OPENING KICK

- With back-to-back Big Ten wins, Purdue Football looks to keep the train rolling as it welcomes Washington to Ross-Ade Stadium for a Friday night matchup. The primetime kickoff is set for 8 p.m. ET on FOX.
- The Boilermakers are playing their fifth home game through the first seven games of the season, including the second Friday night contest.
- Markus Bailey (2015-19), a four-year starting linebacker who went on to play five seasons in the NFL, will serve as Purdue's honorary captain for Friday's game.
- Purdue is 3-0 this season when allowing less than 20 points. The Boilermakers limited Illinois to 17 points, while keeping Minnesota to 13 points to secure back-to-back victories.
- The Boilermakers' 28-point win over Minnesota was their largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game since beating Indiana 44-7 in the 2021 Battle for the Old Oaken Bucket.
- Purdue's three losses have been to opponents with a combined record of 16-1 and all ranked in the Top 25 (No. 2 Notre Dame: 6-0, No. 12 UCLA: 5-0, No. 21 Wake Forest: 5-1).
- Fame Ijeboi leads the Purdue rushing attack, ranking second in the Big Ten and fifth nationally with nine rushing touchdowns. In the win over Minnesota, he became the fifth rusher in the country to produce a game of at least 195 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns. His 195 rushing yards were the most by a Boilermaker since 2017 and the 15th most all-time.
- The Boilermakers are outscoring opponents 47-27 in the third quarter this season.
- While Purdue ranks fourth in the Big Ten and 19th nationally in passing offense, the Boilermakers racked up 305 rushing yards in the win over Minnesota. It was their highest output on the ground since rushing for 353 yards against Minnesota in 2023.
- Jacobo Echeverria Lozano leads the Big Ten and ranks second in the country with 13 made field goals, the second most by a freshman kicker in program history. He is 13-for-14 on the year with a long of 48 yards.

PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

Fame Ijeboi recorded his second three-touchdown game of the year against Minnesota. He joined Mike Alstott (1995), Jerod Void (2005), and Kory Sheets (2006, 2008) as the only Boilermakers with multiple games with three rushing scores over the last 30 years.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

0

The Boilermakers did not allow a rushing first down in last week's win over Minnesota, the first time a Purdue defense has accomplished this since at least 1995.

1

Ryan Browne is the only Purdue starting quarterback since at least 1995 to throw just one interception through the first six games of a season.

27

The Purdue defense limited Minnesota to 27 rushing yards, the program's fewest rushing yards allowed in a Big Ten game since 2004 (18 - Penn State)

48

Per PFF, Fame Ijeboi (48 - 2026) and Ashton Jeanty (52 - 2024) are the only two FBS running backs with 48+ missed tackles forced in Weeks 1-6 since Bijan Robinson (62) and Kenneth Walker III (58) did so in 2021.

ABOUT THE SERIES

- Washington and Purdue will face off for the 12th time, the Boilermakers' second Friday night game of the season.
- It will be the Huskies' first time coming to West Lafayette as members of the Big Ten Conference and their first trip to Purdue since Sept. 15, 1990.
- Washington leads the all-time series 8-2-1. Purdue won the first meeting, 13-6, on Sept. 23, 1961, in Seattle.
- Prior to last season's loss in Seattle, Purdue had not faced Washington since the Sun Bowl on Dec. 31, 2002, a 34-24 Purdue win in El Paso.
- Drew Brees' Boilers faced Washington in the 2001 Rose Bowl.

OUR LAST MEETING

WASHINGTON 49, PURDUE 13
NOV. 15, 2025 - SEATTLE, WASH.

- Purdue concluded its 2025 road schedule with a 49-13 loss at Washington, its first time facing UW as co-members of the Big Ten Conference.
- Quarterback Malachi Singleton completed 16-of-28 passes for 150 yards and a touchdown, finding EJ Horton Jr. for a nine-yard score in the fourth quarter.
- Kicker Spencer Porath converted field goals from 53 and 41 yards, with his 53-yarder tied for the third longest field goal in Purdue history.
- Horton scored his first touchdown as a Boilermaker on a nine-yard reception from Singleton.
- Purdue's defense forced a turnover on Washington's opening drive and extended its streak to six consecutive games with a takeaway.
- Mani Powell led the Boilermaker defense with nine tackles.

BOILER NOTES

YEAR 2 OF THE ODOM ERA

- Head coach Barry Odom is in his second season at the helm in West Lafayette in 2026.
- With an established culture and a deliberate approach in the transfer portal, the Boilermakers look to take a big step in 2026.
- Odom worked through a significant roster overhaul last season that featured 82 newcomers, including a nation-leading 54 transfers. Forty-six players joined the roster after spring practice concluded.
- Guiding one of the greatest resurgences in college football in 2023 and 2024 at UNLV, Barry Odom was named the new head football coach of the Purdue Boilermakers on December 8, 2024.
- Odom, 49, is the 38th head coach in the history of Purdue Football, coming to West Lafayette following what could be considered the most impressive gridiron campaign in UNLV's school history. The Rebels reached double-digit wins for only the third time in program history (1974, 1984), with both previous seasons predating the program's move up to Division I competition and the Mountain West Conference, respectively.
- Odom has a defensive background. A linebacker during his playing days at Missouri (1996-99), he has racked up seven seasons as a defensive coordinator over three stops: Memphis (2012-14), Missouri (2015) and Arkansas (2020-22).

HONORARY CAPTAIN

- Markus Bailey (2015-19), a four-year starting linebacker for the Boilermakers before spending five seasons in the NFL, will serve as Purdue's honorary captain for Friday night's matchup.
- Bailey recorded 327 tackles throughout his Purdue career, ranking 14th in program history. His 229 solo tackles rank 11th all-time.
- He was drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals in the seventh round of the 2020 NFL Draft, spending four seasons with the team and helping them reach Super Bowl LVI.
- Bailey played for the Arizona Cardinals during the 2024 campaign, his final season in the NFL.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

- In 139 seasons of Purdue Football, the Boilermakers have played on Fridays 17 times throughout history, recording a 6-10-1 record. Ten of those games have been night games and only five have been in Ross-Ade Stadium.
- Purdue kicked off this season with a Friday night victory over Indiana State, 44-19. The on-field temperature reached 93 degrees, with a real feel of 103, the hottest recorded night game at Ross-Ade Stadium this century.
- The 2026 campaign marks the second time in the past three years that the Boilermakers have played two Friday games in a season.

BACK-2-BACK B1G WINS

- Purdue improved to 2-1 in Big Ten play with back-to-back victories over Illinois (24-17) and Minnesota (41-13), thanks to strong play on both sides of the ball.
- Averaging more than 400 yards of total offense, the Boilermakers proved they can win with both the passing game and the ground game. Ryan Browne's arm led the way in Purdue's win at Illinois, while the Boilermakers racked up 305 rushing yards in the victory over Minnesota.
- Defensively, Purdue limited the B1G foes to 15 points per game. Both quarterbacks were held to less than 250 passing yards, completing only 57 percent of their throws. The run defense surrendered just 147 yards.
- Purdue ran for 305 rushing yards compared to Minnesota's 27. The 278-yard margin is the largest by Purdue since 2014 at Illinois. It is also the third-largest margin between two power conference schools this year.

A DOMINANT VICTORY

- Purdue dominated all three phases of the game in the 41-13 win over Minnesota, the Boilermakers' largest margin of victory since beating Indiana 44-7 for the Old Oaken Bucket in 2021.
- The Purdue defense limited the Golden Gophers to only 27 rushing yards, the fewest rushing yards allowed by the Boilermakers in a Big Ten game since 2004 (18 - Penn State).
- Minnesota converted just 10 first downs in the game, the fewest allowed by a Purdue defense since 2017 against Rutgers. The Gophers did not convert a single rushing first down, the first time a Purdue defense has accomplished this since at least 1995. It was just the fourth time since 1995 that a Big Ten team held another Big Ten team to 10 or fewer first down conversions with 0 rushing first down conversions.
- Offensively, the Boilermakers ran for 305 yards for their highest rushing output since recording 353 rushing yards in the 2023 victory over Minnesota. On the second drive of the game, Purdue put together a season-long 98-yard scoring drive that took nearly eight minutes off the clock; it was the team's second scoring drive of at least 95 yards this season (95 at UCLA).
- For special teams, Jacobo Echeverria Lozano was perfect, connecting on field goals from 45 yards and 28 yards while making all five PATs. The kickoff coverage unit forced Minnesota to start drives on the nine and 14-yard lines off of kickoffs in the first half, and in the fourth quarter, the Boilermakers forced a muffed punt.

JOJO'S MOJO

- In his first season as a Boilermaker, junior linebacker Jojo Hayden has become one of the leaders of the defense.
- He paces Purdue in tackles (40) and has been the team's leading tackler in the last two games, both Boilermaker victories.
- Against Minnesota, Hayden tallied a team-high seven tackles and also hauled in his first career interception.
- Hayden's 91.2 run defense grade ranked seventh in the FBS and his 85.1 defensive grade was 21st overall in the FBS in Week 6, both career highs.

BOILER NOTES

THE FAME GAME

- Going up against his former team, Fame Ijeboi produced the best game of his career and delivered a historical performance.
- The sophomore running back had career highs in carries (31), rushing yards (195) and rushing touchdowns (3), racking up the most rushing yards by a Boilermaker since Markell Jones in 2017 (217 vs. Indiana) and the 15th-most all-time.
- According to PFF, he forced 18 missed tackles, the most missed tackles forced in a game since Ashton Jeanty (Boise State) versus San Diego State in 2024 and the most in a Big Ten game since Blake Corum (Michigan) had 24 versus Michigan State in 2022.
- Ijeboi became just the fourth Boilermaker since 1995 to record at least 195 rushing yards and three touchdowns in a game, the first since Montrell Lowe in 2000 (208 rushing yards, 4 TDs vs. Indiana).

195 Rush Yards, 3 TDs in Last 30 Years at Purdue

Player	Opponent (Date)	Yards	TDs

EASLEY'S MONEY IN PASS PRO

- After not starting the first two weeks of the season, Marques Easley took over in game three against UCLA and has produced one of the best pass blocking campaigns nationally this season.
- Easley's 87.3 pass blocking grade ranks sixth by a Power Four offensive lineman (minimum 100 pass blocking snaps) since he took over as Purdue's starting left guard in Week 3, according to PFF.
- In 154 pass blocking snaps this season, he owns a 99.5 percent pass blocking efficiency that ranks tied for 16th by a Power Four offensive lineman and seventh by a Power Four guard (minimum 150 pass blocking snaps).
- Expanding to the entire FBS, Easley's efficiency ranks 28th among offensive lineman and 12th among guards.
- He has allowed just one quarterback pressure and one hurry.

HE'S YA BOY, IJEBOI

- Fame Ijeboi has made an immediate impact for Purdue after transferring from Minnesota, becoming one of the leaders on the offensive side of the ball.
- With 549 rushing yards and nine touchdowns on the year, he ranks second in the Big Ten and ranks fifth nationally in rushing touchdowns.
- He is one rushing TD away from becoming the 22nd Boilermaker to record double-digit rushing touchdowns in a season. He has a pair of three-touchdown games this season, the first Boilermaker to accomplish the feat since Kory Sheets in 2008.
- Ijeboi had the best game of his career against his former team, running for 195 yards and three scores to lead Purdue to a 28-point win over Minnesota. It was the 15th-best rushing game in terms of yardage in program history as well as the most by a Boilermaker since 2017. He became the second Boilermaker this century to total at least 195 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns in a single game.
- Against Wake Forest, Ijeboi finished with 114 rushing yards on 27 carries and three touchdowns. Ijeboi also added six receptions for 42 yards. Finding the end zone three times, he became the first Boilermaker with three rushing touchdowns in a game since D.J. Knox helped Purdue knock off No. 2 Ohio State in the famous Tyler Trent Game (Oct. 20, 2018).
- In his first game as a Boilermaker, Ijeboi racked up 87 yards and a touchdown while averaging a staggering 7.9 yards per carry to help Purdue roll past Indiana State.

O-LINE PROTECTING QB1

- The offensive line, which changed configurations after Week 2 and again after Week 4, has found a new groove over the past two weeks.
- Purdue's pass blocking has not allowed a sack in back-to-back games for the first time since playing Minnesota (Nov. 20) and Rutgers (Nov. 28) in 2020.
- According to PFF, Marques Easley and Micah Banuelos tied for the team lead with an 85.3 pass-blocking grade against Minnesota.
- Banuelos has now topped 85.0 in pass blocking in three of the last four games, while Easley has topped 80.0 in three of the last four.
- Nuku Mafi added an 81.3 in pass protection for his highest grade as a Boilermaker and the second-highest of his career.

B1G TIME PASSER

- Ryan Browne has been one of the best quarterbacks in college football, ranking in the Top 25 in passing yards (14th-1,549), completions (25th-20.7 per game) and completion percentage (24th-68.9%).
- He is just one of two quarterbacks in the nation (Lincoln Kienholz - Louisville) with at least 1,500 yards passing, a completion percentage over 68 percent and one or fewer interceptions this season.
- Throwing only one interception on the year, Browne is the only Purdue starting quarterback over the past 30 years to toss just one or fewer interceptions through the first six games of a season.
- Surpassing 300 passing yards in each of the first three contests, Browne joined Jim Everett (1985, twice), Drew Brees (1998, 1999), Kyle Orton (2004), Curtis Painter (2007), David Blough (2018) and Aidan O'Connell (2021, 2022) as the only Purdue quarterbacks to throw for 300 yards in three straight games.
- Browne has six 300-yard passing games for his career, tied with Scott Campbell (1980-83) for eighth on the all-time charts.

WASEEM DOWN THE SEAM

- One of the newest Purdue wide receivers, FAU transfer Asaad Waseem has made an immediate impact in the passing game.
- He was named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List after the win over Illinois.
- Waseem leads the Boilermakers with 472 receiving yards, which includes a pair of 100-yard receiving games and a 98-yard output against Illinois. His 32.7 yards per reception at Illinois was the highest by a Boilermaker with at least three catches in a Big Ten game since Charlie Jones averaged 35.8 on four receptions on Nov. 26, 2022 at Indiana.
- Waseem is the eighth Boilermaker in the last 10 years to average 17 yards per catch (min. 3 rec.) in three different games in a season.
- In his Boilermaker debut, Waseem hauled in six receptions for 107 yards and one touchdown, the first time a Boilermaker produced a 100-yard receiving game in his debut since All-American Charlie Jones accomplished the feat in 2022.

TOMMY McCLELLAND

VICE PRESIDENT - DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS
Age: 44 Years Old
Alma Mater: Northwestern State '04
Wife: Jessica
Sons: Lawson and Grayson

Tommy McClelland was introduced as the new vice president and director of Intercollegiate Athletics on Aug. 6. An experienced leader with nearly 20 years serving as an athletic director, McClelland has embraced the ever-changing landscape of college athletics through multimillion-dollar fundraising efforts.

After starting his career in various roles at Northwestern State and the Southland Conference, McClelland was named the athletic director at McNeese State at 26 years old, the youngest in the nation. He served in Lake Charles from 2007-13, before taking on the same role at Louisiana Tech from 2013-20. He was the deputy athletics director at Vanderbilt from 2020-23 prior to his three-year stint at Rice (2023-26)

McClelland will serve at the helm of a Purdue Athletics department that is home to a proud history of leadership, with just four previous athletics directors over the past eight decades: Mike Bobinski (2016-26), Morgan Burke (1993-2016), George King Jr. (1971-92) and Guy "Red" Mackey (1942-71).

BOILER NOTES

DYNAMIC DUO

- Transfers Asaad Waseem and Xavier Townsend lead the Purdue receivers with 29 catches apiece.
- The duo has combined for 787 yards Waseem paces the team with 472 yards, while Townsend is right behind his teammate with 315 yards.
- In the Big Ten opener at UCLA, Waseem and Townsend both had big nights. Townsend caught six passes for a career-high 162 yards and two scores. Waseem hauled in eight passes for a career-best 149 yards on the night. It marked the first time since Purdue played Northwestern at Wrigley Field in 2021 that the Boilermakers had two players with 100 yards receiving.
- Townsend became the first Boilermaker with multiple receiving scores since Deion Burks in 2023 against Fresno State. His 162 yards receiving were the most by a Boilermaker since Charlie Jones posted the same tally against Michigan in the 2022 Big Ten Championship Game.

CORREA IN COVERAGE

- While he's one of Purdue's leading tacklers, linebacker Charles Correa has also shown his ability to defend the opponent's passing game with seven passes defended (6 breakups and 1 interception).
- Correa ranks 11th in the country with six pass breakups on the season, two more than any other linebacker in the country.
- Against No. 3 Notre Dame, Correa hauled in his first career interception by picking off CJ Carr. The INT snapped Carr's streak of passes without a pick at 133 attempts.

THE KID CAN KICK

- True freshman Jacobo Echeverria Lozano has been a reliable weapon this season, going 13-of-14 on field goal opportunities, including three makes in three separate games. He ranks second nationally and first in the Big Ten in made field goals
- He already ranks second for most made kicks by a freshman in Purdue history.
- His lone miss was a 49-yard attempt against Wake Forest.
- Echeverria Lozano has made three field goals in three games this season, the second most by a Boilermaker kicker in the last 25 seasons. He is one behind Mitchell Fineran from the 2021 campaign for the most.
- He was named Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week after converting a trio of kicks in the win over Illinois.
- He connected on a career-long 48-yard field goal against Notre Dame for the longest field goal by a true freshman since Carson Wiggs hit a then-school-record 53-yarder at Ohio State on Oct. 11, 2008.
- Against Wake Forest, the rookie connected on a trio of field goals, including the game-tying effort as the fourth quarter expired to force overtime.
- He wasted little time putting his highly ranked right leg to use in week one against Indiana State, splitting the uprights a trio of times from 39, 27 and 25 yards for the most kicks in a game by a freshman at Purdue going back to 1995.

CANNON TROPHY RETURNS HOME

- Thanks to a gritty performance on both sides of the ball, Purdue earned a hard-fought 24-17 win at rival Illinois to regain possession of the Cannon Trophy.
- The Boilermakers held Illinois, who entered the contest averaging 34.0 points per game, to a season-low 17 points and 2-for-4 in red zone opportunities. Meanwhile, the Purdue offense was a perfect 4-for-4 in the red zone.
- Purdue beat Illinois for the eighth time in the past 11 matchups to improve to 1-1 in Big Ten play.
- Asaad Waseem caught three passes for a team-high 98 yards. Chauncey Magwood added four catches for 54 yards, including a 31-yard reception to set Purdue up at the 1-yard line in the fourth quarter as the Boilermakers led 16-10 with under five minutes to go.

TOUCHDOWN HARRIS, TOUCHDOWN HARRIS

- Antonio Harris and Tra'Mar Harris both found the end zone to help Purdue knock off Illinois and bring the Cannon Trophy back to West Lafayette.
- Midway through the second quarter, Tra'Mar Harris made a spectacular back shoulder grab for 19 yards. Six plays later, Ryan Browne found Harris for a 21-yard strike in the end zone, marking their second scoring connection of the season.
- Antonio Harris provided a key fourth quarter touchdown to put the Boilermakers up by two scores. His 1-yard rush out of the wildcat formation gave Purdue a 24-10 lead with less than five minutes remaining.

PROTECTION ON POINT IN CHAMPAIGN

- Purdue's offensive line allowed zero sacks and zero quarterback hits, according to PFF, in a victory that brought the Cannon Trophy back to West Lafayette.
- Marques Easley led the group with an 85.6 pass blocking grade. He graded as the 12th-best Power Four guard in pass protection during Week 5 (minimum 25 pass blocking snaps).
- Easley's pass blocking performance comes after he recorded an 80.1 grade against Notre Dame and 82.3 against UCLA. His 80.0 season grade is ninth by a Big Ten guard with at least 125 pass blocking snaps.
- Boaz Stanley graded at 83.2 in pass blocking for his highest rating at the Power Four level. He topped the rating once at Troy in 2024 when he graded at 86.8 against Louisiana-Lafayette.
- True freshman Rico Schrieber made his first collegiate start at right tackle to help blank Illinois' pass rush.

SPREADING THE BALL AROUND

- With one of the best completion percentages in the country, quarterback Ryan Browne has been effective in getting the ball to a variety of Boilermakers.
- Through the first six games of the season, 17 Boilermakers have caught a pass (9 wide receivers, 4 running backs, 4 tight ends).
- Against Wake Forest, four different Boilermakers recorded five or more receptions (Xavier Townsend, Chauncey Magwood, Asaad Waseem, Fame Ijeboi), marking the first time since Sept. 17, 2022 at Syracuse that four different players recorded five or more receptions in a game.

CLIMBING THE CAREER CHARTS

- In his second full year as Purdue's starting quarterback, Ryan Browne has started climbing the career charts for Boilermaker signal callers.

BOILER NOTES

GOING FOR TWO

- The Boilermakers converted a two-point conversion in the win over Illinois when Ryan Browne took a quarterback draw to the end zone late in the fourth to put the game away.
- It was Purdue's first converted two-point conversion since the 2024 Cannon Trophy Game at Illinois.
- Purdue is 71-for-177 on 2-point conversions dating back to 1958.

WHAT CAN BROWNE DO FOR YOU

- Ryan Browne opened his 2026 campaign with back-to-back-to-back 300-yard performances, capped with a career-high 378-yard outing at UCLA.
- He matched the school record for consecutive 300-yard game outings. Browne and Jim Everett are the only Boilermaker quarterbacks to do it in the first three games of a season.
- He now has six career 300-yard outings, moving him into a tie for eighth on Purdue's all-time chart with Scott Campbell (1980-83).
- He crossed the 4,000-yard plateau for his career with a 255-yard night at Illinois in the Cannon Trophy Game.
- Browne's 20 career starts as a Purdue signal caller already have him 17th in program history since 1960.
- He is the first Purdue passer to throw for 300 yards in back-to-back-to-back weeks since Aidan O'Connell in 2022.
- Starting all 12 games in 2025, Browne became the first Boilermaker signal caller to start every game of a season since David Blough in 2016.
- Browne served as a backup for the Boilermakers in 2024, making one start, before spending the spring semester under Bill Belichick at North Carolina. He transferred back to Purdue during the spring portal window in 2025.
- Browne was also an instructor at the annual Manning Passing Academy and has spoken on the guidance Peyton Manning has given him this offseason.

ROOKIES ON THE LINE

- Two true freshmen have started on the offensive line for the Boilermakers this season, a first in program history.
- Brock Brownfield became the first true freshman to start a season opener in Purdue history, while Rico Schrieber joined the line for the first time in the win over Illinois.
- Since freshmen were deemed eligible in 1972, nine true freshmen have earned at least one start on the line, topped by Ken Plue's six in 2008.

DYLAN'S DYNAMITE LEG

- Thanks to Dylan Drennan's leg and solid coverage, the Boilermakers rank third in the Big Ten and 16th nationally in net punt at 43.9 yards.
- For the year, Drennan has punted 17 times for a 47.6-yard average, just under Travis Dorsch's single-season Purdue record of 48.1 from the 2001 season.
- He posted one of the best punting performances in program history vs. Notre Dame with six punts for a 52.2-yard average, the second-longest mark in school history, behind Cody Webster's 56-yard clip in the 2010 Old Oaken Bucket Game.
- Drennan was named to the Ray Guy Award Ray's 8 for Week 4.
- Early in the fourth quarter, the righty launched a 78-yard punt, with 60 yards through the air, that rolled into the end zone. It was the fifth-longest punt by a Boilermaker in school history and just the third of 78 yards or more over the last 50 years at Purdue.
- It marked Drennan's second career 70-yard boot after a 76-yarder against Eastern Michigan last season when he played at Buffalo.
- Drennan also serves as the holder for the field goal unit that is 11-of-12 on the year on field goals and 15-of-15 on PATs.

BOILER NOTES

IN THE BOILER ROOM

- This season, the Boilermakers debuted a documentary series called "Boiler Room: Purdue Football All-Access" that takes fans inside the program during fall camp.
- Made in partnership with the Purdue for Life Foundation, the series provides a behind-the-scenes look of Purdue Football complete with interviews, mic'd up features and plenty of highlights.
- The series debuted on Aug. 26 on the Purdue Athletics YouTube page centering on the first few weeks of camp. The second episode will highlight what game prep is like within the program, while the third will show a game day at Ross-Ade Stadium.

CRADLE OF QUARTERBACKS

- The Cradle of Quarterbacks has evolved over the last 70 years as a defining feature of Purdue Football. Boilermakers have set numerous NCAA and Big Ten Conference records, many have been chosen as All-Americans and national award winners or finalists.

- Fifteen former Purdue signal-callers have gone on to play in the National Football League. Drew Brees, Len Dawson and Bob Griese combined to win four Super Bowls. Purdue is one of just two universities that can claim three Super Bowl champs at the position. (Alabama)

- The reference to Cradle of Quarterbacks was added in the late 1970s when the poster was updated to include Mark Herrmann.

DEN OF DEFENSIVE ENDS

- Throughout its history, Purdue has produced many outstanding defensive ends, creating an institution unlike any other in college football - The Den of Defensive Ends.

- The tradition of The Den of Defensive Ends dates to the days of Leo Sugar and Lamar Lundy from the late 1940s to the mid-1950s and Keena Turner in the late 1970s, but it has flourished more recently. While Purdue's high-powered offense has made headlines under head coaches like Joe Tiller and Jeff Brohm, the Boilermakers' defense made a name for itself principally for the play of its ends.

Player	Years at Purdue	Accolades
Cliff Avril	2004-07	All-Big Ten
Akin Ayodele	1999-01	3x All-Big Ten
Rosevelt Colvin	1995-98	2x All-Big Ten*
Ray Edwards	2003-05	16 sacks at Purdue

DON'S ISLAND

- Don Saunders was a bright spot for the Purdue defense against No. 3 Notre Dame when he was targeted just one time, on the first drive, in 19 coverage snaps and broke up the pass.
- The performance against the Irish graded Saunders at 81.4 coverage and 80.5 defensively overall by PFF.
- His coverage grade is the best against Notre Dame this season, 5.5 higher than Michigan State's Jordan Hall.
- Saunders was the sixth-highest graded Big Ten player in a highly competitive week.
- He has twice graded higher than 80.0 overall and in pass coverage through his first four games as a Boilermaker.

LEADER ON AND OFF THE FIELD

- Junior defensive back Hudauri Hines has been named to the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year Watch List. The award is the first college football honor to focus primarily on a player's leadership, both on and off the field.
- In his third year as a Boilermaker, Hines has emerged as a team leader on and off the field. Prior to the start of the 2026 season, he was elected a captain by his teammates.
- As a sophomore last year, the Indianapolis native played in all 12 games and made 11 starts. He led Purdue in passes defended (9), while also adding 33 tackles, 1.5 tackles-for-loss and one interception.
- Off the field, Hines has been active in the community by visiting the local Boys and Girls Club. He has also made trips to local elementary schools, reading books to students and answering their questions as a role model.
- This past summer, Hines represented Purdue on the Big Ten Conference's trip to the Pacific Northwest, joining several student-athletes throughout the rest of the league, as part of the Big Life Series. The program was designed to deepen participants' understanding of the region's rich history, culture and communities through an immersive educational experience that they can take back to campus and share what they learned.

HAWAIIAN HOSPITALITY

- Charles Correa has embraced his new role as the heart of the Boilermaker defense after arriving in West Lafayette a year ago alongside Coach Odom from UNLV. He was named a team captain ahead of the season.
- Correa is second on the team with 38 tackles on the year, after posting a 12-stop outing against Wake Forest. It was his sixth double-digit performance as a Boilermaker, tied for ninth most at Purdue over the last 22 seasons.
- Correa posted 96 tackles, a team-high 7.5 for-loss, 3.0 sacks and two passes defended to earn All-Big Ten honorable mention from the coaches and media.
- His 73 stops in Big Ten action ranked eighth in the league.
- Correa reached double digits in tackles in five games throughout his first season as a Boilermaker, tying for third most at Purdue since 1995.
- Representing Purdue at the 2026 Big Ten Football Media Days, Correa displayed his typical Hawaiian hospitality by giving each media station a gift of chocolate-covered macadamia nuts from his home island.
- Correa's family are mainstays at every football game with an average of 10 or more attendees at home and away contests.

BOILER NOTES

BROWNE'S B1G NIGHT

- In the first B1G game of the season, quarterback Ryan Browne had one of his best games as a Boilermaker, shining in the Rose Bowl just like former Purdue quarterbacks Bob Griese and Drew Brees.
- He threw for a career-high 378 yards with three touchdowns, surpassing 300-yards passing for the third consecutive game. His 378 yards tied Oregon's Dante Moore (vs. Boise State) for the most passing yards by a Big Ten quarterback this season.
- Browne finished with 21.3 yards per completion, good for the fourth-highest mark at Purdue since at least 1995.
- He became the eighth quarterback to average 20 yards or better in a game during that time span.

THE PURDUE WAY

- Head coach Barry Odom's programs have always been defined by a dedication to the team over the individual.
- Asked during his introductory press conference what the core principles of his program would be, Odom responded with the foundation of his career: hard, smart and tough. Playing football that way helped Odom's teams succeed in all three phases of the game.
- During the offseason, he introduced doing things "The Purdue Way", a team-first identity that embraces hard work and discomfort, trusting and following the plan and above all else, choosing the team over yourself.
- Throughout the summer, the culture set in. Of the 118 players who participated in the countless workouts, there was only one missed workout due to a canceled flight.
- Below are the 20 core principles of "The Purdue Way":

1. Toughness	11. Enthusiasm
2. Commitment	12. Competitive Spirit
3. Unselfishness	13. Habits
4. Trust	14. Belief
5. Growth	15. Hard / Smart / Tough
6. Accountability	16. Preparation
7. Responsibility	17. Consistency
8. Self-Discipline	18. Leadership
9. Effort	19. Team - BOTTOM LINE
10. Be Coachable	20. Attitude / No Excuses

PUNTERS ARE PASSERS TOO

- Special teams coordinator James Shibest reached into his bag of tricks against UCLA to give Purdue a spark.
- Down 10 midway through the third, Purdue set up to punt on a 4th-and-8 from its 45-yard line. Punter Dylan Drennan threw a pass to running back Antonio Harris, who carried it to the 8-yard line, for a 47-yard pass.
- It was the first fake punt for Purdue since Jack McCallister carried the ball 10 yards for a first down at Notre Dame in 2025.
- It was the longest pass by a Boilermaker punter in the last 30 years and the first since Joe Schopper threw a 22-yard strike in the 2017 Old Oaken Bucket Game.

Top-5 Longest Passes by a Big Ten Punter Since 1995

PRO FOOTBALL FOCUSED ON FAME

- Fame Ijeboi was explosive, powerful and shifty in his first two games as a Boilermaker and has caught the eye of Pro Football Focus (PFF) evaluators.
- The sophomore's 91.3 rushing grade was second in the country among players with at least 20 rushing attempts and trails only Florida's Jadan Baugh (93.9). His grade is 8.2 higher than any other Big Ten player with at least 20 rushing attempts.
- Ijeboi's ability to make players miss tackles is evident with the eye test and proven with his 19 missed tackles forced that ranked third in the country and is six more than anyone in the Big Ten over the opening two weeks of the year.
- His 91.3 rating was the highest by a Boilermaker through the first two games of a season since Rondale Moore graded at 82.5 in 2018 when he rushed four times for 128 yards.

HOT OPENER

- Friday night's season opener was a scorcher, as the temperature reached 93 degrees at kickoff.
- The 93-degree kickoff temperature made it Purdue's warmest night game this century.
- Factoring in humidity, the RealFeel temperature cracked triple digits at 103 degrees.

MADDEN GIVES BACK

- For the second straight year, defensive lineman CJ Madden dedicated his time off the field to the Hanna Center in Lafayette.
- Since its founding in 1923, the Hanna Center provides support to youth and senior citizens in the Greater Lafayette area by creating an "inclusive community where every individual – especially those from underserved backgrounds– is empowered to succeed."
- Madden has provided financial support and makes frequent trips to spend time with its members. During his time in West Lafayette, Madden has become a role model for kids at the Hanna Center.
- For his efforts, Madden was named to the AFCA Good Works Team and the Allstate Wuerffel Trophy Watch Lists.

UNCLE BOAZ

- Center Boaz Stanley started the first two games of the year commanding the offensive line.
- He joined the Boilermakers after playing 25 games over the last three seasons at Troy and South Carolina, including 21 starts.
- While having the most FBS experience among the linemen, his life off the field has made him the "old man" of the room.
- Stanley has been married to his wife, Payden, for over two years. On March 1, 2026, two days before the start of spring practices, they welcomed Charlotte "Lottie" Stanley into the world.
- Affectionately called "Uncle Boaz" by the offensive line, Stanley is called upon to deliver words of wisdom to the offensive line daily.
- Boaz's name comes from the Book of Ruth from the Bible.

ALL-AMERICAN MARCHING BAND

Established in 1886, one year before the first football team at Purdue, the Purdue "All-American" Marching Band is an icon of the university, featuring over 125 years of tradition.

This world-renowned band performs at each home football game and travels to concerts and festivals around the world, including China, Ireland, and Colombia.

In 1921, Paul 'Spotts' Emrick decided that the "All-American" Marching Band needed something to set them apart from other bands. This sparked the idea to create the World's Largest Drum.

The shell of the Drum consists of three layers of maple wood pressed together in the same style as a traditional bass drum, weighing 565 pounds with its attached carriage.

Ross-Ade Stadium's elite playing surface throughout the season is possible thanks to the dedication of the Purdue Athletics Turf Management Ross-Ade Stadium Crew led by Sports Turf Crew Chief Brian Bornino and assisted by Brett Shoults, Steve Vonderheide, Nick Lievense, Jan Osting, Bill Foutch and 15 turf management students.

ROSS-ADE STADIUM HISTORY

• Ross-Ade Stadium was dedicated Nov. 22, 1924, ahead of its first game when Purdue hosted Indiana. The Boilermakers demolished their in-state foes in a 26-7 rout.

• The two men for whom the stadium is named, David E. Ross and George Ade, were instrumental in building a stadium that has served as the backdrop to Purdue lore over the last 102 seasons. Ross conceived of the idea for a new stadium to replace Stuart Field, a 5,000-seat stadium that hosted Purdue Football from 1892 to 1924 and was located where the Elliott Hall of Music stands today.

• The original capacity for Ross-Ade Stadium in 1924 was 18,500, including standing room tickets. Over the years and several renovations, the capacity grew to its largest at 69,200 in 1970.

• The largest crowd ever to see a game at Ross-Ade is 71,629 against Indiana on Nov. 22, 1980, when Purdue outlasted the Hoosiers, 24-23, on the shoulders of consensus All-Americans quarterback (and current John Purdue Club Director of Leadership and Alumni Engagement) Mark Herrmann and tight end Dave Young.

• Additional upgrades to the stadium included a new press box, luxury boxes and premium club areas in 2003 as a part of a $70 million project. Permanent lighting was installed in 2017 and a new sound system in 2018.

• The Tyler Trent (T^2) Student Gate was dedicated during the 2019 season in memory of Purdue superfan Tyler Trent who passed away at the age of 20 from osteosarcoma. The T^2 Gate was relocated to the south side of the stadium after the 2023 student section renovations were completed.

THE VICTORY BELL IS BACK

- Returning to Ross-Ade Stadium after a hiatus, the Purdue Victory Bell will sound again this year in West Lafayette.
- Originally purchased in 1877 to signal the start of classes and chapel, the Bell started its tradition of celebrating Purdue football victories in 1904 when the Boilermakers blanked rival Indiana 27-0 at Washington Park in Indianapolis, the original home of the Indianapolis Indians.
- The Bell was affixed to a four-wheel cart that would be towed to Ross-Ade Stadium for game days, and in addition to celebrating Purdue football victories, the Victory Bell was rung for Armistice Day in 1918, in 1945 for V-E and V-J days.
- The Bell will now reside over the entrance of Tiller Tunnel on a permanent structure overlooking the field.

TILLER TUNNEL

• The Boilermakers run onto Rohrman Field at Ross-Ade Stadium via the Tiller Tunnel. Completed in 2023, the tunnel provides direct access to the team back to the Kozuch Football Performance Center.

• The tunnel is named in honor of the Purdue Hall of Fame inductee Joe Tiller, the winningest coach in the history of Purdue Football. Tiller left an incredible legacy on the program and Boilermakers everywhere. The result was 10 bowl games, including the 2001 Rose Bowl, and a Big Ten Conference championship in 2000.

THE MEMORIAL TUNNEL

• Purdue was slated to face in-state foe Indiana in 1903 at a neutral site for the first time at Washington Park in Indianapolis.

• Purdue reserved two special charter trains in order to carry the football team and over 1,500 supporters to the state capital.

• Around 10 a.m. on Oct. 31, 1903, the lead special charter train carrying the team, members of the band and other university administrators collided with a northbound coal train. Seventeen people were killed, including 14 members of the football team.

• Purdue dedicated the southeast tunnel of Ross-Ade Stadium to the victims of the tragedy in 2003 to mark the centennial of the wreck. Memorial Gymnasium, now Felix Haas Hall housing the Department of Computer Science, was dedicated to the victims in 1909. It has 17 steps at the entrance, one for each victim.

AMERICA250 FLAGPOLE

• In the spring of 2026, Purdue installed a 160-foot-tall flagpole to fly a 30-by-50-foot American flag.

• In the spirit of America250, Purdue is celebrating the nation's semiquincentennial throughout 2026 by spotlighting innovative pursuits by Boilermakers past and present while preparing students for future innovative endeavors for the greater good of the nation.

HEAD COACH BARRY ODOM

Barry Odom is in his second season as the 38th head coach of Purdue Football.

Entering the 2026 campaign, Odom and his staff brought in a portal class that ranked Top 25 nationally and fourth in the Big Ten Conference.

In his first season in West Lafayette, Odom coached seven Boilermakers that earned all-conference accolades. That included Third Team All-Big Ten linebacker Mani Powell, who joined Odom from UNLV and became the first Boilermaker in history to lead the B1G in tackling in conference games. Placing an emphasis on special teams, punter Jack McCallister earned second team honors with the sixth-best single-season punting average in school history (43.2), while kicker Spencer Porath (Honorable Mention) set a new single-season program record for field goal percentage (88.2%) by making 15 of his 17 attempts.

Odom became the 38th head coach in program history on December 8, 2024, coming to West Lafayette following what could be considered the most impressive gridiron campaign in UNLV's school history. The Rebels reached double-digit wins for only the third time in program history (1974, 1984), with both previous seasons predating the program's move up to Division I competition and the Mountain West Conference, respectively. National recognition has followed, as the Rebels achieved a program-best No. 19 ranking in both the AP and Coaches polls, as well as their first-ever CFP ranking.

Odom has compiled an impressive list of accomplishments throughout his coaching career, which includes stints as a head coach in both the Southeastern Conference with Missouri (2016-19) and the Mountain West Conference with the Rebels (2023-24). UNLV totaled 19 wins during Odom's time guiding the Rebels, making it the winningest two-year stretch in the school's history as a Division I program. As a head coach, he has secured four postseason appearances in seven seasons, including two (2017 Texas Bowl, 2018 Liberty Bowl) bowl bids at Missouri.

His 19-8 mark with the Rebels bears significance in that the five seasons prior to his arrival (2017-22), UNLV won just 20 games. Impressively, his UNLV teams posted a 10-2 mark in true road games after the program only won eight total road games in the previous six seasons (8-25).

In just two seasons, Odom dramatically changed expectations in Las Vegas, with UNLV twice advancing to the MWC Championship Game after the program had not made a single appearance in the event prior to his arrival. Following Odom's first campaign in Las Vegas (9-5, 6-2 MWC), he was named the 2023 Mountain West Coach of the Year. He also earned distinction as the program's first-ever Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award finalist. The 2023 season culminated in an appearance in the Guaranteed Rate Bowl in Phoenix, Arizona.

Odom's adept tutelage saw three Rebels earn All-America status, and the program christened its first-ever First Team Academic All-American after the 2023 season. Back-to-back seasons of six First Team All-MWC honorees for the Rebels have occurred, including a school-record 12 combined recognitions between the conference's first and second teams in 2024. Incoming Rebels saw a boost in notoriety, as well, with Odom's 2025 signees ranking as the top class in the Mountain West.

Odom has also spent impactful tenures as a highly regarded defensive coordinator at Memphis (2012-14), Missouri (2015) and Arkansas (2020-22). For the Razorbacks, Odom served as associate head coach, defensive coordinator and safeties coach. His 2021 defense turned heads, as it allowed just 22.9 points per game – 12 points fewer per game than in 2020 and the fewest for an Arkansas defense since 2014. Focusing on the run defense, the unit evolved to allow just 153.9 yards per game, the fewest for Arkansas since 2015. Under Odom's watch, Arkansas' 18 takeaways during the 2020 campaign ranked 25th nationally. The Razorbacks' 13 interceptions were second most in the SEC and 13th most in the FBS.

During his first defensive coordinator job at Memphis in 2012, he transformed the Tigers into a defensive power. In 2014, his defense ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 points per game) and 22nd nationally in total defense (343.3 yards per game) to help the Tigers go 10-3. That marked an incredible turnaround for a Memphis team that ranked 117th in total defense prior to his arrival. The program improved defensively each year under Odom, rising from 50th nationally in total defense in 2012 to 39th in 2013 to 22nd in his final year.

Before moving to Fayetteville, Odom spent four seasons as Missouri's head coach, taking two of his teams to bowl games and finishing at .500 or better three times en route to building an overall record of 25-25 from 2016-19. His 2018 Missouri squad finished the regular season ranked 23rd in the College Football Playoff poll.

Regarded among the coaching fraternity for his steadfast pathway to the top, Odom was promoted to the head coaching role at Missouri following the retirement of Gary Pinkel, whom he worked for in numerous capacities while on staff at Missouri in two separate stints. From 2003-11, Odom served as graduate assistant, director of recruiting, director of football operations and safeties coach for the Tigers. Upon returning from his three seasons at Memphis, Odom served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2015 before his promotion ahead of the 2016 season.

Odom was born in Lawton, Oklahoma, and raised in Maysville, Oklahoma. He was a four-year letterwinner at linebacker for Missouri from 1996-99, helping the school make two bowl trips and serving as team captain during his senior season. He ended his MU career ranked in the program's all-time top 10 with 362 tackles.

Odom graduated from Missouri in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in education and earned his master's in education from the school in 2004. He and his wife, Tia, have two sons, JT and Garyt, and a daughter, Anna Lockwood.

RECAP

The Purdue football team opened its season with a runaway 44-19 victory over Indiana State at Ross-Ade Stadium.

The Boilermakers amassed 523 yards of offense, finding the end zone four times while adding three field goals and a pick-six. Junior quarterback Ryan Browne completed 23-of-29 passes for 317 yards and three touchdowns, recording the fourth 300-yard passing game of his career.

It marked Purdue's first 500-yard offensive performance since Browne's first career start at Illinois on Oct. 12, 2024.

After building a 16-6 halftime lead, the Boilermakers found the end zone on each of their first three drives of the second half before Browne was pulled with the game firmly in hand.

Senior defensive back Don Saunders added a 35-yard interception return for a touchdown, giving Purdue its first pick-six since 2022.

A crowd of 49,019 braved a 93-degree on-field temperature, making it Purdue's hottest recorded night game at Ross-Ade Stadium since at least 2000.

With the victory, head coach Barry Odom became the first Purdue head coach to win his first two season openers since Jim Colletto in 1991-92. The 44 points were also the most of the Odom era.

Asaad Waseem posted 107 yards and a touchdown on six catches, becoming the first Purdue receiver to eclipse 100 yards in a game since Arhmad Branch in the 2025 season opener.

NOTES TO KNOW

- Five Boilermakers scored touchdowns for the first time in their Purdue careers.
- The Boilermaker offense produced 523 yards of total offense, their first time eclipsing the 500-yard mark since 2024 at Illinois in Ryan Browne's first career start.
- 44 points were the most in the Barry Odom era to this point.
- Quarterback Ryan Browne moved into a tie with Elijah Sindelar for 11th on the 300-yard passing chart with his fourth game hitting the milestone.
- Asaad Waseem is the first 100-yard receiver for Purdue since Arhmad Branch in last year's season opener vs. Ball State. He became the first Boilermaker to eclipse 100 receiving yards in his Purdue debut since Charlie Jones vs. Penn State in 2022.
- Left guard Brock Brownfield became the first Purdue true freshman to start on the line in a season opener in school history.
- The Boilermaker defense held Indiana State running backs to 10 yards rushing on 11 carries.
- Don Saunders picked off QB Brady Allen on the second play of the fourth quarter and returned it for his first career touchdown. It was Purdue's first pick-six since Cory Trice at Indiana on Nov 6, 2022.
- True freshman kicker Jacobo Echeverria Lozano went three-for-three on field goals in his first collegiate game. His three field goals marked the most by a Boilermaker true freshman since at least 1995. Echeverria Lozano also went five-for-five on PAT attempts.

RECAP

The Purdue football team suffered its first loss of the season, falling to Wake Forest, 38-36, in double overtime.

The Boilermakers outgained the Demon Deacons 455-411, led by career performances from junior quarterback Ryan Browne and running back Fame Ijeboi. Browne completed 32-of-42 passes for a career-high 329 yards, while Ijeboi rushed for a career-best 27 attempts, 114 yards and three touchdowns.

Ijeboi became the first Boilermaker to score three rushing touchdowns in a game since D.J. Knox in the 2018 Tyler Trent Game against Ohio State. He also became the first Purdue running back since at least 1995 to score four touchdowns in his first two games as a Boilermaker.

Purdue jumped out to a 7-0 lead before Wake Forest responded with 17 unanswered points. The Deacons extended their advantage to 23-13 with 9:13 remaining before the Boilermakers rallied with a touchdown drive and a late field goal to force overtime.

After Wake Forest scored on its opening possession of OT, Purdue answered with a 9-yard touchdown reception by De'Nylon Morrissette to force a second OT.

Ijeboi added his third rushing touchdown of the game in the second OT, but Purdue missed the ensuing two-point attempt. Wake Forest then converted a 4th-and-15 and scored the game-tying touchdown before quarterback Gio Lopez ran in the game-winning two-point conversion.

Charles Correa led Purdue with 12 tackles, while Jeremy Lewis recorded 1.5 sacks. Jojo Hayden (11) and John Slaughter (nine) each notched career highs in stops.

NOTES TO KNOW

- It was Purdue's first overtime game since Northwestern in 2024 and its first double-overtime game since 2019.
- The Boilermaker offense has committed zero turnovers through the first two games of the season, marking just the third time since 2004 Purdue has accomplished the feat.
- Quarterback Ryan Browne completed 32-of-42 passes for a career-high 329 yards and a touchdown, becoming the first Boilermaker quarterback to throw for 300-plus yards in consecutive games since Aidan O'Connell in 2022.
- Browne recorded his fifth career 300-yard passing game, moving him into a tie for ninth all-time among Purdue quarterbacks. His 14th consecutive start also moved him into a tie for eighth all-time.
- Fame Ijeboi rushed for a career-high 114 yards and three touchdowns on 27 carries while adding six receptions for 42 yards. His three rushing touchdowns were the most by a Boilermaker since D.J. Knox in 2018.
- Ijeboi became the first Purdue running back since Ralph Bolden in 2009 to record 200 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns through the first two games of a season.
- Four different Boilermakers recorded at least five receptions, marking the first time Purdue has accomplished the feat since Syracuse in 2022.
- Charles Correa led the Boilermakers with 12 tackles, his sixth career double-digit tackling game, while Jojo Hayden and John Slaughter each set career highs with nine tackles.
- Kicker Jacobo Echeverria Lozano went 3-for-4 on field goals.

RECAP

The Purdue football team fell at UCLA, 52-38, late Saturday night at Rose Bowl Stadium.

The Boilermakers totaled 488 yards of offense, led by another career performance from junior quarterback Ryan Browne. Browne completed 19-of-30 passes for a career-high 378 yards and three touchdowns, becoming the first Purdue quarterback since Jim Everett in 1985 to throw for 300-plus yards in each of the first three games of a season.

Wide receivers Xavier Townsend and Asaad Waseem also posted career highs, becoming the first Purdue duo to each record 100-plus receiving yards in a game since David Bell and Milton Wright against Northwestern in 2021. Townsend caught six passes for 162 yards and two touchdowns, while Waseem added 149 yards on a team-high eight receptions.

Running back Fame Ijeboi scored two touchdowns out of the Wildcat formation, giving him six touchdowns through three games. That is the most by any player through their first three games as a Boilermaker since at least 1995 and the most rushing touchdowns by a Boilermaker through three games since Kory Sheets had eight in 2008.

UCLA scored on its opening possession before Purdue answered on its first play from scrimmage, when Browne connected with Townsend for a 75-yard touchdown. It marked the longest scoring play of the Barry Odom era and Purdue's first touchdown on its opening offensive play since 2015.

Browne later found tight end George Burhenn for a 30-yard touchdown, his first score since the 2023 season finale against Indiana.

NOTES TO KNOW

- Ryan Browne threw for 378 yards and three touchdowns, extending his career-best passing-yard total for the third consecutive week. He recorded his sixth 300-yard passing game at Purdue, tying Scott Campbell for eighth on the Boilermakers' all-time list.
- Browne and Jim Everett are the only Purdue quarterbacks to record three consecutive 300-yard passing games to open a season. Browne also became the eighth Boilermaker since at least 1995 to average at least 20 yards per completion in a game.
- Purdue surpassed 400 passing yards for the first time since a road game at Syracuse in 2022, finishing with 425 yards through the air, including 47 yards on Drennan's fake-punt pass.
- Xavier Townsend and Asaad Waseem became the first Purdue duo with 100-yard receiving games since David Bell and Milton Wright in 2021. Townsend posted career highs with 162 yards and two touchdowns, while Waseem added 149 yards.
- Townsend's 162 receiving yards were the most by a Boilermaker since Charlie Jones recorded 162 yards against Michigan in the 2022 Big Ten Championship Game. He also became the first Purdue player with multiple receiving touchdowns since Deion Burks in 2023.
- Townsend crossed 1,000 career receiving yards and opened the scoring with a 75-yard touchdown from Browne on Purdue's first play from scrimmage. It was the longest play of the season and the Barry Odom era.
- Fame Ijeboi rushed for two touchdowns, giving him six through three games. He joined Kory Sheets as the only Boilermakers with at least six rushing touchdowns through three games since 1995.
- Punter Dylan Drennan completed a 47-yard pass on a fake punt, the longest pass by a Purdue punter since at least 1995 and the longest by a Big Ten punter since 2001.

RECAP

The Purdue football team fell to No. 3 Notre Dame, 49-10, at Ross-Ade Stadium in the 90th meeting between the two programs.

Purdue quarterbacks Ryan Browne and Evans Chuba combined to complete 25-of-37 passes for 178 yards and one touchdown, while running back Fame Ijeboi led the Boilermakers with 41 rushing yards on 12 carries.

Chuba connected with senior receiver Bisi Owens for a 14-yard touchdown on Purdue's final drive, marking the first career passing touchdown for Chuba and receiving touchdown for Owens. Xavier Townsend led Purdue with five receptions while Tra'Mar Harris paced the team with 36 receiving yards. Eleven different Boilermakers recorded at least one catch.

Justin Denson Jr. led the Purdue defense with a career-high nine tackles, while Charles Correa recorded his first career interception in the third quarter. Correa's pick was the first thrown by Notre Dame quarterback CJ Carr this season.

Freshman kicker Jacobo Echeverria Lozano connected on a career-long 47-yard field goal in the third quarter, the longest made by a Purdue freshman since Carson Wiggs hit a 53-yarder at Ohio State in 2008.

Purdue punter Dylan Drennan averaged 52.2 yards on six punts, including a career-long 78-yarder in the fourth quarter. It marked the second-best single-game punting average in school history (min. 5 attempts), trailing only Cody Webster's 56.0-yard average against Indiana in 2010.

Notre Dame led 35-0 at halftime and finished with 444 yards of offense, including 267 passing and 177 rushing. A crowd of 52,723 watched the Fighting Irish retain the Shillelagh Trophy.

NOTES TO KNOW

- Quarterback Ryan Browne threw 18-for-28 for 111 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions.
- Browne is the third Purdue quarterback since 1995 to throw for 1,100 yards or more and 1 or fewer interceptions through the teams first four games, joining Kyle Orton in 2004 and Curtis Painter in 2007.
- For first time since 2004, the Boilermakers have thrown one interception through four games in a season.
- Evans Chuba threw 7-for-9 for 67 yards and one touchdown.
- Chuba found Bisi Owens in the endzone for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter. The touchdown was Chuba's first career touchdown and Owens' first at the FBS level. Owens previously recorded 11 touchdowns at the FCS level with Penn.
- The Purdue offense played the majority of the second half with three freshman on the offensive line: Terrell Berryhill Jr., Brock Brownfield and Rico Schrieber.
- Charles Correa recorded his first career interception early in the third quarter when he picked off C.J. Carr. It was Carr's first interception thrown this year.
- Jacobo Echeverria Lozano hit his lone field goal attempt of the day with a career-long 47-yard field goal in the third quarter.
- The 47-yarder was the longest field goal by a true freshman since Carson Wiggs hit a then-school-record 53-yarder at Ohio State on Oct. 11, 2008.
- Dylan Drennan punted six times for 313 yards with a 52.2 average.
- Drennan's 52.2 average was the second-highest single-game punting average by a Boilermaker in school history (minimum five attempts), just shy of Cody Webster program-record 56.0 yard-average against Indiana on Nov. 27, 2010.
- In the fourth quarter, Drennan booted a 78-yard punt for a touchback. It is the third punt by a Boilermaker since 1965 to go 78 yards or more.

RECAP

The Boilermakers totaled 345 yards of offense, matching Illinois' exact output, while converting all four trips to the red zone. The win brought home the Cannon Trophy, improving Purdue to 41-32-2 in the trophy series and giving the Boilermakers their eighth win in the past 11 matchups against the Fighting Illini. Purdue's defense held Illinois to 2-of-4 inside the 20 and made several critical stops late to secure the victory.

Ryan Browne returned to the site of his first career start and delivered another strong performance, completing 18-of-27 passes for 255 yards, a touchdown and a 158.2 passer rating. He connected with Tra'Mar Harris for a 21-yard touchdown in the second quarter after a pair of Jacobo Echeverria Lozano field goals gave Purdue an early 6-0 lead.

Asaad Waseem led the Boilermakers with 98 receiving yards on three catches, while Chauncey Magwood added four receptions for 54 yards, including a 31-yarder that set Purdue up at the 1-yard line in the fourth quarter. Antonio Harris scored from the Wildcat formation, and Browne added a two-point conversion to extend the lead to 24-10. Fame Ijeboi led Purdue's rushing attack with 19 carries for 65 yards.

The Boilermaker defense held Illinois to 2-of-6 on third down after halftime and forced a crucial fourth-down stop at the Purdue 17-yard line in the fourth quarter. Charles Correa, Jojo Hayden and Don Saunders tied for the team lead with six tackles apiece, while Correa and Keyshawn Burgos combined for the only sack by either team.

Following Harris' touchdown, defensive back John Slaughter intercepted Illinois quarterback Katin Houser at the Purdue 8-yard line to keep Illinois off the board. After the Illini cut the lead to 24-17, Purdue recovered an onside kick to seal the victory in front of a hostile, sellout crowd of 60,670.

NOTES TO KNOW

- Purdue has now won eight of its last 11 matchups with Illinois, including five of the last seven. The Boilermakers brought home the Cannon Trophy for the first time since 2023.
- Ryan Browne completed 18-of-27 passes for 255 yards and one touchdown, surpassing 4,000 career passing yards. He now has 4,179 yards, ranking 14th on Purdue's all-time chart after passing Hudson Card.
- Browne made his 19th career start and 17th consecutive start, moving within one of Caleb TerBush for 17th on Purdue's career starts chart. His 17-game streak is one shy of the school record shared by Mark Vitali and Kyle Orton.
- Purdue's opening drive lasted 15 plays and 8:12, marking the second-longest drive by plays and time over the last two seasons. Browne also connected with Asaad Waseem for a career-long 61-yard reception and Tra'Mar Harris for a 21-yard touchdown, his second career score.
- Eight Boilermakers caught a pass, led by Waseem with three receptions for 98 yards and Chauncey Magwood with four catches for 53 yards. Magwood's 31-yard reception set Purdue up for its game-winning touchdown.
- Fame Ijeboi led Purdue with 19 carries for 65 yards, while Antonio Harris scored on a one-yard Wildcat run for his first touchdown of the season and third of his career.
- Jojo Hayden led Purdue with six tackles in his return to Illinois, while Charles Correa added six tackles, 1.5 tackles-for-loss and half a sack. Correa and Keyshawn Burgos combined for their first sack of the season to stop an Illinois drive in the fourth quarter.
- John Slaughter sealed the victory with his first interception as a Boilermaker and fourth of his career.

RECAP

Purdue totaled 464 yards of offense while limiting Minnesota to 273, including just 27 rushing yards. The Boilermakers averaged 6.6 yards per carry and held the Gophers to 2.1, while earning a 27-10 advantage in first downs. The 41-13 victory gave Purdue consecutive Big Ten wins for the first time since the final two games of the 2022 season and marked its largest conference win since 2021.

Fame Ijeboi delivered a historic performance against his former team, rushing for 195 yards and three touchdowns on 31 carries. His yardage total ranks 15th in program history for a single game and was Purdue's highest by a running back since Markell Jones ran for 217 at Indiana on Nov. 25, 2017.

Ijeboi's nine touchdowns this season tie Kory Sheets (2006) for the most by a Boilermaker through six games since 1995.

Ryan Browne added 81 rushing yards and a fourth-quarter touchdown on seven carries while completing 14-of-24 passes for 159 yards and a touchdown to George Burhenn in the first quarter. Browne's 12-yard scoring run extended Purdue's lead to 34-13, while Burhenn recorded his second touchdown of the season.

Jojo Hayden led Purdue with seven tackles, followed by Charles Correa with six. Hayden recorded his first career interception at the end of the first half, preserving the Boilermakers' 20-3 advantage at the break, which was Purdue's largest halftime lead in a Big Ten game since Oct. 13, 2018, at Illinois (29-7). Purdue held Minnesota to the lowest rushing total in a Big Ten game against the Boilermakers since 2004, securing the 28-point victory in front of 48,599 fans at Ross-Ade Stadium.

NOTES TO KNOW

- Purdue earned consecutive Big Ten wins for the first time since 2022 and its largest conference victory margin since 2021.
- The Boilermakers rushed for 305 yards while holding Minnesota to 27, a 277-yard differential that was Purdue's largest since 2014.
- Fame Ijeboi rushed for career highs of 195 yards and three touchdowns on 31 carries against his former team. His yardage ranks 15th for a game in program history and was Purdue's highest since 2017. He also rushed for 131 yards in the first half, matching Minnesota's total offense.
- Ryan Browne completed 14-of-24 passes for 159 yards and a touchdown while adding 81 rushing yards and a score. His five career games with 50-plus rushing yards rank third among Purdue quarterbacks since 1996.
- George Burhenn caught a 15-yard touchdown pass on Purdue's season-long 98-yard scoring drive. De'Nylon Morrissette led Purdue with a career-high 51 receiving yards.
- Purdue's offensive line allowed no sacks, while the defense held Minnesota to 10 first downs, its fewest against Purdue since 2017. The Gophers recorded no rushing first downs.
- JoJo Hayden recorded his first career interception, while Charles Correa's seven pass breakups this season tie for the most by a Purdue linebacker in the last 20 years.
- Jacobo Echeverria Lozano made both field goals and all five extra points. Purdue's special teams also recovered a muffed punt to set up the offense inside the 10-yard line.

NOTES TO KNOW

- Purdue's series with Wisconsin is one of its oldest running matchups, starting all the way back in 1892.
- The Badgers have controlled the series over the last 18 meetings, winning all of them.
- The last two Purdue wins came back in 2000 and 2003, both matchups took place in Madison when Drew Brees and Kyle Orton were under center for the Boilermakers, respectively.
- Purdue's last win at home against Wisconsin was back in 1997. Billy Dicken completed 16-of-22 passes for 311 yards and three touchdowns in a 45-20 win at Ross-Ade Stadium.
