September 12, 2026 - Vermillion, S.D.

Game Summary

Eastern Washington played its second road game of the season against a ranked South Dakota, falling to the Yotes, 41-23 in Vermillion.

The game was under control in the first quarter, with EWU trailing 7-0. USD blew the game open between the second and third quarters, scoring 21 unanswered points. They led 31-3 in the third quarter. The Eagles began to find their offense and broke through with their first touchdown, an 11-yard pass from Nate Bell to Kayden Stuit. The Yotes responded with another score to make it 38-10 early in the fourth. The Eagles struck right back as Bell found Wesley Garrett for a 28-yard strike. USD was held to a field goal on its next possession, but its lead grew to 41-17 and a little over 5 minutes remaining in the game. Eastern continued competing, driving 63 yards in 10 plays, completing the drive with a Malik Dotson 2-yard run. The deficit was too great to overcome and USD won the game. The Yotes out-gained EWU, 517 to 342, including gaining 272 rushing yards to control the clock.

AARON BEST

Aaron Best bleeds Eagle red. 2026 will be his 30th season with Eastern Washington football after stepping on campus as a freshman offensive lineman in 1996. After four years as a student-athlete, including two years as the team's starting center, the Tacoma native was hired as a student assistant in 2000 and steadily worked his way to the top, serving as an assistant coach under Paul Wulff and Beau Baldwin for 16 years before taking over in 2017.

Best earned the Big Sky Conference co-Coach of the Year in 2018 after guiding Eastern to a league co-championship and an appearance in the NCAA Division I Championship Game. He was also voted by fans nationwide as the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Coach of the Year by Hero Sports.

In his nine seasons as head coach, he has compiled a 57-47 record overall (.548) and 42-28 mark in the Big Sky (.600). His Big Sky winning percentages ranked second in program history since joining the FCS level (formerly Division I-AA) in 1984.

Eastern ranked in the top five in total offense in the FCS in five of his first six seasons at the helm, including ranking 1st in 2019 (524.8 yards per game), 2021 (554.5), 3rd in the 2021 spring season, and 4th in the 2023 season (417.6). The Eagles also ranked 2nd in overall scoring in 2021, 3rd in passing (399.4) and earned a 6-0 record on the road during the regular season, the best such mark since 1967. Although a 20-game winning streak at home on "The Inferno" came to an end in 2021. Best boasts an outstanding seven-year record at Roos Field of 30-13 (.698).

Best has coached 27 offensive linemen to All-America honors, 60 to All-Big Sky honors, 10 to senior bowl or all-star game appearances and two hear their name called in the NFL Draft. As a head coach, nine Eagles have received All-America recognition, including QB Eric Barriere, who was a two-time finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the most outstanding offensive player in the FCS. Barriere was twice named the Big Sky MVP and the team has earned 102 total All-Big Sky honors with Best at the helm, adding 30 Big Sky Player of the Week awards.

As a player, Best was a four-year contributor for the Eagles from 1996-99, serving as the long snapper for all four and starting center for his junior and senior seasons. He earned Big Sky First Team and All-America Honorable Mention honors as a senior, and All-Big Sky Honorable Mention recognition as a junior. A standout in the classroom himself, Best was twice named to the Big Sky All-Academic team and once to both the CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII Team and FCS Athletic Directors Academic All-Star Team (both in 1999). He earned his bachelor's in Social Science from Eastern in 2001.

TALKING POINTS

Quick Recap of '25

Eastern Washington finished 5-7 overall in the 2025 season and 4-4 in the Big Sky, tying for sixth in the final conference standings. The Eagles defended Roos Field well last season, going 4-1 at home. Starting off last season, Eastern had three-straight road games to start off the '25 slate. EWU faced a top-10 ranked Incarnate Word team on the road, falling 31-21. The team then faced Boise State, falling 51-14 to the Broncos. The Eagles nearly had their first win the next week against Northern Iowa, but came up short, 17-14 against the Panthers. Eastern returned to Roos for the season opener the following week against Western Illinois, delivering a 52-31 win for the home fans. EWU went back on the road to face eventual FCS national champion, Montana State, with the Bobcats dominating, 57-3. The Eagles then ripped off three-straight wins, including an upset of No. 24 Idaho, 21-14 at home. The winning streak also included a 35-27 victory over Portland State at home and a 23-20 road win over Weber State. The three-game winning streak was the team's first since the 2021 season. The win streak ended the next week against Sacramento State, with the Hornets knocking off the Eagles, 35-13 at Roos. With the team's record at 4-5, EWU traveled to Missoula, Mont. to face the second-ranked Grizzlies. Redshirt-freshman Jake Schakel made his first career start against the Griz, and played ahead of his years with 451 passing yards and two touchdowns in his first collegiate start. Despite the effort, the Griz held on for a 29-24 win. Back home, Eastern hosted Northern Colorado on senior, controlling the game against the Bears and tallying five interceptions. The Eagles sent the seniors off with a 27-7 win. In the 2025 season finale, EWU faced Cal Poly. The teams battled back-and-forth, but the Mustangs secured a home win, defeating Eastern 43-34.

Westside Showdown

Eastern Washington and the University of Washington will face each other for the fourth time in program history. UW holds a perfect 3-0 mark against EWU, with all games being played in Seattle. The teams last met in the 2019 season, with the Huskies dominating 47-14. The Huskies jumped ahead 21-0 in the first quarter and cruised to the home win. They had a 570-274 yards advantage in the game over Eastern. UW is 2-0 this season, but fell out of the AP Poll, while remaining 24th in the USA Today Coaches Poll. The Huskies defeated rival Washington State, 24-10, to start the season and then narrowly beat Utah State, 16-14, this past week. Head coach Aaron Best has been apart of all three of the matchups between Eastern and UW, with the first two as the offensive line coach (2011, 2014) and the most recent ('19) as a head coach.

He also rushed for 47 yards on 16 carries, a 3.4 yards per carry average. This season, Bell is 3rd in the Big Sky with 772 passing yards, while also ranking 3rd in completion percentage (63.8%). The Brentwood, Calif. native ranks 12th in the conference in rushing yards with 159 on 40 carries - 4.0 yards per carry. Bell is third in the Big Sky with 4 rushing touchdowns. Following Saturday's game, Bell has now passed for 2 touchdowns in 3 consecutive games. He has also passed for a touchdown in the last 7 games he has appeared in. EWU has a passing touchdown in 10 consecutive games.

Eastern Washington started 4 different quarterbacks last season and three of them are back on the 2026 roster. redshirt-junior Nate Bell, redshirt-sophomore Jake Schakel and sophomore Kaden Rolfsness return. Bell started 5 games in 2025, with Schakel starting 2 and Rolfsness starting the season finale against Cal Poly. Brady Annett joins the QB room after graduating from Corona Del Mar High School.

One More Final Ride

2025 was supposed to be Malik Dotson's final season, but the Arlington, Wash. native's season ended in the first game due to injuries. Dotson returns to Eastern for his final season in 2026 and has 563 career rushing yards. He rushed for 505 of them in the 2024 season, scoring 4 touchdowns. Dotson had 12 receptions for 153 yards that season as well. Against South Dakota, Dotson scored his 5th career rushing touchdown and his first since the 2024 season against Idaho State. EWU has rushed for 100+ yards in each game to start the season and has a rushing touchdown in the last 6 contests.

posting a long catch of 16 yards. Rylin Lang continued to develop, setting a career-best with 6 receptions for 54 yards, including a career-long 24 yard reception.

4th Time Scoring

Wesley Garrett pulled in his 4th career touchdown, catching 6 passes for 97 yards, just missing his first career 100-yard game. The 97 yards is career-best for the redshirt-senior. Garrett's touchdown catch went for 28 yards and he added a 42 yard reception, 2 yards less than his career long. As an Eagle, Garrett has 55 receptions for 713 yards in 28 games played. He averages 25.5 yards per game and 13.0 yards per catch.

Terrors of the Skies

Eastern Washington notched 15 interceptions last season, a figure that ranked 7th in the FCS and 2nd in the Big Sky. The 15 INTs helped the Eagles carry a +4 turnover margin last year, ranking 26th in the nation and 3rd in the conference. Jaylon Jenkins led the team with 5, while three players had 2 and four had 1. Ambrose Marsh grabbed the first 2 INTs of his career, while Dre Greeley returns with 1 to his name from last season. Marsh was thrown into the starting lineup last season and excelled, racking up 43 tackles - 33 solo - and 2 for a loss. He had 1.0 sack, 4 pass breakups and 1 forced fumble. True freshman Bryce Smith also found himself with more playing time than expected, making six starts and playing in 11 games. Smith was 6th on the team with 47 tackles, including 27 solo, while registering 2 for a loss. He had 0.5 sack and 3 pass breakups, adding one forced fumble. Greeley had 4 pass breakups and 11 solo tackles.

Bryce Smith continued his aggressive start to the season, recording 13 tackles, 1 shy of his career-best set in the season opener. The sophomore made 10 of his 13 tackles solo, while also grabbing his first career interception, stopping USD in the redzone. Smith has 4 passes defended this season, adding 3 pass breakups with his INT to rank 5th in the Big Sky. His 30 total tackles ranks 5th in the conference currently. EWU had 4 total pass breakups against the Yotes on Saturday.

Experience Across the O-Line

After entering the 2025 season with only one offensive lineman with starting experience, the 2026 offensive line is one of the most experienced units on the roster. Mark Johnson and Gavin Allen return after both starting all 12 games last season, with Johnson at center and Allen at guard. Allen is two seasons removed from switching positions from tight end. Additionally, Cole McGovern made 9 starts at guard last year, while Cole Abarca made 5 starts at guard. Kyle Stahlecker had 2 starts at guard before injuries, and Dane Gatterman started the team's final 3 games at guard. Eastern has started the same five players on the offensive line in each of its first three games. Allen continues at right tackle, while Johnson has moved to left guard. Dylan Scott takes over at center, while Gabriel Rzany holds the left tackle spot and Michael Gradle slides in at right guard.

On Point McKee

Soren McKee is putting on the Eagle red for the final season in 2026, and he is continuing to move up the all-time EWU lists. McKee is now 136-for-138 on extra points, with his made attempts now in sole possession of 3rd on the all-time list passing Seth Harrison. The redshirt-senior recorded 5 total points against USD, making 2 extra points and adding a 40-yard field goal. For his career, McKee has scored 235 points, passing Tony Griggs for 7th on the all-time list. McKee is 33-for-44(75.0%) on field goals at EWU, placing him 4th on made attempts and tied for 7th in attempts, while ranking 5th all-time in percentage.

Preseason Hype for Two Defensive Eags

Leading into the 2026 season, safety Jaylon Jenkins and defensive tackle Isaiah Perez are getting national attention. The two earned preseason All-American recognition from Stats Perform, with Jenkins on second team and Perez on the third. Jenkins and Perez earned the same recognition from Phil Steele's FCS All-American teams. The two were both named to the Big Sky preseason All-Conference team as well. Jenkins added a third preseason All-American honor from FCS Football Central, while also being listed on the Buck Buchanan watchlist, honoring the top defensive player in the nation.

The preseason recognition stems from Big Sky All-Conference honors in 2025 for both Jenkins and Perez. Jenkins earned first team honors after intercepting 5 passes, ranking 5th in the FCS and 2nd in the conference. Adding to the interception haul, Jenkins tallied 8 pass breakups to give him 13 passes defended on the season, ranking 16th in the FCS. The redshirt-junior was fourth on the team with 52 total tackles, including 39 solo and 2 for a loss. Perez led EWU wit 4.0 sacks - ranking 15th in the Big Sky - while posting 51 tackles(5th on team), 19 solo. The redshirt senior made his name on special teams, blocking 4 kicks - 3 field goals and 1 extra point - to tie for the national lead. The stat also set the EWU single-season record and Perez's 5 career blocked-kick mark is 2nd in program history, one behind Dylan Ledbetter (2016-19).

Big Sky Academic Champions

Eastern continued its tradition of academic excellence in 2025, earning the top team GPA among football programs in the Big Sky, carrying a 3.46 cumulative GPA. The team had 3 student-athletes with a 4.0 GPA and 52 with GPAs over 3.0. The tradition extended at the national level with seven student-athletes named to the NFF Hampshire Honor Society. The group included graduating seniors Dylan Conner, Landon Cooper, Aidan Corning, Noah Cronquist, Landon Ogles, Trevor Thurman and Nolan Ulm. Six Eagles also earned CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, with Conner, Cooper, Ogles, Thurman, Ulm and Jaylon Jenkins qualifying for the award. In addition, 37 student-athletes earned Big Sky All-Academic honors for the fall.
