WASHINGTON at PURDUE
Dawgs Head To West Lafayette For Second Straight Friday Game

THE GAME: In a season that has already seen the Washington football team play host to Minnesota for the first time in 50 years, to Iowa for the first time in 63 years, and in one that will see Penn State make its first visit to Seattle in 105 years, the Huskies (3-3 overall, 0-3 Big Ten) will make their first trip to Purdue (3-3, 2-1) in 36 seasons this Friday. The game will be the UW's second straight Friday contest. It kicks off at 8:00 p.m. ET/5:00 p.m. PT in West Lafayette, Ind., and will air on FOX television. Last season, the Huskies and Boilermakers squared off as Big Ten foes for the first time, a 49-13 UW win at Husky Stadium, having last played in the 2002 Sun Bowl. Following this week's Purdue trip, the Huskies will have a week off before returning to the road to face Nebraska on Halloween. UW's next home game is vs. Penn State, for Homecoming, on Saturday, Nov. 7.

QUICK HITTERS: After playing four home games over the course of 21 days (Sept. 6-26) to begin the season, UW will now play just one home game (last Friday vs. Iowa) over a span of 41 days (Sept. 27-Nov. 6) ... following the Iowa game, UW will go 28 days before playing host to Penn State for Homecoming on Nov. 7 ... Husky punter Hunter Green is No. 6 in the FBS and No. 1 in the Big Ten in punting average (47.6 yard per punt, on pace for No. 2 in UW history) ... Green's career average of 45.9 (on 229 career punts) ranks No. 2 among active NCAA Division I (FBS and FCS) punters ... in the 2026 opener, UW held Washington State to no successful third-down conversion attempts, in 11 tries ... the last time a Husky opponent failed to convert a single third-down conversion in a game was in the Huskies' memorable, 16-13 win over USC in 2009 ... UW started four first-year players in the WSU game, three on defense (edge Ramzak Fruean, defensive tackle Derek Colman-Brusa and nickelback Jeron Jones) and one on offense (left tackle Kodi Greene) ... another, RB Brian Bonner Jr., started vs. Utah State ... last season, first-year players (i.e., true freshmen) made 44 starts for the Huskies, who are on pace to break that record once more in 2026 ... UW QB Demond Williams Jr. surpassed 1,000 career rushing yards in the Utah State game, and now has 1,076 ... he's the third UW QB to rush for 1,000 career yards, joining Jake Locker (1,939) and Marques Tuiasosopo (1,495).

TELEVISION: The UW-Purdue game will air on FOX television, with Dan Hellie and Robert Smith on the call. For more info, go to: www.foxsports.com/live.

RADIO: All Washington football games will air on the Washington Sports Network from Learfield, with Elise Woodward (play by play), former Husky tight end Cameron Cleeland (analyst), and Dave Mahler (sidelines) on the call. Radio coverage begins four hours before kickoff on the network's flagship station – Seattle's SportsRadio KJR 93.3 FM – with "Husky Gameday" live from The Zone for Husky home games. Statewide coverage on the 17-station Washington Sports Network begins two hours before kickoff. The entire broadcast is available worldwide on the Go Huskies mobile app and the Varsity app. The UW broadcast of this game will also air on Sirius/XM channel 257.

JEDD FISCH
HEAD COACH
Third Season at UW

Washington coach Jedd Fisch, who enters his third season with the Huskies in 2026, has continued to burnish his reputation as an innovative football mind and highly effective leader during his time in Seattle.

Fisch, who had spent the previous three seasons (2021-23) restoring the football program at the University of Arizona and bringing it to its highest level in decades, accepted the position at UW on Jan. 14, 2024.

After arriving in Seattle, he wasted no time in making his mark on a Husky program that had experienced an unprecedented amount of turnover, leaving Fisch and his staff to quickly re-assemble a team that returned just two starters on defense and none on offense. In his first season, 2024, Fisch's Huskies stretched their home winning streak to 20 games (longest-ever at Husky Stadium) and earned a berth in the Sun Bowl.

In the meantime, Fisch began building for the long term, recruiting some of the top-ranked recruiting classes in history, while also firmly embracing the new realities of college football in the era of the portal, revenue sharing and NIL. And, in spring of 2025, his team complied a cumulative grade point average of 3.27, highest in program history.

In 2025, the program continued to make clear and noteworthy steps forward, finishing the season with a 9-4 overall record and a convincing win over Boise State in the L.A. Bowl. Fisch, who calls the offensive plays, oversaw a team that made huge improvements in key statistical categories on both sides of the ball. The Husky offense, for one example, went from 104 in the nation in scoring offense, to 17th. Washington's red-zone offense improved from No. 104 to No. 7, and from 101st to 10th in third-down conversions. Additionally, Washington's defense also made great strides, finishing the season in the top-15 in the FBS in both rushing and scoring defense, never allowing more than 26 points in any one game in 2025.

Fisch's efficacy as a leader also showed up in other ways as Washington broke its program record for team GPA once again, finishing the fall academic quarter with a cumulative 3.31 grade point average. A total of 43 Huskies earned a place on the Big Ten All-Academic Team, four Huskies were named Academic All-District, and Johan Coleman (who was also a finalist for both the William V. Campbell Trophy and the Paul Horunung Award) earned first-team Academic All-America.

Additionally, Fisch led a staff that proved itself among the country's top recruiters, as the Huskies' class of freshmen ranked No. 13 in the nation, the highest-rated class in UW history.

Fisch, 50, came to Seattle with a long, dynamic history of coaching in college and the NFL.

Fisch's Wildcats went 10-3 in 2023, his last year in Tucson, beating Oklahoma in the Alamo Bowl and finishing No. 11 in the final AP Top 25 poll. The Wildcats outscored opponents, on average, 36.1 to 21.1 over the season, relying on a offense that averaged 448 yards a game.

A total of 12 Wildcat players earned some level of All-Pac-12 honors. Arizona's stingy defense registered 34 sacks and led the conference in the red zone.

He garnered national acclaim in 2023 and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and the Dodd Trophy, presented annually to the nation's top head coach.

Prior to Arizona, Fisch served as the quarterbacks coach with the New England Patriots under Head Coach Bill Belichick. He previously served as an offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach or assistant with the Los Angeles Rams, UCLA, the University of Michigan, Jacksonville Jaguars, the University of Miami, Seattle Seahawks, the University of Minnesota, the Denver Broncos and the Baltimore Ravens, and as a quality control coach with the Houston Texans. He got his start at the collegiate level serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida under Steve Spurrier.

In addition to Belichick and Spurrier, other mentors include Pete Carroll, Brian Billick and Jim Harbaugh.

Fisch is a native of Livingston, N.J. and graduated from the University of Florida with a bachelor's degree in criminology in 1998. He also earned his master's degree, in sports management in Gainesville, in 2000.

Fisch and his wife, Amber, are parents to three daughters: Zaylee, Ashlee and Kendall.

COACHING STAFF: Washington's coaching staff for the 2026 season returns nearly in tact from the previous year, with just one change and one addition. The current season's staff includes seven assistants who came to Seattle from Arizona, where Jedd Fisch was head coach from 2021-23. The two biggest changes were the addition of senior offensive assistant Matt Cavanaugh, a longtime NFL player and coach, and the promotion of JP Losman to quarterbacks coach, The former first-round draft pick out of Tulane was on the Husky staff as a quality control coach in 2025. On offense, the returners are running backs coach Scottie Graham, receivers coach Kevin Cummings, offensive line coach Michael Switzer and tight ends coach Jordan Paopao. Graham has added the role of assistant head coach while Cummings is now also the passing game coordinator. Washington's defensive staff is unchanged from the previous year, led by defensive coordinator Ryan Walters, the former Illinois defensive coordinator and Purdue head coach. The two defensive staff members who came to UW from Arizona are defensive running game coordinator and defensive line coach Jason Kaufusi and secondary coach John Richardson. They are joined by former USC and NFL safety Taylor Mays, a Seattle native who serves as safeties coach, and Brian Odom, a very experienced coach at Big 12, Big Ten and SEC programs, who is the linebackers coach. They both joined the staff prior to the 2025 season. Aaron Van Horn, who served as a quality control assistant in 2024, was promoted to outside linebackers coach ahead of 2025, while the Huskies also welcome back special teams coordinator Chris Petrilli.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS: Washington's football players have continued to perform at the highest academic levels, as the program continues to post impressive cumulative team GPAs. Last school year (2024-25), the UW football team achieved a team grade-point average of 3.31 in both the fall and winter quarters, and then wrapped up the year with a 3.27 in the spring quarter. In the spring quarter, a whopping 31 members of the UW roster earned a place on the Dean's List, and 49 of the players on the 2026 roster were on the Dean's List at least once in 2025-26 (most of them multiple times): Deji Ajose, Xe'ree Alexander, Buddah Al-Uqdah, Aiden Anderson, Dash Beierly, Elijah Brown, Jace Burton, Quaid Carr, D'Aryhian Clemons, Derek Colman-Brusa, Lowen Colman-Brusa, Charlie Crowell, Parker Cross, Decker DeGraaf, Kolt Dieterich, Luke Dunne, Kade Eldridge, Soane Faasolo, Jake Flores, Hunter Green, Kayden Greene, Kodi Greene, Landen Hatchett, Devin Hyde, Justin Hylkema, Ksani Jiles, Jacob Lane, Jayden Limar, Jacob Manu, Kai McClendon, Hunter McKee, Julian McMahan, Bodpegn Miller, John Mills, Ryken Moon, Hayden Moore, Baron Naone, Zaydrius Rainey-Sale, Donovan Robinson, Dylan Robinson, Tyler Robles, Victor Sanchez Hernandez, Champ Taulealea, Sam Vyhlidal, Beck Walker, C.J. Wallace, Isaiah Ward, Jordan Washington, and DeSean Watts.

IN THE CFP ERA: The era of the four-team College Football Playoff is gone, but that 10-season stretch (2014-2023) is instructive in terms of illustrating the teams that operated at the top level of the sport during that timespan, and Washington is one of those teams. Over that 10-year stretch, only 15 different programs earned a berth in the CFP semifinals, and only eight reached the tournament more than once. With two CPF berths in the four-team era (2016 and 2023), Washington is one of those eight, and one of just two programs to reach the four-team CFP under two different head coaches (Oklahoma was the other). Only six teams made more than two appearances: Alabama (8), Clemson (6), Ohio State (5), Oklahoma (4), Georgia (3) and Michigan (3). For what it's worth, six more teams made their CFP debut in the 12-team bracket in 2024, and another five were first-time selections in 2025, but UW still remains one of just 11 teams to have appeared in the CFP more than once, when counting the latest data.

B1G TIME: As has been well documented over the last couple of years, Washington officially joined the Big Ten Conference ahead of the 2024-25 school year, effective on Aug. 2, 2024. The Huskies were joined be fellow former Pac-12 programs Oregon, UCLA and USC in making the move to the B1G, which now includes 18 schools. Washington was one of four founding members of the Pacific Coast Conference (along with Cal, Oregon and Oregon State), and, along with Cal, was one of just two teams that were a part of that league (which changed names to the AAWU, Pac-8, Pac-10 and Pac-12) for the entirety of its full-fledged existence from 1915 through 2026.

CAPTAINS: The following players have been named captains for the 2026 season: Drew Azzopardi, Elinneus Davis, Landen Hatchett, Jacob Manu, Alex McLaughlin, John Mills and Demond Williams Jr. Hatchett and Williams were also captains in 2025. Mills in believed to be the first second-year/sophomore captain in program history.

FUTURE SCHEDULES: In October, 2023, the Big Ten revealed 18 football teams' home and away, conference opponents for the next for the following five seasons (2024-28). Here are the UW's home and road, Big Ten games, for the coming two years:

2027: home – Maryland, Michigan State, Nebraska, Oregon, USC
road – Minnesota, Northwestern, Penn State, Rutgers
2028: home – Michigan, Northwestern, UCLA, Wisconsin
road – Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Ohio State, Oregon

TEAM NOTES

HUSKIES vs. BOILERMAKERS HISTORY: Washington and Purdue have faced one another a total of 11 times, with UW holding an 8-2-1 record vs. the Boilermakers. UW lost the first meeting, in 1961, and tied the next the following season, before winning seven in a row, a stretch that ran through the 2001 Rose Bowl game. Purdue beat the Huskies at the 2002 Sun Bowl, but Washington won the most recent game, last season in Seattle.

The Huskies, fresh from a national championship year in 1960, opened the '61 season at home vs. Purdue, with the visitors winning, 13-6. The Boilers got two Skip Ohl field goals and a 30-yard touchdown run from Dave Miller to take a 13-0 lead, and then held off UW, which managed only a 15-yard TD pass from Bill Siler to Jim Stiger early in the fourth. The following year, also in Seattle in season opener, the game finished in a 7-7 tie. UW's Bob Monroe scored on a two-yard run in the first, and Purdue's Tom Yakubowski scored from two yards out in the second to account for the final score. UW missed two late field-goal attempts that could have broken the tie.

A decade later, UW and Purdue once again met, in 1971 and 1972. In '71, Washington fought to claim a 38-35 victory in a thriller that pitted starting QBs Sonny Sixkiller and Gary Danielson against one another. Sixkiller went 24-for-48 for 387 yards (breaking his own school record for passing yards), with two TDs and three interceptions. Danielson went 11-for-23 for 183 yards, with one score and two picks, but Sixkiller's 33-yard toss to Tom Scott with 2:29 left in the game proved the winner. The following year in West Lafayette, the two quarterbacks squared off once again, and UW won, 22-21, on a field goal with 2:04 to play. Down 21-7, the Huskies scored 15 in the final quarter. Danielson rushed for 213 yards in the loss.

The series was renewed over four consecutive seasons, 1987-1990, with the Huskies winning all four. In 1987, Husky quarterback Chris Chandler passed for 200 yards and three touchdowns in a 21-10 Husky win in Seattle. The following year at Ross-Ade Stadium, Washington out-slugged the Boilermakers in a 20-6 win, despite just 294 yards of total offense.

In 1989, the 15th-ranked Dawgs rolled to a 38-9 win in Seattle, with Cary Conklin passing for 215 yards and three touchdowns. Greg Lewis rushed for 165 yards in the win. The following year back in Indiana, Washington pulled out a 20-14 win, thanks to a fourth-quarter, 35-yard TD pass from Mark Brunell to Orlando McKay, overcoming that had once been a 14-7 Purdue edge. Lewis rushed for 101 yards while Brunell passed for 150 and ran for 76.

It wasn't until the end of the 2000 season when the Huskies and Boilermakers once again squared off on the gridiron, this time in the 2001 Rose Bowl game, which feature another matchup of high-profile QBs: Washington's Marques Tuiasosopo and Purdue's Drew Brees, the MVPs of the Pac-10 and Big Ten Conferences. With injured teammate Curtis Williams watching from the press box less than three months removed from the devasting injury that would eventually take his life, the Huskies took a 14-0 lead on runs from Braxton Cleman and Tuiasosopo, but Purdue cut the lead to 14-10 by half. In the third quarter, the Boilers tied the score at 17-17, but a John Anderson field goal and touchdowns from Willie Hurst and Todd Elstrom gave the Huskies a 34-17 lead. A late Purdue score narrowed the gap. Tuiasosopo was the game's MVP, and the Huskies finished the season 11-1 and No. 3 in the final AP poll.

Two seasons later, the teams once again met in a bowl, this time at the 2002 Sun Bowl in El Paso. Washington took a 17-0 lead in the first quarter, but Purdue stormed back, trailing 17-14 at half. The Boilermakers then outscored the Huskies, 17-0, in the third period and coasted to a 34-24 win, reversing the Rose Bowl score from two years earlier. Kyle Orton passed for 283 yards for Purdue, while Cody Pickett notched 272 for UW.

The series was renewed last season on Nov. 15, 2025, when Washington earned a 49-13 victory in Husky Stadium. UW quarterback Demond Williams Jr. had a very efficient game, completing 16-of-19 for 257 yards and two touchdowns and Jordan Washington rushed for 108 yards on just five carries for the Dawgs.

HUSKY STADIUM: The Oregon game on Nov. 5, 2011, marked the final game in Husky Stadium prior to major renovations that were completed in summer, 2013. The Huskies re-opened their home field with a 38-6 win over then-No. 19 Boise State on Aug. 31, 2013. The 2026 season marks the 106th season of play in Husky Stadium. Original construction on the facility was completed in 1920 when Washington played one game in the new campus facility. UW's all-time record in Husky Stadium stands at 425-189-21 (.686). Washington is 71-20 (.780) in home games since the stadium re-opened in 2013.

Note: Given new NCAA policies regarding five-year, aged-based eligibility, the term "redshirt" (either via injury or participation) no longer applies, generally. Thus, student-athletest are now listed as 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th or 5th-year athletes (rather than freshman, sophomore, etc.), reflecting how many years out of high school each individual is (at UW or any other college). As for "experience" (Exp.), here is a `key: HS - last played in high school; JC - transferred from a junior college this season; TR - transferred from a four-year school this year; 1V, 2V, 3V, 4V - number of varsity letters earned at UW; SQ - has previously been on UW roster, but has not lettered.
