to serve as the Dawgs' special teams coordinator.

GRADUATES: A total of 12 Huskies head into the 2025 season already having earned their undergraduate degree, whether from UW or from another university before transferring to UW. Here's the list: CJ Christian (S), Zach Durfee (DE), Makell Esteen (S), Geirean Hatchett (OL), Milton Hopkins (DE), Deshawn Lynch (DL), Dyson McCutcheon (S), Quentin Moore (TE), Simote Pepa (DL), Logan Sagapolu (DL), Anthony Ward (LB), Carver Willis (OL).

ACADEMIC SUCCESS: Following the most recent academic quarter (spring, 2025), the UW football program posted some impressive results. The Husky football team's cumulative GPA for the quarter was 3.27, highest ever in program history. Additionally, 26 football players made the Dean's list, including the following 22 current team members: Xe'Ree Alexanders, Deven Bryant, Jonah Coleman, Elinneus Davis, Decker DeGraaf, Kade Eldridge, Jonathan Epperson Jr., Omari Evans, Luke Gayton, Zachary Henning, Luke Luchini, Jacob Manu, Dyson McCutcheon, Paul Mencke Jr., John Mills, Ephesians Prysock, Jack Shaffer, Austin Simmons, Anterio Thompson, Rainen Vines-Bright, Beck Walker and Demond Williams Jr.

IN THE CFP ERA: The era of the four-team College Football Playoff is gone, but that 10-season stretch (2014-2023) is instructive in terms of illustrating the teams that operated at the top level of the sport during that timespan, and Washington is one of those teams. Over that 10-year stretch, only 15 different programs earned a berth in the CFP semifinals, and only eight reached the tournament more than once. With two CFP berths in the four-team era (2016 and 2023), Washington is one of those eight. Only six teams made more than two appearances: Alabama (8), Clemson (6), Ohio State (5), Oklahoma (4), Georgia (3) and Michigan (3). For what it's worth, six more teams made their CFP debut in the 12-team bracket in 2024, but UW remains one of (now) 10 teams to have appeared in the CFP more than once, when counting the 2024 data.

BIG TIME: As has been well documented over the last couple of years, Washington officially joined the Big Ten Conference ahead of the 2024-25 school year, effective on Aug. 2, 2024. The Huskies were joined by fellow former Pac-12 programs Oregon, UCLA and USC in making the move to the BIG, which now includes 18 schools. Washington was one of four founding members of the Pacific Coast Conference (along with Cal, Oregon and Oregon State), and, along with Cal, was one of just two teams that were a part of that league (which changed names to the AAWU, Pac-8, Pac-10 and Pac-12) for the entirety of its full-fledged existence from 1915 to 2024.

FUTURE SCHEDULES: In October, 2023, the Big Ten revealed 18 football teams' home and away, conference opponents for the next for the following five seasons (2024-28). Here are the UW's home and road, Big Ten games, for the coming three years:

2026: home – Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Penn State; road – Michigan State, Nebraska, Oregon, Purdue, USC

2027: home – Maryland, Michigan State, Nebraska, Oregon, USC; road – Minnesota, Northwestern, Penn State, Rutgers

2028: home – Michigan, Northwestern, UCLA, Wisconsin; road – Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Ohio State, Oregon

HUSKIES vs. BRONCOS HISTORY: Odd as it may seem at first glance, Washington and Boise State have faced one another only six times in the two schools' history, with those meetings coming in the second game of the 2007 season, the 2012 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2013 and 2015 season openers, the 2019 Las Vegas Bowl and the 2023 opener. It's odd because the two campuses are located only about 500 miles from one another. The only other Division I-FBS colleges located inside a 500-mile radius of the UW are Washington State, Oregon and Oregon State. However, all three of those other schools are longtime conference rivals, whereas Boise State only began playing football as a four-year institution in 1968 and only moved up to Division I-A prior to the 1996 season. Here's a recap of the six UW-Boise State games in history:

September 8, 2007 • Husky Stadium WASHINGTON 24, #22 BOISE STATE 10

The Huskies, behind RS-freshman quarterback Jake Locker, improved to 2-0 with a 24-10 victory over Boise State, which came into the 2007 season off of a 13-0 campaign in 2006, one that was capped by the thrilling Fiesta Bowl win over Oklahoma. The Huskies never trailed as they snapped the Broncos' 14-game win streak. Locker, who had led the UW to a win in his college debut the previous week at Syracuse, ran for a six-yard touchdown to cap the first drive of the game. Later in the first quarter, tailback Louis Rankin tossed a 16-yard touchdown pass to Quintin Daniels to stake Washington to a 14-0 lead. BSU took advantage of a Locker fumble and drove 44 yards in just two plays, scoring on a run from Taylor Tharp, to cut the lead to 14-7. However, after a Ryan Perkins field goal, the Huskies turned the tables as defensive end Greyson Gunheim intercepted Tharp. Three plays later, Locker hit Marcel Reece with a 58-yard touchdown to stretch the Husky advantage to 24-7. Kyle Broztnan hit a 40-yard field goal late in the second quarter to make it 24-10, but that was all of the scoring for the day. In the second half, each team had a field goal blocked and threw an interception in enemy territory. Locker led both teams in rushing, carrying the ball 16 times for 84 yards and a score. He also completed 13-of-25 for 193 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Reece led the UW receivers with 192 yards on four catches.

TEAM NOTES

December 22, 2012 • Sam Boyd Stadium, Las Vegas
#20 BOISE STATE 28, WASHINGTON 26

Boise State won its third straight Las Vegas Bowl, but had to work much harder than in its previous two as the Broncos edged Washington, 28-26. BSU kicker Michael Frisina kicked his fifth field goal of the day, a 27-yarder with 1:16 remaining, to seal the win. Boise State overcame an game-MVP performance from Husky tailback Bishop Sankey who rushed for 205 rushing yards and another 74 through the air. UW had trailed by as wide a margin as 18-3 in the second quarter before Sankey and Keith Price rushed for TDs before halftime, cutting the gap to 18-17. In the third quarter, the teams traded touchdowns (with the UW missing a two-point try) to leave BSU with a two-point lead at 25-23. In the fourth quarter, Husky kicker Travis Coons hit a 38-yard field goal with 4:09 left to give Washington its first lead of the day, but Boise got a long kick return to lead to Frisina's winning boot.

August 31, 2013 • Husky Stadium, Seattle
WASHINGTON 38, #19 BOISE STATE 6

An electrified crowd witnessed Washington beat Boise State, 38-6, in the first game of the newly renovated Husky Stadium. The win came in the two teams' very next game after Boise State's win in the Las Vegas Bowl the previous December. Sankey rushed for 161 yards and two scores and Price passed for 324 and two more TDs to lead the UW, which out-gained the Broncos by nearly 250 yards on the night. Washington led just 10-3 at halftime before scoring two touchdowns each in the third and fourth quarters to put the game away.

September 4, 2015 • Albertson's Stadium, Boise
#23 BOISE STATE 16, WASHINGTON 13

Washington opened the 2015 season at Boise State, one full season removed from Coach Chris Petersen's departure from the Broncos program. A number of future Husky standouts – including true freshmen Jake Browning and Myles Gaskin – made their debut that Friday night in Boise, but the Huskies were able to score just one TD – a 76-yard punt return from Dante Pettis (the second of the NCAA-record nine he would eventually score). Boise built a 16-0 lead on two short TD runs from Jeremy McNichols and a Tyler Rausa field goal. The Huskies got on the board in the second half on two field goals from Cameron Van Winkle and Pettis' punt return, but a 46-yard attempt with just 15 seconds left, which would have tied the game, missed wide right.

December 21, 2019 • Sam Boyd Stadium, Las Vegas
WASHINGTON 38, #19 BOISE STATE 7

UW closed out Chris Petersen's Husky coaching tenure with a win over his former program in the 2019 Las Vegas Bowl. Cornerback Elijah Molden earned MVP honors thanks to an interception and a forced fumble, as the Huskies held the Broncos to 266 yards of total offense. Washington built a 17-0 halftime lead on a TD pass from Jacob Eason to Andre Baccellia, a Salvon Ahmed run and a Peyton Henry field goal. The Dawgs got second-half touchdowns from Ahmed and Richard Newton on the ground, along with Newton pass to Terrell Bynum on a trick play. Eason passed for 210 yards while Newton led the ground game with 69. Molden and Brandon Wellingham had nine tackles each and Myles Bryant added an interception.

September 2, 2023 • Husky Stadium, Seattle
#10 WASHINGTON 56, BOISE STATE 19

Washington opened its historic 2023 season with a win over Boise State in the season opener at Husky Stadium. Michael Penix Jr. led the way, completing 29-of-40 passes for 450 yards and five touchdowns as the Dawgs, who trailed 6-0 after the first quarter, broke through for 28 points in the second. Boise State cut the lead to 28-19 on a 50-yard catch from Austin Jeanty in the third, but the fifth Penix TD pass, and runs from Jalen McMillan and Dillon Johnson put the game away.

EARLY SIGNEES: Last week, UW signed its highest-rated class in program history, as the 25 high school student-athletes who opted to join the Husky program for the 2026 season were collectively ranked as the No. 12 class in the U.S. Here is a list:
