ABOUT THE HUSKIES

The Huskies are coming off a 19-14 (9-9 Big Ten) season where they broke a seven-year NCAA Tournament drought and made a First Four appearance. In its first year in the Big Ten, Washington won three of its first conference games, before closing the season on a five-game winning streak that culminated in the first Big Ten Tournament win. UW led the conference in all three shooting categories, shooting 49.5% from the field, 40.1% from behind the 3-point line, and 83.6% from the charity stripe. After registering the highest single-shooting field goal percentage in program history, the Minnesota Lynx selected Dalayah Daniels in the 2025 WNBA Draft.

THE TEAM

**Stats from 2024-25 season*

Returners:

Washington returns eight members from last season's team, including four starters — guard Sayvia Sellers, guard Hannah Stines, guard Elle Ladine, and guard Chloe Briggs. Other returners include guard Devin Coppinger, guard Teagan Brown, forward Shayla Gillmer, and forward Olivia Anderson. Sellers and Ladine both received 2024-25 postseason and 2025-26 preseason honors from the Big Ten conference.

Sayvia Sellers: An All-Big Ten Honorable Mention in 2024-25, Sellers scored in double-figures in 25 of 33 games and ended her season T-14th in the Big Ten in field goals made per game (5.8), T-10th in assists per game (3.9), and ninth in steals (1.8). She averaged 15.3 points in the 2024-25 campaign and recorded 30-point performances against Utah (12/14) and Michigan (1/15).

Hannah Stines: Stines contributed across the board during her junior campaign, including a career-high 28-point performance in State College to help power Washington to a crucial victory against Penn State (2/5). Stines recorded the second-most assists for the Huskies in 2024-25 with 2.7 per game. She set a new career-high in the category her junior season, registering 7 assists in a win against Rutgers (2/20).

Devin Coppinger: Coppinger made her Washington debut in the season opener, where she immediately made an impact with five points, two assists, and a rebound. She set a career-high against Furman (12/19) with 15 points, knocking down three 3-pointers. Coppinger added 11 more points and a career-high three assists against Indiana (1/27), while registering eight points in five additional games.

Teagan Brown: Brown got off to a fast start, contributing a career-high 14 points in a season-opening win against Seattle U (11/4). She was a critical contributor against Illinois (12/31), knocking down two 3-pointers and recording 10 points to close out Washington's first conference road trip with a win. Brown finished with five or more points in six other contests.

Chloe Briggs: Briggs knocked down almost every shot she took against Siena (11/10), recording 15 points on 7-of-8 shooting. She was a major contributor in a win against Penn State (2/5), recording 12 points, five rebounds and four assists. Briggs added 10 more points against Oregon (3/2), knocking down three 3-pointers.

Shayla Gillmer: In back-to-back contests, Gillmer registered eight points against Pacific (11/7) and Siena (11/10). She collected a season-high five rebounds and two assists against Furman (12/19).

Olivia Anderson: Anderson began her sophomore season with four rebounds, a block, and a steal to help power Washington to a win over Siena (11/10). Against Furman (12/19), she added four points, a block, and a steal. Anderson made her final appearance against Northwestern (12/28) before missing the remainder of the season with an injury.

Elle Ladine: A proficient scorer, Ladine knocked down 220 field goals her junior season — the eighth most in a single-season in program history. Behind 47.3% shooting from the field, 39.3% shooting from behind the arc, and 84.9% shooting from the line, she led the Big Ten in 3-point percentage in conference play (44.1%) and tied for second for 3-pointers made (45). Additionally, Ladine finished third in the conference in scoring (19.2 points per game), fifth in field goal percentage (51.5%), and eighth in points per game (17.0). With a career-high 40 points against Northwestern (12/28), she became just the fourth player in program history to reach that mark and one of only two players in the Big Ten to score 40 points in a game last season.

ABOUT THE HUSKIES

Newcomers:

Washington women's basketball welcomed three new Huskies on National Signing Day with ESPN.com's No. 14-ranked recruiting class. This is the third top 15 class in the last four seasons for Coach Langley and her staff. UW added four standouts to the program with Brynn McGaughy, Nina Cain, Sienna Harvey, and Daniella McLean, along with two transfers with Big Ten experience in Avery Howell (USC) and Yulia Grabovskaia (Michigan).

Brynn McGaughy: McGaughy joins the Huskies as the first five-star recruit under Tina Langley and the highest-rated recruit ever to commit to Washington. She garnered national acclaim after achieving perfection at nearby Central Valley High School in Spokane Valley, Washington. In her lone year with the school, McGaughy led the Bears to a 27-0 record and claimed a 3A state title in 2025.

Nina Cain: Cain joins the Huskies after cementing her status as one of the top players in Northern California. With McClatchy High School in Sacramento, California, Cain averaged 18.3 points, 9.2 rebounds, 3.0 assists, 2.2 steals, and 1.3 blocks her senior season, leading her team to the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section title over Folsom in the Golden 1 Center. Her best performance of the season came in that championship, when she recorded 22 points and collected 12 rebounds to lead the Lions.

Sienna Harvey: Harvey joins the Huskies with an impressive international resume in tow. A member of the Australian National Team in the FIBA U19 Women's World Cup, she averaged 5.8 points, 2.8 rebounds, and 3.2 assists to help her squad earn the Silver Medal. She dished out six assists in a dominant win against Argentina in the Round of 16, before adding five more against the United States in the championship, along with 11 points and four rebounds.

Daniella McLean: McLean is a highly regarded international prospect who burst onto the recruiting scene later than most. For the past four years, she has lived away from home, preparing to train and play in the United States. She recently broke Darrow School's record for blocks in a game with eight.

Avery Howell: A member of the FIBA U19 Women's World Cup 2025 All-Second Team, Howell enters her first season with Washington. Before transferring to the Huskies, Howell played a season with USC. She was an impact player in the NCAA Tournament for the Trojans and recorded her best performance of the season against Kansas State (3/29) in the Sweet 16, where she logged 18 points with four 3-pointers, eight rebounds, and four steals in 37 minutes. In a dominant win against Purdue (1/22), Howell was named Big Ten Women's Basketball Freshman of the Week after she contributed 18 points, knocking down four 3-pointers and all six of her free throws, while adding three steals.

Yulia Grabovskaia: Before transferring to the Huskies, Grabovskaia played a season with Michigan, where she made 33 appearances and recorded one start. In a four-game stretch, she recorded a double-figure point total against LIU (11/20), Long Beach State (11/24), and Virginia Tech (11/30). Grabovskaia finished just shy of a double-double against Akron (12/10), notching 12 points and nine rebounds in 14 minutes of action. She was a difference-maker in two meetings with Maryland, recording 11 points and five rebounds in the initial meeting between the two teams (2/17), before finishing 4-for-4 from the floor with nine points and five rebounds in the third round of the Big Ten Tournament against the Terrapins (3/7).

WASHINGTON HEAD COACH TINA LANGLEY - 5th SEASON

Tina Langley was named the 12th head coach of the Washington women's basketball program on April 5, 2021, and will enter her fifth season at the program's helm in 2025-26. Since her arrival, Langley has steered Washington back into the national spotlight and demonstrated her tact as a transformational leader. Unsurprisingly, her commitment to building an elite, values-based program has propelled historic change on Montlake and set a standard of excellence for the future.

Langley, who enters her 11th season as a head coach, has seen success at each of her stops and made incredible turnarounds her calling card. Inheriting a Washington team ranked last in the Pac-12, she wasted no time implementing a system that improved the Husky win total from 7 to 19 games during the 2022-23 season. The 12-game swing was the second-best improvement in program history. Two years later, during the 2024-25 season, Langley led Washington to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2017. Given the program's continued upward trajectory, ESPN included the Huskies in its 2025-26 Top 25 for the first time since 2016.

The confidence stems from an impressive debut for the Huskies in the Big Ten, where they led the league in field goal percentage (49.5%), three-point percentage (40.1%), and free throw percentage (83.6%) during conference play. Washington won three of its first four Big Ten games, before closing the season with a five-game winning streak — including the first conference tournament win for Langley in a 79-65 victory over Minnesota at the Gainbridge Fieldhouse. The Huskies were dominant on the offensive and defensive ends of the floor, recording 138 blocks — the second-most in program history — while scoring the most points since 2016-17 (2,379). Washington improved its field goal percentage for a third straight year, tying for seventh in the country with a 48% mark from the floor.
